Lord, it's difficult to crucify the old flesh (Gal. 5:24); I don't have the power in myself to do it. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} But if I don't die, I won't live; just as a seed falling into the ground must die to bring forth fruit, Jesus, You must do it for me. Amen.

²⁹Some who heard the noise thought it was thunder; others thought it was an angel speaking. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ³⁰Jesus answered, "This sound was for your sake, not Mine, the time for judgment of sin has come. 31Satan—the prince of the world—will be cast out. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ³²When I am lifted up on the Cross I will draw all to Me"; {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ³³Jesus said this to predict the way He would die. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 34The crowd was astonished answering, "We thought the Scriptures taught Messiah would live forever. Why are You saying the Son of Man must be lifted up in death? Are You talking about the Messiah?" {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ³⁵Jesus said, "My light will illuminate you only a short time. Learn from the Light while you can or else darkness will come and you'll be lost in it. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ³⁶While you have the Light, believe the Light and you'll become children of the Light." Then Jesus left and they couldn't find Him. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ³⁷Despite all the miracles Jesus did, most of the people did not believe Jesus was the predicted Messiah. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 38This fulfilled the prediction of Isaiah, who said, "Lord they don't believe, they don't accept Your miracles." {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ³⁹Indeed, they couldn't believe, as Isaiah said in another place, 40"God has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, lest they should see with their eyes and understand with their hearts, and turn to God and He save them."

⁴¹Isaiah said these words when he saw the Lord glorified, sitting on the throne (Isa. 6), and he was speaking of Jesus. 42Nevertheless many leading citizens believed on Jesus, but they didn't confess Him openly for fear of social pressure. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 43They were afraid of being excommunicated from the temple for they desired acceptance by people, more than from God. Jesus proclaimed loudly in the temple, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 44"Those who believe in Me also believe in the Father who sent Me. {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ⁴⁵And those who understand what I am saying also understand what the Father wants them to know. 46I have come as a light to all people, and those who believe in Me will not live in darkness. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ⁴⁷If anyone hears and understands My teachings, but rejects them, I will not judge them for I come to save all people. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 48But those who do not accept My teachings and reject Me, will be judged in the last day by what I've said; {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ⁴⁹the Father will judge him because the Father who sent Me told Me what to say, and His words give life eternal. 50 Therefore everything I am saying to you comes from the Father in heaven." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

Lord, I believe in You and will obey Your words for I know they give me eternal life. Amen.

John 13 Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

¹On Thursday night before the Passover supper, Jesus knew that His hour had come, the time for Him to die for the sins of the world. He would love His followers, having loved them to the end. ²After the supper the devil had already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot to betray Jesus. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ³Knowing the Father had put all things into His hand and that He had come from the Father, He knew He would return to the Father. {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ⁴Jesus arose from the table, laid aside His tunic, and wrapped a towel around Himself as a servant. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 5He poured water into the basin and began washing the disciples' feet and wiping them dry with the towel. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 6When Jesus came to Peter, the fisherman asked, "Will You wash my feet?" ⁷Jesus answered, "You don't understand now, but you'll understand in the future. {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} 8If I don't wash you, you'll have no part with Me." 'So Peter answered the Lord, "If that's the case, then not only my feet, but my hands and head." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 10Jesus answered, "He that is bathed all over, need only to have his feet washed; now you are clean, but not all of you." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ¹¹For Jesus knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} 12When Jesus finished washing their feet, He put His tunic back on and sat down with them and said. "Do you know what I have done for you?" {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, just as Jesus washed the feet of His followers, help me to be humble and serve others, so that I may follow Your example. I want to be humble as You are. Amen.

¹³"You call Me Master and Lord, and so I am. {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2} ¹⁴If I then Your Lord and Master have washed your feet, then you ought to be willing to wash one another's feet. {261

Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} 15I have given you the example to do to others what I have done for you. {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} 16I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; neither is the one sent greater than the one who sent him; {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁷if you know these things, happy are you if you do them. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} 18I have chosen all of you, but not all are of Me, that the Scriptures may be fulfilled, 'He that eats with Me, lifts up his heel against Me.' {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} 19I'm telling you before it happens, so when it comes to pass, {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ²⁰you will know I am your Messiah." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

Judas, the Betrayer

²¹Jesus was obviously troubled. Then He said, "I say to you, one of you will betray Me." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²²The disciples looked at one another, not completely understanding what Jesus meant. ²³One disciple was leaning on Jesus' chest; he was John, the disciple whom Jesus loved. 24Peter beckoned for John to find out who Jesus meant. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²⁵John, who was leaning on Jesus, said, "Lord, who is it?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²⁶Jesus answered, "He that dips his hand in the same dish that I dip, he is the one who will betray Me; it is good if that man were never born. When I dip the bread into the lamb stew, the one to whom I give it is the one." Then Jesus dipped the bread into the stew and gave it to Judas, but the disciples didn't understand because Judas sat in the place of honor, and it was the custom to give it to that person first. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁷After Judas received the bread, satan entered him, and Jesus said to him, "Do quickly what you are going to do." {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} 28None of the disciples understood what happened {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ²⁹because they thought Jesus said, "Buy what is needed for the Passover festival." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 30When Judas received the bread, he went out into the darkness; the night was spiritually black. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lord, may I never betray You with any deeds, thoughts, or attitudes. Amen.

Jesus and Peter

³¹When Judas left, Jesus was relieved saying, "Now is the Son of Man glorified and God is glorified in Him. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³²Since God the Father is glorified in the Son, He will also be glorified in Himself. ³³Children, I am going to be with you only a short time. You'll look for Me and won't find Me because where I'm going you cannot follow Me now. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ³⁴So, I'm giving you a new command that you love one another as I have loved you." {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³⁵By your love, all people will know you are My disciples."

Lord, I have difficulty loving some people. It's my old proud ego. Forgive my sin and remind me of Your love for me. You love everyone in the whole world and died for them. So take control of my heart and love others through me. Amen.

³⁶Peter asked, "Where are You going?" The Lord answered, "You cannot now go where I am going, but later you can follow Me." {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} ³⁷Peter answered, "Why can I not follow You now? I'll lay down my life for Your sake." ³⁸Jesus replied, "You only think you'll die for Me. I say to you, you will deny Me three times before the rooster crows." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

John 14 The Upper Room Discourse

¹Jesus told the eleven, "Do not let your heart be troubled. Hold on to your faith in God and your faith in Me. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²There are many rooms in My Father's house, if it were not true, I would have told you. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ³I am going to prepare a place for you there, and when I get it ready, I will come back for you and I'll take you to be with Me. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ⁴You know the way to the place I am going." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

⁵But Thomas responded, "No! We don't know where You are going, nor do we know how to get there." {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} Gesus said, I am the way to heaven, also I am truth and I am eternal life. You must come through Me to go to the Father." {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} Geschied in Prayer, Rev. 7:10} Geschied in Prayer, Rev. 7:10} Know the Father." {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10}

Lord, You said You'd come back to take me where You are. That's what I want. I want to live with You in heaven for all eternity. Amen.

⁸Philip disagreed, "We don't know what the Father looks like, so show us the Father so we can believe." {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15} 9Jesus answered, "I have been with you all this time, and I'm surprised you don't know the Father. He who has seen Me has seen the Father. {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} 10What I say are not My words, but they are from the Father who lives in Me. The Father also does the miracles that I do. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} 11Believe that I am in the Father, and He is in Me, or else believe it because you have seen My miracles. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ¹²I say to you he who believes in Me shall do the works that I do, and even greater ones, because I am going to the Father. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ¹³Whatever you pray, ask in My name, I'll do it so that the Father will be glorified in Me. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 14If you pray for anything in My name, I'll do it." {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13}

Lord, I come in the name of Jesus to ask my request. You said You would do it if I asked in Your name. I ask in Your name because You're in my heart and because Your blood has cleansed me and given me access to the Father; and because You're my intercessor. Amen.

¹⁵Jesus told them, "If you love Me, obey My commands, ¹⁶ and I will ask the Father to send you another person in My place. He will live in you forever. ¹⁷This other Person is the Holy Spirit, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} the third Person of the Trinity. The unsaved cannot receive Him because they do not believe in Him or know anything about Him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} But you will know the Holy Spirit because you believe in Me. He will dwell with you and be in you. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 18I will not leave you alone in the world; I will come to you. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} 19Shortly I will leave you because I'm leaving the world. But you will see Me later and because I live, you shall live also. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁰At that time you'll know I'm with the Father in heaven, but I'll be in you and you'll be in Me. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²¹Those who have My commands and keep them are the ones who love Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and those who love Me will be loved by the Father, and I will love them and I'll show Myself to them." {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

Jesus promised two things: first, He would come to live within our hearts when we are saved (our possession); second, we would be placed in Jesus in heaven (our position). The first means we have the life of Jesus in us. The second means we can be as close to the heavenly Father as Jesus, and in Him we get our prayers answered. That means Jesus is our intercessor. Lord, I have new life because I have Your life in me. But I also live in You, as You are seated at the right hand of the Father in heaven. Amen.

²²Judas—not Iscariot, but another disciple with that name—asked, "How can You show Yourself to us and not to the world?" {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ²³Jesus answered, "Those who love Me will obey My commands, and My Father will love them, and We will come to live in them. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ²⁴Those who don't obey My commands don't love Me. It's not just My Word they reject; it's the Father's Word. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁵I'm explaining these things to you while I'm with you, ²⁶but the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My place, will explain all spiritual things to you, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and will remind you of the things I said to you." {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18}

Lord, I need the Holy Spirit to help me learn Scripture and to remember the things You said in Your Word. Amen.

²⁷"I am leaving My peace with you, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} but not as the world gives, so don't be afraid of anything. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ²⁸Previously I told you I'm going away but that I'm coming back. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} Because you love Me, rejoice that I'm going to the Father. ²⁹I tell you this before it happens so you'll believe in Me when it does happen. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ³⁰I'll not be able to talk with you much more. The evil prince of this world is coming to try Me but don't worry, because he has no authority over Me. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ³¹I am going to do the thing the Father wants Me to do; that will show My love to Him. Now, let's leave this upper room." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

Jesus did supernatural miracles such as healing a leper and raising the dead. What could be greater than these miracles? A soul saved for all eternity is greater in an insurmountable measure. Because Jesus went to the Father, we can lead people to Christ. Lord, I want to be a soul-winner. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Give me a desire to win people to Christ, then help me use every opportunity possible to do it. Amen.

John 15

This intimate chapter is turned into a prayer for you to pray Scripture.

¹Lord Jesus, You are my true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ²You cut away any branches not growing fruit and prune back every branch that has fruit. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}. So Jesus, ³I am a healthy plant when I live by Your words. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 4I will abide in You as You abide in me. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} Just as a branch can't bear fruit unless it's attached to the vine, {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} so I can't produce anything unless I'm attached to You. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5Jesus, You are the vine, I am a branch, and as long as I remain attached to You, and You abide in me, I will bear plenty of fruit. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} 6Anyone who will not remain attached to You will be punished. He'll be like dead branches that are collected and thrown into a fire to be burned. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁷Jesus, when I remain settled in You, and Your words remain in me, I can ask what I want and You'll give it to me. Amen. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} 8Father, I want to glorify You by bearing much fruit. Then everyone will know I'm Your disciple. Amen. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I want to produce more fruit in my Christian life, and more fruit in my service. I want to abide in You so I can be fruitful. Amen.

⁹As the Father has loved Jesus, so He loves me. So I'll settle down to rest in His love to me. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} ¹⁰I will obey the commands of Jesus to remain in His love just as Jesus kept the Father's love to remain in His love. {80 Conditional-Praying, Matt. 8:2} ¹¹Jesus, you told me this so your joy would rest in me {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} and my joy would then be complete. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1}

¹²Iesus, You've commanded me to love one another just as You've loved us. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ¹³I can't have greater love for others than to lay down my life for them. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 14I am Your friend, Jesus, when I obey Your commands; {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁵You no longer call me Your servant because a servant doesn't know what his master does. But I am Your friend because I know what You are doing, You're doing what the Father told You to do. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ¹⁶I did not choose You, but You chose me and challenged me to go bear fruit. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} Now whatever I ask You, Father, in Jesus' name, You gladly give to me. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} ¹⁷Lord Jesus, again You command us to love one another, because the world will hate me and those who follow You.

¹⁸But the world hated You long before it hated me. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁹I do not belong to this world. I have separated from it, and therefore the world hates me. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ²⁰I remember what You said, "A servant is not greater than his master. Since they persecute Me, the world will persecute you." 21 They will hate me and persecute me because I'm Your disciple, and because they do not know the Father who sent You. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²²If You hadn't given the truth, the world wouldn't experience the guilt of their sin, but now they have no excuse. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²³Those who hate me hate My Father. ²⁴If You hadn't done miracles among them, they would have been blinded in their sins. Now they see and hate both You and the Father. {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ²⁵As written in the Scriptures, "They hated Jesus without a cause."

²⁶When the Holy Spirit comes—the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father—{224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} He will speak plainly to my heart about You. Then I can also speak plainly about You because You will speak through me and remove their blindness. {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} ²⁷Then I can bear witness because I have been with You.

Jesus promised if we would abide in His Word, our prayers would be answered. That means we live and ask according to Scripture to get our prayers answered. Lord, I will abide in the Word and let it control my life so I can get answers from You. Amen.

John 16

¹Jesus told us about coming persecution so our faith wouldn't be shaken. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 2He said that they will excommunicate me from their assemblies. There is coming a time when they will kill people like me, thinking they have served God. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ³They'll do this because they don't have true knowledge of Jesus or the Father. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 4Jesus did not originally tell His disciples about persecution because He was walking among them. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} But now that He is going away, they needed to be reinforced, so they wouldn't be shaken when it happened.

Lord, You said that the world would hate me, just as it hated You. Give me strength to endure persecution and live for You. Help me to do more than endure trials; give me victory over them. Amen.

⁵Yet none of His disciples asked, "Where are You going?" {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁶because they were distressed that He was leaving. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2} ⁷But it was a good thing for Jesus to go away, because if He hadn't left, the Holy Spirit would not have come. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

⁸But because Jesus left, He sent the Holy Spirit to convict the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 9The Holy Spirit will convict, causing people to see their sin because they do not believe in Jesus. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁰The Holy Spirit will convict, causing people to see their lack of righteousness, which will keep them out of heaven. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ¹¹The Holy Spirit will convict—cause people to see coming judgment because Jesus suffered for them on the cross. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 12Many more things could be said, but the disciples weren't ready to hear. 13Then Jesus told what the Holy Spirit will do for believers: when He comes, the Spirit of Truth, He will reveal to us everything that is truth. Then He'll guide us to understand truth. {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} The Holy Spirit will not be concerned with His own agenda, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} but He will bring glory to Jesus Christ, and He will reveal to us things to come. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ¹⁴All the Father's glory also belongs to Jesus; {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} this is the glory the Holy Spirit will reveal. 15 All things the Father has also belong to Jesus.

Lord, send the Holy Spirit to guide me into truth and to keep me from error. The world, the flesh, and the devil continually try to pull me away from You. Amen.

¹⁶In a little while Jesus will leave His disciples and they will see Him no longer in the flesh. But a short time later they will see Him. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁷The disciples did not understand what Jesus meant about leaving them and then coming back to them. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ¹⁸They were puzzled over His leaving in a little while. 19Jesus knew they wanted to question Him, so He said plainly, "In a short time you'll see Me no longer. Then a short time later you'll see Me again." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²⁰Then Jesus explained, "You will weep when I'm gone, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} but the world will rejoice. But your weeping will be turned to rejoicing. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²¹It'll be like a woman suffering in childbirth, but when her child is born, she forgets about her suffering." {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ²²Jesus explained they would be sad, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} but when they see Him again, they would be full of joy, a joy that no one could take from them. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ²³When that day comes, they won't have any questions to ask Jesus. They can go directly to the Father with their questions. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ²⁴Jesus then promised that whatever we ask in His name, the Father will give it to us. Up until then the disciples hadn't prayed in Jesus' name, now we can ask in Jesus' name and we'll receive answers so that our joy will overflow. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²⁵Up until that time Jesus used figures of speech and parables, but the time had now come when He spoke plainly. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁶When that day comes—and now is—we can ask the Father in Jesus' name, {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} and Jesus will pray to the Father for us. ²⁷The Father loves us because we have loved Jesus {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ²⁸and we know that Jesus came to the world from the Father. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1}

Jesus told His disciples, "Until now you have asked nothing in My name" (John 16:24). That meant Old Testament praying differs from New Testament praying. What was new? Now, prayer must be in Jesus' name which means: (1) we go to the Father through Jesus, our Intercessor and High Priest, who sits at the right hand of the Father. Jesus sifts out unbiblical requests and presents them properly; (2) our sins have been forgiven by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7), so we pray in Jesus' name; (3) Christ indwells us to motivate us to pray to the Father. Lord, before I was saved, I couldn't come to You in Jesus' name. Now that I am Your child, I come to You through Him. Also, I enter the New Testament world of grace that gives me access to You. Amen.

²⁹The disciples said, "Now we believe You came from the Father. You are not using figures of speech. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ³⁰Now we understand." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ³¹Jesus said, "You only think you understand. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ³²The time is coming when you will be scattered to your homes, leaving Me alone." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ³³Jesus said, "I have told you this so you will have peace in the world. But you will also have trials, so have faith I have conquered the world." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

John 17 A Prayer to Be Glorified

¹After Jesus left the upper room, He lifted His eyes to heaven and prayed, "Father, My hour is come. Glorify Thy Son so I can glorify You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²I pray that those You have given Me will have eternal life. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} 3Eternal life is in You, the only true God, and is found in Me, the One You sent to earth. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 4I have glorified You on earth and accomplished the work You sent Me to do. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 5Now Father, glorify Me with the glory I had in heaven which I had with You before the world was created." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord Jesus, You asked for the Father to glorify You with the previous glory You had in heaven. But I ask for more glory for You because You were born of a virgin. You lived without sin. You suffered for my sins, and You ascended back into heaven leading a victory parade of all Old Testament believers. I glorify You as my new High Priest seated at the right hand of the Father to intercede for me. I now glorify You as the God-Man. Amen.

6"I have given Your name to the men You gave Me. They were Your men and You gave them to Me and they have faithfully kept Your Word. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷They know the things You told Me to do because I told them what You said to Me. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 8They have received Your Word and they believe it, and they believe I came from heaven to do Your will. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 9I pray for these disciples that You have given Me, but I do not pray for the world. {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13} ¹⁰All things that are Mine are Yours, and I am glorified in these disciples. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 11I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, so I pray for them. I pray, Holy Father, that You would keep them safe, that they may be one, as We are One. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 12While I was with them, I kept them {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}—guarded them—and not one of them is missing, except the son of perdition {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} who fulfilled Scripture by betraying Me. ¹³Now I come to You, Father, that they may have joy. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ¹⁴I have given them Your Word, and the world hates them because they reject the world, even as I am not of the world. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3 15I am not praying for You to take them out of the world, but that You would keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not of this world just as I am not of this world. ¹⁷Make them holy by Your Word, because Your Word is truth. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹⁸I am sending them into the world, even as I was sent into the world. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ¹⁹I set Myself apart from heaven for them, now may they be set apart to reach others. {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1}

²⁰"I am not praying for these disciples only, I'm also praying for those who will believe because of their word. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²¹I pray that all believers may be one as You and I are One. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²²And the glory You gave Me I give them so they may also be one as We are. ²³I am in them, as You are in Me, {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} so that the world may realize You sent Me, and You love Me and You love them. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ²⁴Father, I want them to be with Me in heaven, that they may see My glory that I've had before the foundations of the earth. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ²⁵O Father, the world does not know You, but I have known You and made You known to these disciples ²⁶that the love You have for Me may be in them, and I in them, and they in Me." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

Lord Jesus, You prayed for me to be one with other believers on earth. That's a glorious prayer because it prefigures what we will be like in heaven. But it's a difficult prayer for me to visualize because Christians are so divided on earth over various doctrines, programs, denominations, and even personalities and racial traits. Lord, can it ever happen on this side of glory? I pray that it will. Amen.

John 18 Jesus Betrayed, Arrested, and Forsaken

¹After Jesus spoke these words, He and His disciples went over the Brook Kidron and entered a garden. ²Judas knew the place where Jesus often went to pray, {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2} 3so he led Roman soldiers and officers from the religious leaders with lanterns, torches, and weapons to arrest Jesus. 4Jesus knew what was happening so He met them and asked, "Who are you looking for?" {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁵They answered, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus responded, "I am He," His statement of deity. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁶Then the Roman soldiers and Jewish guards were driven backward to the ground. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ⁷Again Jesus asked, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 8Jesus answered, "I told you, I am He. Since you want Me, let these go." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 9Thus prophecy was fulfilled: "I lost none of those that You gave Me." Judas had given them a sign that Jesus would be the one whom he kissed. So when Judas kissed Jesus, and said, "Arrest Him," the Master said, "Are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?" {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁰As the guards moved forward to take Jesus, Simon Peter, having a sword, cut off the right ear of Malchus, the high priest's servant. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹¹Jesus answered, "Put up your sword, for I must drink the cup of suffering the Father has for Me"; then Jesus touched him and healed him. {326 Non-Violence Prayer, Luke 6:28}

The King James Version describes this place where Jesus "oft times resorted thither" (John 18:2). Jesus went to the place to pray where He was comfortable because the topic of His prayer was extremely uncomfortable. He was going to wrestle with the sin debt of the world. {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} No human can ever conceive of Jesus' agony when the perfect Sinless One was being made sin (more than taking on sin) for us. Lord, I marvel to see You agonize in Gethsemane with the sin of mankind; You, the Holy One, were becoming my sin. How can I say thanks, and how can I respond, except in worship. Amen.

¹²They grabbed Jesus and bound Him, but He responded, "Have you come out in the middle of the night to arrest a thief? I sat daily in the temple, but you didn't arrest Me." This came to pass because it was predicted in Scripture. Then the disciples left

Jesus and fled into the night. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Lord, may I always stand courageously for You and not run away as the disciples did. Amen.

The First Trial—Before Annas, the Former High Priest

¹³The soldiers and guards led Jesus bound to Annas the former high priest who was deposed for his corruption. Caiaphas, his son-in-law, was put in that office. 14Now Caiaphas was the one who counseled the Jewish leaders that it was expedient for one man to die for the people. 15Simon Peter followed Jesus along with John. Since John was known by the servants in the high priest's home, he was allowed to enter, 16but Peter was kept out. Then John vouched for Peter and he was allowed to enter the courtyard. ¹⁷The girl at the door said to Peter, "Aren't you a disciple of Jesus?" Peter said, "No!" 18Then Peter warmed himself by a fire, for it was cold. He was standing with the others by the fire. 19Annas asked Jesus about His disciples and what He taught. 20 Jesus answered, "I spoke openly in synagogues and the temple and I kept back nothing secretly. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²¹Ask those who heard Me what I taught." ²²When Jesus answered this way, an officer struck Jesus with his hand, saying, "Why did You answer the high priest that way?" ²³Jesus replied, "Tell Me if I have spoken evil; if not, then don't strike Me." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

Lord, thank You for being faithful at Your trial, though You never sinned; You died for my sin. Amen.

²⁴So Annas sent Jesus, still in handcuffs, to Caiaphas the high priest. ²⁵But Simon Peter was still warming himself when someone said to him, "Are you one of His disciples?" He denied it and said, "No, I am not." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁶One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the one who cut off Peter's ear said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with Jesus?" ²⁷Again Peter denied it, and immediately a rooster crowed. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

The Second Trial—Before Caiaphas

²⁸They led Jesus from Caiaphas to the judgment hall—the courtroom—in Pilate's place. It was early morning and they would not go into a Gentile's house because that would defile them, and they would be unfit to eat the Passover meal. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3}

The Third Trial—Before Pilate

²⁹So Pilate came outside and asked, "What charge do you bring against this man?" {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ³⁰They answered, "If He had not broken the law, we would not have brought Him to you." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³¹Pilate told them, "You take Him and try Him in accord with your religious laws." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer,

Matt. 6:5} ³²But the Jews answered, "It is not legal for us to execute anyone." This fulfilled the prophecy of Jesus that He indicated He would die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 33So Pilate went back into the judgment hall to call for Jesus and asked, "Are You the King of the Jews?" ³⁴Jesus answered him, "Are you asking Me this on your own or have others put this question in your mind?" {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ³⁵Pilate answered, "I don't think like a Jew. Your people and their high priests have brought You here. What have You done?" {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ³⁶Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not in this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would have fought to keep Me from being arrested. So My kingdom is not about this world." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ³⁷Then Pilate retorted, "Then You are a King?" Jesus answered, "Yes, I am a King. For this purpose I was born, and for this purpose I have come into the world, to give them the truth. Everyone who seeks truth will listen to what I say." {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ³⁸Pilate asked Him, "What is truth?" Then he went outside again to the Jews to tell them, "I have no grounds to try this man." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Pilate had just asked, "What is truth?" He was probably asking a philosophical question to direct the conversation from the real issue. Jesus was standing before Pilate, and Pilate had to judge the truthfulness of what Jesus had just said. Pilate didn't realize Jesus was the truth. Then unknowingly, Pilate declared a truth-statement: "I find no fault in Him" (John 18:38). Lord, I agree with Pilate, "I find no fault in Jesus." He was perfect in action and nature. Jesus is the perfect Savior. The only sin I find in Jesus is my sin. He became sin for me, dying for my sin. Amen.

³⁹Pilate told them there was a custom to set one man free at Passover. He asked, "Do you want me to set free the King of the Jews?" ⁴⁰Then they yelled and chanted, "No! Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

John 19 The Death of the Son of God

¹So Pilate had Jesus scourged. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²Then the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns to place on His head. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ³Then they put a purple coat on Him, and mocked Him saying, "All hail, King of the Jews!" {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

The world has its fake worship of Christ when there's prayer by a public official or some other "empty" recognition of Christ. It could be a testimony or Christian symbolism by athletes. No matter the motivation, it's just as vain as the crown of thorns put on Christ. It's nothing but sarcastic mockery of Christ. Lord, keep me from praying when I do it for public show, or for any other motivation that's not from the heart. Remind me that prayer is real communication with You. Amen.

⁴Then they slapped Him on the face. And Pilate went outside again to the Jews and said, "I am going to bring Him out so you can see that there are no grounds to try Him." 5So Jesus was brought out still wearing the crown of thorns and purple coat. Then Pilate announced, "Look at this man!" {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} But the high priests and temple officers glared at Jesus and shouted to stir up the crowd, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate answered, "You take Him and crucify Him for I find no ground to try Him." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁷The Jews answered, "We have a law, and He has broken God's law. He deserves to die for claiming to be God's Son." 8When Pilate heard that statement, he was more afraid than before {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 9and went back into the judgment hall to ask Jesus, "Where are You from?" but Jesus did not answer. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3 10Then Pilate said, "Why do You refuse to speak to me? Don't You know that I have the authority to free You or crucify You?" {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} 11Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all over Me if authority had not been given to you from above. So the one who betrayed Me has the greater sin." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 12Pilate kept looking for a reason to set Jesus free, but the Jews shouted, "If you set Him free, you are not a friend of Caesar. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ¹³Anyone who claims to be a king is speaking treason against Caesar." When Pilate heard the charge of "treason," he had Jesus brought out. 14Then Pilate sat on the judge's bench at the place called the stone platform, or in Hebrew, gabbatha. It was the day of preparation for the Passover and it was about six o'clock in the morning. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁵Then Pilate said to the Jews, "Look at your King!" But they shouted, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Do you want me to crucify your King?" The high priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 16Then Pilate turned Jesus over to them to be crucified. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

The Crucifixion of Christ

¹⁷So they led Jesus, carrying His cross to a place called "the Skull," or in Hebrew, Golgotha. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁸There they crucified Him, with two criminals, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹Pilate had the legal indictment written and nailed to the cross: "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁰Now many of the Jews read this sign, because Jesus was crucified near the city. ²¹It was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. So the high priests of the Jews demanded of Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but write, 'He said, "I am the King of the Jews."" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²²Pilate refused, saying, "What I have written, I have written!" {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²³After the soldiers crucified Jesus, they divided His clothes into four parts, one for each soldier. But the coat, woven without a seam, was expensive. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁴So they agreed, "Let us not cut it up, but let us cast lots to see who gets it." This fulfilled Scripture, "They divided My clothes among them, and for My clothing they cast lots." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ²⁵His mother and her sister, and Mary, the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala were standing near Jesus' cross. ²⁶So when Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved, John, standing near her, He said to His mother, "There is your son." {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ²⁷Then He said to John, "There is your mother." From that time on, John took Jesus' mother to his own home. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ²⁸When Jesus knew that the end was near, He said, "I am thirsty." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁹Some vinegar was there. So they soaked a sponge in some vinegar and put it to His lips. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 30As soon as Jesus tasted the sour vinegar He said, "It is finished!" Then He bowed His head and gave up His life. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

Lord Jesus, You thirsted in death for me. Forgive me when I don't thirst to know You and love You for giving Yourself for me. Forgive me for thirsting for the world's entertainment or for selfish recognition. Make me thirsty for You. Amen.

³¹It was the day of preparation for the Passover, so they did not want the bodies to remain on the crosses during the Sabbath. Therefore the Jews asked Pilate to break their legs and take down their bodies. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ³²The soldiers broke the legs of the first and second thieves who had been crucified with Jesus. 33But they saw that Jesus was already dead, so they did not break His legs. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁴However, one of the soldiers thrust a lance into His side, and blood and water flowed out. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} 35The man (John the Apostle) who saw this testified to it. And his testimony is true, and he knows it is true so that the reader may believe it. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ³⁶This fulfilled Scripture, "Not a bone of His was broken." ³⁷It also fulfilled another Scripture, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16}

The Burial of Christ

³⁸After this, Joseph of Arimathea, a secret disciple of Jesus for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate if he could remove the body of Jesus, and Pilate said yes. So Joseph took down Jesus' body. {163 Fear of God-Praying,

Heb. 5:7} ³⁹Also Nicodemus, who came to Jesus by night, brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes of about one hundred pounds to anoint the body. ⁴⁰So they wrapped the body of Jesus in swathes of cloth and anointed it with spices, in accord with the Jewish custom of preparing a body for burial. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ⁴¹There was a garden near the place where Jesus had been crucified. There was a new tomb in the garden where no one had yet been buried. ⁴²So, because it was the Jewish Preparation Day and because the tomb was there, they laid His body there. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

John 20 Peter and John Visit the Tomb

¹On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. It was still dark because it was early in the morning. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²She saw the stone was removed, so she ran to tell Simon Peter and John, the disciple whom Jesus loved. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 3"Someone has taken away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know what they have done with the body." ⁴So, Peter and John ran to the tomb; the younger John outran Peter. 5John looked inside the tomb and saw the linen cloths still wrapped together, but he didn't go in. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ⁶Peter didn't stop, but ran straight into the tomb and also saw the {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 7linen cloths together and the death mask lying at another place. ⁸Next, John entered the tomb and examined everything. ⁹Then he believed that Jesus had risen from the dead, {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ¹⁰and they returned to their house. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

Lord, I believe You arose physically from the dead; the empty tomb proves that You arose from the dead. Amen.

Mary Returns to the Tomb

¹¹Later that morning Mary Magdalene returned to the tomb; she wept as she looked into the tomb. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 12Then she saw two angels clothed in white sitting at the head and feet where Jesus' body had lain. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 13"Woman, why are you crying," the angels asked. She answered, "Because they have taken away my Lord and I don't know where He is." {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} 14Someone was standing in back of her, but she didn't know who it was. She thought he was a gardener, so she asked, "If you have taken His body away, tell me where it is and I will take Him away." {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 15It was Jesus who said, "Mary." Her blindness was taken away and she called Him, "Rabboni," an old Hebrew word for "respected master." {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} 16Jesus said, "Quit clinging to Me as though things will continue in the future as they were in the past." {259

Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁷Jesus explained, "I must go to My Father in heaven; He is also your Father. He is My God and your God." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

Mary loved Jesus so much that she wept when seeking His body. Don't outward tears reflect our inner emotions and don't tears reflect our sincerity? When was the last time you cried when praying? Lord, forgive my hard heart. Touch my heart and make me weep in love for You and others. Amen.

¹⁸Mary returned to Jerusalem to tell the disciples, "I have seen the Lord." Then she told them all the things Jesus said to her. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Christ Appears to the Disciples

¹⁹In the evening of resurrection day—the first day of the week-the doors of the room were locked where the disciples had gathered for fear of the Jews. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁰Jesus came to stand in the midst of them and said, "Peace to you!" {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ²¹Then He let them examine His hands and His side, and so the disciples were filled with confidence and joy over seeing their Lord. Then Jesus said again, "Peace to you! Just as the Father has sent Me into the world, so I am sending you into the world." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²²Jesus breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit, who will teach you and use you, just as He has done throughout past ages.

He will be with you until you are endued with His power. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²³Those you lead to faith will have their sins forgiven and those who reject Christ will retain their sins." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4}

There's a time to weep when we are brokenhearted, and there's a time to laugh when we're happy (Eccl. 3:4). When Jesus appeared to the disciples in the upper room, they were "overjoyed" (John 20:20, Phillips). That means they "laughed and were happy." It's alright to show abundant joy in prayer. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} Lord, I remember the times I was overjoyed in prayer. Thank You for laughter and happiness. Amen.

²⁴Thomas, the disciple called Didymas—a twin—was not there. ²⁵The disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." He said, "I must see the nail prints in His hands, and put my hand into the wound in His side; otherwise, I will not believe." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, I'll not demand physical assurances to believe; I know You are the crucified Son of God who died for me. Amen.

The Upper Room One Week Later

²⁶Eight days after Passover, the disciples gathered again in the upper room on a Sunday evening and Thomas was with them this time. The doors were locked but Jesus again stood among them and said what He said last Sunday, "Peace to you!" {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁷Jesus spoke first to Thomas, "Reach your finger to touch My wounds and place your hand in the wound in My side. Don't doubt, but believe." {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} ²⁸But Thomas didn't do it, he answered, "You are my Lord and my God." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁹Jesus said, "God will bless you because you have seen Me and believe. But God will also bless those who haven't seen Me, and yet believe." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

³⁰Jesus did many miracles that were not written in the gospels, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ³¹but these miracles are written that people will believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and when they believe, they will receive eternal life. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10}

I believe that Jesus is the Son of God and so I have eternal life. Amen.

John 21 Jesus Appears on the Lake Shore

¹A week later, on Sunday, Jesus appeared to seven disciples on the shore of the Sea of Galilee; ²Simon Peter, Thomas, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two disciples of His were together. ³Simon Peter had announced, "I am going fishing" and those who went with him were Thomas, Nathaniel, James and John,

Andrew, and Phillip. They got into a boat and fished all night, but caught nothing. When the day was breaking, {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ⁴Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples didn't know it was Jesus. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ⁵Jesus yelled to them, "Have you caught any fish?" They answered Him, "No!" {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

The idea of night suggests darkness, loneliness, and despair; but then comes the morning of optimism and the prospect of a new day and new opportunities. The disciples fished all night and "caught nothing," then came morning when Jesus appeared to them. If we will meet Jesus every new morning with prayer, even when we "know not that it was Jesus" (John 21:4), then He will appear to us. Lord, I still get discouraged when the "night" of darkness closes in, so come to me each new morning. Meet me as I come to You in prayer. Prepare me for the morning and new opportunities. Amen.

⁶Jesus answered, "Cast the net on the other side of the boat and you will catch fish." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷They cast on the right side and couldn't draw in the fish because there were so many. So John said to Peter, "It's the Lord." Peter put on his tunic and dove into the water to swim to Jesus. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ⁸The other disciples came in a little boat, for they were 100 yards from the beach. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ⁹When they got to shore, they saw a charcoal fire cooking fish and there was also bread. ¹⁰Jesus said, "Add the fish you've caught to these." ¹¹Simon Peter went and pulled the net to land. It had 153 fish in it, yet the net didn't break. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²Jesus said, "Come eat, break your fast." {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} ¹³No one asked who it was, for they all knew it was Jesus. He served all of them breakfast. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁴This was the third Sunday that Jesus appeared to them. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

Peter Restored

¹⁵After breakfast Jesus said, "Simon, Son of Jonah, do you love Me more deeply than you love these nets?" Peter answered, "Lord, You know that I like and admire You." Jesus answered, "Feed My lambs." {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} ¹⁶Jesus said to him a second time, "Simon, do you deeply love Me?" Peter answered, "Lord, You know that I like and admire You." Jesus answered, "Tend My sheep." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹⁷Jesus said a third time, "Simon, do you really like and admire Me?" Peter was ashamed the Lord asked him three times. because he denied the Lord three times, and because he only said he liked and admired the Lord. So Peter answered, "Lord, You know everything, and You know I really like and admire You." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ¹⁸Jesus said, "Feed My sheep." Then Jesus predicted, "When you were young, you were able to dress yourself, and go where you wanted. But when you get old, they will stretch your hands out on a cross and they will clothe you with what they choose, and lead you where they want to go." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁹By this Jesus was saying Peter would die as a martyr. Then Jesus concluded, "Follow Me." ²⁰Then Peter turned around and saw John who also leaned on His breast at the supper saying, "Lord, who betrays You?"

What's in the heart must have an outward expression. Don't we express our love to another with hugs, kisses, gifts, and physical expressions? So, we should tell the Lord we love Him, just as Peter had to answer the question, "Do You love Me?" (John 21:15). Lord, I love You; forgive me for the times I've been cold and indifferent. I love You from the bottom of my heart. Amen.

²¹Peter turned to John and asked Jesus, "What about him?" {251 Interchange with God, Gen. 18:23-33} ²²Jesus said, "If he lives till I return, how does that concern you? You must follow Me." This statement made many think John would live until Jesus' return. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²³But Jesus didn't say John wouldn't die; He only said, "If he lives till I return, how does that concern you?"

²⁴This disciple testified and wrote these things and his testimony is true. ²⁵Jesus did many other things; if they were all written the world couldn't contain the books that could be written. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, I really love You with all my heart. Give me courage to tell everyone of my devotion to You. Amen.

Acts

Сн 11566
CH 2: THE COMING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT1568
CH 3: HEALING A MAN BORN CRIPPLED1571
Ch 4: The Apostles Arrested1573
Ch 5: The Sin and Judgment of Ananias and Sapphira1575
Ch 6: Internal Problems in the Early Church 1578
Ch 7: The Sermon by Stephen1579
Ch 8: Christians Leave Jerusalem1582
Ch 9: The Conversion of Saul1585
CH 10: GOD SENDS A MESSAGE TO CORNELIUS1587 CH 11: PETER EXPLAINS HIS ACTIONS TO THE
Jerusalem Church1590
CH 12: JAMES KILLED—PETER IMPRISONED1592
Ch 13: God Called Barnabas and Saul to Be Missionaries1593
Сн 14: Ін Антіосн1596
CH 15: THE FIRST CHURCH COUNCIL1598
CH 16: PAUL RECRUITS TIMOTHY1600
Ch 17: The New Church at Thessalonica and Berea1603
Ch 18: Paul at Corinth1605
CH 19: PAUL'S MINISTRY IN EPHESUS1607

CH 20: Paul's Last Trip to Ephesus	.1609
CH 21: PAUL GOES TO JERUSALEM	.1611
CH 22: PAUL SEEKS TO A CROWD IN JERUSALEM	.1613
CH 23: PAUL BEFORE THE JEWISH COUNCIL	.1614
CH 24: PAUL BEFORE FELIX	.1616
CH 25: PAUL BEFORE FESTUS	.1617
CH 26: PAUL BEFORE KING AGRIPPA	.1619
CH 27: Paul's Trip to Rome	.1620
CH 28: FROM MALTA TO ROME	1622

ACTS

Key Words: Prayer, Witness, Holy Spirit, Church (see Acts 1:8, 14; 2:4, 47)

Key Verse: "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8).

Theme: The author Luke continues writing about the record he began in the gospel of Luke (Luke 1:1, 2). What Jesus began in the gospels results in the formation and spread of the church in Acts. The four key words explain the success of the new church. It all began with the first words, earth-shaking prayer. God responded to the intercession of His people in the upper room by filling them with the Holy Spirit. The gospel was spread by all believers witnessing (second word) to everyone, every place they went. The Holy Spirit was the power that worked in and through all believers who spread the message of the gospel at all times. The result was the formation of the church (fourth word). But this new church was not just an organization to join; it was a life-giving movement that flowed through communities where sinners were transformed when they believed in Jesus Christ. The church was the body of Christ on earth that determined to spread its gospel from Caesar's palace (Phil. 4:21) to the entire earth (Acts 1:8). Lord, I will serve You in my church, and will love doing it because You "loved the church and gave Yourself for her" (Eph. 5:25).

Acts 1

Lord, help me understand Your plan for my life as I pray through the book of Acts. Fill me with the Holy Spirit so I can minister in resurrection power as did the believers in the early church. Amen.

¹Luke reminded Theophilus that his first letter told all that Jesus began to do and teach while He was alive on earth. This second letter tells of the acts of the Holy Spirit through the disciples as they planted the church.

Jesus' Ascension Back to Heaven

²After His death Jesus returned to heaven, {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} but during the 40 days after His crucifixion, ³He appeared to the disciples from time to time {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} where He prepared them for life-long ministry and He demonstrated to them proofs of His deity. 4In His last meeting with them in Jerusalem, Jesus told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to pray until the Holy Spirit came on them in power. 5Jesus reminded them, "John the Baptizer baptized with water, but in a few days I will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30} ⁶But the disciples didn't understand. They asked, "Lord, will You now restore the kingdom to free us from Rome?" {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 7Jesus answered, "The Father has set that date, and it's not for you to know." 8Jesus said, "But take the gospel into all the world when the Holy Spirit is come on you. Tell them about Me: beginning in Jerusalem, then Judea, next Samaria, and finally to the ends of the earth." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

⁹When Jesus finished, He was lifted into the sky and disappeared into a cloud, leaving the disciples staring into the sky, looking for Him. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹⁰Suddenly two men in glistening white robes said to them, ¹¹"Why are you staring into the sky? Jesus has returned to heaven, and one day He will return just as He left." {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

Lord, while Your glorified body is at the right hand of the throne of God in heaven, I know You are in my heart. Help me live for You until You return. Amen.

Praying in the Upper Room

Lord, it must have been perplexing to other disciples when Jesus left them. Be with me and let me always feel Your presence. Amen.

¹²The disciples walked a half mile back into Jerusalem and ¹³began praying in the upper room, as Jesus instructed. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} The disciples present were Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James, the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas, son of James. {119 Disciple Fast and Prayer, Matt. 17:21} ¹⁴Several women were there, including Mary, the mother of Jesus. ¹⁵There were 120 present and they prayed for 10 days.

Finally, Peter stood to address the group, ¹⁶"Brothers, it is necessary for us to fulfill the Scriptures about Judas who betrayed Jesus by guiding the mob to arrest Him. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} The Holy Spirit through David predicted what we should do. ¹⁷He (Judas) was chosen just as we were, and had part in our ministry, but he lifted up his heel against us."

Remorse and Suicide of Judas

¹⁸"Judas purchased a field with the money he stole from us and he plunged to his death in that field; all his bowels spilled on the ground. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹The news of his death circulated among the people, and they called it the Field of Blood. 20 King David also predicted in Psalms, 'Let his home be desolate, and let no one live there, and let his work be given to someone else." Peter said they should choose someone to take Judas' place and join them as witnesses of Jesus' resurrection. 21"Let us choose someone who has been with us {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ²²since the baptism of John and must have seen the physically resurrected Iesus and been with us since the ascension." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

²³They nominated two men: Joseph Justus (also called Barsabbas) and Matthias; ²⁴then they prayed that the right man would be chosen, saying, "O Lord, You know their hearts, show us which of these men You have chosen ²⁵as an apostle {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} to replace Judas, the traitor, who has gone to his place." ²⁶Then they cast lots {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} and Matthias' lot was chosen, and he was numbered with the eleven. {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Waiting in prayer (Acts 1:14) has been an example to believers of all times to "watch and pray" (Matt. 26:41). It suggests (1) we wait in prayer together; (2) we not quit, and

(3) we mix believing faith with anticipating prayer. Lord, I will expect You to come at any moment, yet I will live as though You won't come for a thousand years. I will pray for Your return, yet I will pray for strength to serve You until You return. Amen.

$\label{eq:Acts2} Acts\,2$ The Coming of the Holy Spirit

¹When the day of Pentecost had come seven weeks and one day since the Passover when Jesus died-they were still praying in unity in the upper room. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²Suddenly they heard a great noise that sounded like a wind storm that filled the room where they were praying, but they were not blown about, nor was the room disrupted. ³They saw flames of fire in the air, and it settled on each of them, but no one was burned. ⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and all began to speak in foreign languages that they didn't know. The Holy Spirit gave them this miraculous ability. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

Lord, when I read of the Holy Spirit empowering the disciples, I want the same power in my life, and service for You. Amen.

⁵Many obedient Jews were in Jerusalem for Pentecost, having come from many nations of the earth. ⁶When they heard the noise of the mighty wind, they came to see what was going on. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁷They were surprised {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} to hear their own languages being spoken by the disciples. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} "How can this be," they asked, "these men are from Galilee, 8yet we hear them speaking fluently in our languages?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 9They were Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, and those who live in Mesopotamia and Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in parts of Libya near Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and Jewish converts, 11 Cretans and Arabians. They exclaimed, "We hear them tell the wonderful works of God in our mother tongue." {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹²They were amazed and asked one another, "What does this mean?" 13Others in the crowd mocked the disciples, saying, "They are drunk with new wine." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Lord, help me to tell everyone what You've done for me, just as the disciples did. May I never keep silent because I'm afraid of what the crowd will think or say. Amen.

Peter Preaching at Pentecost

¹⁴Peter with the eleven disciples stood before the crowd to answer them, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} "Listen, you people of Judah, and all who live in Jerusalem, ¹⁵these are not drunk as you suppose. It is too early, it's only 9 o'clock in the morning. {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} ¹⁶What you see is what was predicted by Joel the prophet, ¹⁷In the last days,' God said, 'I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.'" {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

Because believers were "filled with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:4), the power of the Spirit was poured out on the disciples. The power of the Spirit (1) gives broken people strength, (2) gives weak Christians an opportunity to witness, and (3) produces spiritual phenomena, for example, a sound of wind from heaven and they "spoke in other languages" (Acts 2:4). Lord, fill me with power as I pray so that there will be supernatural results in my life and ministry. Amen.

¹⁸"And on my servants and handmaidens {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁹I will cause miracles in heaven and earth, {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ²⁰the sun shall become black, and the moon blood red before the awesome day of the Lord arrives. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²¹And all who call on the name of the Lord will be saved.' {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

²²"Listen, men of Israel! You know God publicly endorsed Jesus of Nazareth by doing miracles through Him. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²³God predetermined for you to deliver Jesus to the Roman government to murder Him by nailing Him to a cross, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁴then God released Him from the grip of death and brought Him back to life again because death could not keep Jesus in the grave. ²⁵David predicted this resurrection when he said, {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} 'I saw the LORD before me. He is always by my side, so that I shall not be shaken. ²⁶Therefore, my heart is filled with rejoicing and my tongue shouts praise to God because I know God will take care of me in death. ²⁷You will not leave my soul in hell, neither will You let Your Holy Son decay in the grave. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 28 You will give me back my physical life and fill me with joy as I stand in Your presence."

²⁹Peter continued preaching, saying that David was dead and buried and his tomb was in Jerusalem, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} yet 30David was a prophet who said, "God has sworn in an oath that the Messiah would be his descendant and sit on the throne." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ³¹Seeing the future, David said, "Messiah would not be abandoned to the grave, even His body would not suffer decay.' {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 32We are witnesses that God has raised Jesus to new life, ³³then He was exalted to the right hand of God and received by the Father. Then God poured out the promised Holy Spirit {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} as evidenced by what you see and hear among His followers." ³⁴Then Peter referred to David again. "For David did not ascend to heaven, yet he quoted the Messiah who said, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 'The LORD said to my Lord, sit at My right hand {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ³⁵until I make Your enemies Your footstool.'

³⁶ Therefore, all Israel should realize God the Father has made Jesus-whom you crucified—both Lord and Messiah." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ³⁷The people were cut to the heart when they heard this, and they asked, "What shall we do?" {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} 38Peter answered, "Repent, so your sins will be forgiven, and be baptized every one of you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹This promise is for you, your children, {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} and those in distant lands who will call on the Lord our God." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

Lord, Peter preached a powerful sermon at Pentecost; help me witness for You according to my ability, and according to my opportunities. Amen.

The New Church Was Born

⁴⁰Peter preached a long sermon featuring Jesus, urging all of his listeners to "Save yourself from the punishment that's coming upon this nation." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁴¹And approximately three thousand were baptized {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} and joined them.

⁴²They regularly attended the apostles' teachings, {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} and the Lord's Table, and prayer meetings. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ⁴³A deep awe came on them as many miracles were done by the apostles. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} 44The believers had everything in common, 45 selling their belongings to give to anyone who had need. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ⁴⁶They met together every day in the temple courtyards and broke bread together in homes and shared meals with great joy and thankfulness, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴⁷praising God. The unsaved were favorable to the believers, and daily God added to the church as people were being saved. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

The early church "continued steadfastly in prayers" (Acts 2:42). Whatever praying the early believers did, they did it daily (Acts 3:1). Apparently this involved private prayers, family prayers, group prayers, and corporate church prayers. Lord, I will pray daily because that's how the early church prayed. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} And I will pray many different ways. Amen.

Acts 3 Healing a Man Born Crippled

Lord, give me a passion to pray at all times, with all people, at all places, for all requests, in all the various ways You've taught us to pray. Amen.

¹Peter and John went into the temple at 3:00 p.m. to pray with all those seeking to call on Jesus' name. {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} ²They encountered a lame man at the gate who had never walked in his life. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} Friends brought him there every day. He was begging for alms from worshipers, 3so he asked Peter and John for a gift of charity. 4Peter looked directly at him and said, "Look at us!" 5So the lame man looked at them, expecting to receive some money. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} 6Then Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold, but I'll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁷Then Peter grabbed him by the hand and pulled him to his feet. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} Immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened. 8He leaped up and walked into the temple with them, and he was leaping and dancing and shouting praises to God. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} 9The worshipers saw him walking and leaping and 10 recognized he was the lame man who begged at the gate. So the crowd was surprised and curious. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹¹The other worshipers rushed into Solomon's porch to see the healed man. They stood in awe at the miracle that just happened.

Lord, I stand in awe of Your miracle-working power. Thank You for healing the crippled man at the temple gate. Help me believe You today for other healing events and give me the prayer of faith to pray for those who are sick. Amen.

Peter's Sermon in Response

¹²Peter realized it was an opportunity to preach, so he said, "Men of Israel, why are you surprised {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}, and why are you staring at us as though we did this? 13 The God of our ancestors has done this miracle. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob has done this to honor His servant, Jesus. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} You betrayed Jesus {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} and denied Him before Pilate, even when Pilate decided to let Him go." 14Peter preached straight at them, "You disowned the righteous Jesus and begged for Pilate to give you a murderer instead. 15 You were responsible for the death of Christ, but God raised Him from the dead. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} John and I are witnesses of this truth; {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} we saw Him alive. 16 This man was healed in the name of Jesus. It was faith in Christ Jesus {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} that gave this man his health and healing, and all of you can see it. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ¹⁷I realize that you had no idea what the Jewish leaders were doing to Jesus Christ, 18but the prophets foretold that Messiah would suffer, {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} and through your blindness this came about. 19Now you must repent and turn to God so that your sins can be forgiven, and so God can send to you times of refreshing that come from the presence of God. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 20Then God will send Jesus your Messiah back to you, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²¹but for now He must remain in heaven until the final restoration of all things. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²²This is the prediction of Moses who said, 'The Lord God will raise up a prophet like me, so listen to all His messages. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²³Every soul that will not listen to that prophet shall be utterly destroyed." ²⁴Peter continued preaching, "All the prophets from Samuel onward have predicted these days. ²⁵You are the sons of the prophets who have predicted these things, and heirs of the agreement that God made with Abraham {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} that 'Through you shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ²⁶It was you whom God first wanted to bless through His Son Jesus after He had raised Him from the dead by forgiving the sins of every one of you." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Peter and John went up together to the temple at "the hour of prayer" (Acts 3:1). The verb tense for "went up" suggests they went to pray every day at the same time, that is, at 4:00 p.m., the national hour of prayer.

Apparently they had a habit of praying at the same time; that means some habits are good. {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} Lord, help me form good habits that will turn my thinking and actions toward You. Amen.

Acts 4 The Apostles Arrested

¹While Peter and John were talking to the people, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} the chief priest, captain of the temple guard, and some Sadducees ²were disturbed that they preached Jesus had risen from the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³so they arrested them and put them in jail for the night. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁴But many believed {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} who heard what they said, so that about five thousand men now believed.

Lord, I know You came first for the salvation of the Jews, but I'm glad You provide salvation for all Gentiles... but most of all for me. Amen.

Peter and John before the Jewish Leaders

⁵The next day the council of Jewish leaders convened in Jerusalem ⁶with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others of the high priest's relatives. ⁷Then the two disciples were brought in before them and were asked, "By what name or authority have you done this?" {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} answered, "Leaders and elders, 9are you questioning us about the kindness done to a crippled man, and how he was healed? {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁰It is high time that you leaders and all Israel realize this miracle was done in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth! {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} He is the One you crucified, but God raised Him from the dead. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} By the power of Jesus this man stands here healed. 11 Jesus is the Stone which you builders rejected, but now He has become the Cornerstone of the building. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹²Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among people, whereby we must be saved." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

Lord, give me boldness like Peter to witness for Jesus, especially to those who don't believe in Him. Amen.

The Jewish Leaders Forbid Preaching in Jesus' Name

¹³The Jewish leaders were amazed at the boldness of Peter and John {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} because they were uneducated and ignorant men. The leaders realized they had been with Jesus {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} ¹⁴but they couldn't say anything against the disciples because the healed man was standing with them. 15So the leaders ordered the disciples to leave the council so they could discuss the issue among themselves. They said, 16"What are we going to do with these men? It is evident to everyone in Jerusalem that an outstanding miracle has been done by these men, and we can't deny it. 17Nevertheless, to prevent this thing from spreading, let's command them not to speak in His name again." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 18So they called Peter and John and commanded them not to speak anymore in the name of Jesus. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ¹⁹Peter and John answered them, "We have to decide whether God wants us to listen to you, more than to Him, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 20 because we cannot stop telling everyone what we have seen and heard." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²¹After more threats, they let Peter and John go because they didn't know how to punish them any further. The people supported them wholeheartedly, glorifying God for the miracle {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²²on the man who was over 40 years old.

Lord, all life is in Your hands, I praise You for good health; I praise You for times when You heal and times when You don't. Amen.

The Church Prays

²³When the apostles were released, they went back to the believers and reported

what the chief priest and elders said to them. ²⁴The Christians raised their voices to God in praise, {9 Agree-Bless Prayer, Matt. 18:19} "Almighty Lord, You have made heaven and earth, the seas and everything in them. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²⁵You spoke by the Holy Spirit through David, 'Why do the pagans rage, and the people imagine sinful things, ²⁶the kings of the earth unite to fight You, and oppose the Messiah, Your Son?'

²⁷"For in this city of Jerusalem, the rulers have united to fight against Your Holy Servant, Jesus, the Anointed One. Herod, and Pontius Pilate, and the Roman soldiers, and the people of Israel, have gathered together {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 28to carry out what You had previously planned to happen. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁹Now Lord, listen to their threats and give to us, Your servants, boldness to speak Your Word courageously. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ³⁰Continue to stretch out Your hand to heal and do miracles in the name of Your Holy Servant, Jesus." {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} 31When they had finished praying, the room was shaken and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and they spoke the Word of God boldly.

Lord, I want to speak boldly for You; fill me with the Holy Spirit and courage. Amen.

The Church Prospers

³²All the believers were of one heart and mind {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} and no one was selfish with their belongings, but shared them freely as though their things belonged to everyone. ³³The apostles continued witnessing boldly of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} and there was a wonderful spirit of fellowship among them all, {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} 34and there was not a single believer in need of anything. Those who owned property sold it and brought the proceeds ³⁵and placed them at the apostles' feet; {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} then distribution was made to all in need. ³⁶Joseph was given the name Barnabas (meaning "Exhorter") by the apostles. Barnabas was a Levite who broke the Mosaic law ³⁷by owning land, so he sold his farm in Cyprus and gave it to the church. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

When the church was threatened with violent punishment, they gathered and prayed large, which means they were not scared of punishment, but rather they feared God. {273 Large-Praying, Acts 4:23-31} Praying large means (1) acknowledging the greatness of God (v. 24); (2) giving Jesus a large place in their lives (vs. 25-28); (3) submitting to God's will, not their own (v. 29); (4) praying for God to do a large work (v. 30). As a result of large praying, God came to the prayer meeting with His presence; He filled the believers with the Holy Spirit and they spoke the Word of God with boldness (v. 31).

Lord, teach me to pray large, and keep me from being little. Amen.

Acts 5 The Sin and Judgment of Ananias and Sapphira

¹Another man who owned property named Ananias agreed with his wife, Sapphira, to sell it, 2but they kept back part of the price for themselves. Ananias placed the remaining money at the apostles' feet, {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ³but Peter said, "Why have you let satan fill your heart to cheat the Holy Spirit? {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Why have you kept part of the price for the land? 4The land didn't need to be sold since it was yours; the price for the land was also yours. Why have you thought you could deceive God? {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} You have not lied to the church; you've lied to God!" {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 5When Ananias heard this condemnation, he collapsed and died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and all who heard it were terrified. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁶The young men covered him with a sheet, and then buried him. ⁷About three hours later, his wife came into the assembly, not knowing what happened to her husband. ⁸Peter asked her, "Did you sell your land for so much?" "Yes," she answered, "that was the price." 9Peter asked, "Why did you agree to cheat the Holy Spirit? {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁰The young men who buried your husband are at the door." Immediately she collapsed and died. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} The young men buried her next to her husband, "and terror gripped the young church, {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} and no one was tempted again to lie or cheat God in any way.

Is there ever a time that a believer can pray judgment on someone because they hinder the work of God, or their sin is an attack on God? Here Ananias and Sapphira were judged for their sin. The Jewish sorcerer was struck blind for hindering Paul's sermon (Acts 13:6-12). Note the following guidelines: (1) the sin must be against God, and not just something to irritate or embarrass the believer; (2) judgment does not come from the believer who prays, but from God Himself; (3) expect persecution that is promised by God (John 15:18-25), realizing you may not be delivered; (4) realize there is no command to "strike out" or pray judgmentally at those who persecute you; and (5) the Bible teaches us to bless those who persecute us, rather than to pray judgmentally against them (Matt. 5:43-46; Luke 6:27-38). Lord, teach me how to respond to persecution and keep me in my hour of trial. Draw me closer to You when trials come. Teach me how to pray against those who persecute me, or sin against You. Amen.

Victory in the Early Church

¹²The apostles were meeting regularly at Solomon's porch in the temple and doing miracles among the people. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ¹³But some were afraid to join them for the wrong reasons. The believers were well respected by people in general. 14As a result more and more men and women became believers in growing numbers. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ¹⁵Many signs and wonders were being done by the apostles, and as a result people brought the sick to the streets and laid them down so Peter's shadow might fall on them. ¹⁶A large crowd of people came from other cities, bringing their sick {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} and those who were demon-possessed, {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} so they could be healed by the apostles.

Lord, keep me excited with the work of evangelism so that many people will become Christians by my ministry. Amen.

The Second Persecution

¹⁷The high priest and the Sadducees reacted to the work of the apostles, and in jealousy ¹⁸they had the apostles arrested and put in a common prison. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁹But an angel of the Lord came at night and opened the door {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and led them out, telling them: ²⁰"Go stand in the temple and tell people about the Christian life." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²¹About sunup they went into the temple and began to preach. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} Later the members of the Sanhedrin arrived, and gathered the Senate and sent for the apostles to come from the jail. ²²The officers could not find them in the prison. They reported, ²³"We found the jail locked, and guards on duty, but when we opened the door, no one was there." {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ²⁴The Sanhedrin was mystified, wondering what happened to their prisoners. ²⁵Then someone arrived to announce that the prisoners were preaching in the temple. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ²⁶The captain went with guards to get them, but didn't use any violence because they feared the crowd, ²⁷so they brought them to the Sanhedrin. ²⁸The high priest said, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, but you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and accused us of the death of Jesus." {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ²⁹Peter replied, "We must obey God and not men. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁰The God of our ancestors raised Jesus up from the dead because you had Him executed on a wooden Roman cross. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ³¹God has exalted this man to His own right hand as Prince and Savior {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} for the forgiveness of Israel's sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 32We are witnesses of the resurrection and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him." {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

³⁵When the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and wanted to execute them,

{139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ³⁴but Gamaliel, a Pharisee and teacher greatly respected by all, stood and gave orders for the apostles to be taken outside. ³⁵Gamaliel said, "Men and brethren, be careful what action you take against these men. ³⁶Remember a man named Theudus who claimed to be something great? He had a following of 400 men. When Theudus was killed, his followers were dispersed and the threat was gone; ³⁷also remember Judas who had a great following. When Judas was killed, his followers dispersed. ³⁸I suggest you leave the apostles alone; if their movement is of men, it will break up of its own accord. 39 If their movement is of God, you can't do anything about it, and you may find yourself fighting against God." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

⁴⁰The advice of Gamaliel was accepted. They called in the apostles and warned them not to preach in this name; {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} then they flogged them and let them go. ⁴¹The apostles left the Sanhedrin rejoicing {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} because they had been counted worthy to suffer for the name of Jesus. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁴²Day after day, they did not cease preaching and teaching Jesus Christ from house to house and in the temple courts. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, thank You for the courage and holdness of the early church. May I always live for You with the same level of courage. Thank You for using the early church to reach people for Jesus; use me as a witness in the lives of lost people. Amen.

Acts 6 Internal Problems in the Early Church

¹Even though believers were multiplying in the early church, {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} there were rumblings of discontent among them. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} The Hellenistic widows born outside the Holy Land were complaining about the Jewish widows born in the Holy Land, because they were being discriminated against when food was daily passed out to those in need. ²The twelve apostles called the multitude of Christians together and explained that it was not appropriate for them to spend their time supervising a humanitarian hot-food kitchen. {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4} 3They explained, "Look around and pick seven men of good reputation, practical minded, and filled with the Holy Spirit and faith {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} who can administer this program. 4We will spend our time in prayer and preaching the Word of God." {88 Continue in Prayer, Luke 11:8-10} 5There was unanimous approval from the multitude, so they chose seven Hellenistic men beginning with Stephen because he was filled with the Holy Spirit. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} They also chose Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch who had just become a Christian. ⁶These seven men were brought before the apostles who laid their hands on them and committed them to God. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁷As a result, the Word of God reached a larger circle of listeners and the number of disciples multiplied greatly. Also a number of priests—those who hated Christianity—were saved when they saw how the early church handled its money problems and internal griping. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26}

The early church faced a problem of a crowded agenda. Should the apostles take time away from Bible and prayer to serve tables? The problem was not an inferior work, but an interrupting work. It was a matter of priority. So they delegated their work schedule so the work of God could go forward. Lord, give me such a deep passion for prayer that I'll always want to spend more time in prayer than working with my hands. Teach me how to prioritize my life so I'll always do the most important things first. Amen.

The Ministry of Stephen the Deacon

⁸Stephen, a deacon filled with the Holy Spirit and power, {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} worked miracles and signs among the masses. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ⁹He got opposition from the synagogues of freemen, Hellenistic Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and Asia. ¹⁰They debated with Stephen, but couldn't answer his wisdom and spirit. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} ¹¹So the freemen brought in men to lie, saying Stephen cursed Moses and God. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹²This stirred up the people, the elders and teachers of the law, so they seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin ¹³to face false witnesses, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} who said Stephen spoke against the Holy Spirit and the law, ¹⁴also claiming Stephen said, "Jesus will destroy the temple and change the customs handed down by Moses." 15The members of the Sanhedrin saw Stephen's face become as radiant as an angel's face. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, when I take a bold stand against Your enemies, may they experience Your love flowing through my life and may they see Your beauty in my countenance. Amen.

${\displaystyle \mathop{\rm Acts} 7}$ The Sermon by Stephen

¹The high priest asked if the charges against Stephen were true. ²Stephen answered, "My brothers, and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to Abraham while he was in Mesopotamia {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} before Abraham went to Haran. ³God said, 'Leave your country and family and go to a land I will show you.' ⁴So Abraham left Chaldea and settled in Haran, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} staying there until his father died. Then Abraham left to come to this land where we now live today, 5but God did not give him the land {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} while he was alive, but promised to give it to him and his descendants, even though he was childless when the promise was made. 6Then God told him, 'Your descendants will be strangers in a foreign country, where they will become slaves and be oppressed for 400 years.' 7God promised to judge the nation that enslaved them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then God promised His people that they would worship Him in this land." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Lord, Stephen thought it was important to show that You spoke to people who were not in the Promised Land. That meant You were offering salvation to Gentiles outside the Promised Land. Stephen was laying a foundation to prove You would bless the apostles as they went to preach to every person, beginning at Jerusalem, then going to Judea, Samaria, and all the world. Amen.

⁸Stephen continued preaching, "God made a covenant of circumcision with them, so Isaac was circumcised on the eighth day. Isaac did the same for Jacob, and Jacob did it for his twelve sons who became the twelve patriarchs. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁹The patriarchs were jealous of Joseph and sold him into slavery in Egypt, but God was with him.

{377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁰God rescued Joseph and made him wise enough to get Pharaoh's attention, {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} who then made him governor of Egypt."

Lord, You called Your servant Joseph to serve You but the Jewish establishment rejected him, just as they rejected Jesus. Lord, this helps me understand why the religious establishment rejects Jesus today. Amen.

¹¹Stephen continued preaching, "When famine caused suffering and devastation throughout Egypt and Canaan, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} our ancestors had nothing to eat. 12When Jacob heard there was grain for sale in Egypt, he sent his 10 sons there on their first visit to buy food. ¹³On the second visit, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and then told Pharaoh about his family 14 and called his father and all his relatives to him. ¹⁵Jacob went to live in Egypt, where he and his family died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶Their bones were brought back and buried at Shechem in the tomb Abraham purchased from Hamor, the father of Shechem."

Lord, when I read how enemies persecuted Your people in Scripture, it helps me understand why the world persecutes Your people today. Amen.

¹⁷Stephen continued preaching, "The nation of Israel grew larger in Egypt. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁸A new king took the throne who didn't know Joseph. 19He oppressed our people and victimized our ancestors, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} and forced parents to abandon their babies. ²⁰During this time Moses was born. He was no ordinary child: for three months he was cared for at home. 21But when Moses was exposed to Pharaoh's daughter, she adopted him and raised him as her own child. ²²Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became mighty in speech and actions. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²³At the age of 40 he decided to visit his Jewish people, ²⁴ and when he saw one of his fellow countrymen being abused, he defended him by killing the Egyptian. ²⁵Moses thought the Jews would understand that God would use him to deliver them, but they didn't understand {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} nor respond positively to him. ²⁶The next day Moses saw two Israelites fighting and he separated them. ²⁷The attacker said, 'Who made you our leader and judge? ²⁸Will you kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?' ²⁹Moses fled when he heard this, realizing his actions were known. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} He went to the land of Midian where he became father of two sons. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ³⁰Forty years later in the desert near Mount Sinai, an angel appeared to him in the flames of a burning bush. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³¹He was curious, {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} so he drew closer to the bush. A voice said, 32'I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and couldn't look at the fire. 33 The LORD said, 'Take off your shoes because you are standing on holy ground.' {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 34The LORD also said, 'I have seen the suffering of My people, and I have heard their cries for deliverance, and I have come down to deliver them. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6 Go deliver My people from Egypt.' {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ³⁵This was the same Moses they rejected saying, 'Who made you our leader and judge?' Now Moses was sent by God {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} to be both leader and judge, ³⁶and he performed miracles and signs in Egypt, then led them through the Red Sea and through the desert 40 years. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ³⁷Moses told the people, 'God will raise up a prophet for you, like myself, from among your people.' ³⁸Moses was the mediator between the people and God; he gave them the living law of God from Mount Sinai. 39But the people rejected Moses, and wanted to return to Egypt. 40They asked Aaron to make idols for them so they could have gods to lead them back to Egypt. 41 They made a golden calf and offered sacrifices to it {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} and were happy in what they were doing. ⁴²God gave them up and let them worship the sun, the moon, and the stars as their gods. In the book of Amos, the LORD God asks, 'Were you sacrificing to Me 40 years in the wilderness? ⁴³No! You carried the sanctuary of Moloch on your backs, and you carried the star-god of Rephan in your hearts. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} You worshiped idols that you made so I will exile you to Babylon.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 44While in the desert, our ancestors carried the tabernacle with them {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} that Moses had them construct from the pattern that God gave him." 45Stephen continued preaching, "It was handed down from one generation to another until Joshua conquered the nations and drove them out {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and the tabernacle was set up in the new territory. 46 Israel worshiped in the tabernacle until the time of David who found favor before God. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} Then he asked for permission to build a temple for Israel, ⁴⁷though Solomon actually built the house of God. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 48Even so, the Most High does not live in a house built by human hands, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} as the prophet quoted the Lord, saying, 49'Heaven is My home, the earth is My footstool, what kind of home could you build for Me? 50Didn't I make the heavens and the earth?" {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Lord, so many people are turning to sin, turning from You and turning to the world. Also people with a hardened heart are persecuting Your preachers. Lord, may I never be a persecutor of others. Amen. ⁵¹Stephen continued preaching, "You are stiff-necked with a pagan heart; you are resisting the Holy Spirit, {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} just as your ancestors. ⁵²Name one prophet your ancestors didn't persecute. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} In the past they killed the prophets who predicted the coming of the Just One; the One you betrayed and murdered. ⁵³You had the law given to you by angels, but you have deliberately destroyed it." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁵⁴They were outraged when they heard these stinging accusations against themselves. 55Stephen was filled with the Holy Spirit, and {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} looked into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at God's right hand. 56He said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} 57But they covered their ears with their hands and furiously yelled at him, 58 and rushed at him and carried him out of the city and stoned him. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} They dropped their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul and stoned Stephen who 59 called on God, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Then kneeling, 60Stephen cried out to God, "Lord, forgive their sin," {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} and with these words, he died. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13}

As Stephen was dying, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit" (Acts 7:59). It's the same type of prayer Jesus prayed at His death, "Father, into Your hands I commit My Spirit" (Luke 23:46). John Wesley said to his Methodists, "Die well" because they would stay firm in their faith to the very end. They did not let pain or doubts about death weaken their faith. Lord, I don't want to die. I don't like pain, and I don't like the thought of a frail emaciated body that is crippled or tormented by sickness. You control the moments of my death; I will come home when You call. If I come home in the rapture, that's even better; even so come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

Acts 8 Christians Leave Jerusalem

¹Saul approved of the death of Stephen and immediately that day a storm of persecution erupted in Jerusalem against the church {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} and believers fled into the countrysides of Judea and Samaria to escape persecution, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} except the apostles. 2However, some reverently buried Stephen and mourned for him. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ³Saul then worked feverishly to destroy all remains of the church, by going house to house, dragging men and women to prison. 4But Christians were scattered everywhere, preaching the Word. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

Lord, thank You for the example of martyrs who gave all in death; others were willing to suffer or go to prison for You. I'll give You everything in life, and if I have to suffer or die, give me the spirit to do all for Your glory. Amen.

Philip Ministers in Samaria

⁵So Philip the deacon went to Samaria to preach Christ. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁶The crowds paid close attention to what Philip preached because they heard about what he did and saw his miracles. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ⁷Evil spirits screamed {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} as they were cast out of their victims and the paralyzed and lame were healed; {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁸as a result, there was great joy in the city.

⁹A man named Simon had formerly been practicing magic {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} and amazed crowds by the mystifying things he did. ¹⁰The people said, "Simon must be sent by God." ¹¹Previously the people had listened to him because of his magic but Simon became a believer when Philip preached. ¹²Many men and women were converted and baptized {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} because of Philip who preached the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ¹³Simon also was baptized because he believed. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} Simon followed Philip everywhere he went because he was amazed at the miracles he saw. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁴When the apostles in Jerusalem heard all that was happening in Samaria, they sent Peter and John to check it out. 15Peter and John prayed for the Samaritans to receive the Holy Spirit. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ¹⁶They had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, but they had not received the Holy Spirit. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12}¹⁷So the apostles laid hands on the people and prayed for them, and they received the Holy Spirit. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 18When Simon saw that the people received the Holy Spirit, {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} he wanted the same power in his hands. So Simon offered them money, saying, 19"Give me this power so I can lay hands on people so they can receive the Holy Spirit." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁰Peter erupted, "Your money will go to hell, and you with it because you think money can buy what God gives for free. ²¹You have no part in this ministry because your heart is not right with God. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²²Turn from your wickedness {339 Overcoming-God's Inertia Prayer, Exod. 32:30-32} and pray to God. Perhaps He will forgive your sin {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} for thinking this evil. ²³It is plain that you are a prisoner of greed." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁴Simon cried out, "Pray for me that nothing you said will happen to me." {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²⁵The apostles preached in that city, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} and many other Samaritan villages. Then they returned to Jerusalem. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, Simon the sorcerer was told, "You are a prisoner of greed" (Acts 8:23). This scared him so greatly that he said, "Pray for me that nothing you said will happen to me" (Acts 8:24). Lord, that's my prayer. Amen.

Philip Ministers to the Ethiopian Eunuch

²⁶The angel of the Lord then spoke to Philip, "Go south to the route through the desert from Jerusalem to Gaza." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ²⁷There Philip saw {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} an important Ethiopian official {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} who was returning ²⁸ from worshiping in Jerusalem. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} This Ethiopian was the country's treasurer, who was reading the book of Isaiah out loud {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} to his entourage as he rode along in his chariot. ²⁹The Holy Spirit told Philip, "Go meet this man." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} As ³⁰Philip approached, he heard the man reading from Isaiah. Philip asked, "Do you understand what you're reading?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 31"How can I," the man answered, "unless someone helps me;" so the Ethiopian invited Philip to ride with him. 32He was reading, "He was like sheep that was led to the slaughter, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} like a lamb, He said nothing before His shearers, He never opened His mouth. 33He was humiliated, but no one defended Him. Who will ever talk about His descendants. since His life is cut short on earth?" 34The eunuch asked Philip, "Is this passage a reference to the prophet who wrote it, or to someone else?" 35Beginning with this text, Philip explained to him the good news of Jesus Christ. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ³⁶A little farther on they came to a pool of water. The eunuch said, "Look, here is water. Is there any reason why I can't be baptized right here {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} right now?" ³⁷Philip said, "You may, if you believe with all your heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ³⁸The eunuch ordered the chariot to stop. Then the eunuch and Philip went down into the water and Philip baptized him. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ³⁹After they came out of the water, the Holy Spirit took Philip away. The eunuch never saw him again, and the treasurer went on his way rejoicing. 40 Philip was at Azotus, and continued preaching the good news in every town until he got to Caesarea. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, may I always rejoice when someone gets saved and baptized; help me be a faithful witness to lost people. Lord, there are many religious people who are blinded to the truth, even as the eunuch who didn't understand the Scriptures he read. May I be able to help them understand Your truth, and lead them to salvation through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Acts 9 The Conversion of Saul

¹Meanwhile Saul was still threatening to destroy every Christian. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 2He had a letter from the high priest that gave him authority to arrest Christians in Damascus and bring them to Jerusalem. ³Suddenly as he almost reached Damascus, a blinding light from heaven shone all about him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 4Saul fell to the ground and heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} Saul answered, "Who are You, Lord?" {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} The voice answered, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 6Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 7The men traveling with Saul stood speechless. They heard the sound, but didn't see anyone. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 8Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes, he could see nothing. He was blind, so they led him into the city of Damascus. 9While he remained blind for three days he ate and drank nothing. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7}

Lord, I've met You and was saved. While my conversion was not as dramatic as Saul's, I nevertheless know You are real; I once was blind in my sin, but now I see. Amen.

¹⁰In Damascus there was a follower of Christ named Ananias, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} The Lord called him by name in a dream. He responded, "Here I am, Lord." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 11"Go to the street called Straight," the Lord said, "to the house of Judah and ask for Saul from Tarsus. He is praying there. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹²Saul knows you are coming to lay hands on his eyes to restore his sight." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹³But Ananias replied, "Lord, I have heard evil reports about this man. He has done terrible things to Your servants, and {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁴he has come with authority to arrest those who call on Your name." 15 The Lord said to Ananias, "Go pray for him because I have chosen Saul to preach My name before Gentiles and kings, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 16and he will suffer much for My name's sake." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁷So Ananias found Saul {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and laid hands on him and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road sent me so you will be filled with the Holy Spirit {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and get your sight back." 18 Instantly the scales fell from his eyes and Saul could see. Then he was baptized, and he was strengthened when he ate. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12; 463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹⁹Saul stayed with Christians in Damascus for a while.

Paul was determined to arrest and persecute Christians in Damascus. Then he met the Lord and prayed, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" (Acts 9:6, KJV). Because sin is so pervasive, and salvation so all-consuming that no "half-way" prayer will save a person, he must make Jesus the Lord of his life to be saved. Lord, You became the Lord of my life when I accepted You as my Savior. Now I will serve You as my King. Amen.

Saul Begins Preaching the Gospel

²⁰Immediately Saul went to the synagogues to preach the good news that Jesus is indeed the Son of God. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²¹All who heard Saul were amazed, and asked, "Isn't this the man who arrested Christians in Jerusalem and came here to do the same thing?" ²²Saul became more fervent in preaching, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} and the Damascus synagogue was silenced by the strength of Saul's preaching that Jesus is the Christ. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16}

²³After a time, the Jews plotted to kill Saul, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²⁴but he heard about it. The assassins waited at the gate night and day, ²⁵but at night the believers helped Saul escape over the wall in a basket. {516 Victory over

Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} 26When Saul got to Jerusalem, he tried to join the Christians but they were afraid of him. They were not sure Saul was a true believer. 27Barnabas received Saul and introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord appeared to Saul, and what the Lord had said to him, and how Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in the synagogue in Damascus. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ²⁸Then the believers accepted Saul, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁹and he preached boldly among them. Some Greek-speaking Jews to whom Saul preached plotted to murder him. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} 30The believers heard about it and took Saul to Caesarea, and then sent him to his hometown in Tarsus. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³¹Although the church was no longer threatened by persecution, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} the believers grew in number {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} and spiritual maturity. They no longer worried about persecution, but they feared the Lord {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} because the Holy Spirit was their Comforter.

Lord, help me to be a persistent witness to You even when people refuse to believe and reject my message. May opposition make me stronger in my faith and more determined to serve You. Amen.

Ministry of Peter

³²Peter was traveling to evangelize the lost and encourage the churches. When he came to Lydda, 33he found Aeneas who had been paralyzed eight years. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} 34Peter said, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and fold your mat." He was healed instantly. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³⁵Everyone living in the area turned to the Lord when they saw Aeneas walking. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ³⁶A woman named Dorcas, who lived in Joppa, died; she was a believer who always did kind things for others, especially the poor. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁷Her friends prepared the body for burial and placed it in an upstairs room. 38When the people learned Peter was nearby, they sent two men to bring him to Joppa. ³⁹When Peter arrived, he went upstairs to where Dorcas lay. The room was filled with widows {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} who showed Peter the clothes Dorcas had made for them. ⁴⁰Peter sent the ladies out of the room {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} and knelt to pray. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Peter turned to the dead body and said, "Tabitha, stand up"; {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} she opened her eyes, looked at Peter, and sat up. 41Peter helped her to her feet and presented her to the believers. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} 42When the people of Joppa heard of the miracle, many of them believed in the Lord. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁴³Peter stayed there for some time, living with Simon, the tanner.

Lord, I know You can do all things, I praise You that You hold life and health in Your hands. Give me faith to trust You to do miracles. When I don't know how to pray, teach me how, and show me the things for which I must pray. Amen.

Acts 10 God Sends a Message to Cornelius

¹A captain named Cornelius in the Italian regiment of the Roman Army was stationed at the military fortress in Caesarea. ²He was a religious man who led his whole family to worship God {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and give to the poor, and he prayed constantly. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ³About 3:00 in the afternoon. Cornelius saw an angel come to him in a vision. As he stared at the angel in fear, {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ⁴Cornelius said, "What do you want with me?" The angel answered, "God has heard your prayers, and seen your works for the poor, so now He will answer you. 5Send some men to Joppa to get Simon Peter, ⁶who is a guest in the home of Simon, the tanner, who lives by the sea." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 7When the angel went away, Cornelius told what happened to two of his servants and a soldier who was religious; 8he then sent them to Joppa to get Peter.

Lord, I'm glad You have compassion on extremely religious people who seek You, but have never heard the gospel. Thank You for making a way for people like Cornelius to hear the gospel; I pray for the billions of unsaved people who have never heard. Stir their hearts to seek salvation in Christ as You did Cornelius. Amen.

Peter's Vision and His Response

⁹As they approached Joppa the next day about noon, Peter was praying up on the rooftop while the others were preparing lunch. {97 Daily-Prayer, Acts 2:42} 10Peter was ready to eat. It was then Peter had a vision {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} 11 in which he saw heaven opened and a large sheet being lowered by the four corners. 12In it were all kinds of animals, reptiles, and wild birds. ¹³He heard a voice say, "Get up, Peter, kill and eat." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 14Peter answered, "I can't do that, Lord. I have never eaten anything that was unclean or defiled." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 15The voice spoke again, "Do not call anything unclean that God has cleansed." ¹⁶This happened three times, then the sheet was taken back to heaven. 17As Peter was thinking about what just happened, the men sent by Cornelius arrived at the gate of the house. 18They called out, "Is there a guest here by the name of Simon Peter?" {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} 19Peter was still trying to understand what he saw when the Spirit of God said, "Three men are looking for you. 20Do not hesitate to go with them {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} for I have sent them." ²¹Then Peter went down and told them, "I am Peter. Why have you come looking for me?" ²²They told Peter, "Our leader, Cornelius, sent us to invite you to come to his house so he could hear what you have to say." They also told Peter that Cornelius was a good man who worshiped God, and the Jewish people respected him. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, I'm grateful for those who go to the billions who have never heard. Some go to dangerous situations, some give up riches and positions. Bless those who preach the gospel to those who have never heard; may many hear and believe and be saved. Lord, I'm willing to go where You send me, and I'm willing to do anything You want me to do. Guide me today. Amen.

Peter and Cornelius Exchange Greetings

²³Peter invited the men into the house, and they stayed the night with Peter. ²⁴The following day Peter arrived in Caesarea at Cornelius' house where he was waiting for Peter with all his relations and friends. ²⁵As Peter was about to enter, Cornelius met him and bowed at his feet, saying he was unworthy to receive Peter. ²⁶But Peter made him rise, saying, "Stand up, I am only a man." ²⁷Peter went inside with Cornelius where he found a crowd and said, ²⁸"You know that a Jew can't associate with Gentiles." Peter explained, "God has shown me that I must not consider any person ritually unclean or defiled. 29 Therefore I came without objection. Now, why did you send for me?" {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 30Cornelius explained, "About this time three days ago I was praying in my house when suddenly a man in shining garments appeared to me, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} saying, 31'God has heard your prayers, and seen your charity. ³²Send your servants to Joppa for a man named Peter, who is a guest at the home of Simon a tanner.' {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ³³Thank you for coming at once, and {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} now we are all here in the presence of God {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} waiting to hear anything God has told you to say to us." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, there are many who are hungry to hear the good news; may I always be willing and ready to tell them about Jesus. Amen.

Peter's Sermon in Cornelius' Home

³⁴Then Peter spoke to the gathering, "God does not play favorites, ³⁵but He accepts people from any nation who do the right things. ³⁶God sent His message of peace through Jesus Christ to Israel because Jesus is Lord of all. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ³⁷You know what happened throughout Judea. Beginning in Galilee, after the Baptism of John, ³⁸God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good, healing all that were under the devil's power, because God was with Him. {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21}

³⁹We are witnesses of everything Jesus did in Judea and Jerusalem, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} and we saw that they killed Him by hanging Jesus on a tree. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴⁰Yet three days later God raised Him from the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 41and He was seen by witnesses God had chosen. Now we are those witnesses, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} and we have eaten and drunk with Him after He was raised from the dead. 42Now God has commanded us to tell people everywhere that He has appointed Jesus to judge everyone, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} alive or dead, ⁴³and the prophets witness to this fact that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through His name." {143 Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, Titus 1:5}

Lord, remind me how simple the plan of salvation is. People only have to believe in Jesus to be saved. I praise You that Peter went to people of different cultures and customs; may I always be willing to share the gospel with all people, no matter if they are different from me or not. Amen.

Gentiles Are Baptized with the Holy Spirit and Water

⁴⁴While Peter was speaking, the Holy Spirit was poured out on those who were listening to Peter's sermon. {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} ⁴⁵The Jewish Christians who came with Peter were astonished {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} that the Holy Spirit was poured out on Gentiles {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ⁴⁶because they were speaking in unknown languages {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} and praising God. ⁴⁷Peter said, "Can anyone refuse water baptism {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} to these who have received the Holy Spirit just as we did on Pentecost?" {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ⁴⁸He then gave instructions to baptize them in the name of Jesus Christ. Then Cornelius asked Peter to stay a few days.

Cornelius was an unsaved army officer, yet he was morally good and pious. He "prayed to God always" (Acts 10:2). His prayers didn't get him saved, but they came before God "for a memorial" (Acts 10:4). A "memorial" means a place of remembering, therefore God remembered Cornelius and gave him instructions on how to hear the message of salvation. God does not answer the prayers of a Hindu, Islamic, Buddhist, or a person in any other religion; He especially does not hear prayers offered to idols (1 Cor. 10:20). That is because Jesus is the only access to the Father (John 14:6; Acts 4:12). Yet if a person prays conscientiously to the God of Creation who is greater than all religions, then God will honor that prayer and arrange for him or her to hear the message of salvation. Father, I come to You in the name of Jesus because He is the only way of salvation. Amen.

Acts 11 Peter Explains His Actions to the Jerusalem Church

¹The apostles and brethren in Judea were critical when they heard that Gentiles had accepted the Word of God and been baptized. 2When Peter visited Jerusalem, those who still demanded circumcision were critical ³because Peter visited {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} and ate with Gentiles. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} 4Peter reported on how it happened. ⁵He said, "I was praying in Joppa when I had a vision {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} of a big sheet let down from heaven by its four corners. 6I saw in it all types of beasts, reptiles, and birds. ⁷Then I heard a voice from heaven, 'Get up Peter, kill and eat,' {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 8but I answered, 'I can't do that, Lord, because I have never eaten anything that was unclean or defiled.' {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 9Then I heard the voice a second time saying, 'Do not call anything unclean that God has cleansed.' {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁰This happened three times and then the sheet was taken back to heaven. 11Just as that happened, three men sent by Cornelius arrived at the gate. They said they were sent from Caesarea to get me, {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} and 12the Holy Spirit told me not to hesitate to go with them." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Then Peter explained, "These six brothers standing here went with me and we went into Cornelius' home. 13He told us that while he was praying he saw an angel who told him, 'Send to Joppa to get Simon Peter ¹⁴who will give you a message that will save you and your household." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁵Peter continued, "While I was preaching, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as it had fallen on us at Pentecost. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁶Then I remembered the promise of Jesus, 'John indeed baptized with water, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} but you will be baptized by the Holy Spirit.' 17Since God has done for Gentiles the exact same gift He did for us when we believed on Him, {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} who was I to stand in God's way of doing things?" 18Peter's explanation satisfied them and they glorified God. They concluded, "Evidently God has given to the Gentiles repentance to eternal life." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I'm grateful when Christians work out their misunderstandings; I'm especially thankful when they listen to one another before criticizing them. Give me patience when I disagree with others, and help me listen to people before I criticize them. Amen.

The Church at Antioch

¹⁹Those who fled Jerusalem when Saul persecuted Christians {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} had traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁰At Antioch, they shared the gospel with Greeks, giving the good news of Jesus Christ to them as well as Jews. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²¹God worked powerfully and a large number of Gentiles turned to the Lord. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²²When this news reached the church in Jerusalem, they sent Barnabas to check out the church in Antioch. ²³When Barnabas arrived, he rejoiced at what God was doing and he encouraged them to be strong in the faith. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁴Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and as a result a number of people became Christians. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²⁵Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to find Saul, 26 and brought Saul back to Antioch where he taught the believers for a year. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} In Antioch believers were first called Christians. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

Lord, I rejoice when the gospel is spread to places where people don't know You. May I do all I can to help plant new churches, to evangelize areas that need the good news. Amen.

Help for the Jerusalem Church

²⁷Some prophets came down to Antioch from Jerusalem. ²⁸And one of them, Agabus, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} predicted that a great famine was coming {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} before the end of the reign of Claudius. ²⁹The believers at Antioch decided to send supplies to the church in Jerusalem so each believer gave what they could afford. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ³⁰Barnabas and Saul delivered the supplies to Jerusalem.

The model church is where "the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch" (Acts 11:26, KJV). We should not look to a huge megachurch as an example for ministry, nor should we look to a church where a well-known man pastors. We should measure our church by the ministry of the church in Antioch. Lord, I want to live like the Christians in Scripture, and I want my church to minister like the one at Antioch. Amen.

Acts 12 James Killed—Peter Imprisoned

¹About this time King Herod began persecuting the church in Jerusalem, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} where ²he had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13}

³When he saw it pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter and imprisoned him because it was the festival of Passover, and Herod intended to bring Peter to trial after Passover. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ⁴Peter was guarded by four squads of four soldiers each and ⁵as Peter was in prison, the church prayed earnestly for him. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ⁶Peter was chained to two soldiers, sleeping between them, and there were two guards at the entrance. ⁷Suddenly there was a light in the cell and an angel stood next to Peter. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} He had to shake Peter to awaken him. The angel said, "Get up quickly," and the chains fell off Peter. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} 8Then the angel said, "Get dressed-don't forget your shoes—and follow me." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 9Peter thought it was a dream, and he didn't believe it was happening. 10 They passed the first and second cells, then came to the iron gate that led to the city. It opened by itself. They walked out into the street, and as they were walking, the angel disappeared. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹¹Finally Peter realized, "This is happening! The Lord has sent an angel {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} to rescue me from Herod and all that the Jewish leaders wanted to do to me." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹²Peter went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where Christians had gathered to pray for him. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} 13When Peter knocked at the outer gate, Rhoda, a servant girl, looked out and recognized him. 14She got so excited she didn't open the gate {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} but ran to tell everyone. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 15 They said, "You're out of your mind," {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} but Rhoda kept saying Peter was at the gate. They thought Peter had been executed and that his angel was at the gate. 16Peter kept knocking, and when they opened the gate, they were amazed that it really was Peter. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁷Peter raised his hand to stop their talking, and then he told them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. Peter instructed them to tell James, the Lord's brother and others; then he went to a place where Herod couldn't find him. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ¹⁸At dawn, there was a great commotion at the jail over the disappearance of Peter. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁹They searched thoroughly for Peter and when he couldn't be found, Herod ordered the guards executed.

Lord, some of Your servants are martyred like James. If that's my lot, have Your way in my life. Lord, if You deliver me from persecution, like Peter, I'll praise You for an easy life; may I always serve You, no matter what happens to me. Amen.

Herod Judged

²⁰Herod lived at Caesarea in the summer time. While there the people of Tyre and Sidon sought an audience with the king because there was a quarrel between them and Herod. Blastus, a trusted servant of Herod, worked out a compromise because the people needed Herod's permission for their food supply. ²¹When the day came for the people to meet Herod, he addressed them wearing his crown and royal regalia. ²²The people shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not of man," {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} and they gave him a rousing ovation. ²³Instantly, an angel from God struck him with a disease, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and he was filled with maggots and died, because he accepted the people's worship instead of giving it to God. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁴The good news was spreading rapidly and many people were saved. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ²⁵Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem when they finished their ministry and returned to Antioch, taking John Mark with them.

Lord, what a terrible sin for anyone to receive worship due You; help me deal properly with pride and give You glory for everything. I want to be more godly and I want to walk humbly with You; help me say with believers, "Not I, but Christ" (Gal. 2:20). Amen.

Acts 13 God Called Barnabas and Saul to Be Missionaries

¹The church at Antioch had prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, who was raised with Herod, and Saul. ²While they were worshiping God and fasting, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} the Holy Spirit said, "Send Barnabas and Saul to a special ministry, to which I have called them." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ³So after more fasting and prayer, they laid their hands on them, and sent them out to minister.

Lord, teach me to listen to Your voice for direction to my life, just as the leaders in Antioch sought Your will for their life and ministry. I will seek Your will in my life. When You speak, give me ears to hear what You want me to do and give me strength to choose to do Your will. Amen.

Ministry in Cyprus

⁴These two men—sent by the Holy Spirit—went to Selucia {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and sailed to the island of Cyprus. 5When they landed in Salamis, they preached the Word of the Lord in the synagogue of the Jews. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} John went along to look after details. ⁶They traveled the whole length of the island, and came in contact with a Jewish magician named Bar-Jesus. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 7This false prophet was an attendant of Sergius Paulus, the Roman governor of the island, who was extremely intelligent. The governor called for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the Word of God. 8The Jewish magician, Elymas Magos, the Greek name for Bar-Jesus, tried to stop Barnabas and Saul because it looked like the governor would be converted to the Christian faith. ⁹Saul, whose name was changed to Paul at this time, was filled with the Holy Spirit to stop the magician; Paul stared angrily at him {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 10 and said, "You son of the devil, you enemy of God, you are opposing God. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph.

6:10 ff.} ¹¹Now God's hand will judge you, you will be blind!" {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} Instantly his eyes became misty and then everything went dark, {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹²The governor who was watching became a believer {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} for he was astonished by what he saw and what he heard.

Lord, I want to be as courageous in witnessing for You as Paul was when he boldly faced opposition. Teach me how to react when people oppose me for my faith; I want to react properly to attacks and I want people to get saved, as the governor was converted. Amen.

Ministry in Turkey

¹³Paul and his companions sailed from Paphos to Pergia in modern-day Turkey; here John Mark left {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} them to go back home to Jerusalem. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁴They went on from Pergia to Antioch of Pisidia. On the Sabbath day they went to the synagogue and took a seat. 15 After the lesson from the law and the prophets was read, the president of the synagogue asked Paul, "Would you like to give some words of encouragement to the congregation?" {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 16Paul stood, held up his hand for silence, then spoke, "Listen, men of Israel and you Gentiles who worship the God of our nation Israel,

{541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 17God chose us and made us a large nation when we lived as foreigners in Egypt. Then by supernatural power, God led Israel out of Egypt, ¹⁸and took care of them for 40 years in the wilderness. ¹⁹Then God destroyed seven nations as He put Israel in the Holy Land as their inheritance. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰They lived there 450 years. After that God gave them judges until the coming of the prophet Samuel. ²¹When our people begged for a king, God gave them Saul of the tribe of Benjamin. He was their king for 40 years. ²²After God disposed of Saul, He raised up David to the throne and God Himself said, 'A man after My own heart, who shall do all My will.' ²³To keep His promise, God brought forth Jesus from the descendants of David to be the Savior of Israel. John the Baptizer came before Him to prepare the way of Jesus, {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁴preaching the baptism of repentance for all the people of Israel. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁵John said, 'I'm not the Messiah, but the One coming after me is so great, I'm not fit to loose His shoe strings." ²⁶Paul preached, "Men and brethren, sons of Abraham, and Gentiles who fear God, God has sent you this message of salvation. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁷The people of Jerusalem and their leaders refused to recognize Jesus even though they read the prophets every Sabbath day that predicted His coming as Messiah. ²⁸Even though there was nothing to justify the death of Jesus, they asked Pilate to execute Him. 29When they did everything to Jesus that the Scriptures foretold, they took Him down from the tree and buried Him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised Jesus up from the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³¹and for many days He appeared to His followers from Galilee, who are now His witnesses before the world. 32We have come here to tell you the good news. God made the promises to our ancestors, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 33but it is to us their descendants— that He has fulfilled these promises by raising Jesus from the dead. As the Psalms say, 'You are My Son, and today I have become Your Father.' ³⁴This psalm means that God raised Jesus from the dead, never to return to corruption. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³⁵God has given to Jesus the wonderful things he promised David, 'He will not let His Holy One decay.' 36This was not a reference to David because after he lived 70 years, and served his generation, David died {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and his body decayed. ³⁷This was a reference to another person whom God brought back to life, whose body was not touched by the ravages of death. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} This was a reference to Jesus. ³⁸Brothers, listen, there is forgiveness for your sins in this man Jesus, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 39and everyone who trusts in Him is free from all guilt. He will declare you righteous, something the law cannot do. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} 40Be careful, brothers, because the words of the prophets apply to you. ⁴¹You mockers, cast your eyes around and be amazed before you perish {127

Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} for I work in your days, a work that you absolutely will not believe if you were to be told of it." ⁴²As Paul and Barnabas left, many Jews and Gentile converts insisted they return the next Sabbath to speak on this topic. ⁴³When the congregation had broken up, many of them continued to listen to Paul and Barnabas who persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Lord, help me realize many people are hungry for the good news that Jesus forgives sins, gives eternal life, and gives abundant satisfaction. Amen.

⁴⁴The next Sabbath almost the whole city assembled to hear the Word of the Lord. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁴⁵When the Jews saw the multitude, they were envious, and debated the things Paul said. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ⁴⁶Then Paul and Barnabas boldly answered them, "It was our duty to speak the good news to you Jews who have demonstrated yourselves unworthy of eternal life. So now we are turning to the Gentiles, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 47as the Lord has instructed us to do. 'I have set you as a light to the Gentiles so My salvation will reach to the end of the earth." {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

⁴⁸The Gentiles were glad to hear this message {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and thanked God for it. Many of them believed. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁴⁹The

Word of the Lord spread throughout the region, ⁵⁰but the Jews stirred up the women and civic leaders against Paul and Barnabas, {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} and threw them out of town. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

⁵¹But the missionaries shook the dust of that town off their feet and went to the next city of Iconium. ⁵²The converts were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

Lord, the disciples counted themselves worthy to suffer for You, so You filled them with joy and the Holy Spirit. I will look for Your joy and the filling of the Holy Spirit when I suffer persecution for my ministry. Amen.

Acts 14 In Antioch

¹At Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue as they did in Antioch and spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews became followers of Jesus Christ. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 2But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles against them, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 3but Paul and Barnabas stayed there to preach fearlessly. The Lord confirmed the message of grace {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and allowed signs and wonders to be done by them. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} 4The people of the city were divided, some siding with the apostles and others supporting the Jews. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ⁵But the unbelievers planned to stone them. ⁶Paul and Barnabas heard their plot {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} and left for safety reasons. ⁷Leaving, they preached the gospel {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} in Lystra and Derbe in the surrounding mountains.

Lord, thank You for every missionary who has gone to dangerous places to preach the gospel. Give me courage to stand against criticism and ridicule when I share the gospel. Amen.

In Derbe and Lystra

⁸A man crippled from birth {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} sat at the city gate listening to Paul. ⁹Paul saw him and realized he had faith to be healed. ¹⁰Then Paul said in a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet!" The man jumped up and began to walk. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}

11When the crowd saw what happened, they shouted in their language, "The gods have come down to us dressed like men." ¹²Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes since he was the spokesman. ¹³The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was outside the gate, brought oxen and flowers {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} to sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas at the city gate in front of the crowd. ¹⁴But Paul and Barnabas ripped their clothes and ran into the crowd, ¹⁵shouting,

"Friends, why are you doing this? We are human beings with feelings just as you. We are here to tell you the good news that you should turn from idols to the living God {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} who made heaven and earth and the sea and everything in it. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹⁶In the past He let the nations go their own way, ¹⁷but there was always the earth, heaven, and the seas as witness to them. He sent rain giving you crops and food to eat." ¹⁸This speech barely restrained the crowd from offering sacrifices to them.

The Stoning of Paul

¹⁹Then Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and turned the people against the apostles. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead. ²⁰The Christians gathered around him, but as they did, Paul stood up and went back into the town. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} The next day, Paul and Barnabas departed to Derbe.

It appears Paul was stoned and died in Lystra, because (1) they "suppose[ed] him to be dead" (14:19, NKJV), (2) the anger of the Paul-haters would have driven them to the ultimate, and (3) Paul testifies, "I knew a man in Christ who fourteen years ago [the correct chronology]...such a one was caught up to the third heaven" (2 Cor. 12:2, NKJV). Because God was not finished with Paul, he was raised from the dead to continue his ministry. However, to keep Paul humble, God gave him continuing pain {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} from the event, "a thorn in the flesh" (2 Cor. 12:7-9). Lord, thank You for every past miracle in answer to prayer. Be glorified when I'm in danger. If I pray and am delivered, I will glorify You. If I come home to be with You, that's even better. Amen.

²¹The next day Paul and Barnabas departed for Derbe where they preached the gospel {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} and many became Christians. They turned back and revisited Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch of Turkey 22where they strengthened the disciples of Christ {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} in those cities, exhorting them to be strong in the faith and endure many tribulations. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²³ After prayer and fasting, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} they appointed church leaders in every church, commending them to the Lord for their new ministry. {78 Compliment-Blessing Prayer, Luke 6:31} ²⁴They then crossed over the mountains to Pisidia, going to Pamphylia. ²⁵After preaching the Word of God in Pergia, they went to Attalia {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁶and then sailed back to Antioch of Syria. They arrived back at the church that originally commissioned them because they had completed the work they intended to do. ²⁷They assembled the church together and reported all that God had done, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} especially how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²⁸They stayed in Antioch a long time.

Lord, I thank You for every missionary who has gone to unreached places to preach the gospel to those who have never heard it. Thank You for those who brought the gospel to my nation and my people; please call more missionaries so every place and ethnic group on earth can hear the gospel at least once. Amen.

Acts 15 The First Church Council

¹Some men came to Antioch from Judea, teaching, "You are not saved unless you have been circumcised according to the practice of Moses." {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 2A long fierce argument broke out between Paul and Barnabas {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} and those who wanted to add "good works" to salvation. It was arranged for Paul, Barnabas, and others {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} to go to Jerusalem to discuss this issue with the apostles and elders. {143 Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, Titus 1:5} 3The church gathered to see them off, and they traveled through Lebanon and Samaria telling how Gentiles were saved. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} Christians everywhere rejoiced when they heard this. ⁴They were welcomed in Jerusalem by the apostles, elders, and the church. Paul and Barnabas told them what God had done among the Gentiles. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ⁵Some of the converted Pharisees came forward to say the Gentiles must be circumcised and keep the law of Moses. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3}

⁶The apostles and elders called a meeting to discuss the issues. ⁷After a long debate Peter stood to address the council. "My friends," he said, "you remember God chose me to preach the gospel to the Gentiles at Cornelius' house so they could believe. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 8God knows who is genuinely converted so He gave them the Holy Spirit, just as He gave Him to us. {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} ⁹God made no distinction between Jew and Gentile because He forgave them by faith, just as He did for us. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ¹⁰Now you are trying to correct God {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} and impose on the Gentiles a burden that neither we nor our ancestors were able to obey. No one has ever kept the law to be saved. 11We are saved the same way Gentiles are saved, through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ." {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10}

¹²Peter's argument silenced the assembly, no one could say anything. Then Paul and Barnabas described all the signs and miracles God had done through them among the Gentiles.

¹³Finally James gave his thoughts, "My brothers, ¹⁴Simon Peter has described how God worked to call to Himself those who were saved among the Gentiles. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ¹⁵This agrees with the words of the prophets since the Scriptures say, 16'After that I will return and rebuild the fallen house of David. I shall rebuild it from its ruins and restore it, ¹⁷then the rest of the world—the Gentiles—may seek the Lord to be saved." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} 18 James stated, "The Lord said this long ago. 19So I suggest that we should not make things more difficult for Gentiles to be saved." {143 Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, Titus 1:5} ²⁰James proposed they send a letter {85 Consensus-Prayer, Acts 15:18} telling Gentile Christians, "Abstain from anything polluted by idols, from fornication, from meat of strangled animals, and blood." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²¹James reasoned, "Because there are disciples of Moses in every place, they read Moses every week and faithfully obey him."

²²Then the apostles and elders decided to choose and send delegates to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas to read the following letter to them. They chose Judas known as Barnabas, and Silas, because both men were leaders in the Jerusalem church. {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} ²³"The apostles and elders, your brothers in Christ, {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} send greetings to the Gentile brothers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. ²⁴We have heard that some of our members have upset you by demanding that you all be circumcised to be saved. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} They did not have our authorization, ²⁵so we have unanimously elected these delegates to go with Paul and Barnabas to deliver this letter to you. ²⁶We highly respect Paul and Barnabas, who have risked their lives for the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas who will reinforce what this letter says. ²⁸The Holy Spirit has led us not to burden Gentile believers with keeping the law, {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²⁹but we want you to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, and the meat of strangled animals, and from fornication. You will do right to avoid them. Farewell." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

³⁰The group left and went to Antioch where they gathered the church and delivered the letter to them. ³¹The church read it and was delighted with its conclusions. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ³²Judas and Silas stayed preaching to the Christians in Antioch. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ³³Then the church sent them back to their homes in Jerusalem. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³⁴But Silas decided to stay there. ³⁵Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} to help the others who were preaching and teaching to the church.

³⁶Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back to visit the churches we planted where we preached the Word of God so we can see how they are doing." {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} ³⁷Barnabas wanted to take John Mark with them, ³⁸but Paul was not in favor of it because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and refused to go on with them. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ³⁹Because

they disagreed, {122 Distraction to Prayer, Exod. 17:11} they parted ways, and Barnabas took John Mark with him to Cyprus. ⁴⁰Paul chose Silas to go with him and the church commended them to God. ⁴¹They traveled through Syria and Turkey visiting the churches. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

The early church had a deep doctrinal controversy. Some wanted to continue the Old Testament law, "Except ye be circumcised... ye cannot be saved" (Acts 15:1, KJV). Others realized God would save "all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called" (Acts 15:17, KJV). After the testimony of Peter, the church reached a consensus, {85 Consensus-Prayer, Acts 15:18} "Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world" (Acts 15:18, KJV). Lord, help me agree with other believers when conclusions are evident from Scripture. Also, help me correct my brothers when they obviously disagree with Scripture. Lord, I will quickly agree with the obvious teachings of Scripture, and I will study diligently the difficult things of Scripture. Then I will withhold my opinion on things too deep for me, but will trust You for wisdom and insight. Amen.

Acts 16 Paul Recruits Timothy

¹When Paul and Silas reached Derbe and Lystra, they met Timothy, whose mother was a Jewess but whose father was a Greek. ²Because Timothy was an outstanding Christian, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³the church recommended him to travel with Paul and Barnabas, but Paul had him circumcised because of the Jews who knew his father was a Greek. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Lord, thank You for the faithfulness of Timothy; may I have a good testimony so that the church would recommend me for Your work. Amen.

The Spirit Guides Their Ministry

⁴They visited many towns, delivering the decision reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5So the churches were strengthened in the faith as well as growing daily in numbers. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ⁶The Holy Spirit told them not to preach in Asia, so they traveled in Galatia. {209 Guilty-Blocking Prayer, 1 John 3:21} ⁷The Holy Spirit wouldn't let them go to the north or south, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 8so they kept going west till they came to the port city of Troas on the Aegean Sea. 9That night Paul had a vision {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} of a Macedonian man who said to him, "Come to Macedonia and help us." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ¹⁰Almost immediately they arranged passage to Macedonia, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} convinced God had called them to preach there. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

Lord, You guide in many ways; thank You for guiding Paul by a vision. May I always follow Your directions, no matter how You speak to me. Amen.

First Mission in Europe

¹¹Luke joined them ¹²and they sailed to Philippi, a Roman city that was the major city of that district. ¹³After several days they went to the river's edge where women met for prayer on the Sabbath day. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} There Paul preached to the women. ¹⁴One of them was Lydia, a worshiper of God {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} who had a business selling purple dye. She opened her heart to believe all that Paul was saying. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ¹⁵Lydia was baptized along with all her household, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} and she asked Paul and his companions to be her guests, saying, "If you think I am a true believer, then come stay in my home," and they did.

Lord, thank You that Paul came west with the gospel for it finally came to America and reached me. May I be as faithful in telling others about Jesus as Paul was in his missionary ministry. Amen.

¹⁶As Paul was going to the place of prayer, {97 Daily-Prayer, Acts 2:42} he met a slave girl who predicted the future by demon possession; she earned a lot of money for her master this way. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁷The girl followed Paul and his companions, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, and they tell us how to be saved." ¹⁸She kept this up until Paul became so irritated that he turned and spoke to the demon, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." Immediately the demon came out of her. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ¹⁹When her owner saw that his hope of making more money was gone, he seized Paul and Silas ²⁰and dragged them before the authorities in the market square, where they charged them, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 21"These men are Jews who are advocating practices that are unlawful for us as Romans to accept or follow." 22A crowd quickly formed and began yelling against them, so the magistrates had them stripped and flogged. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²³They were given many lashes, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} then thrown in prison, and the jailer was told to keep a close watch on them. ²⁴He followed the instructions, threw them into the inner prison, and locked their feet in stocks. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

²⁵That night Paul and Silas were praying {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} and singing psalms to God {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} while the other prisoners listened. ²⁶Suddenly an earthquake shook the prison, and the doors flew open and the chains fell off all the prisoners. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20}

Lord, as Paul and Silas fellowshipped with You in prayer, and worshiped You with psalms, the doors were opened and the chains fell off their hands. I know this was Your miracle for You came to receive their worship. Jesus said, "You seek worship." I know You don't need doors to open for Your entrance, but it was a nice touch in this situation. Amen.

²⁷The jailer awakened and saw the doors open, so he drew his sword and was about to commit suicide, thinking his prisoners had escaped. ²⁸Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself; we are all here." 29The jailer got a light and rushed in. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} When he accounted for all the prisoners, he fell at the feet of Paul and Silas, 30 asking, "What must I do to be saved?" {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ³¹They replied, "Believe in Jesus Christ and you will be saved, you and your household." {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 32Then Paul explained the Word of the Lord to him and all those in his house. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ³³The jailer washed their wounds, and then he and his family were baptized. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ³⁴He brought them into his house and fed them a meal. The whole family celebrated their conversion and belief in God. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

³⁵When morning came, the magistrates sent a message to the jailers to release them. ³⁶The keeper of the prison said to Paul, "The magistrates have let you go; therefore go in peace." ³⁷Paul said, "No! They have beaten us publicly without a trial despite the fact we are Roman citizens. They can't get rid of us quietly, so let them come and release us themselves." {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³⁸The magistrates were frightened when they heard they were Romans, {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ³⁹so they came to the jail and begged them to leave the city. ⁴⁰Paul and Silas returned to Lydia's home and preached words of encouragement to them before they left the city. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

Lord, thank You for providentially protecting Paul's life; I know a child of God is immortal and death can't touch him until You have finished Your will for him on earth. Amen.

Acts 17 The New Church at Thessalonica and Berea

¹Paul traveled to Thessalonica and entered the synagogue, ²as was his custom. He debated with the Jews for three weeks, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ³explaining and proving that the Messiah must suffer and be resurrected. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Paul explained that the Messiah is Jesus. ⁴Some were convinced and joined Paul and Silas, as well as many God-fearing Gentiles; many of these were rich women. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2

Thess. 1:3} 5The unbelieving Jews resented Paul and recruited a gang of thugs from the marketplace to riot against Christians in the city. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} They ran to Jason's home, hoping to find Paul and Silas and bring them before the city officials. ⁶When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and another person to court, charging, "These men who have turned the world upside down, have come here now. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 7They defy Caesar's decree, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} saying, 'There is another King called Jesus." 8When the authorities heard this, the crowd and city officials were alarmed, and 9they made Jason post a bond before releasing him.

Lord, help me be faithful in the face of opposition. You've turned my private world upside down. May I become a witness to those I meet in life. Amen.

¹⁰The Christians immediately sent Paul and Silas inland to Berea, {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} where Paul went into the Jewish synagogue and spoke. ¹¹The Bereans were more fair-minded than the Thessalonians in that they gave an example of how to listen to the Word of God.

Lord, I will receive the Word of God with an open mind; I will search—daily—every part of Scripture to determine what You have said for me to believe and live. Amen. 12Then many of them believed. 13The Jews from Thessalonica heard that Paul was preaching in Berea, so they went there to stir up a riot. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} 14The Christians arranged for Paul to leave immediately, and Silas and Timothy were left to build up the church. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} 15An escort went with Paul to Athens, then Paul sent a message for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed.

Lord, give me a love and reverence for Your Word. May I study it carefully—every word—to know what You've said. Give me a passion to live a holy productive life for You. May my life be based on the principles I've learned from Your Word. Amen.

Paul Preaching in Athens

¹⁶While waiting for Silas and Timothy, Paul was upset because the whole city of Athens was worshiping idols. 17Paul debated in the synagogue with the Jews {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} and God-fearing Gentiles as well as in the city market with those gathered there. 18While speaking, some Epicurean and stoic philosophers listened to him {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} and they remarked, "What is this babbler trying to say?" They accused Paul of advocating a foreign God because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} 19They brought Paul to the forum at Mars Hill, asking, "Tell us more about this religion that you're preaching." 20 They accused Paul of saying startling things and they wanted to find out more about it. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²¹(The Athenians and foreigners who lived there spent their time discussing the latest new ideas.) ²²So Paul stood to address the whole forum, "Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4\} 23because as I walked about this place, I saw many idols. I even saw one with the inscription, 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' This is the God I worship, the One you don't know. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁴This is the God who created the world and everything in it. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} He does not make His home in shrines built by humans, ²⁵nor does He need anything humans can do for Him because He is the One who gives everything to everyone, including their life and breath. ²⁶God created one ancestor; the whole human race comes from one man and they scattered over the whole face of the earth. God has determined the length of their lives, and the limits where they live. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²⁷God wants all to search for Him so they might find Him because God is not far from each of us. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²⁸For in Him we live and move and exist. Some of your writers have said, 'We are all His children, so ²⁹ since we are the children of God, we should not think of deity in terms of gold, silver, or a carved statue. ³⁰God overlooks this sort of mistake when we are ignorant, but now He tells everyone everywhere to repent {399

Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³¹because God has set a date when He will judge the world. God appointed a Man to judge rightly, and proved this to us by raising that man from the dead." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³²When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some laughed, and others said, "We would like to hear about this again." ³³At this time Paul left the forum, ³⁴but some joined him and became believers, among them Dionysius a member of the Areopagus, a woman named Damaris, and several others. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3}

Lord, may I have opportunities to tell people what You've done for me. I want to tell people the gospel who've never heard it correctly; I want to be used by You, as You used Paul. Amen.

Acts 18 Paul at Corinth

¹Paul left Athens and went to Corinth where he ²stayed in the home of Aquila, the tentmaker. Aquila with his wife, Priscilla, were originally from Turkey, but recently they were thrown out of Rome because all Jews were expelled by Claudius the emperor. ³Paul worked for them, for he was a tentmaker. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

⁴Every Sabbath day Paul debated in the synagogue, trying to convert Jews as well as Gentiles who attended. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ⁵After Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul spent his full time testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Messiah. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ⁶When the Jews threatened Paul, {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} he shook the dust off his robe and said, "Your blood be upon your own hands. From now on I will preach the gospel to the Gentiles with a clear conscience."

⁷Paul then moved the church into the house of Titius Justus, a believer {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} who lived next to the synagogue. 8Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, became a believer, {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} and a great many Corinthians also believed and were baptized. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ⁹Therefore the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision at night saying, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} "Don't be afraid of leaving the synagogue to worship in a house. Continue speaking {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} 10because I'll be with you, and no one will harm you. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} I have many in this city who will become believers." {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 11So Paul stayed in Corinth for eighteen months, preaching the Scriptures.

Lord, thank You for my church that nourishes me. I'm glad You approved the example of separating the church from the Jewish synagogue. Amen.

¹²When Gallio became governor of the region, the Jews banded together {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} to bring Paul before him for trial. They accused him, saying, 13"This man persuades people to worship God that breaks our law." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 14Before Paul could speak, Gallio said, "Listen you Jews! If this were a matter of breaking the law, I would not hesitate to listen to your charges, 15but you are bickering about words and your religious laws. Settle the matter outside the court room, for I do not intend to make a legal decision about religious matters." 16Gallio sent them out of the courtroom, ¹⁷and a crowd jumped on Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the court house. But Gallio paid no attention to it.

Lord, thank You for enabling me to live in a country that has separation of church and state. I will fully support my state as You command; I will fully support my church, which is my Christian duty. Amen.

Paul's Trip to Jerusalem

¹⁸After this, Paul left Corinth and sailed for Syria accompanied by Aquila and Priscilla. Paul shaved his head according to Jewish custom because his long hair represented a vow he had made. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

A vow is a solemn promise that binds the person to do a specific act or behave in a specific way. In the Old Testament a vow was probably a Nazarite vow (Num. 6:1-21). This was probably the vow of Paul, "for he had a vow" (Acts 18:18). Vows in the New Testament may be a fast or other promise of repentance. Vowing may be to seek God's favor (Gen. 28:20) or to express thanksgiving for His blessing (Ps. 116:12-14) or as a part of everyday prayers (Ps. 61:8). Vows must be paid to God (Deut. 12:6; Ps. 22:25). Lord, I vow to be holy to You. I want You to be glorified in my body. Amen.

¹⁹When they arrived at Ephesus, Paul went into the synagogue to debate with the Jews about Jesus the Messiah. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁰They asked Paul to stay a few days, but he declined because of his travel schedule. ²¹However, he promised, "I will come back if God allows me to do it"; {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Paul left Aquila and Priscilla there before sailing away. ²²When Paul landed at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem to greet the saints there. Then he returned to Antioch at Syria to visit the church that sent him on the missionary trip.

²³After spending some time in Antioch, Paul began his third missionary trip through Turkey, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} strengthening the churches he had established on his two previous trips. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8}

Lord, help me be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit to follow You obediently, as Paul did. Amen.

²⁴An Alexandrian Jew named Apollos came to preach in Ephesus; {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} he was exceptionally eloquent with a firm grasp of Scripture. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁵Apollos preached boldly and enthusiastically in the synagogue, but he only knew what John the Baptizer said about the coming Christ. 26When Priscilla and Aquila heard Apollos preach, they invited him to their home to explain to him the way of salvation more fully. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²⁷When Apollos left for Turkey, the brethren wrote a letter of introduction to the churches, asking them to receive him. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} When Apollos arrived, he strengthened the Christians there {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} 28 and vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from Scripture that Jesus is the Messiah. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, thank You for lay people like Aquila and Priscilla who know the Scriptures, and teach others. May I be a faithful teacher like them. Amen.

Acts 19 Paul's Ministry in Ephesus

¹Apollos continued ministering at Corinth. Paul traveled through Turkey to arrive at Ephesus where he found twelve followers of John the Baptizer who were still preaching baptism of repentance, and were looking forward to the coming of the Messiah. ²Paul asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} They answered "No, we don't know anything about the Holy Spirit." {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} ³Then Paul asked, "What did you confess when you were baptized?" {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} They answered, "Belief in the Messiah who is coming." 4When Paul pointed out that Jesus the Messiah had come, {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 5they were baptized immediately {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} in the name of Jesus. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁶When Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} and they spoke in unknown languages they hadn't learned. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 7And the men numbered about twelve.

⁸Paul spoke for three months in the synagogue, {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} debating about Jesus and the kingdom of God. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁹When the attitude of the Jews hardened and they began attacking the Way publicly, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} Paul took believers out of the synagogue. They met daily in the school of Tyrannus, {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ¹⁰where believers were instructed in the Word of God, and the gospel spread throughout the region. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

¹¹And God used Paul to work miracles {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}.

Just as Paul produced multiple believers (2 Tim. 2:2), he also established several self-producing multiplying churches. {68 Church-Multiplication Prayer, Acts 19:10} The Ephesus church reproduced itself throughout the adjoining area (Acts 19:10). Lord, I pray that my church will reproduce itself by planting other new churches. That way we'll be part of the Great Commission. Amen.

¹²Paul's ministry included healing the sick through prayer. His handkerchiefs were taken to the sick and they were healed because of their faith. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ¹³Some itinerant Jewish evangelist who cast out demons came to Ephesus and spoke the name of "Jesus as preached by Paul." 14The man Sceva, a Jewish priest from the Levitical family, and his seven sons, 15 tried to cast out a demon, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} who answered, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?" 16The demon-possessed man attacked them and beat them mercilessly, and he ripped their clothes off them, so that they ran out of the house naked. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹⁷When people in Ephesus heard about the episode, both Jews and Gentiles were impressed, and they were afraid to attack Christianity {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} so the gospel spread everywhere. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁸Many new believers came forward to repent of their evil deeds, and {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁹those who practiced magic and sorcery burned their incantation books and charms in a big public fire. Someone estimated their value at 10,000 pieces of silver. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁰As a result the Word of God became more influential and its message was spread widely. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

²¹After this happened, Paul decided to visit Greece on his way to Rome, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 22so he sent Timothy and Erastus to prepare the way. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²³About this time a riot broke out against Christianity in Ephesus. ²⁴It began when Demetrius, a silversmith, ²⁵called together many of the craftsmen who made silver idols of Diana. 26He said, "Paul has persuaded many that our idols are not gods, and our sales are going down. Not only here but in all Turkey, Paul is destroying the idol trade market. ²⁷Paul is also desecrating our temple dedicated to Diana and reducing worship of Diana over the whole world." ²⁸They began to chant, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} "Great is Diana of the Ephesians," ²⁹ and the whole town rushed into the amphitheater dragging along the believers, Gaius and Aristarchus. 30Paul wanted to go make an appeal to the crowd, but for safety's sake the Christians wouldn't let him enter. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:17} ³¹Roman officers also sent messages telling Paul not to go there. 32The crowd was confused, some shouting one thing, others another; most didn't even know about the "silversmith" controversy. 33A Jew named Alexander was pushed to the front, but the crowd wouldn't let him speak. 34 They shouted for two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians." 35The town clerk eventually quieted the crowd and told them, "Everyone knows the greatness of Diana who guards our temple, and who fell from heaven. ³⁶So as this cannot be spoken against, you must be quiet. 37For you have brought these men here who have not committed crimes against our goddess. ³⁸If Demetrius and the craftsmen want to complain, {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} let them take their case to court. 39We must raise our questions in a regular city council, 40 otherwise Rome will charge us with rioting and send soldiers to investigate or punish us." 41The clerk then dismissed the crowd and they left.

Lord, help me see Your plan for my life when there is civic turmoil; may I always trust You to protect me in strife. Amen.

Acts 20 Paul's Last Trip to Ephesus

Lord, thank You for protecting Paul's life and giving him wisdom when to be bold, and in this case to avoid confrontation. Amen.

¹After Paul encouraged the Christians in Ephesus, he said good-bye and left for Macedonia. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²He then set sail for Greece and ³stayed there three months. As Paul was planning to leave by ship, he discovered that the Jews plotted to kill him. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} So he went by land through northern Greece. ⁴Paul had many traveling with him for protection: Sopater, Aristarchus, Secundus, Gaius, Timothy, Tychicus, and Trophimus. ⁵These men went ahead and waited at Troas.

⁶After celebrating the Passover, Paul left Philippi and boarded a ship for Troas in Turkey. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} 7On Sunday, Paul observed the Lord's Table, {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} and then preached a long sermon that went on into the night. 8The room was hot because a large number of lamps were burning. ⁹Eutychus, a young man sitting on the window sill, fell asleep and then fell three stories to the ground. ¹⁰He was picked up dead, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} but Paul went down and embraced him saying, "Don't worry, there is life in him." 11Paul went back upstairs where he ate a meal, {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} then he talked until daybreak, and then left. 12 They took the boy home alive, and all praised God.

Lord, thank You for healing the young man; I know You will take care of me physically. Amen.

¹³Paul traveled overland to Assos, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} and the rest of his party went ahead by ship. 14 They joined together at Assos and Paul went on board the ship and sailed to Mitylene, ¹⁵then sailed by Chios, and the next day they went on shore briefly at Trosyllium, and the next day they went to Miletus. ¹⁶Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus and would not spend time in Asia because he was in a hurry to get to Jerusalem to celebrate the day of Pentecost. 17 Paul had the elders from Ephesus come meet him at the ship in Miletus. {344 Pastor-Prayer, 2 Cor. 1:11} 18 Paul told them, "You know how honestly I lived since I came here, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} 19how I served the Lord in all humility, how I remained faithful, even when the Jews plotted against me. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁰I never hesitated to tell you the truth, {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4} both publicly and in your homes. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ²¹I have declared to both Jews and Gentiles that they must repent and put their faith in our Lord Jesus. {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²²Now you know the Holy Spirit is leading me to Jerusalem, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} but I don't know what will happen to me there ²³except that the Holy Spirit in city after city has let me know that persecution and imprisonment await me in Rome. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²⁴But my life will be spent finishing the race that I have been running in the mission the Lord Jesus gave me, and that is spreading the good news of God's grace. {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1} ²⁵Now I feel sure that none of you will see me again ²⁶ for my conscience is clear concerning my work to you ²⁷ for I have declared the whole gospel among you. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ²⁸Guard yourselves and the flock that the Holy Spirit has given you, {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14} and be a good example in leading them in godliness and feed the church which is bought with Christ's blood. {384 Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Rom. 12:3-8} 29I know when I have gone, false teachers will come who will not have compassion on the flock. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ³⁰Also men from among yourselves will distort the truth to draw away disciples to follow them. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 31So be on your guard, and {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} remember that night and day I kept constant watch care over the flock, shedding many tears for you in prayer. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 32Now I commit you to God and the word of His grace {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} which will give you an inheritance among the saints. 33I never asked anyone for money or clothes 34 for you know I worked to earn money to meet my needs. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 35I did this to be a constant example to the church to help the poor, for I remember the words of Jesus, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ³⁶When Paul finished speaking, they knelt on the beach {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} and prayed. ³⁷Then they wept {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} and embraced Paul ³⁸because he said they wouldn't see him again.

Lord, thank You for friends who pray for me as the elders prayed for the apostle Paul. Raise up prayer supporters who will intercede for me as I live and serve You. Amen.

Acts 21 Paul Goes to Jerusalem

Lord, I see how You protected Paul in many small ways; do the same for me, protecting me through the humdrum of life. Amen.

¹Paul and his party sailed directly to Cos, then Rhodes, and Patara. ²They transferred to a different ship and sailed toward Lebanon, ³sailing to the south of Cyprus, and coming to Tyre, where the ship unloaded its cargo. ⁴Paul went on shore, found some believers and stayed with them seven days. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} They told Paul by the Holy Spirit not to go to Jerusalem. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ⁵As Paul left, they went with him to the ship and they knelt together to pray. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁶Paul and his party boarded a ship and continued toward Jerusalem.

⁷Paul sailed from Troas to Lebanon, stopping at several places. The ship landed at Tyre where Paul stayed one day; {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} the Christians kept telling Paul not to go to Jerusalem. 8Paul then sailed to Caesarea, and stayed with Phillip the evangelist, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 9who had four daughters in ministry; he was one of the original seven deacons. ¹⁰After several days, {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} Agabus, the prophet, arrived to see Paul; 11he took the belt on Paul's tunic and tied his hands and feet saying, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} "The owner of this belt will be bound hand and foot in Jerusalem and then handed over to the Gentiles." ¹²Everyone who heard this begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem 13but he replied, "Why are you trying to change my mind? I am ready not only to be bound in Jerusalem, but also to die for the name of the Lord Jesus." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 14When the crowd saw they couldn't change Paul's mind, they said, "The will of the Lord be done." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

Lord, give me resolute determination to follow You even when it seems dangerous and life-threatening. Amen.

¹⁵Paul left to go up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Christians from Caesarea went with him {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} to the home of Mnason from Cyprus who had been one of the earliest disciples. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

¹⁷The brothers gave Paul a warm welcome when Paul arrived in Jerusalem. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁸The next day Paul visited James and the elders, and he ¹⁹gave them a detailed account of what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²⁰The brothers gave glory to God when they heard it. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Then the elders told Paul, "There are thousands of Jews who have been saved. who staunchly uphold the law. ²¹They have heard that you tell Jewish Christians to break with Moses, and you authorize them not to circumcise their children. ²²They will certainly hear that you are here and will want a meeting with you. 23Here is what we suggest you do. We have four men who have taken a Nazarite vow. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁴You go with them to the temple to be purified with them. You pay the temple expenses connected with shaving their heads. This will let everyone know you keep the law and that there is no truth in the rumors about you. ²⁵As for Gentile believers, we aren't asking them to observe these temple customs. The only thing they must do is not eat food offered to idols, and not eat the blood in animals that have been strangled, and avoid fornication." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁶The next day Paul went with the four men to the ceremony to be purified, and announced that in seven days they would offer sacrifices to end the vow. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

²⁷When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from Asia saw Paul in the temple and began a riot, ²⁸shouting, "Men of Israel! This man preaches to everyone, everywhere that it is wrong to keep the law and worship in the temple. He has profaned the Holy Place by bringing Gentiles here." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim.

3:12} ²⁹But they were wrong. They had seen Trophimus from Ephesus with Paul in the city and thought he brought him into the temple. ³⁰People came running from every direction, and they grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the temple. The gates were closed behind them. ³¹The crowd would have killed Paul but Roman. soldiers intervened because their officer heard there was rioting in the city. ³²The soldiers stopped the crowd from beating Paul. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} 33The Roman officer arrested Paul, chained his hands and feet, then asked Paul to identify himself. 34 The crowd called out different things, making it impossible for the officer to get a positive identification of Paul. 35Paul was carried by the soldiers to the stairs because the crowd was so violent. 36They were shouting, "Kill him." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ³⁷When Paul spoke to the officer, {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} he was surprised Paul spoke Greek. Then the officer said, ³⁸"Aren't you the Egyptian who led an insurrection of 4,000 cutthroats." 39Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Turkey, a Roman citizen. Please let me speak to the people." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

⁴⁰The officer gave Paul permission, so he stood on the stairs and lifted his hands for silence. He spoke to them in Hebrew. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

Lord, You promised trials and hardship to Your followers. I accept what You send to me. Give me strength equal to pain, give me usefulness equal to suffering, and give me inner joy equal to outer disappointment. Amen.

Acts 22 Paul Speaks to a Crowd in Jerusalem

¹ Men, brethren, and fathers, hear my defense as I stand before you now." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²When they heard him speak in Hebrew, they became quiet. Then they became even more quiet than before. 3"I am a Jew, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} and was born in Tarsus of Turkey. In this city I studied under Gamaliel and was taught to obey every Jewish law and custom. 4In fact, I was so devoted—as you are today—that I even persecuted Christians, binding them to death, delivering both men and women in chains to prison. 5The high priest or any member of the Sanhedrin will testify to these facts. I asked a letter from them to their brothers in Damascus to do the same there. 6I set off to go to Damascus to bring back prisoners to Jerusalem for punishment. I was nearly to Damascus {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} when at noon a bright light from heaven blinded me. 7I fell to the ground and heard a voice, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?' {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} 8I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' He answered, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.' {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} The people with me saw the light, but didn't understand the voice. 10I said, 'What do You want me to do?' {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} The Lord answered, 'Stand up, go to Damascus, and you will be told what to do.' {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹¹The light was so blinding that my companions had to lead me to Damascus by the hand."

Lord, I cannot deny the experiences of life. Thank You for those who brought the gospel to me; thank You for events that led to my conversion. Amen.

12"A man named Ananias, a devout follower of the law, and highly respected by the Jewish community, ¹³came to pray beside me and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Then he said, 14'God has chosen you to do His will, {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} to see the Messiah, 15 and to carry out His message. You will be a witness to all people {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} of what you have seen and heard. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁶Why delay? It's time to be baptized {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} as a sign your sins are forgiven.' {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ¹⁷When I got back to Jerusalem, I was praying in the temple, in a trance, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18 18 saw the Lord who said, 'Hurry and leave Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony.' 19'Lord,' I prayed, 'is it because I arrested and beat those who believed in You? ²⁰When Stephen's blood was being shed, I gave consent and guarded the coats of those who stoned him.' ²¹Then the Lord said to me, 'Go, I will send you to the Gentiles.'" {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²²The crowd listened to Paul until he said the word Gentiles, then they shouted, "Away with him, for he is not fit to live." ²³The Jews yelled, threw dust into the air, and waved their coats. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} Then the officer took Paul into the fortress.

Lord, thank You for Paul's witness in the face of opposition; give me boldness to testify for You when danger comes. Amen.

²⁴He ordered Paul to be examined under the whip to find out the truth. ²⁵When they strapped Paul down, he said to the centurion, "Is it legal for you to scourge an uncondemned Roman citizen?" {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ²⁶The centurion told his superior, "This man is a Roman citizen." 27The commander asked if Paul were a Roman citizen. 28"I am," was Paul's reply. The commander replied, "It cost me a large amount of money to become a citizen." Paul replied, "I was born free." ²⁹The soldiers who were going to flog Paul quickly left. The commander was frightened {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} because he could have been punished for scourging a Roman citizen. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

³⁰The next day the commander took off Paul's chains. He ordered the Sanhedrin to meet with the chief priest, and then brought Paul to stand before them.

Lord, Paul used a legal means to escape punishment; give me wisdom not to be punished needlessly for Your sake, and give me courage to accept punishment when need be. Amen.

Acts 23 Paul before the Jewish Council

¹Paul looked intently at the Sanhedrin, then spoke, "My brothers, I have always lived with a perfectly clear conscience." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²Immediately Ananias the high priest ordered those near Paul to slap him on the mouth. ³Paul responded, "God strike you, you filthy wall that's been whitewashed." Paul asked, "How can you break the law striking me before I am found guilty?" {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁴The men close to Paul said, "You're insulting God's high priest"; 5Paul answered, "I did not realize it was the high priest because Scripture says, 'Don't curse the ruler of the people." 6Paul became aware that the Sanhedrin was split between the Sadducees and the Pharisees, so he called out, "I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} on trial for the hope of the resurrection." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 7Instantly a debate broke out between the two opposing factions {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} and the assembly was evenly split. 8The Sadducees don't believe in the resurrection, angels, or eternal spirits in people, but the Pharisees believe all these. They shouted loudly at each other, and the Pharisees said, "We find nothing wrong with this man. Perhaps a spirit or angel spoke to him at his conversion." {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} ¹⁰The Roman commander, fearing they would physically beat Paul, ordered his troops to enter and take Paul to the fortress. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹That night the Lord stood by Paul {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} saying, "Be courageous! {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} You have witnessed for Me in Jerusalem, now you must witness for Me in Rome."

Lord, help me to be more courageous as was Paul because I don't witness for You as did Paul, even when I find myself in peaceful surroundings. Amen.

¹²Early in the morning some of the Jews held a secret meeting and vowed an oath not to eat until they killed Paul, 13a conspiracy of more than forty men. 14They told the chief priest and elders, 15"We have vowed to fast until we kill Paul, now it is your responsibility to ask the commander to return Paul so you can examine him closely. It is our responsibility to kill him in the streets as they bring him to you." ¹⁶The son of Paul's sister heard their plans of ambush and came to the fortress to tell Paul. ¹⁷He immediately had the boy taken to the commander. ¹⁸When the boy was brought to the commander, {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} 19they went to a private room where the boy said,

²⁰"These Jews will get the Sanhedrin to request you to bring Paul to be questioned more closely. ²¹There are 40 Jews who have vowed not to eat until they have killed Paul. They plan to kill him in the streets, and they are awaiting your order to deliver Paul." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²²The commander let the boy go, warning him, "Don't tell anyone you've given me this information."

²³The commander commanded two of his centurions, "Get 200 soldiers ready immediately. Leave now in the dark with 200 spearmen and 70 mounted cavalry. ²⁴Put Paul on a horse, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and get him safely to Caesarea and Governor Felix." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²⁵The commander wrote a letter, ²⁶sending his greetings to governor Felix. ²⁷"This man was seized by the Jews as they were attempting to kill him, so I commanded my troops to arrest him. Then I discovered he was a Roman citizen. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁸I took him to their Sanhedrin to find out what charge could be brought against him. ²⁹I discovered it was about their Jewish doctrine, nothing worthy of imprisonment. 30 When I was informed of a plot to assassinate him. I decided to send him to you and tell his accusers to bring their charge before you." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 31The soldiers carried out their orders {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and took Paul down from Jerusalem to the Mediterranean Sea. 32Then the mounted soldiers took Paul the rest of the way to Caesarea, and then returned. ³³After delivering the letter to the governor, they turned Paul over to him.

³⁴When Felix got the letter, he asked Paul where he was born. Hearing it was Turkey, he said, ³⁵"I will hear your case as soon as your accusers come from Jerusalem." Then Felix ordered Paul held in prison in Herod's Palace.

Lord, I marvel at the way You work in small details, You allowed Paul's nephew to warn the Roman commander. Lord, I thank You that the total might of the Roman Empire was used to protect Your servant so he could preach the gospel in Rome. Thank You for working in little and big ways. Amen.

Acts 24 Paul before Felix

Lord, I see Your hand working through politics and big government. Amen.

¹After five days the high priest, Ananias, some elders, and the lawyer named Tertullus appeared in court in Caesarea. ²When Tertullus was called, he brought their case before Felix, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} "Your Excellency, you have given peace and protection to the Jews and changed bad laws that persecuted us. At all times and in all places, ³we acknowledge what you've done for all Jews, and we are grateful. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ⁴I don't want to take up too much of your time, so let me tell you briefly what this man, Paul, has done. 5He is a troublemaker, stirring up trouble among the Jews worldwide, and is the ring leader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶He attempted to profane the temple. We placed him under arrest by the temple guards and planned to judge him by our laws, ⁷but the Roman commander Lysias intervened and used force to take him out of our hands, and then ordered him to appear before you. 8He will tell you the truth when you ask him." 9The Jews who came with their lawyer agreed to the charges, so Felix motioned Paul to speak. 10 Paul answered, "I know you have been a fair judge over the Jews for many years. Therefore I defend myself with confidence. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 11When I made my pilgrimage to Jerusalem only 12 days ago, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 12I was not arguing with anyone in the temple or their synagogues throughout town. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹³They can't prove their accusations they made against me. 14I will admit that I worship the God of my ancestors, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} according to the Way they call a sect. I firmly believe in Jewish law and everything written in the prophets. 15I believe, just as my accusers, that there will be a resurrection of the righteous and wicked. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 16I strive to keep my conscience clear before God and man. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁷After several years of absence, I came bringing alms for the poor and to present offerings to God. 18 It was in this connection that the Jews found me in the temple. ¹⁹I was purified and there was no crowd with me and no disturbance. ²⁰Some Jews from Turkey saw me there—these are the ones who should testify against me-because they said I desecrated the temple by bringing in Gentiles; but the Gentiles were not with me. Therefore I am not guilty of causing a riot. If anything, these Jews were the ones who caused the riot. 21I am guilty of one thing. When I was brought before the Sanhedrin, I spoke about the resurrection which caused a great argument." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²²Felix, who knew more about the Way than most people, adjourned the proceedings saying, "When Lysias comes, I will decide this case." ²³Felix ordered the Roman commander to keep Paul under guard, but gave him some freedom {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} and allowed his friends to come see him. 24A few days later Felix and his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, sent for Paul for a hearing on the subject of faith in Christ. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁵As Paul spoke about righteousness and self-discipline and judgment to come, Felix was terrified, saying, "You may go for now. When I have a more convenient time, I'll call for you." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁶He hoped Paul would pay him money so Felix frequently summoned Paul to talk with him. ²⁷Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jews, so he left Paul in prison. Then two years went by and Felix was replaced by Festus. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7}

Lord, thank You for Paul's positive witness before government officials; may I always give a clear witness to Your faithfulness. Amen.

Acts 25 Paul before Festus

Lord, I understand government officials represent Your power; thank You for law and order that gives security to my culture. Amen.

¹When Festus took up his appointment, ²he visited Jerusalem where the chief priest and Jewish leaders asked him to do something immediately about the case of Paul. ³They wanted Festus to side with them, and they asked for Paul to be transferred back to Jerusalem because they planned to ambush and murder him on the highway. ⁴Festus told them Paul would remain in custody in Caesarea and that he would hold court there shortly. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 5Festus said, "Send your authorities to Caesarea with me, and if Paul is guilty, you can bring charges against him." {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 6Festus stayed in Jerusalem for about 10 days, then returned to Caesarea, and the next day he had Paul brought before the tribunal. ⁷Almost immediately the Jews surrounded Paul and brought accusations against him, but didn't have any proof. 8Paul defended himself, saying, "I have committed no offense against the temple or against Caesar." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ⁹Festus was anxious to please the Jews, so he asked Paul, "Are you willing to go to Jerusalem to stand trial?" 10But Paul answered, "No! I am standing before the tribunal of Caesar, where I should be tried. I demand my hearing before Caesar himself. 11 I have done the Jews no wrong, as you very well know. I am not guilty of any civil crime. I do not ask to be spared from death, but since there is no substance to their charges, no one has the right to surrender me to them. I appeal to Caesar." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹²Then Festus conferred with his legal advisers and concluded, "You have appealed to Caesar, so to Caesar you should go."

Lord, I thank You that the government protected Paul from death; and thank You for the protection I have by my government. Amen.

¹³A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to pay a visit to Festus. ¹⁴They stayed several days. Festus explained Paul's case to them, "I have a man in prison that Felix left there. ¹⁵While I was in Jerusalem, the chief priest and the leader of the Jews demanded his condemnation. ¹⁶I told them Roman law does not surrender a prisoner until the accused has an opportunity to confront his accusers and is given an opportunity to defend himself. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁷So they came here to Caesarea and I took the tribunal seat and brought the man before me. ¹⁸The accusers did not charge him with any crime. ¹⁹They argued religious doctrine and about a dead man called Jesus whom Paul alleged to be alive. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 20Not feeling qualified to deal with this question, I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried on this issue. ²¹Paul appealed his case to the judgment seat of Caesar, so I have held him until I could send him to Rome." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²²Agrippa said, "I would like to hear the man myself." Festus answered, "Tomorrow you shall hear him."

²³The next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived, and in great ceremony, entered the courtroom with the officials of the city. ²⁴Then Festus ordered Paul to be brought in, and Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present today, see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me that he should not live. ²⁵For my part, I'm satisfied he hasn't committed a capital crime. But he appealed to Caesar, so I decided to send him there. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ²⁶Since I have no definite crime that I can write to Caesar, I am presenting him here before you, King Agrippa, and all these officials so that after you examine him, I will have an accusation against him. 27It seems pointless to send a prisoner to Caesar without charges against him."

Even though Jesus promised we would be persecuted (John 15:18-25), that doesn't mean we are to voluntarily accept or seek punishment. No, just the opposite. When persecuted, Jesus told us to flee to another city (Matt. 10:23). Paul used his Roman citizenship to escape a beating (Acts 22:25), and Paul used the Roman law to get a just hearing before Caesar (Acts 25:11). Yet if we stand before our persecutors, God will tell us what to say at that time (Matt. 10:19). Lord, give me wisdom about persecution. Teach me when to flee, and teach me what to say when I face my persecutors. Amen.

Acts 26 Paul before King Agrippa

Lord, I'll be grateful for opportunities to witness in official places for You; if I'm ever given the opportunity, may I do it with power. Amen.

¹King Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak in your defense," so Paul gestured for silence, then spoke, ²"I am fortunate to be able to defend myself before you, King Agrippa, ³because I know you are an expert on Jewish customs and law. So please listen to my whole defense. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁴Everyone knows I was trained from my childhood in Jewish tradition and completed my education in Jerusalem. ⁵The Jews have known that I lived in the strictest way among them as a Pharisee. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ⁶But the reason the Jews have charged me is something else. It is for the promise made to our ancestors. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 7It is for the promise that the 12 tribes worship God. It is the promise of the resurrection from the dead and eternal life. This is why I have been put on trial by the Jews. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 8Does it seem incredible that God can raise the dead? {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁹I did all I could to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth, and that is how I spent my time in Jerusalem. 10I put many saints into prison on the authority of the chief priest. When they voted to stone Stephen, I voted with them. 11 Many times I visited synagogues to punish Christians, trying to force them to renounce their faith. I was so angry against Christians that I pursued them to foreign cities. 12I was on one of these journeys to Damascus with authority from the chief priest. ¹³About midday on the road I saw a light—brighter than the sun—from heaven. It shone brilliantly around me and my fellow travelers, 14so that we fell to the ground. I heard a voice saying to me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? Your kicking is only hurting yourself.' 15Then I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' The Lord answered me, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁶Get up and stand on your feet {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} for I have a reason for appearing to you—to appoint you to be My servant, and be a witness to tell everyone you have seen Me; 17I will protect you from your people. I will send you to the Gentiles 18 to open their eyes to their blinded condition so they may turn from darkness to light, from satan's control to God's service, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} so their sins can be forgiven, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and they can receive the inheritance of eternal life.' 19After that, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ²⁰I began immediately preaching to the people of Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem, and all the countryside of Judea, and also to Gentiles. urging them to repent and turn to God, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and then prove their repentance by doing good works. ²¹The Jews arrested me in the temple for doing this, and tried to kill me, ²²but God has protected me to this very hour. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} Therefore I stand before you to testify to both high officials and the lowest of people alike {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} the same thing the prophets and Moses said would happen: 23that Christ would first suffer, and then rise from the dead {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} to proclaim the light of salvation to the Jews and also to the Gentiles." {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²⁴Festus jumped to his feet and shouted, "Paul, you're mad, and your learning has made you insane." 25Paul answered, "Festus, Your Excellency, I am not mad. I am speaking the truth." Then Paul turned to King Agrippa, 26"The King understands these matters. I appeal to him in these matters knowing he understands these issues, because none of these things were done in secret. 27King Agrippa, do you believe the things the prophets said? I know you do!" {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ²⁸Then King Agrippa replied, "You almost convinced me to become a Christian." {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ²⁹Then Paul replied, "I wish you were a Christian, both you and everyone who hears these words. I wish you were the same as I—except these chains." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³⁰At this point in Paul's speech, the king arose and the governor and Bernice and other government officials left the room. 31 They talked among themselves, saying, "This man has done nothing that deserves death or imprisonment." 32Agrippa said to Festus, "You should release this man, except he appealed to Caesar."

Lord, when given the opportunity, may I testify what You have done in my life, rather than talking about myself or my accomplishments. Not I, but Christ. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} Amen.

Acts 27 Paul's Trip to Rome

¹Arrangements were made to sail for Italy, so they handed Paul and other prisoners over to a centurion named Julius of the Augustine regiment. ²They boarded a ship that was scheduled to make several stops along the coast of Turkey. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} Aristarchus was with us. ³When they reached Lebanon, Julius let Paul go ashore to visit

Christians and receive hospitality from them. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 4From there they put out to sea, but because of stormy winds they sailed north of Cyprus near the coast of Turkey, ⁵and at Myra, ⁶they changed ships for one heading to Rome. 7The winds were still strong so they sailed under Crete. 8They struggled in the wind until they came to Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea, near Rhodes. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 9They stayed there several days because sailing was hazardous in the winter. So Paul warned the commander. 10"Friends, this is going to be a dangerous voyage and there is a risk that we will lose the cargo, the ship, and also our lives." {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ¹¹But the centurion listened more to the captain and owner than to Paul. 12Since Fair Havens was an exposed harbor that was a dangerous place to spend the winter, they decided to go farther; then they decided to winter in Phoenix because it was a protected harbor. 13 Just then a light wind blew from the south that was perfect for sailing; they took in the anchor and sailed past Crete, 14but before long a hurricane caught them in open waters. 15 It was impossible to keep the ship headed into the wind, so they gave up and let it run with the wind. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} 16It was a continual struggle to keep the boat under control. ¹⁷They hoisted the small lifeboat being towed behind them, then wrapped ropes around the hull to strengthen it. Then they dropped a sea anchor and let the ship drift.

¹⁸The next day when the waves grew higher, they threw cargo overboard. 19The following day they threw out the tackle and ship's gear. 20 They couldn't see the sun or moon for several days, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} so everyone gave up hope of surviving. {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} ²¹When they hadn't eaten for several days, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} Paul addressed everyone, "If you had listened to me, we wouldn't have this damage. ²²Now I ask you not to give up hope. No one will die, only the ship will be lost. ²³Last night God, to whom I belong and whom I serve, sent an angel to tell me, 24'Fear not, Paul, you will appear before Caesar. Therefore all who are sailing with you will be safe.' ²⁵So be courageous because it will happen just as God told me. ²⁶We will be stranded on some island." ²⁷On the 14th night the ship was still drifting when the sailors felt land was ²⁸near. They sounded and found the water was 120 feet deep. A little later they sounded again and it was 90 feet deep.²⁹Realizing that they would be driven into rocks, they threw out four anchors, and prayed for daylight. 30 Then the sailors planned to abandon the ship, so they lowered an emergency boat as though they were putting out anchors. ³¹Paul said to the centurion, "We will all die unless the sailors stay aboard." 32The soldiers cut the rope to let the small boat drift away. ³³As it began to get light, Paul urged everyone to eat something so they would have strength for the coming emergency. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} Paul said, ³⁴ There's no safety in fasting, and not one of you will lose a hair of your head." {161

Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³⁵Then Paul took bread, gave thanks, {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} broke it, and began to eat. ³⁶Everyone was encouraged and they ate. ³⁷There were a total of 276 on board, ³⁸so then they threw the grain into the sea. ³⁹When daybreak gave some light, no one recognized the island, but they saw a bay with a beach. They planned to run the ship aground on the beach if possible. 40 They cut the anchors, lowered the rudders, hoisted the top sail, and headed ashore, 41but the ship hit a sand bar. The bow of the boat stuck in the sand and the pounding waves began to break up the stern. 42The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners because they were afraid the prisoners would escape. 43But the centurion was determined to deliver Paul safely to Rome. He wouldn't let them do it. He gave orders for those who could swim to swim to shore. 44He then directed the others to follow on planks or pieces of wreckage. All escaped safely to the beach. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

We will all go through storms in life: financial, social, persecution, family, and physical. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} In a storm remember (1) His presence is with you, (2) you are His child and He has saved you, (3) He knows about your unexpected pressures, and (4) God has a plan for you in the storm and after the storm. Lord, keep me safe when storms strike, and help me say what I should say. Help me testify to others and may I help others get through their storms. Amen.

Acts 28 From Malta to Rome

Lord, when I get through the storms of life, I know You'll soothe and comfort me from my pain; but help me remember to praise You for deliverance. Amen.

¹When they got on the beach, they discovered it was the island of Malta. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²The inhabitants welcomed them and built a huge fire to warm them. ³Paul had collected a bundle of sticks, and as he placed them in the fire, a viper bit him in the hand. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 4When the inhabitants saw the snake hanging onto Paul's hand, they waited for him to die, saying, "He's a terrible sinner. The storm didn't kill him but the snake will." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Paul shook the snake into the fire, ⁶and his hand didn't swell up, nor did he drop dead. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} They changed their minds and said, "Paul's a god." ⁷They were near an estate belonging to Publius, the governor of the island; he fed the survivors for three days. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 8Plublius' father was in bed suffering from high fever and dysentery. Paul laid his hand on him and prayed for him and the man was healed. {214

Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} When this happened, 9other sick people came and were cured as well. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} When Paul was ready to leave ¹⁰ and set sail for Italy, the people of the island put provisions on board for Paul and his companions. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Lord, just as Paul prayed for the father of Publius, so I pray for the sick that I know. Give me the "prayer of faith" (James 5:15) for healing. Amen.

¹¹After staying there three months, Paul and his party sailed on an Alexandrian ship with a figurehead—Twin Brothers that had wintered on the island. 12They landed at Syracuse and stayed there three days. 13They sailed to Rhegium and when the south winds blew, they sailed to Puteoli. 14They found believers there and stayed there seven days, and then began the trip to Rome overland. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} 15When the believers in Rome heard about Paul's arrival, they came to meet him at the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns, Paul thanked God and was encouraged when he saw them. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

¹⁶When Paul arrived in Rome, he was allowed to stay in his own rented apartment where soldiers guarded him. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷After three days Paul called the leading Jews for a day's discussion. Paul said, "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or our customs, I was arrested in Jerusalem, and delivered over to the Romans. ¹⁸They examined me and would have set me free because they found I was not guilty of any crime. 19But the Jews filed an objection, and I was forced to appeal to Caesar. 20 That is why I asked to see you and talk to you about this matter. It is for the hope of Israel that I wear these chains." {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ²¹The Jews answered, "We haven't heard anything against you, we haven't received a letter from Jerusalem, nor have any who have arrived here from Judea said anything about you. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²²But we want to hear what you believe. All we know about Christians is that they are hated everywhere."

Lord, help me have a positive attitude in life even when I know there are many with negative thoughts about You. Amen.

²³They set a time so that a large number of Jews could visit Paul at his apartment to discuss Christianity. Paul argued from the law of Moses and the prophets, trying to persuade them about Jesus. They began early in the morning and continued until the evening. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁴Some were convinced, but others were skeptical, ²⁵so the Jews disagreed among themselves. Paul had one last thing to say to the Jews, 26"You Jews will hear the gospel, but not understand. You will see the truth of Jesus, but you are spiritually blinded {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22} ²⁷for your heart is hardened, your spiritual ears are shut up, your spiritual eyes are blinded because you refuse to believe what is presented lest your heart receive the gospel and you become convicted and are healed." 28 Paul understood from that experience that salvation was to be sent to the Gentiles, because they will listen to God. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁹After Paul said these words, the Jews left and reasoned among themselves. ³⁰Paul spent two years in this rented apartment welcoming all who came to see him, ³¹proclaiming the kingdom of God to all, teaching the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} with complete freedom and no hindrance. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

Lord, thank You for the great influential life of the apostle Paul; I cannot do all Paul could do, so help me to do all that I can do. You don't ask that I do the great accomplishments of others; You only ask me to be faithful to my gifts and obey Your commands. I'll do that. Amen.

Romans

Ch 1: Introduction and the Guilt of the Pagan
1627
Ch 2: The Guilt of Religious People1630
CH 3: ALL ARE LOST IN SIN1632
CH 4: JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH1633
Ch 5: The Results of Justification by Faith 1634
Ch 6: Deliverance from Sin in the Believer's
Life1635
Ch 7: The Struggle of the Old and New Natures
1637
Ch 8: The Power of the Holy Spirit in the Believer1638
Ch 9: Continuing Jewish Unbelief1641
CH 10: SALVATION IS FOR EVERYONE1643
CH 11: God's Mercy on the Jews1644
CH 12: A LIVING SACRIFICE TO SERVE GOD1646
CH 13: RESPECT FOR GOVERNMENT1647
Ch 14: Handling Questionable Things1648
CH 15: A Believer's Relationship to Others 1649
CH 16: GREETINGS TO PAUL'S FRIENDS1651

ROMANS

Key Word: Righteousness (Romans 1:17)

Key Verse: "For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, 'The just shall live by faith'" (Rom. 1:17).

Theme: The book of Romans gives the most systematic approach to theology (what to believe) of all the books in the Bible. Paul makes it clear that He is not "the God of the Jews only" but "of the Gentiles also" (3:29).

Paul began writing: (a) the whole world has sinned and is guilty before God (1:8-3:23); (b) the death and resurrection of Christ provides justification to all who exercise faith (3:24-5:21); (c) believers can be delivered from the power of sin (6:1-7:25); (d) the Holy Spirit gives victory (8:1-39); (e) God has past and future plans for Israel (9:1-11:36); (f) God has given guidelines for the practical Christian life and service (12:1-15:33). Lord, I will learn the essential doctrines of Christianity and live by them. Amen.

Romans 1 Introduction and the Guilt of the Pagan the apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in Rome telling them he was a servant who was chosen to preach the good news, {431 Servant-hood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²which You promised in the Old Testament through the prophets. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

May I always be faithful to my calling, as Paul was to his task. Amen.

³Lord, thank You for the gospel about Your Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who came as a baby through King David's line, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ⁴who was raised from the dead by the Holy Spirit to demonstrate that He is the mighty Son of God. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵Lord, thank You that through Christ all Your mercy has been poured out on me to be a witness to everyone, everywhere about Your grace; {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13} ⁶so they too can believe and become Christ followers. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ⁷Lord, Paul told his dear friends in Rome that You loved them and called them. Paul prayed for grace and peace to rest on them from You—God the Father—and from the Lord Jesus Christ. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

May Your grace and peace fill my life, as I walk in Your love and calling. Amen.

⁸Paul thanked You that the faith of the Roman believers in Jesus Christ was known throughout the world {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} 9and that it was his duty to serve You by continually praying for them. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 10Paul specifically prayed that he would have the opportunity to have a safe trip to come see them. 11He wanted to strengthen their spiritual gifts so their church would grow strong spiritually. 12Lord, Paul wanted to bless the Roman church by sharing his faith with them, and allow them to be a blessing to him. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

Paul desired to visit Rome to communicate his spiritual gifts to believers because "it will make you strong." When we use our spiritual gifts, we grow as we use them. Lord, give me wisdom to discover and exercise my spiritual gifts so others can get the same kind of gifts and serve You with their unique expression of their spiritual gifts. Amen.

¹³Lord, Paul told the Romans that he planned many times previously to visit them, but was prevented from doing so.

He wanted to minister to them just as he had ministered in other Gentile churches. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} 14Lord, I have a debt to carry the gospel to both civilized people, and unreached people groups who have never heard the gospel. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁵Lord, I am ready to preach to any or to all, just as Paul was ready to preach the gospel to those in Rome and to everyone in the world. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} Lord, I am not ashamed of the good news of Christ, for it is powerful to get people to believe so they can be saved. ¹⁶Lord, I agree with the priority that Paul gave that the gospel must first be preached to the Jews, then to Gentiles.

The good news is God's power to forgive my sins, or God's power to give me eternal life, or God's power to transform a kid who cursed all the time into one who wanted to speak only the words of God. There are great miracles such as walking on water or healing a leper, or feeding five thousand people with five loaves and two small fish. But the greatest miracle for humans—the power of God—is to transform a sinner into a saint. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} Lord, thank You for all I received from You when I got saved. But the greatest power was my transformation from a lost sinner into one who lives for You by faith (1:17). Amen.

The Justified Live by Faith

¹⁷When a person puts his personal trust in the gospel, You declare him righteous—fit for heaven. This is what the Old Testament teaches, "The just shall live by faith."

Paul tells us to live by faith (Rom. 1:17); then he adds the phrase, "from faith to faith" (1:17). There are at least 6 different ways to express faith: {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} (1) objective faith is in the Bible, what we believe (content), which we call our statement of faith; (2) saving faith is for the forgiveness of sins; (3) justifying faith is when we act on our new position in Christ because we have been declared righteous; (4) indwelling faith operates in us by the Son of God who lives in our heart (Gal. 2:20); (5) living by faith is obedience to biblical principles; and (6) the gift of faith is a spiritual gift to serve God in extraordinary ways by exercising faith in God, usually to remove barriers. Lord, give me all kinds of faith to serve You in many different ways. Amen.

Why the Pagan Are Lost

¹⁸Lord, You have revealed that You will punish everyone who trespasses Your commands because they reject the truth given them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁹You have revealed Yourself to everyone's conscience. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁰Also everyone can plainly learn from nature that it took a powerful Creator to create this vast universe, and that it took an intelligent Creator to put the laws of nature in place to control everything. Lord, now no one can give an excuse when they are judged and condemned because everyone knows You exist and You have eternal power. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²¹Lord, everyone knows You exist, but they won't acknowledge You, or thank You for natural blessings, or worship You. They are controlled by illogical thought patterns because they reject the logic of Your existence. Their minds are blinded and confused. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²²When they think they are wise, they actually are foolish. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²³Instead of worshiping Your glorious presence, they worship gods made out of wood, or stones that look like birds, or animals, or snakes, or corrupt people. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²⁴Lord, You allowed those who reject You to do all types of sexual sins, so that they could fulfill their lust, degrading their bodies with one another. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁵Instead of believing the truth they knew about You, they deliberately rejected You, choosing to worship and serve created idols rather than You, the Creator, who could bless them. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁶Lord, You abandoned them to their passions because their women turned from natural sexual practices to abnormal acts. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁷Their men turned from normal relations with women and turned to lustful sexual practices with one another, men behaving indecently with men, so that they pay a penalty with their souls for their perversion. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁸Lord, they refused to acknowledge You so You gave them up to their own irrational and corrupt ideas.

Now they continually try to think up new and sexually stimulating ideas that the depraved mind conceives. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 29 They are controlled by all sorts of evil and greed, and hatred, and fightings, bitterness, and lies; so that they even want to kill those who mistreat them. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ³⁰They quarrel, hate You, are proud, braggartly and continually think of new ways to sin, and hate their parents. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 31They don't understand what is right, nor do they know how to do right. They break their promises, are mean, and have no feelings for others. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 32 They know in their hearts You will judge them, but they deny it outwardly. They go ahead and do all these things in rebellion against You, and seek friendship with others who are also against You. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, I know that You alone are God and that denying Your existence and rejecting Your laws is sin. Give me faith to always trust You, and give me courage to always follow Your plan of living. Amen.

Romans 2 The Guilt of Religious People

¹Lord, people have no excuse for their personal sin because they criticize others who do the same sin. In judging others, they condemn themselves because they behave no differently than those they condemn.

{268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²Lord, You condemn all who rebel against Your laws, and You punish law-breakers impartially. Those who pass judgment on other people will be judged because they do the exact same things. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³Lord, You are patient with those who sin against You, since You wait a long time before punishing them. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁴You are giving them an opportunity to repent and turn to You from their sins; Your goodness should lead them to repentance. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I will live according to my conscience. I will do those things I know to do, and I will not do those things I know are wrong. Amen.

⁵But no, their stubborn refusal only adds to Your anger toward them. Then one day they will suffer punishment when You punish everyone for their sins just as the Scriptures teach. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

6"God will repay each as their works deserve." ⁷Lord, those who seek Your honor and immortality will earn eternal life from You. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ⁸Those who refuse Your truth and do evil, You will punish in Your anger and fury. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ⁹Both Jews and Gentiles will suffer pain and suffering because they rebelled against You and chased evil. ¹⁰But there will be glory, honor, and peace, to those who seek Your salvation, including both Jews and Gentiles.

¹¹Lord, there is no favoritism of persons with You. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 12You will punish Gentiles when they sin even if they never heard of Your written law. You will punish those who have access to Your law, and they will be judged by what is in the law. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 13But I realize it is not knowing the law but keeping the law that makes anyone holy. ¹⁴Gentiles who have never heard the law know by their conscience what the law requires. They know by their reason to obey the law, even when they don't possess copies of the law. 15The substance of the law is written in their hearts, so that they know right from wrong. Their conscience accuses them when they sin, or it excuses them when they do right. Lord, You will punish the Jews when they sin because they disobey the written law that they possess. They know what is right, but don't do it. No one is saved because he knows what is right; he is saved when he does what is right. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ¹⁶Lord, the day is coming when Jesus Christ will judge the secrets of all people. I will be ready to meet You in judgment for I have been saved and I live for You. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Jews Are Just as Guilty as the Gentiles

¹⁷Lord, those who called themselves Jews should walk according to the law of God, and honor You with their lives. ¹⁸The Jews should know Your will because they know Your law, and they should know what is right and wrong. 19The Jews should be guides to the blind, and they should be a beacon to those in the dark. ²⁰They should teach the ignorant and unlearned, because they embody all knowledge and truth. ²¹But the Jews do not live by the law. They should teach themselves what they teach others. They preach against stealing, yet they steal. ²²They forbid adultery, yet they commit adultery. They despise idols, yet they make money by idol-making. ²³They boast about the law, yet they break it and thereby dishonor You who gave the law. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²⁴As the Scriptures teach, "It is your fault, Jews, that God's name is despised by the Gentiles." ²⁵Being a Jew is special if people obey God's laws. But if they don't, then being a Jew is no better than being a pagan. ²⁶When Gentiles obey God's laws, then God will give them the special privileges given to Jews. ²⁷Then Gentiles will be better off than Jews who have God's laws but don't obey them. ²⁸A person is not a Jew just because he was born of Jewish parents, or he has been circumcised. ²⁹A true Jew has his inward heart right with God and he is circumcised in his heart by the Holy Spirit. That person will get praise from God and not from man.

Lord, You require obedience, both by those who are circumcised and those not circumcised. Because You declare righteous those who believe in Jesus Christ, {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} I declare my faith in You. I will live for You. Amen.

Romans 3 All Are Lost in Sin

¹Lord, Paul asked if there is an advantage of being Jewish, and if circumcision means anything. ²Paul answered, "Yes, being a Jew has many advantages." They received Your message in the Old Testament. 3Yet, even when some Jews were unfaithful, their lack of faith didn't cancel Your promises. 4God, You will always keep Your Word even when everyone else is unfaithful. The book of Psalms says, "The Word of God will always prove to be right, no matter who questions God." ⁵Some point out that the sins of the Jews make You demonstrate Your holiness because You always judge sin. The Jews justify their sin, claiming people will say, You, God, are good when they see You punishing our sin. Then the Jews ask, "Is it fair for You to punish us when our sin helps others recognize You?" Paul answers, 6"That is absurd thinking. It means God could never judge sin if God didn't judge rebellious Jews." Paul continues, 7"That's like saying my lying makes You demonstrate Your truthfulness. 8When You judge the Jews' sin, You thus bring glory to Yourself." That's like saying, "We do evil to bring about good." ⁹Lord, Paul asked again, "Are Jews better off than Gentiles?" He answers, "No, both are under sin's control." 10 The Scriptures teach there is no good person left in the world, no, not one. 11There is no one who understands You, and no one is seeking You. 12All have turned from doing right, there is no good person on earth, no, not one. 13 Their speech is rebellious and filthy, just like an open grave. Their tongue is full of deceit, bitter curses fill their mouth, and their words are deadly like a snake's poison. 14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. 15 They are quick to kill or stab people in the back, ¹⁶creating misery and strife wherever they go. ¹⁷They know nothing of Your blessing 18 and they don't care what You think of them. 19Lord, the Jews should know what the law says, and they are responsible to obey what You say. Therefore the Jews stand guilty before You when they see clearly they aren't obeying You, so they know they are sinners. ²⁰Lord, You have spoken to silence every mouth; now the whole world is guilty before You. Therefore no one can be justified by keeping the law; rather the law makes us conscious of our sin.

Lord, I recognize my sin; I am completely unworthy to stand in Your presence. I sin with my mind; thoughts come that I shouldn't think. I sin with my emotions; I have desires that are wrong. I sin with my will, for I want to do what is wrong. I am a sinner, so transform me by the power of Christ. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I will stand before You in His righteousness, because I trust wholly in Him. Amen.

Righteousness through Faith

²¹Lord, thank You that we can know Your righteousness through the gospel, and not from knowing the law. ²²Now

there is a way to heaven for all sinners. You will declare us "not guilty" when we trust Christ for salvation. All can be saved—Jews and Gentiles—alike, by believing in Jesus Christ. ²³Lord, I know I am a sinner, because You said all have sinned, and come short of Your glorious benefits. ²⁴But both Jew and Gentile are declared righteous through Your free gift of grace when they are redeemed by Jesus Christ. ²⁵Lord, You sent Jesus to take the punishment for our sins, and reconciled us to You. You declared that sins committed before the Cross are forgiven by the blood of Christ, and declared that all sins now committed are forgiven. ²⁶In this way You make Your righteousness known. Therefore Your wrath against sin is justified, and You become the Justifier of sinners. ²⁷Lord, I realize I can't boast about anything that has to do with my salvation because my forgiveness is not based on what I do, but is based on what Christ has done for me. ²⁸Therefore all Christians are justified by faith without keeping the law. ²⁹You are not saving only Jews—no, You treat everyone the same way, whether they are Jew or Gentile. ³⁰You treat everyone the same way; all are forgiven if they have faith, it doesn't make any difference if they are circumcised or uncircumcised. 31Does that mean the law no longer affects us? No! Salvation is based on the law. This does not undermine the law—no! When we realize salvation is by faith alone, this places the law in its proper place.

Romans 4 Justification by Faith

¹Lord, Paul points out Abraham is the founder from which all Jews descended. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ²If Abraham were justified by doing something good, he would have had something to boast about. ³But the Scriptures teach, "Abraham believed God, and God declared him righteous." {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} 4When someone works, he earns wages; he gets what is due to him. ⁵However, when a man gets salvation free, he has not worked for it. You have justified him because of his faith. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} 6Lord, David said the same thing, "A man is happy when he is forgiven without doing good works." 7That man is blessed because his sins are forgiven and his deeds are no longer counted against him. 8Yes, blessed is the one to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

°Is this a blessedness only for the circumcised Jews? Or can Gentiles be justified before You? Look again at Abraham. ¹⁰He was justified by You before he was circumcised. He was declared righteous while he was uncircumcised. ¹¹When Abraham was later circumcised, it was an outer sign of faith within his heart. In this way Abraham became the spiritual father of all the uncircumcised believers so they might also be justified by God. ¹²But Abraham was also a spiritual father to Jews who had been circumcised.

The Promise from Faith

¹³Your promise to Abraham that he would be the spiritual father to all believers of all times, was based on his faith, not his works. ¹⁴If unsaved people can receive Your forgiveness by keeping the law, then our faith is pointless and empty. ¹⁵The law teaches we are punished for breaking the law but Christ has fulfilled the law in His death and He has taken it out of the way. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3}

¹⁶So we get Your blessings by faith, whether we keep the law or not. You will bless those who belong to the law as well as Gentiles who weren't given the law. As long as we all come to You by faith, we come like Abraham, who is the father of us all. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ¹⁷The Scriptures promise, "I have made Abraham the ancestor of many nations." God called the salvation of the Gentiles, as though it had already happened. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24}

Abraham believed that "God could call things that did not exist, as though they existed" (Rom. 4:17). He prayed for a supernatural breakthrough. Lord, I pray that I can be transformed to live supernaturally by Your power. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I can't do this in myself, so do a miracle for me. Amen

¹⁸Lord, when You told Abraham he would have a son and be the father of many nations, he believed Your promises to him; he hoped against any hope of his present circumstances. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹⁹Abraham did not have weak faith even though his body couldn't reproduce and he was 100 years old. Also Abraham realized Sarah was barren and old, 20 but he staggered not at Your promises through unbelief, but was strong in faith giving glory to You. 21 Abraham was convinced You had all power to do what You promised. ²²Because of Abraham's faith You forgave his sins and declared him righteous. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²³Lord, I know this kind of faith wasn't for Abraham alone, but is for me also. ²⁴You will accept me as You accepted Abraham. I too believe Your promises that just as You brought Jesus back from the dead, {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁵You will forgive all my sins and declare me righteous before You.

Romans 5 The Results of Justification by Faith

¹Lord, now that I'm declared right with You by faith, I can experience lasting peace. ²Since my faith in Jesus, I can enter Your grace, and I can boast of looking forward to Your glory.

³Also I can rejoice in my sufferings, knowing they work patience in my life, ⁴and patience produces endurance and when I endure, I get Your approval which gives me hope. ⁵My hope does not disappoint me because You have poured Your love into my heart by the Holy Spirit whom You gave me. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12}

Lord, I'm never disappointed in You. Because I've received Your great love, I have great hope. Amen.

⁶Lord, at the moment when I was helpless, I realized Christ died for sinful people, such as me. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ⁷I wouldn't expect anyone to die for a good person, even though that is possible, {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ⁸but You demonstrated Your great love for me by sending Christ to die for me, while I was a great sinner.

⁹Since His blood has done all this for me, He will also declare me completely righteous. ¹⁰Lord, when Jesus' death reconciled me to You, I was still not saved, I was still Your enemy. Now that I am reconciled, surely I can count on Your blessings by the life of Your Son living in me. ¹¹I rejoice in this wonderful new relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ based on what He did in saving me.

¹²Lord, I know when Adam sinned, sin entered the world for all people sinned and death spread throughout the human race. ¹³Sin existed in the world long before the written law was given. No one could be accused of breaking the law when there was no written law. ¹⁴Yet all people died from Adam to Moses, and it was their sin that led to their death. It was not a matter of their breaking the written law. ¹⁵Lord, Adam was a contrast to Christ, so the gift of Christ outweighed the fall of Adam. Through one man, Adam, many died, through the gift of one Man, Christ, many lived. The results of the gift of Christ outweigh the results of Adam's fall. 16For after the fall came the judgment of condemnation, and many committed trespasses because of the fall, but by the one Man, Jesus Christ, came abundant life. ¹⁷For it is certain that death reigned over everyone because of one man's fall. It is even more certain that life reigns because of one Man, Jesus Christ, who gives the free gift to those who don't deserve it. 18 Again, Adam's sin brought punishment on all, but Christ made it possible for all to be declared righteous. ¹⁹By one man's disobedience, many were made sinners; by one Man's obedience, many will be declared righteous. ²⁰Lord, the law was given to show all how far short they come in obeying You. The more we see our sins and failures, the more we realize how much You have forgiven us. ²¹Before, sin reigned over all, bringing death. Now grace reigns to deliver eternal life to those who are in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Lord, I know I have a sin nature that tempts me to disobey You. Give me strength to overcome my temptations. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} I look forward to heaven when my time of temptation will be over. Amen.

Romans 6 Deliverance from Sin in the Believer's Life

¹Lord, should I keep sinning so You can keep showing Your grace? {418

Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ²Absolutely not since sin's power over me is broken! Should I keep sinning when I don't have to? {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} 3Again, no! When I was placed into Christ by spiritual baptism, I was placed into His death. The control of my sin nature over me was broken by His death. ⁴In other words when I was baptized into Christ, I died when He died. When Christ was raised up from the dead, I was given new life to live for Him. 5Lord, I have been united with Christ in death that I might share His new life. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} 6My old lustful nature was nailed to the cross and it received a death blow so that I might not serve sin in the future. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ⁷For when I am dead to sin, I am free from all its power over me. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}

Lord, thank You that I died when Christ died, and that I was buried with Him. I also realize I was raised to new life with Christ in His resurrection. Now give me strength to live my new life. Amen.

⁸I believe that having died with Christ, I now share my new life with Him. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ⁹Lord, since Christ has been raised from the dead, He will never again die; death has no power over Him. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ¹⁰Christ died once for all to end sin's control, and now He lives in heaven with You. {405

Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 11So I look on myself as dead to sin's control, but alive to Your will through Jesus Christ. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ¹²I will not let sin control my physical body, and I will not obey its sinful lusts. {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.} 13I will not let any part of my body become an evil tool to be used for sinning. I give myself to You as one who is alive from the dead, and I give all parts of my body to You as instruments of righteousness. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} ¹⁴I will not let sin control me since I will be controlled by grace, not the law. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ¹⁵Lord, shall I continue to sin because I am not under the law? Absolutely not! {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} 16If I give myself to sin, I become a slave to the one I obey. I cannot be a slave to sin and death, and at the same time be a slave to Christ and life. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 17Lord, thank You that I'm no longer a slave to sin, but I'm Your slave, having believed Your principles from my heart. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 18I am free from the mastery of my old nature and I am a slave to righteousness. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ¹⁹Lord, once I was a slave to uncleanliness and self-gratification, but now I am a slave to righteousness and holiness. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 20When I was a slave to sin, I felt no obligation to obey Your will. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²¹I got nothing from serving sin, and now I am ashamed of what I did because those things lead to death. {303

Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²²But now I have been set free from sin, and I have become Your slave that will lead to holiness and eternal life. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ²³When I serve sin, I earn the wages of death, but You gave me eternal life through Christ Jesus, my Lord. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10}

Lord, I thank You for the gift of eternal life. I have a new nature, new desires, and new hope. Everything is new. Amen.

Romans 7 The Struggle of the Old and New Natures

¹Lord, Paul told his saved Jewish brethren that when they died to the law, it no longer held them in its power. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 2A married woman has legal obligations to her husband while he is alive. But all obligations come to an end when the husband dies. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 3But if she gives herself to another man while her husband is still alive, she is legally an adulteress. Nevertheless her legal obligations cease when her husband dies, and she can legally marry another. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ⁴Lord, Paul said that is why Christians who die to the law in Christ's death can now give themselves to Christ who arose from the dead that they might bring fruit to You. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} 5But when they give themselves to their sinful nature, their lustful passions controlled their bodies so they bear fruit to death. {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2} ⁶But now when we die to our lust that once controlled us, we are released from the law so we can serve You in a new way, not by legalistically obeying rules and traditions but by the power of a new life. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}

Lord, thank You for freedom in Christ; now I am free to do what You want me to do. I enjoy Your freedom. Amen.

The Law Cannot Save

⁷Lord. Paul told them the law was not evil. except that no one would have known what sin is except that the law told them. I would have not known that "coveting" was evil, except the law said, "You shall not covet." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 8The law stirred up my evil desires by reminding me these desires were wrong. Does that mean if there were no laws to break, there would be no sinning? Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 9No! I felt okay so long as I was ignorant of the law, but when I learned what the law meant, I realized I was a sinner. I learned I was a slave doomed to die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁰The law was supposed to lead me to life, but instead it led me to death. {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2} 11Sin took advantage of me by using the law to give me a death sentence. 12Lord, I know the law is holy, and the Ten Commands are good and just. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} 13Does that mean that something that was good was responsible for my death? Absolutely not! But sin is treacherous and deceitful. Something good was used for evil purposes. Thus sin exercised all its lustful powers over me. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 14Lord, I know the law is spiritual but I am unspiritual. I am sold as a slave to sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 15I cannot understand my reaction to things. Such as what I am supposed to do, I don't do, and what I hate to do, I continually go back to doing it. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, 3:18} 16When I act against what I want to do, that means the law is good. ¹⁷When I rebel against the law, it is not me that's doing it, but sin that dwells in me. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} 18I know that nothing good lives in me, it's my sinful nature that controls my life. 19I have a desire to do good things, but I cannot carry it out. 20When I try not to do wrong things, I do them anyway. So when I do the things I don't want to do, then it is not my true self doing them. Sin still controls my life. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} 21Lord, I've discovered a new law in me: every time I want to do good, I do wrong intentionally. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17}

As long as we live in the flesh, we will be tempted to do evil and rebel against God's commands. If we don't yield to Christ, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} we will be controlled by our old nature, and we will live in bondage to our old nature. What is bondage? It is "doing what we don't want to do, and not being able to do what we desire to do." {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} Lord, I yield my life to You. I will do what You want me to do, because I will do it in Your strength. I will refrain in Your strength from what I know is wrong. Amen.

²²I love to keep the law of God, {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²³but I see another law working in me. It fights the logic of my mind, making me a prisoner of the law, working in my body to make me sin; it's my old nature. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ²⁴What a miserable person I am. Who can rescue me from my slavery to sin? {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²⁵Thank You, Lord, that You will deliver me through Jesus Christ my Lord. Lord, what is the result of all of this? In my lower nature I am a slave of sin, but in my mind I am Your slave. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Romans 8 The Power of the Holy Spirit in the Believer

¹Lord, now there is no condemnation against me, because I am in Christ Jesus. ²The power of the life-giving Holy Spirit is mine through Christ Jesus. He has released me from the compulsive cycle of sin and the lust of my old nature. ³For the law was powerless to help me obey because I was a slave to my old nature. But You sent Your Son in a human body to be a sacrificial offering for my sin to destroy sin's domination over me. ⁴Now I can obey Your laws by following the leading of the Holy Spirit and refusing the lust of my old nature. 5Lord, those who are dominated by their sinful nature have made up their minds to sin, but I am dominated by the Holy Spirit because I have made up my mind to do what He desires of me. 6If I follow the dictates of my old nature, it will lead to death. When I obey the Holy Spirit, He leads me to life and peace. ⁷As a result, when I obeyed only my old nature, I have made myself Your enemy. My old nature has never been Your friend, and I can never make it obey You. 8Those who only please their old nature, never please You.

Lord, I will think the thoughts of Christ who indwells me. I will fill my mind with Scripture so I can think Your thoughts. Amen.

⁹Lord, I am not interested in pleasing the old nature. I am interested in spiritual things, because the Holy Spirit lives in my life. And I know I am Your child because I possess the Holy Spirit. ¹⁰Lord, even when my body is dead because of sin, my spirit is alive because I was declared righteous, ¹¹and the Holy Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead lives in me to give me life. Therefore after this body is dead, I will live again by the same Holy Spirit who is living within me.

¹²Lord, I know it is not necessary for me to obey the lust of my old nature. ¹³If I died physically when obeying my old nature, I'd be doomed to death. But Your Holy Spirit can stop my rebellion by His power that indwells me. ¹⁴Therefore, I will be led by the Spirit of God and I will be Your child. ¹⁵Lord, I am not just a slave who cowers in fear of breaking laws or displeasing You, but I received the Holy Spirit who made me Your child, so I cry to You, "Papa, Father." 16The Holy Spirit constantly tells my spirit that I am Your child; 17 now if I am Your child, I am also an heir, Your heir, and co-heir with Christ. Because I suffer as a Christian, I will also share in His glory in heaven.

We pray Abba when we don't have words to express our desires. The name Abba is our equivalent to "Papa" or "Daddy," plus other intimate names we use for our earthly father. Abba is the feelings of our heart for our father that can't be expressed in words. Abba, I crawl up into Your lap to tell You, "I love You" and "Thank You for being my Father." Thank You for giving me life, protection, food, clothing, shelter, belongings, and for life itself. I love You. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, my present sufferings are nothing when compared with the glories that are waiting for me in heaven. ¹⁹As a matter of fact, all creation groans, waiting for the glorification of Your children ²⁰because creation will lose its thorns, thistles, and the curse You put on it when You send Jesus at the end of time. ²¹Creation will be liberated from its corruption to enjoy the same magnificent redemption You will give to all of Your children. ²²From the beginning until now, animals and plants groan, expecting to be redeemed from the bondage of decadence to enjoy the same redemption as Your children. ²³I too groan while I wait for my body to be transformed, for that is my inward hope. By trusting You, I'm looking forward to getting a new body. ²⁴Those who are already in heaven don't need hope because they have already received their reward. ²⁵I continue to trust for something I don't have yet, but I wait patiently and confidently for it. ²⁶Lord, thank You for the help of the Holy Spirit who comes to assist me in my weakness. I don't know how I ought to pray, but the Holy Spirit intercedes for me. He prays with words I can't understand or express. ²⁷What the Holy Spirit prays for me is in agreement with You, my heavenly Father.

Lord, I don't always know what to pray for, nor do I know how to pray. I yield to the Holy Spirit and I let Him pray for me. I listen to what the Holy Spirit prays for me. Amen.

²⁸Therefore the things that will happen to me are for my good because He prays for me. ²⁹For when You foreknew me, You predestinated me to be conformed to the image of Your Son, so Your Son will be the firstborn among many children. ³⁰Lord, You predestined me and called me. Because You called me, You also justified me; and those You justified, You will glorify.

God's Eternal Love

³¹Lord, how shall I respond to Your great plan? If You are for me, who can be against me? ³²Since You did not hold back Your only Son, but You gave Him for us all, I know You will freely give me all things. ³³Who can bring any charge against Your children? Since You justify me, ³⁴who can condemn me? Christ Jesus who died for me and was raised, stands at Your right hand to intercede for me.

Some for whom we make intercession are believers who need help; others are nonbelievers who need to be saved. But our intercession is based on the intercession of Jesus, who presents our requests to the Father. Why? (1) We pray for the wrong thing; (2) with wrong motivations; (3) in the wrong way, with the wrong words; (4) without faith; and (5) with sin or other things in our lives that block our prayers. Therefore Jesus can: (1) make our prayers right; (2) open the door; (3) urge us to continue; and (4) give us hope that the Father will hear and answer. Lord Jesus, I come praying for others who need to be saved, and for believers who have needs. Hear those prayers that should be heard, and make them acceptable to the Father. Answer according to Your will. Amen.

³⁵Who can separate me from Your love? Not trouble, hardship, or persecutors, hunger, nakedness, or danger. ³⁶The Scriptures teach, "I must be ready to die at any time. I am like sheep awaiting slaughter." Lord, I rest in Your assurance. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} I know I'll go to heaven, not because of what I've done, but because of what You've done for me. Amen.

³⁷These are all trials over which I must triumph by the power of Christ who loves me, and died for me. ³⁸Lord, I am certain that nothing can separate me from Your love for me. Death can't separate me from You, also angels can't do it; neither can the satanic power of hell, nor things present, or things to come. ³⁹Nothing can separate me from Your love, not height, nor depth, nor any other creature, for I am safe in Christ Jesus my Lord.

Romans 9 Continuing Jewish Unbelief

¹Lord, Paul's conscience made him tell everyone that he had a deep desire that his Jewish relatives might be saved. ²Paul had deep sorrow and mental anguish because the Jewish people rejected Christ. ³He was willing to be cut off from Christ for their salvation.

Lord, give me a burden for the salvation of my lost relatives and friends, just as Paul had for the Jews who represented his flesh and blood. Amen.

⁴Lord, the Jewish people were adopted by You, and were given Your covenants, and Your glory visited them. You gave them the law and principles on how to worship You. They had everything, but rejected You. ⁵Lord, the Jewish people descended from the patriarchs and Christ came from their flesh and blood. Christ is the One whom they should worship above all, He is the One they should bless.

Lord, Your servant Paul loved the Jews and interceded for them (Rom. 10:1). I join him to pray for Your people, the Jews. The world has an unnatural hatred for Jews because they are Your people, and the world rejects You. But I pray for them. Amen.

⁶Lord, does this mean You have failed to keep Your promises because the Jews refused to recognize Christ? ⁷Absolutely not! Not all physical Jews are spiritual Jews, and not all the physical descendants of Abraham have the faith of Abraham. You promised that through Isaac the spiritual promises would be carried out, which means other physical children of Abraham didn't get the privilege of being in the line of Christ. 8That means that not all the physical children of Abraham are his spiritual descendants; only those who are the children of promise are his spiritual descendants. Lord, I believe Your promises to Abraham apply to me, and I have acted on the promises You made. I recognize Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, I have received Him by faith, and I am saved. 9Lord, Paul quoted Your promise, "I will visit you and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁰Then later You promised to Rebekah when she was pregnant by Isaac, 11before her twin sons were born, and before either of them did good or evil, ¹²that "The elder shall serve the younger." You chose Jacob before he was born—because Your choice is free—and it didn't depend on human merit. ¹³The Scripture said, "Jacob I love, because he is the child of promise." ¹⁴Does this make You unjust? ¹⁵No! Remember what You said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I please."

¹⁶Lord, I know the only thing that counts is Your mercy, not what people desire or try to do. I am saved by Your grace. Lord, thank You for having mercy on me. ¹⁷Lord, You said to Pharaoh, "For this purpose I raised you up, so I might show My great power and that My name may be known throughout the world." ¹⁸Therefore God shows mercy when He wants to show mercy, and He hardens those He wants to harden.

Lord, thank You for sending the Holy Spirit to soften my heart to spiritual things. Thank You for opening my blind eyes and giving me a desire to know You. Amen.

¹⁹Lord, many will ask, "How can You ever punish anyone since no one can reject Your will?" ²⁰Therefore You answer them, "What right has any human to question Me?" You created everyone. ²¹"The pot has no right to question the potter, 'Why have you made me this shape?'" Every potter, or craftsman, can do what he wills with the clay. He decides whether a lump of clay should be used for an extraordinary pot or an average pot.

Lord, I thank You for making me who I am, and thank You for my special gifts. Help me glorify You through my unique calling, and help me fulfill Your purpose for my life. Amen.

²²Lord, You have a perfect right to show Your anger at any time against those who rebel against ²³You, even when You were originally patient with them. You put up with rebels so You can show Your mercy and richness of grace. ²⁴Lord, You are patient with us, both Jews and Gentiles, to reveal Your grace and kindness to us. ²⁵You said in Scripture, "I will say to a people who are not My people, that you will be Mine. You are My people, ²⁶I will say to a nation that I have not loved, I love you. They will be called the sons of the living God."

²⁷Lord, You said, "Though Israel should have as many descendants as there are grains of sand on the seashore, only a remnant will be saved. ²⁸For You will swiftly carry out Your punishment once and for all. ²⁹For the Scriptures said, 'Unless You, the all-powerful Lord, show Your mercy, all Jews would be destroyed, just as You destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.'"

³⁰Lord, then the Gentiles who were not looking for Your righteousness found it. They found Your righteousness that came by faith.

³¹The Jews who were trying to find Your righteousness by keeping the law did not keep the law and did not find righteousness. ³²Why? Because they relied on their legalism, and not on faith. In other words, they stumbled over the law and it became a stumbling stone to them. ³³The Scriptures say, "You lay in Zion a stumbling stone—a rock to trip people up—that Rock was Jesus Christ. Those who believe in Him will not stumble or fall."

Romans 10 Salvation Is for Everyone

¹Lord, Paul told the Romans that the longing of his heart was for Jewish people to be saved. ²Paul knows the enthusiasm they have for You, but it is misdirected zeal. Their passion is based on wrong knowledge. ³They have never realized Your demands of them for perfect righteousness, so all the while they were trying to keep the law to demonstrate their own righteousness. Therefore all Jews, along with all Gentiles, are not perfect, but are sinners in Your sight. 4Lord, when I received Christ as my Savior, it was the end of my struggle to be righteous by keeping the law. 5 Moses wrote that if anyone could keep the law perfectly, and hold out against temptation, and never break one law, he could be saved and appear before God, but I could never reach that standard. I found salvation without searching heaven to bring the physical Jesus down to me, ⁷nor did I descend into death to find Jesus and raise Him from the dead to give me eternal life. 8I was saved by trusting Christ and He is within reach of any who look for Him.

⁹Everyone can have this salvation, which is as easy as opening one's mouth to call for it, and opening their heart to You. 10Salvation is obtained by the word of faith, which I received when I believed. When I confessed with my mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believed in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. I was saved! For with my heart, I believed unto righteousness, and with my mouth confession was made to salvation.¹¹The Scriptures promise that when I believed in Christ, I would not be disappointed, and that is surely true. 12Lord, Paul said Jews and Gentiles are the same, and that all must call on You for salvation. You are the same Lord who gives generously to those who call on You. 13 Paul quoted the Old Testament, "Whoever calls on the Lord will be saved." ¹⁴Lord, how can anyone ask You to save him unless he believes in You? How can he believe if he has never heard? How can he hear unless someone tells him? 15 And how will anyone go preach the gospel unless someone else sends him? Paul quotes the Old Testament to prove his point, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good tidings of good things!"

¹⁶Lord, Paul was concerned that not everyone was responding to the gospel. He quoted Isaiah, "Lord, who will believe?"

Lord, help me be a good witness of Jesus Christ to the world. They need to hear; I will tell them. Amen.

¹⁷Then Paul concluded that faith comes from hearing the gospel—the good news of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. ¹⁸Lord, Paul was concerned about the Jews being saved. They have heard Your Word because it is preached wherever the Jews live. 19Paul asked, "Do they understand?" Even back in Moses' time, God told the Jews, "I will use the nation of Gentiles that is devoid of spiritual understanding to provoke you to action." 20 Because Israel refused to preach to non-Jews, You told them, "I will be found by people who weren't looking for Me." 21Lord, even while Gentiles are being saved, You still reach out Your hands to the Jews-a disobedient people—who refuse to come to You.

Lord, I confess Jesus is Lord with my mouth and by the way I live. Bring glory to Yourself by my confession. Amen.

Romans 11 God's Mercy on the Jews

¹Lord, Paul asked, "Has God rejected His people?" Absolutely not! Paul was a Jew, an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ²No, it is unthinkable that God has repudiated His unique people, whom He originally chose. Remember what Elijah said in the Scriptures when interceding to You for Israel, ³"Lord, they have killed Your prophets and broken down Your altars. I am the only one faithful to You, and they seek to kill me." ⁴You answered, "No, you are not the only one. I have 7,000 left who have not bowed to Baal." 5Lord, in the same way, there was a remnant in Paul's day chosen by Your grace. 6So it was not the Jews' legalism but Your kindness that made them follow You. For if You recognized them for good works, Your grace would no longer be free. ⁷Lord, Paul came to this conclusion, but most of the Jews have not been saved. A few have found salvation, but the rest are judicially blinded, so they don't understand the gospel. 8The Scriptures teach, "God has given Israel a blinded heart to this day, so that their eyes see not, and their ears hear not." David said, "The food God has provided for them has become a trap so that they think everything is well between them and God. 10Let their eyes be blinded to God's goodness and let them serve sin."

¹¹Lord, I realize the Jews lost their divine privileges because of their sin and rejection of Your plan for them. May I ever follow closely Your leading in my life and may I stay close to Your protective grace. Lord, Paul asked the obvious question, "Have the Jews forever lost any hope of recovery? Or, have they just stumbled temporarily?" Your purpose was to make salvation available to the Gentiles, and then the Jews would be envious of what the Gentiles had, and want it for themselves. 12If all the world becomes rich in Your blessing because the Jews stumble, think of how much greater will be Your blessing when Jews come back to You and join the Gentiles in Christ. 13 Paul said he was addressing this point to Gentiles because he was an apostle to the Gentiles. ¹⁴Lord, You had a special message to the Gentiles, and Paul constantly told this to the Jews to make them jealous of what the Gentiles have, and thus some Jews will be saved. 15For if the Jewish rejection means the world is reconciled to You, how much more wonderful will be the return of Israel to You and Christ. It will be like the Jewish nation being resurrected from the dead. ¹⁶If the flour is good, then the bread it makes will be good, and if the root of a tree is good, then it will give good fruit. Since Abraham—the original root—was good, so eventually the nation of Israel will be children of Abraham's faith. 17Lord, Paul realized the branches of the olive tree called Israel were cut off, and the Gentiles—like wild olive branches—have been grafted into Your tree. The Gentiles now enjoy the life of Your tree that gives blessing. 18 But Gentiles should not think themselves superior, for the branches do not support the root, but the root supports the branches. Those branches, Israel, were cut off because of their unbelief. 19Gentiles may say, "Those branches were broken off so I could be grafted in," 20 and that is true. Israel was cut off because of unbelief. But that fact should not make Gentiles proud, but fearful. 21If You didn't spare the natural branches—the Jews—You will not spare the Gentiles when they reject You. ²²I won't forget, You can be severe as well as gracious. You are severe to those who reject You, and You are gracious to those who fear You, 23 for the Jews can repent of their unbelief and be grafted back into the place of Gentiles. ²⁴Lord, You are eminently able to graft Your people—the Jews—back again. For if Your great power were able to graft wild olive branches into Your eternal plan, then it will be much easier to graft a cultivated olive branch back into its original place.

²⁵Lord, I see Your original love for Israel, and I understand Your plan for Your people. Do not forget us who are Gentiles. Remember me, because I love You. Lord, Paul wanted his readers to know the mystery of Your dealing with Israel so they wouldn't be conceited. Israel is now spiritually blinded, but this will last only until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in. ²⁶Then all Israel will be saved, as it is written, "The Deliverer will come from Zion. He will turn the Jews from ungodliness, ²⁷and He will take away their sin."

Lord, I look forward to all Israel being saved, I don't know when, where, or how it will happen, but I believe You will fulfill Your promise to the Jews; just remember me in Your total plans for this universe. Amen.

²⁸Lord, the Jews are now enemies of the gospel, but they are beloved as far as Your eternal covenant with them is concerned ²⁹because You will never withdraw Your gifts and calling. ³⁰Remember, Gentiles were once rebels against You, but when the Jews rejected Jesus Christ, You were merciful to the Gentiles, ³¹and in the future, You will be merciful to the Jews. ³²For You have given up on all those who are habitually sinning, but You will also have mercy on any You choose to show mercy.

³³Lord, how rich are the depths of Your mystery, how deep is Your wisdom and knowledge. I can't possibly trace Your motives for I don't understand all that You do. ³⁴Who could ever know Your mind? Who could ever try to tell You what to do? ³⁵Who could ever give You anything? No one, for You are the supreme God. ³⁶All that exists comes from You, and is for You. To You be glory forever.

There are many things about God's nature that we as humans can't understand, but even in our limited understanding we must magnify God for what we know of Him, and for what we don't know of Him. There are many things that God does in this world, or things that He allows. We may not understand why certain things happen, but we must worship God, because "All things work together for good to those who love Him" (Rom. 8:28). Lord, I worship You for what I know about You and for what I don't understand about You. I worship You for all You do in my life that I understand, and for all I don't understand. Everything happens because of You, and through You, and for Your glory. Amen.

Romans 12 A Living Sacrifice to Serve God

¹Lord, I will dedicate my body to You, as Paul pleaded with all believers to do. Because of Your mercy, I offer myself as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to You; this is the first and best spiritual worship to You. ²I will not allow myself to be conformed to the principles of this world. But I will let my thinking be transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit. Then I will discover Your will for my life, which will glorify You and satisfy my desires.

Lord, I surrender my body to You. May I live holy to please You, and may I serve You with all my strength. Amen.

³Lord, because I have received grace from You, I will not exaggerate my value or importance. I will honestly estimate the gifts You've given me by the standards of faith You've given me. 4Just as each body has many parts, and each part has a separate function, 5so I am one part of Christ's body who serves in harmonious union with other believers because we belong to each other. 6My spiritual gifts are different than other believers. I belong to the body, that is, to other believers, and I need all of them to help me serve You. Lord, You've given to each one of us a spiritual gift, which is an ability to do certain things well. Those with the gift of prophecy, that is, speaking for You, should use their gift according to their faith. 7Those with the gift of helping others should serve people well. Those with the gift of teaching should teach well. 8Those with the gift of preaching should do a good job delivering sermons. Those who have been given money should use it generously for spiritual projects. Those who have the gift of administration should manage everything to Your glory. Finally let those with the gift of mercy-showing, show compassion and sympathy to the needy.

Thank You for giving me my spiritual gifts. May I discover them, train them, and may I dedicate my abilities to serve You. Amen.

Sharing Christ with Others

⁹Lord, I will love everyone as You loved me. I will not pretend to love people when I don't. I will seek the good things of life, and I will turn my back on evil things. 10I will love others as Your children should. and have deep respect for others. 11I will serve You with untiring effort, and will be enthusiastic in all I do. 12I will gladly accept all Your plans for me and I will be patient in trouble while always praying to do Your will. 13Lord, when Your saints are in need, I will share with them the things I have and open my home to them. 14Lord, I will always bless those who persecute me, and will never curse them.¹⁵I will share the happiness of those who are happy, and I will empathize with those who are sad. 16I will treat everyone with equal kindness, and will not condescend to the poor. I will not allow myself to be self-satisfied, but will show Christ to the world. 17Lord. I will never pay back evil for evil. I want everyone to see my integrity. 18I will try to get along with everyone, and be at peace with them. I will not try to get even when someone wrongs me. 19I will leave revenge to You because the Scriptures teach, "Vengeance belongs to You, and You will pay them back for their evil." Also the Scriptures teach, ²⁰"If your enemy is hungry, you must give him food, and if your enemy is thirsty, you must give him water to drink, and thus heap hot coals on his head." ²¹I will resist evil and conquer it by doing good.

Lord, I pray for those who hate me or try to harm me. Enable them to do good, and bless them with Your presence. I yield them to You. Amen.

Romans 13 Respect for Government

¹Lord, I will submit to government authorities since You have put them into office and all civil authority comes from You. ²Those who resist the laws of the land are rebelling against Your authority over them and You will punish them. ³Those who behave rightly according to Your commands should not be afraid of judges. Only criminals have anything to fear. I will live honestly and correctly so I won't be afraid of punishment. 4You put government in place to serve its citizens and to carry out Your revenge on criminals, punishing them when they break the law. ⁵I will obey the laws for my conscience's sake, and also because I'm afraid of being punished. ⁶This is the reason I will pay my taxes, since all officials are Your officers. 7I will give everyone what I owe them, and if I owe taxes, I will pay them. When I'm required to respect officials, I will respect them and honor them.

Lord, I pray for all leaders over me, that is, political, business, family, leaders, and others. May they make good decisions so I can live and work in peace. Keep them from making bad decisions that would hurt others and me. Amen.

Love Your Neighbor

⁸I will avoid getting into debt, except the debt of love I owe to all. When I love others, I fulfill my debt. ⁹Lord, all the commands such as, "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," are summed up in one command, "You must love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰Love is the one act that will not hurt my neighbor and it's the only law I need.

Lord, help me obey all the laws and principles so I can be a good testimony to You, and so I can be healthy and prosperous in my life. Amen.

¹¹Lord, the time has come for me to wake up because the coming of the Lord Jesus is closer than when I was saved. ¹²The night is almost over, and it will soon be daylight. I will repent of anything done under the cover of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³I will behave because I live in the light. I will not attend wild parties, nor get drunk, nor commit adultery, nor get into fights. ¹⁴Lord, I want You to help me live as I should, so I will not plan to do anything evil.

Lord, I can't repeat the past; help me learn from it. I'm not yet living in the future; help me plan properly for it. I'm living today, give me strength to do my best, and may the present be influenced by what I've learned from the past and what I should do in the future. Amen.

Romans 14 Handling Questionable Things

¹Lord, I will give a warm welcome to those who are weak in the faith. 2I realize there are degrees of Christian obedience so I won't argue whether or not they eat meat offered to idols. Some believe eating meat offered to idols is all right, others who are weak in faith think it is wrong, so they won't eat meat at all, just vegetables. ³Those who think it is all right to eat meat, should not look down on those who don't. And those who don't eat meat should not find fault with those who do. You have accepted all believers as Your children, they are Your servants to command. 4Everyone is responsible to please You, and they are not accountable to other believers. I will let You tell them what is right or wrong because You have the power to straighten out believers. 5Some treat certain days holier than other days, and yet others treat all days the same. Each believer is free to hold his own convictions. 6Those who observe special days do so to honor You. The one who eats meat does so to honor You, if he gives thanks first. The one who does not eat meat also is honoring You, if he gives thanks first. 7I am not my own boss to do anything I please. 8When I live, I live for You. When I die, I go to be with You. Whether I am alive or dead, I belong to You. 9Christ died and was resurrected. so that He might be the Lord of the living and the dead. ¹⁰This is why I will not pass judgment on any, as some have done, because we'll all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. Because of this I realize that each of us must give an account of ourselves to You. 11For it is written in Scripture, "As I live," says the Lord, "every knee will bow before me, and every tongue will confess Me." 12So then, every one of us must give an account of ourselves to You. ¹³Lord, I will not pass judgment on other believers. Therefore I've made up my mind never to cause my brother to stumble. 14I know that food is all right to eat, for the Lord Jesus said, "No food is ceremonially unclean in itself." If some think certain food is unclean, then it is unclean to them. ¹⁵If my attitude toward food is upsetting other believers, then I will be guided by love. I will not eat anything I choose if that means the downfall of a believer for whom Christ has died. 16Lord, I will not flaunt my spiritual privileges to bring harm on another believer. ¹⁷For Your kingdom is not a matter of eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. Lord, ¹⁸I will serve Christ with a respectful attitude toward both eating or abstaining from food. Then I will please You and be respected by others. 19I will adopt any custom that leads to peace and mutual respect by all believers. 20I will not destroy Your work in believers' lives over the question of eating and drinking. All food is ceremonially clean, but it becomes evil when I eat to make someone fall. ²¹Therefore my best course is to abstain from meat and wine so I won't trip up a believer or weaken him.

Lord, I pray for weaker believers; don't let my actions cause them to sin. I pray for stronger believers; may I learn from them. But I will not be controlled by them; I'll follow You. Amen.

²²Lord, I will hold on to my convictions that are between You and me. I will be careful when I make decisions not to go against my conscience. ²³But any who have doubts but eats anyway, is condemned because he violates his conscience. Anything is sin that violates my faith.

Romans 15 A Believer's Relationship to Others

¹Lord, I believe I am a strong Christian so I have a duty to bear the burdens of weak Christians lest they fall. 2I will be considerate of others and help them become stronger Christians. 3Christ didn't think only of Himself. Christ came to suffer from the insults of those who oppose You. 4I can learn from everything written in Scripture, for it gives me hope and examples of how to live. 5Lord, help me keep serving You in many ways; I refuse to give up. Help me tolerate other believers by following the example of Christ who never stopped doing good. 6May I have one mind and voice, to give glory to the Lord Jesus Christ, and to praise You, the

God and Father of us all. 7Lord, help me glorify You by treating others the same way Christ treated other people. 8Christ became the servant of the circumcised Jews so You could carry out the promises You made to the patriarchs. 9This was also to get Gentiles saved, thus bringing glory to You because the Scriptures teach, "I will worship You among the Gentiles, and sing praises to Your name." 10In another place the Scriptures teach, "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with His people." 11And yet in another place, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all people praise Him." ¹²And then Isaiah said, "The root of Jesse shall appear, rising up to rule the Gentiles, and in Him the Gentiles will hope."

Lord, I will not sin against You by looking down on any believer. I will accept all believers the way Christ accepted them for salvation. Amen.

¹³Lord, may Your hope give me such power and peace that the Holy Spirit will overflow me and remove all the barriers that hold me back.

¹⁴Lord, Paul told the readers, "I feel certain you have real Christian character and experience and that you can keep each other on the straight and narrow path." ¹⁵Nevertheless Paul wrote with frankness, to remind them to obey truths they already knew. ¹⁶Lord, Paul reminded his readers he was given a commission by You to be a minister to the Gentiles. This gave Paul a ministerial duty to tell them Your gospel and thus to present them as an offering to You because they are made a sweet smelling offering that You will accept. 17Lord, Paul said he had a right to be proud of his work of spreading the message of Jesus Christ. ¹⁸Paul does not know how successful others have been, but he says, "I know that I have been used by God to win the Gentiles to Christ, ¹⁹by the power of signs and wonders, and by the power of the Holy Spirit." Paul tells of preaching the good news with all his strength from Jerusalem to Illyricum. 20Lord, Paul said he had a rule never to preach where Christ's name was already known, lest he build on another man's foundation. 21 Paul's chief purpose was to fulfill Scripture, "Those who have never been told about Him, will see Him, and those who have never heard will understand."

²²Lord, Paul explained this is why he has been prevented from going to Rome. ²³But since he is no longer needed in Greece, and since he has always wanted to see the believers in Rome, ²⁴he planned to see them on his way to Spain. He hoped to spend some time with them, and hoped they would speed him on his journey. ²⁵Lord, Paul explained his next destination was Jerusalem to look after the Christians there. ²⁶Paul was carrying money to the needy Christians there that he had collected in northern Greece and Achaia.

Paul writes to the Roman church that he intends to visit them on his way to Spain (Rom. 15:23-24). He never reaches Spain, but he goes to Rome in different circumstances than he intended, that is, as a prisoner awaiting trial. We don't complete everything in life that we intend to do for many interfering reasons. Therefore we should pray about our intentions, "If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this or that" (James 4:15). Lord, guide my intentions, keep them pure and Christ-centered. When my plans materialize, I will praise You. When they don't happen, I will accept Your interferences in my plans and serve You with joy. Amen.

²⁷There Gentile Christians took up a willing offering, even though they owed it to those in Jerusalem for sending the gospel to them in Greece. For since the Gentiles have benefited from the Jews, it is only right that Gentiles should now look after the Jews with material things. ²⁸Lord, Paul explained he would come to them when the gift was safely delivered to Jerusalem. Then he would come see them on his way to Spain.

Lord, help me be generous to all needy Christians as the Christians of Greece were to those in Jerusalem. Help me follow the example of Christ, who gave up everything for those most in need. Amen.

²⁹Lord, Paul was confident that when he got to Rome, he would be a blessing to them. ³⁰Lord, Paul asked his readers to stand behind him in earnest prayer ³¹that he would not fall into the hands of unbelieving Jews in Jerusalem, and that the Jerusalem Christians would welcome his gift to them. ³²Paul asked these requests for the sake of the Lord Jesus Christ, and for the love that they had for each other in the Spirit. ³³Lord, I pray for my life what Paul asked for himself, namely, "That the God of peace be with me, Amen!"

Romans 16 Greetings to Paul's Friends

¹Lord, Paul commended Phoebe who was coming to visit the church at Rome. She worked diligently in the church at Cenchrea, Greece. ²Paul asked them to receive her as a sister in the Lord and to help her because she had helped many, including Paul. ³Paul sent greetings to Priscilla and Aquila who had been his fellow workers; ⁴in fact they had risked their lives for Paul. Not only was Paul grateful for them, but he also said all the Gentile churches appreciate them.

⁵Paul then greeted all who worshiped in their home. Paul sent greetings to Epaenetus, the first to become a Christian in Achaia. 6Next Paul greeted Mary, ⁷plus Andronicus and Junias, his relatives who were in prison with him. They are respected by the apostles and were saved before Paul's conversion. 8Paul next greeted Ampliatus, ⁹Urbanus, and Stachys. ¹⁰Then Paul greeted Apelles who is approved by Christ and to those who work in the home of Aristobulus. 11Paul sent greetings to Herodion, a relative of his, and to the servants in Narcissus' home. 12He also greeted Tryphena and Tryphosa who labored in the Lord, and also to Persis. ¹³Paul sent greetings to Rufus, chosen by the Lord, and his mother who had also been like a mother to Paul. ¹⁴Paul also greeted Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the other Christians who lived with them. ¹⁵Paul sent greetings to Philologus, Julia, Nereus, and his sister, plus Olympas and all the Christians who lived with them. ¹⁶Paul told them to greet one another warmly because all the churches with Paul sent them greetings.

Lord, give me good relationships with all the people I know. Just as Paul greeted many people in this chapter, help me to greet people honestly and warmly. Help me to love all people, and pray for all people. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, I will be on guard against anyone who causes divisions in the church, and I will avoid them in all possible ways. 18I will not be like divisive people because they are slaves to their own desires. They are not slaves to Jesus Christ because they confuse people with their arguments. 19Paul wanted everyone to know of the Roman believers loyal to him. Paul wanted them to remain very loyal to the good and refrain from what is evil. 20 Lord, You are the God of peace and harmony, You will soon crush satan under Your feet. May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ rest on me. 21Lord, Paul sent his readers greetings from Timothy, as well as greetings from Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater. 22 Tertius, Paul's secretary, also sent greetings. ²³Gaius and the church that meet in his house sent greetings; Erastus the treasurer of the city of Corinth and Quartus also send greetings. ²⁴Paul prayed this benediction over the Romans: "May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²⁵May you be strong and continually steady so that all glory goes to God the Father. ²⁶May we understand the mystery of Christ and the church which is now revealed to all but was kept secret in past ages. Now I glory in the preaching of Jesus Christ that brings all nations to obedience of faith. ²⁷Now may the only wise God be glorified through the Lord Jesus Christ, my Savior."

Lord, I glorify You for all the truth in this book. Help me learn and understand all that's written in Romans. Then help me live the Christian life described by Paul and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

CH 1: DIVISIONS IN THE CHURCH1654
CH 2: Understanding Spiritual Things 1656
CH 3: CARNAL CHRISTIANS1657
Ch 4: Judging Christians1659
CH 5: INFLUENCE OF EVIL IN THE CHURCH1660
Ch 6: Believers Forbidden to Go to Court Against
One Another1661
Ch 7: Instructions about Marriage1
Ch 8: Questionable Things1664
CH 9: PAUL DEFENDS HIS APOSTLESHIP1665
CH 10: PURITY AT THE LORD'S TABLE1667
CH 11: Instructions about Head Coverings and the Lord's Table1669
CH 12: Instruction about Spiritual Gifts1671
CH 13: LOVE IS GREATEST1673
CH 14: Instructions about Tongues1674
CH 15: THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST1676
CH 16: PERSONAL GREETINGS AND CONCLUSION 1679

1 CORINTHIANS

Key Word: Wisdom (1 Corinthians 1:24)

Key Verse: "Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16).

Theme: Paul had been informed of the problems in the Corinthian church. The issue was not primarily heresy, but carnality in the lives of leaders and Christians. Paul deals with the issue of marriage (chapter 7) and meats offered to idols (chapter 8). But he also deals with division in the church (chapters 2-3), contentions in the church (chapter 5) and a case of incest that had not been dealt with. There were irregularities and manifestations of sin at the Lord's Table (chapters 10-11). There was confusion over spiritual gifts (chapter 12) and tongues (chapter 14). And there were problems with issues of the resurrection (chapter 15). Yet in the middle of the letter Paul pens one of the loftiest passages ever written on love (chapter 13).

But in the midst of all these problems, Paul doesn't tell the leadership to clean up the mess; but rather Paul holds every believer responsible for proper doctrine and holy living. Hence Paul establishes the church as Christ's body (3:16) and that Christ indwells every believer. They are the ones who are accountable for the church. Lord, thank You for the indwelling Christ who guides me into holiness. I am accountable to Him and I will live for Him. "For to me, to live is Christ" (Phil. 1:21). Amen.

1 Corinthians 1 Divisions in the Church

Paul introduced himself as an apostle, called by the will of God, and Sosthenes, a brother in Christ. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

2He wrote to Your church in Corinth and to all Christians everywhere. He wrote to those Christ Jesus sanctified, who pray in the name of Jesus Christ. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19}

3Paul prays for grace to all who read this letter, from You and from the Lord Jesus Christ. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8}

⁴Lord, Paul gave thanks to You for the Corinthian Christians because they had been saved by grace 5 and they were established by knowing Christ, and witnessing for Him; and they had a full understanding of truth. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} 6Now they had the inner testimony of Christ, ⁷and had all the spiritual gifts as they were waiting for the return of Christ. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} 8Paul knew You would keep them firm in faith and their lives would be blameless as they waited for the day of the Lord Jesus Christ {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} 9because You are faithful to keep those You have called to salvation in Christ. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁰Lord, Paul appealed to them in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to quit fussing among themselves, but live in harmony so the body of Christ wouldn't be ruptured, and there would be one unified mind in the church. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹¹Paul had been told by those living in Chloe's house that the church had serious divisions. 12 Some are saying, "I follow Paul," others say, "I follow Apollos." Still others maintain, "I follow Peter," and some "super" spiritual believers claim, "I follow Christ." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹³Paul asked, "Have you divided Christ into many pieces?" Also "Was Paul crucified for you so that you were baptized in Paul's name?" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 14Then Paul declared, "I'm glad I never baptized any of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so none of you were baptized in my name." {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ¹⁶Paul remembers he baptized the family of Stephanas but that's all he could remember. ¹⁷Lord, You did not primarily send me or others to baptize people but to give out the gospel to everyone. You did not tell me to preach philosophy or use "deep" words to explain Christ's death. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20}

Lord, it's so easy to be contentious and to think I am always right and my way is best. Forgive me for my blindness and sin. Help me see things through the eyes of others and give me a deeper burden to pray for others. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, I know the language of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing in sin. But I know it is Your power to save because You have saved me from a purposeless life and gave me understanding of spiritual matters. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} 19Lord, Paul quoted the Scriptures that told what You said, "I will destroy the plans of the wise, even when everyone thinks they are smart. I will confound the intellectuals, then where will the earthly philosophers be? What will happen to those who write books?" {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} ²⁰Lord, Paul explained how average people are blinded spiritually so they can't find You with their wisdom. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} ²¹Your plan is to save those who believe the gospel, which seems a "foolish" message to those who are lost. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²²The Jews demand miracles before they will believe, while Gentiles are looking for rational answers, {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 23but I will preach Christ crucified. He is a stumbling block to the Jews, and the gospel is foolishness to the unsaved Gentiles. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ²⁴Now God has opened my eyes, and all who are saved, whether Jew or Gentile, must see Christ as the catalyst of Your plan for salvation. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} 25Lord, Your "foolishness" is wiser than all human wisdom, Your weakness is stronger than all human strength. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

Lord, help me to learn knowledge and acquire understanding. I want to be wise as a Christian. Be my teacher in all things. Amen.

²⁶When You called me I was not spiritually wise because I thought after the pattern of ordinary people. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁷You did not call many influential rich, or highly educated people of the world. Instead You chose people whom the world thinks are "foolish" to confound those the world considers smart. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁸Also You chose people without influence and those whom the world calls "low class." ²⁹You chose people hated by the world to show up those the world thinks are brilliant so no one can ever boast of their accomplishments or that they had something to do with their salvation. ³⁰Lord, from You I have salvation in Christ alone because You have made me a member of His body. And by Your enablement, Christ is my wisdom, my righteousness, my holiness, and my freedom. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ³¹As the Scriptures teach, "If anyone wants to boast, let him boast about what the Lord has done." {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

1 Corinthians 2 Understanding Spiritual Things

¹Lord, I will not use impressive words or philosophy to give the gospel to others. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} 2I want everyone to know the simple message of Jesus and what His death can do for them. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 3I will not rely on my ability to convince people because I realize how weak I am. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} 4My speeches or sermons will not be based on debate techniques or philosophy. I want the Holy Spirit to demonstrate His power in transforming the lives of those who hear the gospel. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 5I don't want anyone's faith relying on human reasoning, ⁶but on the power of God. Yet among those who know the Bible I will speak with great wisdom, {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} but not the type of wisdom that comes from philosophers, nor the kind that appeals to

"logical thinkers" whose thinking dooms them to failure. ⁷Paul said his wisdom comes from You, telling Your plan for all people throughout the ages. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 8My wisdom is not understood by the great thinkers for if "great men" understood Your wisdom, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory. {315 Mystery of Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} 9The Scriptures explain, "No man has seen this wisdom nor have they understood God's wonderful plan that He has for those who believe and love Him." {315 Mystery of Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} 10Lord, I understand Your plan for all people because You sent the Holy Spirit to teach it to me. Now the Spirit reaches into the depths of Your purpose to show me the things You hide from the world. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 11A person is the only one who knows for sure what he is thinking, or what he is really like. No one can know what You are thinking, or what You are really like, unless the Holy Spirit reveals it to him. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} 12Lord, You have given me the Holy Spirit who is different from the spirit of this world so I can understand Your gifts and plans for me. ¹³Now I want to tell others about Your plans, not using the phrases of philosophy or logic, but using the Holy Spirit's own words so those in proper fellowship with the Holy Spirit can understand the spiritual meaning of Your message. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 14Lord, the average unsaved person can't understand Your plans for they sound foolish to him.

Nor can the unsaved know what the Holy Spirit is saying for the unsaved are spiritually blinded. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ¹⁵The spiritual person understands spiritual things, yet no one understands them. ¹⁶How could the unsaved understand because the Scripture says, "Who can know what the Lord is thinking? Who can instruct God?" But Paul said he understood because he had the mind of Christ.

Lord, I want to be spiritual, so I yield to the Holy Spirit to make me spiritual. I will read, study, memorize, and live the Scriptures so I can live as closely to Your standard as possible. Amen.

1 Corinthians 3 Carnal Christians

¹Lord, Paul said he couldn't treat the Corinthians like they were spiritual Christians because they were worldly and babes in Christ. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 2Paul didn't feed them solid food because babies can't digest solid food. He fed them the milk of the Word—the essentials, not the meat of the Word to make them strong. ³Paul pointed out when they wrangled over leaders that they were acting like average unsaved people, and they were motivated by the desires of the flesh. 4Some in the church were proclaiming, "I am for Paul," others were yelling, "I am for Apollos." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

⁵Lord, who is Paul and who is Apollos but Your servants who preached Your Word and motivated people to faith. They used different ways of ministering because different spiritual gifts were given them. 6Paul planted and Apollos watered, but You produced growth; ⁷neither the planter nor the waterer counts. Only You matter because You make seeds grow. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 8Whether they plant or water, they are a team, so each will be rewarded for what each does. 9We are all Your co-workers. Paul said the Corinthians were God's field, and God's building. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Lord, I will work with You in ministry. You must do what I cannot do, for You do the supernatural. I will do what man can do, and together we will do Your work. Amen.

¹⁰Lord, Paul was just the builder who laid the foundation on which someone else constructed the building. That means I am building on the original foundation of the gospel and doctrine that was laid by Paul. Therefore I must be careful how I work. {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} 11For no one can lay the foundation because the foundation is Jesus Christ and it has already been laid. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} 12I will build on the foundation of Jesus Christ, and I will use various materials of gold, silver, and jewels, while some will use sticks, hay, and trash. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 13But judgment day is coming where our good works will be revealed. God will use fire to judge our efforts. If our good works are burned up, we will be losers, 14but if they stand the test, we will be rewarded. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 15A few Christians will have everything burned up, and the only thing left will be their salvation. 16Lord, I am Your temple, the Holy Spirit lives in me, and I want to be holy to glorify You. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ¹⁷You will destroy anyone who destroys Your temple because Your temple is sacred. My body is the temple where You dwell. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, come live in my body and make it Your sanctuary. Live Your power and transformation through me. Help me to live today, knowing Your temple is my body. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, don't let me deceive myself about spirituality. Those who think they are wise by worldly standards have fooled themselves because 19the world's wisdom is folly in Your sight. The Scriptures say, "You catch those who think they are wise in their own tricks." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²⁰The Scriptures say, "You know men's thoughts, and You know how futile their thoughts are." {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ²¹So, I will not boast in human thinking, I will boast in what You've given me. 22 Everything You have has been given to me: Paul, Apollos, Peter, life, death, everything. The present, and the future belong to You and

²³I belong to Christ, and He belongs to You. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19}

1 Corinthians 4 Judging Christians

¹Lord, I want people to think of me as Christ's servant, one entrusted with knowledge of You. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 2Now the most important thing about a servant is that I, as Your servant, be found faithful. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} 3I won't worry about what anyone thinks and I won't even trust my own thinking. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ⁴I have a clear conscience, but that is not enough to prove I'm right. You, Lord, alone will tell us what's right. 5So, I'll not prematurely judge if anyone is good, and I'll leave that until Christ returns. Then all hidden things will be revealed and we'll know what each of us is like and everyone will get the reward he deserves. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Lord, keep me from judging others, but help me to look at people through Your eyes. Amen.

⁶Lord, Paul used himself and Apollos as examples so no one would play favorites; we must not choose one teacher over another. The Scriptures teach, "Live by the rules," and don't elevate one servant above another. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ⁷You didn't make any of us superior to another. You gave us the gifts we have so no one can brag about their gifts as if they were superior to anyone else. Lord, Paul rebuked the Corinthians because they wrongly thought they had all the spiritual things they needed. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 8 They were acting like rich kings who sit contented on their thrones. Paul told them he wished they in fact were reigning, and he was reigning with them, but that was not the fact. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} Paul told them he has been appointed an apostle and that apostles will die for the cause of Christ. Like prisoners on death row, apostles are under the sentence of death and the unsaved world will rejoice in their execution. 10 Lord, Paul said he is foolish by the world's standards but the Corinthians are claiming to be wise. {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ¹¹Paul said he is weak in the sight of the world, while the Corinthians are claiming to be strong. Paul said the world laughs at him, even as the Corinthians act like celebrities. Lord, Paul said he goes hungry and thirsty, he wears rags, is brutally treated, and homeless, all for the cause of Christ. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ¹²Paul says he has to work hard to make money, yet when he is cursed, he blesses his attackers. He is patient with those who injure him. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹³Paul said he answers quietly when insulted, even when people treat him like dirt. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 14Lord, Paul explained he is not writing to embarrass them but to warn them because they act like children. {84 Confronting-Evil

Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁵They may have a thousand who try to teach them but Paul is their father in the faith. They were saved when he preached the gospel to them. ¹⁶That is why Paul wanted them to copy his example and assume the attitudes he has. ¹⁷Paul plans to send Timothy to help them because Paul won Timothy to Christ, just as he won the Corinthians to Christ. Timothy will teach them what Paul wants them to know, which is the same thing Paul taught in all the churches. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} 18Lord, Paul realized that some seized church leadership when he did not come to them. ¹⁹So he promised to come as soon as the Lord allows him. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²⁰Then Paul promised to examine the pretentious leaders to see if they measured up to God's standards because the kingdom of God is not a matter of talking, but it is power, and holiness, and obedience. ²¹So Paul told them to decide if they want him to come to punish them, or to come with love and gentleness. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

Lord, I will humble myself under Your authority when I am rebuked. Speak and I will listen. Give me directions and I will follow. Amen.

1 Corinthians 5 Influence of Evil in the Church

¹Lord, Paul heard reports of sexual immorality in the church. It was so bad that even the unsaved wouldn't tolerate it. A man was living with his father's wife in sexual immorality. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²Paul asked, "Are you so proud and blind that you can't see this terrible sin? Shouldn't you be overwhelmed with guilt? You should have cast the man out of the church." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 3Lord, Paul said even though he was not present, he already knew what he would do just as if he were there with them. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 4Call the church together to vote on this matter, and remember the Lord is present when you gather together. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 5Vote the man out of your fellowship, and place him in satan's hands for punishment in the hopes that his soul will be saved when Jesus returns, even though he dies prematurely. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} Lord, Paul rebuked their pride in their accomplishments, reminding them that only a small amount of yeast would influence all the dough. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ⁷Paul told them to get rid of sinful yeast and make the church a completely new loaf of bread, remembering that Christ is our Passover meal. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 8Paul said to get rid of the sinful man so they could be bread without yeast for the Passover known for sincerity and truth. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Paul reminded them that he wrote a previous letter telling then not to associate with those living immoral lives. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁰He explains that he didn't mean to have no contact at all with unsaved people who are sexually immoral, greedy, liars, thieves, and idol worshipers. A Christian can't live in this world without doing business with people like that. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹¹What Paul meant was to disassociate with those who claim to be Christians but indulge in sexual sins, including all the sins he just mentioned. Don't even eat a fellowship meal with them. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

Lord, I do not want to be like those in Corinth who gave themselves to sin. I will be pure in thought so I can remain pure in body. Amen.

¹²Lord, I know it's not my task to judge those outside the church, but it certainly is the job of believers to hold members of the church accountable when they sin in the above-mentioned ways. ¹³You alone are the judge of those on the outside of the church, but the Corinthian Christians must deal with the sinning brother who disgraces Christianity, and put him out of the church. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

1 Corinthians 6 Believers Forbidden to Go to Court against One Another

¹Lord, Paul was distraught that a Corinthian believer was taking a Christian matter before a secular court and not before the church. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ²Christians will judge the world in the future and if the world will be judged by us, why are we Christians taking cases to them? {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ³Since Christians will one day judge angels, it follows we can judge one another on earth. 4Why are you going to a judge who isn't respected by Christians? {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ⁵You should be ashamed of yourselves. Isn't there someone in the church who is wise enough to decide these arguments? {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} But the Corinthian church had one brother suing another in front of unbelievers. 7It is embarrassing for Christians to file lawsuits. It means you live defeated lives. You ought to accept injustice and let it go at that. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 8But instead you are the ones who are doing wrong and you do an injustice to your fellow believers. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

Lord, the Corinthians were guilty of partiality and judging one another that resulted in law cases in a secular court. I admit I am just as great a sinner as they are, so forgive me. Keep me away from any and all sin. Amen.

⁹Lord, Paul told the Corinthian believers that immoral people have no share in the kingdom of God. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁰This includes idol worshipers, adulterers, homosexuals, thieves, greedy people, drunkards, slanderers, and swindlers. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ¹¹The Corinthians committed all these sins but now they are washed, cleansed, sanctified, and saved through the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and through Your Holy Spirit. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

¹²Lord, Paul said, "I can do anything I want, but these things are not good for me. Even if I am allowed to do them. I will not become an addict to sin. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} 13I can eat food that is meant for the stomach, and the stomach is created to eat food. Don't let eating food dominate your life because one day God will do away with food and the stomach." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 14God will raise our bodies from the dead by His transforming power, just as He raised the Lord Jesus from the dead. 15Lord, Paul said sexual sin is never right, since our bodies were not created for sexual sin. They were created as Your dwelling place, and You, Lord, must dwell in the temple of our bodies. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} 16Lord, I know that my body is only one member that makes up the body of Christ. That means I can't take the body of Christ and join it to a prostitute. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 17Never! A man who has sex with a prostitute has become one body with her because the Scripture has stated, "The two shall be one flesh." Anyone who is joined to You is one spirit with You. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} 18Lord, Paul warned, "Keep away from sexual sins." Other sins are outside the body, but sexual sins are against our own body. ¹⁹Lord, I will realize that my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, and so I will let Him be manifested through my body because I received the Holy Spirit from You. My body does not belong to me but it belongs to You, Lord. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ²⁰You have bought me from sin and You paid for me with the blood of Christ. Therefore I will use my body to glorify You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, keep me from any and all sins of the body. Keep my heart pure so my outward body won't be given to sin. Your Holy Spirit lives in me and I want to be a pure vessel for Your glory. Amen.

1 Corinthians 7 Instructions about Marriage

¹Lord, Paul answered the question written to him about relationships between men and women. "It is good for men to have no physical contact with women." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} 2Since immoral sex is always a temptation, each man should have his own wife and each woman should have her own husband. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} The husband must attend to the sexual needs of his wife, and the wife must do the same for her husband. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} 4The wife does not have sexual rights over her body; the husband has those privileges. In the same way the husband has no sexual rights over his body; his wife has them. 5Do not refuse sexual privileges to each other except for a limited time by mutual consent. Then have the same relations as before so satan doesn't get an advantage over one another. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

Lord, thank You for the gift of marriage. Be glorified in me, and in my marriage now and in the future. Amen.

⁶Lord, Paul said no one had to marry, but they could if they wished; Paul wanted all men to live like him. ⁷But each person is different in needs and desires. God gives some the ability to be a husband or a wife, others have the gift of remaining single, yet being happy. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} ⁸Lord, Paul told those unmarried and widows to stay unmarried as he is unmarried; ⁹but if a person can't discipline himself, it is better to get married than suffer. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6}

¹⁰Lord, Paul had principles for the married that were not just his advice but were Your rules. 11A wife must not leave her husband, but if she does, she must remain unmarried. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ¹²The wife must be reconciled to her husband if possible, and the husband must not divorce his wife. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹³Lord, Paul gave the following suggestions that weren't Your commands: if a Christian has an unbelieving wife, and she lives peacefully with him, then he must not send her away. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} 14If a Christian wife has an unbelieving husband, and he lives peacefully with her, then she must not send him away, because the unbelieving husband may become a Christian through the influence of his wife, and the same thing may happen to the unbelieving wife. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} 15If there were no Christian influences from a parent, then perhaps the children would not be saved, but they can be saved by the influence of a believing parent. But if an unbelieving spouse wants to separate, then the believer is not obligated to the marriage. {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ¹⁶However, if a member of the marriage is a Christian, a believing wife may lead her husband to Christ, and the Christian husband may lead his unbelieving wife to salvation. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

¹⁷Paul said his rule for all believers in the churches is to accept the situation in which God puts them. Make sure in deciding matters about getting married that they are living according to God's direction. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} 18If a man was circumcised before he was saved, he shouldn't disguise it. And if anyone was uncircumcised when he was saved, he need not be circumcised ¹⁹because circumcision or uncircumcision means nothing to God. Obeying God's commands is what counts. ²⁰Paul told Christians to keep on doing the work to which God has called them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²¹If a slave becomes a Christian, he should serve God in the place where he was saved. If a person can be free, he should use his new position to serve God. ²²Even the slave who becomes a Christian is free in his spirit, but he is a slave to Christ. ²³Those who were bought with the price of Christ's blood belong to Christ. ²⁴Let each one serve God happily, no matter what his condition when Christ called him.

²⁵Paul said he had no command from God whether young unmarried women should marry, but Paul had an opinion based on the wisdom God had given him. Because Christians faced great danger in Paul's day, ²⁶he felt it was best for them to remain unmarried. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁷Of course if a person was already married, they should not separate. But if they are unmarried, Paul did not want them rushing into marriage. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ²⁸However, if a Christian was going to get married anyway, they should go ahead and do it. Yet marriage will bring extra problems that Paul didn't want them to face at the time. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁹Lord, I know our remaining time is short so those with wives should remain as free as possible to serve God. Marriage happiness or marriage disappointment should not keep anyone from serving You. ³⁰Live as though there is no happiness or sadness, and those who live to buy things should live as though they possessed nothing. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} ³¹Those who have to do business in the world should not become attached to it because this world is passing away. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ³²Lord, Paul wanted the Corinthians free from all worry because the unmarried person can devote all his time to pleasing the Lord, ³³but the married person has to be concerned with the affairs and business of this life. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ³⁴They are torn in two directions—between pleasing the Lord and pleasing their spouse. The unmarried woman can devote herself to You since she is concerned about being holy in body and spirit. But the married woman has to be concerned about pleasing You and her husband. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 35Lord, Paul said these things to help believers be strong, not to keep them from marrying. He wanted them to serve You as best as possible without being distracted by their marriage. ³⁶If anyone feels they must marry, because they have trouble disciplining their desires, they should marry and it is not a sin. ³⁷If a person has self-control, and decides not to marry, Paul says they have made a wise choice. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ³⁸So the one who marries is living in God's will, and the one who doesn't marry can serve God better. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6}

³⁹The wife is one with the husband as long as he lives but if he dies, she is free to marry again, only she must marry in the Lord. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ⁴⁰In Paul's opinion, he is happier because he's not married and he thinks this is God's will. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

1 Corinthians 8 Questionable Things

¹Lord, Paul addressed the Corinthians' questions about eating food that was offered to idols. Everyone thinks they have the right answer because their knowledge makes them feel self-important, but love for others will make the church grow. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²If anyone says he has all the answers, he is just showing how little he knows. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} 3But the one who loves God and does His will is the one God knows. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 4Lord, Paul told the Corinthians that idols are just carved images, and they are not really gods. You are the only true God and nothing else is a god. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} 5Some people think there are a great number of gods both in heaven and on earth, 6but I know You are the Father, the only One God, and that Jesus Christ created everything and He gives life to us. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁷Lord, some people don't realize that an image is not God and they think food offered to idols is really offered to a god that lives. So when they eat food that's been offered, they think they are actually worshiping that god. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} But You don't care if people eat food that's been offered to an idol because You know the idol is not real or alive. We do not sin if we eat that food, nor are we better off if we refuse that food. Hamburger meat is nothing more than hamburger meat! {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 9But there are some Christians whose consciences are weaker, and they think they are recognizing or worshiping an idol if they eat hamburger meat that's been offered to an idol.

{177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ¹ºHere's the problem: the Christian with the weaker conscience may see you eat hamburger that was offered to an idol, then they go against their conscience to eat meat offered to idols, and they weaken their faith because they think they have sinned. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ¹¹So the Christian with the stronger conscience who knows that hamburger is just hamburger, causes the weaker Christian to damage himself. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹²It is a sin against Christ to cause a fellow Christian to stumble. ¹³Therefore if food offered to idols can cause a brother to sin, I'll not eat another hamburger for the rest of my life because I don't want to cause any Christian to sin against his conscience. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18}

Lord, there are so many things on the borderline so teach me how to know the difference between right and wrong. I won't walk on the edge of the temptation. Keep me as close to the center of Your will as possible. Amen.

1 Corinthians 9 Paul Defends His Apostleship

¹Lord, Paul told the Corinthians, "I am an apostle." When detractors were claiming Paul wasn't an apostle, Paul said he was not responsible to humans and that he actually had seen the resurrected Jesus. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

²Paul points out that their changed lives are the results of his ministry and that that certified his apostolate. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ³Even though some Christians deny Paul is an apostle, Paul claims they prove that he is for he had won most of them to Christ. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} ⁴Lord, Paul claims he has the right to food that You give, ⁵and the right to take a believing wife with him as do other apostles, namely, Jesus' brother and Peter. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

Lord, Paul had to defend himself against criticism from some in the church at Corinth. Teach me how to face criticism. Teach me when to defend myself and when not to say anything. Give me wisdom beyond myself. Amen.

⁶Then Paul asked a convicting question, "Must only Barnabas and I work for a living?" 7Paul said he deserved to be paid because soldiers are paid to serve. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 8Those who plant a vineyard eat of its fruit, and shepherds drink milk from their flocks. {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} 9While these are only illustrations, the Scriptures teach, "Don't put a muzzle on the ox plowing the grain." {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁰The plowman plows, expecting to get fed, and the harvester expects to get his share. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 11Since Paul has sown spiritual things to them, he expects food, shelter, and clothing in return. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} ¹²The Corinthians have given to other ministers but surely Paul's rights are greater, even though he hasn't exercised his rights. Paul says he has never demanded money from them because they might be less interested in the gospel. {336 Organized-Corporate Prayer, Luke 19:46} ¹³Those serving in the temple got their food from the temple, and those ministering at the altar kept some of the food. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 14In the same spirit, those who preach the gospel should be financially supported by their gospel ministry. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23}

¹⁵Lord, Paul reminded the Corinthians he had not exercised his rights and was not writing to get money from them. Paul said he would rather die than lose the blessings of ministering for free. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹⁶But he testified he can't stop preaching the gospel since You have given him that responsibility. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹⁷Paul states, "If I preach of my own free will, then I deserve payment. But God called me and has given me the responsibility to preach so I must preach. 18What is my pay? My greatest joy is preaching the gospel without getting paid by anyone. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} 19Lord, I am not a slave to anyone, but I have made myself a slave to everyone so I could win as many as possible. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²⁰When I am with the Jews, I will live like the Jews so I can win the Jews to Christ. {201 Greater-Works Prayer, John 14:12} ²¹When I am with Gentiles,

I subject myself to their laws so I can win Gentiles to Christ. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²²When I am with pagans who don't have any laws, I live among them to win them to Christ. I don't offend the weaker Christians' consciences who are bothered about meat sacrificed to idols because I want to win the weak to Christ. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²³I try to find a point of identification with all so I can present the gospel message to them. I do all this to get the gospel to all people so they can come to Christ for salvation. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²⁴Lord, every runner in a race tries to win, but only one person gets the prize. So I will always try to win the race for Christ. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ²⁵Every fighter disciplines himself to win his awards. He wins a wreath that will wither. I want to win a prize that will never fade. ²⁶I run the race of life to win, but it is not just to win, it's how I prepare and how I run. {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14} ²⁷I don't want to be disqualified; I train hard so my body will be prepared. Lord, help me win the race of life." {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46}

Lord, Paul wanted to be the very best to please You and receive the prize. That is my prayer. I will discipline myself to be the very best. I will learn everything to serve You best. I commit myself to excellence for Your glory. Amen.

1 Corinthians 10 Purity at the Lord's Table

¹Lord, may I never forget that the Jews followed the Shekinah cloud as they wandered in the wilderness. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} 2You kept guiding them with the glory cloud and they walked safely through the Red Sea. This is called a "baptism" for they followed Moses into the sea and they came out on the other side. ³By a daily miracle, You sent manna to feed them ⁴and they drank from the rock in the desert: that rock was a picture of Christ to come. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 5Yet in spite of what You did for all of them, they rebelled against You and many died in the wilderness. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6Lord, Israel's life in the wilderness is a lesson to me. I will not lust after evil things nor will I worship idols as some did. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ⁷The Scriptures said not to follow the Jews' bad example for they sat down to eat the food You provided; then they got up to dance and worship the golden calf. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 8I will never give into sexual immorality as some did in the wilderness and 23,000 died in one day. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Some of them murmured against You and they died of snakebites. Others were judged by the destroying angel. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} 10Lord, all the things that happened in the wilderness are warnings for me not to follow their example.

Lord, there are many dangers in the world, and I won't see them all. Give me eyes to see dangers and wisdom to avoid them. Protect me when I can't protect myself. Amen.

¹¹These negative rebellions were written as a lesson for me as the end of the world approaches. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} 12When I think that I would never do these things, I must take heed lest I fall into their trap. The temptations and trials that the Corinthians faced are no more than I face each day. But ¹³Lord, I know You will not let me be tempted with more pressures that I can overcome. The evil desires that entice me are no different from what other Christians have faced. Lord, I know You will not let me be tempted beyond my self-discipline, but with my temptations You'll show me how to overcome temptation's power. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

¹⁴Lord, I will avoid any idol worship, ¹⁵and I will use my common sense to avoid any influence of idols in my life. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁶Lord, I receive a blessing from You when I drink the communion cup that represents the blood of Christ. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁷And I also receive a blessing when I eat the bread that represents the body of Christ that was broken for me. The single loaf represents the body of Christ that even though I am only one among many, we form a single spiritual body of Christ.

{333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ¹⁸The Jewish people did the same thing in the Old Testament; they were one people when they ate together at the altar. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁹Does that mean when the unsaved sacrifice food to idols that the idols are real and alive? No! Does their worship have some value? No, not at all! {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁰Those who offer food to idols are really offering sacrifices to demons, and they are certainly not offering to God. Paul said he didn't want the Corinthians offering anything to demons. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ²¹A person cannot drink the communion cup of Christ and the cup of demons at the same time, nor can he eat at the table of the Lord and the table of demons. ²²Lord, don't be angry with me. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} ²³Lord, You permit me to eat all kinds of food but not all food is good for me, nor will all kinds of food make me healthy. {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4} ²⁴Lord, I'll not spend all my time thinking of myself, I will be conscious of other people and what's best for them. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} ²⁵I will buy what I want in the market but I won't ask if it's been offered to idols lest I hurt my conscience or someone else's. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ²⁶Everything that comes to me from the earth comes from You, and You give it to me. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ²⁷If a non-Christian invites me to a meal, I'll go eat what is served but I won't ask any questions for conscience's sake. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb.

10:22} 28But if someone tells me that food was offered to idols, {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} 29I won't eat it out of consideration for the weaker brother who stumbles at this thing. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 30The scruples of a weaker Christian are not mine, but I won't use my freedom to hurt him, and I won't let his conscience limit me. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} ³¹I'll eat everything with thankfulness, eating it to the glory of God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 32I'll not cause anyone to stumble, whether they are Jew, Gentile, or Christian. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 33 That will be the principle I follow; I won't do only what pleases me, or what's best for me. I'll do what's best so others will be saved.

Lord, be glorified in all I do and think. I also want everyone else to glorify You, so I'll try not to offend them, but to point them to You. Amen.

1 Corinthians 11 Instructions about Head Coverings and the Lord's Table

¹Lord, my example in all things is Christ so others should follow my example as I follow Christ. ²The Corinthians had done well by following the principles Paul taught them, but there is one matter he wanted to re-emphasize. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ³The wife is responsible to her husband, the husband is responsible to

Christ, and Christ is responsible to You, the Father. 4Therefore, if a man refuses to remove his hat when he prays or preaches the Scriptures, he dishonors his head-Christ. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} 5However, a woman's hair is her honor so she dishonors her husband if she prays or speaks the Scriptures without covering her head. 6She might as well have shaved her hair. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} 7A man should not wear anything on his head since he is made in the image of God, for a hat or shawl is a sign of rebellion to God. 8God's glory is the man who is made in His image, and the woman is the glory of man. The man didn't come from the woman, the first woman came from Adam's side. 9Man was not created for woman, but she was created for him. ¹⁰Because the angels inspect authority in the church, the woman must cover her head as a sign of authority. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} 11Lord, I respect Your plan and purpose for men and women; the man and woman need each other. 12 Although the first woman came from Adam's side, every man since then has come from a woman, and both men and women come from You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ¹³Paul asked the Corinthians to use their judgment: is long hair on a woman proper, and shouldn't she have a covering when she prays? 14And isn't it foolish when men have long hair? 15 And isn't it obvious that a woman's long hair is her pride and joy? 16If anyone wants to argue about this, this is the custom in all the churches. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 17Lord, Paul turned his instructions to another topic. When the Corinthians came together for the communion service, they were doing more harm than good. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 18First, Paul said there were divisions among them when they came together to the Lord's Table, and their past history of being divisive made Paul believe what he heard about them. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} 19Each person thinks he's right, each thinks he is closer to God than others. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁰Therefore the Corinthians ate to honor themselves, not to honor the Lord Jesus who instituted this meal. ²¹Some quickly eat all they can eat, and they don't wait to share communion with one another. Some go hungry since they don't get enough to eat, while others gorge themselves or they drink so much they get drunk. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ²²Doesn't everyone have a home in which to eat and drink? They have disgraced the church, and embarrassed those who can't bring a lot of food. Do you want me to praise the Corinthian church? Paul said, "I will not do it!" {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²³Lord, Paul told the Corinthians You gave the following instruction to observe communion, that on the night Jesus was betrayed, He took bread and thanked You for it. ²⁴Then He broke it and said, "This is My body which is broken for you. Eat it in remembrance of Me." {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²⁵In the same way Jesus took the cup and said, "This cup is the new covenant made by God to forgive sins. Whenever you drink this cup, you remember Me." {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²⁶Therefore every time a believer eats this bread and drinks this cup, he relives the truth of the gospel. The Lord's Table is a memorial until He comes. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁷Anyone who eats the bread and drinks the cup in an unworthy manner is guilty of sin against the Lord's body and blood. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁸Lord, I will therefore examine myself thoroughly before eating the bread or drinking from the cup {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ²⁹because any who eats or drinks in an unworthily manner, not meditating on the body and blood of Christ, is contributing to his own condemnation. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 30 That is why some Corinthians are weak or ill, and some have died prematurely under Your judgment. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 31Lord, I will carefully examine myself before communion so I'll not be punished or judged by You. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ³²Yet when a Christian is judged or punished, it's so he won't be condemned with the unsaved. 33Lord, Paul gave them this final exhortation about communion that when they gather for the Lord's Table, they should wait for one another. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 34If any one is hungry, let them eat at home, then the communion service will not lead to anyone's punishment or judgment. Paul said he would discuss other matters with them when he arrived in Corinth.

Lord, I will eat and drink communion to obey You and bring glory to You. Help me do so rightly, and receive me when I worship You properly through communion. Forgive me if I come in an improper way. Be honored in all I do. Amen.

1 Corinthians 12 Instructions about Spiritual Gifts

¹Lord, Paul wanted the Corinthians to know about their spiritual gifts that the Holy Spirit gave to each of them. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ²Before they were saved, they chose different idols that couldn't say a single word. Now there are people in the church who claim they are speaking messages from the Spirit of God. How can I know if their messages come from You, or if they are just making up what they say? {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ³Paul gave the first test—they can't claim to speak messages from You if they curse Jesus. The second test is that when they proclaim "Jesus is Lord," they are speaking Your message. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ⁴Lord, You have given many different spiritual gifts but they all come from the Spirit of God. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 5 These spiritual gifts are exercised in different ways, but it's the same Spirit of God working in people. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ⁶Also our spiritual gifts have different influences on different people because the Spirit of God uses people according to how much they yield to You. But You are the same God working through each believer. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ⁷Lord, You give different spiritual gifts to different people for Your own divine purposes. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ⁸You give to one the ability to preach with great wisdom so people understand Your message. To another, You give the ability to teach from great knowledge so people will see many things in the Word of God. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} To another, You give faith to move mountains, and to another You give the prayer of faith to heal the sick of their pain and sickness. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁰To another, You give the ability to do miracles, {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} and to someone else the power to preach and teach. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} Some have the ability to recognize false spirits, {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} another has the spiritual gift of speaking in a language they haven't learned, {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} still someone else can interpret tongues. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹¹The Holy Spirit gives all these different spiritual gifts to different people just as He decides; so believers have the ability to use these gifts to get results in the lives of others. {447 Spiritual-Blessing Prayer, Eph. 1:3} and use them effectively. Be patient when I use my weak gifts, and be glorified by the intent of my heart, and overlook my inabilities. Amen.

Lord, help me discover my spiritual gifts and use them properly. Teach me my strong gifts

¹²Lord, just as a human body has many parts, but all the parts make up one body, so is the church—the body of Christ. Though it has many different members, it is one body. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 13We have all been baptized into the body of Christ, some Jews and some Gentiles; some slaves and some free. The Holy Spirit baptized us all into Christ and we all drink of the same salvation. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ¹⁴Lord, I know the body has many parts; 15if the foot says, "I am not a part of the body because I'm not the head," that does not make any difference and that does not make him less a part of the body. 16If the ear were to say, "I am not the eye, so I'm not a part of the body," that would mean nothing. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ¹⁷If the body were all eye, how could it hear anything? If the body were all ears, how could it smell anything? 18But You have designed the different parts in the body. ¹⁹If all the parts were the same, how could the body function? 20 As it is, there are many parts of the body but it is still one body. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you." Nor can the head say to the feet, "I do not need you." ²²Lord, I know every part of the body is necessary but it seems the parts that are the weakest are the ones that are the most indispensable, ²³ and the parts that seem to be less admirable, their function seems to be among the most necessary. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁴And the parts that are the most beautiful seem to be the least essential in life. So You have arranged to give the parts which lack importance more dignity than the others. ²⁵So the body works together as a whole, all the parts having the same care for others as they have for themselves. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ²⁶If one part suffers, all parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all parts enjoy it. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁷Lord, I am a member of Christ's body but I am gifted differently from everyone else. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁸The first place was given to apostles, second to prophets, third to teachers, and after them those who do miracles. Next comes the gift of healing, helps, and leadership, and last on the list is speaking foreign languages. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²⁹Is everyone an apostle? Is everyone a prophet? Is everyone a teacher, or miracle worker, or a healer? 30 Can everyone speak in a foreign language without having learned it? And can everyone interpret them? The answer to these questions is "No!" 31Lord, I will eagerly seek the best gifts but I know love is the best gift of all. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1}

Lord, I pray for Your body, the church. Help me find my place in Your body, and fill it properly. Help me honor those who are different from me, and do things I can't do. Help me glorify You through all I do in Your body. Amen.

1 Corinthians 13 Love Is Greatest

¹Lord, if I speak with the eloquence of great speakers, or if I speak in the languages of angels, but I didn't love others, I'm simply making noise like cymbals clashing or a gong that rings. {236 Inadequate Words-Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} 2If I can predict the future, or understand Your mysteries, or if I know everything, or have faith to move mountains, but I don't love others, I've accomplished nothing in life. {89 Convergence-Faith Praying, 1 Cor. 13:2} 3If I gave everything I possess to the poor, and even sacrificed my body, but I didn't have love, it would be of no value. 4Lord, help me always patiently express love, and I will find ways to be kind. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

Lord, give me love that I don't have. Give me more love for people, so I can help them find Christ. Give me more love to serve You in the church. Give me more love so I can pray more effectively. Help me love as You love. Amen.

⁵Help me never be jealous of others, nor be conceited or boastful. ⁶Help me not be irritable or resentful, I want my love to overlook the mistakes of others and I want to rejoice when others do well. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} ⁷Help me love others no matter the circumstances, keep my hope strong and may my love never wilt. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} 8May my love outlast everything in life because I know true love never fails. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} 9Lord, I know the gift of prophecy will end, and the gift of speaking languages I haven't learned will cease, also knowledge will pass away, for my knowledge is finite and imperfect; also we only prophesy in part on this earth. {236 Inadequate Words-Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} ¹⁰But when I am made perfect and complete in heaven, these gifts will no longer be needed. {32 Basic-Praying, Heb. 6:1} 11When I was a child, I thought like a child, talked like a child, and my world was as small as a child's world. {236 Inadequate Words-Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} 12In the same way, I only see things darkly through a stained-glass window. But when I see Jesus face to face, I shall understand all things fully. Now my knowledge is partial and imperfect, but then I shall know Jesus as He perfectly knows me. 13Lord, there are only three things on this earth that will last: faith, hope, and love, and the greatest is love. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

The King James Version richly states, "We see through a glass darkly." These images remind us we indeed use inadequate words in fragmented sentences to attempt to describe the reality of the God we know in our hearts. Words are profoundly weak to voice the depths of our prayers. Lord, the words "I love You" seem so shallow and childish when I realize You are the infinitely powerful Creator whose hand reaches across a trillion light years of the universe. When I say, "Thank You for saving me," it seems I am speaking childish words I barely understand. I think as a child and I understand as a child. Help me become mature in my understanding and worship. Amen.

1 Corinthians 14 Instructions about Tongues

¹Lord, I want love to be my greatest spiritual gift, but I also want the other spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} ²Those with the gift of tongues speak to God, but those who prophesy speak to others. No one understands those who speak in tongues because they speak the mysterious things of the Spirit. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} 3However, those who prophesy help others grow in Christ by motivating and instructing them. {39 Bible-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} 4Those with the gift of tongues benefit only themselves, and those who prophesy, benefit the church. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 5While Paul wanted all the Corinthians to have the gift of tongues, he would rather they be able to prophesy. Unless the gift of interpretation followed tongues, no one could benefit. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Paul gives principles about languages and he seems to place them in an order of importance. Not everyone agrees with my order of importance, and you may also disagree. First, use a language that you understand so you can be rational and sane (14:14). Second, use a language that others understand so you can communicate with them (14:11). Third, your language in the assembly must be understandable so people can be edified (14:16). Fourth, your language must be understandable to you so you can fellowship with God and He with you (14:15). Lord, control all of my speech, so I can glorify You and edify believers. Use my words to bring unsaved people to You. May all the words of my mouth reflect the intent of my heart. Amen.

⁶Lord, Paul told the Corinthians that if he only spoke in tongues, they would learn nothing new, and neither would they be inspired or instructed. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3}

⁷Paul used a musical instrument as an illustration. If a harp or flute could play only one note, listeners couldn't appreciate one note from another and they couldn't tell what was being played. {315 Mystery of Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} ⁸If no one can understand a bugle's sound, who would be ready for battle? {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ⁹If tongues do not produce an intelligible message, can anyone know what is being said? He might as well be talking to the wind. {80 Conditional-Praying, Matt. 8:2} ¹⁰There are many different languages in the world that are helpful to those who understand them, but they didn't help Paul. {236 Inadequate Words-Prayer, 1 Cor. 13:12} ¹¹He said those speaking in a different language were foreigners to him, and he to them. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} 12Paul wanted the same principles for the Corinthians. "Concentrate on gifts that will benefit the church." {461 Stir Up Your Spiritual Gift-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:6} ¹³Lord, Paul told them that if they use tongues, they should pray for someone to interpret what is being said. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 14Paul said if he used tongues in his prayers, his Spirit was praying to God but he didn't know what he was saying. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 15To solve this problem, Paul said he would pray in tongues and he would pray in ordinary languages so that everyone understood and prayed with him. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹⁶Paul worshiped God in tongues, but also with ordinary languages so everyone understood what he was doing. How could the church join you in worship if they did not understand what you are saying? {190 God-Hunger Prayer, Matt. 5:6} ¹⁷No matter how well you speak, the church receives no benefit. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} 18 Paul thanked God that he had a greater gift of tongues than all of them, ¹⁹but in the church he would rather speak meaningful words than speak ten thousand words that no one understood. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ²⁰He exhorts them not to be childish but to be adults in this matter. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ²¹Lord, the Scriptures say, "Through men speaking strange languages, and through the lips of foreigners, You will talk to the Gentiles and still they will not listen to You." 22 Therefore strange languages are a sign for unbelievers, not for believers. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ²³Prophecy is a sign for believers and not for unbelievers. Otherwise a visitor coming to a church meeting would think everyone was mad because they were speaking unintelligible words. {80 Conditional-Praying, Matt. 8:2} ²⁴But if a visitor heard everyone speaking a message he could understand, he can be convicted by what he hears. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ²⁵The visitor will have his secret thoughts exposed, then he will fall on his knees crying out to You, saying, "God indeed is among the church." {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²⁶Lord, Paul drew some conclusions from the above explanations: when the church comes together, some will sing, another will preach, another will share what God said to them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁷Some will use their gift of tongues, others will interpret, but they must do what is most beneficial to all and build everyone up spiritually; some will disagree with what Paul told them. ²⁸If someone with the gift of interpretation is not present, the tongues speaker must keep quiet and speak only to God in private. ²⁹Let two or three preach in sequence, and let the church listen to understand what is said. ³⁰If someone is preaching and another person receives something special from the Lord, the preacher shall allow them to speak. ³¹Then all who preach will have a turn to speak, and the whole church will learn from God and be encouraged. ³²The one preaching is in control of his ministry, so those preaching can take turns. 33God does all things orderly; He doesn't confuse His people. He wants His people to worship orderly in the assembly. ³⁴Women must not ask questions or disrupt sermons, or speak out when another is preaching, but must be submissive to protocol. 35When a woman has a question, she should ask her husband at home. It is improper for her to disrupt a church assembly. 36He asked, "Do you think the knowledge of God begins and ends with you?" Absolutely not! 37Those who claim to have the gift of prophecy or any other special gift from the Holy Spirit, should realize Paul is giving the church Your command. 38 Paul said if anyone disagrees with this conclusion, he should not be recognized by the church. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ³⁹In conclusion on this matter Paul told the Corinthians to desire the gift of prophecy so they could explain the Word of God carefully. {384 Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Rom. 12:3-8} Do not suppress the gift of tongues; ⁴⁰do everything decently and in order.

Lord, keep me from being belligerent when I disagree with others. Help me see conflicting issues from the other person's point of view. Then help me see the issue from Your point of view in Scripture. Help me be true to my convictions, while I remain loving to those with a different point of view. Amen.

1 Corinthians 15 The Resurrection of Christ

¹Lord, Paul reminded the Corinthians that the content of the gospel is the same good news he preached to them. They received it and became firmly established in it. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²This is the gospel that saved them unless they never originally believed it. {289 Lordship Salvation-Prayer, Acts 9:6}

³The first aspect of the gospel is that Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures teach. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴He was buried and after three days He arose just as the Scriptures predicted. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7}

The Appearance on a Mountain

⁵He was seen by Peter, then by the twelve, ⁶and next He appeared to five hundred at the same time. Many are still alive and will attest to having seen Him. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁷Then He appeared to James, and later to all the apostles, ⁸and finally He appeared to Paul. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁹Lord, Paul said he was the least of the apostles. Since he persecuted the church, he felt unworthy to be called an apostle. {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ¹⁰But by God's grace Paul knew he was an apostle and his ministry had been fruitful. Paul said he had worked harder than the other apostles, but it was Your grace, not his doing it. {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ¹¹What was important? Paul preached what the apostles preached: the gospel that saved the Corinthians. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

Lord, help me clearly understand the reason for Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. Thank You for the forgiveness of sins because He died for my sins. Thank You for new life because I was in Jesus when He rose from the grave (Eph. 2:5). Amen.

¹²Lord, Paul argued that if Christ were raised from the dead, how could anyone say there is no resurrection? {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ¹³If there is no resurrection from the dead, then Christ could not have been raised and 14if Christ was not raised from the dead, then Paul's preaching accomplished nothing and the faith of the Corinthians would be useless. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 15Indeed, Paul has committed perjury against You, and the God of heaven, because he swore that You raised him from the dead. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised. then Christ was not raised from the dead. ¹⁷And if Christ did not rise, the Corinthians are still in their sins 18 and those in Christ who previously died have perished. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 19If our Christian benefits are in this life only, we have a miserable life. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

Absurdum is a Latin word that means pushing an argument to its furthest opposite conclusion to make someone see the reverse truth. If Christ didn't rise: (1) our faith is vain or useless (15:14); (2) we are yet in our sins (15:17); (3) we are hopeless (15:18); (4) we are miserable (15:18); (5) our witnessing to others is vain (15:14); (6) all those who died in Jesus have perished (15:18); and (7) the Bible's promises are not true (15:20). Lord, I know You arose from the dead and are alive in the world because You live in my heart. Amen.

²⁰But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, and He is the first of millions who will live again. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²¹Lord, Paul taught that death comes through one man and resurrection from the dead came through one man. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ²²Just as all people died in Adam, so all believers will be brought to life through Christ. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3\} 23However, there is an order to the resurrection: Christ rose first, then when He returns, all believers who have died will be raised. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ²⁴After that, the end will come and Christ will turn the kingdom over to God the Father, having abolished all kingdoms, authorities, and rulers. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²⁵He will destroy every one of His enemies of every kind, ²⁶including the last enemy, death. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ²⁷Then the unsaved will be raised to meet their judge, Jesus Christ, who will punish them according to their sins. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²⁸When Christ finally becomes victorious over everything, He will put Himself under Your authority so that You will be supreme over everything. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²⁹Lord, if the dead will not be raised in the future, what is the point of our getting the same baptism they got? {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ³⁰Why would anyone be baptized if they didn't believe they would be raised? {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} 31Lord, Paul said he wouldn't continually risk himself if there wasn't a resurrection. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ³²He said he wouldn't face death daily, and fight wild beasts there in Ephesus if all he got was some reward down here on earth. If there is no resurrection, we might as well eat and drink because eventually we will all die. {4 Absurd-Praying, 1 Cor. 15:19} 33Lord, Paul warned them against being led astray. Paul said, "Bad company corrupts good living." {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} ³⁴Paul said some of them are not even Christians and they should be ashamed that he had to say it. {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13}

³⁵Lord, Paul addressed their questions, "How will they be brought back to life?" and "What kind of bodies will they have?" ³⁶Paul said the answer is in nature; first a seed must be planted and then die in the ground; then new life shall appear. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁷The thing that is sown is not what comes up, a dry little seed is planted in the ground, and a new abundant plant comes out of the earth. ³⁸The new bush is God's plan, the new plant has the same life as the seed that was planted. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ³⁹Not all flesh is the same kind of flesh; there is human flesh, animal flesh, fish have flesh, and so do birds. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 40The angels in heaven have believed but their body differs from ours. The splendor of their heavenly bodies differs vastly from a human body. ⁴¹The sun, moon, and stars each has its splendor, and each one is different from the others. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} 42These are all illustrations of our earthly body, that is planted in the earth to die or decay. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁴³But it will be raised never to decay again; what is planted is ugly and sickly, but it will be raised in glory and immortality. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 44Yes, the weak, earthly body will be buried, but it will be powerful and spiritual when raised. Just as the soul is embodied in this earthly flesh, Your eternal Spirit will live in our new bodies. {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴⁵The first man-Adam-had a life-giving soul; the last Adam—Christ—became a living-giving Spirit. 46The first one—Adam—had a soul, the last one—Christ—made us eternal spirits. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} ⁴⁷The first man was made from the dust of the earth, the second man came from heaven. 48 Every human with a body like Adam's is made of earthly dust. Every human who is born again by Christ shall have an eternal body like that of Christ in heaven. ⁴⁹Just as we are like Adam, one day we will be like Christ. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ⁵⁰Lord, I know flesh and blood cannot enter the kingdom of God because our perishable bodies will not last forever. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

⁵¹The wonderful mystery is that we shall not all die, but all believers will be transformed. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 52It will happen instantly, in the twinkling of an eye. When the last trumpet will sound, the dead in Christ will suddenly be raised, and the living will all be transformed. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} 53Our present perishable bodies will become imperishable and our mortal nature will be immortal. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} 54Then the Scriptures will be fulfilled: {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} 55"Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?" {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} 56Lord, sin is the sting that causes death, and that sting is revealed by Your law. ⁵⁷So, I thank You for victory over sin through my Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Lord, I will do what Paul tells the Corinthians. I will never give in and never admit defeat. I will keep on diligently doing Your work, knowing my labor is not in vain, and You will keep me safe to the resurrection. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13}

The resurrection of Christ is a fact on which we base our entire Christian experience. "God... hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (Eph. 2:4, 6). Therefore, we must base our prayer-relationship with God on the resurrection. Lord, I come to You through the resurrected Christ, and I have faith because the living Christ dwells within my heart. I ask for things based on His power that resulted from the resurrection. Amen.

1 Corinthians 16 Personal Greetings and Conclusion

Lord, I rejoice that You will answer with small things in my life, such as reassurance from friends, safety in travel, and our need for recognition. Amen.

¹Lord, Paul wrote to the Corinthians about needy Christians, telling the readers to take up a collection for them; this is the same thing he told the churches in Galatia. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²Each Sunday set aside some money according to their financial prosperity so Paul wouldn't need to take a collection. ³Paul planned to send their offering to Jerusalem by those the Corinthians approved. ⁴Those taking the offering could travel with Paul if they chose to do so. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

⁵Paul told them he would go to Corinth and stay with them for the winter after

he visited Northern Greece. 6Paul didn't want to just "pop" in for a visit, 7but he wanted to spend time with them if it was the Lord's will. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 8In the meantime Paul planned to stay in Ephesus. 9Lord, a big door of opportunity was opened to Paul in Ephesus, so he planned to stay there until Pentecost, but he was also aware of much opposition. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} 10Lord, Paul asked the Corinthians to graciously receive Timothy when he visited Corinth so he could do Your work. {532 Widow's Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:7} 11Paul urged no one to despise Timothy but to bless him and send him back to Paul. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} 12Paul begged Apollos to go to Corinth but Apollos adamantly refused to go at the present, but he would go to Corinth in the future. {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4} ¹³Lord, I will be aware of dangers to my faith and I will courageously face them. {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} 14I determine to let love motivate me in everything that I do. ¹⁵Lord, Paul reminded the Corinthians how Stephanas' family, who were the first believers in Corinth, had looked after the Christian brothers. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ¹⁶Paul wanted the Corinthians to help families who have this type of ministry. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁷Paul told that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus had arrived in Corinth. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} 18 They had all encouraged Paul in Ephesus, and Paul wanted them to appreciate these men, too. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

¹⁹Lord, Paul sent the Corinthians greetings from Aquila and Priscilla and the church that met in their house, ²⁰and all the believers in Ephesus sent greetings. ²¹Paul sent them his warmest greetings, wishing he could be there to embrace them. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²²Paul said if anyone does not love You, the Father, a curse should fall on them. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²³Paul prayed, "May you experience the grace of the Lord Jesus. ²⁴My love to all in Christ Jesus. Maranatha, come quickly, Lord." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

2 CORINTHIANS

CH 1: Greetings to the Church1683
Ch 2: Forgive the Sinner1685
CH 3: Instruction about Ministry1686
CH 4: Instruction about Ministry (Continued) 1687
Ch 5: Our Bodies Now and in Heaven1688
Ch 6: Hardship in Ministry1690
CH 7: ABOUT THE REPENTANT SINNER1691
CH 8: COLLECTION FOR THE SAINTS IN JERUSALEM 1692
Ch 9: More about the Collection for the Saints
IN JERUSALEM1694
CH 10: PAUL DEFENDS HIS APOSTOLIC AUTHORITY 1695
CH 11: FALSE APOSTLES1696
CH 12: PAUL'S THORN IN THE FLESH1698
CH 13: FINAL EXHORTATION AND CONCLUSION 1699

2 CORINTHIANS

Key Words: Comfort and encourage (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)

Key Verse: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God" (2 Cor. 1:3, 4).

Theme: Paul wrote a previous severe letter to the church in Corinth that rebuked their sin and told them to "put away from among yourselves that wicked person" (1 Cor. 5:13). When the church repented (and the individual repented), Paul wrote a letter to comfort and encourage them in Christ.

This letter also reflects Paul's weariness, pain, and deep burden for the churches. First, Paul was anguished over Jews (anti-grace teachers) who opposed the churches; and second, over the Jewish Christian legalizers who denied his apostleship. In this letter Paul makes one of the strongest defenses of his apostleship. Lord, the world makes it difficult to live the Christian life, yet You give comfort to me internally. Thank You for the confidence and assurance that You give. Amen.

2 Corinthians 1 Greetings to the Church

it was Your will for Paul and Timothy to write to the believers in the Corinthian church and to all Christians in the surrounding area. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²May I experience grace and peace in my life from You, heavenly Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³Lord, I bless You for encouraging me because You are the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, and You are the God of mercies and encouragement. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁴I want to encourage others who are in trouble with the same encouragement You gave me. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ⁵When I am deeply hurting in every area of life, Your promises greatly encourage me. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ⁶Lord, Paul said his suffering was for the Corinthians, so they could be saved and grow in grace. Paul was hurting at the same time the Corinthians had great pain. And as God was encouraging Paul to continue in ministry, so God would encourage the Corinthians to remain strong in their faith. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ⁷Paul was confident the Corinthians would remain steadfast, even though they were now suffering because they were encouraged by You. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

God allows trouble in our lives to keep us dependent on Him. Those who disobey God's principles of life and reject Him personally, usually have difficult lives, because rejection of God has its own consequences. So trouble is the centripetal force that draws us to God. Lord, when trouble comes I need You to get me out of trouble, or at least I need You to help me endure trouble and get through it. Give me wisdom to solve my problems, and help me when I don't realize You're helping me. Then, Lord, keep me from future trouble and evil. Amen.

8Lord, Paul didn't want to withhold his troubles from them, so they would not be ignorant of what was happening. In Asia he had intense pressures, greater than he had ever experienced in his life, so much so that Paul thought he would die. 9Paul knew that he might be killed, but he was not trusting in earthly deliverance. Paul trusted You to raise him if he died. 10 Paul rejoiced that You delivered him from the threat of death, and Paul knew that You would deliver the Corinthians. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} 11Paul recognized that the gift of his deliverance came through the prayers of many Corinthians and now they deserve credit for their intercession. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

12Lord, I will always follow the leading of my conscience to treat everyone kindly and above board without any selfish ulterior motives. I depend on You to help me; that's the way Paul acted toward the Corinthians. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ¹³Paul's letters have been straight to the point. He hasn't used worldly wisdom with them and he hasn't written anything they can't understand. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 14Paul realizes they don't know him well, but he wants them to accept him because when the Lord Jesus returns, they will be glad they know Christ, just as Paul will be glad he knows Him. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3 15Lord, Paul told them his original plan was to visit them before going to northern Greece and then return to them after leaving northern Greece. ¹⁶Paul wanted to bless them with his ministry, and then go on his way to Judea. ¹⁷So Paul thought they may doubt his intentions because he did not come to them. Paul didn't want them to think that he can't make up his mind. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} 18Paul reminded them that "God means what He says. God doesn't say 'Yes' when He means, 'No," and Paul knew what You wanted him to do. 19Lord, You have a plan for my life: You faithfully fulfill Your promises to me, no matter how many promises there are. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁰I will tell everyone that You are faithful. Amen, glory to Your name. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²¹Lord, You have helped me be a faithful believer and given me the responsibility to spread the gospel. ²²You have set Your seal—Your brand of ownership—on me, and You gave me the indwelling Holy Spirit as a pledge of blessings to come. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

²³Lord, Paul swore to You that he did not come to Corinth because he didn't want to rebuke them to their face, or to sadden or embarrass them. ²⁴Paul said he is not their dictator to tell them what they must do. Rather, he is their fellow-worker to make them happy and firm in the faith. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

2 Corinthians 2 Forgive the Sinner

¹Lord, Paul told the Corinthians he decided not to visit them because it would be painful to them. ²He felt it wasn't smart to make the people miserable who gave him joy, and he couldn't be happy if they weren't happy. ³Paul explained he hated to write the previous letter, because it grieved him deeply to expose their sins. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ⁴He didn't write to hurt them, but he had to deal with their sins because he loved them so much. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

⁵The men Paul wrote about caused great sorrow, so Paul had to rebuke them all because they allowed sin to exist in their midst. ⁶Paul told them one man's punishment was enough. ⁷He wanted them to forgive and receive him back; otherwise that man may become bitter and give up. ⁸Paul pleaded with them to show the man that they still loved him. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁹Lord, Paul explained that his previous letter tested them to see if they were completely obedient. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁰Paul said he forgave anyone they forgave, based on the authority of Christ's teachings. ¹¹When I forgive, satan doesn't have an advantage over me, for I am not ignorant of his strategy. Satan wants to discourage and defeat me. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

We should forgive those who sin, and those who sin against us, because (1) we are commanded to do so; (2) our prayers will be answered; (3) they will heal and grow in Christ (Matt. 6:12); (4) this will be a testimony to the world; and (5) it is for our own good (Mark 11:25-26). Lord, teach me to forgive others as You forgave me. Keep that bitter spirit of revenge and anger from me. Teach me to love those whom I don't love. Amen.

¹²Lord, Paul told them about the open door in Troas to preach the gospel, but Titus was not there with him. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} ¹³Because Paul was worried about Titus' welfare, he went looking for him in northern Greece. ¹⁴Lord, I thank You for helping me triumph in Christ, and for using me as I spread the gospel like a sweet fragrance to motivate people to be saved. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ¹⁵I want to be Your fragrance everywhere I go, both to those who are being saved and to those who refuse salvation. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁶Because sin has the smell of death that leads to judgment, and the sweet fragrance of the gospel leads to life, Lord, help me spread Your influence everywhere. Therefore I will go everywhere to spread the gospel, and I will speak with integrity and power. ¹⁷I won't serve You, Lord, for money, as some are in the ministry for a salary, because You send me to speak for You, I will minister in Your sight. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

Lord, thank You for every victory I enjoy. Every triumph I have comes from You who were victorious over the ultimate enemy of death. Amen.

2 Corinthians 3 Instruction about Ministry

¹Lord, Paul said he didn't need to commend himself as other people needed a letter of recommendation when they go to meet new people. ²The change in the hearts of the Corinthians was Paul's letter of recommendation. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³The Corinthian church is a letter written by Christ, not penned with ink, nor engraved on stone, but written by the Spirit of the living God. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ⁴Paul was confident of this because of his great trust in God through Christ. ⁵Lord, none of us should brag about the results of our ministry, but we should have our confidence in Christ because our ability comes from You.

Lord, my life is an open book for all to read. Forgive me my sins and mistakes, and may I and others learn from them. Use the victories You've accomplished through me as a testimony to others. Amen.

⁶You have made me a minister of the new covenant, which is not a written legal contract, but is the inner transformation of the Holy Spirit. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ⁷Your written command tells me I will die if I try to keep the law to be saved, but the Spirit gives me eternal life. Yet the face of Moses shone when he was given the command that led to death. His face had such a brilliant brightness that the Israelites couldn't look on him. 8I'll experience a far greater brightness when I give out the gospel by the Holy Spirit. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 9If the gift of the law was glorious, how much more glorious the giving of the grace of God? Actually the law that we thought had such great splendor now seems to have none compared to the splendor of Jesus Christ. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ¹⁰And if the law that was temporary had some splendor, how much more glorious is our heavenly hope in Your eternal plan of salvation? 11Since I know this new splendor will never cease, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I rest in the comfort of Your forgiveness. Your grace is glorious. But teach me more about Yourself, and help me grow to enjoy more glorious grace. Amen.

¹²how much more boldly can I speak for You? {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ¹³Lord, Moses had to put a veil over his face so the Israelites wouldn't see his shining face.

¹⁴But the Israelites' minds were hardened and even to this day whenever the Old Testament is read, a veil covers their minds so they cannot understand the truth, but the veil is taken away by believing in Christ. 15To this day, the same veil is over the minds of Jews everywhere so that when the Old Testament is read, they can't understand what they are reading. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ¹⁶But when any Jew turns to You, the veil is lifted from their hearts so they can understand Your message. 17Now, Lord, Your Holy Spirit is working in hearts, and when the Spirit works in my life there is freedom to understand Your truth. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20\ \text{$^{18}Now I,} with unveiled face, look at Christ to see His brightness reflected in the mirror of the Word of God. And constantly I am transformed into the image of Jesus Christ by the work of the Spirit, who is the Lord. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

Lord, I want to live in liberty given by the Spirit of God. Forgive my legalism, which is bondage to the law. Forgive my rebellion, which is bondage to sin and self. Give me freedom to follow Your Spirit. Amen.

2 Corinthians 4 Instruction about Ministry (Continued)

¹Lord, because You have given me a great ministry that I didn't deserve, I will not falsely represent myself nor will I hide the truth. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} 2I will not use tricks nor interpret the Bible according to my own inclination. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³But I will declare Your truth to everyone so they can understand Your Word. ⁴Lord, I know lost people are spiritually blinded; they cannot understand the gospel. Satan has blinded their spiritual understanding to prevent them from understanding the glorious gospel. They cannot see Jesus Christ in Scripture, who is Your image. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 5I will not advance myself or my reputation, I will preach Christ Jesus, the Lord and I will serve those I'm trying to help. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 6For You, who commanded light to shine out of darkness, have shined Your light into my heart so I see Your glory in Jesus Christ. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

Satan has blinded unsaved people so they can't appreciate Jesus, who is the Light of the world (John 8:12). But God sends the Holy Spirit to enlighten our darkened hearts so we can see Christ and believe in Him. Lord, give me more light to learn more about Jesus; turn the light up ever brighter. Then too, I pray for my unsaved friends and relatives who are blinded by sin and satan.

Open their eyes to see Jesus, then give them strength to say "Yes" to Him. Amen.

⁷Lord, I have the treasure of Jesus Christ in my frail human body so that outsiders will see Your power and know it doesn't come from my weakness.

⁸I have troubles everywhere I go, but I am not distressed, and I don't give up. I am persecuted, but not forsaken by You. I am knocked down, but not knocked out. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} 9I face death daily, but I serve Christ Jesus who went to death for sinners like me. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ¹⁰My life is renewed daily so others can see the life of Christ shining through me. ¹¹I always faced the threat of death so that others can see the life of Jesus in me. 12So we live in the face of death so that others can have eternal life. 13I want the faith that is described in Scripture, "I speak what I believe"; may my life reflect what I speak. May I say what I believe. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} 14Because You raised up the Lord Jesus from the dead, You'll raise me up in the last days. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 15Lord, Paul said he suffered so they could be saved, and when more are won to Christ, Paul will thank You more and glorify You more. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁶That is why Paul didn't give up even when his outward body was hurting; his inward desire was strong to serve You. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ¹⁷Paul said his little troubles will pass away, but this short time of suffering will result in Your blessing on him and them. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁸Lord, I will not look at my present sufferings, but I will look forward to being happy in heaven because things I see on earth last only for a short time, but the things I can't see with my physical eyes are eternal—they last forever. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, there are difficulties in the church and in the world, but I will not give up. There are trials and temptations, but they only make me try harder. I get frustrated with the things I can't do, and I get tired; but I will not give up. Amen.

2 Corinthians 5 Our Bodies Now and in Heaven

¹Lord, I know if my earthly body dies, You have a spiritual body for me in heaven, an eternal body made by You alone. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} 2In this present body I groan as I wait for my spiritual body, {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 3for I am not merely a spirit without a body because every person has a physical body. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁴Yet I groan and get weary in this body, but it's better than not having a body at all. {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} 5Yet when I get to heaven I'll have a new body, and I won't lose this present body, but it will be transformed into an eternal body. This is Your plan for me and You guarantee it by giving me the Holy Spirit to live within this body. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} ⁶Therefore I am absolutely confident knowing that while I live in this earthly body, I am not yet in Your presence. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} ⁷In this present body I must live by faith, which is obeying Your principles, not living to please the body. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁸Lord, I am not afraid to die, because when this body dies, I'll immediately go to be with You in heaven. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Therefore, my aim is to please You in everything, whether I'm in an earthly body or a heavenly body. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁰I know one day I'll stand before You to be judged and everything I've done will be examined, and I'll get what my actions and thoughts deserve for the good or bad deeds I've done. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Lord, I am limited and I get tired; help me go on. I yearn to be with You in glory, but I know I have work to do on earth. Use me as long as I have strength; then take me home. Amen.

¹¹Lord, because I know You will judge me, I work hard to win people to Christ. You know my intents and actions and Paul added that he hoped the Corinthians also correctly knew his motives. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹²Paul was not making another attempt to commend himself to the Corinthians, but giving them reasons to support his ministry. Then they would have an answer to those who constantly criticize Paul. ¹³Paul said if he was "out of place" defending himself, it was only to bring You glory. And if he is making a reasonable case, it was for the Corinthians' sake. 14Lord, the love of Christ overwhelms me when I think of His death, that Christ died for all sinners. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁵Then if He died for all, then all died with Him, so that I should no longer live for myself but for Him who died and was raised to new life. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 16Therefore I will stop judging Christians by what the world thinks of them. Before Paul's conversion he judged Christ only as a human, but now he knows Christ differently. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10}

¹⁷Because I have received Christ into my life, You have created me a new person in Christ; the old life is gone, now I have a new life in Him. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} 18My transformation is Your work, and I am reconciled to You through Christ; now I must get others reconciled to You. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} 19I know You worked through Christ's death to get the world reconciled back to You, now You will not punish people for their sin, but You accept them in Christ. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 20 Now I am Your ambassador to spread the message of reconciliation, asking people to be "reconciled to God," {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ²¹because You placed my sins on Christ, the Sinless One, and You put His righteousness on me so I stand perfect before You. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

Lord, You promised new things when I got saved. Thank You for a new nature and a new hope in heaven. Thank You for a new indwelling by Christ, and thank You for a new access to You in prayer. May I never take for granted the new things You have given me. Amen.

2 Corinthians 6 Hardship in Ministry

¹Lord, I want to be Your partner in ministry, and I want everyone to take advantage of Your grace that is available to all believers. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 2The Scriptures teach, "I, the Lord, have listened to My people, and when they needed salvation, I came to them and helped them." Now this is a good time for all people to be saved, today is the day of salvation. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ³Lord, I will not do anything to discredit myself so that I make it hard for people to get saved. ⁴Actually I will do the opposite; I will do everything I can to bring people to Christ. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 5Lord, I will patiently go through sufferings and difficulties and pressures for You. I am willing to be beaten and imprisoned, and will face angry rioters for You. I am willing to work hard, go without sleep, or go without food for You. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} Lord, I want to be pure, patient, kind, loving, and knowledgeable of Your principles. ⁷Thus I can minister in the Holy Spirit's power, according to the Word of God, clothed in the armor of righteousness. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

Lord, there are many challenges in life and ministry; help me face the good times and bad things with Your optimism and power. Help me remain pure in heart, fervent in Spirit, and aggressive in serving. Amen.

8Therefore I will stand true on the right hand and on the left, prepared for honor or dishonor, whether good reports or bad reports. I will continue ministering if I'm accused of lying or if people accept my honest presentation. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 9It doesn't make any difference if I'm ignored, or if I'm well known. Also I'll continue in ministry if I narrowly escape death, or if I have a safe environment. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} 10Lord, people think my life is miserable, yet I always rejoice. They treat me like I'm poor and have nothing, but compared to all people I'm rich and have everything. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

¹¹Lord, Paul spoke very frankly to the Corinthians. He didn't hide anything from them. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} ¹²The conviction they felt came from their hearts; it didn't come from Paul. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹³Paul said he spoke to them as children, and now he wants them to respond with childish enthusiasm and obedience. {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

¹⁴Lord, I will not tie my life to the decisions of unsaved people who will lead me astray. Good intentions can't tolerate an evil agenda. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹⁵There is no common agreement between light and darkness, just as Christ and the devil do not agree on anything. ¹⁶There is no agreement between Your temple and idols, so I won't let unbelievers control my life. I want You to live in the body of my temple because You said, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 17"I will dwell in My people, just as I dwelt in the Old Testament temple. I will walk with them and they will be My people." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹⁸Lord, You want me to separate myself from unsaved people and not touch dirty things, so You can welcome me and be my Father, and all believers will be Your sons and daughters as You have promised.

When God tells us to be holy, He means for us to be separate from any and all influences of sin in our lives. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} When God tells us to "Come out from among them, and be ye separate" (6:17, KJV), He is telling us to keep apart from those who would negatively influence us with evil. Lord, give me spiritual eyes to see the influence that some people have on my life. Then give me wisdom to know how to detach myself from them, even as I pray for them. I will not let some drag me down, nor will I allow them to influence my life and testimony. Amen.

2 Corinthians 7 About the Repentant Sinner

¹Lord, with promises as great as these, I will separate myself from evil, whether it touches my body or spirit, and I will be completely holy unto You, living in reverence to You. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

²Lord, Paul asked them to keep their minds open about him and to realize that he had not exploited anyone, hurt anyone, or ruined anyone's reputation. ³He was not fussing at them or blaming them because they were always on his mind. They succeeded or failed together with him. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 4Paul had the highest confidence in them, and was encouraged by them, and they made Paul happy in spite of his suffering. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} 5Lord, Paul explained that he didn't get any physical rest, even when he got to northern Greece. There he found trouble everywhere he turned for there were fightings within and fears without. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} But You who encourage those who are depressed, encouraged Paul when Titus arrived. ⁷Titus told how the Corinthians received him, and were sorry for their sin, and were concerned for Paul. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

⁸Lord, Paul was not sorry he sent them a letter, but he was sorry that the letter pained them. Thankfully they hurt only a short time. 9Now Paul is glad he sent the letter, not because he hurt them, but because their pain drove them back to You. They had a beneficial sorrow, the sorrow sent by You to draw Your people to Yourself. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ¹⁰For godly sorrow leads to repentance for salvation, and I will never regret this type of sorrow that drives me back to You. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 11But worldly sorrow leads not to repentance but to discouragement, despondency, and death. Paul pointed out how good was their sorrow. They are now diligent to serve You and they were also quick to get rid of sin. He notes the Corinthians have completely cleaned themselves of their wrongdoings. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, sometimes I've been wrongly accused of things I didn't do; You know my heart. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} Help me remain strong in the face of criticism to always do the right thing. Help me deal with criticism and learn from it how to live more godly. If there is anything in me that is worthy of criticism, give me strength to confess it and seek Your help to live worthy for Your love. Amen.

¹²Therefore Paul explains he didn't write to blame the offender or comfort the offended, but to make them responsible to You. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹³Titus encouraged Paul when he arrived to tell of their love for Paul, and

Titus was happy to bring the news. Before Titus left to bring the letter to them, Paul told Titus they would repent of their sin, and they did not disappoint Paul. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁴Paul said he always told the truth, and his boastings of them proved true. ¹⁵Paul told how Titus loved the Corinthians because when he read them the letter, the Corinthians willingly received it with deep concern. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ¹⁶This made Paul happy that there was no barrier between them and him, and now Paul has great confidence in them. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

2 Corinthians 8 Collection for the Saints in Jerusalem

¹Lord, Paul wanted the Corinthians to know what Your grace accomplished in northern Greece. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²Those in Macedonia have had difficult times and they have been tested with disappointments, but they were extremely generous in giving money even though they didn't have much. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} 3Paul assured the Corinthians that the Macedonians gave as much as they possibly could, even more than they should. 4They begged Paul to receive their offering 5so they could rejoice in helping the poor saints in Jerusalem. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁶They did more than Paul expected, by first giving themselves to God, then giving money to Paul for Jerusalem. So Paul encouraged Titus to visit them and finish the collection of money that he began on a previous visit. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

⁷Lord, Paul reminded the Corinthians that they had good leaders and they had strong faith, good preaching, much knowledge, and enthusiasm. Also the Corinthians had a deep love for Paul, and now he wanted them to be leaders in giving joyfully to the Jerusalem project. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

Lord, teach me the proper ways to give my time, talent, and treasure to You. Take the gifts I offer and use them for Your glory.

Amen.

⁸Paul reminded them he was not giving a command, but he's reminding them what others have done. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ⁹Lord, Paul reminded them of the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ that when He had all the riches of heaven, He gave up everything to help others so all believers could be spiritually rich because of His poverty. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

¹⁰Therefore, Paul only suggested that the Corinthians finish the project, because it was they who first suggested it to him. ¹¹Having begun so enthusiastically, Paul wanted them to finish the financial project with zeal, giving whatever money they could. ¹²Paul reminded them that God wanted them to give from what resources they had, not from what they didn't have. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts

2:44-45} ¹³Paul also reminded them they shouldn't give so much money that they suffer when they give to relieve the suffering of others. ¹⁴Paul said suffering should be shared by all believers. Since the Jerusalem Christians are suffering now, the Corinthians can do something about it. In the future the Corinthians may have sufferings and the Jerusalem Christians will help them. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁵The Scriptures say, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered only a little bit had enough to meet his needs."

16Lord, Paul was thankful that Titus had the same concern for the Corinthians as he had. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} ¹⁷Titus would visit them again at Paul's suggestion, but Titus would have gone anyway because he had deep concern for them. ¹⁸Paul also sent another brother with Titus who was recognized as a good preacher of the gospel among all churches. Paul told them this brother was elected to travel with Paul to take the money to Jerusalem. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 19His election would prove to all the churches his eagerness to help the Jerusalem Christians and that God's grace overcomes difficulties. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ²⁰By traveling together, the two would overcome any rumor about how this large offering would be used in Jerusalem. ²¹Paul said, "I am trying to do right in the sight of all men and of God." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²²To accomplish this, Paul sent a third brother who was well known to Paul, and the brother wanted to visit the Corinthians because Paul had told him about them. ²³Lord, Paul said, "Tell everyone Titus is my partner and he is coming to help you. Also tell everyone the other two brothers are outstanding Christians and represent the churches and Paul." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁴Finally Paul said, "Show your love to these men, and do for them what I promised you would do." {468 Support-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

Lord, thank You for the privilege of serving with other believers who encourage and motivate me to greater service. Bless them as they have blessed me. Use us together in Your work. Amen.

2 Corinthians 9 More about the Collection for the Saints in Jerusalem

¹Lord, Paul said he didn't need to write to the Corinthians about giving to needy saints, because they were eager to help. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²He had been boasting to the believers in Achaia that the Corinthians were eager to help. That motivated the believers in Achaia to give. ³But Paul is sending the three brothers to make sure they give as they pledged they would. ⁴Because if the Macedonians went with Paul and the Corinthians didn't give what they pledged, both Paul and the Macedonians would be embarrassed. 5So Paul urged the three brothers to visit Corinth to make sure the gift is ready and waiting.

Lord, Paul wants the money to be a real gift, not something that is given under pressure. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ⁶Remember, "If you give little, God's blessing will be small, similar to the farmer who plants a few seeds, and he gets only a few plants. {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4} ⁷When the farmer plants a lot of seeds, he gets a big harvest." {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

⁸Everyone must decide the budget they need to live on, so they will always have enough for their needs and some left over to give to others. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 9As the Scriptures say, "He who gives to the poor, his gift will be remembered by God." 10God, You who give seed to the farmers, and bread to the hungry, will also give me what I need and make my harvest great. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 11When You make me richer in every way, I will be able to give generously and cause others to thank You. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} 12As I give money in a Christian way, You supply my needs and the needs of the needy. For this I give thanks to You. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹³By giving a generous gift, the Corinthians demonstrate their Christian integrity, and those receiving the gift praise You. 14Then they will pray fervently for the Corinthians because they receive Your grace through them. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} 15Lord, Paul concluded, "Thank You, Lord, for Your gift beyond words, the gift of Jesus Christ." [483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

Paul says our harvest will be according to our planting or investment. Therefore we must: (1) pray for big results; (2) plan for big results; (3) work for big results; and (4) trust God to bless our endeavors according to our "seed planting" or investment. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} Lord, give me faith to believe great results for the investment of my time, talent, or treasures. Amen.

2 Corinthians 10 Paul Defends His Apostolic Authority

¹Lord, Paul appealed gently to the Corinthians about these matters, as compassionate as Christ would plead. Yet the Corinthians are saying he is timid when he is with them, but bold in his letters. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} 2Paul wants them to do what he asks so he won't have to be harsh when he comes. Some in Corinth think Paul is an ordinary man, so they don't want to do what he asks or says. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ³Paul said, "Yes, I live as an ordinary man in the flesh, but I don't use the strength of an ordinary man to win battles." {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ⁴Paul didn't use the weapons of the world, Paul used Your power to tear down strongholds to demolish arguments and every barrier against knowledge about You that keeps people from finding You. [455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} 5With these weapons I can capture people and bring them back to You so they become obedient to Christ. ⁶Once the Corinthians are fully obedient to Christ, then Paul is ready to punish disobedience. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, the enemy is stronger than I am, and his weapons are stronger than I naturally have. I need help or I'll be overwhelmed and defeated. I will use Your weapons and I will intercede against the enemy. I pray for victory by the Holy Spirit. Amen.

⁷Lord, Paul said the Corinthians were looking on outward things; to them Paul seems weak and powerless, but Paul tells them not to look at just the surface. 8Yet, if anyone can claim the power of Christ, Paul says it's he. Paul is sorry for talking too much about having the authority of Christ, but he says the Lord gave it to him, not to pull down, but to build up the saints so he'll not apologize for using it. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} Paul says he is not trying to frighten them, even though some say his letters are forceful, but he is unimpressive in person. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁰They criticize Paul for being a poor preacher, and they say there's nothing authoritative about him. 11Paul says those who criticize him should remember that what Paul is like in his letters will be what he is like in person. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹²Paul said he is not comparing himself with people who write their own "brag sheet", because their ego is their standard. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} ¹³Rather, Paul said his standard for achievement is Your divine yardstick for measuring faithfulness, which he followed in Corinth. 14Paul said he was not overstepping his commission when he brought the gospel to the Corinthians, or when he exercised authority over them. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁵Paul said he is not taking credit for ministry others have done in Corinth. Instead, Paul hopes their faith will grow, and then others will appreciate what he has done. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ¹⁶Paul said he will be carrying the gospel in the future to unreached fields, so no one will criticize him for working in someone else's field. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ¹⁷If anyone wants to boast, let him boast in You, our Father. ¹⁸Then it's not a matter of self-approval but of having Your approval. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

2 Corinthians 11 False Apostles

¹Lord, Paul asked the Corinthians to put up with his foolishness ²because he is jealous over them with the right kind of jealousy. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ³Paul said, "I am concerned that the Corinthians have a deep love for Christ alone, as a virgin bride has for her groom." {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ⁴But Paul is concerned they will be led away from their pure love for Christ, as Eve was deceived by satan. {456

Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Lord, satan deceived Eve and she fell to temptation because of his lie. I know there are false apostles just as there is perverted preaching, and a distorted gospel. Deliver me from imitation Christianity and sham promises. Open my eyes by the Holy Spirit, and help me see Christianity clearly in Scripture. I want to believe the truth, and only the truth. Amen.

⁵Paul said they were gullible about their faith because if anyone preached about another Jesus that was different from the one Paul preached, they would quickly embrace any false teacher. Also they would quickly embrace a false spirit, different from the One they got at salvation. Paul said those who claimed to be apostles were no better than he was. ⁶If Paul were a poor speaker, at least he knew the message he was presenting, and he had preached it many times. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 7Lord, Paul asked if he did wrong by not taking money from the Corinthians when he preached to them. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} Paul was taking money from other churches to live on so he could preach to them. 9When Paul ran out of money in Corinth, he didn't take money from them; those who came from Philippi brought him money. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 10 Paul said he was very careful not to burden them. Paul said he'd tell everyone the same thing in Greece, 11not to embarrass the Corinthians but ¹²to cut the ground out from under those who say they minister just as Paul does. ¹³God never sent those false ministers, but they have fooled the Corinthians into thinking they are Jesus' apostles. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹⁴This didn't surprise Paul because satan can change himself into an apostle of light, so that those who serve the devil actually appear to be godly ministers. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁵In the final judgment they'll get the punishment their evil deeds deserve. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20}

¹⁶Lord, Paul asked them not to think he is a fool, but if the Corinthians take him as a fool Paul wants to brag as a fool boasts. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁷Paul said the following bragging is not prompted by God, but is said because he has something to brag about. ¹⁸The false teachers have been bragging of their worldly achievements, so Paul will brag about his spiritual achievements. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 19Paul said the Corinthians had tolerated fools; they tolerated false teachers who made them slaves. ²⁰The false teachers made the Corinthians feed them, obey them, and give them all their money. They were slapping the Corinthians in the face. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²¹Paul never demanded things like that. Yet, whatever the false teachers brag about, Paul has more to boast about. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²²Are they Hebrews? So was Paul. Are they Israelites? So was Paul. Are they descendants of Abraham? So was Paul. ²³Are they ministers of Christ? Paul said he was foolish to even compare himself to them because he was called by Christ Himself. 24"I have served more time in prison, I have been beaten more times, I have faced death time and again. I have received 39 lashes, five times from the Jews. ²⁵I have been beaten with rods five times. I have been stoned once. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²⁶I have been shipwrecked three times. I drifted 24 hours in the sea. I have been in danger while crossing rivers, from thieves, from Jews, and from Gentiles. I have been in danger in city streets, in the desert, on the sea, and by false teachers. ²⁷I have experienced hard work, exhaustion, sleepless nights, hunger, thirst, fastings, cold, and exposure." ²⁸Finally Paul said, "I have had the constant responsibility of the churches. Every time someone sins, I have to deal with it. {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} 29When Christians fail, I pick them up. When they are hurt, I comfort them."

Lord, Paul suffered many different ways, yet he remained true to You. Be with me when I go through suffering; keep my faith strong and use my testimony for Your glory. Amen.

³⁰Paul said, "I'd rather brag about my weaknesses than my accomplishments. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ³¹God, the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, knows I am telling the truth and let all praise go to Him forever." {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³²Paul told how the governor of King Aretas of Damascus tried to arrest him at the city gates, ³³but he was let down by a basket on a rope to escape through a window in the wall.

2 Corinthians 12 Paul's Thorn in the Flesh

¹Lord, Paul said it was foolish to boast about accomplishments, but he has had visions and revelations from You, Lord. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 2"Fourteen years ago I was taken to heaven and only God knows whether it was physically or spiritually. All I know is that I was caught up into Paradise (let me repeat, ³I don't know if it was in my body or in my spirit). 4I heard things that I cannot repeat. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 5I'll not brag of that experience, and I'll brag only in my weaknesses. 6I have plenty to brag about, but I won't do it because people will think I am a fool. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

7"I don't want people to think more highly of me than they ought to think." Lord, because Paul had this extraordinary revelation, You gave him a thorn in the flesh to keep him from getting puffed up. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} 8Three times Paul pleaded for You to relieve him from that pain, but You told Paul, {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 9"My grace is sufficient for you; My power will be evident in your weakness." So Paul said, "I'll be happy to boast of my weakness so the power of Christ will rest on me. Since it is for the cause of Christ, I am happy to live with my thorn in the flesh. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ¹⁰I will be happy to suffer insults, hardships, difficulties, and poverty for when I am weak, I am strong." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

Lord, there are many reasons why You don't answer prayer. Sometimes I've asked for the wrong thing, or asked at the wrong time, or asked with a wrong attitude or with sin in my life. Teach me to focus on You and the prayers You've answered in the past, not the unanswered prayers. Amen.

¹¹Lord, Paul said the Corinthians were making him look foolish. They should be bragging on him, not Paul bragging on himself. Paul said he was not behind the first apostles in second place. ¹²The things that characterize an apostle are signs, wonders, and miracles, which he did among the Corinthians. These miraculous gifts meant the Corinthians were not inferior to other churches. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ¹³The only thing lacking in the Corinthian church was the fact that they didn't pay Paul a salary. He asks forgiveness in this exception. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

¹⁴Lord, Paul told the Corinthians he was coming to them a third time, and Paul said he will not take money from them. Instead, he wants their love, not their money. Children don't take care of their parents, parents take care of their children. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ¹⁵Paul said, "I am willing to spend my money on you. I will even be spent for you because I love you more than any other teacher." {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁶Paul notes, "Some of you argue that I didn't receive money from you, but you think I tricked you. You think I made money off you some other way." ¹⁷Paul asked them, "How did I make money?" Titus and the others sent Paul money; he didn't take money from them. ¹⁸Paul noted, "We all live by the Holy Spirit, which is by the same standard." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, Paul had a deep burden for the believers in Corinth; this is evident in his writings. Give me the same prayer burden for others. Teach me the principles of intercession and hear the prayer I make for others. Amen.

¹⁹Paul explained, "You think I'm telling you these things to justify myself. Actually, I speak the truth in Christ before God. I say this so God will know I did everything for your spiritual growth." {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ²⁰Lord, when Paul got to Corinth, he was afraid that he would not find what he wanted to find, and that they would not see in him what they expected of him. Paul was afraid he'd find arguments, jealousy, hatred, divided-allegiances, slander, expressions of ego, and disharmony. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²¹Paul asked them, "When I come again, will I be embarrassed by your behavior? Shall I grieve over any who have sinned, and are guilty of impurity yet have not repented of their evil?" {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

2 Corinthians 13 Final Exhortation and Conclusion

¹Lord, Paul said this on his third trip to Corinth, and it was the same thing he said on the second visit. Now Paul is absent from them but he still told them the same things. ²He repeated his authority, "At the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established. I have already warned everyone, and especially those who are sinning, that I will punish them severely when I come. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 3I will give you all proof that Christ speaks through me and He will not be weak in dealing with You. ⁴His weakened body was crucified, but now He has the mighty power of God. I am weak in my human body as He, but through His power I will be strong." {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ⁵Lord, Paul told everyone, "Examine yourselves by asking am I actually a Christian? Test yourself with this question: Do you have the presence of Jesus Christ living in your lives? {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 6I have not failed the test; I have passed the test, and I belong to Jesus Christ." ⁷Lord, Paul prayed they would live godly lives, not to make him look successful, but that God may be glorified. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ⁸Paul said his responsibility is to encourage them to live right at all times and not do evil. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ⁹He was glad to be weak and despised, if it meant they would become strong. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ¹⁰Lord, Paul said he hoped he wouldn't need to use his apostolic authority to break them, but to lift them up. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6}

Lord, I examine my faith just as Paul told me to "examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith" (13:5). I know I am a Christian because Christ lives in my heart. Once I was spiritually blind, but now I see and understand scriptural things. Thank You for inner assurance. Amen.

¹¹Lord, Paul concluded, "Rejoice, grow in Christ, live in unity and peace, and may the God of love and peace be with you. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹²Greet one another warmly, ¹³as you should. All the saints greet you. ¹⁴May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the presence of the Holy Spirit be with all of you always." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

GALATIANS

Ch 1: The Galatians Have Departed from the True Gospel1702
Ch 2: The Out-Living of the In-Dwelling Christ
1704
Ch 3: The Law Condemns Us but Faith Saves us . 1706
CH 4: LEGALISM IS AN ENEMY OF FAITH1708
Ch 5: Characteristics of the Life of Faith1711
Ch 6: The Faith-Life Is a Brotherhood1714

GALATIANS

Key Word: Law (Galatians 2:16)

Key Verse: "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, 'Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.' But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for 'the just shall live by faith'" (Gal. 3:10, 11).

Theme: Paul received news that the Galatians (in modern Turkey) had been influenced by Jewish "missionaries" who were legalizers, and had invaded the area to bring new Christian believers under the law, that is, to make Gentile Christians Jews. Their teaching was twofold: first, that obedience to Old Testament law—mingled with faith in Christ—was the basis of salvation; and second, that justified believers were made perfect before God by keeping the law.

Paul has a fivefold rebuttal: (a) Paul received his revelation of grace and apostleship from God (1:6-2:14); (b) justification is by faith without the law (2:15-3:24); (c) the believer lives by faith, not the law (3:25-5:15); (d) sanctification comes from the Holy Spirit, not the law (5:16-26); (e) the new life is a brother-hood (6:1-18).

Lord, keep my faith based on the Word of God; keep my eyes on Jesus as my example. Keep my life filled with the Holy Spirit. Keep my prayers based on Your promises. Keep me in Your church so this brotherhood can watch over me spiritually. Amen.

Galatians 1 The Galatians Have Departed from the True Gospel

Paul wrote a letter to the Galatians, reminding them that he was an apostle by divine commission of Jesus Christ and God the Father. He was not appointed by any individual or by any group; therefore they should not reject his clear teaching on salvation {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} by grace through faith alone. ²Paul sent greetings to all the churches of Galatia, from all those who were with him. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ³Paul prays for You the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ to give them grace and peace. Lord, I want the same grace and peace in my life that comes only from You, the Lord Jesus Christ. {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer,

Num. 6:23-26} ⁴Thank You for sending Jesus to die for my sins, to deliver me from this present evil world according to Your eternal plans. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁵I give all glory to You, my heavenly Father, and will continue to do so throughout the eternal ages.

⁶Lord, Paul was startled that the Galatians had turned away so quickly from the teaching of grace to follow a different gospel of works. They no longer followed the gospel of salvation by faith alone. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ⁷They were being blinded by those who twisted the truth of Christ into legalism. 8Lord, Paul wanted Your curse on anyone who preached that salvation comes by works. He said, "Even if an angel preached works, it should be cursed." {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 9Then Paul repeated the point, "If anyone preaches a gospel contrary to what the Galatians received, let him be under a curse forever." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰Lord, Paul didn't want to please people.

When Paul rebuked the Galatians because they are being drawn away from the gospel, he reminded them the issue is not about them or him, "For do I now persuade men, or God or do I seek to please men? For if I yet please men, I should not be the servant of Christ." (1:10). That should be our prayer, that God may be pleased in all we do. Lord, I want You to be pleased in all I think and do.

He wanted Your approval. If he catered to people, he'd not be Christ's servant.

When I displease You, convict me of wrong thinking or actions. Draw me to Yourself. May I please You in every way, and everything I say, and every day of my life. Amen.

¹¹Lord, the good news that Paul preached didn't come from human thought or logic. ¹²He didn't think it up nor did anyone teach it to him. It came by a direct revelation from Jesus Christ. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} 13Before Paul was saved, he persecuted Christians and tried to destroy Christianity. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 14Paul was more zealous than most Jews his age, and tried as diligently as possible to follow all the Jewish traditions. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} 15But You called Paul before he was born, and chose him to be Your apostle. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁶Your Son was revealed to Paul {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} so that he might preach the gospel of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} When Paul was saved, he didn't consult with anyone, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ¹⁷and he didn't go to Jerusalem to consult with the apostles. Immediately after Paul was saved, he went to Arabia (the desert) where You revealed to him the doctrine of salvation by grace through faith, apart from works. Then he returned to Damascus. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

There are several reasons why God calls people. First, He calls us to salvation (1 Thess. 5:24). Second, God calls us to preach Christ to the world (Gal. 1:15). Third, some are called to full-time vocational service (Heb. 5:4; Luke 3:2). Fourth, God calls us to be separate from sin (Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2). Fifth, God calls us to fellowship with Christ (1 Cor. 1:9). When God calls, we should respond in a prayer, "Here am I; send me" (Isa. 6:8). Lord, I'm listening for Your voice; call me. I will do what You want; call me. I will be what You want me to be; call me. Amen.

¹⁸Three years later, Paul went to Jerusalem to meet Peter and stayed there 15 days. ¹⁹The only other apostle Paul met was James, our Lord's brother. ²⁰(Paul affirmed before God this was the way it happened. He was not lying.) ²¹Then Paul went to minister in the provinces of southern Turkey and then Antioch of Syria. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ²²The churches in the Holy Land didn't even know what Paul looked like. ²³All they knew was, "The one who used to persecute Christians now preaches the faith he formerly tried to destroy." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ²⁴They praised God for saving Paul.

Galatians 2 The Out-Living of the In-Dwelling Christ

¹Lord, Paul returned to Jerusalem 14 years later accompanied by Barnabas and Titus {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ²with definite orders from God to confront the leaders about their false teaching that a person must be circumcised to be saved. Paul talked privately to the leaders, telling them that in his ministry Gentiles were being saved without circumcision. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} ³The leaders agreed with Paul, and did not demand that Titus who was with him be circumcised, even though Titus was a Gentile. 4Lord, Paul said the issue of Titus would not have come up, except some false brothers had infiltrated the meeting to spy on what was discussed. They wanted to make everyone a slave to the Old Testament, taking away the freedom we all have in Christ. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Lord, I thank You that I am saved by grace, and that my faith is not measured by keeping the law. Amen.

⁵Lord, Paul did not give in to those spying on him. He established the truth of the gospel for all. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} 6The leaders didn't add anything to what Paul had said to them, or what Paul was preaching to the Gentiles. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 7"Just as God used Peter to win circumcised Jews, He used me to win uncircumcised Gentiles. 8Each of us had our unique calling and special gifts to do our task. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} 9When Peter, James, and John realized the special grace given to them, they shook hands with Barnabas and me and encouraged us to keep on preaching to Gentiles and they would preach to the Jews." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁰The only thing they added was to help the poor, which was what Paul was already doing.

¹¹When Peter later came to Antioch, Paul accused him of hypocrisy. ¹²Peter ate with Gentile believers, but when a delegation of legalists came from James in Jerusalem, Peter separated himself from the Gentile believers because he was intimidated by the Jews. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ¹³Then some other Jewish believers followed Peter's example by discriminating against Gentile believers. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} Even Barnabas was caught up in this compromise for a while. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

When we face heresy or compromise with the truth, we must stand strong for God. Notice Paul's obstinacy, "To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour" (2:5). But it was more than internal resistance, "I withstood him [Peter] to the face" (2:11). Lord, give me a deep commitment to the truth of Your Word; give me courage to stand up openly in opposition to their heresy. While I will pray for heretics privately, I will oppose them openly. Amen.

¹⁴Lord, when Paul realized what was happening, he said to Peter in front of everyone, "If you are a Jew who lives like a Gentile, why do you try to make Gentiles live like Jews?" Lord, Paul explained: {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹⁵"A Jew becomes a Jew by birth. A Christian becomes a child of God by being born again. ¹⁶No one becomes a child of God by keeping the law, but a person is saved by faith in Jesus Christ. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} Jews who believe in Christ become a child of God by faith in Christ and not by obeying the law." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} Lord, no one can be saved and justified by keeping the law. The Jews who keep the law are as much sinners as Gentiles who do not keep the law. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} ¹⁷Does that mean Christ allows us to sin? No! That is absurd teaching. {40 Bible-Comforting Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:18} 18 Paul did not try to rebuild a new system for Christians to keep the law, because he taught that the legalistic system of the law was abolished by the death of Christ. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 19"I died because the law condemns all to death, but in Christ I now live with new life." {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7}

To be justified means we are declared perfect in God's sight. It does not mean we are made perfect; it means we are declared perfect. We stand before the Father "in Jesus Christ" (2:16). We are clothed in the righteousness of the Son and we are as perfect as Jesus the Righteous One. Lord, I don't deserve heaven, nor do I have the right to stand before You. I come to You in the perfection of Jesus and there is nothing more perfect than Him. Amen.

²⁰"I was crucified with Christ; I died when He died on the cross, so I no longer try to live for God in the flesh. Now Christ lives within me to give me new life. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} The Christian life is the outliving of the indwelling Christ. I live by the faith {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} of the Son of God who loves me and gave Himself for me. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²¹Lord, if I could be saved by keeping the law then there was no need for Christ to die, and the death of Your Son was worthless." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

Paul tells us, "I was crucified with Christ" (2:20). This is a past completed action. I don't have to do anything to "crucify myself," nor do I put myself to death with extended times of prayer or self-mortification. The crucifixion prayer is when I act on the accomplishments of Christ on the cross; I apply the cleansing and the power of the cross to my life. Lord, thank You for what Jesus did for me on the cross; His crucifixion death saved me and gave me power to live victoriously over sin. So I tell the world, "I was crucified with Christ" (2:20). Amen. The great strength of believers is that Christ indwells them. "Christ lives within me" (2:20). They live by His strength and they can move mountains by faith, "the faith of the Son of God" (2:20). To get this power we must yield to Him and allow His strength to live through us. Lord, I surrender myself to You, including my selfish dreams, my habits, and my way of doing things. I will do things

Your way. Let Your power and purpose flow through me. Amen.

Galatians 3 The Law Condemns Us but Faith Saves Us

¹Lord, Paul said the Galatians were foolish because someone had blinded them to the truth of the death of Jesus Christ. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²Paul asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit by obeying the law?" ³The obvious answer is, "Of course not!" Then he asked, "Are you now trying to live the Christian life by the law after having been saved by the Holy Spirit?" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 4Lord, Paul reminded the Galatians that they suffered many things for the gospel, and now they were throwing it out. 5They were getting nothing in return for legalism. Lord, I want the power of the Holy Spirit to work miracles in my life. I know You don't do the supernatural for those living by the law; You give miraculous power to live for You to those living by faith. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

⁶Lord, I know Abraham believed in You, and it was credited to him for righteousness. You looked on Abraham as though he were perfect. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ⁷I want to be a child of Abraham, I want to live by faith and I want to wholly trust You for everything. ⁸Lord, You predicted the Gentiles would be saved by faith when You said, "In

Abraham all the nations will be blessed." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} So I want the blessing You promised to all and I want You to enrich my faith. {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

¹⁰Lord, I know those who try to keep the law are under the curse that comes with the law, for legalists who don't keep all the law will be judged by the curse promised in Scripture. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹¹No one ever got saved by obeying the law. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} Only those living by faith will be justified. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

The Bible declares, "The just shall live by faith" (3:11), which means we are not legalists who live by the law (3:12), but our faith makes us members of God's family; so we live by a higher standard. We live as children of God. We don't come praying to the Father because we keep the law. No! We come as children to a loving Father who wants to give blessings to His children. Lord, I come to You confessing I am not perfect; I'm sorry for my sin. Forgive me. I come as Your child; accept me because of Your grace and because Jesus died to bring me close to You. Amen.

¹²I remember what the Scriptures teach about the law: you must obey every law without exception, otherwise you are cursed by the law. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ¹³But Christ took me out from under the curse of the law when He was made a curse for me. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb.

is everyone who hangs on a tree." {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 14Lord, the blessings You promised Abraham come to me through faith in Jesus Christ, and I receive the promises of the Holy Spirit. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26 ¹⁵Now in this life a man must do what he promises and he cannot change his mind after he pledges his word. God, ¹⁶You promised to save those who exercise faith, so You cannot change or cancel that promise. God, You gave this promise to Abraham and to his seed. One seed-Christ, received Your promise, so Christ is the One who is saving me. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁷Four hundred and thirty years later You gave the Ten Commands, 18but keeping these commands did not save anyone {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} because You promised Abraham salvation by faith. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

2:9-10, 18} The Scriptures teach, "Cursed

¹⁹Lord, You added the law to teach us the existence of sin, until the Seed came to fulfill Your promise; then You forgive the sin of those who exercise faith. You gave us the law by angels. The very fact that You used angels {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} proved that the law did not fulfill the promises You made to Abraham, because Your promise does not depend on angels. 20It depends on Christ alone who fulfilled that promise because Christ alone took away our sin. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ²¹Lord, does the law contradict Your promise? No, for if the law gave anyone spiritual life, then the law would produce righteousness. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ²²But the Scriptures teach that all are prisoners of sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} The only escape is by faith in Jesus Christ by which I am rescued and made a son of God. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} ²³Before Christ came, we were all prisoners of the law until the coming of Christ who freed us. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ²⁴The law was like a strict drill sergeant showing us our weaknesses until we went to the school of Christ and learned to be justified by faith. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ²⁵Once we have faith in Christ to free us, we don't need the law's authority. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ²⁶Now that we have faith in Christ Jesus, we are the children of God. ²⁷When we were baptized into Christ, we became a part of His family; we put on Christ and became like Him. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19}

We can pray as a result of our spiritual baptism into Christ's death and resurrection. We are all "baptized into Christ" (3:26). As a result we have all the benefits, which include forgiveness, righteousness, access to the Father, and assurance of salvation. We also have all the benefits of His resurrection, which includes a new nature, eternal life, and membership in God's family. Therefore we can ask with the authority of a child asking of his father. Then we can have intimacy with the Father and the Son. Lord, I come into Your presence because I am Your child and I come in the righteousness of Your Son, Jesus. You hear and answer because I offer them in the perfection of the Perfect One— Jesus Christ. Amen.

²⁸We are no longer known as a Jew or Gentile, a slave or free person, or even men or women. We are all equal in Christ. ²⁹Since I belong to Christ, I am a spiritual descendant of Abraham, and I am a true heir to the promises made to him. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

We come to the Father in faith, which means we believe in the existence of God and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him (Heb. 11:6). By faith we accepted Christ into our hearts who transformed us and gave us access to pray to the Father. Therefore when we pray by faith, we go to the Father in our new relationship to Him and ask accordingly. Lord, I come to You as Your child; thank You for accepting me in Christ Jesus. I ask for things based on my new relationship to You. Thank You for hearing and answering my prayers. Amen.

Galatians 4 Legalism Is an Enemy of Faith

¹Lord, as long as the son of a rich father is a child, he doesn't have the use of the wealth that his father has left him. The child is no better than a servant in the house. ²When the father dies and leaves the child an inheritance, the child has to do what his guardian or manager tells him to do. Lord, I know I am Your child and one day I'll enjoy the riches of heaven and perfect fellowship with You. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} But now I'll live as a slave in this present world, and I'll obey every command You give me. Lord, before Christ came into the world, Your people were slaves to the Jewish law that only covered over sins. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} 4But in the fullness of time, You sent Your Son to be born of a womanborn as a Jew-to purchase freedom for those who were slaves to the law. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} 5Now You have adopted us as Your children. Lord, I thank You that Christ Jesus was born as a Jew, and that He perfectly kept the law, and He nailed the law to the cross, satisfying its claims to free me; so that I am now free from its demands. Lord, because I am Your child, You have sent the Spirit of Christ into my heart so I can talk to You, saying, "Papa, Father." 7I am no longer a slave, but Your very own child. And since I am Your child, all spiritual blessings belong to me. {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15}

God has sent the Holy Spirit into our hearts so we can cry out "Abba, Father" (4:6). No one can legally call God his Father until he is born again by the Holy Spirit. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} Then he is "a son" and "an heir of God through Christ" (4:7). Lord, I call You Father because the Holy Spirit has given me the new birth and made me a member of Your family. As Your child I ask for Your guidance this day and

Your protection from evil. I ask for an inheritance with You in glory. Amen.

⁸Lord, before Gentiles were saved, they were slaves to idols and their man-made gods. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 9When they found You—or You found them—how can they want to go back to a weak and beggarly religion and try to please You by obeying laws? {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ¹⁰They are observing special days, months, and seasons to establish favor with You. 11 They are canceling the preaching of the gospel that they once believed. Lord, may I never try to please You by keeping laws, for I am not perfect {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}—nor can I ever be perfect. My only plea is the blood of Christ who has forgiven my sin and given me access to You.

The act of salvation is described as "ye have known God" (4:9). It begins with initial knowledge that saves us, and continues with a growing knowledge that ends with an intimate understanding of God. But there is a second action; God knows you, as Paul says, "Or rather are known by God" (4:9). Lord, I come to know You in salvation, but now I want to know You more intimately. I pray with Paul, "That I may know Him" (Phil. 3:10). Amen.

¹²Lord, the legalist should feel as Paul did about the law. ¹³They should be as free from the chains of the law as was Paul. ¹⁴The Galatians did not despise Paul when he first preached to them, even though he was sick at the time. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} They welcomed Paul as though he were an angel sent from God, as though he were Christ Jesus Himself. {344 Pastor-Prayer, 2 Cor. 1:11} 15Paul wants to know what happened to their gracious spirit. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} Lord, may I have a good spirit about new converts as Paul had for the Galatians. May I love them and pray compassionately for them so they will be encouraged to grow in Christ. Lord, because of Paul's illness the Galatians originally would have given their eyes to him. 16Now Paul wants to know why they have become his enemy. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹⁷Legalists have taught the Galatians to live by the law, but they are wrong. The legalists are attacking Paul so they can win the Galatians to their point of view. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁸Paul is glad if people take an interest in the Galatians when their motives are good, but the legalists would make them slaves again to the law. Lord, there are some Christians who live by the law, and they try to make others slaves to the law. Thank You that Christ has freed me from the law and now I live free in the kingdom of Your Son. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ¹⁹Lord, Paul says his children in Christ are hurting him, as though he is going through childbirth again for them. He is suffering till Christ is formed in them. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁰Paul tells them if he were with them, he could change their opinion. He does not like to deal with this issue by a letter. He is perplexed and doesn't know what to do. Lord, give me grace to understand those who are misguided, and teach me how to relate to them. Keep me as near to the truth as I can be, and may Christ always be seen in me. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

Paul's desire for the Galatians was that "Christ be formed in them" (4:19). He wanted Jesus Christ to dwell in each one individually. Christianity is not about rules, doctrinal statements, worship programs, or other outward expressions. The essence of Christianity is that Christ be formed in us, that He live in us, and that He shine through us to the world. Lord, I pray that Christ be perfectly formed in me, and that His love in my life will control all I do. I pray that Christ shines through me to others. Amen.

²¹Lord, Paul asked the Galatians if they really understood what the law requires of them. They were not able to keep all of the law, so why should they want to be under it? Lord, I know I live in the flesh and cannot be perfect. I realize I cannot keep the law. Thank You for satisfying the demands of the law in Your death, so I will now live to please Christ. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ²²Lord, Abraham had two sons, one born of a slave girl, the other born to a free woman. ²³The son born to the slave had a natural birth, the other one was born supernaturally according to Your promise. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ²⁴The first woman—a slave-represented Mount Sinai, in Arabia, the land of Ishmael, the son of the slave woman. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ²⁵The second woman—a free woman—represented Mount Zion in Jerusalem. ²⁶This one typifies the heavenly Jerusalem and is "spiritually" free from the law. Lord, when I was born again by the Spirit of God, You gave me a new nature to obey You, which is a much greater motive to do the right things than trying to keep the law to please You. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²⁷Lord, Paul quoted Isaiah to illustrate his point, "Shout for joy, you barren one who bore no children, break into shouts of joy and gladness you who were never in labor. For there are more sons of the forsaken one than sons of the wedded wife." {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} 28Lord, Paul told the Galatians they were like Isaac, children born of the promise. ²⁹The legalists are like the child born of Hagar. Then Ishmael persecuted Isaac, which is what the Galatians are now doing to him. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 30Paul reminded them of the Scripture, "Drive away the slave girl and her son because she should not have an inheritance with Isaac." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ³¹Paul exhorts the Galatians to be children born of the free woman and not become children born to the slave woman. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Those who are born again are the children "born of the promise" (4:28) which means (1) God promised life to those who believe in Christ, (2) the promises of God are applicable to His children, and (3) we must claim the promises of God to receive God's blessings. Lord, I have claimed Your promise of eternal life (John 5:24) and I am saved. Thank You for every promise You have made. I believe they are applicable for me; I claim them now because I am Your child. Amen.

Galatians 5 Characteristics of the Life of Faith

¹Lord, thank You that Christ freed me from the law. I won't be chained again to Jewish legalism. I won't be a slave to the law. I won't consent again to religious laws, and I want Christ to be my freedom. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ²Circumcision will get no one favor with God, for if any think he must keep one law, {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 3then he must obey all the other laws. ⁴If anyone tries to be justified by keeping the law, he cuts himself off from the life of Christ and he has fallen from grace. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} 5For by faith we have the hope of being righteous, and the Holy Spirit works in us to make it happen. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} For in Christ circumcision or uncircumcision means nothing. So I must have faith which expresses itself in love. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} 7Lord, Paul said the Galatians were growing in Christ until someone stopped them from obeying the truth. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} 8This wasn't from You because You originally called them. The Judaizers had corrupted them. 9It only takes a little yeast to influence the whole lump of dough. 10Paul had confidence the Galatians wouldn't fall to legalism and that the Judaizers would be punished. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

All believers are running a race to please Christ, so we should pray that we will run well. We should pray for strength, determination, and discipline to finish well. Lord, I pray that I may run my race with strength and discipline. Keep me from discouragement. Give me will power to finish well. Amen.

¹¹Lord, some said Paul was preaching that circumcision was necessary for salvation. But if that was what Paul was doing, he wouldn't be persecuted. The fact that Paul was being persecuted proves he was preaching salvation by grace through the cross alone. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹²Paul wanted the Judaizers to be cut off altogether from the Galatians. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11}

The cross is offensive to the world because they want to do "good works" to be saved. Also the message of the cross rejects their good works. The cross rejects the world's desire to fulfill the lust of the flesh, to enjoy the thrills of the world, and fulfill the desire to make self "number one" in all things. Lord, I accepted the "offense of the cross" when I accepted Christ as my Savior. Help me take up "my cross" and follow You. May I glory in the cross (1 Cor. 1:18). Amen.

¹³Lord, I have been called to freedom in Christ, not freedom to follow my sinful nature {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} but free to serve others in love. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁴The law is summed up in one command, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ¹⁵Freedom does not mean freedom to attack others and tear them down and ruin any fellowship with them. {309 Model-Church Prayer, Acts 11:26}

¹⁶Lord, I will live in the Spirit and not satisfy the lust of my sinful nature. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ¹⁷All the energy of my sinful nature fights against the Spirit's control, {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} and all the energy of the Spirit fights against being controlled by my sinful nature. These two forces are constantly fighting to control my life, and I feel constant pressure from both of them. ¹⁸When I am controlled by the Holy Spirit, I am no longer a legalist. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25}

God has promised to give the Holy Spirit to all who believe in Jesus Christ. When the Holy Spirit comes into our lives He gives us (1) eternal life (Eph. 4:30), (2) indwells us (John 7:39), (3) illuminates spiritual truth (1 Cor. 2:13), (4) guides us (Gal. 5:16, 25), (5) seals us (Eph. 1:13), (6) becomes the earnest of future blessing (Eph. 1:14), and (7) prays for us (Rom. 8:26-27). Lord, I want the Holy Spirit to do everything in my life that was promised to us in Scripture. Empower me by the Holy Spirit. Fill me with the Spirit to serve You more effectively (Eph. 3:16). Amen.

¹⁹Lord, the fruit of the sinful nature is sexual immorality, impure thoughts, sensuality, worship of false gods, {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²⁰spiritism (contacting demons), {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} hating people, attacking people, ²¹jealousy of others, and anger at everything, drunkenness, wild parties, and things like these. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} Those who indulge in these things will not see the kingdom of God. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²²Lord, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, a generous spirit, faithfulness to one's word, 23gentleness and self-control. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} This is completely different from trying to live by the law.

Father, I pray for You to change me, for prayer is change. You've promised to give fruit in my life, and You promised to give it to me by the Holy Spirit. I accept Your love; now make me love others as You do. I want Your joy to make me happy. Let Your peace take over my confused mind. Teach me to be patient as You are at all times. Change my hard heart into a kind heart, and may I be good to the core. I want to be as faithful to others as You are to me, treating them gently. I ask You to help me discipline myself so I can be like Christ who was focused on pleasing You. Amen.

²⁴Lord, I will put to death—crucify—the lust that came from my sinful nature that tries to control my life. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ²⁵I will live by the direction of the Spirit so I can produce the fruit of the Spirit.

The believer is commanded to "walk in the Spirit" (5:16, 25) which means we are to let the Holy Spirit strengthen us to do what He commands. When we do that, the Spirit glorifies God through us, and uses us to produce the fruit of the Spirit (5:22-23). Lord, I will walk as the Holy Spirit tells me to walk; give me strength to walk above sin, and wisdom to obey Your Word. Be glorified in my daily walk. I now yield to the Holy Spirit to empower me to walk clean and straight. Amen.

²⁶I will not be ambitious for my own reputation so that I won't be making others jealous, but Christ will be the passion of my life. {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14}

As we wait for the Lord's return, we must pray (1) to be true to Him, (2) to be kept from sin, (3) to serve Christ faithfully, (4) to love one another, and (5) to anticipate His return. If we eagerly anticipate Christ's return, it will influence all our thoughts, actions, and service. Lord, I wait eagerly for Your return from heaven. My belief in Your return influences all I do and think. Amen.

Galatians 6 The Faith-Life Is a Brotherhood

¹Lord, when I see a fellow Christian overtaken by sin, I will humbly try to get him on the right path. I will not feel superior to him, but will guard myself against all temptations. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} 2I will bear the burden of other believers so I can obey Your commands. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} 3Lord, when people think they are important, but they are really nobody, they end up deceiving themselves. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} 4May every one of us do our very best in all things, so we can have personal satisfaction. When we do something worthwhile, then we won't have to depend on the approval of others. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 5Each of us is responsible for our faults and sins, for none of us is perfect. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

We should attempt to restore a fellow brother "in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted" (6:1, KJV). We should pray for his restoration as we pray for ourselves to be strong in temptation. We should pray for the Holy Spirit to convict him of his sin and give him a desire to live a holy life. Lord, I pray for fallen believers that they may realize the seriousness of their sin and that they may have a desire to walk again in fellowship with You. Give me grace, wisdom, and tenderness to help them back to Yourself. Amen.

⁶Lord, those who teach the Word of God should be paid by those who learn from them. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁷Lord, no one should be deceived by ignoring what You want them to do. Everyone will reap the kind of crop they sow. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 8When someone sows to their sinful nature, their harvest will be death and destruction, but when they sow to the Holy Spirit, their harvest will be everlasting life. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} 9I will not get tired of doing good things {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} because I will reap a good harvest if I don't give up. ¹⁰I will do good to others every opportunity I have, especially to those in the household of faith. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Paul tells the Galatians not to sow to the flesh, but to the Holy Spirit. This is a picture of sowing seeds for a harvest. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that he shall also reap" (6:7, KJV). So when we please the Spirit, then we "shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (6:8). Lord, I will do the things written in the Scriptures, and I will seek to please the Holy Spirit. I want all the blessings of eternal life that You promise. Amen.

¹¹Lord, Paul wrote with large letters because he had eye problems. {478 Testimony-Prayer,

Acts 22:3} ¹²He warned the Galatians that the legalists were trying to become popular by getting them under the law. The legalists would be persecuted if they admitted that salvation comes only by the cross of Christ. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ¹³Even the legalists who teach circumcision do not try to keep the rest of the law. The legalists want to boast that the Galatians were their disciples. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3}

¹⁴Lord, far be it for me to give glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. By the cross I have put to death—crucified the world's attractions, and by the cross I have crucified my attraction to it. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20}

We have been crucified with Christ (a past action) so we identify with Christ to get the benefits of His death. Self-crucifixion is not something we do to ourselves. It is not starving ourselves of food, nor is it imprisoning ourselves in a cell or self-flagellation. We don't even nail ourselves to a physical cross thinking this is a way to identify with Christ's cross. The prayer of crucifixion is accepting all the accomplishments of Christ's death, namely, forgiveness of sins, redemption, justification, and reconciliation with God. Lord, thank You that Christ died for me and gave me all the benefits of salvation. I ask for all the power You have to help me overcome sin and live a holy life. Amen.

¹⁵Now, it doesn't make any difference if I have been circumcised. All that matters is my new desire to please You. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ¹⁶Lord, may Your peace and mercy be on all believers who live by the power of the Spirit and on all who belong to You. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ¹⁷Lord, Paul didn't want anyone to bother him with this issue any more. He had been persecuted enough with scars to prove it. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁸Paul prayed for the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ to be on the Galatian believers. {35 Benediction-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:24-26}

EPHESIANS

CH 1: Your New Standing in Grace	1717
CH 2: YOUR NEW SALVATION	1719
CH 3: OUR NEW PLACE IN THE CHURCH	1721
CH 4: WALK WORTHY OF YOUR NEW POSITION	1722
Ch 5: Walk Worthy as Children of God	1725
CH 6: YOUR SPIRITUAL WARFARE AS A BELIEVER	1726

EPHESIANS

Key Words: Heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6)

Key Verse: "And raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (Eph. 2:6).

Theme: The book of Ephesians is the most impersonal letters of Paul because he wanted it read in other churches (Colossians 4:16 may refer to the book of Ephesians). He doesn't attempt to correct false doctrine or sinful living. Rather Paul emphasizes that Christ is "the head over all things to the church," which is "His body" (Eph. 1:22-23). The world has called the body of Christ the universal church, the mystical body, the triumphant church, the glorified church. The body of Christ contains all saved believers on earth (regardless of their denominational affiliations or lack of affiliation) and all believers in heaven who are "in Christ."

All believers walk among sin and temptation in their state on earth, but they stand perfect in heaven "in Christ." They are "in Christ" in the heavenlies because they stand in Christ at the right hand of God the Father. Because of this exalted position in the heavenlies, they should live godly in their place on earth.

Ephesians has a fourfold division: (a) Paul's greetings, 1:1-2; (b) the believer's wealth in the heavenlies "in Christ" (1:3-3:21); (c) the believer's walk and service (4:1-5:17); (d) spiritual warfare (5:18-6:23). Lord, I only partly realize how wealthy I am in Christ. Open my eyes to see all the things You have done for me. Then help me to walk on this earth according to my standing in heaven. Then protect me from the evil one for I can't protect myself. Amen.

Ephesians 1 Your New Standing in Grace

Paul, Your ambassador, wrote this letter to believers in Ephesus who trusted You to give them spiritual victory in every part of their lives. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ²I also want the same victory in Christ. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3}

³Lord, I want grace that comes from You the Father, and from Jesus Christ, my Savior and Lord of my life. Bless me with every spiritual blessing that comes from heaven. {447

Spiritual-Blessing Prayer, Eph. 1:3} ⁴Lord, thank You for choosing me in love before the creation of the universe so that I can be holy—set aside from sin and imperfection. You chose me to enter Your presence to worship and praise You. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ⁵Lord, thank You for choosing me to be Your child according to Your plan of salvation. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁶May I bring praise to You, Father, and commensurate with the glory You already have. Christ has made me accepted by You in the grace of Your love. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

⁷Lord, my sins are forgiven through the shedding of Christ's blood. {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} ⁸This redemption comes by the greatness of Your grace that has been lavished on all believers. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 9Lord, I praise You for the plan which You designed before Creation to accomplish Your will in my life and the life of every believer, {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} 10so that everything in heaven and earth will come together for the salvation of the lost. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 11Lord, I receive the great spiritual inheritance that You planned according to Your infinite purpose that You have for me and for each one who puts his trust in Your salvation. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹²May I bring praise to You that is equal to glory You already have. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ¹³Lord, when I heard the message of Your truth—the gospel—that delivered me, {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ¹⁴I put my trust in You and was sealed by the Holy Spirit who guaranteed my eternal life until I come into possession of it at the rapture or death and thus bring You glory. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁵Lord, ever since I trusted in You, I've had a love for all of Your people. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ¹⁶I have continually given thanks to You in my prayers, asking that You would give me full wisdom and understanding so I can have full knowledge of You. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1}

Paul was continually thankful for everything God let him do, and for all the people he reached with the gospel. He prayed, "I...cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers" (1:16, KJV). Lord, give me a continuous attitude of gratitude for everything I have and for all that I am. May I never lose a positive appreciation for all that Christianity has done for me. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, I ask that You open the eyes of my heart to understand the hope to which You call me, {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Paul prays that the Ephesians will have spiritual insight to know God better, and wisdom to direct their lives according to what they have learned about God. Lord, I want to know You better and understand Your plan for my life. Give me wisdom to live according to all I know. Amen.

¹⁸and to see the glorious riches of my inheritance that You have given me, {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

Paul prays that the Ephesians will have great hope for the future because they have been saved. Lord, open my eyes to the power of hope that is mine because I belong to You. Amen.

¹⁹and to experience the greatness of Your power working in me. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²⁰It's the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated Him at Your right hand, my heavenly Father, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Paul prays for the Ephesians to have spiritual power available to them that comes from "His mighty power" (1:19, KJV). Lord, give me spiritual ability to do all the things for You that I want to do. It's not worldly power I want; I want Your power transforming me. Amen.

²¹far above earthly rulers, authorities, and power in this world or in the world to come. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ²²Lord, all things were put under Christ's feet and He was given authority over everything to benefit the church, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²³which is His body, the full expression of His life. Christ fills everything and Your presence is everywhere. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10}

Ephesians 2 Your New Salvation

¹Lord, even when I was dead in my sins, You gave me spiritual life in Christ. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²Before I was a Christian, my life was influenced by the world, and I was tempted by satanic powers, and I was jerked around by the rebellious spirit of people around me. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ³Lord, I confess I lived to fulfill the lust of the flesh, and self-advancement, and I was as rebellious as other people who are angry against You. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23}

The Christian should thank God that he is delivered from his depravity and sins. "In time past ye walked according to the course of this world" (2:2, KJV). That means the unsaved are controlled by evil spirits (v. 2) and inner evil desires (v. 3). Lord, I thank You for freeing me from the control of evil spirits and from my internal sinful nature. Thank You for the relief I find in Christ. Amen.

⁴By You, Lord, I am rich in mercy because of Your great love for me. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁵When I was dead in sins, You made me alive with Christ—this is Your grace that saved me—{313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} ⁶and You raised me up together with Christ, and You made me sit together with Christ in heavenly places. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3} ⁷Then in ages to come, You will continually show me the exceeding riches of Your grace through Christ Jesus. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15}

The key thought in Ephesians is that Christians are placed in Christ in the heavenlies (2:6). That is their spiritual position before God while they continue to live on this earth. In the heavenlies (2:6, 3:9) means being (1) made alive in Christ (v. 5); (2) raised from spiritual death with Christ (v. 5); (3) seated with Christ (v. 6); and (4) shown the riches of God's grace. Lord, thank You for forgiveness of sin, and identification with Christ. Thank You for the riches I have in Christ. Amen.

⁸Lord, I am saved by grace because I put my faith in You; it was not my own doing, but Your gift to me. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ⁹I cannot boast that I had anything to do with it. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ¹⁰You have made me what I am, a new person created in Christ Jesus to serve You by doing good works, which You planned for me to do. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

Christians don't deserve salvation because of their past sins (vv. 1-3, 11-13), but God gave them the greatest free gift of all—salvation. Then God equipped them to serve Him in good works. Lord, thank You for the gift of salvation. Because You have done everything for me, I will serve You. Amen.

¹¹Lord, I remember that at one time I was a slave to my sinful desires—the Jews who circumcised their outward flesh were no better—because we were both separated from You, heavenly Father. 12I was not a part of Your family, and I was not an heir to Your covenants but addicted to worldly pleasures, without hope, and without Your salvation. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 13But now, Lord, I am united with the Lord Jesus Christ. I was far away but now I am one with Christ by His death which gave me Your peace which brought me along with all other believers into His body. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 14It was Christ's physical death that tore down the wall that separated people from You, the heavenly Father. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁵Christ, Your death satisfied the legal charges against me, and brought all believers into union with Yourself, giving me the peace of God. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ¹⁶Christ, by Your death on the cross, You united everyone into one body and brought us all back to the Father. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁷Christ, You brought peace to those who were far away in rebellion and to those who were close but in self-righteous works. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁸Only through You are we all able to come into the Father's presence by the Holy Spirit. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ¹9Christ, those who once were rebellious in sin are no longer foreigners or strangers, but are fellow members of Your body with those who previously tried to save themselves by keeping the law. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} ²⁰Both are now one building built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, the cornerstone being You Yourself. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ²¹Christ, You hold the building together and make it grow. It is a sanctuary where Your presence dwells. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ²²Those who are Your followers are being built with other believers into a building—a sanctuary—where the Father lives by the Holy Spirit. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17}

The greatest part of salvation is that we are placed in Christ's body (1:23), also called a building and a sanctuary (2:21, 22). A sanctuary is where God dwells, so this means Christ comes to live in us. Lord, the greatest thing in my life is that Christ lives in me and I get to live for Him by my daily service. Amen.

Ephesians 3 Our New Place in the Church

¹Lord, Paul became a prisoner of Rome because he was first captured by Christ, the Messiah of the Jews. {431 Servant-hood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²Paul was given this special task of evangelizing the Gentiles, and he was arrested because he persisted in preaching to Gentiles. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³Lord, You gave Paul a revelation of his ministry to the Gentiles. ⁴When other people understood Paul's new task, they understood the mystery of Christ, 5which was not revealed in previous generations, but now by the Holy Spirit You have revealed this task to Paul and to Your apostles and prophets. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 6Lord, in Your mysterious secret plan, You intended the Gentiles to share equally with the Jews in all spiritual riches that are available to Your children. The Jews and Gentiles are now one body in Christ. Now because of what You accomplished in Your sacrificial death, both are joint heirs and joint partakers of the same body the church—because of their belief in the gospel. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ⁷This is the message of grace that You gave to Paul to give to the world. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 8Lord, Your message was given to Paul, the least deserving person in the world. Before Paul was saved, he blindly caused people to be put to death in his zeal to keep the Old Testament law. But You chose Paul to tell Gentiles about the spiritual treasures now available to them. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} Paul was chosen to tell everyone Your mysterious secret plan that You the Creator had hidden from the beginning. Now the riches of Your plan are seen by all, that Jews and Gentiles are joined together in Your body, the church. ¹⁰This plan was carried out through Your grace and now redemption is offered for all. Lord, Paul has suffered because of this truth. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} 11I am not discouraged when I have to go through troubles and persecutions. ¹²Rather I am honored and encouraged that I can be a testimony to the truth. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ¹³Lord, because of my faith in You, I can come fearlessly into Your presence, knowing You will receive me and listen to my request. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8}

¹⁴Lord, because everyone is accepted in You because of Christ, I fall on my knees before You, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹⁵the Father, the Creator of heaven and earth, ¹⁶praying that Your power will give me inner strength through the Holy Spirit so that {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} ¹⁷Christ can make His home in my heart by faith and that I'll be rooted and grounded in His love. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17}

Paul prays that "He would grant you...to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man" (3:16, KJV). Isn't that what most of us need—inner strength? Lord, help me realize what You've done for me, and make me strong inwardly. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, I also pray for the ability to understand—as all of Your children should understand—how broad, how long, how high, and how deep is Your love. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁹Lord, I again pray to fully experience Your love—even though it is beyond understanding—so that I can be filled with all the fullness that comes only from You. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} ²⁰Lord, I pray for You to work Your mighty power in me to do exceeding abundantly above all I dare to ask or think. {508 Unlimited-Prayer, Phil. 4:13} ²¹Now to You be all glory from ages to ages and forever! {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1}

Paul prays that his readers would completely understand Christ's love (v. 18). He says it is wide, high, long, and deep; and Christ's love goes beyond comprehension (v. 19). Lord, I want to know the unknowable, so do a miracle in me to remove spiritual blindness. Help me understand Your complete unselfish love for me, and break my heart because of my selfishness. Amen.

Ephesians 4 Walk Worthy of Your New Position

¹Lord, I want to be Your prisoner, just as was Paul. Help me live a life worthy of the calling You have given me. Lord, {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²I want to be humble, gentle, and patient with people, tolerating their faults; because of Your love for them and acceptance of them. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ³Help me preserve the unity of the Holy Spirit and live peaceably with other believers. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

⁴Lord, I recognize all believers are in one body, placed there by one baptism and we all have the same calling to the one same hope. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

Paul exhorts us to be humble, gentle, patient, and to keep the unity of the Spirit. Lord, I want to be humble, gentle, and patient with people, tolerating their faults, because of Your love for them. Help me preserve the unity of the Spirit and live peaceably with others. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} Amen.

⁵You are the One Lord over us, we share the same one faith, one baptism, ⁶and You are the only One God and Father who is in each of us, and lives through each of us. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

⁷Lord, You have given a spiritual gift to each of us according to Your generous Spirit. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 8This is why the Scriptures say, "After You ascended up into the heights of heaven, You led those You captured, and gave spiritual gifts to all Your followers." {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} The phrase, "You ascended up" means You returned to heaven after You first came down to live and die on earth. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁰Then You descended into the lower parts of the earth-hell-to lead Old Testament saints to heaven. Now You rule heaven and the entire universe. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 11Lord, You gave spiritual gifts to Your followers; some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some shepherd-teachers. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10}

¹²Their duty is to equip Your people to do Your work and build up the body, Your church, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4\rightarrow \frac{13}{2} until we all become united in faith and knowledge of Your will, so that each of us grows to full maturity, according to the standard You have set up. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 14Lord, I know my standard is to become like Christ, Lord, I don't want to be like a child, always changing my mind about what I believe because someone tells me different things, or because someone misleads me. 15Instead, help me hold on to the truth in love, growing more like You every day, because You are the head of all of us, You are over the body in which we are members. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ¹⁶Under Your direction, each part of the body will help others grow so that all of us become mature believers, and the whole body becomes mature in love for one another. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

Paul didn't want the Ephesians to be swayed by false doctrines or any other trick of satan to pull them from Jesus Christ. It's the same with us. We should be solid Christians. Lord, You gave spiritual gifts to Your followers; some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some shepherd-teachers. Their duty is to equip Your people to do Your work and build up the body, Your church. Lord, unite us in faith and knowledge of Your will, so that each of us grows to full maturity, according to the standard You have set up. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, I will no longer live the way the ungodly live, because they do not understand Your ways. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ¹⁸Their minds are spiritually blinded and they are far away from You the Father because they have shut their minds to the truth and resisted Your will. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹⁹They don't care about doing right but have given themselves to immorality. Their lives are filled with filthiness and greed. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁰Lord, that is not the way You taught me to live. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ²¹You told me to put off the old evil nature, because it is thoroughly filled with lust and lying. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ²²Lord, I will put away lying, and I will tell everyone the truth because we are related to one another in Your body. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²³You told me to be spiritually renewed in my thoughts and attitudes so that {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²⁴I put on the new nature which You created to be godly, righteous, and holy. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}

We must recognize we have an old nature that constantly tempts us to sin. Lord, You told me to put off the old evil nature, because it is thoroughly filled with lust and lying. You told me to be spiritually renewed in my thoughts and attitudes so that I put on the new nature which You created to be godly, righteous, and holy. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} Amen.

²⁵I will stop being angry and sinning against others, ²⁶ and I will not let the sun go down on my wrath {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ²⁷because anger gives room for the enemy to get into my life. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ²⁸Lord, the thief must stop stealing and work for an honest living and then give to those who have needs. ²⁹Lord, the curser must stop using foul language. He must allow only good words to come from his mouth that are helpful to those who hear him. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} 30Lord, I will not give grief to the Holy Spirit by living a sinful life, because He has sealed me with the authority of His presence that will keep me until the final day of redemption. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ³¹Lord, I will get rid of all bitterness, rage, name-calling, mean-spirited words and slander, along with spiteful retaliation. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} 32Instead, I will be kind to others, tenderhearted, forgiving others as You, Father, forgave me, because of Christ. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

The King James Version says, "Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God" (4:30). This means don't let sin lurk in our hearts, because the Holy Spirit wants us to be holy. Lord, I will not give grief to the Holy Spirit by living a sinful life, because He has sealed me with the authority of His presence that will keep me until the final day of redemption. {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22} Amen.

Ephesians 5 Walk Worthy as Children of God

¹Lord, I will follow You as a child follows his parents because I am Your child. ²I will walk in love to others as Christ loved me and demonstrated it by giving Himself as a sweet and acceptable sacrifice to You, my Father. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4}

Because we are in the family of God, we must live as God's children. Lord, I will follow You as a child follows his parents because I am Your child. I will walk in love to others as Christ loved me and demonstrated it by giving Himself as a sweet and acceptable sacrifice to You. Amen.

³Lord, I will not be involved in sexual sins or dirty actions or greed because those things are contrary to godliness. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ⁴Also I will not be known by filthy speech, foolish talking, and jesting, but I will be gracious in all things. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} 5Lord, I know there is no place in Your kingdom for those who are sexually addicted, nor for the filthy minded, nor for greedy people. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 6No matter how much people excuse these sins, You, Father, will still punish them as You will all those who are disobedient. ⁷Therefore I will not get involved in those things. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Because our old nature always pulls us away from God, we should pray to be pure. Lord, I will not be involved in sexual sins or dirty actions or greediness because those things are contrary to godliness. Also, I will not be known by filthy speech, foolish talking and jesting, but I will be gracious in all things. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} Amen.

8Lord, in the past I walked in darkness, but now that I have Your light I will walk in it. ⁹Lord, I want the fruit of the Spirit in my life; I want to be good and do what is right, and tell the truth ¹⁰so I can be acceptable to You. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹¹Lord, I will not have anything to do with the works of darkness; rather I will expose them. ¹²Remember it is shameful to speak of the things people do in secret. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 13But when light shines on them, their deeds are clearly revealed for what they are. 14 This is why it is said, "Awake, sleeper, get up from the dead, and Christ will give you light." ¹⁵Therefore, Lord, I will be careful how I live my life, not as a fool but as a wise person. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹⁶I will use my time wisely because these are evil days. ¹⁷I will not be foolish, but will try to understand Your will for my life. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

Paul tells the Ephesians to "understand what the will of the Lord is" (5:17, KJV). Since God has a plan for our lives, we should pray to find His will or plan for how we should live. Lord, I will be careful how I live my life, not as a fool but as a wise person. I will use my time wisely because these are evil days. I will not be foolish, but will try to understand Your will for my life. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} Amen.

¹⁸Lord, I won't drink wine because I will lose control of myself. Instead I will let the Holy Spirit continually fill me and control me. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18}

We should not let alcoholic beverages control our body, but we must let the Spirit of God control us. Lord, I will let the Holy Spirit continually fill me and control me. Then I'll sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with other believers, making music in my heart to You. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Amen.

¹⁹Then I'll sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with other believers, making music in my heart to You. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ²⁰Lord, I will continually give thanks for everything to You, the Father, in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} ²¹Lord, I will submit myself to other believers out of reverence to You. ²²I know wives should submit to their own husbands, just as they do to You. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ²³For the husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head of the body and is its Savior. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁴Just as the body submits to Christ as its head, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²⁵Lord, husbands should love their wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave His life to make it holy and clean, through washing of the Word of God. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²⁶Christ did this to make the church glorious, without spot, wrinkle, or blemish. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ²⁷Husbands should love their wives as they love their bodies, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²⁸because a man is actually looking out for himself when he loves his wife. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 29No one hates his body. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 30On the contrary, a man will feed and care for his body just as Christ cares for His body, the church. 31Lord, the Scriptures teach that a man should leave his father and mother to be joined to his wife and the two become one. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ³²This is a great mystery, but it illustrates the relationship between Christ and the church, 33So each man must love his wife the way he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

Ephesians 6 Your Spiritual Warfare as a Believer

¹Lord, children should obey their parents because they belong to You for this is what You want them to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²One of the Ten

Commands has a promise stating, "Honor your father and mother ³so that it will go well with you and you will live a long and prosperous life." {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ⁴Lord, You don't want fathers to irritate their children, because it makes them resentful. Rather, You want fathers to bring them up with positive discipline that You approve. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1}

⁵Lord, You want workers to obey and respect their employers, and fear displeasing their bosses, just as they would fear displeasing You. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 'They shouldn't work hard just to "butter up the boss" when he's watching. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ⁷They should put passion into their work as though working for You, {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 8because You will reward everyone for their good service, whether they're a boss or a worker. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 9Bosses must treat their workers right, and not threaten them because both bosses and employees work for You, and You have no favorites. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

¹⁰Lord, I will be strong in Your power {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹and put on all the spiritual armor so I can stand against the deceptive strategy of the enemy. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹²I am not fighting against humans who have flesh and blood, but against evil powers, authorities, and demons of the unseen world, and I'm struggling against the mighty powers of darkness and their tricks. I'm fighting against filthy spirits who influence this world from their ethereal realm. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ¹³Lord, I'll use every piece of Your armor so that when evil comes, I'll be able to resist and win the battle. {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} 14With Your help, I'll stand in battle with Your truth buckled around my waist. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 15I'll cover my chest with the armor of righteousness, and I'll wear the shoes of peace that come from the good news of the gospel. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁶I'll carry the shield of faith to stop all the arrows and fiery darts of satan. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ¹⁷I'll wear the protective helmet of salvation and I'll protect myself with the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12}

¹⁸Lord, I will pray at all times, with every type of intercession and spiritual warfare. I will pray persistently and boldly for all Christians everywhere. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17}

¹⁹Lord, I will pray for those who minister for You so they will have boldness and the right words to proclaim the message of the good news of the gospel. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁰This was Paul's request and the reason why he was in chains in Rome. Just as Paul prayed for strength to keep on sharing the gospel, that is my prayer for me and for all Your servants. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

Paul tells the Ephesians to pray for him (6:19), as he prays for them (1:16-21, and

3:14-19). Lord, I will pray for others, just as I want them to pray for me. I will pray for their victory over sin, their influence in the world, their growth and their fellowship with You. Amen.

²¹Lord, Tychicus delivered this letter to the saints in Ephesus and told them all about Paul ²²so they would be encouraged. ²³Lord, I want Your peace ruling my heart, and so give me a deep love to live for You. ²⁴I want Your grace in my life and on all those who love You deeply with an enduring love. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

PHILIPPIANS

Ch 1: Paul's Confidence in Spite of Suffering1730
CH 2: CHRIST, THE PATTERN FOR BELIEVERS1732
Ch 3: Christ, the Object of the Believers'
Desire1734
CH 4: CHRIST, THE BELIEVERS' STRENGTH1736

PHILIPPIANS

Key Words: Joy or Rejoice (Philippians 2:2)

Key Verse: "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:4-7).

Theme: Paul exhorts the Christian to live triumphantly for God. He says, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21). He writes joyfully as Nero's prisoner facing death, yet he expresses joy (4:4) and peace (4:7) and he is not anxious about anything (4:6). Paul knows that death (1:22-24) means entrance into heaven, but he also realizes he can serve God while he remains alive. But Paul warns against attempting to drift into heaven. He wants his believers to know Christ more intimately while on earth (3:10) and that he will strive to do all he can for God while on this earth (3:14). Lord, may I follow Paul's example to do all I can to serve You while I live on this earth. Amen.

Philippians 1 Paul's Confidence in Spite of Suffering

Paul and Timothy considered themselves Your slaves. I too will be Your slave, for You are my Master. They wrote to all the saints and church leaders at Philippi, {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} ²greeting them with Your grace and peace. ³Paul thanked God for their salvation and godly life, and in the same way {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ⁴I am grateful for my salvation and I rejoice in opportunities to pray for my family and friends {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ⁵because of their partnership in helping me proclaim the good news from the very first until now. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁶Lord, I know that You who began the good work of salvation will continue it in me until the day You return. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ⁷You are always on my mind and in my heart, so it is only right that I have this confidence. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ⁸Lord, You have given me the privilege of serving You both in difficult circumstances and good days, and this deep assurance comes only from Your heart, O Christ Jesus, my Savior. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1}

Paul uses the word "joy" or "rejoicing" 17 times in Philippians, reflecting his happiness when writing to these believers. There were no doctrinal or moral problems he had to confront. Also this was a church that supported him with prayer and money. He calls them "my joy" (4:1), just as a father gets joy from his children. Lord, teach me to rejoice in the victories and growth of other believers, whether or not I led them to Christ. My greatest joy in life is to lead someone to Christ and see him grow to maturity. Amen.

⁹Lord, I pray that my love of family and friends will keep growing and that they will grow in true knowledge and perfect understanding of You, {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3}¹⁰so they will always make the best choices and live pure and blameless lives. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1}

Paul prayed that the love of the Philippians would "abound yet more and more" (1:9), so that what was in their hearts would flow in tangible deeds to others. Lord, give me a growing love for others and show me ways to let my love flow into their lives. Amen.

¹¹I want them filled with all the good qualities that only You can produce in them; I pray this for Your glory and praise.

Paul prayed that the Philippians would be "filled with the fruits of righteousness" (1:11, KJV). Even though they were serving Christ, Paul wanted even more fruit in their lives, so he prays accordingly. Lord, I ask for more fruitful Christian character, and more fruit from my service for You. Amen.

¹²Lord, may my family and friends understand what You have done in my heart that makes me share the gospel with others. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹³All those about me know that I am Your slave, and {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 14this has given me boldness to serve You and to spread Your message without fear. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ¹⁵Lord, I know some preach the message of Christ out of jealousy or competition, but others preach out of a pure heart. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 16Still others preach Christ for the wrong motives, doing it out of selfish pride. ¹⁷But others are motivated by Your love because You have given all of us this task. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} 18I don't care what their motives are just so long as You, Christ, are preached. Whether You are preached from right or wrong motives, I will rejoice and continue rejoicing, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁹because I know You will use the message to set many free. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

²⁰Lord, it is my earnest desire and hope that I will never embarrass You, but that with all boldness as always You will be magnified in my body whether by life or death. {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ²¹Lord, my passion is to live for You, O Christ, and if I die, it will be my gain. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

²²If I go on living in this body, I will still continue serving You. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ²³So I am not sure which option to choose because I want to leave this body to be with You which seems the best choice for me. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁴But if I stay in this body to serve You, I can still accomplish much for You. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²⁵So, I am sure that if I stay and continue my ministry, I can further Your work in many believers. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ²⁶Lord, I pray that my family and friends will continue living for You, and that whether I remain on this earth or die, ²⁷they remain firm in their faith in the gospel.

²⁸Lord, I pray they will not be afraid of their enemies, {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} but will be courageous in Your care; because the testimony of my family and friends will convict their enemies of their sin and make them aware of perdition. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁹Lord, You have given all of us the privilege of believing in You, but also suffering on Your behalf. My family and friends are both in the same struggle {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}— ³⁰what I fight, they also fight.

Philippians 2 Christ, the Pattern for Believers

¹Lord, I want the same harmony for believers today that Paul wanted for the Philippians. Many believers have one purpose in life because we all belong to Christ, and we are encouraged by His love, and we have fellowship with the Holy Spirit. ²You have made our hearts tender and compassionate, {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} as we have a common purpose to glorify Jesus Christ, and to love one another and work together to serve Him. ³Lord, help me keep egotistical desires out of the picture, and keep me from selfishness. Help me regard others as better than myself, and keep me from thinking only of my agenda. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁴Help me be interested in others and not just my own affairs. {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4}

Paul exhorts the Philippians to be humble and think of others, rather than thinking only about themselves. "Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind" (2:2, KJV). Paul reminds them to be humble, "Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others" (vv. 3-4, KJV). Lord, I know my weaknesses and sinful nature, so I know I am nothing, but Christ is everything. I will think of the good things others do, and I will pray for them. Amen.

⁵Lord, I want the same attitude toward others as Jesus showed by His example of humility. {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} ⁶Even though Jesus was God He did not make exceptions for Himself because of His deity. ⁷On the contrary,

Jesus emptied Himself and took on human flesh and became a servant. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁸He humbled Himself even more: by becoming obedient to death and dying as a criminal on the cross. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

To be humble, the Christian must have the same attitude as Christ. Paul told them, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men" (2:5-7, KJV). Because Jesus came to serve others, we should not think more highly of ourselves than we should, but give our lives for others. Lord, thank You for the example of servanthood in Jesus, He came to serve others and I'll do the same; I'll serve others. I'll be like Jesus and make Him my example in thought and deed. Amen.

⁹Therefore You raised Jesus to the highest possible position and gave Him a name above every name. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁰So that at the name of Jesus, every knee will bow in heaven, earth, and under the earth, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹¹and every tongue will declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, to Your glory, O Father. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Because Jesus gave Himself in death for others, God raised Him from the dead and exalted Him above every name. In the future, "That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (2:10-11, KJV). Lord, I join all angels and believers to worship Jesus Christ for what He has done for me and all believers of all ages. He is not only the Lord of the universe, He is also my Lord. Amen.

¹²Lord, Paul reminded the Philippians that they followed his instructions when he was with them. Now he wants them to be just as obedient while he is away from them, because their reverence and fear demonstrates to everyone their salvation. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹³Lord, give me a deeper desire to serve You just as You gave the Philippians the power to please You. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁴I will do all things without murmuring and complaining, ¹⁵so that I will be a blameless child of God in the eyes of all who live in a crooked evil world. May I shine as a light to them all.

Help me do everything without griping or complaining so that I have a blameless and faultless testimony to all. Help me live a clean life as Your child so I'm a light in a dark and lawless world. Amen.

¹⁶Lord, help me share with others the Words of life so that I'll be faithful until Christ returns. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} Lord, help me run my race victoriously so that my works will not become useless.

¹⁷Even if I die a martyr's death like Paul, I will rejoice in this opportunity. ¹⁸May other believers rejoice with me if I have the privilege of dying for You. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁹Lord, Paul wanted to send Timothy to the Philippians to find out how they were getting along. That would encourage Paul ²⁰because Timothy was Paul's trusted helper who put other people's interests ahead of his own. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ²¹Lord, Paul was grateful for Timothy who was like a son to him and he wanted the same things Paul wanted. ²²Timothy demonstrated his godly character when he sacrificed with Paul for the gospel. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ²³Paul told them as soon as his affairs in Rome were settled, he would send Timothy to them, 24and then he planned to visit them in Philippi.

²⁵Lord, Paul also wanted to send Epaphroditus back to the Philippians. He had brought money to Paul from them. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ²⁶Paul was concerned because the Philippians heard Epaphroditus was sick and had almost died. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ²⁷But God had mercy and he lived. Paul said that his death would have been an unthinkable burden. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ²⁸Lord, Paul was eager to send Epaphroditus back to them because the Philippians wanted to see him. 29"Welcome him with Christian love," Paul said. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ³⁰Epaphroditus had almost died doing for Paul the things the Philippians couldn't do for Paul because they were so far away.

Philippians 3 Christ, the Object of the Believers' Desire

¹Lord, whatever happens in my life whether good or bad—I want to rejoice in Your provision for me, just as Paul never got tired of rejoicing in Your provision for him. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ²Lord, keep me safe from the pressures of mean-spirited legalists who bite at me like a dog. They want everyone to keep the law to be saved. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 3Lord, I have the true circumcision of the heart and I worship You in the Holy Spirit, and I rejoice in Christ Jesus. Lord, Paul had better qualifications than all the legalists, so Paul could have been the best of all strict legalists. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 4But Paul put confidence not in the flesh but in Your grace. 5Lord, Paul was born a Jew into the tribe of Benjamin, circumcised on the eighth day. Paul spoke Hebrew, kept the law as a Pharisee, and he persecuted believers. ⁶Everyone considered Paul blameless. Lord, just as Paul considered the perfections of his legalism as unimportant, help me realize the law is useless to give me intimate fellowship with Christ. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Paul described his zeal for self-righteousness before he was saved (3:4-6), but keeping the law didn't make him righteous. His passion—"That I may know Him"—should be the desire of every believer. Paul testifies, "I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord" (v. 8). Lord, I want to know You more intimately. May Your passion flow through my life for others. Amen.

⁷Lord, just as Paul gave up everything for Christ, I also count everything loss to have intimate fellowship with Christ. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁸Yes, Lord, I give up everything for the knowledge of Christ {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} and I no longer treasure them because Christ has become my treasure. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ⁹Lord, I am now united in Christ, not having my righteousness based on legalism, but based on faith to receive Christ's righteousness. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

¹⁰Lord, I want to experience Christ and the power of His resurrection. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} I want to know what it means to suffer with Christ, and to share spiritually in His death, and eventually be resurrected from the dead. ¹¹Lord, I have not yet reached the goal of Christ, but I keep pursuing it, so I can become the Christ-dominated person for which You originally pursued me. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Lord, thank You for the privilege and strength for everything I've accomplished in the past. But that's behind me. I will build on my past and reach out to do more in the future. Amen.

¹²Lord, I know I have not attained the goal, and I do not consider my life perfect. ¹³But I focus my entire energies on this one thing: I daily forget past accomplishments and failures and look forward to what lies ahead. 14I keep giving all my energy to win the prize of Your upward calling to me in Christ Jesus. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ¹⁵Allow me to have this attitude, and if You think otherwise, reveal this to me. 16Lord, all spiritual believers should be doing the same thing, but many are not pursuing Christ. Show them what they should do. Everyone must live at the level they've learned and obey the truth they know. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

¹⁷Lord, help me follow the example of Paul and learn from the pattern he set for all believers. ¹⁸There are many who live as enemies of Christ, as Paul told us. 19 They are walking toward destruction, and their belly is their god. They are proud of their sin when they should be ashamed of their lifestyle. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁰Lord, I am a citizen of heaven and I wait for my Savior, Jesus Christ, to come take me there. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ²¹Then He will transform my finite body to be like His glorious body with the same power He will use to conquer everything on earth. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

Philippians 4 Christ, the Believers' Strength

¹Lord, Paul wanted to see his friends in Philippi that he had won to Christ because they were the fruit of his work. Lord, just as Paul prayed for the Philippians to remain loyal to You, may I stay true to You in my faith. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ²Lord, Paul begged Euodia and Syntyche to settle their disagreement and be of one focus in serving You. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ³Then Paul asked the church to work with these women and with Clement to spread the gospel. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14}

⁴Lord, I rejoice gladly in all Your goodness, So always keep me filled with Your joy. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

Paul wants the Philippians to be happy in their Christian faith (4:4) and live daily for Christ in light of His soon coming (v. 5). He told them, "Be anxious for nothing" (v. 6), but "let your requests be made known unto God" (v. 6). This is a picture of God's child bowing in prayer to tell the heavenly Father about every anxiety and worry in his or her life. Lord, teach me to pray instead of worrying about things. I've done all I can about the problem. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} Now work out all the details to Your glory. Amen.

⁵Let my gentleness and goodness be evident to all because Christ may come at any moment. ⁶Lord, I won't worry about anything, {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} but I'll pray to You about everything, and I'll be thankful for all things that happen. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} 7Then Your peace will guard my heart and mind because the presence of Christ Jesus in my life surpasses anything that I could ever understand. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Paul gives us four prayer words that will guard our thoughts from anxiety and worry. First, "everything by prayer." The word for prayer is proseuchomai, meaning "toward God's face." It has the idea of fellowship with God. When God's Word tells us to pray about everything, we ought to do it. Second, "supplication" is a specific petition focusing on our need. Third, the word "thanksgiving" means we must be thankful for the privilege of speaking to God and we must be grateful for all requests that He answers. The fourth word "ask" is aito which means" to request." Remember, we have not because we ask not (James 4:2). When we pray about our anxieties in these four different ways God "shall keep your hearts and minds" (Phil. 4:7, KJV). Lord, I come to You with questions and anxieties. Hear my requests and grant me peace in heart and mind. Amen.

⁸Lord, I'll constantly meditate on whatever things are true, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} whatever things are honorable, whatever things are right, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things contribute to my having a good reputation for You. {456

Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 9Lord, I'll keep doing in my daily life the things that Paul does in his life; then You, the God of peace, will be with me. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁰Lord, Paul was thankful the Philippians had not quit expressing concern for him and sending money for his ministry. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} 11Paul did not say this to ask for more money, but to let them know his appreciation. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹²Lord, I'm like Paul, satisfied with what I have. I have experienced poverty, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} and on other occasions, I've had more than enough. I've learned in every way and in every place, to be satisfied with what I have, whether I am full or hungry, whether I have abundance or poverty. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹³Lord, I can do all things through Christ who gives me the help to get it done. {508 Unlimited-Prayer, Phil. 4:13}

Paul claims, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (v. 13, KJV). We are limited by our own strength and weak faith, but we are unlimited when we are related to Christ, who can do all things. The key is relationship, and isn't prayer a relationship with God? When we are properly related to Christ, we will not pray about impossible things conceived by our selfish ambitions. Also we will not limit ourselves by small things, because of weak faith. We will pray properly when we relate properly to our strength in Christ. Lord, I will trust You for big things because You want Your servants to do big things in this world. Keep me from praying in the flesh for things too big or too small. I will seek to pray properly. Amen.

¹⁴Nevertheless Paul thanked them for their gift to him that helped him through his present difficulty. 15Lord, Paul thanked the Philippians for sharing in his ministry, reminding them that they were the only ones who sent money in his early ministry. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}16Even in Thessalonica they sent money more than once. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ¹⁷Lord, Paul reminded them again he was not asking for more money, but he was telling them that their gift will bring them rewards through his ministry for Christ. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 18Paul told them he had no needs because of the gifts they sent by Epaphroditus. It was a sweet-smelling aroma that pleased God. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 19Lord, I want You to care for my financial needs, the same way You took care of Paul from Your glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

²⁰ Glory be to You, my God, my heavenly Father, forever and ever. ²¹Lord, Paul sent greetings to all the Philippians from all the fellow workers with him. ²²Then he sent greetings from all the Christians in Rome, especially those who had been saved in the emperor's household. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} ²³Lord, I want the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ to rest on me. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Colossians

Ch 1: The Prayer for Believers and the Preeminence
OF CHRIST1739
Ch 2: Warning against False Wisdom and Legalism
1741
CH 3: OUR HEAVENLY UNION WITH CHRIST DETERMINES
OUR DAILY WALK1743
CH 4: EARNEST PRAYER1745

COLOSSIANS

Key Word: Preeminence (Colossians 1:18).

Key Verse: "And Christ is the head of the body, the church; Christ is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things Christ may have the preeminence" (Col. 1:18, ELT).

Theme: In Colossians Paul wrote a lofty passage in praise of Jesus Christ (1:15-20). Epaphras, who served in the church at Colosse, came to tell Paul about the church while Paul was a prisoner in Rome. The church was rich, yet Paul warns of some subtle errors at work in the church. First, was legalism, "do not touch, do not taste" (2:21), and Judaistic observance of days (2:16). Second, there was false mysticism, "intruding into those things which he has not seen" (2:18). Third, some were involved in the "worship of angels" (2:18). Fourth, there was philosophic speculation: "Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit" (2:8). Lord, keep me straight in thinking and practice. I will walk in fellowship with Christ, just as when I received Him as my Savior. Amen.

Colossians 1

The Prayer for Believers and the Preeminence of Christ

Paul was led by God ² to write to the Colossian believers with Timothy using his authority as an apostle to remind them of the greatness of the indwelling Christ and to warn them of some new doctrinal problems springing up among them.

³Lord, Paul gave thanks for the Colossian believers ⁴from the first time he heard about their salvation, and for their new expressions of love for all the saints. Lord, use the testimony of my salvation to encourage others, just as You used the testimony of the Colossians to bless others. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁵Lord, I am looking forward to the promise of heaven! This pledge was mine the moment I first believed, just as it guarantees the same hope to others who believe. Lord, the gospel is the power that is transforming my life and all other lives everywhere. ⁶This good news is given out all over the world, changing lives, {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} just as it transformed the Colossians.

Lord, may You always deal with me in grace as Paul prayed for Your grace on the Colossians. And may You give me peace that comes from You, my God and Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} Amen.

⁷Lord, Paul reminded the Colossians that Epaphras faithfully brought the gospel to them. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} Now Epaphras was their representative helping Paul in Rome. ⁸As a matter of fact, Epaphras was the one who told Paul about the strengths and problems of the new church at Colosse. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

⁹Lord, raise up intercessors to pray for me as Paul continually prayed for the Colossians. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} Lord, I pray for a total understanding of Your will and what You want me to do with my life. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} I pray for spiritual wisdom to make decisions that will honor and please You. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

Paul asks that the Colossians may be "filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom" (1:9, KJV). Having God's wisdom to know what to do is the first step to walking with the Lord. Lord, I will learn as much as I can about the Scriptures, so I will walk wisely for You. Amen.

¹⁰I pray to continually do good things for others, for this is Your command to me.

{543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} I pray to know You more intimately so I can enjoy fellowship with You. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} 11I pray to be strengthened with spiritual power {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} so I can endure with patience from You. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} 12I pray to be filled with joy so I'll always be thankful for the spiritual inheritance You've given me. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} ¹³I'm grateful You have rescued me from the kingdom of satanic darkness and delivered me into the kingdom of Christ. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} 14I praise You for the freeing power of Christ's blood that has forgiven me all my sins.

The Preeminence of Christ

¹⁵Christ, I see You as the perfect reflection of the Father who cannot be seen. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} Christ, You existed before the Father created all things, and You are supreme over all things. ¹⁶Christ, You created everything in heaven and earth, You created the things we can see, and the things we can't see. Christ, everything has been created by You and for You, including kings, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹⁷Christ, You existed before all things were created; now Your power holds creation together. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 18Christ, You are the head of the church which is Your living spiritual body. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} Christ, You were the first to rise from the dead; You are first in everything. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

¹⁹Christ, all the fullness of God lives and dwells in You. 20 Christ, by You God the Father reconciled all things to Himself. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} Christ, by the blood of Your cross God the Father in heaven made peace with everything in heaven and on earth. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ²¹Christ, You brought me back as a friend when I was far, far away as Your enemy by my evil thoughts and sinful actions. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 ²²Christ, You brought me into the very presence of the Father by the sacrifice of Your body on the cross. Christ, I now have access to the Father's presence because in Your sight I am holy, blameless, and pure. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²³Christ, I completely believe this truth about You and I base my faith on it. Christ, I will not drift away from this assurance for this good news that has saved me has also been preached all over the world. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

²⁴Paul was happy to suffer for the believers in Colosse because he identified with Christ's sufferings, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} and through Christ's sufferings others are brought to saving faith. ²⁵Paul was given the commission to spread the gospel to all Gentiles, {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} ²⁶a message that was not known by them in past generations and centuries, but now has been revealed to them that the riches and blessings of Christ are for them also. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

²⁷Christ, I rejoice greatly in the truth, that Christ lives in me, my hope of glory. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ²⁸I share this message of You with all people so that all believers may become perfect in You. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ²⁹Christ, I am motivated to serve You {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30} because You energize the Father's work within me. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Colossians 2 Warning against False Wisdom and Legalism

¹Lord, Paul interceded for believers in other churches, even though he had not seen them. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Paul prayed the following request for them. This is the same that I pray for those I know and for the larger body of Christ. ²Lord, I pray that they may be encouraged, and that they will experience strong ties of love to one another. I pray that they may have a full understanding of how Your mystery will work in their lives so they can live confidently for Christ. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} ³I pray that they may understand the treasures of wisdom that are hidden only in Christ. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

⁴Lord, may no one deceive me with cunning arguments that anyone is the wisdom of God; I know that only Christ is the wisdom of God. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ⁵Lord, Paul was happy that the Colossian believers were living as they should and their faith was steadfastly rooted in Christ. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ⁶Lord, may I always continue to obey Christ Jesus, my Lord, just as I did when I first believed in Him. ⁷May I be rooted in the faith, and nourished by Christ so I'll grow strong in my Christian life, and may I always be thankful for what Christ has done for me. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7}

Paul's admonition to the Colossians was, "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him" (2:6, KJV). Notice the threefold names in this verse: first, "Christ" represents His work on the cross for our salvation; second, "Jesus" represents His humanity, that He was born of a virgin, and grew to manhood; third, "the Lord" represents His deity. He is fully God the Son who intercedes for us at the right hand of God the Father. Lord, may I always continue to obey Christ Jesus, my Lord, just as I did when I first believed in Him. May I be rooted in the faith, and nourished by Christ so I'll grow strong in my Christian life, and may I always be thankful for what Christ has done for me. Amen.

⁸Lord, Paul warned the Colossians against those who would lead them astray by human logic or deceitful theories {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} that come from depraved thinking or evil principles of the world. Paul reminded them that such "teaching" didn't come from Christ. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ⁹Lord, Paul reminded the

Colossians that Your fullness—the fullness of the Godhead—lived in Christ's human body, ¹⁰and that only when a believer was indwelt by Christ could he experience Your full understanding and leadership. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19}

Paul reminded the Colossians that Christ's fullness—the fullness of the Godhead—lived in His human body, and that only when a believer was indwelt by Christ could he experience Christ's full wisdom and leadership. Lord, I yield to Your will and I seek Your wisdom, for only through Your lordship in my life can I understand Your plan and accomplish Your will for my life. Amen.

¹¹Lord, when I came to salvation in Christ, I was circumcised—set apart—in my heart. This was not a physical procedure, but I was spiritually set apart from satisfying my sinful nature so that I might please Christ Jesus. 12I was identified with Christ's death when I was spiritually baptized into Christ, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} and I was raised with Christ to new life by the same power that brought Him from the dead. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 13Lord, I was dead in my rebellious sins against You, being controlled by my sinful nature; but You forgave all my sins. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁴You wiped my record clean of all the charges against me, and forgave them by nailing them to Christ's cross. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 15Now evil powers have no authority over me because Christ publicly triumphed over sin by His victory on the cross. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

We get our spiritual victory through the power of Christ's death, burial, and resurrection. We triumph over sin because He triumphed over sin. Lord, I was dead in my rebellious sins against You, being controlled by my sinful nature, but You forgave all my sins. You wiped my record clean of all the charges against me, and forgave them by nailing them to Christ's cross. Now evil powers have no authority over me, because Christ publicly triumphed over sin by His victory on the cross. Amen.

¹⁶Lord, because I am completely forgiven, no one can condemn me for what I eat or drink, or for not celebrating holy days or Sabbaths. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ¹⁷These Old Testament rules were only a shadow of coming things; they pointed us to Christ who fulfilled these rules.

¹⁸Lord, I'll not let anyone cheat me of my relationship with Christ, even when they insist on self-denial or worship of angels, for they are puffed up by their deceitful insight. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁹They are not united with Christ, the head of the body, for He nourishes all believers into a vital union that grows together by Your nourishment. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

²⁰Lord, since I have died together with Christ to be separated from this sinful world, {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} why would I subject myself to worldly regulations, claiming ²¹"do not taste, touch, or handle"? {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ²²These are merely human rules that mean nothing, ²³even though these rules seem "right" because they demand self-denial and humility. But they never help me triumph over my evil thoughts and desires because victory comes only through the person of Christ. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20}

Colossians 3 Our Heavenly Union with Christ Determines Our Daily Walk

¹Lord, since I have been raised to new life in Christ, I will control my thinking by the principles of heaven where Christ is sitting at Your right hand in the seat of honor and influence. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²I will think on things in heaven and not be controlled by things on this earth {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ³because I died when Christ died and my new life is hidden by You in Christ. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ⁴Then when Christ appears to the whole world, I will appear with Him in glory. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

We have been united with Christ by His death; therefore we are "one" with Him.

We don't lose our separate identity in that union, but we are indwelt by Christ (3:15-16; Gal. 2:20). Lord, since I have been raised to new life in Christ, I will control my thinking by the principles of heaven where Christ is sitting at Your right hand in the seat of honor and influence. I will think on things in heaven and not be controlled by things on this earth. I died when Christ died and my new life is in Christ. Then when Christ appears to the whole world, I will appear with Him in glory. Amen.

⁵Lord, I will put to death any sinful desire-my sexual lust, filthiness, evil desires, and greed which is idolatry. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ⁶These are the vices You punish in those who are rebellious against You. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 7I used to be guilty of these things when my life was controlled by the world. ⁸But now that I have Christ dwelling in my life, I will get rid of anger, rebellious behavior, slander, and filthy language. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} 9I will not lie to anyone, for I have turned away from my old nature with its sinful urges. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} 10I have turned to my new nature that You continually renew within me, as I learn more and more about Christ. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} 11Lord, all new believers in Christ can be controlled by their new nature, whether they are Jews, or Gentiles, whether they are circumcised or not, whether they are barbarian, civilized, slave, or free. {333 Oneness-Prayer,

Phil. 2:2} Christ is the only power that can control a life because He lives in all believers. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ¹²Lord, since You chose me to live a holy life, I will clothe myself with mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹³I recognize that some believers let these sins disrupt their lives, so I will forgive their trespasses as You forgave me. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ¹⁴Lord, love is the most important attitude I can put on because love makes me one with all other believers. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} ¹⁵Also I want Your peace to control my heart because all believers are called to live in peace. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁶Lord, I want the rich words of Christ to live in my heart so that I have His wisdom to teach and correct other believers. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} I want to sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to you with a thankful heart. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹⁷May everything I say and everything I do be expressed in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} giving thanks to You my heavenly Father. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

When we were saved, Christ came to live in our lives (3:15-16). Lord, I want Your peace to control my heart because You called me to live in peace. I want the rich words of Christ to live in my heart so that I have Your wisdom to guide my life. I want to sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to You with a thankful heart. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, wives must submit to their husbands because this is what You desire of them. ¹⁹Husbands must love their wives and never be mean to them. ^{459}Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} ²⁰Children must always obey their parents, ^{327} Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} for this pleases You. ²¹Fathers must not provoke their children to anger because they will become discouraged and give up. ^{206} Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

²²Servants must obey their earthly bosses in everything {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} not just when they are watching. They must obey from the heart because that pleases You. ²³Lord, I will do everything with my whole heart because I am working to please You, and not men. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

Lord, may everything I say and do bring glory to the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to You, my heavenly Father. I will do everything with my whole heart because I am working to please You and not men. Amen.

²⁴Then You will give me an inheritance as a reward, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²⁵and those who do wrong will be repaid for their rebellion because You will not let anyone get away with sin. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

Colossians 4 Earnest Prayer

¹Lord, masters who direct servants must be kind and fair just as You our Master in heaven treats us.

²Lord, I will give myself continually to prayer, {88 Continue in Prayer, Luke 11:8-10} always remembering to be thankful. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ³I will pray for Your ministers to have opportunities to preach the message of Christ {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} (this is the reason Paul was in chains.) ⁴I will pray that ministers will preach the gospel as clearly as they can. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30}

Paul asks the Colossians to pray for him: "Continue in prayer." At the beginning Paul prayed for them (1:3, 9-12). This fulfills the promise of Christ, "Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven" (Matt. 18:19). Lord, I will pray with others because You told me to do it, but also I have more faith and boldness when I pray with others, and You promised that God the Father would hear and answer. Amen.

⁵Lord, I will live a good testimony among non-Christians {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} and will use every opportunity to share Christ with them. {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} ⁶I will make sure my words are gracious and useful {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} with the right answer for everyone. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

⁷Lord, Paul told the Colossians that Tychicus will tell them how he was doing. Tychicus had been faithfully serving the Lord with Paul. {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ⁸Paul told them he was sending Tychicus to give them a message so they would be encouraged. ⁹Paul also told how he was sending Onesimus back to them in Colosse. Onesimus had recently been saved and now he was a brother in Christ. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22}

¹⁰Paul gave the Colossians greetings from Aristarchus who is a prisoner with Paul. He also sent greetings from Mark, Barnabas' cousin. Then Paul told his readers to receive Mark when he comes their way. ¹¹Finally, Paul sent greetings from Justis. He notes that these are his Jewish-Christian co-workers. ¹²Paul sent greetings from Epaphras who is from Colosse. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} Epaphras continually prayed for the Colossians, asking God to make them strong and mature in their Christian faith. {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} ¹³Paul reminds them that Epaphras is a prayer warrior for all believers. ¹⁴Paul included greetings from Luke the physician, and Demas, and asked that their greetings be passed on to other believers. 15Paul asked the Colossians to greet the church in Laodicea, and ¹⁶to pass this letter to the church in Laodicea, and that they should read the letter he wrote to them. \{69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18}

Apparently Epaphras has a list of people for which to pray (4:7-15). When I was first saved, I began writing a list of people, things, and events for which to pray. I have kept that list for almost 60 years. When God answers, I check it off with an "AMEN!" The bigger the answer, the bigger the "AMEN!" Lord, teach me to pray systematically and in order for all the problems, issues, and challenges in my life. I will write out a list of things for which to pray so I won't leave out anything and I will include all requests on a regular basis. Teach me to be methodical, yet exuberant and wholehearted in prayer. Amen.

¹⁷Paul told the church to exhort Archippus to be faithful to his ministry that the Lord gave him. ¹⁸Paul signed the letter and told them, "Pray for me because I am in chains." {501 Two-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} Grace to you. Signed, Paul. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38}

1 THESSALONIANS

Ch 1: Characteristics of a Model Church	.1748
CH 2: CHARACTERISTICS OF A MODEL SERVANT	.1749
Ch 3: Characteristics of a Model Brother	.1751
CH 4: THE HOPE FOR ALL BELIEVERS	.1752
Ch 5: Characteristics of a Model Life	.1753

1 THESSALONIANS

Key Word: Example (1 Thessalonians 1:7)

Key Verse: "So that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe" (1 Thess. 1:7).

Theme: Because of persecution (Acts 17:1-10), Paul was forced to leave Thessalonica and almost immediately he wrote back this first letter to the Thessalonians. His first theme dealt with their confusion about Christ's return. Some Christians in the church died and those still alive thought wrongly that the dead had missed out on the return of Christ. Paul writes to tell that "the dead in Christ" would be first in the rapture. Second, Paul describes the richness of local church evangelism. Third, Paul exhorts them to holiness of living, and fourth, he confirms young believers in foundational truths he had taught them. Lord, I love a church that reaches out to win lost people to Christ. Put me in a church like that and help me win someone to Christ. Amen.

1 Thessalonians Characteristics of a Model Church

Paul, along with Silas and Timothy, wrote to the church in Thessalonica, Greece, reminding them that You, our heavenly Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, founded the church. Paul prayed grace and peace on the Thessalonians, and I want that grace on my life. ²Lord, may I always be thankful for others as Paul was thankful for the believers in Thessalonica: praying for them, ³thinking of their faithful work, deeds of love, and their patient anticipation of the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴Paul reminds them that You chose them to be Your very own people.

The Thessalonians believed Jesus could return at any moment, and that hope carried them through persecution. Lord, my hope is in Jesus. I will be ready because Jesus could come at any time. I'll plan short-term and long-term projects and work hard to complete them because Jesus may not come in my lifetime. "Even so, come Lord Jesus" (Rev. 22:20). Amen.

⁵Lord. Paul reminded his readers how the gospel came to them by his explanation and by the demonstrated power of the Holy Spirit. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 6Paul reminded them that his life was a demonstration of the truth of his preaching, and that they received his message with joy, in spite of the persecution that came on the young {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} church. ⁷Lord, may I be an example to all others just as the believers in Thessalonica were to those in Greece. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 8May I spread the message of the gospel to others {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} just as the gospel reached many because of the Thessalonians. {338 Outreach-Prayer, Acts 4:29-31} 9Lord, everyone was telling Paul of the strong faith of the Thessalonians, how they welcomed the gospel, and how they turned to Christ from idols to serve You, the living and true God. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 10Lord, I look forward to the return of Your Son from heaven {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} whom You brought back from the dead. For He is coming back to deliver us from the terrible wrath and tribulation You will pour out on the world in the future.

Paul thanks God that his prayers have been answered for the Thessalonians in that many were saved (1:2). Lord, I pray that I would spread the message of salvation to many. I also pray that those I've influenced with the gospel may also be faithful witnesses. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 2 Characteristics of a Model Servant

¹Lord, Paul reminded the Thessalonians about his visit to them {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} ²and how badly he was beaten in Philippi before coming to them. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} Paul reminded them of his strong ministry in spite of vicious opposition. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ³Lord, Paul reminded his readers that he didn't use ulterior motives or impure desires, nor was he trying to trick them. ⁴Paul preached as a messenger from God who gave them the message of salvation. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} He did not preach to please people, but to please God, who knows the motives of people. ⁵Paul says he never used flattery to get them to believe, nor did he pretend to be their friends just to get their support. ⁶He also didn't preach to build up a reputation or to get human praise. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} Then Paul reminded them he could have asked for money because he is an apostle of Jesus Christ, but he didn't. ⁷Lord, help me to be gentle among new believers as Paul was unassuming and kind to the Thessalonians. Help me care for young followers of Christ to feed and protect them as a mother cares for her baby. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} 8Help me be loving to new Christians, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} willing not only to give them the gospel, but to give them my own soul as well. Paul loved the Thessalonians dearly, not only giving them the gospel, but his own life also. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁹Lord, Paul reminded the Thessalonians that he worked with his hands, slaving day and night, so he wouldn't be a burden to them. {338 Outreach-Prayer, Acts 4:29-31} ¹⁰Paul reminded them that God was his witness and that his treatment of them was fair. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹¹He treated them as a father would treat a son, teaching them what is truthful, {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ¹²encouraging them to live worthy of their divine calling, and inviting them to share in Your kingdom of glory. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

The Thessalonians continued to witness the gospel to others. Lord, may I have a burden for lost people. The gospel was given "gently" (2:7). Lord, may I tenderly care for lost people as a mother cares for her children. There was "affectionate desire" (v. 8). Lord, teach me to pray affectionately for the lost to be saved. Besides giving them salvation, Paul gave his "own soul" (v. 8). Lord, I'm too selfish, so teach me to sacrifice my life for lost people. May I want them to have the life of Christ in their souls as I have in mine. Amen.

¹³Lord, Paul was thankful that they received his preaching not as though it were human words, {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} but as though his message was the very Word of God which it was, namely, Your living power to transform lives. ¹⁴Lord, Paul reminded the Thessalonians that they were like the churches in Judea in that they suffered from their countrymen, just as the Christians in the Holy Land suffered from the Jews, the ones who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁵Those who persecuted the church are against both the Gentiles and God {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} because they don't want anyone other than the Jews to be saved. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁶Their punishment was adding up in God's records, and one day God's punishment will fall on them.

Part of our spiritual warfare praying is recognizing the ways satan tries to defeat us, and the tricks he uses to stop God's work. Lord, just as Paul realized satan was trying to stop his ministry, I realize the many ways satan opposes me and tries to defeat me. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, Paul tells the Thessalonians, "I want to see you, and even though you are separated from me physically, I still have you in my heart. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹⁸I have longed to come see you but satan has prevented my coming. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁹I live to see my young children in Christ. You are my joy, my hope, my reward, and you will bring me much joy at the coming of Christ when I stand before God for judgment. {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ²⁰You will be my glory and reward." {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52}

Paul's greatest joys were the people he led to Jesus Christ. He called them his "crown of rejoicing" (2:19). Just as a crown was a symbol of achievement, it was also the king's symbol of power and authority. Lord, I want no other authority in my life than the influence of winning people to salvation. The Thessalonians were Paul's "glory and joy" (2:20). Lord, may I never lose the thrill of winning someone to salvation. Keep me rejoicing in getting people saved. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 3 Characteristics of a Model Brother

¹Lord, Paul reminded the Thessalonians that when he went to Athens, he sent Timothy to minister to them, even though he was left alone at Athens. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} Paul wanted Timothy to keep them strong in the faith and prevent anyone from dropping out. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} 3Lord, Paul reminded them that troubles are part of God's plan for the believers. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} 4He told them when he was with them that some persecution would come, as they had recently experienced. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 5Paul was so concerned for them that he sent Timothy to find out if the Thessalonians were standing firm in their faith. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} Paul was afraid the tempter would have tripped them up, and

Paul's efforts were destroyed. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

We must pray about dangers or problems we expect. Paul said, "We should suffer tribulation" (3:4, KJV). Sometimes God answers our prayers and stops the problem before it reaches us. Sometimes God gives us grace to endure the problem. Whatever we do, we must make God the Lord of the storms and the Lord in the storms. Lord, solve some of my problems before they reach me. But when storms do reach me, help me have victory over the problems. And when things go against me, give me internal victory. No matter what happens, I will worship You and fulfill Your plan for my life. Amen.

⁶Lord, Paul was encouraged because Timothy had just returned to bring the good news that the Thessalonians were standing firm. Paul also learned that the Thessalonians wanted to see him. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ⁷This news gave Paul a lot of confidence in his present trials, and that his ministry of planting new churches would succeed, even when trials hit new churches. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 8Now Paul was ready to really throw himself in ministry because of the positive news that the Thessalonians were standing true. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} 9Lord, I cannot thank You enough for all the joy I have in Your presence that Your work prospers in spite of trials. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰I will pray continually for those in trials that You will supply what is lacking in their faith. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

It's not enough to pray once a day. Instead we must pray like Paul, "night and day praying exceedingly" (3:10, KJV). Later Paul will exhort us, "Pray without ceasing" (5:17). Lord, I will pray all the time, not just when I am on my knees. Every time a need comes to my mind, I will pray. Amen.

¹¹Now may You, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, help me stand in the face of trials. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ¹²May You make my love grow and overflow to those suffering persecution. {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹³Make my heart strong, blameless, and holy before You, the Father of us all. And may I live a guiltless life because the Lord Jesus Christ is returning with all those saints who are His. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

We must pray like Paul, for God to make us "increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men" (3:12). Lord, You are the source of love, so overwhelm my heart and make me love You more, and that will motivate me to love others more. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 4 The Hope for All Believers

¹Lord, I know the Scriptures teach that I should please You with my daily life, {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} ²and they command me to live as close as possible to the biblical standards. ³You want me to be separate from sin, and especially to keep away from sexual immorality. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ⁴You want me to marry in holiness and purity {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ⁵ and not in sexual lust as do the pagans for this is a sign they do not know God.

We must pray to live a holy life (4:3, 7) and ask God to give us strength to keep our bodies disciplined. As Paul said, "Every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor" (4:4, KJV). The verb "to sanctify" means to separate from sin, which has the same meaning as the noun "holy." Lord, I have an old nature that tempts me to sin so give me strength to overcome sin. I want my body to be a holy temple that will glorify You. Sanctify me and make me holy. Amen.

⁶I will never sin by having sex with another's spouse for You have promised to punish this sin. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁷Lord, You have not called me to be filthy-minded but You want me to think pure thoughts. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ⁸If anyone rebels against the rule of purity, he is not disobeying man's laws, he is disobeying Your law and rebelling against the Holy Spirit who indwells him. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

Since God gives us the Holy Spirit (4:8), we should let the Spirit control our lives and service. Lord, I yield to the Holy Spirit. Let Him make me holy, let Him make me spiritual. Come, Holy Spirit, fill me, lead me, use me, and glorify the Father through me. Amen.

⁹Lord, Paul didn't need to tell them to love their brothers, since You already taught that in Scripture. ¹⁰My love is growing toward other Christians and I want to love them more in the future. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹¹My goal is to live a quiet life, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} to work diligently at my task, and do faithfully all I am required to do. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹²This way I will influence those who are not Christians, and have enough money to live on. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

¹³Lord, Paul didn't want the Thessalonians to be ignorant of what happens to believers when they die so they wouldn't grieve like the world that has no hope beyond the grave. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 14Since we believe that Jesus died for us and rose again from the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} those who have died and sleep in Jesus will He bring with Him at His return. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ¹⁵The Bible teaches that we who are alive at His return will not be raptured before those in graves, but they will be raptured first. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹⁶For the Lord Jesus will come down from heaven with a shout as loud as an archangel, and a blast from a trumpet. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Then the dead in Christ will be the first to rise to meet the Lord in the air. ¹⁷Then we who are alive and remain on earth will be caught up with them in the clouds to meet the Lord Jesus in the air, to ever live with Him. ¹⁸Lord, this promise assures me that I'll live with You forever, and I want everyone to know about this prospect so they'll face death with courage and hope. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

Paul gives us confidence that there is hope beyond the grave, "To be absent from the body [is to be] present with the Lord" (2 Cor. 5:8). And when Christ returns, "We will be with the Lord forever" (4:17). Lord, I fellowship with You in prayer on this earth, but I know I'll live with You forever in heaven. Thank You for this inner confidence. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 5 Characteristics of a Model Life

¹Lord, I don't expect You to tell me when Christ will return because You said "no one knows the exact time of Your return to earth." ²All I need to know is that "the day of the Lord will come unexpectedly like a thief in the night." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ³When everyone is saying, "We have peace on earth," sudden disaster will come like labor pains on a pregnant woman. No one can hide from it and everyone, everywhere, will be punished. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴I have known about Jesus' return, so I am not in the dark about coming judgment {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} and I won't be surprised. 5We believers are children of light and we live in the daylight; we don't belong to darkness and night. 6I will not sleep as some do, but I will watch and be sober. ⁷Those who live in the darkness of night will sleep and get drunk. 8I will be protected by the armor of faith, and I will nurture my love and I will wear the helmet of hope. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 9Lord, I know You never meant for believers to experience the wrath and tribulation that is coming. You meant to save us thrugh the Lord Jesus Christ. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} 10He died for me so that whether I am alive or in the grave, I will be protected by Him and live with Him. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ¹¹So I will be encouraged {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} by this fact and I will encourage others. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16}

¹²Lord, I will be considerate of those who minister among us as teachers in the Lord. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹³I will honor them and obey them, and I'll not agitate other believers. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Paul exhorts us to "know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you" (5:12). We should pray for our church leaders so that the whole local assembly will prosper and will grow in Christ. Lord, I pray for the success of our church leaders so that my church will grow spiritually, and that it will reach out to the unsaved. May I grow in Christ, as my church grows (5:12-14). Amen.

¹⁴Lord, I will warn those not working for You, {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} and give courage to those who are frightened, and will give watch care to the weak, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and will be patient with all. 15Lord, I pray that no one will pay back evil for evil, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} but will always do good to believers and unbelievers alike. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} 16I will rejoice at all times, {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} ¹⁷and I'll pray constantly. {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} ¹⁸I'll give thanks always to You for everything because this is what You expect me to do. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁹I'll not suppress the Holy Spirit's working in my life, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²⁰but will listen to the preaching of Your Word. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} ²¹I'll not be gullible, but will analyze everything by the Word of God to determine what is true. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} ²²I'll stay away from every form of evil and anything that tempts me to sin. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

Paul tells his readers, "Pray continually" (5:17). This is the same exhortation Jesus gave for the need of constant prayer (Luke 18:1). But we can't pray every second of the day. Some say this means be in a constant attitude of prayer. Others say it means be ready to pray at any second. The word "continually" means the same as "intermittent." We have intermittent windshield wipers on our modern cars which mean they operate only when it's raining. So to pray "without ceasing" means to pray when we have a need. Also the harder it rains, the faster the windshield wipers work. That means the more severe the need, the more we strive in prayer. Lord, I come now gently because I want to meditate on You, but I'll pray more strenuously when the need is greater. Amen.

²³Lord, may I grow in the abundance of Your peace. Keep my body, soul, and spirit strong and blameless until You return to receive me. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ²⁴I know You are faithful to all You call to accomplish Your purpose in their lives. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Paul reminds us, "The One who calls you is faithful and He will do it" (5:24). It's not our faithfulness, but God who dwells in us; He makes us faithful. "He will do it." When we are faithful in prayer, it is not us, but God working in us "to will and to act" (Phil. 2:13). Lord, I come to You in prayer because You give me a burden to pray. Your love motivates me to pray for others. My faith in You motivates me to ask for big things. You have given me a vision of the future that drives me to my knees. When I come to the Father, I come through the intercession of Jesus (Heb. 7:24-25). Thank You for Your faithfulness. Amen.

²⁵Lord, Paul ended his letter asking the Thessalonians to pray for him {501 Two-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²⁶and greet one another with a holy kiss. ²⁷He wanted this letter read to all Christians. ²⁸Then Paul prayed, "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

2 THESSALONIANS

CH 1: COMFORT BECAUSE THEY A	ARE BEING PERSECUTED
	1757
Ch 2: Antichrist and the Com	ING OF CHRIST 1758
CH 3: How to Live While Wait	ing for Christ's
Return	1760

2 THESSALONIANS

Key Words: "He comes" (2 Thessalonians)

Key Verse: "When He comes, in that Day, to be glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who believe, because our testimony among you was believed" (2 Thess. 1:10).

Theme: The Thessalonians probably thought Jesus would come immediately to set up His kingdom, so they raised the question, "Some in our church have died since believing in Christ; what will happen to them?" Paul wrote 1 Thessalonians to explain that those who died in Christ will go first in the rapture when Christ returns.

Paul wrote this second letter to the Thessalonians because some in the church were "shaken in mind" and were "troubled" because they were going through persecution. They thought their trouble was the seven years of tribulation. Paul wrote this second letter to tell them the rapture hadn't come. Then he outlines the horrible things that will happen during the tribulation. He then instructed the Thessalonians about the glorious event when "He comes" (1:10). Lord, I don't look for tribulation, judgment, or any parallel event. I look to see the Lord Jesus when He shall come for me and all those who belong to Him. Amen.

2 Thessalonians 1 Comfort Because They Are Being Persecuted

Paul, Silas, and Timothy sent greetings to the church in Thessalonica which belonged to You the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} ²They prayed for grace and peace from You and the Lord Jesus Christ. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³Lord, I continually thank You that my faith is growing, {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} and my love for others is growing. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ⁴May I have patience and faith when I face trials and troubles. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3}

Paul continually thanked God for the new converts that had been saved through his influence, "We are bound to give thanks always to God for you" (2:13, KJV). We should be grateful that God has used us and be thankful for those saved through our ministry. Lord, I pray for spiritual strength for all those who have been saved through my ministry. Thank You for what You've done in my life and in the life of others. Amen.

⁵My constant determination will demonstrate that Your care of me is correct and that I am worthy of the kingdom of God, for which I am now suffering. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 6Lord, I know You will repay those who persecute Your believers, and reward those who are suffering with the same inner confidence and peace ⁷we'll all receive when Jesus appears from heaven with His powerful angels. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} 8Lord, I know You will come in flaming fire to punish those who reject You, and refuse to accept the good news of the Lord Jesus. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 9They will be punished in everlasting hell, forever separated from Your presence, never to see the glory of Your kingdom. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10Lord, thank You that Jesus is coming to be glorified and to be seen by His saints, who are those who believe in Him. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

¹¹Lord, I pray continually that I'll be worthy of Your calling, and be the kind of follower You want me to be. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Paul prayed that his readers would "fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power" (1:11, KJV). Lord, I want to accomplish good things for You, but my "good works" are nothing (Eph. 2:8-9). So work in me and through me to accomplish those things that will last. Amen.

¹²May the name of my Lord Jesus Christ be glorified when others see the kind of life I live. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

Paul thanked God because the faith of the Thessalonians was "grow[ing] exceedingly" and their love was "toward each other abound[ing]" (1:3, KJV). Isn't that God's plan for us? That we continually grow in character? Lord, convict me when I stop growing in my Christian faith. Help me to see weak areas and to strengthen them. Give me a strong appetite to grow in every area of my life to be more like Christ. Then as I grow, may my thanksgiving to You also grow. Amen.

2 Thessalonians 2 Antichrist and the Coming of Christ

¹Lord, Paul explained to the Thessalonians about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we will be gathered to Him. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ²He did not want them alarmed by a false prediction, or rumor, or any letters that claimed to come from him. They had heard that the tribulation of the day of the Lord had already begun. ³They were confused because they were suffering more persecution than ever before, and thought the tribulation had begun and Christ had come and they had missed the rapture. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} Lord, Paul told them the tribulation could not begin until the man of sin—the antichrist—was revealed and Christians in name only fall away from the faith. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 4The antichrist will oppose everything about God, and exalt himself so that he is worshiped as God, and he will sit in the temple of God claiming that he is God. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 5Lord, Paul told these things to the Thessalonians while he was there, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} 6now he reminds them that the antichrist cannot come until the Holy Spirit is taken out of the way because the Spirit holds back a full onslaught of evil in the world. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ⁷But the One restraining sin the Holy Spirit—will be removed when believers are raptured. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} 8Lord, Paul told the Thessalonians that the antichrist will be fully revealed after the rapture, but the Lord Jesus Christ will eventually destroy him with the breath of His mouth {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and with the glorious appearance of His coming. 9Lord, Paul reminded them that the antichrist will be satan's representative full of demonic power and lying tricks. {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} ¹⁰He will deceive all the lost people who don't have spiritual insight because they have already rejected the truth, and have chosen not to believe it. ¹¹You will send a strong delusion so that they will believe satan's lie. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ¹²They will all be punished who refused to believe Your truth and who chose willingly to sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

It would seem that the millions of people left on earth after the rapture would realize that Christians have disappeared. It would seem they would accept the truth of the rapture and believe in Christ to get saved. But God will allow them to be greatly deceived, and they will believe satan's lies. Lord, I want to know the truth about Your return and about everything in the Bible. Teach me the truth so I can know truth and live correctly. Amen.

¹³Lord, I will forever give You thanks because You loved me and chose me from the beginning to be saved, and You set me apart to the Holy Spirit and truth. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 14I thank You for the good news that came to me, and I obtained eternal life through the Lord Jesus Christ. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 15Therefore I will stand fast and hold on to the message that Paul delivered to the churches by word and by letters. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} 16-17Lord, I pray that my heart will be comforted and be established to do every good work by You, the heavenly Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who loves me and gives me the hope of His return.

Paul was concerned that the Thessalonians would not be spiritually alarmed or easily upset (2:2) over a wrong misunderstanding of the Lord's return. He not only prayed for them (1:3, 11; 3:1-5), he also taught them correct doctrine concerning the second coming of Christ so they would be established in their faith. Lord, keep me from wrong emotional expression about Your return. I will study Your Word so I'll have strong faith in You and Your return. Amen.

2 Thessalonians 3 How to Live While Waiting for Christ's Return

¹Lord, Paul asked for the Thessalonians to pray for him, as he prayed for them. I pray that the Word of the Lord may spread quickly, and be effective in winning many to Christ. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²I ask that I'll be delivered from people who are evil and bigoted because they have no faith. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} 3Lord, I know You are faithful to give me strength and will guard me from the evil one. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 4I have believed that Your Word will continue to be successful. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5May You turn many hearts to Your love and that they may wait patiently for Christ's return. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Paul prayed that they would have "the patient waiting for Christ" (3:5, KJV). We should pray that we not give up, but have an enduring spirit to overcome all obstacles, trials, and problems. Lord, I want to endure all difficulties. Help me. Give me tenacity to keep going. Amen.

⁶Lord, Paul gave the Thessalonians a command to avoid a believer who is lazy and avoids work that he should be doing. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ⁷Paul wanted his example to be imitated because he was not idle but worked hard and paid for his own meals. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 8Paul worked constantly and he worked diligently so he wouldn't be a financial burden on them. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} 9He wanted to be an example for them to follow, even though he had the right to expect a salary. 10 Lord, Paul gave them a rule when he was there, "Don't give food to anyone who refuses to work." {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} 11Paul heard that some Christians were lazy, refusing to hold a job, and trying to live off those who were working. 12 Paul ordered them by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ to begin working and earning the food they eat. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23}

We are to work hard at our occupation and not be lazy (3:11-12). We should not depend on others to take care of us financially. We should pray for a job, pray for strength and wisdom to do our job, then pray that we do our job well, and finally pray that God is glorified through our work. Lord, I want to be a good testimony to You in the way I work and am productive through my job. Help me work as hard as I can to please You in all I do. Amen.

¹³Lord, I have learned from Paul and the Thessalonians never to tire of doing the right thing. ¹⁴If any refuse to obey the command of Paul, I'll have nothing to do with them so they'll be convicted of their wrong ways. ¹⁵However, he is not an enemy to Christ. Rather, he is a brother who needs correction. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁶Lord, I pray to receive the peace that is Yours, may I receive it every day, in every way. Lord, be with me! {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁷Lord, Paul finally greeted all the Thessalonians in his own handwriting, that gave genuineness to this letter. ¹⁸Finally, Paul prayed for the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ to be on them. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38}

Because all Christians are in Christ, we are joined uniquely together. Therefore we ought to ask other believers to "pray for us" (3:1), just as Paul requested prayer for the Thessalonians. Why? (1) Because we need God's help to be victorious against temptations, sins, and trials; (2) because God answers when two people agree in prayer (Matt. 18:19); (3) because God reveals Himself to us when we stand in harmony with other believers (Matt. 18:20); and (4) because we are not perfect, we need prayer. Lord, look on me kindly when I ask others to pray for me. Amen.

1 Тімотну

CH 1: PAUL'S RELATIONSHIP TO TIMOTHY AND WARN	ING
ABOUT HERESY	1764
Ch 2: Instructions about Prayer and the Role	OF
Women in Church	1766
CH 3: QUALIFICATIONS FOR PASTORS AND DEACONS.	1767
CH 4: How A GOOD MINISTER SHOULD LIVE	1769
Ch 5: The Good Work of a Minister	1770
Ch 6: Warnings to a Minister	1772

1 TIMOTHY

Key Words: Faithful Sayings (1 Timothy 1:15)

Key Verse: "But if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth" (3:15).

Theme: Originally the apostles were the authority in the churches, teaching people what to believe, and guiding the church's ministry. But as the end of the apostolic era approached, it was necessary that a clear revelation be given about the soundness of faith, and church order. Paul wrote 1 Timothy, "I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God" (3:15).

Four times Paul used the key words "faithful sayings" like a verse we might repeat to remind us of the essentials of Christianity (1 Tim. 1:15, 3:1, 4:9; 2 Tim. 2:11; Titus 3:8). Lord, I love Your church and I will learn how to live for You in the church. Help me to be faithful in all things. Amen.

1 Timothy 1 Paul's Relationship to Timothy and Warning about Heresy

Paul wrote to Timothy, his son in the faith, reminding Timothy that Paul was an apostle by Your command and that the Lord Jesus Christ was his Savior and hope. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ²Paul prays grace, mercy, and peace for Timothy from You, the Father and from Jesus Christ. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23}

Paul led Timothy to Christ (1:2), and he called Timothy "my true son in the faith." We should be glad for those we influence to salvation, and then pray for them, always thanking God for them. Lord, I thank You for the opportunity of influencing people to salvation. May my converts walk faithfully in their new faith. I thank You for each of them. Amen.

³Lord, Paul reminded Timothy that he was to stay in Ephesus to stop certain false teachers from spreading false doctrine, {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁴and to stop spreading myths and genealogies that create controversy in the church. Rather Timothy should build up Your work. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} 5Lord, I know that love comes from a sincere heart, a pure conscience, and believing faith. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} 6Some have drifted from these qualities and spend their time arguing about nothing, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 7so they don't know what they're saying. {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} 8I know the law is good when we apply it properly to our lives. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} 9I also know the law is not given to keep good people in line, but the law is aimed at rebellious people to teach them the truth, and point them to salvation. ¹⁰The law is aimed at adulterers, perverts, slave traders, liars, and perjurers. 11 The law was written for those who deny the gospel and sound doctrine and the truth that was committed to Paul. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹²Lord, I thank You for giving me strength to serve You, and You found me faithful so that You called me into Your service. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ¹³Before I was saved, I was a liar and curser, and I was against the faith; I did all this in ignorance. You showed me mercy, so that I became a believer. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁴Your grace filled me with faith and with love that comes from Jesus Christ. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

Paul was thankful for his salvation (1:12) so he thanked God for giving him "power"

(1:12) for ministry. He confessed that he was a "persecutor and a violent man" (1:13). Then he called himself a sinner. He said, "I am the worst" (1:15). Actually every sin—whether against the person of God or a sin of pride or flesh fulfillment—is against God. Therefore everyone could call himself the "worst of sinners." Lord, I know my sins are terrible and my transgressions place me in the worst possible relationship to You. Thank You for forgiving me by the blood of Christ. Thank You that I am in Christ where I am as close to Your heart as I can get. Amen.

¹⁵Lord, this is a faithful saying that no one can deny: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners and I myself was the greatest of them. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁶Your mercy was shown to me, because Jesus Christ has made me a great example of Your inexhaustible patience. As a result, other people have come to trust Jesus and gain eternal life. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁷Lord, I give glory and honor to You, the only God. You are immortal and invisible, forever and ever. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9}

Paul gave honor to God (1:17). When we worship God, several things happen. First, God comes to receive our worship because Jesus said, "The Father seeks worship" (John 4:23, PJV); therefore we can experience His presence as we worship Him. So as we give God the worship He wants, we receive His presence in return. Worship becomes a two-way street. Lord, thank You for giving me

Your presence—including joy, confidence, acceptance—as I give to You my worship. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, again Paul reminded Timothy, his son, to do these things he is telling him. These are the truths spoken by prophets, so he should fight for them like a good soldier. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ¹⁹His weapons are faith and a pure conscience. Because some have denied their conscience they have wrecked their faith. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ²⁰Such are Hymenaeus and Alexander who are enemies, thus Paul has given them to satan to punish them so they won't bring shame on the name of Christ. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

There are many ways to worship God. Remember worship means to give God the "worthship" that is due to Him. When you glorify God, you are not adding to any majesty He already has. No! God cannot change, and nothing can be added to God. When you glorify God (1:17), you make God more glorious in your mind and life. You grow in Christ as you realize how much more glory can be given to Him in your attitudes and actions. Lord, I glorify You with the worship of my words because I realize how much more glorious You are. As I grow in my worship, I realize how much more majesty You have, and with each realization, I grow more. Amen.

1 Timothy 2 Instructions about Prayer and the Role of Women in Church

¹Lord, Paul directed Timothy to pray in every way for all types of people. I will pray for all people, interceding for Your mercy in their lives, I will give thanks for Your work in every area of people's lives. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ²I will pray for political leaders and government supervisors, so I can live peaceably and follow holiness and honesty in my life. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³In this way I fulfill my prayer obligation and will please You, my God and Savior. ⁴Lord, I know You want everyone to be saved and to learn the full scope of biblical truth. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} 5You are the only God and Christ Jesus—the Man— {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} is the only Mediator between You and all people ⁶because Jesus sacrificed Himself as a ransom for all the people in the world. This is the message of truth everyone must hear and believe. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ⁷Lord, You appointed Paul as a preacher and apostle. No one can deny that Paul was appointed to teach faith and truth to all. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

Paul gives four different ways to pray in I Timothy 2:1. First is "supplication," deesis which means we plead with God because of our personal needs. Second is "prayers," proseuche which comes from pros, "toward," and euchomai, "face." It means we approach God "face to face." Third, "intercession," enteuxis, which pictures childlike confidence. Fourth, is giving thanks, which shows our gratitude for what God has done for us. Paul taught us to pray for "kings and those in authority over us" (2:2). We should pray for government leaders for several reasons: (1) to enable us to lead a quiet life; (2) to enable us to live godly lives; and (3) to help us get others saved (2:2-4). Lord, I pray for my president, members of Congress, judges, governors, and law enforcement officials so I can live a quiet, peaceful life. Amen.

⁸Lord, because of the way You changed Paul and me I will freely lift my hands in prayer to You, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} free from anger or jealousy.

Paul desired we pray "lifting up holy hands in prayer, without disputing" (2:8). Did you know that doubt is arguing with God? The King James Version says, "Without doubting." Lord, I will not argue with You, and I will not doubt. I believe You exist and You reward those who diligently seek answers from You (Heb. 11:6). Amen.

⁹Lord, Paul wanted women to dress modestly, without being indecent or calling undue attention to themselves. Paul wanted Christian women to be noticed for their inner godly personality, not for their outward dress or fixing their hair, or gaudy jewels, or indiscreet clothing. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ¹⁰Paul wanted women to do good works ¹¹and listen to good Christian women so they could be godly. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 12Paul didn't want women teaching men which puts them in authority over men. Instead he wanted them to quietly listen in church. ¹³Paul used the illustration of Adam being created before Eve, so You created men to be leaders. 14But Eve was blinded and deceived by satan, then Adam sinned with his eyes wide open; thus he was guilty and plunged the race into sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁵And women were punished with pain and suffering in giving birth to children. But they will be saved by trusting Jesus the Savior and then living quiet lives before You. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

1 Timothy 3 Qualifications for Pastors and Deacons

¹Lord, Paul said any man who wants to be a pastor/leader wants to do a noble work for You. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ²But he must be a good man: blameless, the husband of one wife, self-disciplined, hardworking, and obedient, and also he must be courteous, {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} a good teacher, and must open his home to visitors and guests. 3A pastor can't drink alcohol, be hot-tempered; but he should be courteous with people and gentle. He must not be greedy for money, 4but must manage his family well. ⁵Because if a man can't make his family behave, he shouldn't be responsible for church behavior. ⁶A pastor must not be a new convert, because he may become proud and arrogant. Then God would condemn him as God condemned satan for his pride. ⁷Lord, Paul said deacons should live by the same standard as the pastor of the church. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

People looking for work read the Want Ads in the newspaper or they ask a friend. But what do believers do when they want to work for God in the church? They ask God if they "desire a good work" (1 Tim. 3:1, KJV). Lord, I want to serve You, so lead me to a place where I can work for Your kingdom. Amen.

⁸They should be respected by the church and do what they promise. Deacons should not drink alcohol, or be greedy for money. ⁹They must be conscientious Christians believing and walking in faith. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁰The church must examine them before putting them into the office of deacon. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ¹¹In the same way the wives of pastors and deacons must be respectable, not gossipers, but faithful in every area of life. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} ¹²Deacons should be the husband of one wife, with happy and obedient families. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ¹³Those who do a good job as deacons should be respected by all in the church. God will reward them with His blessings, for their faithful walk in Christ Jesus. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

God has a list of qualifications for elders and overseers (3:1-8) and for deacons or servants (3:8-13), and their wives (3:11). Lord, I don't measure up perfectly to Your requirements, so help me grow in every area of my life. Help me grow in Christ to please You and develop my abilities so I can serve You acceptably. Amen.

¹⁴Lord, Paul told Timothy he wanted to be with him soon. ¹⁵But in case he was delayed, Paul wanted Timothy to know how people should behave in God's family—the church of the living God because it teaches and protects the truth of God. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 16Paul gave Timothy the doctrinal statement for all of the church to learn and believe. Jesus appeared in a human body, He was anointed by the Holy Spirit, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} was seen by angels, preached among the Gentiles, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} and was believed by many in the world, and taken up into glory.

Paul included doctrinal essentials of faith that all must believe (3:16). Correct doctrinal faith begins with a correct view of Jesus. Lord, I believe Jesus was born of a virgin and lived a perfect life in His human body. He was seen by angels, preached to lost people everywhere, the only source of salvation, and ascended into heaven where He sits at the right hand of God the Father. Amen.

1 Timothy 4 How a Good Minister Should Live

¹Lord, Your Holy Spirit told us that in the last days some will turn away from Christ. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} They will follow seductive spirits and will believe false doctrine that comes from demons. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²These false teachers will lie about the truth, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} and they are hypocrites whose consciences are seared as though they were branded with a red-hot iron. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ³They will forbid marriage and demand that people abstain from food. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} 4Lord, You've created every good food to eat, and I should reject no food but I must thankfully enjoy it all. 5I should bless it and give thanks, and Your Scripture and prayer make it holy. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

Paul reminds us to receive with "thanksgiving" (4:3) all the food that gives us strength and life. God created food for us, so we must eat with thankful hearts. Lord, thank You for creating food that gives me strength and life. I recognize You as my sustainer and the source of my life. Keep me from being stingy and ungrateful. Amen.

⁶Paul told Timothy to explain this to the church as a good pastor who knows the Word of God. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8}

Paul reminds us to be "nourished up in the words of faith" (4:6, KJV) because the Scripture strengthens us spiritually and causes us to grow in Christ. We should not remain spiritual babies (1 Cor. 3:1-3), but we must grow to become like Christ. Lord, I will study Your Word daily to grow and be more like Christ. I long to be strengthened by the Holy Spirit inwardly. Amen

⁷Paul also told Timothy not to waste time arguing with those deceived by godless myths and old wive's tales. Paul told Timothy to develop his spirituality, and I also will follow this advice. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} 8Lord, Paul told Timothy physical exercise is all right, but he shouldn't go to extremes with it. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ⁹Spiritual exercise is unlimited because it rewards us with a good life here on earth and will reward us in heaven. 10 Lord, I will give myself diligently to ministry and will take whatever suffering comes so that people will believe in Christ. Because I believe Christ died for me and lives forever, my hope is in Him, along with all who put their trust in You. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

¹¹Help me teach these things to everyone, {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹²and let no one ignore me because of my age. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} Help me be an example to all believers, in my speech, behavior, love, faith, and purity. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹³Help me discipline my time

by reading the Word of God to people, and then preaching and teaching it to them. {344 Pastor-Prayer, 2 Cor. 1:11} ¹⁴I will use the spiritual gifts You gave me, that came to me through the Scriptures and have been recognized by the church. {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10}

Paul tells young Timothy, "Don't neglect your [spiritual] gift" (4:14). We all have a spiritual ability to serve God, so we should not lay it aside. Lord, I thank You for giving me spiritual gifts to serve You. I will use them as I best know how. Fill me with the Holy Spirit to serve You more effectively. Amen.

15I'll put all my energy into my work; I want everyone to see what You are doing through me. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} 16 Therefore I will be careful of what I do and teach so that people who hear me will be saved, and I will fulfill Your calling for my life. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

1 Timothy 5 The Good Work of a Minister

¹Lord, You told me never to speak harshly to elderly men, but to speak to them respectfully as to a father. You told me to speak lovingly to younger people as I would speak to those in my family. ²You told me to treat elderly women as I would treat my own mother. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

³Lord, You have instructed the church to take care of widows if they don't have anyone else to care for them. ⁴Their children or grandchildren are the ones who should take responsibility for them to repay the debt they owe to their elders, for a grateful heart pleases You very much. 5But the church should especially care for widows when they have no one in this world to care for them. Then let them spend their nights and days in prayer, {97 Daily-Prayer, Acts 2:42} ⁶not running around looking for pleasure and entertainment. 7Lord, Paul gave Timothy the church principles to care for people and do what is right. 8The ones who won't care for their needy relatives, especially those in their immediate family, have no right to call themselves Christians; they are worse than nonbelievers. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} 9Widows should be involved as special church workers when they are 60 years old, having been the wife of one husband. ¹⁰She must have been hospitable to others and helped those in trouble. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 11The church is not to accept young widows because they will want to get married again. 12 And people will condemn them for not keeping their promise to be a special committed church worker. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹³Besides, young widows can become lazy, {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} going from house to house gossiping and meddling in others' affairs. 14Paul thought young widows should re-marry, have children, and look after a home; then no one can accuse them of anything. 15Some young widows have already turned from Christ, having been led astray to follow satan. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁶The relatives of a widow must take care of her, and not expect the church to do it. Then the church can use its money to care for needy widows who fit the qualifications of genuine widows. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

¹⁷Lord, Paul taught the church to give worthy pastors double consideration in paying them, especially those who preach and teach well. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ¹⁸The Scripture says, "Never put a muzzle on the ox to keep them from eating. When they work to bring in the crop, let them eat as they work in the fields." In another place the Scriptures teach, "Those who work deserve their pay."

We have special obligations to the pastor(s) of our church. We are to follow their example (1 Tim. 3:4, 5), obey their teaching (Heb. 13:7, 17), and perhaps greatest of all, pray for them (1 Tim. 2:2). We must pray that they are kept from satan's temptations, that God uses them to preach the Word, that they are godly examples, and that they manage the church of God. Lord, thank You for my pastor(s); keep them from sin and danger. Use their ministry, help them manage the church, and build them up in faith. Amen.

"No pastor can rise above his prayers to God." - Jerry Falwell

Paul reminds us that "the laborer is worthy of his reward" (5:18, KJV). Therefore it is all right to be compensated for our work for God. However, this doesn't always involve money. Paul spoke of a crown (2 Tim. 4:8), our joy (1 Thess. 2:19, 20), and fruit (Rom. 1:13). We never pray for compensation or for the things we will get out of our labor for God. We pray for God to bless His ministry. When God does that, compensation will take care of itself. Many times we may not be compensated on this earth, but we will be rewarded in heaven, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on...they will rest from their labors, for their deeds will follow them" (Rev. 14:13, KJV).

¹⁹Lord, Paul taught the church not to listen to complaints against the church leaders, unless there are two or three witnesses. ²⁰If the church leaders are wrong, {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} rebuke them in front of the church as a warning to all believers. ²¹Paul said before God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the holy angels are to rebuke sinning pastors impartially, whether they are friends or not. Treat all people equally without favoritism, for we are all equal in Christ. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Lord, Paul taught never to choose a pastor too quickly because some faults may be overlooked. Therefore I will learn from the example of my leaders to keep myself pure from all sin. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Paul told Timothy, "Keep thyself pure" (5:22, KJV). We should make holiness our priority, keep our thought life pure, and yield all things to God. If we try to be holy in the flesh, we end up in legalism. We should make a 100-percent commitment to God, and remember holiness is a continuous process, a full-time process, and a God-empowered process. Lord, I want to be holy within and without. Fill me with the Spirit to empower me to overcome temptation. Keep my mind pure and keep me ever vigilant. Amen.

²³Lord, Paul told Timothy to quit drinking only water, but to take some grape juice for digestion because he was frequently sick. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁴Lord, some people's sins are obvious to all, long before a formal complaint is made against them. Others have sins that are not easily discovered until they actually come to light. In other cases the sins of some will not be discovered until judgment day. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁵The same truth applies to the good deeds that some do; they will not be hidden forever.

1 Timothy 6 Warnings to a Minister

¹Lord, workers should work hard for their bosses, and respect them in all ways. May Your name and Christian expectations not be laughed at by the world because Christians are lazy workers. A worker must not take advantage of his boss because he is a Christian. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ²On the contrary, Christian workers must do better {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} since they are helping their boss make their business effective and successful. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23}

³Paul told Timothy to teach these principles and that those who have a different interpretation are both selfish and ignorant because these truths are biblical and effective, based on the words of the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴Those who question these truths stir up arguments that lead to anger and jealousy and abuse. 5These people always cause trouble and they never tell the truth. They use religion to get rich. ⁶Lord, Paul told us we are truly rich when we are happy and satisfied with what You give. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} 7We have brought nothing into this world and we will take away nothing when we die. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3} 8So, as long as we have food and clothing, we should be content. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} Those who are passionate about being rich, are open to all types of temptations and get-rich-quickly schemes. Their financial lust will hurt their walk with Christ and eventually destroy their life {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 10because the love of money opens people up to all kinds of sin. Those who spend their lives chasing wealth have wandered away from Your standards for living and opened up their souls to fatal wounds. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Often Christians pray for money, but they seldom realize the dangers of possessing money. Yes, we need money for ministry, food, shelter, and clothing; but often money possesses us. Paul reminds us, "The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil" (6:10). It is "a trap" (v. 9) and "those who want to get rich fall into temptation...[that can] plunge men into ruin and destruction" (v. 9). So what should be our attitude about money? First, yield all your money to God. Second, ask God to guide every use of your money to glorify God. Third, pray for strength, wisdom, and faithfulness to your employment in making money. Fourth, be content with the money you have, especially being "content with food and clothing" (v: 8). Fifth, give generously to God's work. Lord, thank You for all my money, belongings, and retirement treasures. I yield them to You; use everything for Your glory. Show me what money to use for myself and what to invest in Your work for Your glory. I am Your money manager; help me manage all my talents, time, and treasure for Your purpose. Amen.

¹¹Lord, because I am dedicated to You, I will avoid the evils associated with money. I purpose to live a saintly life and I will seek to be filled with faith, love, and gentleness. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ¹²I will fight to put You first in all my life, and {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} I will hold tightly to eternal life that You give. This is my calling and my commitment, and I have confessed this to the church. ¹³Now before You—the source of life—and before Jesus Christ, {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} 14I promised to do all that I say I will do, so that no one can find any fault in me both now and in the future till Christ returns.

{406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹⁵For at the right time Christ will come from heaven, being sent by You, the Almighty God. Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords. ¹⁶Jesus will never die, and He lives in light so brilliant that no one has seen Him, or can see Him. To Jesus be honor and power forever.

¹⁷Paul told Timothy to warn those who are rich in this world that they should not look down on others, or trust in their money, but trust in God, who out of His riches gives us all we need to be happy. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} 18Timothy was instructed to tell rich people to use their money to do good. They are to be rich in good works, generous and willing to share with those in need. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁹ The only safe investment in life is to store up real wealth in heaven. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²⁰Paul told Timothy to guard carefully the commission God had entrusted him. Keep out of pointless arguments of those who show off their knowledge, for they are not really that smart. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ²¹They have missed the most important thing in life. They don't know You at all, but may they continually experience Your grace. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

2 TIMOTHY

Ch 1: Paul's Charge to Timothy1	775
Ch 2: How to Minister in the Day of Apostasy 1	L 777
Ch 3: The Prediction of Apostasy and God's Ans	WER
IN SCRIPTURE1	779
CH 4: PAUL, A FAITHFUL SERVANT1	780

2 TIMOTHY

Key Word: Doctrine

Key Verse: "Preach the Word. Be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction" (2 Timothy 4:2).

Theme: Paul wrote 1 Timothy from the relative ease of his "own rented house" in Rome (Acts 28:30). He was released and later arrested or put in the Mamertine Prison, a miserable dark damp hole in the ground. Paul writes 2 Timothy from difficult circumstances, knowing he will be martyred soon. Paul emphasizes the personal life of a servant of Christ in a time of apostasy. He says, "This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me" (1:15) and "Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world" (4:10). Paul describes apostasy (3:1-8) and exhorts Timothy to "continue in the things which you have learned" (3:14).

Paul asks Timothy, "Do your best to come to me quickly" (4:9). Then Paul asks for a few items, "the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas and my scrolls, especially the parchments" (4:13). Lord, may I be faithful to You till death, as was Paul whether I die or You come in the sky; I look forward to being with You. Amen.

2 Timothy 1 Paul's Charge to Timothy

Paul told Timothy he was appointed by Jesus Christ to be an apostle to tell everyone that eternal life is promised to those who believe. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²Timothy was a son to Paul in the faith, and {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ³Paul prayed for Timothy to have grace, mercy, and peace from You the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁴Lord, Paul remembered Timothy in prayer night and day and he longed to see him, because Timothy cried when they left each other. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ⁵Paul remembered Timothy's genuine faith which was first in his grandmother Lois and in his mother Eunice. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} given me a spirit of cowardice but a spirit of power, love, and self-control. {514 Victory Over Doubt-Prayer, Mark 11:23}

We are given spiritual gifts to serve God (1 Peter 4:10). Sometimes we let the fire of enthusiasm die and we need to pray that God will revive our commitment and service to Him. Lord, forgive me when I lose my excitement for serving You. Stir up my spiritual gift and give me a holy uneasiness when I sit around in my lethargy and complacency, doing nothing. "Stir up the gift of God" (1:6, KJV). Amen.

⁸So I will never be ashamed of witnessing for Christ or ashamed of other Christians, I will accept my share of hardships as I share the gospel, relying on Your power to accomplish Your will. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3}

Because the heart is deceitful and will mislead us, we must pray for boldness to testify for Christ and serve Him. Lord, I confess my weakness; give me boldness to speak for You. Use my testimony to bring people to salvation and to glorify You. Amen.

⁹Lord, You have saved me and called me to holiness, not because of anything I've done but for Your purpose and by Your grace. Your kindness and love was shed on me before the beginning of the world, {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁰but was revealed when our Savior, Christ Jesus, abolished sin and proclaimed life by His death. Lord, I believed it and received it. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} 11Lord, Paul again reminded Timothy he was a preacher and because he was an apostle to the Gentiles, he is also suffering hardships. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 12Lord, I am not ashamed of the gospel because I know I've put my trust in Christ. And I have no doubt that You, Father, are able to care for all I've entrusted to You until that day when Jesus Christ will return to earth for me. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} 13Lord, I will continue to believe and live by the sound teaching I've learned from Scripture. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 14I will guard Your special calling for my life by the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in me.

Paul told Timothy, "Hold fast the form of sound words...that good thing...keep by the Holy Ghost" (1:13-14, KJV). So we pray (1) for wisdom to guard the truth, (2) for boldness, (3) for faith to move mountains, and (4) for inward strength to get the job done. Lord, give me wisdom to defend Your Word against attacks; give me strength and boldness to do it, and give me faith to remove mountain barriers that block Your truth (Mark 11:23-24). Amen.

¹⁵Lord, Paul reminded Timothy that Phygelus and Hermogenes have refused to have anything to do with Paul. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁶Paul prayed blessings on Onesiphorus' home because he was not ashamed of Paul's chains. Onesiphorus came to see Paul in jail and helped him when he was in Ephesus. {343 Partner-Prayer, Acts 3:1} ¹⁷Onesiphorus went to a lot of trouble to find Paul when he was in Rome. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ¹⁸Paul prayed a blessing on him, knowing he would be rewarded at the Judgment Seat of Christ. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

2 Timothy 2 How to Minister in the Day of Apostasy

¹Lord, I will be strong in the grace that comes from Jesus Christ. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ²All the truth I heard from my teachers, I will communicate to trustworthy people who in turn will be able to teach others. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26}

Paul tells Timothy to "be strong" and he adds "in Christ Jesus." That should be the request of all believers for themselves: (1) to be strong against their old sinful nature; (2) to be strong against attacks from without; and (3) to be strong against trials and temptation. Lord, I want to be strong internally; give me spiritual strength. Help me stand against trials, temptations, and attacks against my Christian faith. Strengthen me with Christ's strength. Amen.

³I will accept my share of difficulties as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁴No soldier gets bound up with worldly things because he must always obey his commanding officer. Therefore I will separate myself from sinful things. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ⁵An athlete cannot win a contest unless he keeps all the rules. And so I will discipline myself to obey Christ. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7}

⁶And a farmer gets first claim on the harvest over any crops growing in his field, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁷so I will work hard to get Your reward. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3}

Paul told Timothy to "endure hardness... like a good soldier of Christ Jesus" (2:3). This includes (1) self-discipline; (2) trials; (3) temptations; (4) persecution because of the faith; and (5) natural difficulties in life. That suggests the believer shouldn't complain, blame others, or retaliate. Lord, I will suffer hardship in life, knowing my suffering can never equal Your suffering for sin. Help me when I'm tempted to give up, and strengthen my weaknesses. Amen.

⁸Lord, I will remember the gospel of Jesus Christ; He was a descendant of David, He died for me, and He was raised from the dead. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁹This is the gospel for which Paul was being persecuted. Paul was chained like a criminal, but Your gospel is not chained. ¹⁰Paul suffered all his persecutions for the sake of those who have believed the gospel, that they may be saved by Jesus Christ and obtain eternal glory that comes to those who are saved. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ¹¹Lord,

Paul gave Timothy a faithful saying that he could rely on and share with others. If I have died with Christ on the cross, I will live with Him in heaven. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ¹²If I hold firm in my profession of faith, I will reign with Him in glory. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ¹³If I deny Christ, He will deny me. If I become faithless, Christ is always faithful. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

¹⁴Lord, Paul told Timothy to remind the church about this truth and not argue with anyone over this statement of faith because it will only confuse those who are listening. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ¹⁵I will study to know everything about Christianity, so I can be Your approved workman. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

Christians are exhorted to be "a workman who does not need to be ashamed" (2:15). In one sense the quality of work we do is an extension of the quality of our character, so we must do our best at all times, in all situations, for all tasks. Lord, I want to please You in all my work. Give me wisdom, strength, precision, and endurance to do my best at all times. Help me learn from failure, and motivate me when the job is less than perfect. Amen.

¹⁶I will not be ashamed of my ministry, but will rightly handle the word of truth. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ¹⁷I will avoid foolish discussions which make people get angry and sin against one another, as it destroyed Hymenaeus and Philetus. ¹⁸They claimed the resurrection of the dead had passed, departing from the truth of God; then they dragged others down with their self-destruction. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁹Lord, even though there are false teachers, I know Your truth is as solid as a rock. You know all who belong to You, and all who call on Your name must avoid doing wrong things. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²⁰Lord, in a large home there are all kinds of dishes, some are made of gold and silver, others of wood and clay. Some dishes are used for special occasions; other dishes are used for ordinary things. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} ²¹I want to be a special dish used by my Master, Jesus Christ, and kept ready for His good work. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21}

Dishes are made of different kinds of material: gold, silver, wood, and clay. Each dish has a different purpose. Paul admonishes each believer to "purge himself [and] be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, and fit for the master's use" (v. 21, KJV). Lord, show me any sin or weakness in my life that keeps me from service. Forgive me and cleanse me, then use me in Your service. I want to do "good works." Amen.

²²Instead of giving into the lust of youth, I will seek holiness, faith, love, and peace in fellowship with all who call on the Lord. {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ²³I will avoid foolish arguments that upset people, and lead to quarrels. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} ²⁴So I will not quarrel with anyone, but will be kind, a good teacher, and patient with all. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²⁵I will be gentle when I correct people who disagree with me, remembering You can change their minds {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁶so that they will recognize the truth, and escape satan's grip on them, and be free of his trap. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8}

2 Timothy 3 The Prediction of Apostasy and God's Answer in Scripture

¹Lord, I know that in the last days before Christ comes, there will be dangerous times. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ²People will be aggressively self-centered and greedy for money, boastful, arrogant, and will scoff at You. They will be contentious and ungrateful to their parents, and lack any sensitivity for people. ³They will be inhumane, without love and without forgiveness, and they will be sarcastic, violent, and rebellious. ⁴They will hate anything good, but they will be treacherous, rash, conceited, and addicted to pleasure, rather than lovers of God. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 5They will say they are Christians and they attend church, but their lives will deny what they profess. I won't have anything to do with these people, and I'll keep away from them. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 6Lord, these types of people break up homes, having sex with stupid people who are obsessed with sex, trying one fantasy after another. ⁷They continually try to educate themselves, but they never come to the truth. {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22} ⁸Men like this defy the truth just as Jannes and Jambres defied Moses, they have polluted minds and they have turned against the Christian faith. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ⁹And in the long run they won't be very influential; their folly will be their downfall, and everyone will see their rebellion. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Paul warns "in the last days perilous times shall come" (3:1, KJV). Therefore we should prepare ourselves by prayer when heresy, persecution, false teachers, and extreme temptation come in the last days. Lord, I know You will come to deliver us in the last days, but before that we will endure a compromising church, false teachers, extreme sin, and all kinds of trials and temptations. Make me strong to stand against sin and to stand for You. Give me wisdom against false teachers, and boldness against compromise. Keep me when I can't keep myself. Amen.

¹⁰Lord, I know that Paul taught that we who believe in God should also live godly lives. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹¹Just as Paul demonstrated faith, patience, and love in a consistent life-long way, Paul was persecuted in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra, but You Lord, rescued him from all of them. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹²Therefore anyone who tries to live a life dedicated to Christ will be attacked. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11}

Jesus warned that those who follow Him will suffer persecution (John 15:18-25). Paul issued the same warning, "All that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (3:12, KJV). Therefore we must (1) pray for those being persecuted; (2) prepare ourselves to remain true in persecution; (3) pray to be strong against evil; (4) pray for our testimony; and (5) pray for "dying grace" should we need it. Lord, my persecution is nothing like the persecution You suffered in death. Help me be ready when extreme persecution comes; may I stand and glorify You in times of trial. Amen.

¹³These wicked imposters of Christianity will go from bad to worse, deceiving themselves as they deceive others. 14Lord, I will be true to the teachings of Scripture, remembering who my teachers were and what they taught me, just as 15Timothy remembered his teachers from childhood, making him wise in the Scriptures so that he accepted Christ as his Savior and was saved. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ¹⁶The whole Bible was written by Your inspiration, and is useful to teach me the truth, and points out what is wrong in my life, helping me to do what is right. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} ¹⁷The Bible is Your tool to prepare me in every area of my life, so I can do Your work. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3}

2 Timothy 4 Paul, a Faithful Servant

¹Lord, Paul reminded Timothy that he stood before You and before Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing when He sets up His kingdom. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²I will preach Your Word continually, at every place, at all times, when it is suitable and when it is not. I will correct all false teaching and rebuke those who believe and spread it around. I will encourage all people to do the right thing all the time, based on what Your Word teaches. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

Teaching a lesson is like planting a seed; it takes time to see fruit from our endeavors. So Paul talks of ministering "with great patience and careful instruction" (4:2). Lord, as I teach Your Word, may it grow in the hearts of hearers. Give me faith to continue teaching even when I don't see results in their lives. Amen.

³Lord, the time is coming when people won't listen to the truth, but will seek out teachers who reinforce their sin. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴They won't listen to Your Word, but will live by their misguided rebellious ways. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ⁵I will be careful to always follow Your principles, and I will always be ready to suffer for Christ. I will try to win others to Christ, and do the things I should do. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7}

⁶Lord, Paul testified it was time for him to die since his life was being poured out as a sacrifice to You. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁷Paul said, "I have fought a good fight to the end, I have run the race to the finish line, I have kept true to the faith." {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ⁸Now Paul expects the crown of righteousness that You have for faithful witnesses that will be given to all who look for Christ's appearing. {94 Crown of Righteousness-Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:8}

Paul looked forward to receiving a crown of righteousness, which was the reward for giving one's life in service. It's called a martyr's crown. Jesus said, "Be faithful even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life" (Rev. 2:10). Lord, I will be faithful no matter what. I will be faithful to You because You have been faithful to me. I'll not do it for a crown, and if I receive a crown, I'll place it at Your feet in worship (Rev. 4:10). Amen.

⁹Lord, Paul asked Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ¹⁰since Demas had forsaken him, Crescens went to Galatia and Titus to Dalmatia. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ¹¹Only Luke is with Paul. Paul wants Timothy to bring Mark when he comes, and to bring his coat from Troas, and also his books and scrolls. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Paul was critical of Mark because he left Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary trip (Acts 15:37-39). Paul refused to take Mark on the second journey and split fellowship over the issue. But here Paul has forgiven Mark and requests that he come, "He is profitable to me for the ministry" (4:11, KJV). Paul learned that at times the work is bigger than the worker. Also Paul forgave those who abandoned him. Lord, take bitterness out of my heart against any who have offended me. May others forgive me for my offenses. Teach me to love Your people, both those faithful and unfaithful, but keep me faithful. Amen.

¹²Paul has sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³Lord, Paul warned Timothy about Alexander the coppersmith because he bitterly contested what Paul was teaching. {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 14Then Paul prays, "Lord, repay him for the evil he has done." 15Lord, Paul said there was no one with him when he made his first defense before the judge. 16He prayed for those who deserted him, "May they not be judged for what they did." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 17Paul testified that the Lord Jesus stood by him, and gave him power so that the message of grace was proclaimed for all the unsaved to hear it. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁸On that occasion You delivered him from being thrown to the lions. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹⁹Paul stated, "The Lord will always deliver us from danger, until it's time to go to heaven." Paul glorifies You for his deliverance thus far. ²⁰Lord, Paul told Timothy to greet Prisca and Aquilla and the household of Onesiphorus. Erastus is in Corinth, and he left Trophimus sick in Miletus. He sends greetings from Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia and the other believers. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²¹Paul wants Timothy to come here before winter. ²²Then he prays, "May the Lord Jesus Christ be with you, and may you have His grace." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Titus

CH 1: QUALIFICATIONS FOR PASTORS	.1784
Ch 2: The Work of a Pastor	. 1786
CH 3: COMMAND TO GODLY LIVING	. 1787

TITUS

Key Words: Set in order (Titus 1:5)

Key Verse: "The reason I left you in Crete was that you might straighten out what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you" (1:5).

Theme: After Paul was released from his first imprisonment in Rome about A.D. 63, he and Titus journeyed together to tour the churches, but their trip to Crete was the cause of this book. Titus was left in Crete to "straighten out" the problems they found there. First, the churches were careless about essential doctrine (3:8), and second, the churches needed to finish the work that was left undone and to appoint elders in every town (1:5).

Titus is never mentioned in Acts because he may have been the one supplying needed information to Luke, the human author. We know he was a Gentile (Gal. 2:3), who was led to Christ by Paul (Titus 1:4). The two worked together in Antioch before the Council in Jerusalem (Acts 15). Then Titus accompanied Paul on his trips (Gal. 2:1). Lord, I thank You for faithful workers like Titus who are not in the limelight. I will serve You even if I don't get recognition. Amen.

It's amazing what you can accomplish if you don't care who gets the credit.

Titus 1 Qualifications for Pastors

Paul wrote to Titus calling himself Your slave and a messenger of Jesus Christ. Paul was commissioned to preach to the elect so they would have faith in the Word of God, and be transformed in this life and gain eternal life. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ²Lord, You cannot lie; You promised eternal life before the world was created. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ³In Your plan, You revealed the gospel to Paul so he could share it with everyone.

The gospel is based on hope for a better future. So Paul has hope for the church on the island of Crete, and he leaves Titus there to straighten out things. Isn't hope the antidote for most of our problems? We need hope that God will straighten out our family and vocation problems. We need hope that our inner life can be straightened out so we do what we ought to do. Then we need hope of a better life on earth and hope for life with Jesus after the grave. Lord, thank You for giving me hope for a better life. Now I am motivated to learn and discipline myself to serving You. Now my life can be a testimony to others and bring glory to You. Thank You for hope beyond the grave for I know I will spend eternity with You. Amen.

⁴Paul wrote to Titus who shared his ministry, because Paul led Titus to Christ. Paul prayed for Titus to experience grace and peace from You the Father, and Christ Jesus the Savior. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

⁵Lord, Paul left Titus in Crete to organize churches and appoint pastors in every town. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} ⁶A pastor must have unquestioned character and be the husband of one wife. His children must be believers, and he must not be charged with disorderly conduct. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁷A pastor will be Your representative to the people, so he must be blameless, never arrogant, short-tempered, violent, greedy, or a brawler. {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} 8A pastor must be hospitable, friendly, self-disciplined, fair-minded, and dedicated. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} 9He must have a firm grip on the message of salvation, and must agree with the doctrine Paul taught, so that he can teach sound doctrine to all, and refute those who oppose it. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16}

¹⁰Paul said there were many rebellious Christians in Crete who must be dealt with because they say all Christians must keep the Jewish ceremonial law. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 11Paul told Titus to silence them because they were ruining whole families just to make money. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 12Then Paul quoted a Cretian poet who said, "Cretians are nothing but liars, dangerous beasts who live to fill their bellies." 13 Therefore Paul wanted Titus to correct them harshly and point them to sound doctrine, ¹⁴so they will stop listening to Jewish fables and stop obeying rules that are man-made because these things turn believers from the truth. 15Lord, those who are committed to purity will find purity in their search for truth. Those who are rebellious and evil in their thinking will find the corruption they seek. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁶They claim to know God personally, but their actions deny their search for truth. They are outrageously rebellious toward You, and everything they do is evil. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

Paul left Titus in Crete to straighten out things in a disorderly church that was plagued with internal strife and doctrinal problems. The first step in spiritual house-cleaning is prayer (1) that leaders are biblical (Titus 1:6-9); (2) that false teachers are silenced (Titus 1:10-13); (3) that family relationships are appropriate (2:1-10); (4) that salvation is correctly understood (2:11-15); and (5) that personal conduct is biblical and kind (3:1-11). Lord, I will pray before I attempt to straighten out things in my life or in the church. Give Your wisdom to me on how to proceed and what to do. Give me kindness for people and firm belief in Scripture. Help me do all things decently and in order. Amen.

Titus 2 The Work of a Pastor

¹Lord, Paul told Titus to teach sound doctrine, ²and to tell the older men to be serious about the truth, self-disciplined, and dignified, and to do everything patiently and quietly; but most of all, to be men of faith. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Twice Paul exhorts "healthy" spiritual living. He calls it "healthy teaching" (the process), and "healthy message" (the product we deliver). The King James Version calls it sound doctrine. We should pray for the message we deliver and the way we deliver it. Lord, help me give out the Word of God in a healthy way, and to use the message of salvation to produce spiritual health in those who hear it. Amen.

³Lord, Paul told Titus to teach the older women that they must be holy in behavior, and that they must not gossip nor get drunk, and to be the teachers of godliness. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ⁴Older women must teach the younger women to behave rightly, love their husbands, and love their children. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁵Younger women must be sexually pure, gentle, keep their houses clean, and obey their husbands so they don't disgrace the gospel with their lifestyle. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} 6Lord, Paul told the younger men to behave, and to be serious about their duties in life. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} 7They should be an example of sincerity and honesty, and keep their promises {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} 8so no one can accuse them of lying, and they must not take advantage of others financially. 9Lord, Paul told the workers to be obedient to their bosses, and obey the orders given to them, and never steal anything from them but be completely honest at all times. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁰Slaves must strive to be an example of Christianity in everything they do.

Paul wants Titus to "set in order" or "straighten out" the church at Crete. Outward order begins with inward discipline. So Paul exhorts self-discipline for women (2:5), for men (2:6), and for all new converts (2:12). So we must pray for self-discipline, because controlling ourselves is the first order of business in bringing order to any situation. Lord, I want to be more disciplined; show me why I have difficulty controlling myself. Then give me the strength of Christ to bring into control my mind, appetite, actions, and reactions to others. Amen.

¹¹Lord, You revealed Your grace to us, and made it available to the entire human race. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} 12You have taught us to deny ourselves of everything that does not lead us to godliness. You have taught us to deny our pride and sinful ambitions, to discipline ourselves, and live good lives, here and now in this present world. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} 13Lord, I am looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of Jesus Christ my Savior and God. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ¹⁴He sacrificed Himself for me to set me free from all contamination and wickedness. Jesus has purified His people to be His very own, and He always wants them to do the right thing. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

Sometimes we must correct others. Realizing that most people do not like to be corrected, we should begin with prayer (1) for the ones we've corrected, to receive our admonition; (2) for us to have the right attitude; (3) for the problem we're correcting; and (4) for God to be glorified in the process of correcting. Lord, I don't like to correct other people; give me grace and humility to do it. Bless me when I correct others so that You are glorified and the problem is solved. Amen.

¹⁵Paul told Titus to teach these truths and then rebuke any who would not listen to him. And finally, he encouraged Titus not to let anyone despise him personally. Paul reminds us we are "looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing" (2:13, KJV). So we should pray (1) for patience when things go wrong; (2) for people to be saved before He returns; and (3) for us to work faithfully as we wait. Lord, I look for Your return to receive us into glory. Give me patience in a world that is driven by sin. I want to be delivered from problems and trials. But motivate me to work faithfully for You while there is time to win more people to salvation. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

Titus 3 Command to Godly Living

¹Lord, I will be obedient to government officials, and will obey all civic laws, and I'll work honestly for a living. I will not slander government rulers, nor will I pick fights with them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²But I will be courteous to them and be kind to all people. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ³I remember I was once foolish and rebellious to laws, and rude to people because I was a slave to my lusts. I lived for sinful pleasures, hating people, and being hated by them.

Paul wanted everyone to obey God, and he emphasized this point by reminding his readers that he once was disobedient. He then went on to describe his being a slave to all kinds of human desires and pleasures (3:3). Technically when we obey, it is not our own initiative, because "it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do" (Phil. 2:13, KJV). Therefore we should praise God for our obedience, whether quick or slow; whether partial or complete. Lord, I praise You for the spirit of obedience You've placed within my heart. May I grow stronger and quicker in my daily obedience; and may You be glorified in my obedience. Amen.

⁴Lord, then You revealed Your kindness and love to save me; {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 5I was not saved by my works of righteousness, but I was saved by Your mercy. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} You washed my sins way, and I was born again by the working of the Holy Spirit in my life which You abundantly poured out to me through Jesus Christ my Savior. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} 7Jesus did this so I might be justified in Your sight, and I became Your heir, looking forward to inheriting eternal life with You. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ⁸Lord, I rely on Your truth and will affirm it constantly so that they who believe in You for salvation will be careful to maintain good works. This truth is good and it works for me, and will work for all who believe it. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Paul thanks God for His mercy that saved us from sin by the "washing of rebirth" (3:5). We are born again by the renewing of the Holy Spirit" (v. 5). Lord, thank You that I was born again where You gave me a new nature with new desires to serve You, and You made me a member of the family of God. Thank You for forgiveness of sins, a transformed life, and access to God the Father. Amen.

⁹Lord, Paul told Titus not to argue over pointless questions, and genealogies, and controversies over the Jewish law. They are useless and cannot help anyone. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ¹⁰If anyone quarrels about this truth after the first and second rebuke, put him out of the church. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹¹That type of person has already condemned himself and has rejected the truth.

¹²Lord, Paul promised to send Artemas or Tychicus to Titus, and then he was to join him at Nicopolis where Paul planned to spend the winter. {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ¹³He told Titus to make travel plans for Zenas the lawyer and Apollos. ¹⁴Paul wanted all believers to help others who have need, as this makes their lives productive. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁵Everyone with Paul sent greetings to Titus, and he finally prays, "Grace be with you." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

PHILEMON

Сн 1: А	Prayer	FOR	Forgiv	ENESS	AND	Restor	ATION
			• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •		•••••	•••••	1	791

PHILEMON

Key Word: Profitable (Philemon v. 11)

Key Verse: "I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten while in my chains, who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me" (Philem. 10-11).

Theme: Onesimus (meaning "profitable") had robbed his master Philemon in Colosse and escaped to Rome. Then by providence, Paul crossed paths with Onesimus and led him to Christ. Then Onesimus began serving Paul who was renting "his own rented house" (Acts 28:30) where he was continually chained to an armed Roman soldier (Acts 28:16). Eventually Paul sent Onesimus back home with this letter that asked Philemon to forgive Onesimus and treat him as a "brother in Christ." Paul could ask this because he had led Philemon to Christ (v. 19). Paul pleads, "But if he has wronged you or owes anything, put that on my account" (v. 18).

This short letter is a picture of redemption. Onesimus represents us who have sinned against God the Father, who is represented by Philemon. Paul, representing Christ, intercedes for the Father to forgive our sin. Christ asks the Father to put our sin to His account (2 Cor. 5:21). Lord, I am a sinner who deserves punishment and death. I come through the intercession of Christ because He paid the price for my sin. Thank You for putting my sin on Christ's account. Amen.

Philemon 1 A Prayer for Forgiveness and Restoration

Paul wrote a letter with Timothy from his prison in Rome to Philemon, a rich Christian in Colosse. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²The letter was also addressed to Philemon's wife Apphia, and to his son Archippus, a church leader in the Colossian church. ³Paul prayed for grace and peace on the life of Philemon from You, our heavenly Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴He also thanked You for Philemon and made a commitment to continue praying for him, {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ⁵that Philemon would keep trusting the Lord Jesus and develop deep love for Your children. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁶Lord, Paul said Philemon was fully committed to the work of God, and as Philemon put his generosity to work, he would understand what he could really accomplish. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 7Philemon's generosity had given Paul joy and comfort, and refreshed Paul's heart in serving God. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 8Lord, Paul boldly asked a favor from Philemon, even though Paul could have demanded it because of all he had done for Philemon. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} Paul asked that his request be received from a friend, since he was now an old man and in prison for the sake of Christ. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} 10 Lord, Paul requested kindness be shown to Onesimus, a runaway slave from Philemon, whom Paul had led to Christ. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ¹¹Onesimus was not much use to Philemon in the past, but now Onesimus is useful to both of them because he had been serving Paul in prison. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} ¹²Paul says, "I am sending Onesimus back to you and part of my heart goes with him." 13Lord, Paul really wanted to keep Onesimus in Rome to do things for him that he couldn't do because his chains restricted him. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁴Onesimus could have helped Paul's ministry, and that would be Philemon's contribution to Paul, but Paul didn't want to make Onesimus stay in Rome without Philemon's consent. And Paul didn't want to force Philemon to let Onesimus stay in Rome with him. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁵Lord, Onesimus ran away for a little while, so Philemon could have him permanently. ¹⁶But not taken back just as a slave, but received as a beloved brother in Christ. Onesimus will do more for Philemon now as a brother than he previously did as a slave because now he belongs to You. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

The name Onesimus means "useful." He was previously un-useful because he stole from his master Philemon and ran away. Paul led Onesimus to Christ in Rome when Paul was a prisoner. Paul reasons, "Who once was unprofitable to you, but now is profitable to you and to me" (v. 11). Paul concludes that Onesimus is "not now as a servant... a brother beloved, specially to me" (v. 16). Then picturing salvation Paul said, "Accept Onesimus as you would accept me" (v. 17). Lord, I am a picture of Onesimus. I have sinned against You. Thank You for receiving me in Christ. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, Paul asked Philemon to receive Onesimus as he would receive Paul. ¹⁸If Onesimus has stolen anything or cost Philemon any money, {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ¹⁹Paul said, "Put that on my account, and I will repay it to you" (Paul did not mention that Philemon owes him his very life). {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁰Lord, this letter is a wonderful picture of Christianity. Just as Onesimus ran away from his master, so I was straying away from You. Just as Paul promises to pray for Onesimus' damages, so Christ paid for all the damages that sin did to my relationship with You. Just as Paul prays for Philemon to receive Onesimus, so Christ prays for You to receive me. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²¹Lord, Paul trusted Philemon to respond positively, then added that Philemon would do more than he asked. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Lord, Paul added one more request: "Get a room ready for me, and pray God will send me to see you." ²³Paul sent greetings from Epaphras, Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, his co-laborers. ²⁴Paul concludes by praying, ²⁵"The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you."

Philemon was a rich businessman in Colosse who owned a slave named Onesimus. Paul begins by (1) thanking God for Philemon's love for people and his faith in God (v. 5); (2) Paul recalls his active faith (a church meets in his home, he has encouraged many, and is considered a partner of Paul) (v. 17); (3) Paul prays that "the communication of thy faith may become effectual" (v. 6); (4) Paul wants Philemon not to punish Onesimus for running away, but to receive him back as a brother and to forgive any charges against Onesimus (he probably stole before he ran away); (5) the basis of Paul's request is relationship, he led both Philemon (v. 19) and Onesimus (vv. 10-11) to Christ; and (6) Paul's request to Philemon is a picture of redemption. Onesimus represents sinners who run from God, but repent and ask for forgiveness. Philemon represents the Father against whom the sinner rebels. Paul represents Christ who asks that the sin of the sinner be charged to His account. Lord, I love this picture that tells my sins were charged to Jesus and He paid redemption's price. I am no longer a slave, but a member of the Father's family. He receives me back as a brother (v. 16). Amen.

Hebrews

CH 1: JESUS IS BETTER THAN THE PROPHETS1796
Ch 2: First Warning against Neglect1798
CH 3: JESUS IS BETTER THAN MOSES1799
CH 4: JESUS IS BETTER THAN THE SABBATH1801
CH 5: JESUS IS BETTER THAN HUMAN PRIEST1802
Ch 6: Third Warning about Disobedience
(CONTINUED)1803
CH 7: JESUS IS BETTER THAN MELCHIZEDEK1805
CH 8: JESUS IS BETTER THAN AARON (CONTINUED) 1807
Ch 9: Jesus Is Better than the Old Sanctuary 1808
Ch 10: Jesus Is Better than the Old Sacrifices
(CONTINUED)1810
CH 11: THE SUPERIORITY OF FAITH IN JESUS1813
Ch 12: The Superiority of Faith in Jesus
(CONTINUED)1816
CH 13: FAITH IN IESUS IS THE BETTER WAY1818

HEBREWS

Key Word: Better (occurs 11 times)

Key Verse: "Dear friends, we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation" (Hebrews 6:9).

Theme: God used the book of Hebrews to stop the Jewish Christians in Jerusalem and around the world from going back into the temple and resorting to Old Testament religious practices and celebrations. They may have gone back into the temple because of their religious heritage, or because of their natural commitment to friends and relatives who were not converted to Christ. But the longer they remained in the temple, the more likely they were caught up in its practices, and eventually they would backslide.

Therefore the author tells them Christ is "better" than angels (1:4-2:18), better than Moses (3:1-19), better than the Sabbath (4:1-16), better than the priesthood (5:1-8:5), better than the covenants (8:6-7), better than the temple (9:1, 10:39), and better than Old Testament heroes (11:1-12:2). The author also interjects warnings (called parentheses) throughout the book: 2:1-4; 5:11-6:12; 10:26-39; 12:3-17; 12:25-29. He warns that in the temple "no sacrifice for sins is left" (10:26). Christ is the "better" sacrifice and the "better" high priest. When the Jews offered temple sacrifices, they had "trampled the Son of God under foot" and "created as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant and...insulted the Spirit of grace" (10:29). Lord, You are better than all religious services and worship expressions. You are my life and salvation. I put my trust in You, You are better than anything this world can offer. Amen.

Hebrews 1 Jesus Is Better than the Prophets long ago You spoke in many different ways at many different times to past believers, by the prophets, giving them a partial picture of Your eternal plan. ²But You spoke completely and finally through Your Son to whom You have given everything, and through whom You created the universe. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ³Your Son is the radiance of Your glory and the exact representation of Your nature. His power sustains all things. After the Son provided forgiveness of sins, He sat down at Your right hand in glory. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3}

During Bible times God spoke through prophets, miracles, and many other means, but finally God spoke the ultimate message in Jesus. Today we get the complete message of God from the Scriptures. It tells of our Savior Jesus Christ from the beginning to the end. When God speaks, we must listen and pray to understand (through scriptural insight) what God says to us. Then we must live by the message we have heard from God. Lord, I will spend time listening to Your message spoken through the Scriptures. I will listen to Jesus, and learn as much about Him as possible. Speak now...speak clearly...speak specifically to me...I'm listening. Amen.

Jesus Is Better than Angels

⁴Your Son is much greater than the angels, His name—Jesus, Savior—is much greater than theirs. {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6}

The key word in Hebrews is "better." (1) Jesus is better than the angels; (2) Jesus is better than Moses; (3) Jesus is better than the Sabbath; (4) Jesus is better than the high priests; (5) Jesus is better than the covenants; and (6) Jesus is better than the sacrifices. Jesus is better than anything the Hebrews had in the Old Testament. Therefore we must praise God for all He's done for us in Jesus. Lord, living for Jesus is better than my former life. Jesus' salvation is better than anything I could ever do for myself. The indwelling Jesus is better than emptiness without Him. Yes, Jesus is better, and I praise You for Him. Amen.

⁵You never said to the angels, "You are My Son, since I have become Your Father." You never said about the angels, "I am His Father, He will be My Son." 6You said, "When I bring the firstborn into the world, let all the angels worship Him." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ⁷You said, "I make the angels swift as the wind, and My servants will punish with fire." {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 8But about the Son You said, "Your kingdom, O God, will last forever and ever, and You will rule in righteousness; {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} 9You love righteousness and hate iniquity. Therefore Your throne—Jesus—is set above all others, and I, the Father, will pour out the oil of righteousness on You." You called Your Son-Lord—when You said, {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 10"In the beginning, O Lord, You laid the foundation of the earth; the heavens were the work of Your hand. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹¹The heavens will vanish, but You, My Son, remain; 12they will wear out like old clothes but You, My Son, will remain forever and Your years will never end." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹³You never said to any angel, "Sit at My right hand until I humble your enemies under your feet." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

We must worship Jesus because His salvation is so much better than all the people and means God used to save people in the Old Testament. Jesus is the centerpiece of salvation and we should worship Him, which means giving Jesus the worthship that is due to Him. Lord Jesus, I worship You because You became flesh to live among us as my example. I worship You for Your perfect life and life-changing teaching. I worship You for suffering in my place and dying for my sin to give me forgiveness and cleansing. I worship You for Your resurrection that gives me new life. I worship You because You became my High Priest who intercedes for me now in heaven. Amen.

¹⁴No, You didn't exalt any angel because they are spirits who minister to You in worship, and they minister to those who will receive salvation. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

We should thank God for the ministry of angels. Angels are "ministering spirits" (1:14). The word "ministering" is a synonym for the ministry of worship, in which our worship ministers to God. Just as we minister to God when teaching the Word, or we minister to God when we serve, so we minister to God with our worship. Lord, I serve You with the worship of my hands, my tongue, and my music. I worship You with my money and my holy living. Amen.

Hebrews 2 First Warning against Neglect

¹Lord, I will pay careful attention to the biblical things I've heard so that I don't drift away from You. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ²Because the message spoken by angels was true, and every disobedience has its own judgment, no one will go unpunished if he neglects Your salvation that is promised to him. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 3The promise was first announced by Jesus Himself and passed on to us by them who heard Him speak. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 4You confirmed this message with signs, miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed to them. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

Christ Is Better than Created Man

⁵Lord, You did not make angels rulers of the world to come, but You made Your Son ruler of everything. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} David said in the psalms, "What is man that You are concerned about him, but you honor the son of man? {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} 7You made him a little lower than angels, so You could crown him with glory and honor, and You put everything under his feet. 8You left nothing that was not put under Your Son, yet at the present time, everything is not subject to him." 9We see Jesus, who for a short time was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and splendor in heaven, because by Your grace He submitted to death for all mankind. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹⁰Lord, it was Your purpose to allow Christ to suffer, because through His death Jesus brought many to heaven and He became the leader of their salvation by His sufferings. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 11We have been made holy by Jesus, we have the same Father, and Jesus is not ashamed to call me His brother. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ¹²For Jesus predicted in Psalms, "I will tell My brothers about the Father and in their presence I will praise Him." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹³At another place Jesus said, "I will trust My Father," and again He said, "Here I am with Your children You have given Me." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹⁴Since all Your human children have flesh and blood. Iesus shared this same humanity, so that by death, He could destroy the one who holds the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and free all those held captive by the fear of death for their entire lives. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹⁶Lord, I know You don't give this ministry to angels, but You minister to the children of Abraham. 17 Therefore, Lord Jesus, You became like man, that You might be a merciful and faithful intercessor to the Father for us and satisfy His wrath against us. ¹⁸Because You suffered willingly, even when You were tempted to by-pass the cross, You are now able to help me and others when we are tempted.

We should be grateful that Jesus suffered in our place so that we do not have to suffer punishment for our sins. Lord, thank You for sending Your Son to suffer in my place, so I don't have to suffer for my sins. The cross was not an accident or the results of hateful vengeance. You planned for my salvation and sent Your Son to suffer for me. I bow in gratitude and worship for Your great plan to save those who believe in You. Amen.

Hebrews 3 Jesus Is Better than Moses

¹Lord, because You have set me apart for Christ, and because You have chosen me by a heavenly calling, You want me to fix my thoughts on Jesus the Apostle and High Priest of my faith. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ²Jesus faithfully served You as a Priest just as Moses faithfully served You in the holy sanctuary.

Moses was faithful to his calling just as Christ was faithful to death. We should pray to be faithful to our calling. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} We have the examples of faithful biblical servants, and we have the indwelling of Christ's strength to make us faithful. So God will help us, "Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it" (1 Thess. 5:24, KJV). Lord, I have a deep desire to be faithful, but I also have an old nature that tempts me to sin. Keep me faithful by Your strength and I will be faithful. Amen.

³But Jesus was worthy of greater honor than Moses, just as the builder has greater honor than the house he built. {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6} ⁴Every house is built by someone, but You are the builder of everything. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

⁵Moses was faithful to serve in Your house, his work was a type—an illustration—of Christ's work that was coming, {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ⁶but Christ has complete authority over Your house. And as a Christian, I am part of Your house so I will cling with confidence to that hope to the end. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

Second Warning against Unbelief

⁷Lord, when I hear Your voice speaking to me, {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} ⁸I will not stubbornly resist You as Israel rebelled against You and wandered in the desert 40 years. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Today is the only day God can work in my life. Yesterday is past and is history. Tomorrow has not yet come; it is a dream and goal for all that I do today. I can't serve God tomorrow, at least not yet. But today is now. And perhaps now is God's favorite word for service, for now is the time God can do His work in my life. Lord, thank You for today; I will use today for Your glory because when it's gone, I'll not have another chance to use that moment of time. Today is now, so I'll serve You immediately. Amen.

⁹In the desert the Israelites constantly tested You and disobeyed You, even though they knew what You did in the past for them. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁰That is why You were angry with them and said, ¹¹"Their hearts are hardened and they refuse to obey Me; they shall never enter into the rest I have for them." ¹²Lord, I do not have a disobedient heart that rejects You. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

Because we have an old nature that would pull us away from God, we must protect ourselves with prayer and Bible study to keep our hearts from unbelief. Lord, I admit I am not perfect. I am tempted to doubt Your Word and existence. Keep my heart from unbelief. I will study Your Word continually, and attend church faithfully, and serve You constantly so I'll not be tempted to doubt You. Amen.

¹³I will listen to Your Word today so I won't develop an unbelieving, stubborn heart. {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} 14I will faithfully trust You to the end, just as when I was first saved so I can share all the blessings You have planned for me. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ¹⁵But now, I will not harden my heart as Israel did in the desert. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁶The Jews were the people who heard Your voice and rebelled. They were the ones Moses delivered out of Egypt. ¹⁷They were those who made You angry so You made them wander in the desert 40 years because of their sin. Their bodies were buried in the wilderness. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev.

17:5} ¹⁸Those were the ones You swore would never enter Your rest; why couldn't they enter the Promised Land? {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁹It was because of their unbelief. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Hebrews 4 Jesus Is Better than the Sabbath

¹Lord, since Your promise of entering Your rest still stands, I will be careful not to neglect entering Your rest. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 2You had the gospel preached to me just as it was preached to Israel, but they couldn't take advantage of it because of unbelief. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 3Now I can enter Your rest by faith, because You said, "I made an oath that those who will not believe Me, cannot enter My rest." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 4I know Your rest is waiting for me because I will finish my work. After You worked six days, You rested on the seventh day because You finished all Your work. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

God rested after the creation week on the seventh day as our example and as a promise to us. Obviously we still have a seventh day of rest available to us, but God also promises a "rest for the people of God" (4:9). Jesus said, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28). Lord, I'm weary in this body; I need rest every night to make it through tomorrow. But I also want an inner rest; give me inner peace and assurance. Ah...Your rest is so good, I like it. Amen.

⁵The promise remains for some to enter Your rest today, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁶even though those who heard the gospel preached to them rejected it. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ⁷God still warns through the words of David, "Today, if you hear God's voice, do not harden your hearts against Him." {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} 8If the promised rest was the land into which Joshua led them, God would not have later promised a different rest. Therefore there remains a Sabbath-rest for you who read this letter. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} 10When you enter your rest, you cease from your labor, just as the Father ceased from His labor. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹¹Therefore I will make every effort to enter Your rest, being careful not to disobey You as the Israelites did in the wilderness, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 12Lord, Your Word is alive and active, sharper than a two-edged sword, piercing the unseen things such as my soul and spirit, exposing my thoughts and attitudes for what they are. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12}

The Scriptures have life and energy when they enter a person's heart. (1) They convict of sin; (2) they make people uncomfortable in their sin; (3) they cause people to see God's judgment of their sin; and (4) they explain Jesus' death; and (5) they motivate people to repent and turn to God. Therefore we should pray for God to use the Scriptures in the lives of our unsaved family and friends. Lord, use the Bible in the lives of my unsaved family and friends to "slice between their soul and spirit" so they will come to faith in Jesus Christ. Amen.

¹³Lord, You know everything about everyone. Nothing is hidden from You who will judge everyone, so You know who will enter Your rest. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

¹⁴Lord, Jesus Your Son has gone to heaven as my great High Priest, so I will hold fast to my faith. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ¹⁵My High Priest understands me and sympathizes with my weaknesses because He was tempted in all parts of His being, just as I am, yet He did not commit sin. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹⁶So I will come boldly to Your throne and I will receive mercy and find grace in my hour of need. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5}

Hebrews 5 Jesus Is Better than Human Priest

¹Lord, the human high priest was selected from among human men, and was chosen to represent Your people before You. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²He sympathized with the ignorant and those who made mistakes, because as a mortal, the high priest was subject to weaknesses. ³This is why the high priest offered sacrifices for his own sins before he offered them for anyone else. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴No one makes a choice to be a high priest; he must be chosen by God, just as Aaron was chosen. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

When God calls a person to serve Him with all of his time and energy, he must respond wholeheartedly. Today this is described as a calling to full-time service. Many were born into the Levitical family, but only a few were called to be priests (Heb. 5:4). The one called must have his sins forgiven before he preaches forgiveness to others (5:3). One other qualification is a prayer ministry, that is, he "offered up prayers and petitions" (5:7). When God calls a person, he must pray, "Not as I will, but as thou wilt" (Matt. 26:39, KJV). Lord, I may not be called to full-time ministry, but nevertheless may Your will be done in my life. I will serve You with all my heart, whether in full-time ministry or not. Amen.

⁵So Christ did not make the choice to be the High Priest, but the Father chose Him, saying, "You are My Son, today I have become Your Father." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ⁶Again the Father said, "You are a priest forever in the priestly order of Melchizedek." {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} ⁷In His earthly days Jesus prayed with loud cries and tears to God who could save Him from death, and He was heard because of His obedience. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1}

God hears the prayers of those who fear Him, "He had offered up prayers... and was heard in that he feared" (5:7). Fear is more than the negative of being scared by God's anger or judgment; it is positive reverential trust in His sovereign control of all things. Lord, I am afraid of not obeying You because I know about Your final judgment on sin and rebellion. But I also respectfully reverence You for Your absolute power to do Your will. So I will obey You and trust Your power to accomplish Your will in my life. Therefore I pray with confidence that Your will be done. Amen.

⁸Although Jesus was Your Son, He learned what obedience was like when he experienced suffering. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁹It was after this experience that Jesus became the giver of eternal life to those who obey Him. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ¹⁰Then You declared Jesus to be the High Priest after the order of Melchizedek. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1}

Third Warning against Disobedience

¹¹The author had a lot more to say about the priesthood of Melchizedek, but the readers didn't fully understand what he wrote. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ¹²When they ought to be teachers, they were still students; needing someone to teach them the elementary truths of Christianity. They needed milk, not solid food! {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} ¹³Spiritual babies still live on milk, not knowing how to live right because ¹⁴solid food is for mature Christians who by training can distinguish between good and evil. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12}

Hebrews 6 Third Warning about Disobedience (Continued)

¹Lord, I won't stay with the elementary teachings about salvation, but I'll go on to maturity in Christ. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8}

The basic nature of prayer is relationship; it is a two-way communication between you and God. You both talk and you both listen. In chapter 6 the author is describing basic Christianity, that is, "The elementary teachings about Christ" (6:1). While basic prayer is good and necessary, we should "go on to maturity" (6:1). We do that by building on the basics. Lord, I love my basic relationship with You. Pull me back if I ever get away from my basic relationship with You. I will talk to You in prayer, and let You talk to me through the Word, and then I will talk to lost people about salvation. Keep me basic. Amen.

²I won't go back to my original repentance from sin, nor will I keep studying my baptism, or my spiritual gifts, or the resurrection from the dead, or eternal judgment. ³Lord, I will build my life on these foundational truths and grow to maturity in my daily walk with You. ⁴It's impossible for those who are saved to go back to the temple to have their sins forgiven by a blood sacrifice. 5 If a person knew Jesus Christ, and tasted the heavenly gift, and had been filled with the Holy Spirit, and understood the Scriptures, and felt the assurance of heaven, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁶and he turns against You, it's impossible to be spiritually renewed in the temple. When they sacrifice a lamb, it's like crucifying again the Son of God and torturing Him anew. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 7When farm land drinks in the rain from heaven, it grows a good crop because it experiences Your blessing; that's a picture of our spiritual prosperity from You. 8But if farm land keeps growing weeds and thorns, the land is worthless, and it might as well be cursed; that's a picture of a person who doesn't produce spiritual fruit. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36}

⁹Even though the writer warns the readers, he thinks they will do better things for You. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} ¹⁰Lord, You are not unjust, You'll not forget a person's faith, nor his love, nor his good works. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ¹¹I will show the same diligence to the very end of life, so I will get my full reward when I get to heaven. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ¹²I will not become lazy, but will follow the example of those who through faith and patience received the prize. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

Jesus Is Better than Abraham

¹³I know You will do what You promised. When You made a promise to Abraham, since You couldn't swear by any other, You swore by Yourself. {13 All-Time Praying, Heb. 7:26} ¹⁴You promised to bless Abraham and give him many descendants; 15so Abraham received a son after waiting patiently for many years. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ¹⁶People today swear an oath by someone greater than themselves to guarantee what they promise and end all arguments. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁷Because You wanted to make it very clear to Your children what You would do, You guaranteed it with Your oath. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ¹⁸Lord, You have given me two things: Your promise and Your oath, and since it's impossible for You to lie, I know without a doubt that I'll receive eternal life that You've promised. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} 19I have this certain hope of heaven as an anchor of the soul for I'm connected to Christ who has gone before me, {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ²⁰to enter the most holy place in heaven, where He intercedes for me as my High Priest. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5}

We should have confident hope in the future. Why? (1) Because God has promised we will live with Him, and "It is impossible for God to lie" (6:18); (2) because we have a safe anchor (6:19); and (3) Jesus has already gone to heaven and we are "in Him," so positionally we are actually in heaven. Lord, I feel Your Spirit stirring in my soul and it gives me hope of heaven. But I also know You promised I would live with You (John 14:2-3). That too gives me hope of heaven. But most of all I know Jesus has already gone to heaven, and I am in Him, so that guarantees that I will go there when I die. Amen.

Hebrews 7 Jesus Is Better than Melchizedek

¹Lord, Jesus became a priest after the order of Melchizedek, who was king of Salem and Your priest; he called You by the name El Elyon, Possessor of heaven and earth. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} 2When Abraham returned home after defeating the kings, Melchizedek interceded for him. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 3Then Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he gained. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ⁴The name Melchizedek means "king of righteousness," and the title king of Salem means "king of peace." {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} 5 There is no record he had any previous ancestors, or that he died; he is like the Son of God, a priest forever. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 6Lord, Melchizedek was great, even Abraham, the Father of the Jews, gave him a tenth of all he had. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ⁷The Old Testament required the descendants of Levi who became priests to collect a tenth from all the people, that is, their brothers. {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} 8However, Melchizedek did not trace his heritage to Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him. The one who has power to bless is the greater. {371 Prayers Received by Christ, Heb. 7:8, KJV}

The King James Version translates this verse, "Here men that die receive tithes, but there He receiveth them" (7:8). The word "there" is a reference to heaven, which is the opposite of earth, and the words "He receiveth," are a reference to Jesus to whom we pay tithes. We give our money on this earth, but Jesus in heaven receives the gift. When we do anything for God on this earth—including prayer—Jesus receives the gift in heaven. Lord Jesus, thank You for receiving my prayers and all other things I do for You. You are the focus of my love; I do all for You. Amen.

⁹In the case of Levi, ordinary mortals received tithes, but Melchizedek who received tithes lives forever. ¹⁰Levi, who was in the body of Abraham, paid tithes to Melchizedek who lives forever. ¹¹Therefore the Jewish priests who came from the rank of Levi couldn't save us, but God sent us Christ as a priest from the rank of Melchizedek to save us.

Jesus Is Better than Aaron

¹²For there to be a change of priesthood, there also needed to be a change of law. ¹³Jesus who became a Priest, was from the tribe of Judah, not from the tribe of Levi. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁴Moses didn't write anything about a person from Judah to serve as a priest at the altar. ¹⁵So God's method changed because Christ's new position as High Priest came from Melchizedek. ¹⁶Christ didn't become a priest based on the requirements of Levi, but He became a priest by the power of a life lived forever. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ¹⁷The psalmist proved this about Christ, "You are a Priest forever, after the rank of Melchizedek." ¹⁸The former laws of priesthood were set aside because they were weak and useless. ¹⁹The law never saved anyone, but now we approach God with a better hope. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ²⁰God promised that Christ would be an eternal Priest; remember, God never promised this about the Levitical priests. 21Only to Christ did the Father say, "You are a Priest forever after the rank of Melchizedek." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 22Because of this oath Jesus now guarantees us a new and better covenant with God. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ²³Under the old system, there were many new priests who took the place of the older ones who died off. ²⁴But Jesus lives forever, and has a continuous priesthood, so I can come to You anytime through Jesus my Intercessor. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} ²⁵Now Jesus is able to completely save me when I come to You, since He lives forever to make intercession for me. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1}

The King James Version refers to Jesus as "this man" (7:24). Jesus is now at the right hand of God the Father in His human body, scars and all. Jesus died, was made alive, and ascended up into glory. There in His physical body, Jesus intercedes for us today: (1) in His omnipresence Jesus is everywhere present, equally, at the same time; (2) the physical presence of Jesus is at the right hand of the Father in heaven (Ps. 110:1); (3) the indwelling Jesus lives in the heart of each believer (Gal. 2:20); and (4) Jesus lives within the church, which is His body (Matt. 18:20; Eph. 1:23). Lord, I pray to You through Jesus, the man, because He is my Intercessor. Since I'm "in Christ," You accept me as You accept Jesus Christ. Amen.

²⁶Lord, Jesus is the kind of high priest I need, one who is holy, blameless, and without sin, and He has access to You in heaven. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ²⁷Jesus is not like human priests who need to sacrifice for their sins, first for themselves and then for others. Jesus sacrificed only once for all the sins of the world when He once and for all offered Himself on the cross. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} ²⁸The old law brought sinful men into the priesthood but Your oath brought Jesus into His priesthood; He is my eternally perfect Priest. {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13}

Melchizedek is described in the past tense, "Melchizedek was king of Salem" (Heb. 7:1), and "was like the Son of God" (7:3). But Jesus is described in the present tense, "Such a High Priest meets our need" (7:26). What does that mean to us? (1) Jesus is alive; He is not a dead Savior. He's not a historical past-tense person; and (2) Jesus can help us now, so we can go to the Father through Jesus our Intercessor. Anytime you have a need... anytime...you can pray. Lord, I come to You right now through Jesus my High Priest. Listen to me now. Help me now, because I need You. Amen.

Hebrews 8 Jesus Is Better than Aaron (Continued)

¹Lord, the writer makes the point that I have a High Priest who sat down at Your right hand in heaven, and {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 2who now serves in the heavenly tabernacle that You set up. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 3Since earthly priests appointed by You offer gifts and sacrifices, Christ also must make offerings for sin, but His sacrifices are far better than the Levitical sacrifices. ⁴Earthly priests serve in an earthly tabernacle that is a reflection of the one in heaven, {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} 5because when Moses built the tabernacle. You told him to build it after the pattern You showed him on the Mount. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22}

Jesus Is Better than the Old Covenant

⁶But the ministry of Christ is far better than the former priest because the new covenant is far better than the old one, and because the new covenant is based on better promises. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} ⁷If there was nothing wrong with the old covenant, there wouldn't have been a need for a new one. {320 New Covenant-Praying, Heb. 8:8} *But You realized the old covenant was limited, so You said, "The day will come when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah." {320 New Covenant-Praying, Heb. 8:8}

We have a superior ministry of approaching God in prayer, because we come through the transcending preeminence of Jesus Christ. "He obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also He is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises" (8:6, KJV). Lord, I come to You through the excellency of Jesus Christ, He is a perfect Intercessor, so I pray perfectly in Christ Jesus. You hear me because of His righteousness, not my own. Amen.

⁹It will not be like the old covenant You made with them when You led them out of Egypt. Israel did not keep their part of the covenant, so You canceled it. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹ºYou promised to write the new covenant in their hearts so they will know what You want them to do as Your people. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 11No longer will people evangelize others saying, "Know the Lord," for all will know You, from the influential to the least important. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} 12You promised to forgive their transgressions and no longer remember their sins. 13Because You called this covenant "new," You made the old covenant obsolete, and what is old becomes antiquated and disappears. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.}

When God made a new covenant with Israel, He "made the first [covenant] old" (8:13). Under the old covenant people had to sacrifice a lamb repeatedly because their sins were never completely and finally forgiven. But in Christ, sins are permanently forgiven. Under the old covenant people came to God through the outer tabernacle/ temple, but the new covenant is inner, involving a spiritual transformation of the worshiper. While Old Testament saints related to God through their Levitical priests, now all will personally know the Lord (8:11). Lord, I come to You through the foundation of the new covenant. I come directly without a priest; I come personally and intimately, I come because Jesus has forgiven all my sins. Amen.

Hebrews 9 Jesus Is Better than the Old Sanctuary

¹Lord, the old covenant had laws about how to worship and its place to worship was a tent. Inside this sanctuary were two rooms. ²The first room, called the holy place, had the golden candlestick and a table of loaves of bread without yeast. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ³Then there was the golden altar of incense that represented prayer, and a curtain that separated the two rooms. {488 Torn-Veil Prayer, Mark 15:38} ⁴The second room was called the most holy place with the sacred chest, which contained a jar with some manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and a stone engraved with the Ten Commands. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5}

Within the most holy place was the sacred chest, and its lid was called "the mercy seat." Technically God didn't have a throne on the earth, but when God's presence came to earth in the Shekinah glory cloud, it sat on the mercy seat. God sat on a chest (the word "ark" means chest). God didn't sit on some enhanced golden throne; no piece of furniture could give glory to God. God liked to sit where He could be merciful to His people. God liked to sit where He could forgive people's sin. "The high priest entered once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people" (9:7, KJV). But now we come to the mercy seat in heaven because, "He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us" (9:12, KJV). Lord, I don't come to an actual tent or building, but I come to You in heaven. I come because my sins have been forgiven. I come because You forgave all my sins once and for all. I come shouting. "Hallelujah" for all You've done for me. Amen.

⁵On each end of the chest were carved gold creatures with their wings stretched out over the lid of the chest called the mercy seat, the place atonement was made. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5}

Would you like to be close to God? Of all the things close to God's presence, the two winged creatures on the top of the sacred chest were closest. Notice the characteristics needed to get close to God. First, the angels were made from pure gold (Exod. 25:17). There are many grades of purity, and to get gold its purest, the fire of the crucible is heated to its hottest to melt away impurities. The goldsmith skims impurities from the crucible until he sees his face in the gold. God allows the fires of persecution to cleanse us from the impurities of sin. Can God see His face in You? Second, the gold of the angels is beaten (Exod. 25:18). This means the sculptor uses his instruments to sculpt the angels. They were not poured into a mold like cheap imitations. The skill of the sculptor determines the quality of His masterpiece. God Himself is using His skill to knock the rough edges off His masterpiece, that is, you. Third, the angels "stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat" (Exod. 25:20, KJV). To be close to God, we must stretch forth our hands in worship to God. Worship brings us as close to God as any human can get. To get closer, worship better. Fourth, "Their faces shall look...toward the mercy seat" (Exod. 25:20). They are looking down on the place where the blood is applied to forgive sins. They look down humbly. If you want to get close to God, look to the blood. "Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness" (Heb. 9:22). Lord, I look once again to the cross where Jesus shed His blood for my sin. He died in my place. I can get no closer to You than I am when I am in Jesus. Amen.

⁶Many priests followed certain regulations, going into the outer room—the holy place—to carry out worship. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} 7Only the high priest entered the most holy place, and only once a year; he took blood with him for his and others' sins. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 8The Holy Spirit tells us by this illustration that the average person could not enter the most holy place so long as the old system of law was in place. 9Lord, this illustration is important because under the old system of law the sacrifices and gifts had to be continually given for they never permanently cleansed the hearts of the worshipers. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁰The old system of law dealt with what foods to eat, how to wash, rules about a lot of little things that people had to obey until Christ brought in a better covenant.

Jesus Is Better than the Old Sacrifices

¹¹Christ came as the High Priest of a new and better covenant. He took blood into the most holy place in heaven and sprinkled blood on the mercy seat to permanently forgive all sins. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22}

¹²Christ did not take the blood of bulls and calves into heaven's most holy place, but with His own blood He entered once and for all, to obtain eternal redemption for all who believe. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹³If the blood of bulls and calves could temporarily and outwardly cleanse those who were unclean, thus sanctifying them, 14how much more will the blood of Christ offered by the Holy Spirit cleanse us, so we can serve the living God? {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ¹⁵Therefore Christ offered this new covenant to all, so that they may receive the promise of an eternal inheritance. And don't forget that Christ's death took away all the sins committed under the old system of law. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 16When a person dies and leaves a will that is in question, the death of the one who wrote the will must be established; 17then people receive the things that were promised in the will. ¹⁸The first covenant became operational when dedicated by blood. 19Then Moses took blood and sprinkled everything having to do with the old law saying, ²⁰"This blood seals the agreement between You and God." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²¹Moses then sprinkled blood on the tabernacle and all the instruments of worship. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 22All things were sanctified by blood, and without the shedding of blood, there was no redemption. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²³The tabernacle and instruments of worship are copies of the true tabernacle in heaven. They were purified with the blood of animals. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} ²⁴But the tabernacle in heaven was purified with a better sacrifice, for Christ did not go into the earthly tabernacle, which is a copy of the heavenly one; He appeared before the Father for us. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1

John 2:1} ²⁵Christ did not offer Himself repeatedly, as the earthly high priest has to make offering every year for himself and others. No! ²⁶If Christ did that, He would have had to suffer many times. But only once in time did Christ come to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷It is appointed that each person will die once, then be judged once. ²⁸But Christ offered Himself once for sins for all. The next time Christ comes, it will be to take us where we will sin no more.

Hebrews 10 Jesus Is Better than the Old Sacrifices (Continued)

¹Lord, I know the old system of law was only a reflection of coming spiritual realities, not the realities themselves. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} 2The law could never bring the worshiper to spiritual maturity, even though repeated endlessly year after year. {321 New Testament Prayer Possibilities, John 16:24} 3If the sacrifices sanctified the worshiper, or made him mature, then they would have stopped bringing their sacrifices when they reached perfection. ⁴Instead, the worshiper had to recall his sin yearly, every time he brought a sacrifice, because the blood of bulls and goats never took away sin. 5Lord, when Christ came into the world, He said, "Sacrifices and offerings didn't do away with sin, so You, Lord, prepared a body for Me." 6It is written in Scripture, "Christ has come to lay down His body as a sacrifice for sin," and the Scriptures said of Christ, 7-9"I am here, and I have come to do the Father's will." ¹⁰Now I have been made pure and clean by the death of Christ, who died for all, once and for all. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 11 Under the old law, the priest had to offer the same kind of sacrifice day after day, which never took sin away. 12But Christ our Priest offered one sacrifice for all time, to take away all sin, then sat down at Your right hand in heaven. 13 Now Christ is waiting for His enemies to become His footstool. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁴For by one sacrifice, Christ made those perfect who claim the power of the Holy Spirit to live holy lives. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14}

Two forces are at work in our lives in the statement, "He hath perfected forever them that are sanctified" (10:14). First, the word "perfected" is a once-for-all action that is the result of Christ's sacrifice. We are born again and we stand perfect before God. This is a completed action. The earlier word "forever" is a modifier of "offered one sacrifice" (10:12), which suggests security for the believer. But second, there is still work for us to do. The words "are sanctified" (10:14) are a present participle, suggesting that our sanctification is a progressive action. Sanctification is a threefold action: (1) I was sanctified at my conversion; positional sanctification (3:1); (2) I am being sanctified; experiential sanctification (1 Thess. 5:23); and (3) I shall be sanctified (completely separated from sin), that is, consummation sanctification (1 John 3:2). Lord, thank You for setting me apart from sin when I was saved, but I am still tempted. Thank You for working in my life to separate me from sin. Make me pure. Thank You for the fact that I will be separated from all sin forever in heaven. I look forward to that day. Amen.

¹⁵You said, "This is the new arrangement I will make after they did not keep the old system of law. ¹⁶I will put My laws in their hearts so they will want to obey Me." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁷Then You said, "I will no longer remember their sins and lawlessness ¹⁸because I have forgiven all sin, and there is no longer need of daily animal sacrifices." {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.}

¹⁹Therefore children of God, let us walk right into the most holy place into the presence of the Father by the blood of Jesus Christ. ²⁰We have a new and living way into the Father's presence through the offering of Christ's body which tore the curtain down. {488 Torn-Veil Prayer, Mark 15:38} ²¹Since I have a new High Priest, ²²I will draw near to You with a true heart and confident faith because my heart is clean by the blood of Christ. ²³I will hold fast to my confession of faith because You are faithful. 24I will motivate other believers to love and good works, and 25I will assemble with other believers to motivate them to serve You as I do.

There are three conditions for "drawing near to God" (10:22). First, we must have a "true heart," which means an honest attempt to relate to God. The word "draw near" is proserchomai, which comes from pros, "toward," and erchomai, "to come." A true heart is honestly seeking God's face. Second, we must come in "full assurance," which means "we believe that God exists" (11:6, PJB). Third, "having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience" (10:22). Lord, I come to You sincerely because I want to know You intimately so I seek Your face. I know You exist and I know You will hear me because I have been cleansed by the blood of Christ. I don't listen to my evil conscience, but I come seeking You and seeking to know You intimately. Amen.

Fourth Warning Against Rejection

²⁶Lord, if anyone sins after he has been given knowledge of the truth of the new covenant, there is no forgiveness in the animal sacrifice of the temple. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁷They have only the terrible judgment of God to face and His raging fire that will punish rebels. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 28 If those who rejected the law of Moses were killed without mercy, ²⁹how much more severely will those be punished who trample underfoot the Son of God, and considered His blood of the new covenant as unworthy and insulted the Spirit of God who worked in their hearts. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} 30Lord, You said, "Punishment belongs to Me," so I know You will repay. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 31Also the Scripture says, "Because the Lord will judge His people, it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living

God." {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} 32Lord, I know many have suffered when they first believed, as they stood for You in the face of insults and violence. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ³³And sometimes they suffered because they stood with other believers who were being persecuted. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ³⁴They not only were persecuted because they stood with those in prison, but their goods were stolen. Yet they knew they had better possessions in heaven. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 35Lord, I will not let my confidence die away, knowing I will be richly rewarded. {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} 36I will persevere, so that when I have done Your will, I will receive what You have promised. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

We come to God, knowing He exists and that our approach to Him is honest and sincere. We know our sins have been forgiven by the blood of Jesus Christ, and that we are presently walking in fellowship with God. Praying in confidence means we are in right relationship with God and we've done everything necessary to enable us to pray properly. Lord, I come to You through the blood of Jesus Christ, knowing I am forgiven and I stand justified in Your presence. I come honestly and sincerely, seeking You with all my heart. Amen.

³⁷Lord, I know in a little while You will come and not be delayed. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ³⁸I will do what the Scripture says, "The just will live by faith and if he shrinks back, I will have no pleasure in him." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ³⁹Lord, I have never turned back from following You; no, my faith assures me that my soul will be saved. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

Hebrews 11 The Superiority of Faith in Jesus

¹Lord, because of my faith I am sure You will answer my request, and my faith makes me certain about the things I can't see. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} ²Because of my faith, I know the world was created by You so that things seen came from things not seen. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ³Because of Abel's faith he brought a better offering than did his brother Cain, and Abel pleased You. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

⁴You accepted Abel by receiving his sacrifice, and I can learn lessons of faith from Abel, even though he is dead. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21}

⁵Because of Enoch's faith, You took him to heaven without dying. No one could find him for You took him away because You were pleased with him. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ⁶Lord, I know I can't please You without faith, so I come to You because I know You exist and I know You reward those who earnestly seek You. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

To get our prayers answered, we must please God, and we do that by believing He exists. We come to God knowing He lives, knowing He will hear us and knowing He can answer when we pray according to His will. The King James Version says we must "diligently seek Him" (Heb. 11:6). Remember, we can't find God if we don't search with all our hearts. Lord, I want to know You and serve You. I'm not satisfied with my life the way it is. I need You and will continue searching until I find You. Amen.

⁷Because of Noah's faith, he warned people about a flood he had never seen. Then he built a boat to save his family. The faith of Noah condemned the world, and his faith gave him a basis to claim Your righteousness. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

⁸Because of Abraham's faith, he obeyed Your call when he left his home to go where You led him, even though he didn't know where he was going. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9Because of his faith, Abraham settled down in the Promised Land like a stranger in a foreign country, living in tents as did Isaac and Jacob who were heirs with him. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ¹⁰Because of his faith, Abraham confidently looked forward to living in a heavenly city that would be built by You. Because of his faith, Abraham was able to become a father when he was too old to have children. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} 11And Sarah, who was barren, had faith to bear a child, because she realized that when You promised a son, You were certainly able to do what You said. {181 Future-Blessing

Prayer, Heb. 11:21} 12So the whole nation of Israel came from Abraham when he was too old to have a child. The nation of Israel had so many children that like the stars of heaven and the sands of the seashore, they can't be counted. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} 13Because of the faith of these people, they continued to look forward to the home You would provide for them, even though they never received it down on this earth. ¹⁴They confessed they were only visitors and strangers in this world. 15 If they liked the old country better than the one promised by God, they would have found a way to return. But they were looking for a place—a heavenly place. ¹⁶That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, and He has prepared a place for them.

The Old Testament people of faith were looking and yearning for a better home. They could have gone back to the Euphrates Valley, but they didn't want to live among idols and sinful corruption, so they lived in the land God promised to them, all the while "they desire a better country" (11:16, KJV). In the same way we must yearn and pray for a "better country." Lord, I tolerate living in a sinful world, but I yearn and pray for a better place. I look for heaven where I'll live with You forever. Amen.

would raise him from the dead, because You had promised that from Isaac would come the whole nation of Israel. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

God will test our faith to determine its genuineness and to make us stronger. Abraham was tested and he demonstrated his faith in God was real. Trials come from our enemy to tear us down, tests come from God to strengthen us. Lord, I love You and will follow You. When difficulties come, I will look to You to determine what I can learn and how I can grow stronger. I don't like hardship, I like ease; but when hardship comes, be with me and strengthen me for the task. Amen.

²⁰Because of Isaac's faith, he knew You would bless his two sons Jacob and Esau after his death. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

²¹Because of Jacob's faith, he blessed Joseph's two sons as he steadied himself with his staff to worship You. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

Jacob blessed his sons by faith because he believed God would work in the life of his children and fulfill the value he saw for them. This involves trusting in God to bless your children even when you are dead and not able to physically help them. Lord, give me faith to believe You can bless my children when I'm not alive to help them. Amen.

¹⁷Because of Abraham's faith, when he was tested, he offered up Isaac as a sacrifice to You. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁸Abraham believed Your promise that if he offered his only son as a sacrifice, ¹⁹You

²²Because of Joseph's faith, when he was about to die, he predicted the exodus of

Israel from Egypt and instructed that his body be buried in the Promised Land. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ²³Because of Moses' parents' faith, they hid him for three months after he was born because they realized he was an extraordinary child. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

²⁴Because of Moses' faith, he refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ²⁵Moses chose to suffer the affliction of Your people rather than enjoy the pleasure of sin for a short time. {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} ²⁶Moses considered that the "reproach of Christ" was better than inheriting the riches of Egypt, because he looked forward to the reward You would give him. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Moses refused the pleasures and wealth of Egypt to identify with the suffering of God's people. While his choice could be considered difficult because of the worldly things he gave up, it involved "seeing Him who is invisible" (11:27, KJV). Therefore our choices should be made in accord with God's choices for us. Lord, help me make good choices based on Your values and Your plan for my life. Give me strong faith to make decisions that will glorify You. Amen.

²⁷Because of Moses' faith, he left Egypt, wasn't afraid of the king's anger, and he would not turn back, because he saw You who are invisible. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ²⁸Because of

Moses' faith, he began the Passover, and sprinkled blood on the door post, so the destroyer wouldn't touch the firstborn of Israel as the first born of Egypt died that night. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ²⁹Because of faith, Israel walked through the Red Sea on dry ground, but the Egyptians drowned when they tried to follow them. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ³⁰Because of faith, Israel walked around the city of Jericho, and the walls fell down. {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} ³¹Because of the prostitute Rahab's faith, she received the spies and was not killed with the rest of the inhabitants. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

³²There's more to be said about the faith of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephihah, Samuel, or David, or the prophets. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ³³Because of the faith of these men, they conquered kingdoms, did what was right, and received what You promised. 34They were not harmed by lions, or the fiery furnace, and were protected in battle. Some were given strength to be brave in battle, they defeated foreign armies, and women received back their dead. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} 35Others were tortured to death knowing they would rise again from the dead to a better life. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} ³⁶Others were mocked, beaten with whips and chained in dungeons. ³⁷They died by stoning, being sawed in two, and put to death by the sword. Some were homeless and wore skins of sheep and goats; they were destitute, and ill-treated. ³⁸The world was not worthy of those who lived in deserts, caves, and ravines. ³⁹These were all heroes of faith, yet none of them received their reward in this life. ⁴⁰God has something better for them, but they had to wait to share something even better with us. {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6}

Hebrews 12 The Superiority of Faith in Jesus (Continued)

¹Lord, these many leaders mentioned in the previous chapters are like a large crowd of witnesses. Therefore I will strip off everything that's in the way, especially any sin that would trip me up. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²And I will steadily run the race that I have begun without losing sight of Jesus my leader who was willing to die a shameful death on the cross because He knew the joy that was coming in the future, and now He sits at Your right hand in heaven. {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1}

The Christian life is pictured as a race that must be run with patience. The secret to running is not our style or pattern of steps. It's not keeping up with others, and it's not beating others. It's "looking unto Jesus" (Heb. 12:2). So, we must lay aside every sin that would hinder us, or anything that would slow us down. We must never forget how Jesus finished His race, even though He suffered on the cross and endured agony. Lord, I will put aside sin that hinders me, and I will discipline myself so I won't be slowed down. I will do like many others who witness to me,

I will continue running my race. I will keep looking to Jesus. Amen.

Fifth Warning of Coming Punishment

³When I think of the way Jesus endured such torture by sinful men for me, I will not give up. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴After all, I've never had to take a stand for Christ to the point of shedding my blood. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3}

⁵I've not forgotten Your words of encouragement to me, "Do not be discouraged when the Lord rebukes you or at His light chastening ⁶because the Lord disciplines those He loves, and punishes everyone He acknowledges as His child." {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ⁷Lord, I know suffering is part of my training because You are treating me as Your child, and what child is not corrected by their father? {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} 8If anyone is not corrected by You, then he is not Your child. He is an illegitimate child, and not Your true child. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} 9Moreover, many have had wicked human fathers who corrected them: therefore I ought to be willing to submit to You, my heavenly Father. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} 10My human father's punishment prepared me for life on earth, but You are preparing me to live a holy life and for heaven itself. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 11Punishment isn't enjoyable at the time I receive it, but it makes me live right and submit to the laws of men so I will live in peace and develop character. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

Because we are children of the heavenly Father, He punishes us when we do wrong, just as our earthly father disciplines us. It's not because He is angry, but God "chastened us after His own pleasure; but for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness" (12:10). The fact we are punished by God is proof we are His children. Lord, even though I didn't think so at the time, thank You for punishing me when I've sinned. I want to learn the lesson of holiness. Make me more like You each day. Amen.

¹²Therefore I'll hold up under Your discipline, so I'll not be weak, but strong. ¹³I'll stand firm on shaky legs, then those who follow me will not stumble, but will walk strong. ¹⁴Lord, I'll do everything possible to live peaceably with everyone, and I'll live a holy life, because without it no one will see You. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

The author tells us, "Follow peace with all men" (12:14, KJV). Anything God wants us to have can be sought with prayer. So to live a peaceful life we must (1) pray to be at peace with everyone; (2) pray for peaceful conditions in our culture and the world; (3) pray and yield to God for inner peace, and live daily in light of the peace we have with God (Eph. 2:14), and the inward peace that God makes available to us (Eph. 2:17). Lord, I pray for peace in my city, country, and the world. I will live in light of the peace I have with You, and the inward gift of peace You have given me. Give me inner peace with You, then may I live peacefully with all people. Amen.

¹⁵I will make sure other believers don't miss Your grace, and that no bitterness grows in the church to cause trouble and poison the assembly. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁶I will make sure no one is sexually immoral or ungodly like Esau who sold his inheritance for one meal. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ¹⁷Afterward Esau wanted his inheritance but was rejected even though he begged for it with tears. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

The Presence of Jesus Is Better

¹⁸Lord, we don't come to a mountain that burned with fire to a religion that is dark and gloomy to receive the first system of law, that is, the old covenant. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 19We don't listen to a trumpet blast that was so scary that the people begged it to stop. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁰We don't stay away from a mountain, "so that even if an animal touched the mountain, it had to be stoned." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²¹The experience was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am afraid," and he trembled with fear. 22Lord, I come to Mount Zion, Your city, and the heavenly Jerusalem. I come into Your holy presence where millions of angels gather to worship You. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ²³I come with the church, right into Your city—heaven—itself, where everyone is a first-class citizen. I come to You—Father—the judge of all people; I join the spirits of all the redeemed who possess their inheritance. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} ²⁴I come to Jesus, the Mediator of the new covenant, whose blood intercedes better than Abel's sacrifice. {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6}

When we approach God in prayer, we should be aware that we are coming to God. In this passage notice what you are approaching. (1) You are coming to a heavenly Jerusalem, where the living God lives (12:22); (2) You are coming to join myriad of angels in worship (12:22); (3) You are coming to worship God with the congregation of the bornagain ones (12:23); (4) You are coming to God who judges all people (12:23); (5) You are coming with worshipers who have been made perfect because they are with God; and (6) You come to Jesus to focus on the purpose of praying. Lord, I come to Jesus because He saved me and lives within me. I come to worship Jesus for who He is and for what He has done for me and for all saved people who follow Him. I come to worship Him with all the saints and angels. I come to bow down and worship You in the throne room of heaven. Amen.

Sixth Warning of Future Judgment

²⁵Lord, I will never refuse to listen to You when You speak as those who refused to listen to You and were punished. {268

Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁶How much more will those be punished who go back to temple worship? In the future You will send an earthquake to shake the earth, as You promised, "Once more I will send an earthquake, not to shake the earth only, but heaven also." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²⁷Lord, this means at the final earthquake, everything will be removed that is not permanent, and only the things made by You will remain. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} 28Lord, I am part of the kingdom that is unshakeable, therefore I will serve You with thankfulness. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} ²⁹I will worship You, but always with reverence and fear, because the fire of Your judgment always burns.

Hebrews 13 Faith in Jesus Is the Better Way

¹Lord, I will love Christians with brotherly love and {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

The King James Version gives a command, "Let brotherly love continue" (Heb. 13:1), which means we must do it, and pray for divine help when we have difficulty doing it. God will help us do what He has commanded us to do. Lord, give me a deep desire to love fellow Christians, because I don't always have that desire. Take away any barrier in my heart that destroys love for others. Forgive me of selfishness, sin, and wrong attitudes, so I can love others properly. Show me how and when and where to love other Christians. Amen.

²I will be hospitable to strangers because some have entertained angels without realizing it. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

We should thank God for all the things that angels do for us, "to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation" (1:14). Angels (1) guard us physically (Ps. 34:7); (2) deliver us to heaven when we die (Luke 16:22); (3) wrestle against evil (Eph. 6:10-13); and (4) are messengers for God and administer His affairs (Matt. 13:41-42). Lord, thank You for angels and for all they do for Your kingdom. Whereas I haven't seen an angel, thank You for their ministry to me (13:2). Amen.

³I will be concerned for those in prison, as though I were there, and I will remember those who are ill-treated because I know how they feel. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁴I will honor the sanctity of the marriage vows because the marriage bed should be kept pure, and You will punish the adulterer and sexually immoral people. ⁵I will live free from greedy lust for money, and be content with what I have. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

God has promised, "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (13:5, KJV). But we sometimes feel alone or alienated. Perhaps it's our sin that makes us feel that way. So, don't live by your emotions; approach God in view of the fact that He said, "I will never leave thee." But if sin has broken your fellowship with God, confess it immediately, claim God's cleansing (1 John 1:9), and enter His fellowship again. Remember, we never lose our relationship with God, but we can lose our fellowship. Lord, thank You for the fact You'll never leave me. But sometimes I've broken my fellowship with You. Thank You for always being there to receive me back. Today, I will live and serve with confidence, knowing I enjoy Your presence and blessing. Amen.

⁶Because of Your promise, You will be my helper; I will not be afraid of what anyone can do to me. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5}

⁷I will respect church leaders who teach the Word of God, I will remember their example and will imitate their godliness. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} 8Lord, I rejoice that Jesus Christ is always the same, yesterday, today, and will continue forever. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} 9I will not be sidetracked by strange new doctrines. I realize my spiritual strength comes from You, and I will not become godly by any rules I keep. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ¹⁰Since I am fed by the food that Christ gives me, no one can get spiritual strength by going back to the temple, and those who do, won't be fed by Christ. 11The bodies of animals whose blood is still used for sacrifice were burned outside the city of Jerusalem, 12so Jesus suffered outside the gate of Jerusalem to offer His blood for me and all who come to Him for salvation. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹³I will go to Him outside the temple and outside the city walls, there to identify with Him, and bear His shame. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁴I realize there is no permanent city for me in this life, so I look for an eternal city that will come in the future. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁵Therefore I will offer my worship to You through Jesus; may my worship magnify Your name. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

In the Old Testament the Jews brought an animal sacrifice to God to restore their fellowship with God. Today we sacrifice our bodies (Rom. 12:1-2) to God in worship and service. Here we are to offer "the fruit of our lips" (Heb. 13:15) to God. This is when we exalt God, or worship or praise Him. It's all about His glory; it's not about us. Lord, my lips speak Your greatness and power. I worship You for Your love to me and Your protection of my life. I lift You up in my life, and home, and job. Be magnified in all I am and do. Amen.

¹⁶Also I will continue to do good deeds and share with others because You are pleased with that sacrifice. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ¹⁷Lord, I will continue to obey my church leaders and follow their directions because they give an account to You of how well they watch over my soul and others. I will obey them so they will enjoy their ministry because I would be the loser if I caused them grief.

¹⁸I know that my conscience is clear in this matter, and I will act honorably in every way. ¹⁹The writer asked for prayer that he could visit the readers. ²⁰Now may You—the God of peace—the One who brought the Lord Jesus back from the dead, to become the Great Shepherd of the sheep, equip me thoroughly to do Your perfect will, by the blood of the everlasting covenant. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²¹Lord, work in me everything that will please You; to Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

The author promises God will give the readers "whatever good things you need." So we pray for good things and expect good things, and thank God for them when they come. Lord, You have promised "good things" to us, so I pray for them to come. I will get ready to receive them, and I will prepare my heart to receive them. Amen.

²²The writer asked the readers to listen patiently to this letter because it is a short one. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²³He tells them Timothy has been released from prison and will come to see them; also, he the writer will come with Timothy. ²⁴The Christians in Italy who are with the writer send greetings to the readers. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²⁵Lord, I ask for Your grace and receive it by faith.

JAMES

CH 1: Preparing for Trials	1823
Ch 2: Our Good Works Demonstrate Our Fait	`H
	1825
CH 3: WE MUST CONTROL OUR TONGUE	1827
Ch 4: The Danger of Worldliness	1829
Ch 5: Because the Lord Is Coming—Pray	1830

JAMES

Key Words: Test or Troubles (James 1:2-3)

Key Verse: "Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him" (1:12).

Theme: James, the half brother of Jesus, writes to encourage Jewish believers (1:1) who are going through various tests and trials in their Christian life. God allows His children to be tested so they will become stronger, and through difficulties they can demonstrate the genuine nature of their faith.

James was called a "pillar" of the church (Gal. 2:9) and presided over the first church council (Acts 15), and very early he wrote this letter that contains 54 imperatives (commands) out of 108 verses. A person's outward "religion" was proof of his transforming faith. James' admonition on "good works" is not an argument against Paul's emphasis on grace, but James is stating that if you have experienced free grace, you will demonstrate it by your actions (2:14-26). James wrote this letter before A.D. 40 and tradition tells that he was martyred in A.D. 62. Lord, I will obey Your commands because I love You and want to please You. I don't keep Your commands in order to become a Christian; I keep them because I am saved. Amen.

James 1 Preparing for Trials

¹Lord, James wrote a letter to Jews who were being persecuted and were scattered abroad outside the Holy Land, for he wanted to prepare Christians everywhere for suffering. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

²Lord, I will rejoice when I suffer for You even when I fall into every type of trial {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ³because I know trials will build patience in me. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ⁴Lord, let patience have its perfect work in me that I may have complete faith, wanting nothing. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

Even when we pray, we will be tested. Our faith will be tested; we will be tested in many ways in all parts of our being. But true faith will withstand testing and glorify God. Lord, give me courage to withstand testing; and when my faith is tested, I will look to Jesus who is my example and the goal of my life. Amen.

⁵Lord, when I lack wisdom, I will ask You for it because You liberally give us spiritual understanding and I know I will receive it from You. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁶But I must ask with unwavering faith because those who are unstable are like the unpredictable waves of the ocean, driven by the wind. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} ⁷The vacillating man will not receive anything from You {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} ⁸because a double–minded person is unstable in everything. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

God will honor your prayers when you ask with confidence. You will be heard even before you pray. Confident-praying is based on these facts: (1) God is your heavenly Father; (2) you've met the conditions of praying; (3) you diligently ask (Heb. 11:6); (4) you have no willful sin in your life; and (5) you are living in fellowship with God. Lord, teach me to pray properly for the right request, and keep me from asking for wrong things. May Your Spirit identify with my spirit so I can pray confidently. Amen.

⁹Lord, when I humble myself and take the low position, You will lift me up for Your purpose. ¹⁰Those who exalt themselves as the rich will be like the flower that is temporally here and then dies and is gone. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹¹Because the sun burns them and they wither with the grass, their beauty is destroyed in the same scorching heat. In the same way the proud will be destroyed. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3} ¹²Lord, bless me as I endure the trials that try me because I will receive the crown of life for enduring persecution which You have promised to those who continually love You. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

¹³When I am tempted to give up, I can't say You tempt me. For You do not tempt anyone to evil actions. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} 14People are tempted by their own sinful desires that drag them away {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} and entice them to sin. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} 15When evil lust is planted and grown, it brings forth sin; and when sin is fully grown, it brings death. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ¹⁶Lord, I don't want to be deceived. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁷I know every good gift is from above, coming down from You, the Father of Light. 18Lord, You give me spiritual birth through the word of truth that I might be a firstfruit of praise to Your glory. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

We must realize all the good things in life come from God because (1) He loves people; (2) He wants to make them better; (3) He wants to glorify Himself; (4) giving is His nature; and (5) He wants to bring people to repentance and faith in Him (Rom. 2:4). Lord, thank You for the good things You give me; I receive them from You and praise You for Your continued goodness. Amen.

¹⁹Lord, I will be quick to listen, slow to speak, {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} and even slower to become angry, {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20} ²⁰because anger does not produce a righteous life. 21 Therefore I will get rid of all moral filth and evil intent that is prevalent everywhere. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} I will humbly accept the implanted Word which saves me. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} ²²I will not merely listen to the Word because that is not enough. I will do what it says. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ²³Those who merely listen to the Word and don't obey it are like people who look at themselves in a mirror ²⁴ and forget what they see. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} ²⁵Lord, I want to look intently into the perfect law of liberty, and I know You will bless me if I don't forget what I see there and I continue to obey what I learn there. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}

We do not find happiness just seeking it so that we may be happy. Happiness is not a valid goal in life. We find happiness on the road to duty. When we seek to grow in Christ, serve Christ, and glorify Christ, we will find happiness in relationship to achieving our goal. While there may be momentary happiness, it is not the same as lasting peace, joy, and contentment that we get from God. Lord, I don't pray to be happy, but I pray that I may grow to be like Christ, and serve Christ, and be able to worship Christ. When that happens I get peace and contentment from Christ, then happiness flows into my life. Amen.

²⁶Lord, some people appear to be religious, but they can't control their speech and their religion is empty. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ²⁷To have pure religion and be clean before You, I must minister to the needs of orphans and widows and keep myself unspotted from the world.

Lord, I've only had soft persecution in my life and I realize it's nothing compared to those who suffer terribly. Help me to see Your presence and will in every uncomfortable situation; I will look for Your guiding hand in the sufferings of life. Amen.

James 2 Our Good Works Demonstrate Our Faith

¹My Lord Jesus Christ, I will not segregate myself for any person but will accept everyone equally before You. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ²I will not show partiality to those who are rich or finely dressed, nor will I look down on those who are poor and dirty. ³Lord, You will not bless those who accept only people in rich apparel and reject the poor by making them sit in a segregated place or stand in the back of the crowd. {101

Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 4Those who show partiality are judged by their evil thoughts. But I will accept all people equally, and I reject those who segregate themselves against any. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} 5Lord, I know You love the poor of this world, many of whom are rich in faith and heirs of Your kingdom, which You promise to all who love Jesus. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁶Those who despise the poor will eventually have some rich man oppress them and deliver them to judgment. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁷These rich men blaspheme the very name of Christ, by whom all believers are called. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} 8Lord, I will obey the second part of the royal law found in Scripture, which is to love my neighbors as I love myself. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8}

The royal command tells us to love others as we love ourselves, but that is difficult to do. Self-love is at the core of our existence. So we must pray (1) for a change of attitude about people; (2) to crucify our self-exaltation; (3) for strength to love others; and (4) for specific people whom we ignore or despise. Lord, I recognize my self-exaltation; forgive my sin, and help me repent. Give me a love for people, and I pray specifically for those I purposefully ignore or dislike. Give me the heart of Jesus to love all people. Amen.

⁹But if I reject anyone, I am guilty of sin and I have broken the law. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰If I keep the whole law but break just one point, I have broken all the law. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} 11Lord, You said, "Do not commit adultery," and "Do not kill," but if I do not commit adultery, but I kill, then I am a transgressor of the whole law. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 12I will live by the law, and speak it because I know I will be judged by it. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ¹³Lord, I know You will judge without mercy those who have shown no mercy, but those who show mercy will persevere in judgment. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4}

¹⁴Lord, I know it is not good to minister by faith {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} if I don't have good works to go with my faith. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} 15If a brother or sister doesn't have bread and is naked, 16 and I say, "Go in peace be fed and be clothed," but I do not give them what they need, what good is my faith? 17Lord, if my faith doesn't result in good works, it is dead because it has no fruit. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁸If I tell anyone, "You have faith and I have works," he will try to show me his faith without works, but I will show him my faith by my works. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} ¹⁹You can say that you have faith because you believe in God, and that's all right. Even the demons believe in God but they tremble. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ²⁰You can't prove you have faith without works. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ²¹Lord, I realize our father Abraham was justified before others by works when he offered his son on an altar; ²²therefore he demonstrated perfect faith by works. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18}

Your faith is useless if it is not proven by the good works you do for others. James tells us "faith, if it hath not works, is dead" (2:17). We validate our faith when we are moved to serve others. We should pray (1) to be moved to action; (2) to remove doubt or hindrances that keep us from action; and (3) that our faith grows as we serve. Lord, I want strong faith; move me to action so my faith can grow. Remove any barriers that keep me from serving others. Strengthen my faith as I do the things I know to do. Strengthen my faith as I do the things You burden me to do. Amen.

²³Then the Scripture was fulfilled that said Abraham believed in God and it was counted to him as righteousness; therefore {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} he was called a friend of God. ²⁴Now I see how a person is justified by works, not by faith only. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ²⁵Lord, I realize Rahab, the harlot, was justified before others by works, because she protected the Jewish messengers and directed them away from the soldiers of Jericho. ²⁶Therefore just as a body without a soul is dead, so faith without works is also dead or useless. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Lord, thank You for the deep faith You've put within me; I'll serve You with all my heart for I realize my deep faith is nothing if good works don't automatically flow from my faith. Amen.

James 3 We Must Control Our Tongue

¹Lord, I don't want to be a teacher in position only because teachers are judged by a higher standard. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ²I know that I offend in many ways. If anyone doesn't offend by his speech he is perfect because when he controls his mouth, he controls his whole body. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³People put bits in horse's mouths to control them; {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} this is the way to turn a horse around. ⁴A great ship is driven through the sea by fierce winds, yet they are turned around with a small rudder, so the ship goes wherever the captain decides. 5In the same way, the tongue is a little thing, but it can boast great things and cause great trouble, like a little flame that can start a great fire. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

James tells us to discipline our whole body by learning to discipline our tongue. Why? Because the tongue which is small controls the actions of the whole body. Lord, help me control my tongue for Your glory. I realize my tongue is only an instrument of my heart, so change my heart to reflect Your power and glory. Give me a strong disciplined heart to control my tongue and body. Amen.

⁶Therefore my tongue can spread sin throughout my body just like a little flame can start a forest fire. So my tongue can defile my entire life, not realizing it is a fire from hell. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} 7People have been able to tame every kind of animal, and birds and snakes, and things in the sea, 8but no one is able to tame the tongue; {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} it is uncontrollably evil and a deadly poison. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} 9With my tongue I can bless You, even the Father, {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} or I can curse people who are made in Your image. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁰Out of the same mouth come blessings and curses, and {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} this is wrong. {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3} 11Can a fountain give salt water and fresh water? Obviously not! 12Can a fig tree produce olives? Obviously not! Can an olive branch produce figs? Again no! So I will not bless God and curse men! {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

¹³If there is a wise man, I want to see his wisdom in his conversation with other people; {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} I want to see his meekness and wisdom by the things he says. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁴Lord, those who are bitter and envious and start arguments are full of self-glory and they lie against the truth. {440 Sin-Realization

Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁵Their wisdom doesn't come from heaven; it comes from the earth, and {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 16it is fleshly and devilish because they produce arguments and confusion and evil. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁷Lord, give me the wisdom that is from above; it is pure, then peaceable, gentle, and it will listen to others. I want wisdom that is full of mercy and good fruits; impartial to anyone and not hypocritical. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} 18Lord, I want the fruit of righteousness that is sown in peace; I want to be a peacemaker. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

A wise man is not the one with the highest I.Q. or the one who has accumulated the greatest mastery of facts or vocabulary. James says, "Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom" (3:13, KJV). So we must ask God to help us live properly (1) by asking for the Holy Spirit to take away our spiritual blindness so we can use what we know; (2) for strength and determination to serve God properly; and (3) for His transformation to serve God acceptably. Lord, I want to serve You correctly. Take away any spiritual blindness I have so I can acquire facts and use them successfully. Help me to apply what I know to glorify You. Lord, I can discipline many areas of my life but the most difficult to control is my tongue. I know it's not the physical tongue itself, but my deceitful old nature; strengthen me to discipline my old nature so my tongue will glorify You. Amen.

James 4 The Danger of Worldliness

¹Lord, I will not fight other believers because these battles come from our old nature that makes Christians fight one another. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ²When I lust, I don't get what I want. People destroy others and don't get what they want. People fight and argue and still don't get the things they want. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} ³I do not have what I pray for because I don't ask rightly, sometimes I ask and don't get what I request because I ask wrongly to satisfy my lust. {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3}

Lord, teach me the right things in life that I need, then help me to ask You for them in the right way. Amen.

⁴Lord, You've told us that people who commit adultery are friends of the world and they hate You. Help me realize those who are friends of the world are Your enemies. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ⁵Lord, I know the Holy Spirit in me has a strong desire that I live a holy and godly life, so let the Spirit give me more grace to repent of evil. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁶I know You said You give grace {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} to those who humble themselves but You resist the proud. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁷Lord, I will submit myself to You, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} I will resist the devil so that he will flee from me, and then I'll have power from You. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18}

Prayers that are not answered are based on selfish or wrong desires. The King James Version says this is because "Ye ask amiss" (4:3). The Living Bible says, "Your whole aim is wrong." The Phillips Paraphrase Version says, "You ask in the wrong spirit." We not only must ask for the right things, we must ask in the right way, with the right attitude. There are many reasons why our prayers are not answered: (1) sin in our lives that blocks our prayer; (2) the answers are not in our best interests; (3) our requests contradict God's plan or God's nature; (4) the answer is withheld for our good; (5) God has something better; (6) the answer would hurt someone; and (7) we lack faith. (See How God Answers Prayer, by Elmer Towns, Destiny Image, www.destinyimage.com, for a complete list.) Lord, I treat unanswered prayer as a great blow to my faith or selfconfidence. Help me see unanswered prayer from Your perspective. May unanswered prayer never hinder further fellowship with You. Amen.

⁸I will draw near to You, as You draw near to me. I will cleanse my hands from sin, and I will purify my heart from double-minded thinking. ⁹I will be sad and mourn over my sin, and I won't laugh over it either because sin is a serious thing. ¹⁰I will humble myself in Your sight so You can lift me up.

God honors the humble, and those who are humble will be great. Jesus said "Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptizer: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he" (Matt. 11:11, KJV). Therefore "Humility comes before honor" (Prov. 15:33). We must pray (1) to recognize our selfish nature; (2) to deny selfish desires; and (3) to be humble. Humility is a distant prize, the more we grab for it the farther away it slips. Like going to sleep, the harder we try, the farther sleep escapes from us. Not until we surrender and shoulder our cross, and become followers of Christ do we approach humility. We learn humility from the Humble One. Lord, help me see my selfish nature, and may I say, "Not I, but Christ" (Gal. 2:20). I will deny my selfish ambitions, and will glorify You in all I do. May others see Christ in me. Amen.

¹¹Lord, I will not speak evil of other believers. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} Those who say evil things about a believer and judge a believer actually hate the law. The law prohibits me from judging one another and those who don't obey the law actually hate the law. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹²Lord, You are the only Law-giver and I am accountable to You. You are able to free or judge, and You judge correctly; take away all bitterness and give me love for all. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹³Lord, I will not say that tomorrow I'll go to a certain city and live there a year, buying and selling different things, because I don't know what will happen tomorrow. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁴What is my life? It is like steam from a kettle that's seen for a short time and then it disappears. {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20} ¹⁵Therefore here is what I'll say, "If You will, I will live, and I'll do certain things within Your plan for my life. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 16I will not take confidence in my boasting, because boasting is evil. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁷Since I know what good You want me to do, it's evil if I don't do it." {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

James 5 Because the Lord Is Coming—Pray

¹Lord, I know that all proud people will soon suffer misery; and they ought to weep and moan for coming judgment. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ²The riches they trusted in are corrupt and their fancy clothes are moth-eaten. ³The tarnish on their gold is a witness against them; {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} their treasures will condemn them and their flesh shall be eaten with fire. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴Lord, You hear the weeping of the workers who harvest the field of the rich who defraud them. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁵The

rich live in pleasure and fulfill their lust, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁶and they condemn and "eat up" just people who do not resist them, but the rich have only fattened themselves for slaughter. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

⁷Lord, at the same time, the poor must be patient until You come, just as the farmer waits through the spring and fall rain for his crops to grow. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} ⁸So the poor must wait for Your coming judgment. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Patience is a fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23), so we should pray to develop godly patience. When we exhibit patience we (1) reflect the nature of God; (2) give evidence that we trust God to control our lives; (3) we become a Christian testimony to others, and (4) we become more godly and can pray more effectively. Lord, I need to be more patient; teach me not to run ahead of Your plan for my life, nor do I want to lag behind. I want to be a good testimony, so develop godly patience in me. Amen.

⁹Lord, I'll not envy what other people have because You are the Judge standing at the door. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹⁰I will also learn from the prophets who have spoken Your Word, and were blessed because they endured trials. They are my example to teach me patience in suffering. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} ¹¹Lord, I have heard of the patience of Job and I know what You do for those who endure suffering. You are very tender and kind to them. Lord, when I'm not patient, help me endure all my circumstances. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ¹²Lord, I will not swear in trials or pain neither by heaven or earth; {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} I will let my "Yes" be "Yes" and my "No" mean "No" because I don't want to be condemned by my speech. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

¹³Lord, I will pray when I am afflicted, {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} and if I'm wrongly merry, I'll read the Psalms to understand the severity of life. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} 14When I am sick, I will call for the elders of the church so they can pray over me and anoint me with oil in Your name. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁵I know the prayer of faith will save the sick and You will raise them up. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 16If the sick will confess their sins and pray one for another, the sick will be healed and when they have committed sins, they will be forgiven. Lord, I know the continuous sincere prayer of a righteous man will accomplish much. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ¹⁷Elijah was a man subject to the same weakness as me, but he prayed continually that it might not rain and it didn't rain for three and a half years. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} 18Elijah prayed again and You gave rain from heaven and the earth brought forth fruit. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23}

God directs us to pray for the sick to get well so God can raise them up. Notice the conditions of healing: (1) call the church elders to pray; (2) anoint with oil; (3) pray in faith, believing God will answer; and (4) confess sins in order to be right with God. Lord, thank You for healing me in the past, and thank You for healing others who were sick. One condition for healing is "faith," so give me more faith to believe You for answers to prayer. Teach me how to pray in faith. Amen.

¹⁹Lord, if any believer strays from the truth and is restored by another believer, {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²⁰they not only turn around a sinner from his error, but they save a soul from death and hide a multitude of sins. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, I try to pray but I'm not very effective; I want to know the secret of power in prayer. I know the secret is not in the mechanics of how I say it, nor is there power in the actual words I say. The power is in You, and prayer is relationship with You. Amen.

1 Peter

Ch 1: Your Full Salvation	.1834
Ch 2: Live Holy Because of Christ's Death	. 1837
CH 3: THE SUFFERINGS OF CHRIST	. 1838
CH 4: ATTITUDES ABOUT SUFFERING	. 1840
Ch 5: Serving Christ in View of His Return	.1842

1 PETER

Key Word: Suffering (1 Peter 2:20, occurs 12 times)

Key Verse: "Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy" (4:12, 13 NKJV).

Theme: Peter, the spokesman for the 12 disciples while Jesus was alive, writes this letter from Babylon in approximately A.D. 60. He writes to suffering believers he probably has never seen. They were driven out of their homes in areas that Paul evangelized (v. 2). He doesn't make a personal reference or greetings to anyone.

Peter's theme is victory in the midst of suffering. He has a threefold message: (a) living for Christ while suffering in light of our full salvation (1:1-2:8); (b) our suffering in light of the new position we have in Christ (2:9-4:19); (c) serving Christ in light of His return (5:1-14).

This letter is full of exhortations to godly living, with many references to both the Old Testament and actual words of Christ. Lord, thank You for the faithfulness of Peter, may I be as faithful to You as he was. Also, may I be faithful to You when suffering and trials come. I don't like pain, so may I be a good testimony to You when trials and sufferings come. Amen.

1 Peter 1 Your Full Salvation

Peter the apostle of Jesus Christ wrote a letter to Jewish Christians who were scattered throughout Turkey ²and to me who was chosen by Your foreknowledge. Lord, I have also been sanctified by the Holy Spirit, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} May I obey You in every thought and action, and enjoy Your grace and peace more and more. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

³Lord, I praise You, the God and Father of my Lord Jesus Christ, {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} because in Your great mercy I was born again into Your family {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} and given life by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. {405

Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁴Now may I have confidence in my perfect inheritance, reserved in heaven for me that will not decay or change. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ⁵Through faith I am guarded by Your power until the coming of Your complete salvation {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} that will be revealed by Jesus Christ in the last day. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Christians have a spiritual inheritance waiting for them in heaven. How can they draw on that account now? Or what influence do the riches of heaven have on them now? Because they have a future inheritance they should (1) conduct their lives now as children of the King; (2) live in assurance; (3) face uncertainties, martyrdom, or natural death with confidence; and (4) keep in prayer fellowship with God our Benefactor. Lord, I thank You for the promise of future riches, so I know I'll go to live with You when I die. I also know You will provide for my present needs. But my relationship with You is more important than riches, You are everything I need. Amen.

⁶So I am truly glad this wonderful hope is ahead because I may have to suffer all kinds of trials on earth. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ⁷I know that when Jesus Christ is revealed, my faith, though tested, will be genuine like gold, and will bring praise, and glory to You when Jesus Christ returns to earth. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} ⁸I love Christ even though I have never seen Him with my eyes. By not seeing Him I trust Him more {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} because He has filled me with joy that can come only from You. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} 9I know my future reward for trusting Christ will be the salvation of my soul in the final day. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10}

Our faith is purified by testing, just as gold is purified by fire (1:7). Therefore, when tested we should pray (1) to be a good testimony to Jesus Christ; (2) to be faithful in trials; (3) to not give up; (4) to influence others to salvation; and (5) to praise God for the experience because He helps us become more godly. Lord, use trials in my life to make me more like Jesus Christ, and purify me of my sin or character flaws. Then use my good testimony to bring others to salvation. I don't like physical pain, and I'm not masochistic, but I'll suffer for You because You suffered for me. Amen.

¹⁰Lord, even the prophets didn't fully understand this salvation even though they wrote about it, and they had many questions about the meaning of Scripture. ¹¹They didn't understand what Your Spirit within them was saying when they wrote the prediction of the coming suffering of Christ, {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} and they wrote of the glory that He would have afterward. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹²The prophets were told these events would not happen in their lifetime, but would occur many years later. Now, Lord, these events have happened and have been communicated to all of us by those who have preached the gospel to us. Now the angels, like us, have studied these predictions to know Your plan. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

¹³Therefore, I will not let my thinking be sidetracked, nor will I live in the future and ignore the present. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹⁴I will obey Your truth, and will not be conformed to the evil desires that controlled my life before I was saved. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁵I will live a holy life, just as You who called me to salvation are holy, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹⁶because the Bible says, "Be holy because God is holy." {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}

We should be ready to pray at any time. This means our life is pure (1:16); we should not allow evil desires to control our thoughts (1:14), and we "gird up the loins of [our] mind[s]" (1:13, KJV) to pray. Obedience is an acquired discipline; instant obedience is a practiced art. Lord, I am ready to pray at any time because Christ always dwells within my heart, and I pray through Him. Also I've learned to be ready to face anything in life at any time, so I'm always ready to call on You for fellowship or help. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, I know that You—my heavenly Father—have no favorites; therefore I will pray boldly with reverence, knowing You will judge all people fairly. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ¹⁸I know I was not redeemed with gold and silver that perishes from my meaningless life before I was saved. {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17} ¹⁹But I was redeemed with the precious blood of Christ who was a sacrificial lamb without blemish or spot. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 20Lord, You chose Him before creation for this purpose, but only in time did You reveal Him to us. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²¹Now I have new life because You raised Christ from the dead, and glorified Him. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Now I have hope beyond the grave. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ²²Therefore I will separate myself from sin and obey Your truth, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and I will love believers with all my heart. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ²³I was born again to new life, {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} not from earthly parents who give physical life that will eventually die, but I was born again to new life that will last for eternity that comes from the Word of God. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} ²⁴Yes, I know our physical life will pass away as the grass that withers, and flowers that die, ²⁵but Your Word stands forever. I put my trust in this Word that was preached to me. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7}

Lord, Peter tells me about the greatness of Your salvation; take away my spiritual blindness; help me see all You've done for me, and then help me live daily for Your glory. Amen.

1 Peter 2 Live Holy Because of Christ's Death

¹Lord, I repent of all known sin in my life. I will not lie, slander anyone, or be jealous of them. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²Like a newborn baby, I thirst for Your pure Word, and {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ³I want to taste Your goodness so I can grow to the fullness of salvation. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

The King James Version says, "Desire the pure milk of the Word" (2:2). David said, "O taste and see that the Lord is good" (Ps. 34:8). Jesus said, "He that believeth on Me shall never thirst" (John 6:35). We should be thirsty for God and His Word because (1) He's the only One who can truly satisfy us; (2) we get thirsty and needy in this life; and (3) His presence is necessary for our lives to continue. Lord, I'm thirsty and need some relaxation in life. I need the satisfaction that only You can give. If I don't get Your water, I'll die. I need You right away. Ah...Your water is good. Amen.

⁴Indeed, I come daily to Christ for spiritual strength. He's the Rock rejected by unsaved people, but chosen because He is precious to You, the Father. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ⁵Now I am a living stone that is part of the building which is Your house, but I'm also a holy priest offering worship to You. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ⁶As You said in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion, Christ as My precious cornerstone and I will not be put to shame because I believe in Him." 7When I put my whole trust in Him, He becomes precious to me. But to those who do not believe in Him, they reject Him as the cornerstone on which to build their lives. 8But Christ the primary cornerstone is a stumbling block to the unsaved, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and a stone used in execution to those who reject Him, but I am not disappointed in the One whom I believe. Now Lord, I am part of a chosen people, a royal priesthood, {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} a dedicated citizen of heaven, and one claimed by You. You have set me apart to proclaim the triumphs of Christ who has called me out of darkness into marvelous light. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁰I am part of the people of God—a saved Gentile who once was not Your particular people, but now I belong to You, who was outside of Your mercy, but now I have mercy. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

¹¹Lord, I will keep myself free from self-destructive passions {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} because I am a pilgrim in a foreign land. ¹²I will behave honorably among unsaved people {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} so they can see for themselves my good works, {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} and when the day of judgment comes, they will remember the things they now criticize. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

¹³I will submit myself to human institutions {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} for Your sake, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁴and

especially to government leaders because they are Your representatives to punish lawbreakers. ¹⁵Lord, it is Your will that my good testimony silence what fools have said about You in ignorance. I am a slave to no one except You, and {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} ¹⁶I'll live free and I'll never use my freedom as an excuse to sin. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹⁷I will respect everyone, {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} and I love the church, and I fear You, {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} and I keep the laws of my government. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

¹⁸Lord, I realize Christian employees must be respectful and obedient to their bosses, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} not only when the bosses are kind to them, but also when the bosses are cruel and demanding. ¹⁹There is a reward for putting up with undeserved punishment when it is done for Christ's sake. But there is no Christian reward when I'm punished because I've done something wrong and deserve punishment. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²⁰My reward comes when I accept punishment patiently and do my duty, even when I don't deserve punishment. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 21Because when Christ suffered undeservedly for me, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} He left me an example that I should follow His steps. {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} ²²Christ did not commit one sin, nor was He ever deceitful in anything He said.

Jesus Christ is our example and we are to follow His steps. When we don't know how to act or what to do, we should ask ourselves, WWJD? These letters mean: What Would Jesus Do? We should apply Jesus' example to our life, and walk accordingly. Lord, when I don't know what to do, I'll follow the example of Jesus. I'll do in my life what Jesus would do. Help me to live beyond myself and above my limitations. May I live as Jesus lived. Amen.

²³Nor did Christ threaten to get even when He was tortured, {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} but He committed Himself to You, the Father, who will judge rightly. ²⁴Christ suffered for my sins on the cross so I could repent of my sins and live a godly life; {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} through His wounds I have been healed. ²⁵I was straying like a lost sheep, but now I have come back to the Shepherd and Protector of my soul. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Lord, Jesus has provided a great salvation for me; He helps me live holy as a saved person should live. Amen.

1 Peter 3 The Sufferings of Christ

¹Lord, You tell a married woman to be obedient to her husband {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} so that if he refuses to obey the Word of God, he may be won to Christ by his wife's godly behavior {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²because her holy life speaks louder than her words. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ³You tell women not to dress up to show off, and they should not try to be spiritual by depending on jewelry, lovely clothes, and hair arrangements. 4They must be beautiful inwardly, with a gentle spirit and a quiet appearance, {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} which is what You want. 5That kind of inward beauty was seen in women of the past who trusted You and submitted to their husbands. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁶Sarah is an example who obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord. Women today can become Sarah's descendants by doing what is right {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} and not worrying their husbands or giving them cause for anxiety. 7Lord, you tell husbands to treat their wives with respect and honor them as the weaker vessel, {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9} because husband and wife are heirs together of the grace of life. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} When the husband does this, his prayers will not be hindered. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Our prayers are blocked by sin; in this case when husbands "do not treat her (wife) as you should, your prayers will not get ready answers" (3:7, LB). Prayers are blocked because of (1) sin (Ps. 66:18); (2) doubt or unbelief (Mark 11:24); (3) an unforgiving spirit (Mark 11:26); (4) idolatry

(1 John 5:21); (5) selfishness (James 4:2, 3); (6) insincere asking; (Heb. 11:6); and (7) heresy or false teaching. Lord, I come to You in Jesus' name with my prayers. I'm not asking to be heard because of my good conduct, I come by the blood of Jesus Christ who cleansed me, and because Jesus is my Intercessor (Heb. 7:24, 25). But I will live rightly with my family so that my prayers will not be blocked. Amen.

⁸Lord, I will live in harmony with other believers; be sympathetic {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22} and love all believers, {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} and be compassionate and humble. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 9Lord, I will never repay wrong with wrong, or a curse with a curse. Instead, I will repay a curse with a blessing {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} because that is what You call me to do, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} and I will be blessed by You. ¹⁰Lord, because I want a happy life and prosperity, I will not let my tongue lie, and become deceitful. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} 11I will turn away from evil and will do good. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I will try to live peaceably and hold on to it when I catch it, ¹²because You are watching me and listening to my prayers, but You frown on those who do evil.

Peter tells us that God is watching to see if His people do right and when they do, "His ears are open unto their prayers" (3:12). That means right living leads to right praying and results in answers to our prayers. Lord, I will live right because it is the right thing to do. Then when I pray I will have a right heart, and have a basis to receive answers from You. Amen

¹³Usually no one tries to hurt me when I do good, 14but if they do try to hurt me, You will reward me {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} and I will not be afraid of them or their threats. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} 15I will hold the Lord Jesus reverently in my heart {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} and when someone asks why I believe as I do, I'll tell them why I have my hope in Christ. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 16But I'll give my answer with courtesy and respect {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} so that when attackers curse me, they'll become ashamed when they see my exemplary life and conduct. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ¹⁷If it is Your will that I suffer, it is better that I suffer for doing right than for doing wrong. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

¹⁸Lord, thank You that Christ once suffered for my sins, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} the just for the unjust, that He might bring me to You, being put to death in the flesh, but raised by the Spirit. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ¹⁹Christ descended into hell to preach to people in prison ²⁰because they were disobedient to You and refused to repent, like those who rejected Noah's preaching, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts

5:4, 9} even when You waited patiently while Noah was building the ark. But only eight persons were saved from that terrible flood ²¹which was a symbol of baptism. The water is a picture of judgment for sin that Christ suffered on the cross, whereby we received cleansing for our sins by His death. And we received the promise of eternal life because Christ was resurrected; {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²²then He entered heaven to sit at God's right hand, {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} and now angels in heaven are subject to Him. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

When we are saved, we should have a clear conscience before God. Peter gives a picture of the basis of our salvation, namely, baptism. We are not saved by water baptism, but by its true meaning, that is, the death, burial and resurrection of Christ. Because our sins are forgiven and we have new resurrection life, our consciences are clear and we can pray to God. Lord, because my sins are forgiven and I have new life, I come praying to You for the things I need. Hear me because of what Christ has done for me. I have a clear conscience to ask those things because of Christ. Amen.

1 Peter 4 Attitudes About Suffering

¹Lord, I know Christ suffered when He was tortured. Therefore I will also be ready to suffer for my faith and I will have the same attitude as Christ. I will not suffer in my body because of personal sin. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²Therefore I won't let sin have domination over me and I will always do Your will. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ³I have lived too long to go back to my unsaved ways, giving myself to sex, debauchery, drunkenness, orgies, and worshiping idols. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 4My unsaved friends think I'm strange for not indulging myself in the same evil activities they do; they laugh at me in scorn. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} 5But they will have to give account to You who judges the living and the dead, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and then they will be punished for the way they lived. ⁶This is why the gospel was preached to those who died in the flood: {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} their physical life suffered in the flood, but their spirits live so they will appear before You in judgment. ⁷The world will soon come to an end, {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} and I will be clear-minded and self-disciplined so I can pray for all who don't know You and do Your will. {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13}

Peter tells us to "watch unto prayer" (4:7, KJV). A watchful attitude concerning the coming of Christ means (1) we keep clean from sin; (2) we keep accounts short; (3) we pray for both saved and lost people; and (4) "we love His appearing" (2 Tim. 4:2). Lord, I confess all known and unknown sin so I'll be ready when You come. I will live each day as though it is the last day and I look forward to Your return. Amen.

⁸I will love everyone because love makes up for my faults, {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 9and I will feed and give hospitality to those who need it. ¹⁰You have given me special abilities that I will use them to help others, {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} being careful to pass on Your kindness. 11If You call me to preach, {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} I will allow You to speak though me and if You lead me to help others, I will do it in Your strength. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} Lord, I want You to be glorified in my life through Jesus Christ. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} To Christ be glory and power, forever and ever. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9}

Peter teaches that we all must use the spiritual gift God has given us. "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God...as of the ability which God giveth" (4: 10, 11, KJV). Then we must pray for (1) wisdom to know our gift; (2) God's anointing on our ministry; (3) time to use our gift; and (4) results from our ministry. Lord, thank You for my spiritual gift. Help me understand how best to use my gift, where to use it, and when to use it. Lord, use my gift and anoint it for spiritual results. Amen.

¹²I will not be surprised when painful trials come, because trials are not an unusual thing for Christians. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 13I will be glad that I can suffer as Christ did, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} then I will rejoice when His glory is revealed. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} 14When people curse and blaspheme me as a Christian, I will have Your blessing resting on me. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ¹⁵My suffering will not be for crimes such as murder or theft, or even for sins such as hurting people or gossiping. 16When I suffer as a Christian. I will not be ashamed but will praise You that I bear Christ's name. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁷Time will come when judgment begins among God's followers. If I will be judged for my failures, how much more will the unsaved be judged? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 18 If the righteous will barely make it through judgment, how much more punishment will the ungodly have? 19So when I suffer for doing Your will, I will keep doing right. I will trust my soul to You, the faithful Creator, for You will never fail me. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Peter tells his readers not to be surprised when suffering and trials come because that is part of the Christian life. When we suffer for Christ, we identify with Him. He gives several attitudes the believer should have when suffering for Christ (4:12-19). Lord, I don't like physical pain, nor do I like it when I'm embarrassed for my faith. But You suffered for me, so I'll suffer for You. Be with me in my pain, help me through it, and use my testimony to glorify Christ. Amen.

1 Peter 5 Serving Christ in View of His Return

¹Lord, Peter spoke to church elders because he was an elder, {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} a witness of Christ's suffering, {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} and one who will share in His glory. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²Peter told elders to feed the flock {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} that God has entrusted to them, ministering as overseers, not because they have to, but because they are willing to do what You want them to do. Peter told them. "Don't do it for money, but serve eagerly and 3don't be dictators over God's people, {67 Church-Boss Rejection Prayer, 3 John 9} but be an example that everyone in the flock can follow. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 4When the Chief Shepherd shall appear, they'll receive a crown of glory that will never tarnish." {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10}

⁵Peter told the younger men to follow the leadership of the older men, {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} and the rest were to clothe themselves in humility and serve one another because You oppose the proud but give grace to the humble. ⁶Therefore I will bow before You, so You can lift me up. ⁷I will put the weight of all my problems on You. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7}

Peter tells us, "Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you" (5:7, KJV). How do we cast? We tell God we're giving Him our problems and concerns, then we do it by yielding the consequences of everything to God. Lord, I give You my cares; take care of the results. When I need wisdom and You want me to handle them for You, show me what to do. I will work hard, but leave the results with You now; they are Your concern. Amen.

⁸I will be watchful for attacks from my enemy, {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} satan who prowls as a hungry lion, looking for prey to feed on. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ⁹I will stand firm against satan, {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} knowing Christians throughout the world are undergoing all kinds of suffering. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

We are told, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (5:8). Therefore we must pray as we are on the lookout for satan. We pray (1) to recognize him; (2) to be alert to how he will attack us; (3) to know how to defend ourselves; (4) to protect others from his harm; and (5) for God to put a hedge of protection when we can't defend ourselves (Job 1:10). Lord, help me see satan's next attack and give me wisdom to protect myself. Give me strength to protect myself and give me wisdom to escape from him. Put a hedge of protection around me and my family so we will be safe when we don't know he's coming. Amen.

¹⁰After I suffer for a while on this earth, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} You who have grace will call me to eternal glory with Christ. But now You can protect me, make me stronger, {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} and confirm me. ¹¹To You be all power, forever and ever. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9}

¹²I am encouraged to learn how You bless believers who are going through the same kind of sufferings that try me; therefore I will stand firm. Peter sent this letter by Silas, whom he trusted. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹³The church in Babylon sent greetings along with Mark ¹⁴greeting all believers in all peace; peace to all in Christ. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, I never like to think about suffering, but Peter reminds me that all Christians will have some suffering; help me suffer in Your will, to Your glory. Amen.

2 Peter

CH 1: LEARNING VIRTUE FROM THE SCRIPTURES	. 1845
CH 2: WARNING CONCERNING APOSTASY	.1847
Ch 3: The Return of Christ	.1849

2 PETER

Key Words: Know, Knowing, and Knowledge (occurs 3 times)

Key Verse: "Then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment" (2 Peter 2:9 NKJV).

Theme: Peter was aware that martyrdom was near (1:14), just as Paul was also aware that his martyrdom was near (4:6). Yet both men were not bitter or fearful, but they rejoiced in serving Jesus. Both men saw apostasy creeping into the church. Peter traces apostasy to false teachers (2:1-3), and he shows how false teaching leads to filthy ungodly living.

Note the sections in 2 Peter. The believer's salvation is validated by the practices of Christian virtues (1:4-14); Peter recalls the transfiguration of Christ (1:15-18); prophecy is inspired and authoritative (1:19-21); false teachers bear certain marks (2:1-3-3); and Jesus will return (3:4-13); and spiritual diligence and steadfastness is encouraged (3:14-17). Lord, keep me from heresy and false teaching and give me spiritual insight to sniff out any trace in my life. May I be faithful to You in mind, body, and belief. Amen.

2 Peter 1 Learning Virtue from the Scriptures teach me to be as bold as Simon Peter, who wrote a letter addressed to Christians who had obtained the same precious faith he received. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} Lord, I too have that precious faith and I stand in Your righteousness and that of my Savior, Jesus Christ. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ²May Your grace and peace be multiplied in my life as I grow in knowing You and the Lord Jesus. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10}

³Your divine power has given me all things that relate to life and godliness, so I will grow as I know You who called me to a life of excellence and goodness. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ⁴You have given me Your precious promises that through the Word of God I have received a divine nature {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} which is the new man with new desires to obey You. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3}

God has promised "divine power [and] all things that pertain unto life and godliness" (1:3). God's power is not for just anything we desire, but for our "need" to be godly. God's power is not for a luxurious lifestyle or to fulfill our dreams. It's for godly living. Lord, forgive me for dreaming of riches, luxuries, and gadgets. Teach me to dream of godliness. Lord, I want to be like You. Amen.

⁵Therefore I will add character to my faith {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} so I will do the right thing in the right way. I will add Bible knowledge {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} to my character so I will always know what to do to please You. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 6I will add self-control to my biblical knowledge {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} so I will be steadfast in knowing and doing right. I will add godliness to my steadfastness so that I'll have a basis for becoming more godly. {419 Sanctified-Praying, Heb. 10:14} ⁷Finally, I will add brotherly love to my godliness {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} so that my godly life results in a loving relationship to all. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

The Christian is instructed to know God. Peter tells us God has given us His divine power so we can know God fully (1:3). Then Peter lists a number of qualities we need that will help us know God (1:5-7). Lord, my passion is to know both Your person and power. This is not a selfish prayer for some outward display of power, but I want to know You intimately and experience strength to overcome my sinful nature and inhibitions. Give me a daily ability to know You deeper each day. Amen.

8When I abound in these traits, I will not be ineffective or unfruitful in my walk on this earth. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} Those Christians who don't have these godly traits are blind, and {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} they have forgotten that their former sins are forgiven. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ¹⁰I have been called to salvation, chosen by You, I will be diligent to demonstrate Your call in my life. If I do all these things, there is no danger that I will ever fall away into sin, {469 Surety-Praying, 2 Peter 1:10} 11 and I will eventually be given admission to Your eternal kingdom to live forever with my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

Peter exhorts us to strive to make our salvation a "sure" thing. Why are some Christians not sure of their salvation? They have (1) sin in their life; (2) ignorance of Scripture; (3) false teaching about assurance, (4) doubts; (5) unanswered prayers; (6) unfulfilled Christian obligations; and (7) they were never saved in the first place.

¹²Throughout eternity, You'll continually retell these truths to me, even though I know them now and hold them firmly. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹³Peter said it is his duty to remind every one of these truths as long as he is in the body, that is, the tent. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ¹⁴Peter knew his time to leave the tent was coming soon just as the Lord Jesus predicted his death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁵Therefore Peter wrote these things so that after his departure, believers everywhere would be able to recall these things. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} ¹⁶Peter did not make up a myth when he went preaching the power of the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} but he saw with his eyes the majesty of Jesus. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 17Peter was honored on the Mount of Transfiguration to hear the Father speak, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." ¹⁸Peter actually heard the voice that came from heaven. {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6}

¹⁹Therefore I hold more certain than ever the word of prophecy and I will give careful attention to that word for it shines like a bright light in a dark world. It will shine until the day of Christ's return, which is the morning star arising in our hearts. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

²⁰I understand and believe that no prophecy of Scripture can be interpreted and understood in isolation, but every verse must be interpreted in light of all Scripture. ²¹No word of prophecy was written by human initiative and all the words men wrote in the Bible were inspired by the Holy Spirit. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32}

Lord, thank You for Your Word that saves me. Help me to master the Scriptures, and then meditate on them and live a godly life that's taught therein. Amen.

2 Peter 2 Warning Concerning Apostasy

¹Lord, there were false prophets living when the Bible was written just as there are false prophets today. These false prophets will subtly introduce dangerous heresies, they will deny You who redeemed them, {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} and eventually they will cause their own destruction. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ²Many will follow their filthy immorality, and by their lives will discredit the truth of God. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ³In their lust they will try to make many people their disciples, {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} but their foolish arguments make their judgment inevitable. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴I know You didn't spare the angels that sinned but bound them in chains {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and threw them in hell, so they must wait for the judgment day. ⁵And You didn't spare any of the people who lived before the flood and You completely destroyed the world with a flood except Noah, who spoke for You and his family of seven. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁶Later You reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into a heap of rubble and completely destroyed them as a fearful example to those who refuse to live by Your laws. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} 7Yet You delivered Lot {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and declared him righteous even when he was distressed at the sin of his day. 8Lot saw and experienced the filthy sins as he lived among sinners, and those sins tortured his soul day after day. 9I know for certain that You can rescue the righteous who are surrounded by temptation because You delivered Lot, {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} and I know that You reserve Your punishment for the wicked until the day of judgment comes. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

¹⁰Lord, I know Your judgment is reserved especially for those who indulge in their lusts {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} and despise authority. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} These wicked are arrogant and presumptuous and they dare to scoff at the Glorious One, the Lord Jesus Christ. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Peter used several illustrations of those who were condemned for false teaching: (1) false teachers in Israel; (2) angels who sinned; (3) the generation who rejected Noah's preaching; (4) Sodom and Gomorrah; and (5) those who denied the deity of Jesus Christ in Peter's day. The result of false teaching was that they (1) rejected Jesus; (2) condemned Christianity; (3) taught for greedy money; (4) used filthy language and living; (5) were engaged in sexual excess; and (6) faced judgment in this life and the next. Lord, I want to know and believe true doctrine. If I hold any small tenet of false teaching, show me my error. Remove spiritual blindness. I yield to the Holy Spirit's eyes; help me look at Scripture through His eyes. Help me be accurate in all my beliefs. Amen

¹¹Even the angels who are more powerful than they, never criticize these evil men before Your presence. 12Lord, these evil men are as dumb as animals which You gave us to eat and do our work, and they laugh at the great powers of the unseen world. But they will be destroyed in their own corruption and be destroyed with satan and the demons in hell. ¹³These men who do their evil in broad daylight are cancerous spots who revel in sin even when they come to Your house to eat. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁴They look everywhere for adultery, try to seduce the unsuspecting, and they are cursed because they magnify their greed. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁵They have left the right path to follow the path of Balaam, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} who tried to profit from his sin. ¹⁶The donkey rebuked Balaam with the voice of a man to restrain him from his sin. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} ¹⁷False teachers are like wells without water, they are like storm clouds without rain: the dark underworld is reserved for them. ¹⁸With their proud works they tempt

new converts to return to sin {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} who have just escaped the pagan world. They use lust to coax new believers back into sin; 19they promise freedom, but they are slaves themselves because they are dominated by sin. {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ²⁰If anyone escapes the pollution of this world and allows himself to be enslaved again, {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} his second state is worse than his first one. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 21It would have been better if he never learned the way of holiness. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²²He is like the proverb that says, "The dog returns to his own vomit," and "A pig that is washed returns to wallow in the mire." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Peter described the person who is really saved through "fully knowing our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ" (2:20, NKJV). But after salvation they went back to the world of sin and false teaching and "they are entangled" (2:20, NKJV). Peter condemned those who entrapped Christians with false doctrine. Therefore we are to pray for those who are so entangled. Lord, keep me from false doctrine; I ask for wisdom and strength to help others entangled in false doctrine. I don't know how those who are so entangled can pray, so I intercede for them. Amen.

2 Peter 3 The Return of Christ

¹Lord, Peter wrote this second letter, and in both letters he tried to motivate people to spiritual thinking {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²so they would remember the words of the prophets and keep the commands of the apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ. {140 Ephesians' Church-Prayer, Rev. 2:4-6}

Peter wrote his two letters to motivate his readers to have "pure minds" (3:1) which means to think on the words of Scripture and the commands of Jesus. Pure thinking comes from a pure mind that is filled with the Word of God. Lord, I want my prayers to be pure. I will read and memorize Your Word so I will have a pure mind. I yield myself to You and repent of evil thoughts so I will not have a filthy mind. Fill my mind with Your purity, and I will be pure. Amen.

³Peter wanted to remind them that scoffers would come in the last days following their own evil lusts. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ⁴Scoffers will say, "Where is His coming?" They will add, "Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ⁵They deliberately close their eyes to the fact the earth was formed out of the waters by Your command. ⁶They also forgot that the earth was covered by water ⁷and that the present heavens and earth are being maintained by You, and that one day You will judge this earth by fire. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Some will scoff at the promises of Jesus' return. It is their desire that Jesus will not return because scoffers know they will be judged. Scoffers want Christianity to fail and they want to continue their evil ways. They have enough "God consciousness" that motivates them to deny the things God promises, but scoffers are like those who denied the coming flood announced by Noah (3:5, 6). Lord, I do not scoff at the predictions of Your return, even when You delay. I believe You will come again because You said it, so I will prepare for it and live as if Jesus were coming today. Amen.

⁸Lord, I will never forget that a day with You is a thousand years, and a thousand years is only a day. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} 9I realize some people think You are slow about keeping Your promises, as some people measure slowness, but You will keep Your promises in Your time. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} Lord, I know You do not want anyone to perish but You want all people to repent and trust You for salvation. 10 Lord, You will come as a thief in the night {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} when the heavens will pass away with a thunderous noise, and the elements will dissolve with fire, and the works on earth will be burned up with fire. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹¹In view of all these things, I will live godly; I will live a good life, looking for Your return. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} 12That is the day when the heavens will disintegrate with fire and all the elements will melt. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹³My hope is set on the new heavens and the new earth which You have promised is where the righteous will live. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 14I will wait in hope for these things, and be found in You without blemish or spot at Your coming. I know why You are waiting to return. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ¹⁵You are giving us time to get this message of salvation to as many as possible. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ¹⁶Paul wrote about these same things in his letters, yet some of his comments are not easy to understand. Some people who are unlearned and rebellious deliberately have twisted his writings to mean something quite different from what he meant, just as they do other Scriptures that are disastrous to them. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹⁷Peter wrote to us about these false teachers so we can watch for them, and not be fooled by them, but that we may stand firm on biblical doctrine. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 18I will grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. To Him be all glory both now and forever. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

Peter tells his readers to "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (3:18). Note: (1) it is possible to grow; (2) God expects us to grow;

(3) some are not growing; and (4) it is possible to not grow but to stagnate and become spiritual pygmies. Since it is possible to grow, then we should pray for that growth. Lord, I want to grow in Your grace and I want to know You better. Give me a passion to grow, and put within me a spirit of discipline to pay the price for growth, for spiritual growth never comes without effort. Amen.

1 John

Ch 1: Fellowship with the Father because of t	`HE
Incarnation of Christ	1854
Ch 2: Test of Fellowship with the Father	1855
Ch 3: How Believers Relate to Each Other	1858
CH 4: WARNING AGAINST FALSE TEACHERS	1859
Ch 5: You Can Know You Are God's Child	1861

1 JOHN

Key Word: Know (occurs 32 times)

Key Verse: "These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God" (1 John 5:13).

Theme: John writes an intimate family letter to his "little children," telling them to love one another to demonstrate they are born again. He expects them not to sin, and treats sin as a child's offense against their heavenly Father. There is no personal greetings from John as found in Paul's letters, nor are there greetings to those who receive this letter; probably this is because John intended this letter to be read in all the churches.

The apostle sets a stark contrast with darkness, death, falsehood, and hate in this letter. Against that dark background, John taught the child of God should have assurance of their salvation. Therefore John uses the word know to give them many reasons for inner confidence.

He maintains, "Now he who keeps His commands abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us" (3:24 NKJV). Lord, I love You with all my heart; give me that same love for others. I know Christ is in my heart; give me confidence of faith so I'll have an assurance of salvation. Amen.

John 1 Fellowship with the Father because of the Incarnation of Christ

I have heard the message that is from the beginning, which my spiritual eyes have seen and looked on, and my hands have handled—the WORD OF LIFE. {85 Consensus-Prayer, Acts 15:18} ²Eternal life was manifested to me, I have seen it; and now I witness to others and tell them about eternal life which was with You the Father, and manifested to me. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ³That which I've seen and heard, I tell others that they may have fellowship with me as I have fellowship with You, and with Your Son, Jesus Christ. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ⁴John has written these things to give me heavenly joy.

⁵Lord, I worship You because You are light and there is absolutely no darkness in You, so now I declare this message to everyone. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} ⁶Lord, if I tell people that I have fellowship with You and yet I walk in darkness, I lie and deny the truth. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁷But when I walk in the light as You are the light, I have fellowship with other believers, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses me of all my sins. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

One of John's dominant themes is "light." Because "God is light," we must not walk in darkness, but in the light. Light walking is (1) obedient fellowship with Jesus (1:7); (2) interactive fellowship with other believers (1:7); (3) not hating (2:9); and (4) abiding or living in the light (2:10). Lord, I want to walk in Your light, and reflect light to the unsaved. Help me not stumble, but walk confidently toward Your purpose for my life. Amen.

⁸Lord, if I tell people I have no sin in me, I deceive myself, and I don't have Your truth. {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ⁹When I confess my sins, You are faithful to forgive my sins, and cleanse me from all unrighteousness. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁰If I were to say I've never sinned, I make You a liar and Your Word doesn't control me. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32}

"Prayer is relationship with God" and is best reflected in fellowship-praying. When we walk in the light (1:7) and all our sins are dealt with (1:8-11), then we can fellow-ship-pray. Lord, the best experience of prayer is fellowship-praying, so I seek a close, intimate relationship {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} with You. I want to know Your heart and what plans You have for me. Amen.

1 John 2 Test of Fellowship with the Father

¹Lord, because You told me not to sin, I won't do it, but when I slip and sin once, Jesus Christ stands at Your right hand to plead forgiveness for me. {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1}

Jesus is our High Priest who represents us to the Father in heaven. Jesus is called an "advocate" (2:1, KJV) which is a legal term for a lawyer, that is, a person who represents someone before a judge when that person has broken the law. So Jesus is our lawyer who pleads to the Father for forgiveness after we sin. Jesus pleads His blood as the legal payment for sin. Lord, don't punish me for my sin. Jesus is my lawyer; He asks for my forgiveness based on His blood that pays the price for my sin (1 Peter 1:18-20). Thank You for Your mercy that forgives me. Thank You, Jesus, for being my lawyer. Amen.

²I know Jesus has forgiven all my sin and He didn't die for me alone, but for the whole world. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

The word "propitiation" is a legal term that means satisfaction (1 John 2:2, KJV). When Jesus paid the price for our sins (1 Peter 1:18-20), He satisfied our account. Our record in heaven is clean, and our sins are forgiven. "Not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world" (2:2, KJV). This doesn't mean the whole world is going to heaven, as some universalists claim. No! The blood of Christ was sufficient for them, but only those who repent and believe will go to heaven. Then the blood of Christ is efficient to forgive their sins. Why do people go to hell? Because of unbelief! Lord, I believe, thank You that Your blood was efficient to forgive my sins. Lord, I pray for the unsaved; Jesus' blood is efficient for them if they will believe. Amen.

³I have confidence that I'm Your child because I keep Your commands. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} 4Those who say that they know You but don't keep Your commands are liars and they don't have the truth. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} 5But those who keep Your Word have Your love in their hearts; that's why I know I'm Your child. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} Because I abide in You, I ought to live the way You walked. ⁷Lord, John didn't write anything new in his letter; he just repeated the original commands You gave us, and that commandment is found in Your Word. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

⁸Then John added what is new about the old commands; {283 Light-Praying, 1

John 1:7} 9those who claim to be in the light but hate their brother are in darkness until now. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ¹⁰Those who love their brother live in Your light; these persons will not stumble in darkness. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} 11Lord, those who hate their brothers live in the darkness of sin, and walk in darkness and they don't know what they're doing, because the darkness of sin has blinded their eyes. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 12Lord, John has written to new children in the faith to let them know their sins are forgiven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹³Lord, John has written to those mature fathers in the faith because they have known You from the beginning. Lord, John has written to young men because they overcame the evil one. Lord, John has written to children in the faith because they know You. 14Lord, John has written to those mature fathers who have known You from the beginning and You have overcome the evil one.

¹⁵Lord, I will not love worldly attractions, or anything else that will pull me away from You. Those who love the world do not love You, the Father. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ¹⁶Because worldly attraction involves the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, these are not from You, but are from the evil one. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹⁷I know the world will pass away, as well as fleshly lust, but I will live forever by doing Your will. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20}

John tells believers, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world" (2:15, KJV). Then John explains, "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (2:16, KJV). Because lust is intrinsic to our nature, we must pray to insulate ourselves from our sinful lusts. Lord, keep me from being controlled by my lusts. I yield to You; give me a pure heart that's not dominated by sinful lusts. May I love You so deeply that sinful lust would have no place in my life. Amen.

¹⁸Lord, John has written that we live in the last days and that the antichrist will come in the future. Because the spirit of the antichrist is already here, we know he will come. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 19Many Christians have stopped fellowshiping with us, which demonstrates they have abandoned their faith, for if they were of us, they'd still have fellowship with us. But because they went out from us this proves they were not believers. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁰Lord, I have an anointing of the Holy Spirit so I can know spiritual things. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ²¹John wrote to us because we know the truth, and that no lie comes from the truth. {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ²²Those who deny that Jesus is the Messiah are liars, and they have the spirit of antichrist because they deny both You the Father and the Son. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³Those who deny the Son don't have Your presence in their lives, and those like me, who have the Son, also have You. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} ²⁴I will continue in the message I heard from the beginning, and when I continue abiding, I will fellowship with You and the Son. ²⁵Then I have the promise which is eternal life. ²⁶John wrote to tell me about those who try to deceive me. ²⁷But Lord, I still have the anointing You gave me at salvation, so I don't need anyone to explain truth to me. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7}

²⁸That anointing gives me basic spiritual understanding so I will abide in the truth that has been taught me. {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14} ²⁹Lord, I know that Jesus Christ is righteous so all those who obey the truth taught by Him are born of God. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

We have "a gift" to enable us to know the truth of God (2:27). The King James Version calls it "the anointing." This refers to the Holy Spirit who helps us understand spiritual truth. Jesus said, "The Holy Ghost... shall teach you all things" (John 14:26). Again Jesus said the Holy Spirit "will guide you into all truth" (John 16:13). So to learn more spiritual truth and understand it better we must be rightly related to the Holy Spirit and ask Him to help us. Lord, I need the Holy Spirit to help me understand spiritual truth. I yield to His full control of my life. Take away darkness and evil thoughts; help me understand spiritual truth. Amen.

1 John 3 How Believers Relate to Each Other

¹I often think about the love of You—the Father—for me and the fact that You call me Your child because I really belong to You. When the world refuses to acknowledge You, it also refuses to recognize my salvation. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5}

John writes that we are "called His children, and we really are..." (3:1, LB). Therefore we should approach the Father like a child which means (1) because of our intimate relationship; (2) because parents are obliged to provide and protect their children; (3) because parents are the first line of care; and (4) because parents are obliged to teach and correct their children. Lord, I come to You with my needs and requests. Protect me, help me, teach me, and provide for me. I am Your child; teach me how to live, and tell me how to pray. I want to please You. Amen.

²Yes, I am already Your child, and I can't imagine what our fellowship will be like in heaven. I do know this much about my future life when Jesus comes, I'll be like Him because I've seen Him in the Word of God. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ³Everyone who agrees with me about our future relationship will keep themselves as pure as You are. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

⁴Anyone who keeps on sinning breaks Your commands because sin is breaking Your law. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ⁵I know Jesus became a man to take away sin and that there is no sin in Him. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ⁶So when I stay close to Jesus, I won't be sinning and those who sin continually were not saved in the first place and they don't know Him. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} ⁷I am Your child, so I won't let anyone deceive me and I will live holy because You are holy. {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} 8Those who constantly sin belong to the devil since sin began with the devil and he constantly keeps sinning. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 9I know the Son of God has come to undo all that the devil has corrupted with sin. {162 Father-Cry Prayer, Gal. 4:5} ¹⁰Because I have been born again, I don't constantly sin because I have a new nature that tells me what to do. This is how you tell the difference between a child of God and a child of the devil. Whoever constantly sins and doesn't love other Christians, is not in Your family. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ¹¹I have heard Your message from the beginning that I am commanded to love other believers. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 12I will not be like Cain who killed his brother because he was not Your child, {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 13 and I won't be surprised when the world hates me. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁴When I love other Christians, it proves I have been delivered from death and hell and I have eternal life. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁵If I refuse to love a believer, it proves I am just the same as a murderer, and murderers don't have eternal life. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} 16I know true love from the example of Jesus Christ, because He died for me. Because of this I ought to live for others. {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹⁷If someone has money and professes to know You, yet refuses to give to a needy Christian, how could Your love live in Him? {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹⁸Therefore I will not love in words only; I will show my real love by the things I do. {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9} ¹⁹Only by actions can I be sure that I am Your child, and my conscience will be clear when I come to Your presence. 20When my conscience makes me feel guilty because I sin, I realize You know everything about me for You are greater than my conscience. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

There are two kinds of guilt. First is legal guilt when we are guilty before God for having sinned and broken God's law. The second is the experience of guilt because we don't live a perfect life. So, we may feel guilty because of our imperfections. Experiential guilt makes us feel guilty, and we lose our inner peace (legal peace) before God. If we don't have experiential peace, we can get answers to our prayer (3:21). But experiential guilt can destroy our confidence in prayer and block answers (3:21). Lord, I come in prayer because I stand perfect before You. But sometimes my experiential guilt destroys my confidence to pray. So then I'll remember "the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7, KJV). Then I'll pray confidently. Amen.

²¹Therefore, when my conscience doesn't convict me, I can come to You with my request in prayer to get what I ask, because I am keeping Your commands. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} ²²And this is Your commandment that I believe in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ, and that I love believers as You commanded us. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²³Because I keep Your commands, I know I live in You, and You live in me. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

When we "do those things that are pleasing in His sight" (3:22), then "whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him" (3:22, KJV). How can we please God to get our prayers answered? "Without faith is it impossible to please Him" (Heb. 11:6). When we truly believe God exists and we diligently pray, then God is pleased. Lord, I confess that You are the Creator of all things and that You exist today. I come praying with all my heart. Be pleased with the requests I make. Amen.

²⁴The Holy Spirit gives me this assurance. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5}

1 John 4 Warning against False Teachers

¹Lord, I will not believe every person who claims to be a Christian, but I will test his spirit to see whether he is from You, because many false teachers are going around. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1}

Because there will always be false teachers, we are commanded to "try the spirits" (4:1) to determine if they are from God. A false spirit will not confess that Jesus Christ is fully God. At the same time they must confess Jesus was fully man. Jesus was never more God than when He was fully man. He was never more fully human than when He was fully God. Jesus is the God-Man. He was never half-God and half-man. Jesus was fully God and fully man at the same time, and will always be so in the future. Lord, I confess Your deity, You are God who died for me. Lord, I confess Your humanity, You are perfect man who now intercedes for me before the Father. Amen.

²Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from You; every spirit that denies Jesus had a body is not from You. {262 Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Heb. 7:24-25} ³Those who deny Jesus was human are antichrists, who were predicted to come, and are now here. If Jesus didn't come in a body, He couldn't lived a perfect life, nor could He have died, nor would He have bled to redeem us, nor could He have been raised in His physical body. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 4Lord, I will be victorious over false teaching because greater is the Holy Spirit in me, than the spirit of the world. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

We should overcome evil when we pray because "greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world" (4:4, KJV). Therefore, when evil overcomes us, it is because we have not claimed the power and victory of the One in us, "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Col. 1:27). Lord, forgive me when I forget to claim Your power and I get my eyes off You. I know You are powerful; it's my lack of faith that keeps me from claiming Your victory. Amen.

Those who speak the language of the world get attention from the world; they are not from You. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ⁶But I am Your child and I know You listen to me and those who belong to You, listen to me; this is how I tell the spirit of truth from the spirit of falsehood. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

⁷Lord, I pray Your children will love one another since love comes from You, and everyone who is born again has been given the gift of love. {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1} 8 Those who fail to love other people have never known You because You are love. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} 9Your love for me was revealed when You sent Your only Son into the world, so that I could have life through Him. What is love? {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} 10Not that I loved You, but that You loved us and sent Your Son as a sacrifice to take away my sins. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1}

We should love one another because (1) we are commanded to do so (4:7); (2) God first loved us; (3) it reflects our love to God (4:8); (4) God gave Himself for us, so we give ourselves to others (4:9); and (5) God who lives in us is love, and He loves others through us (4:16). Lord, I'm overwhelmed with Your love; teach me to love You in return, and then teach me to love others. I know You indwell me; let Your love shine through me. Amen.

¹¹Since You have loved me so much, I ought to love other believers. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8}

¹²No one has ever seen You at any time, but as long as I love other believers, You will live in me, and Your love will be seen through me. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹³Thank You for putting the Holy Spirit into my heart as a proof that You live in me, and I live in You. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18}

¹⁴Furthermore, John saw with his eyes and writes to tell us You sent the Son to save the world. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁵Those who acknowledge that Jesus is Your Son lives in You, and You in them. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} ¹⁶I know You love me deeply because I feel Your love for me. You are love, and whoever lives a life of love, lives in You, and You live in them. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁷Your love will be complete in me when I stand perfect before the judgment seat of Christ. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

¹⁸There is no fear in love, because perfect love drives out fear. Those who do not love are fearful because they do not know what will happen to them in judgment; that proves they are not Your children. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁹So, my love for You comes because You first loved me; {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} ²⁰Those who say, "I love God" but hate a fellow Christian whom they can see, cannot love You whom they cannot see. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²¹So this is the summary of love: anyone who loves You must also love his brother or sister. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8}

Lord, I love You with all my heart, mind, and body; keep me always in the center of Your will. Amen.

1 John 5 You Can Know You Are God's Child

¹Lord, I know I am born again because I believe Jesus is the Messiah. And all who love You, love Your children also. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ²I know I am Your child because I love You, and I do what You have commanded me to do. ³This is what loving You means—keeping Your commands because they are not difficult. {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38}

⁴I know I am Your child because I have victoriously overcome the lust of the world by faith. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor.

2:14} 5Who else can overcome the world? Only those who believe Jesus is the Son of God. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15}

God gives His children an inner witness through the Scriptures that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and those who know Him get their prayers answered. Lord, I know I am Your child because I invited You into my heart and Your Scriptures reinforce this experience. Thank You for an inner assurance that I am saved. Amen.

⁶Jesus came by water and blood; His blood was shed to cleanse us from sin, and water stands for our Spirit baptism into the body of Christ, the church. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ⁷The Holy Spirit is another witness that I am Your child; the Holy Spirit witnesses in me that I am born again. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} 8These three, the blood, water, and Spirit, all agree that I am Your child. {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁹Many people accept a man's witness to the truth, {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ¹⁰but Your witness is much greater. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 11I know I am born again because I have Your witness within. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ¹²Everyone who believes in Your Son has life, those who reject Your Son make You out to be a liar, but I know I am born again because of Your testimony in Your Word that You have given us Your Son. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} ¹³Those who have the Son have eternal life, and I know I am born again because I have Your Son in my heart. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5}

¹⁴I also have assurance because You said those who have the Son have eternal life. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 15I also know I am born again because You hear my prayers, and I know You will answer my prayers because You do not hear and answer the prayers of unsaved people. {83 Confident-Praying in God's Presence, Heb. 13:5} 16Lord, I will pray for those who commit a sin that does not lead to death and You will give them life. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁷There is a fatal sin which ends in death; I will not pray on this occasion, all wrongdoing is sin, but not all sin is fatal. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

The Bible describes a "sin unto death" and tells intercessors not to pray for such a one. Apparently the "sin unto death" is a repeated sin by a believer that leads to premature death. Since God knows the time of death for all people, there are some believers He brings home before that predetermined date. Lord, keep me safe from sin; may I not be blinded by sin so that I commit a "sin unto death." May I not sin ignorantly so that I harden my heart beyond repentance. May I always be sensitive about sin and seek Your forgiveness by the blood of Christ. Give me a passion to live sinlessly. Amen.

¹⁸I know I am born again because I do not continually practice sin because the Son of God protects me from the evil one.

{387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁹I know I am born again because I realize all non-Christians are lost, but Your children have this spiritual insight. {241 Inner-Assurance Praying, 1 John 5:10} ²⁰I know the Son of God has come into my heart to give me spiritual understanding to know You, and I know You are the true God who gives eternal life. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²¹Lord, I will watch out for anything that takes Your place in my heart. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

The word "know" is the key word in this chapter as John tells us how we can know we have eternal life. Many Christians doubt if they are going to heaven, but John says we can be assured of salvation when (1) we have Christ (5:12); (2) we accept Scriptures' teaching (5:11); (3) God answers our prayers (5:14-15); (4) we have a new nature that overcomes sin (5:18); and (5) we have spiritual insight and our spiritual blindness is removed (5:20). Lord, thank You for eternal life and for the assurance that I can know I am saved. Thank You for removing my doubts and giving me innate assurance that I am going to heaven. Amen.

2 John

CH 1: LIVE THE TRUTH	1865
----------------------	------

2 JOHN

Key Word: Truth (occurs 4 times)

Key Verse: "The Elder, to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth, because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever" (2 John 1, 2).

Theme: The key word "truth" is attached to love in the phrase "in truth and love" (v. 3). In this way John continues the theme of love in his first letter. Truth is the body of revealed truth, that is, the Word of God. And love is the defining attribute of Christ's followers. Because "many deceivers are entered into the world" (v. 7), John tells his "children" to mark these persons, have no fellowship with them in their house, nor greet them (v. 10). He writes as an "elder" which is a reference to his office. "The chosen lady" is probably a reference to the church that received this letter. If he had written to a specific lady, he probably would have used her name, as he does with other individuals (3 John 9, 12). The "elect lady" was probably a reference to the Ephesian church from which John writes. Lord, I love Your church and will fellowship with it. I also abhor false teaching and will separate myself from them. Amen.

2 John 1 Live the Truth

letter from the elder John, to the church who is an elect lady and her children whom I love in truth: {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} "I and everyone in the body of Christ love you in the faith because the Word of God dwells in your heart {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1} ² and in ours. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ³Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father." {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1}

The key phrase in this book is "love in the truth" (v. 1). You can't have one without the other. If we fulfill the royal law of love, but it does not grow out of love; it is not enough. The opposite also applies; we are not committed to the truth of God's Word if we don't love others. Let us pray that we may balance both by being filled with both. Lord, I am committed to Your truth; help me demonstrate it with love to all. And may my love not be mushy soft; may Your love flow to me from the Scriptures, and then flow to others. Amen.

⁴I am glad that I found your children walking in truth {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9} and obeying God's Word.

⁵Now I urgently remind you of the important principle that you love one another; this is the command I wrote to you from the beginning {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38} ⁶that when we love one another, we keep His words. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

Lord, give me a deeper love for other Christians and help me express it; help me receive love from others, and in that relationship may our love grow to overcome all our weaknesses. Amen.

7"Watch out for false teachers who believe and teach that Jesus Christ was born only with a human body, and that He was not deity. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} These false teachers are deceivers and antichrists. ⁸Keep a watchful eye {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} that you do not lose the prize for which you and I work. Be constant so you receive your full reward for being faithful in all things {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} because if you wander from the teachings of Christ, you will lose God's influence in your life.

The King James Version calls these false teachers deceivers, and The Living Bible calls them false leaders. Whatever names they are called, we must guard ourselves against those who teach that Jesus Christ did not come in the flesh. We must pray (1) for God to take away spiritual blindness concerning their heresy; (2) to understand the truth of Jesus Christ taught in the Scriptures; and (3) to have the ability to teach the truth of Jesus and warn against their heresy. Lord, open my eyes to understand all that is taught about Jesus in the Scriptures; I will study diligently to learn as much as I can. Help me stand strong against false teachings about Jesus, and help me warn others against heresy. Amen.

⁹Those who remain true to Christian doctrine {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} have both the Father and the Son. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ¹⁰If anyone comes teaching that Jesus Christ is not equal in nature to the Father, do not receive him or give him hospitality, nor recommend him to other churches because those who support him {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹¹will become partners in his false teaching.

¹²I have many things to explain, but I will not write them with pen and paper. We will both be satisfied when I come and speak personally with you {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} about these things. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹³The children of your "sister" greet you.

Lord, I believe You inspired every word of the Bible, so it is accurate and I can rely on it to know the truth. Keep me from using my opinions to interpret Your Word; I yield to the Holy Spirit to guide me to understand the Bible so I can accurately know and teach Your will to others. Amen.

3 John

Ch 1: Watch Out for Church Ditators 18	Сн 1:	WATCH	Out for	Church	DITATORS.	18	70
--	-------	-------	---------	--------	-----------	----	----

3 JOHN

Key Words: Love in truth (3 John 1)

Key Verse: "The Elder, to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth" (v. 1).

Theme: John writes to a church where Diotrophes had exercised control over the congregation to his own selfish purposes. Diotrophes had rejected an apostolic letter and authority, and wouldn't receive visiting preachers (v. 10). John no longer writes as an apostle (because the day of apostles was ceasing) but as an elder (v. 1), using the authority that comes with congregational recognition to deal with Diotrophes. John spells out a believer's responsibility as a member of a local church in the days of coming apostasy.

The key is to remain faithful to "the truth," the Word of God. But that doesn't mean obstinate faithfulness, but to "love in truth" (v. 1). Lord, I will look to You as my authority in all things. I will find truth in the Word of God and will follow it. Don't let me fall into the snare and spirit of Diotrophes. Keep me loving at all times. Amen.

3 John 1 Watch Out for Church Dictators letter is from the elder John to the well-beloved Gaius, a church leader whom I love. {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²"I am praying for you to prosper physically as you prosper spiritually. {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³I rejoiced when I heard from different traveling ministers that you are standing for the truth, {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} and you are living by the truth. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴Nothing could make me happier than to hear that those I led to Christ are faithful to the Word of God." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

John was happy to hear that those he led to Christ were "walking in the truth" (v. 4). Since truth is that which is consistent with itself and corresponds to the real world, so "truth living" is a consistent Christian life the way it is supposed to be lived. Lord, I pray that I would know the truth, live the truth, be a testimony to the unsaved, and glorify You in all I do. Amen.

5"Dear Friend, thank you for giving hospitality to the traveling preachers and missionaries who came through your town. 6They told the church in Ephesus of your friendship and help. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 7Thank you for sending them on their way {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} with a financial gift because they travel for the Lord without a salary, and they refuse to take money from the unsaved, even though they attended their meetings and received their ministry. 8Remember, the churches have the responsibility to care for them financially, thus becoming fellow workers with them in the truth." {295 Love-Praying, Matt. 22:37-38}

Lord, thank You for those men of God who teach me the Word of God; may I grow spiritually because of their ministry. Use their ministry to edify the whole body of Christ, and supply all their temporal needs. Amen.

9"I previously wrote to the church {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} to take care of them, but Diotrephes, who loves to boss the church, refused to listen to my advice. ¹⁰If I am able to come, I will show you the evil things he is saying against the Ephesian church. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} He refuses to allow the preachers we sent to carry out their ministry, nor will he allow others in the church to listen to them; he kicks them out of the church." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

John rejected Diotrephes who acted like a church boss when he rejected ministers John sent to the church. Technically no human is the church boss; the church is led by Jesus Christ, its Shepherd (1 Peter 3:4), and human leaders should be possessed by Christ and lead for Christ. We should pray (1) for Christ to lead the church; (2) for the church to grow and serve Christ; and (3) against those who want to "boss" the church for their own egotistical purposes. Lord, I love Your church and I will follow You as its leader. I will work in Your church and will do all I can to build it up. Amen.

11"Dear Friend, do not follow his terrible example, but pattern your life after a good example. When the believers in your church do what is right, {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} they prove they are God's children. 12 Everyone recognizes Demetrius does the right things, so receive him when he delivers this letter to you because I know he will tell you the truth and answer your questions. 13I have many things to tell you but I can't write them because I hope to see you soon, then we can talk about them. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 14Peace to you. Friends here send their love; give everyone a special greeting from me." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

Lord, it's so easy to be blinded by our own self-importance; keep me from being egocentric and tyrannical like Diotrephes. May I humbly see my place in the whole body of Christ and fit in; may believers love to be around me because I build them up. Lord, may I be sensitive to leaders and followers in the church; may I build up Your body, not tear it apart. Amen.

Jude

Ch 1: Sinful Living Leads to Doctrinal Heresy 1875

JUDE

Key Words: Fight for the faith (Jude 3)

Key Verse: "Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (v. 3).

Theme: This brief letter describes the way apostasy was creeping into the early church and predicted it would be even greater in the future. Jude warned about the consequences of apostasy and challenged the readers to "fight" against its every appearance. He ends his letter sharing the things that will protect against apostasy: living in the word (v. 20); prayer (v. 20); fellowship with believers (v. 21); hope (v. 21); serving Christ (v. 22); evangelism of the lost (v. 23); separation from sin (v. 23); and resting in assurance (v. 24).

Jude was one of the 12 apostles, and he is identified as "not Iscariot" (John 14:22). Perhaps that is because his name was the same as Judas, the betrayer of Christ; Jude had a lifelong struggle to free his identity from Judas, the ultimate apostate. Therefore Jude was qualified to deal with apostasy. He changed his name from Jude to Lebbaeus, Thaddaeus. Later in life he returned to the Latin form of his original name, Jude. Jerome, an early church father, called him Trionius, "the man with three names." Lord, I believe everything You said in the Bible. I will not add to it or take away from it. I will do what the Bible commands, and will live what it teaches. Keep me from selfish speculation about Your Word. Amen.

Jude 1 Sinful Living Leads to Doctrinal Heresy

I thank You for Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ; thank You that he wrote to me and to believers everywhere who have obeyed Your call, and You keep them in the faith of Jesus Christ. May I experience Your daily presence in my daily walk with You; {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ²Lord, I receive Your mercy, peace, and love. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ³Jude had planned to write about the wonderful truths of the salvation we share in common, {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} but he found it necessary to urge us in this letter to be prepared to defend the complete faith that You have once for all given to me, {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ⁴because some have infiltrated the churches who are the ones I have been previously warned about. These people were condemned {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} for denying Your truth and have turned Your freedom into an opportunity to sin. As a result they have rejected the authority of my Master, Jesus Christ. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Jude tells us there will be a terminal date when all revelation and inspiration for Scripture will end. He refers to "the faith" which is "once delivered unto the saints" (v. 3). That means the writing of Scripture will come to an end. God has said what needs to be said for our salvation and growth in Christ. Now we have in the Bible everything we need to know about prayer. So, we shouldn't complain about what we don't know about prayer; all we need to know is there in the Bible for us. We need to study every page of Scripture to learn as much as God has revealed. Then we need to pray more earnestly, with more faith, about more topics. If there's any limitation to prayer, it's not with God or His Word; it's with us and our limitations and weaknesses. Lord, help me to learn all I can about prayer that's written in Your Word. Help me pray with all the knowledge, faith, and ability that I have. Amen.

⁵Lord, I rejoice that You delivered Israel from the slavery of Egypt, {303

Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} even though You later destroyed those rebels who went back to sin. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁶I also read about the sinless angels who rebelled against You that You threw them into hell to be chained until the day of judgment. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, help me remember that when Christians give in to sexual sins they are blinded by their lusts, and they lose their understanding of truth, just as Israel was rebellious of You and became blinded to heresy. Lord, keep me sexually pure and give me strength to live right, so I will know the truth, and correctly live by it. Lord, help me remember You created angels sinless and beautiful, yet You punished them for their sin. Help me live a holy life. Amen.

⁷Finally, I read about those in Sodom and Gomorrah who lusted after sexual sin, including unnatural lust of men with men. You destroyed those cities with fire as a warning to us that there is punishment in hell for those who give themselves to sin. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

⁸Lord, today false teachers still rebel against You by living their sinful immoral lives, defiling their bodies, {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} laughing at those in authority over them and despising Your messengers. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ⁹Not even Michael dared to denounce the devil over the corpse of Moses but said, "The Lord rebuke you." {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer,

1 Peter 5:8} 10But these false teachers will mock anything they do not understand {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} and like animals they do anything they feel like doing; by giving into their lusts, their actions become fatal. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} 11May these false teachers get what they deserve. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} May they be punished like Cain who killed his brother; may they get the same reward as Balaam who cursed Israel. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} They have rebelled against spiritual leadership just as Korah; may they share his same fate of falling into hell. ¹²They are a dangerous threat to our fellowship at the Lord's Table because they come just to get a good meal. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} They are like rain clouds that are blown over the farm that bring no rain to give life to the fields. They are like barren fruit trees that give no fruit, so let's dig them up in winter like the other fruitless trees. 13 They are like raging waves that threaten the ship of faith, also they are like shooting stars that burn out and give no light. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16}

Lord, help me recognize false teachers and separate myself from them and their influence. Stop their spread of evil to religious people who follow their lusts, not the Word of God. Amen.

¹⁴Enoch, who lived seven generations from Adam, knew about these false teachers when he preached and predicted, "You will come with millions of saints {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹⁵to pronounce judgment on all those who reject You and judge the wicked for all the wickedness they have done, and to punish those who speak defiantly against You." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁶False teachers are complainers, malcontents, doing only what their desires—lusts—drive them to do. They boast and brag about their spirituality, and they give "lip service" to leaders in the church, but they do it to their advantage. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18}

Lord, Jude had godly hatred for false teachers who destroy people with their false teaching; Give me a passion to be true in all I know and believe. Amen.

¹⁷Lord, I remember our Lord Jesus Christ told the apostles 18that in the last days there would be scoffers who will live according to their sinful lust. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} ¹⁹These false teachers will split churches, and stir up arguments, because they do not have the Holy Spirit to teach them truth or to convict them of their evil imaginations and sin. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 20Lord, I commit myself to becoming strong in Your faith; I will pray in the power of the Holy Spirit. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ²¹I will keep myself within the constraints of Your love and wait patiently for Jesus Christ to give me eternal life.

Jude tells us to be "praying in the Holy Ghost" (v. 20). How does that happen? Do we pray through the Holy Spirit much as a person addresses a judge through a lawyer? Or do we let the Holy Spirit use our words as He fills us and prays through us? Or do we pray in the name of the Holy Spirit as we pray in the name of Jesus, that is, with His authority? Or does the Holy Spirit just help us to pray much like someone helps us write a letter or a request? The answer—all of them. Holy Spirit, fill me to pray effectively, and help me phrase my request to get an answer from the Father. My passion is to pray in the Spirit. Amen.

²²I will have mercy on those who have doubts, and I will try to help those who argue against You. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²³I will point them to You by being kind to them; some You will save by snatching them from the flaming hell. I will be careful I'm not pulled into their sin and into hell itself. I will hate everything about their sin, being careful not to be contaminated by their lusts. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15}

Jude exhorted his readers to show mercy on the weak, and to pull innocent believers out of the fire by having "compassion, making a difference" (v. 22, KJV). Isn't that what we do by prayer and humbly serving others, that is, "we make a difference in their lives"? Lord, I pray for my Christian friends that they would grow in Christ, serve You wholeheartedly, and glorify You. I deeply want my intercession for them to make a difference in their lives. Amen.

²⁴Now I praise You because You can keep me from falling, and You can deliver me faultless into Your glorious presence so that I am happy and preserved in Christ. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ²⁵To You, the only God who saves me through our Lord Jesus Christ, to You be glory, majesty, authority, and power in the ages past, now, and forever in the future. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Lord, Jude probably hated false teachers because he was mistaken for Judas Iscariot. No wonder he hated false teachers so deeply. Keep me close to Your truth all my life. Amen.

REVELATION

CH 1: JOHN'S VISION OF CHRIST1880
CH 2: EPHESUS
CH 3: SARDIS
CH 4: SEEING THE THRONE1887
Cн 5: Who Is Worthy? 1889
CH 6: THE SEVEN SEALS1890
Сн 7: Тне 144,0001892
CH 8: SILENCE IN HEAVEN1893
Ch 9: The Judgment of Trumpets1894
CH 10: THE STRONG ANGEL1896
CH 11: Two Prophets in Jerusalem1896
CH 12: A WOMAN GIVES BIRTH TO A SON1898
Ch 13: The Antichrist and the False Prophet 1899
CH 14: JESUS AND WORSHIPERS1901
CH 15: THE TEMPLE IN HEAVEN1903
CH 16: THE SEVEN BOWLS OF JUDGMENT1904
Ch 17: The Great Whore—Religious Babylon 1905
CH 18: ECONOMIC BABYLON1907
Ch 19: Hallelujah!1909
Ch 20: The Millennium—One Thousand Years 1911
CH 21: THE NEW HEAVEN AND NEW EARTH1912
CH 22: LIFE IN HEAVEN1914

REVELATION

Key Words: I saw (occurs 24 times, that is, John saw a vision from God)

Key Verse: "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it, for the time is near" (Revelation 1:3).

Theme: The emphasis of this book is Jesus Christ, not judgments, tribulations, and persecution. This book is "The revelation of Jesus Christ" (1:1). We see a threefold picture of Christ. First, His eternal nature; "who is and who was and who is to come" (1:8). Second, His death, "He washed us from our sins in His own blood" (1:5). Third, His return, "Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him" (1:7).

The book is divided into three time events. First, the past, "the things which you have seen" (1:1-20); second, the present, "things which are" (2:1-3:22); and third, the future, "things which shall be hereafter" (4:1-22:21).

Revelation is a difficult book to interpret; don't get sidetracked by what you don't understand. Emphasize what you understand and practice it. There are many prayers contained in this book, learn to pray them, "even so, come, Lord Jesus!" (22:20). Lord, I know You will return to raise all believers to be with You. I don't understand all the details of the future, but my hope and security is that I'll be with You. Amen.

Revelation 1 John's Vision of Christ

I want a revelation from You so speak to me, and teach me truth. Tell me where You've been and who You are! {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} Unveil to me the future judgment on this earth, and the events surrounding Your rapture and return. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} But most of all, unveil Jesus to me just as You sent an angel to reveal to John the things that are to come in the future; reveal them to me. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²John wrote down everything he heard and saw. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ³Now, may I read it and learn. Lord, bless me as I read Your revelation, and enrich my life with what I learn, because the time of Your return is close. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

The book of Revelation is about Jesus Christ, "The Revelation of Jesus Christ...to His servant John" (1:1). It's not primarily about tribulation, judgment, trumpets, and visions—although these things are included. The primary thing God wants to show us is Jesus Christ. So John writes about the greatness of Jesus and the greatness of what He has done for us, Jesus loved us "and washed us from our sins in His own blood" (1:5). As you read this chapter, circle or highlight everything you see about Jesus; His names, titles, symbols, metaphors, and descriptions. Why so many descriptions about Jesus? Because He is so great. Lord, I bow at the feet of Jesus to worship Him for His majesty. I thank Him for all He's done for me. I magnify Him for being a great God, yet He touches me personally. Jesus, You are my all in all. Amen.

A Letter from John

⁴Lord, John wrote to seven churches in Asia Minor, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} praying peace and grace for them from Jesus Who is, Who was, and Who is coming. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ⁵Jesus, I worship You the Faithful Witness, the Firstborn from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁶Jesus, I thank You for loving me, for freeing me from sin by Your blood, and giving me the intercessory role of a priest forever and ever. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

When Jesus Christ was revealed to John, the apostle responded, "To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen" (1:6, KJV). Think of every superlative of goodness and greatness—they all belong to Jesus. Lord, I worship You because You are the Son of God and the Son of Man. You are equal with the Father in power and authority. Yet You are the Son, separate in person. I worship You. Amen.

⁷Lord, Jesus is coming with clouds, just as He left the earth with clouds. I will see Him, along with every other person; even those who crucified Him. And they along with every other person who rejected Him will mourn because they are not ready to meet Him. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ⁸Lord, I worship Jesus, my Alpha and Omega. He is the Lord God Almighty. He was, He is, and He is coming. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

John on Patmos

⁹John suffered because of his faith; he was patiently kingdom-bound. John was imprisoned on Patmos Island because he preached Jesus and witnessed to lost people. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁰On a Sunday the Holy Spirit filled him, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and from behind he heard a voice as loud as a trumpet. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹¹The voice was Jesus who told John, "Write down everything I show you and send it to seven churches: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea." {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} 12Then John turned to see the person speaking to him. He saw seven golden candlesticks in a circle, {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 13with Jesus—the Son of Man—standing in the middle. Jesus had on a long robe tied with a golden band sash. 14John could barely make out His head because His hair was shining brilliantly, like the sun reflecting off white snow. The eyes of Jesus were aflame with anger, burning through the lies and sins of sinners. 15His feet gleamed like polished bronze, and His voice thundered away every other sound like mighty waves breaking on a rocky shore. 16 Jesus had seven stars in His right hand. The words of His mouth cut like the sharpest sword. His face glistened like the blinding sun. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁷Lord, John fell at His feet like one dropping dead {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} and I too fell to worship at His feet. "Do not be afraid," Jesus told us, "for there is no fear to those who worship Me."

Sometimes God surprises us. He answers a prayer we didn't expect, or sends an unexpected person or event into our lives. John was praying one Sunday when Jesus came to visit. John was so surprised, he said, "I fell at His feet as though dead" (1:17). How do you respond when God surprises you? Are you scared? Excited? Do you laugh? Weep? Shout? Or do you bow your head in worshipful gratitude? When John saw the glorified Jesus...flashing...shining...glowing... brilliant...John fell at Jesus' feet, and I think he worshiped. Lord, when You surprise me, I'll worship. Anytime You do something wonderful for me I'll worship. There's no better place than to be at Your feet, worshiping You. Amen.

¹⁸Jesus said, "I am the First and the Last, I am the Living One who lives eternally." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Jesus continued, "I was dead but now I am alive; I will live forever and ever; I have the keys to death and hell." ¹⁹Lord, You told John to write all he saw as it happened, and You showed him what was coming. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²⁰The seven stars in the hand of Christ were the seven pastors of the seven churches. {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} And the seven golden candlesticks were the seven churches to which he is writing. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18}

Revelation 2 Ephesus

¹John wrote to the leaders of the church at Ephesus, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} "This is the message of the One holding the seven stars, Who is walking in the middle of the churches." {66 Church Leadership-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:12-14} ²Jesus knows everything that the Ephesian Christians do, realizing their hard work and patience in trials. Jesus knows they don't tolerate sin among their members,

{430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} and they test imposters claiming to be preachers, {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} revealing their false teaching. {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ³Jesus knows they have patiently suffered for Him, without giving up and quitting. ⁴Jesus has some complaints about the Ephesians—they have lost their first love for Him. {140 Ephesians' Church-Prayer, Rev. 2:4-6} 5Lord, when I lose my first love for You, I will remember those times when I was first saved and go back to doing what I originally did. Lord, Jesus said He will come and remove their testimony if they do not repent; {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} their candlestick will no longer stand with other churches. But Jesus notes some good things about them: {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁶They hate the deeds of the lustful Nicolaitans, because You hate fleshly sin. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ⁷Jesus warned them, "Those who have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches. Those who live victorious over sin will eat from the tree of life in Paradise." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Jesus commends the Ephesian church for several reasons: (1) they didn't tolerate evil people; (2) they tested and rejected false teachers; and (3) they hated false teaching. But Jesus found some things wrong in the church; these are the things about which we should pray: (1) they lost their first love (2:4); and (2) they forgot where they used to be spiritually. Lord, forgive any coldness or lax efforts You find in my heart. Cleanse me from sin and restore me to loving worship and dedicated service. I'm going back to the place I was when I was saved. I'm coming back to You. Amen.

Smyrna

8Lord, John wrote to the leader of the church at Smyrna, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} "This is the message from the First, and Last, the One who died and came back to life." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 9Jesus knows all their trials and sufferings, and He knows their poverty {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} while they are rich in heavenly treasures. Jesus knows the slanderous accusations against them by religious people who claim to know God, whose house of worship is satan's home." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 10Jesus says, "Don't be afraid of coming sufferings. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} Some of you will be tested by imprisonment and you will be persecuted for a time. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} Even if you have to die for Me, be faithful, for you will receive the crown of life. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} 11If you have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} Those who are victorious have nothing to fear in the second death." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22}

Jesus warns of coming persecution, that is, they will be slandered, imprisoned, and even martyred. Jesus warns the devil will test them, but He challenges them, "Be faithful, even to the point of death" (2:10). Lord, You know my future. You know when trials will come and when I will suffer for my faith. Strengthen me, prepare me, and be with me. Amen.

Pergamum

¹²Lord, John wrote to the church leader at Pergamum, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} from Jesus who has the sharp sword to divide between error and truth. 13 Jesus knows that where they live is the place where satan rules and controls. Jesus knows that they are holding firmly to His name {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} and do not deny Him when persecuted. Jesus knows Antipas, who was a faithful witness and who was martyred before their eyes by the followers of satan. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} 14But Jesus has some complaints against them; {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} some "Christians" have been following Balaam {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} who taught Balak to compromise and caused Israel to commit adultery and sacrifice to idols. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} 15 Jesus also knows that some "Christians" have accepted the teachings of the Nicolaitans. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 16 Jesus tells them, "Repent, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} or I will come to judge you with the truth of the Word of God. ¹⁷If they have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} Those who are victorious will receive hidden manna from heaven to strengthen them, {40 Bible-Comforting Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:18} and their new names will be engraved on a white stone. And no one knows what it is, but those who receive it." {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

Pergamum was influenced by false doctrine, "the teaching of Balaam" (2:14) that is, idolatry and the "teaching of the Nicolaitans" which is clericalism (a special class of priests who claimed infallibility). False doctrine is serious; it's where "satan lives" (2:13). The Pergamum prayer is to change the heart first (2:16) before changing the mind; second, to repent of the "war" they have against God (2:16), and third, to listen to the Spirit (2:17). Lord, keep me from false doctrine; I give my heart to You. Keep my mind from false beliefs that corrupt my soul. Amen.

Thyatira

¹⁸Lord, John wrote to the leader of the church of Thyatira, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} "This is the message of the Son of God, who has eyes penetrating like a flaming fire, whose feet will judge all sin." ¹⁹Jesus knows all about them—their good works, and their love, faith, and patience, and that they are still growing in grace. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 20But Jesus has a complaint against them—they permit a woman like Jezebel {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} to teach and prophesy among them. She entices Christians away from the true faith by getting them to commit adultery and sacrifice to an idol and eat its food. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²¹Jesus tells her to repent and change her ways, but she has not given up her adulterous ways. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} ²²Jesus will bring suffering to her life, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer intently unless they repent. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²³Her children will die prematurely under judgment, so all churches will realize that Jesus continually searches deeply into hearts {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} to give people what their behavior deserves. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²⁴Jesus does not condemn faithful Christians in Thyatira who have not followed the teachings of Jezebel, nor learned the "deep secrets" of satan. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁵Jesus tells the faithful ones to hold firmly to their faith until the second coming. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ²⁶Those who are victorious and continue serving until the end will receive power over the nations. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁷They will rule with Jesus Christ by absolute authority like a rod of iron in the millennium, and crush all rebellion against righteousness. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁸Then Jesus will reward them with the morning star. ²⁹"If they have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

This church was caught up in the sins of Jezebel, that is, sexual sins. Even though this church tried to hold on to good "deeds... love...faith..." it was corrupt. How can we pray for such a church and/or person? Pray for them to realize God's coming judgment (2:22). Pray for them to realize God "searches hearts and minds" (2:23) and then to know what the Spirit is saying to them (2:29). Lord, keep me from sin; guard my heart when temptation comes my way. I want to be pure in thoughts and actions, be pleased with my life and testimony. Amen.

Revelation 3

¹Lord, John wrote to the leader of the church at Sardis, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} "This is the message from the One holding the seven spirits of God and the seven stars." Jesus knows their reputation as an alive church, yet they are inwardly dead. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ²"Wake up, and revive what little you have left because you are about to die." Jesus has not seen anything in them that is commendable to God. ³He tells them to remember what they hear, {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and to hold on to the gospel. He tells them to repent and wake up; {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt.

3:2, 8} otherwise, He will come unexpectedly to judge them like a thief in the night. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ⁴Jesus says there are a few Christians in Sardis who haven't dirtied their clothes with evil. They are fit to walk with Him because they are clothed in spotless garments. {516 Victory Over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} 5 Those who are victorious will be dressed in white. Their names will not be blotted from the Book of Life, and Jesus will acknowledge them to God the Father. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV 6"If they have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches." {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

This is a prayer for the believer and/or church that has basic truths or doctrines, but they are (dead) not active in their life or service. It is a prayer to (1) wake up; (2) strengthen what they believe; (3) obey what doctrines they know; (4) realize they will be punished for inactivity; and (5) realize the blessings they could have when they "conquer" and walk with the Lord in white. Lord, stir my heart to action; help me live and serve wholeheartedly, just the way I believe. Amen.

Philadelphia

⁷Lord, John wrote to the leader of the church of Philadelphia, {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} "This is a message from Jesus, the Holy and Faithful One, who has the keys of David, from the One who can open what no one can shut, and shut what no one can open." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 8Jesus knows all about the Philadelphians. They have an open door of opportunity that no one is able to shut. Jesus knows they are not a strong church, yet they have kept His commands, and have not denied His name. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁹Jesus will judge those in the false church who wrongly claim to be Christians, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} making them bow at His feet at the Great White Throne Judgment, and acknowledge that the Philadelphian church was right. 10 Jesus will protect the Philadelphian Christians in the hour of the Great Tribulation, which will come upon the whole world, testing believers to determine their faithfulness. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹¹Jesus wants them to hold firmly to their faith, and not let anyone take away their rewards, because He will be with them. {94 Crown of Righteousness-Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:8} 12Jesus will make those who are victorious over sin like a pillar in the temple of God, {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and they will be tested no more. Jesus will write God's name on them, and they will be inhabitants of the New Jerusalem, the city that will come down from God in heaven. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 13"If you have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches." {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

This is a prayer for an active church that is serving according to its knowledge. It has little to criticize. Pray for people and/ or churches like this: (1) thank God they have obeyed truth (3:8); (2) recognize they withstood "the "synagogue of satan" (3:9); (3) pray for their endurance (3:10); and (4) claim the promise, "I will write on him the name of my God" (3:12). Lord, I want to believe and live like those in Philadelphia; keep me from sin and false doctrine. Hold me fast and I will be held securely. Write Your name on me and possess me. Amen.

Laodicea

¹⁴Lord, John wrote to the leader of the church at Laodicea, "This is the message of Jesus, the faithful and true Witness, the One who created all things." 15 Jesus knows that they are not hot or cold, but He wants them to be one or the other. ¹⁶Because the Christians at Laodicea are lukewarm, $440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} He will spit them out of His mouth. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ¹⁷The Laodiceans are claiming to be rich and that they have everything they need, {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} but they don't realize they are wretched, miserably poor, blind, and naked. 18 Jesus warns them to buy from Him gold purified by fire that will make them truly rich. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Jesus tells them to dress themselves in righteousness, like pure white robes to cover their spiritual nakedness. Put spiritual ointment on their blinded eyes, so they can have spiritual insight. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} 19Jesus says, "I am the One who rebukes and disciplines all of My followers whom I love. Therefore, repent from your indifferences, and take a stand for righteousness and diligence." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁰Jesus says, "I am standing at the door of this opportunity, knocking to see if you will open to Me. If you hear My voice and open the door, I will come in to spiritually feed you." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²¹Those who are victorious will share the throne of Jesus just as He was victorious over death and took His place at the right hand of the Father. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 22"If you have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the churches." {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

This is a prayer for an individual and/or the church that is lukewarm (3:16). God hates their indifference and threatens to "spit you out of My mouth" (3:16). God describes the lukewarm believer...as miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked (3:17). Lord, I confess I am lukewarm at times; stir up the fires and cause me to burn for You. Show me areas in my heart where I've not surrendered to You. I will yield to serve You with all my heart. Amen.

Revelation 4 Seeing the Throne

¹John looked toward heaven and his eyes saw an open door and {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} his ears heard Your inviting voice say, "Come up here." Your voice penetrated the air like a trumpet. You promised to show John the things that will happen in the future. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ²John yielded himself to the Holy Spirit {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} who whisked him through the open door into heaven. John saw a throne in the center of heaven, and You were sitting on the throne. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 3Coming from You were white rays like the flashes of a diamond and red beams like the glistening of a ruby. There was a rainbow circling the throne with a backdrop of emerald green light. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 4Lord, John saw 24 thrones surrounding Your throne, with 24 symbolic saints sitting there. The saints had golden crowns on their heads, and they were all dressed in white. 5John saw flashes of lightning coming from Your throne, and he heard the rumble of thunder in the background. John saw seven burning lamps giving light, which represented the sevenfold ministry of the Holy Spirit. {488 Torn-Veil Prayer, Mark 15:38} ⁶John saw a sparkling crystal sea {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} in front of Your throne and there was not a ripple on its mirror-like surface. On the four corners of Your throne, John saw four angels who looked in every direction as they guarded Your throne.

The 24 elders before the throne of God represent us. When they worshiped, they "cast their crowns before the throne" (4:10, KJV). The crowns represent our awards for faithfulness and achievement in serving Christ. But even when we are awarded for these acts of service, we recognize Christ indwelt us to give us a desire to serve God. Christ works through us for all our achievements. And any righteousness we have is not ours. We are justified, which means we are declared righteous and we stand before God in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. Who could wear a crown of achievement when we know it is "not I, but Christ who dwells in me" (Gal. 2:20, KJV)? Lord, I am not worthy of salvation, so I worship You for saving me. I am not worthy to serve You, so I cast my crowns at Your feet. You deserve them and I praise You for the privilege of serving You. Amen.

⁷The first looked like a lion to represent royalty; the second looked like an ox to represent work; the third was like a man to symbolize humanity; and the fourth looked like an eagle that soars above all. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 8The winged creatures could see everything in all directions, at all times. Day and night they worshiped God, crying out, "Holy...Holy...Holy, is the LORD GOD ALMIGHTY, Who was...Who is...and Who is to come." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 9Then the angels gave glory, honor, and thanks to You who sits on the throne. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ¹⁰The 24 saints fell on their faces before You, worshiping You who lives forever. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} The saints took the crowns from their heads and offered them in worshipful appreciation to You who originally rewarded them with the crowns. The saints cried in praise, {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ¹¹"You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive our glory, honor, and power." Then they cast their crowns at Your feet, because You created the earth and all the heavens and by Your will everything exists. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Everyone in heaven worshiped God as Creator, because He "hast created all things, and for Thy pleasure they are and were created" (4:11, KJV). If God had not created all things, there would be nothing to worship and praise Him. So in this chapter (Revelation 4), God is magnified for His creative power, and in the next chapter, He is worshiped for providing salvation (5:12-14). Lord, Creation is greater than I can even imagine, so my worship goes beyond the human words I use. Accept the worship of my heart that marvels at Your creative power, genius, and artistic beauty. Amen.

Revelation 5 Who Is Worthy?

¹Lord, John saw a scroll in Your right hand; there was writing on both sides of each page, and it was officially sealed with seven seals. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²John saw a mighty angel who asked with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the seal and open the scroll?" ³No one was worthy in heaven, or on earth, or in hell to open and read what was in the scroll. ⁴John wept bitterly because no one could open the scroll, 5but one of the saints on one of the 24 thrones said, "Do not weep for there is One who is worthy." Only Jesus, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, and the Root of David, is worthy to break the seven seals of the scroll, because Jesus has triumphed over satan who once ruled the universe of souls. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} ⁶John saw Jesus the Lamb, standing next to Your throne, standing between the winged creatures guarding the throne and the 24 saints sitting on 24 thrones. The Lamb, Jesus, had been sacrificed. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} All Your wrath had been satisfied. The whole work of salvation—"It is finished." 7The Lamb, Jesus, took the scroll out of Your hand. ⁸Then the four winged creatures bowed to Jesus, followed by the 24 saints who also bowed. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} Each one sang worship to the Lamb. Then they poured out all the worship praise of all believers, of all time. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} ⁹Then they sang a new song, "You are worthy to take the scroll and break the seals to open the scroll, because of the sacrifice of Your blood purchased salvation for all people, of every language, from every tribe, and from every nation. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ¹⁰You have made them priests to intercede and serve in Your kingdom."

The earth had been dominated by the devil for he was "the god of this world" (2 Cor. 4:4). But the death of Jesus—a lamb slain—had redeemed individuals, but also had lifted the curse on nature and in a "head blow" destroyed the power of satan. Then Jesus opened the seal—the title deed of heaven and earth—to reveal what tribulation and judgment would be poured out on the earth at the end of time. Then, God would make "a new heaven and a new earth" (21:1) where all His children will live forever with Him. Lord, the earth is beautiful, but it's nothing like it will be after Christ comes to change everything. I praise You for Your plan of the ages. I bow before Your power that will make it happen. Amen.

¹¹Lord, in John's vision he heard the music of an innumerable choir of angels {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} gathered around Your throne. John said there were ten thousand times ten thousand angels, plus thousands upon thousands ¹²who were shouting, "The Lamb who was sacrificed is worthy to open the seals, for He has power, wisdom, riches, strength, honor, blessings, and glory." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

Jesus will be worshiped in heaven because His death "redeemed us to God by Thy blood" (5:9, KJV). Then those redeemed ones, and angels, elders, and everyone in heaven will cry, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain" (5:12). Lord, I join my voice with their voices to say worthy is the Lamb who was slain for me. You have all "power, and riches, and wisdom." You have all "strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing" (5:12, KJV). Amen.

¹³Then John heard worship from everything that has breath—everything in heaven, everything that lives on earth, and in the seas and even hell itself. They worshiped You sitting on the throne, and Jesus who had the scroll in His hand, saying, {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} "All praise, honor, power, and glory to You and to the Lamb." ¹⁴And the four guarding winged creatures and the 24 saints also worshiped saying, "Amen!" {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

Revelation 6 The Seven Seals

¹Lord, John saw the Lamb break the first seal, and unroll the scroll. Then one of the four winged creatures with a voice sounding like thunder shouted, "Come!" ²John saw a white horse, and the rider was holding only a bow—no arrows. The rider was given a victor's crown, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} and he went from one battle to another.

³When Jesus broke the second seal, another winged creature shouted, "Come!" ⁴John saw a second horse who was bright red. The rider was given a huge sword and commanded, "And take peace from the earth and get people to slaughter one another." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

⁵When Jesus broke the third seal, another winged creature shouted, "Come!" John saw a black horse, and its rider held a pair of scales to measure things. ⁶The winged creature cried, "A loaf of bread or three pounds of barley for forty dollars but there is no oil or wine available anywhere." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

⁷When Jesus broke the fourth seal, a fourth winged creature cried, "Come out!" ⁸John saw a sickly pale horse, and its rider was named Plague; hell was snatching up all who died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} A fourth of the earth's population was killed by Plague, using war, famine, disease, and wild animals.

⁹When Jesus broke the fifth seal, John saw under an altar all those who had been martyred for witnessing Your Word, and being faithful in holy living. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} ¹⁰The martyrs cried to You, "How much longer will You wait before taking vengeance on those who have killed us?" {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

God's people who were martyred for the cross of Christ are praying impatiently, "How long, O Lord?" (6:10). They are asking, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?" (v. 10, KJV). This is not just a prayer of vengeance and retaliation. This is a prayer (1) for God to fulfill His promise to judge sin; (2) for iniquity to finally get its reward; (3) for truth to prevail; and (4) for the violated law to be satisfied. Lord, I know You will judge the world. Come, Lord Jesus, to reward Your martyrs and punish their murderers. Lord, I trust You to keep Your promise. I pray, "When?" Amen.

¹¹Each martyr was given a white robe of righteousness {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and told to rest until the coming judgment, because there would continue to be martyrs until the second coming of Christ. Those martyrs would be killed just as others had been martyred. {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13}

¹²When Jesus broke the sixth seal, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} there was a violent earthquake, the sun didn't shine, and darkness covered the earth. ¹³The stars began to fall like figs dropping from a tree when a wind storm shakes it; everything was pitch black. 14The mountains and islands of the sea shifted from their original locations. Everyone panicked and hid themselves in caves. 15Kings, government leaders, military commanders, rich and poor-all people tried to hide. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} 16They cried for the rocks to cover and hide them ¹⁷from the wrath of the Lamb, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} because they wouldn't survive Your coming judgment.

When the unsaved have been punished greatly for their sins, they cry out for relief. While technically this is not a prayer to God, it is a request to be shielded from their God-inspired torture. Can they escape? The Bible answers, "No one" (v. 17). Lord, I worship You for cleansing from sin; because Christ suffered for my sins, I don't need to suffer. I don't have to beg to escape from punishment for sins because Christ submitted to punishment for me. Thank You for forgiveness. Amen.

Revelation 7 The 144,000

¹Lord, John saw four angels holding back the wind to prevent it from blowing on land or sea. ²Next, John saw another angel coming from the sunrise, carrying the seals of God. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 3A voice cried, "Seal the servants of God first before you do any damage on land or sea." {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} 4Then John heard there were 144,000 sealed Jews who came from all the tribes of Israel. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁵Twelve thousand came from each tribe— Judah, Reuben, Gad, ⁶Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, 7Simeon, Levi, Issachar, 8Zebulun, Joseph, and Benjamin.

The 144,000 represent Jewish evangelists who will preach the gospel of Jesus Christ around the world during the tribulation (7:4). They were martyred. "These are they which came out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes...in the blood of the Lamb" (7:14). Today not many Jews are saved because they are judicially blinded (2 Cor. 3:6-16); they are a nation that is rejecting Christ (John 1:11; 19:15). But when Jesus returns, Israel will be saved (Zech. 12:10; Rom. 11:26). In heaven the 144,000 Jewish martyrs will praise God for their salvation, joined by all other Christian martyrs who were raptured, "a great multitude, which no man could count" (7:9). They will worship, shouting, "Salvation belongs to our God" (7:10). Lord, I praise You for not forgetting Your martyrs. I praise You for Your faithfulness. I praise You for saving them, as You have saved me. Amen.

A Large Crowd of Worshipers

⁹In addition to the 144,000, John saw another great multitude from every race, language, and nation, standing before You and Jesus, the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches. ¹⁰They cried out in worship, {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} "Salvation comes from You who sits on the throne { 188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} and from the Lamb who died for us." {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} 11Then the angels formed a huge circle around the 24 saints and the four winged creatures. The angels bowed to the ground and worshiped, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 12"Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and power and strength be to You our God forever and ever. Amen!" {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 13Lord, one of the saints asked John, "Who are these dressed in white robes? Where did they come from?" {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} ¹⁴John asked the Lord Jesus to tell him who these people were. Jesus said, "These are the martyrs who were killed in the Great Tribulation: therefore their robes are washed in the blood of the Lamb." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 15 Now they stand in front of God's throne {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} to worship Him day and night. {488 Torn-Veil Prayer, Mark 15:38} ¹⁶The Lamb will take care of them so they will never hunger nor thirst, nor suffer anything ever again. ¹⁷The Lamb will satisfy their need for food, {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} and will quench their need for water, and You will wipe away any remembrance of pain or suffering.

The martyrs are described as those who "serve Him day and night" (7:15). The word "serve" is latreuō which means "to minister." How do we minister to God? Ministry means, "to meet the need of someone by preaching, teaching, or counseling." Does God have needs that we must serve Him? Didn't Jesus say, "The Father is seeking...worship" (John 4:23, ELT)? Since the Father wants worship, then we serve God by giving Him worship. We call it the church worship service. We don't go to church to be served. No! The pastor, ushers, and musicians don't serve the people. All join together to worship God as we exercise our spiritual gifts, and give worship to God. Lord, I come to serve You with my worship. I come to minister to You with my worship. I come to worship because You want it from me. I come to worship because it's the expression of gratitude from my heart. Amen.

Revelation 8 Silence in Heaven

¹All eyes in heaven focused on the Lamb as He broke the final seal on the scroll. There was great silence in heaven as the Lamb prepared to return to the earth as it was time for the second coming of Christ. ²Lord, seven angels stood before You, and You gave them seven trumpets. Then You told them to be prepared to announce judgments coming to the earth.

There was a great silence in heaven as the judgment of the seals ended and Jesus is ready to return to earth. When something great is about to happen, don't we get still and quiet? Maybe we're too scared to move or speak. Maybe it's great anticipation. Perhaps it's like holding our breath. When God is about to do something in our lives, we should worship silently before Him because (1) we know God will work; (2) we trust God's sovereignty; (3) we surrender to His actions; and (4) we anticipate His intervention in a problem or introduction of something new. Lord, I am quiet and silent before You. I'm not moving. I worship You for all You've done in the past, and for what You will do in the future. I'm waiting. Amen.

³Another angel went to the altar in heaven with a large amount of incense to mix with the prayers of God's people {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ⁴to offer to You who sits on the throne the sweet-smelling fragrance of prayers that ascend up to worship You. {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} ⁵When the angel threw fire from the altar to the earth, thunder rumbled, lightning crashed, and an earthquake shook the earth. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

John describes prayers as "the smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, went up before God" (8:4). Dwellings in Bible times didn't have ventilation, so musty or unpleasant smells remained in the buildings. Sweet-smelling incense was burned as a remedy, but also it is a picture of prayers that pleased God. Have you ever thought of your prayers pleasing God? Lord, I want to please You with the words I pray and the heart attitude I bring to You. Teach me to be concerned with You and not myself as I pray. Amen.

The Seven Trumpets

⁶Then the seven angels with seven trumpets prepared to blow their message of coming judgment. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ⁷Lord, when the first angel blew his trumpet, hail and fire rained down on the earth. One third of the earth was set on fire, one third of the trees and one third of the green grass was burned up. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁸Lord, when the second angel blew his trumpet, something like a great mountain of fire was dropped into the oceans. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 9One third of the salt water was polluted as with blood. One third of the living things in the oceans and one third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰Lord, when the third angel blew his trumpet, ¹¹a huge burning star named Wormwood fell on a third of all the rivers and streams. The fresh waters became bitter as persimmons so that many people died who drank the water. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹²Lord, when the fourth angel blew his trumpet, a third of the sun quit shining, and light from a third of the stars went out. Daylight was shortened by one third, and the night was blacker than usual. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³Lord, John saw an angel like an eagle fly over heaven announcing, "How terrible it will be for the inhabitants of the earth." The next three trumpet judgments will be much worse than the original four. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Revelation 9 The Judgment of Trumpets

¹Lord, the fifth angel blew his trumpet and one of God's servants that came from heaven to earth had the keys to the bottomless pit. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ²Smoke poured out of it when it was unlocked, so the sun and sky were darkened. ³The smoke spawned locust-like demons, and they spread where the smoke blew. {268 Judgmental-Praying,

Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴The locust-like demons attacked people who didn't have God's seal on their foreheads. ⁵The sting didn't kill anyone, but gave constant pain like a scorpion's sting. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ⁶People wanted to die, but death escaped them. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

In this judgment people will be in such horrible torment that they will pray for death. But their prayers will not be answered, because "death shall flee from them" (9:6, KJV). This is when God's wrath is poured out on them. God hides the keys to death, and no one will die until it is God's time. Lord, I pray to live—to live for You—help me glorify You with my life. When it comes my time to die, give me "dying grace." Amen.

⁷The locust-like demons looked like horses armed for battle {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} having faces that looked human, with crowns on their heads, 8 and women's hair, and teeth like lion's teeth. They wore body armor as strong as steel, and the noise of their wings sounded like the charge of horses and chariots into battle. 10 Their tails stung like a scorpion, and the sores they left ached for five months. 11 The king of them was the angel from the bottomless pit, whose Hebrew name is Abaddon, and his Greek name is Apollyon. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 12One woe is past, there are still two more woes to come. ¹³Lord, when the sixth angel blew his trumpet, John heard a voice from the altar before the throne, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Where is God? God is omnipresent, which means He is everywhere present at the same time. The indwelling presence of God dwells in our hearts. The institutional presence of God is in His church on earth (2:5). The localized presence of God is in heaven on His throne. We can come into His presence at any time and at any place, but the picture in Revelation 9 happens in God's localized presence in heaven. Lord, I come into Your presence because You're in my heart (Gal. 2:20), but I also worship You in Your church on Sunday. Then on special occasions, it seems I enter Your very throne room in heaven to pray to You. Thank You, Emmanuel (God with us), for Your presence in my life. Amen.

14saying, "Release the four demons kept captive beyond the Euphrates River for this hour. 15 They will kill a third of the remaining population of the Earth." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶Then John heard that there were 200,000 locust-like warriors. ¹⁷John saw the locustlike demons like riders on horses. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} Some had red armor, others had blue armor, and the color of the rest was yellow. The horses looked as if they had lion heads. ¹⁸Smoke, fire, and brimstone blew from their mouths, killing one third of the remaining population. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9\ \text{19} Their power was in their mouth and tail, their tails were like snakes that were able to kill with their bite. ²⁰The population of the world that escaped their wrath did not repent of their evil, nor did they stop worshiping demon-idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that can't see, hear, or walk. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²¹Nor did they quit murdering, stealing, committing sexual sins, or practicing witchcraft. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

Revelation 10 The Strong Angel

¹Lord, John saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} surrounded by a cloud with a rainbow about his head. The angel's face shone like the sun, and his feet like fire. ²He had in his hand a small open book. He planted his right foot in the oceans and his left foot on land. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ³He shouted louder than a roaring lion. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} 4Then seven thunder-judgments rolled across heaven. John was prepared to write what he saw when a voice stopped him saying, "Keep secret the message of the seven thunder-judgments; do not write them down." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 5The angel standing in the oceans and on the land lifted his right hand to heaven ⁶and swore by You who lives forever, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} You who created all of heaven and everything on the earth. The time of waiting is over and {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2

Tim. 3:1} 7Jesus will come when the seventh angel blows his trumpet. Then Your secret intentions will be fully realized. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 8Lord, John heard a heavenly voice telling him to get the little book. 9So John asked the angel to give it to him. The angel said, "Read it as you would devour a meal. It will upset your stomach, but it will be sweet as you eat it." 10 As John read the book, the angel's words came true. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} It tasted sweet as honey, but it turned his stomach sour. ¹¹The book contained a message for John to preach and write, a message of what will happen in the tribulation to rulers, people, ethnic groups, and nations. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15}

Revelation 11 Two Prophets in Jerusalem

¹Lord, John was given a measuring stick and told to go measure the temple in Jerusalem, the altar, and find out how many people worship there. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 2John was told not to measure the outer court because Gentiles gather there, and they will destroy the temple after 42 months. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 3You promised to send two witnesses—Enoch and Elijah who had not died on earth but had gone to heaven. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} They prophesied in Jerusalem for 1,260 days. ⁴They came as the fulfillment of the two olive trees and the two lamps which stood before Your throne. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 5When enemies attacked these two, they were able to do judgment-miracles to destroy their enemies. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6They prayed that it would not rain, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} and they turned water into blood, and sent plagues—as Moses did—on their enemies. ⁷After three and a half years, the antichrist came from the bottomless pit to fight them and finally killed them. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 8Their corpses were left in the main street of Jerusalem, 9so unsaved people could see they were dead and put their trust in the antichrist. People from every nation, ethnic group, and language saw their bodies for three and a half days. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁰The unsaved rejoiced, thinking their torment was over and the suffering caused by the tribulation was past. Nonbelievers celebrated and gave presents to everyone, thinking these two who had brought plagues on the world were now dead and their troubles were over. 11Lord, after three and a half days You breathed life into the two witnesses. Just {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} as everyone had seen their dead bodies, now everyone saw them being raised from the dead. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 12Then a loud voice shouted to Enoch and Elijah, "COME UP HERE!" They went to heaven as their enemies watched. {411 Running a Good Race-Prayer, Gal. 5:7} ¹³Immediately a violent earthquake shook Jerusalem, a tenth of the city was destroyed, and seven thousand people died in the earthquake. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Those who lived in Jerusalem—the Jews—were fearful, and began praising You, the God of heaven. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

God Will Rule Forever

¹⁴The second woe is past; the third woe is coming quickly.

People don't have authority; only God has authority. In this chapter two witnesses (Enoch and Elijah, the only two who went to heaven without dying) came back to preach from the city of Jerusalem (11:8). They have authority to stop rain (11:6) and to do miracles. We know Elijah shut the heavens by prayer because "he prayed earnestly" (James 5:17-18). While we don't have authority, we have access to God's authority by prayer. Lord, I realize I can do nothing by myself, so I pray for Your authority to get done the things I need done. Amen.

15Lord, when the seventh angel blew his trumpet, you brought all people into Your presence where they saw the original temple in heaven. There was shouting, telling heaven and earth, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of Christ, and He will reign forever and ever." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} 16The 24 saints bowed in worship to You, prostrating themselves on the ground, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 17 saying, "We give thanks to You, the Almighty Lord God, You who are, You who were, and You who will always exist because You have exercised Your omnipotent power, and have begun to reign on the earth." 18When You judged the nations in wrath, they were angry and not remorseful or repentant. Now is the time to punish the wicked and reward Your servants and Your prophets, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} and those small and great who revered Your name, because You destroyed those who destroyed the earth and Your followers. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 19Lord, then the temple in heaven {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} began to open for all to see, and behind the veil everyone could see clearly—all saw the sacred chest. {306 Mercy-Seat Praying, Heb. 9:5} Suddenly there were flashes of lightning, rumbling thunder, an earthquake, and violent hail on earth.

Revelation 12 A Woman Gives Birth to a Son

¹Lord, then John saw a woman in heaven clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet. The woman was the nation Israel from whom God promised the Deliverer would come. ²The woman was with child and she was constantly persecuted by satan because he wanted to prevent the Deliverer from being born. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ³Lord, John also saw satan as an enormous dragon controlling seven nation-rulers with ten horns and a crown on each head. ⁴Satan pulled one third of the fallen angels with him when he was banished from heaven to earth. Lord, satan wanted to devour the Deliverer so He wouldn't be born. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} 5 The Child was the Messiah who will one day rule over the earth. The Child completed Your work on earth, and You received Him back into heaven. 6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness where God had prepared a place for her. He fed her there 1, 260 days.

⁷There was war in heaven where Michael the Archangel fought against the devil and his fallen angels. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 8Satan was cast out of heaven to earth to complete his evil desires on earth. Satan, who is also called the devil or the serpent, tried to lead the whole world into sin. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 10Lord, You shouted with a loud voice, "Victory, and power, and rulership now belong to Me." You shouted, "Now Jesus Christ can rule because satan is cast down and he will no longer persecute Christians; {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} he will no longer accuse the brethren to Me." {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

Satan constantly accuses us "before our God day and night" (12:10). What defense do we have? First, we have Jesus the High Priest who constantly intercedes for us (Heb. 7:24-25), and second, the Holy Spirit is also praying for us (Rom. 8:26-27). Third, we can pray for protection as we pray against evil forces (Eph. 6:10-12). Lord, I know satan accuses me to Your face because of my sin and mistakes. Forgive me. Give me power to overcome sin, and give me victory by Your Holy Spirit. Amen.

¹¹Satan is defeated by the blood of the Lamb and by the faithfulness of martyrs who did not hold onto life in the face of death. 12 You said, "Let heaven and its citizens rejoice, but to those on earth beware." Satan is angrily coming to persecute believers because he knows his time is short. 13When satan found himself cast to the earth, he turned his anger against the Jews because Jesus the Messiah came from them. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁴During the last half of the tribulation, Israel escaped to the wilderness, away from the devil who persecuted her. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} Israel stayed in the desert fortress of Petra for three and a half years. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} 15During the last half of the tribulation, satan used every scheme to destroy Israel. ¹⁶But satan's schemes were stopped in the desert. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷Then satan determined to punish every follower of Christ left on the earth.

There is continued war in the heavenlies between satanic forces and angelic forces. It centers on satan's hatred for Christ and the Jewish people from which Christ was born. To this day satan hates the Jews. We should pray against satan in the power of the Lord (Jude 9), and pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122:6), always remembering "greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4). Lord, raise up a "hedge" to protect me and my family from satan (Job 1:10). I pray for Your people the Jews, that they would recognize Jesus as their personal Messiah, and that You would protect the nation of Israel. Amen.

Revelation 13 The Antichrist and the False Prophet

¹Lord, John saw a terrible animal emerge from the sea. It was the antichrist, the false messiah. The antichrist had in his hand seven nation-rulers, and the antichrist had crowns on his ten horns. He controlled the ten nations of the revived Roman Empire. ²The antichrist was like a leopard, but ferocious like a bear, and wanted to rule like the king of the jungle—the lion. Satan gave the antichrist the same power he possessed, and allowed the antichrist to rule the world for him. ³One of the antichrist's seven heads had been killed, but the antichrist came back to life. ⁴As a result, multitudes marveled and followed him. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 5 The antichrist, in a very persuasive speech, blasphemed You, {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ⁶and slandered Your temple and those who follow You. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ⁷Satan gave the antichrist power to fight against Your people, to overcome them for three and a half years, and to rule every ethnic group, language, and nation. 8Everyone worshiped the antichrist {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} except those whose names were in the Lamb's Book of Life, and those whom the antichrist had killed. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 9Lord, You said, "Those who have ears to hear spiritual messages, listen carefully to what will happen." ¹⁰Christians will be arrested, taken away, and imprisoned; other believers will be killed. This will be an opportunity for Your children to demonstrate their endurance and faith. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5}

11Lord, John saw another terrible animal emerge from the sea who tried to look like a lamb, but he had a haunting voice like satan. The second animal—the false prophet—served the antichrist, and propagated his influence everywhere. 12He pointed out the antichrist's fatal wound and told everyone that he had been raised from the dead, persuading everyone to worship the antichrist. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹³The antichrist brought down fire from heaven just as You sent fire on Pentecost. {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} 14The false prophet did miracles to convince everyone to follow the antichrist. The false prophet erected a statue to the antichrist, showing the wound that killed him, yet also showing that the antichrist was now alive. ¹⁵The false prophet breathed on the statue of the antichrist so that it spoke his word. Those who refused to worship the antichrist's statue were put to death.

Lucifer fell from his lofty position as an angel (Ezek. 28:12-15) because of his pride when he declared, "I will be like the Most High" (Isa. 14:14). Lucifer also has the names Dragon, Serpent, Devil, and "Satan, which deceiveth the whole world" (12:9, KJV). Satan wants to replace God, and get the worship given to God. In this passage the Dragon (satan) and the wild animal (the antichrist) are worshiped. All idol worship from the beginning until today is actually not veneration to a carnal likeness, but to the spirit or power represented by an idol. Idol worship is actually demon worship (1 Cor. 10:20). Did you see that the world during the tribulation will be forced to worship an (idol) image of the antichrist (13:14-15)? Lord, I will worship You and not an image of the antichrist. I will not be fooled, but will give You my whole heart. Protect me and keep me in the hour of trials. Amen.

¹⁶The false prophet ordered everyone to be branded with the brand of the antichrist on their forehead or right hand. Everyone was branded no matter how young or old, rich or poor, slave or citizen. ¹⁷And no one could buy or sell anything unless they were branded with the name of the antichrist or his number. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁸Anyone can calculate the number of the antichrist—it is 666.

There is a satanic tri-unity, that is, satan wants to replace the Father, the antichrist (the beast) wants to take the place of Jesus Christ, and the false prophet (19:20) wants to take the place of the Holy Spirit. Just as on the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit filled each disciple when "there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them" (Acts 2:3), so in the tribulation the false prophet "maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men" (13:13). This satanic miracle will make people believe in the antichrist and satan, just as the miracles in the Bible made people believe in Christ and God the Father. Lord, I believe in You because of the miracles I read in Scripture, but even greater, I know You have saved me because You live in my heart. I will not be deceived by any pseudo-miracles by satan or any of his representatives. Amen.

Revelation 14 Jesus and Worshipers

¹Lord, John saw the Lamb—Jesus standing on Mount Zion in the city of Jerusalem; {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} with Him were 144,000 martyrs. They had Your name written on their foreheads. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ²John heard a groaning sound like a roar of a great waterfall, like rolling thunder over the plains. Yet the sound was pleasing, like the singing of a choir accompanied by harps. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} 3The martyrs were singing a new song in front of Your throne. The four winged creatures were worshiping with them, so were the 24 saints on their thrones. Only the 144,000 could learn the new hymn because they had been redeemed from the suffering and tribulations of earth. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 4These had not defiled themselves spiritually and they were as pure as virgins. Because they had followed the Lamb in persecution, they were redeemed from tribulation. They are a first fruits offering to You. ⁵They never told a lie, and their lives were blameless. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

The 144,000 martyrs in heaven sing a song that no one else knows, perhaps because no one else had given the supreme sacrifice of their lives to God. They were probably singing praise to God, and they are our example that we can sing our prayers, worship, and gratitude to God. They were first in line and followed the Lamb wherever He went. Lord, I sing, "Holy, Holy, Holy" in worship to You. Let the music of my heart and the words of my mouth glorify You. Amen.

The Time for Judgment

⁶Lord, John saw an angel flying over heaven, announcing the end was near. The good news has been preached to all people—to every ethnic group, language, and nation on earth. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁷The angel shouted, "Fear God and praise Him, for His time has come to sit in judgment; everyone worship the Creator of heaven and earth." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁸Another angel followed, saying, "Babylon is fallen because she made many people intoxicated with the wine of sexual pleasure."

The angel said to the unsaved, "Fear God, and give glory to Him" (14:7). Fear means being scared, and we should be scared of God because He can condemn to eternal hell. But fear also means reverential trust, and we should come into His presence with the reverence we would give to a king. We reverentially trust Him to save us. Fear also has the meaning of awe, and we should stand in awe of His great creative power and results. Lord, I am afraid of Your wrath, I come to You through Jesus' blood to accept me. I come to You as the sovereign King and Ruler. I stand in awe of Your great creative power. The majesty of Your universe beings me to my knees. Amen.

⁹Lord, John saw another angel shouting, "All people who worshiped the antichrist and branded themselves with his brand, must drink the wine of judgment that is poured out by God who is angry against sin." 10 They will be tortured in the presence of Your holy angels and the Lamb, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and the smoke of their torture rises forever and ever. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹There will be no relief for them day or night because they worshiped the beast and his statues, and accepted his branding in their right hand and foreheads. 12Lord, John wrote, "Christians must remain faithful in persecution because the antichrist will be judged, and the unsaved will be punished." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³Then John was told to write, "Happy are those who die in the Lord during the tribulation." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} The Holy Spirit said, "They will rest from their trials, forever in the Lord, for their good works will follow them." {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Dead saints have three great reasons to rejoice: first, they "die in the Lord" (14:13), which means they were faithful to God right up to death; second, they are now enjoying rest from their labors; third, the results and influences of their good works continue after their death. Lord, thank You for saints I've known who are now with You. Thank You for their labors, and the fact that the influence of their works continues. I am a better person for having known them. Amen.

Time of the End

¹⁴Again, John looked to see Jesus, the Son of Man, {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}—sitting on a cloud with a golden crown on His head. He had a sharp sickle in His hand ready to go to work. 15 Another angel came out of the temple and shouted to Jesus who was sitting on the cloud, "The time has come; use the sickle on earth, for sin is ripe and ready to be harvested. The people of the earth have gathered to fight You." 16Then He swung His sickle against all unsaved people, gathering them for judgment before Your throne. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ¹⁷Another angel who also had a sickle came out of the temple. ¹⁸Then another angel shouted, "Put Your sickle to work to cut all the grapes from the vine of the earth because sin is abundantly ripe." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ¹⁹So the sickle was put to the harvest, and filled the winepress of God's anger with the people of the earth. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁰It was the battle of the valley of Armageddon, and blood ran in a river two hundred miles long and as high as a horse's bridle. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

Revelation 15 The Temple in Heaven

¹Lord, then John saw another spectacular sign in heaven: seven angels held seven bowls of wrath to pour out on the earth. This was the final and complete judgment of God. ²Lord, John then saw a sea without a ripple on its surface and the sea had glowing fire in the water. Standing by the sea were those saints who had triumphed against the antichrist. They had refused to worship his statue so they had not been branded with the number 666. ³They had harps and were singing the victorious song of Moses, of how he defeated the Egyptians. They also sang the song of the Lamb—Jesus, who had given them victory over the antichrist. "Great and wonderful is everything You do, Lord God Almighty. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} 4Just and true are all Your ways. You are the King of the nations. Who would not reverence and praise Your name, for You alone are holy? All nations will come before You to worship and adore You, for the righteous things You've done." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

A crowd was singing Moses' song of deliverance (from Egyptian servitude) and redemption (from sin). All of God's people can join in this song. In singing they extol (1) God's greatness and marvelous works (13:3); (2) God's righteousness and truth; (3) God's sovereignty over the nations; and (4) God's holiness in judgment. Lord, I praise You for Your great and marvelous works; thank You for Your work in me. I praise You for Your righteousness and truth that guides me. I praise You for the way You sovereignly guide my life. I praise You for Your holiness. Amen.

⁵Lord, John saw another awful scene in heaven. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} 6An angel was distributing the last seven judgments—last, because they were to exhaust God's anger to sin. John saw the temple of God opening, and he could look into the most holy place. Out came seven angels each with a different judgment from God. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} Each angel had a pure white linen robe and a golden sash around his waist. 7One of the winged creatures around the throne gave the seven angels seven bowls filled with the anger of God. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 8Smoke from the glory of God filled the temple, so that no one could enter until the seven bowls of judgment were finished. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

Revelation 16 The Seven Bowls of Judgment

¹Lord, John heard a voice shout from the temple {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} to the seven angels, "Go pour your seven bowls out over the earth." ²The first angel poured his bowl on the earth, and ugly painful sores broke out on all people who had the brand 666 and worshiped the antichrist statue. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³The second angel emptied his bowl on the oceans, and they turned to blood; every living thing in them died. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴The third angel poured his bowl into the rivers and springs. They also turned to blood. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁵Then the angel said, "Lord, You live now, and You lived in the past. You are holy in Your judgments. ⁶Because evil people have shed the blood of Your saints, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} so You have given them blood to drink. This is what they deserve." ⁷The angel at the altar responded, "Yes, Lord, God Almighty, Your punishments are true and just." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

⁸The fourth angel emptied his bowl on the sun, so the sun scorched people as if they were burned with fire. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁹People cursed You for sending these judgments because they were severely burned by the sun, but they would not repent and turn to You. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

¹⁰The fifth angel emptied his bowl over the throne of the antichrist, and his empire

was plunged into darkness. People bit their tongues in pain. ¹¹They continued to curse You, and they refused to repent of their evil. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

¹²The sixth angel emptied his bowl over the Euphrates River, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and all the water dried up. And the armies of the East crossed the dry river bed, heading to invade the Promised Land. There came a message from the mouth of satan, and the antichrist, and the false prophet, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} "To all the kings of the nations of the world, join us in fighting God Almighty. We will finally do away with the Jews and fight the God of the Jews." 13The three foul spirits that came out of their mouth like frogs {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 14were demons sent to deliver the message and convince the kings to wage war. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ¹⁵Then God attacked them unexpectedly, just as a thief in the night {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} catches victims when they do not expect violence. 16All the armies of the world came to fight God at the battle of Armageddon. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

¹⁷The seventh angel emptied his bowl into the air, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and a voice shouted, "The end has come," for the last bowl was the second coming of Christ. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁸Then there were flashes of lightning, rolling thunder, and a violent earthquake that shook the earth, more violently than ever before.

¹⁹The city of Jerusalem was split into three parts, and the cities crumbled to the earth. The city of Babylon was not forgotten; it was punished with the violence of its crimes. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰The islands of the ocean disappeared and no mountain was left standing. ²¹Storms of hail each weighing one hundred pounds fell from the sky. And the more fierce the punishment from God, the more people rebelled and cursed God. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10}

Many believe that when the seventh seal is opened Christ will return. When those in heaven see it, they are too stunned to speak, "When He had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven" (8:1). Others believe the sounding of the 7th trumpet refers to the return of Christ. Then loud voices say, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever" (11:15, KJV). Still others say that at the seventh bowl Christ will return because there Jesus fights the battle of Armageddon to destroy His enemies (16:13-17). Then it is announced, "It is done" (16:17), the same words Jesus said when He finished suffering for sins, "It is finished" (John 19:30). Lord, You will punish the world for its sin, just as Jesus was punished for our sins. Thank You for the finality, "It is done," that lets me know the full and final price is paid. Amen.

Revelation 17 The Great Whore—Religious Babylon

¹Then one of the seven angels with bowls spoke to John, "Come, I will show you the punishment for the prostituted followers of the antichrist." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 2The kings of the earth have committed sexual sins by worshiping in this vile temple. They have made the whole world sin against God by forcing them to partake of her adultery. ³John was taken in the Spirit to see the prostitute, riding on a scarlet red animal. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} It had seven heads who were ruling leaders, and ten horns representing the revived Roman Empire. Blasphemy was written all over her. 4The prostitute was dressed in purple and red with gaudy jewelry of gold and pearls. She was drinking a cup of disgusting filthy fornication. ⁵On her forehead was written, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} "Babylon the Great, mother of all prostitutes." ⁶The prostitute was drunken with the blood of martyrs whom she had killed. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} John stared at the prostitute in alarm.

⁷The angel said, "Don't be horrified. I will explain who the prostitute is and the beast she rides. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ⁸She is the follower of the antichrist which was alive, but she died; she will come up from the bottomless pit to eventually be judged for all her ways. Those whose names are in the Lamb's Book of Life will be dumbfounded by this reappearance. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

John the writer was amazed at the things he saw. The angel told him, "This calls for a mind that has wisdom" (17:9). That means when we don't understand when we read about the end times, we can pray for spiritual understanding. But prayer alone is not enough. Remember the theme of the book of Proverbs, "Give yourself to learn knowledge (facts) so that you may gain wisdom (understanding)." Lord, I will study the facts of Revelation and put facts together, comparing verses with verses. I will study diligently; teach me the truth of Your return and the events of the end times. Give me understanding and make me wise. Amen.

⁹"The seven heads represent seven rulers who live in a city with seven hills. 10 Five leaders have already fallen, a sixth now reigns and the seventh is yet to come. 11 The scarlet red animal is the eighth ruler. He will come up from hell but will be judged and returned there. ¹²The ten horns are ten kings who don't yet have power; they will rule in the future for a short time, ¹³providing their strength and authority for the antichrist. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 14 They will war against the Lamb at Armageddon. But the Lamb is the Lord of lords and King of kings {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and He will defeat them and their followers." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ¹⁵The angel continued his explanation: "The waters beside the prostitute are all the people who follow the antichrist from every people group, language, and nation. ¹⁶But the ten rulers and the antichrist will turn against his followers, stripping them of their rituals and power. ¹⁷God will influence the minds of sinful people to do His pleasure until He comes to judge the antichrist and his followers." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁸The woman is the antichrist who has evil influence to control the kings of the world.

Babylon has always opposed God. Those in Babel rebelled against God in building a tower-temple to the heavens until God changed their language (Gen. 11:1-9). Babylon was the nation that destroyed Jerusalem and the temple in 587 B.C. (2 Chron. 36:10-21). The future "people group" that will rise up against God will be "Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots" (17:5). Babylon will get wealth from "the kings of the earth" (17:2). She will be guilty of all types of sexual sins and rebellion against God. She will make an alliance with the antichrist. She will destroy believers and Jesus (17:6). Babylon will get political power from seven kings (17:10) and ten kings (17:10). Ultimately, the Lamb will destroy "Babylon's empire." Lord, I pray against antichrist and his kingdom. He will try to rule the world with power, money, and fear. But eventually, You will rule the world, all the ethnic groups of the world, and all the people of the world. I'm on the winning side, even if I lose my life in battle, I will eventually win. Amen.

Revelation 18 Economic Babylon

¹John saw another angel come from heaven, whose brightness shined to all the earth. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²He shouted, "Babylon is fallen, Babylon is fallen, which is the den of demons. Every filthy spirit and every detestable idea also lives there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³All the nations have been intoxicated with her proposition to sin. All the world leaders have committed adultery with her and grown rich from her extravagance." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 4Then John heard a voice from heaven, "Come out from her, people of God. Do not share in her crimes and sins. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 5God in heaven knows about her sins. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁶She will be treated as she treated others; she will be paid back double what punishment she gave out. ⁷Every one of her sinful pleasures and luxuries will give her grief and misery. She boasts that she is a queen on a throne and she is not sorry for anything she's done. 8Judgment will fall on her in a single day and she'll suffer disease, mourning, and hunger." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁹You, Lord God, who has great power, will burn her up. The world rulers, who have fornicated with her, will weep and mourn for they lose everything. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ¹⁰When they see the smoke of commercial Babylon burning, they will stay away at a safe distance and cry, "Alas!...Alas! Our great city Babylon, a mighty city was destroyed in a single hour." 11All the business people of the earth will weep and mourn over her ¹²because no longer will anyone be able to buy gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine cloths, perfumes, costly furniture, and sculptures. ¹³They also cry for lack of oil, flour, wheat, meat, and automobiles. And no one will work anywhere because there is no money to pay anyone to do anything. ¹⁴The expensive things they loved are gone, never to return. All the ease and pleasures have ceased. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁵The business people who made a fortune out of commercial Babylon will stand at a safe distance to wring their hands and grieve {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶saying, "This is terrible; what are we going to do?" Everything that was beautiful and fine and comfortable was destroyed in a single hour. ¹⁷All the fashionable clothes, accumulated wealth, exquisite meals, entertainment, and vacations were all destroyed in a single hour. All the captains of ships and people who made a living from the sea, stayed at a safe distance, watching the smoke as commercial Babylon burned, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 18crying, "There has never been a civilization like this and we won't see anything like this again. ¹⁹That great city—commercial Babylon-that kept us rich through her excesses, was ruined in a single hour." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

²⁰Yet, there was rejoicing in heaven, from all the saints, apostles, and prophets, for You judged an economic system that persecuted them. You judged a way of life that rebelled against righteousness. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²¹Then a mighty angel lifted a huge millstone and threw it into the ocean saying, "So shall this commercial way of life never be heard from again. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²²Never again will there be the sound of music, dancing, reverie, and the laughter of pleasure seekers. Never again will there be the sound of machines in factories or the ring of cash registers, or any business ventures. ²³There will be no electricity, so everything will be dark. Every machine that runs will shut down. There'll be no laughing like people in love, and no one will achieve their heart's desire. All your luxuries, entertainment, and pleasures will be gone forever, for in commercial ²⁴Babylon is founded the blood of martyrs who were destroyed by her way of life." {94 Crown of Righteousness-Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:8}

Babylon of the future is more than the city of Nebuchadnezzar. It could be a nation, or probably like Nebuchadnezzar's empire, a culture that will embrace the entire near East, or what is called the Arab world. However, throughout history it was wrongly thought that the name "Babylon" was the city of Rome. There seem to be two sides of Babylon. First, Babylon in chapter 17 is the political-religious empire that is a mixture of confederation of world kingdoms, held together by fear, brutality, and false religions. This first Babylon is an ecclesiastical kingdom that includes all apostate Christendom and all false religions. The second Babylon is seen in chapter 18, which is the economic or business empire that makes the nations rich. The first Babylon is destroyed by the beast or antichrist because he didn't want to share power or glory with anyone else. The second is destroyed at the second coming of Christ at the end of the tribulation. It seems inconsistent with the Bible's teaching of mercy and praying for your enemies to read that heaven would "rejoice over her" (18:20). The King James Version suggests "Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets" (18:20). How can we explain this inconsistency? Aren't we to have mercy and pray for our enemies? Perhaps our prayers would lead to their salvation. If a Christ-hater like Paul could be converted, why couldn't those who persecute us be saved? But the picture we see here is at the triumphant coming of Christ in judgment. It's too late to get saved. We should glorify God because He is doing what His Word promised. God will judge sin with the judgment He promised. God will do what He does as God, so we praise Him for who He is. Lord, it's hard for me now to celebrate when people are judged for their sin and rebellion. I don't celebrate what happens to them, I celebrate You, and rejoice in who You are and what You do. You do all things right and I'm glad for that. You do not judge out of bitterness or remorse, You judge according to truth. I rejoice that Your truth marches on. Amen.

Revelation 19 Hallelujah!

¹John heard the roar of a great multitude, {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} shouting, "HALLELUJAH, victory and glory and power to our God." It was all heaven worshiping You because Christ was getting ready for His return to earth. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ²The crowd shouted, "God judges accurately and God punishes fairly. He has condemned the religious prostitute who corrupted mankind with her adultery. God has avenged the death of the martyrs that the evil prostitute has killed." {197 Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer, Rev. 14:13} 3Lord, the crowd sang to You, "HALLELUJAH! The smoke from the judgment of the prostitute goes on forever." {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1}

The word HALLELUJAH was a standardized call to temple worship in the Old Testament. The Greek is "Alleluia," a form of the Hebrew "Hallelujah," which means "praise the Lord." It is both a command and an invitation of opportunity, and was an expression of joy, praise, thanksgiving, and exaltation. So John heard the people of heaven shout HALLELUJAH because of two great facts. First, Babylon and its evil world system was being judged by God. Second, Jesus is coming to destroy evil and all those who rebelled against Him, and to establish His kingdom. Lord, I join those in heaven shouting HALLELUJAH. I call to everyone I know to join me in praise, thanksgiving, and exaltation of Jesus. He rules my heart; then He will rule all the world. My joy spills out in shouts of Hallelujah. Amen.

⁴Then the 24 saints before the throne and the four winged creatures around the throne fell on their faces to worship You, the God of judgment, crying, "AMEN, we agree with Your judgment. AMEN, Your will be done forever."

Worshiping God

⁵Lord, a voice echoed out over the multitude, "Praise our God, all His servants, great and small who reverence Him." {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ⁶John heard the immense crowd roar like thunder, "HALLELUJAH, the reign of God over the earth is about to begin. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

7"Let us be glad and rejoice because the marriage supper of the Lamb is ready. Jesus will be united with His Bride, the church. The Bride is ready because she is made pure by the blood of the Lamb. 8She is dressed in fine white linen, which is made from the good deeds of the saints." {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Those in heaven shouted their worship of God "as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings" (19:6). There's a time to worship quietly in your heart. There's also a time to shout your worship as loud as you can, because your heart is filled and you can't contain yourself. You seize the moment with shouting. Lord, my heart fills with love and praise to You. When I can't contain it any longer, I shout as loud as possible, JESUS IS LORD. Amen.

The angel told John to write, "God has said, 'Blessed are the saints who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lord." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁰Lord, John fell at the feet to worship the angel, but he said, "No, don't worship me since I am a servant of God like you. Worship God." The angel explained that the purpose of the prophetic words he had given John was to tell all about Jesus. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9}

Every emotion of our heart is expressed in prayer, so there is a time to "rejoice and be glad" in the presence of God for what He has done for us in the past, and for what He is doing at the present time. The people of heaven are worshiping God and saying, "Let us rejoice," because Jesus is coming to finally judge sin on the earth and reward His saints. Lord, I rejoice in the past forgiveness of my sins. Thank You for cleansing. But I rejoice now at the prospect of Your coming and what You will do to punish evil and reward Your followers. I shout HALLELU-JAH. Amen.

Jesus Returns

¹¹Lord, then John saw heaven open, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} and riding a white horse was Jesus, Who is called Faithful and True. Jesus was ready to make war with all the armies gathered in the valley of Armageddon to oppose Him and His plan for the Holy Land. 12His eyes as blazing fire saw into the hearts and rebellion of all people. He wore a crown, symbolic of His rulership over all the earth. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} He had a name embroidered on His garment that no one knew but Him. 13The name of Jesus was the Word of God, and His garments were covered with the blood of those He had defeated. ¹⁴An enormous army followed Him. They wore white symbolizing their purity, and they rode white horses. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 15 Jesus held the sharp sword of justice to strike down those who rebelled against Him, and He will rule them with an iron grip. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 16On His robe is written, "King of kings and Lord of lords." Now He will tread over His enemies as grapes are crushed in the winepress.

¹⁷Lord, John saw an angel standing in the sun, shouting to all the birds of heaven, "Come eat the bodies of those who fought against God and His plan." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ¹⁸The dead included all the generals, soldiers, horses, and citizens-great and small. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹Lord, John had seen the antichrist gather the world leaders to make war against Jesus, the One riding the conquering horse. 20Lord, John then saw the antichrist was taken prisoner with the false prophet who had worked miracles, {422 Satanic-Prayer, Rev. 13:13} deceiving those who were branded with 666, and who worshiped the statue of the antichrist.

These two were thrown into the fiery lake burning with brimstone. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹All the rest were killed under the judgment of God, and the birds had a feast on their flesh.

Revelation 20 The Millennium— One Thousand Years

¹Lord, next John saw an angel descending from heaven with the key to hell. He had an enormous chain, ²and when he overpowered satan, who is also called the serpent, the devil, and the dragon, ³he chained him and threw him into hell to remain there one thousand years. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Then the angel shut the entrance and sealed it to make sure the devil would not deceive people until the one thousand years were over. At the end of that time, satan would be released for a short period of time. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴John saw the followers of the Lamb who had the authority to rule for Christ, sitting on thrones of authority. Then John saw the martyrs resurrected to new life; they had been beheaded because of their testimony. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor had they been branded in their hearts or forehead with the brand of the antichrist, 666. They reigned with Christ one thousand years. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁵The unsaved dead were to be judged after the one thousand years, and they were not resurrected yet. ⁶The saved were raised in the first resurrection; the second death holds no power over them. They will be priests who worship You for one thousand years, and they will reign with Christ for one thousand years. {516 Victory Over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

The Bible calls us "priests of God." We should do spiritually what the Old Testament priest did physically in the tabernacle/temple: (1) they prayed for the people; (2) they offered sacrifices to God for the people; (3) they worshiped God; (4) they attended to the sanctuary (a place where God dwelt); and (5) their holy lives were dedicated to God as a testimony to the congregation. Lord, I come to You as a priest to pray for others, especially those who can't intercede for themselves. I pray for forgiveness for Your people. I also pray for Your blessing and protection for them. May my prayers be acceptable in Your sight. Amen.

When the one thousand years end, satan will be released out of his prison. ⁸He will go out to deceive the ethnic groups of people scattered over the face of the earth, that is, Gog and Magog, and organize them for battle, so many they are almost impossible to count. ⁹They will march and surround God's people and His beloved city. But fire will come down from heaven and destroy them.

¹⁰The devil, who betrays, was thrown into the lake burning with fire and sulphur, joining the antichrist and false prophet, where they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne

¹¹Lord, John saw you sitting on the Great White Throne, the place all unsaved people feared and hated. And now no one could deny judgment had come and no one could escape their time of judgment. ¹²John saw the unsaved dead, all important and common persons, being summoned to appear before the all-knowing Judge. The Lamb's Book of Life was opened, and all whose name was not there was condemned to hell. The book of the works was then opened to determine the severity of their punishment. ¹³All graves gave up their dead, so did the oceans; also, those in hades gave up its dead so that all could be judged. 14Then all those who were guilty of death were thrown into the Lake of Fire, which is the second death. 15 Any names not found in the Lamb's Book of Life were thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 21 The New Heaven and New Earth

¹Lord, You showed to John the new heavens and the new earth {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} because the first heavens and earth were burned up in fervent heat. The new earth didn't have any seas.

²John saw the holy city—the new Jerusalem coming down from Your presence in heaven, as beautiful as a bride at a wedding. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ³Then John heard a loud voice announcing, "God is now making His home among people. He will live among them, and they will be His people. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} 4He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} There will be no more death, sickness, or pain; all sorrows of the past are gone." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 5Lord, You who sit on the throne announced, "I am making everything new!" Then You told John, "Write this down, for this is the way it will happen." {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ⁶Just as Christ on the cross said of sin, "It is finished," so You will say of life on this earth, "It is finished." Then Jesus said, "I am the Alpha and Omega, I am the beginning of all things, and I am the purpose of all things. I will give water from the well of eternal life to anyone who thirsts for Me. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} 7This is My gift to those who are victorious. They will be Your children, O Father in heaven, and You will be their God. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} 8You reserve the Lake of Fire for unbelievers, cowards, those speaking obscenities, murderers, sex offenders, idolaters, and all liars—that will be their second death."

The City Walls

⁹Lord, one of the seven angels who had the bowls of judgment said to John, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb." {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} ¹⁰Then John was carried away in a prophetic vision to a high mountain where he saw the new Jerusalem, the holy city coming down from God. ¹¹It was filled with the Shekinah glory of God, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} and it sparkled like a dish of precious jewels, and it was crystal clear. 12The walls were very high and very wide, and there were 12 gates, guarded by 12 angels. The names of the 12 tribes of Israel were written on the 12 gates. ¹³There were three gates on each side—north, south, east, and west. ¹⁴The walls were built on 12 foundation stones, and the names written on them were of the 12 apostles who had followed Jesus. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 15The angel held in his hand a golden rod to measure the city and walls. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ¹⁶He measured 1,500 miles from side to side and from top to bottom. The city was foursquare, as long as it is wide, and it is high. ¹⁷Next he measured the thickness of the walls; they were 216 feet across, according to his measurement. 18 The city was constructed of transparent gold; one could see through it like glass. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} The walls were like jasper; the 12 foundations were garnished with jewels. ¹⁹The first foundation was like jasper, the second foundation was like sapphire, the third foundation was like chalcedony, the fourth foundation was like emerald, 20the fifth foundation was like sardonyx, the sixth foundation was like sardius, the seventh foundation was like chrysolite, the eighth foundation was like beryl, the ninth foundation was like topaz, the tenth foundation was like chrysoprase, the eleventh foundation was like jacinth, the twelfth foundation was like amethyst. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ²¹The 12 gates glistened like a pearl, and the streets were paved with pure gold, as clear as transparent glass.

We expect the place where God dwells to be beautiful because (1) He is there; (2) He gives beauty, order, and meaning to any area He inhabits; (3) we give to God the best and most beautiful of what we have; and (4) God purifies everything He touches to make it beautiful. Lord, my prayers are not lofty or eloquent, nor are they persuasive. My prayers are simple and from my heart. When You accept my prayer because of Jesus, then my prayer becomes beautiful. When You listen and answer, my prayers are elevated to the feet of heaven because You make them effective. Thank You for beautifying my prayers. Amen.

²²There was no temple in the city {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} because people worshiped You and the Lamb everywhere. ²³The city did not need the sun or moon for light because it was continually lit by Your Shekinah glory and the Lamb. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²⁴The people who are saved will walk in the light, and everyone—including all kings—will glorify You. 25The gates will never be shut; they remain open for there is no night there. ²⁶All the saved of the ethnic groups of people will bring their praise and worship to God in the city. ²⁷Nothing that is sinful and no one who is filthy or tells lies will be allowed in the city. The only ones there will be true believers whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5}

A sanctuary is where God dwells so when we get to heaven there won't be a sanctuary because heaven itself is God's dwelling place. On earth a sanctuary was (1) the tabernacle in the wilderness; (2) the temple in Jerusalem; (3) the body of believers in the New Testament (Col. 1:27); and (4) the true church (Matt. 18:20; Eph. 1:22-23). In the Old Testament the believers needed to go to a place to experience God's presence, while today we can experience His presence in our hearts (Gal. 2:20) no matter where we are. Therefore we can pray anywhere, because we can experience His presence anywhere. Lord, I come to You right now in this place because You indwell my heart and You are present to hear my prayers. Amen.

Revelation 22 Life in Heaven

¹Lord, the angel showed John a sparkling clean river flowing from Your throne and the Lamb. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²It flowed down the middle of the central street of heaven. A Tree of Life grew on each side of the river, and a new crop of fruit grew each month that could be harvested each month. The leaves provided health for all people who will eat from the Tree of Life. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³Lord, there is nothing evil in the city because Your throne and the Lamb are there. All Your servants will worship

You continually. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁴Your servants will see the face of the Lamb, {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} and His name will be on their foreheads. ⁵There will be no night—no need for lights—for You will give light to the city. And You will rule Your people forever. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Jesus Is Coming Soon

⁶Lord, the angel told John, "God's people can trust these words and descriptions of heaven. Be prepared, He is coming soon." You who tell the future to Your prophets sent Your angel to tell John these things that will soon occur. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ⁷They are blessed who read this book and believe what it says. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} 8Lord, when John saw and heard all these things that were about to happen, he lay prostrate to worship the angel who showed him these things. 9The angel said, "No! I am a servant of Jesus like you are. Obey what the prophets say, 'Worship God!" {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁰The angel instructed John not to close the book he was writing, 11but he should tell everyone its message because the evil person will continue to do evil and the filthy will continue to do filthy things. Also good people will continue to do good, {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} and holy people will continue being holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ¹²Lord, Jesus said, "I am coming soon, and I'll have a reward for everyone, according to the deeds they have done. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³I am Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and Last of everything." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁴Those who live by His Word can enter the gates into the city, and eat the fruit of the Tree of Life. ¹⁵Prohibited from the city will be rebels, sorcerers, the sexually impure, murderers, idolaters, and those who love to lie. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

When we reach heaven, we will stand before God, "happy and holy." The world seeks happiness as a pleasant feeling, or escaping unpleasantness, or the thrill of a moment, or an elusive panacea. But a Christian seeks to put Christ first in everything, including good moments, and difficulties, and trials. Christians experience happiness as they please God, and they learn the greatest joy in life comes from God when they exalt Him in their thoughts and actions. Happiness is found on the road to Christian duty. Lord, I see Your glory in my life and my joy is in serving You and exalting You in my life. Even in difficulties I enjoy inner happiness that comes from You. And even in the greatest misfortunes or sorrows in life, I know You will guide my life and work all things together for my good (Rom. 8:28). Amen.

¹⁶Jesus sent an angel to tell John these messages for the churches. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} Jesus was born in the family line of David. He is the Bright Star of the morning. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁷Lord, the Holy Spirit and all believers tell the unsaved, "Come!" Let all those who are thirsty,

"Come!" {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} All who want the water of eternal life may have it free. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8}

We are commanded, "Come," so when we are obedient to God, we approach His presence in prayer. Sometimes we are reluctant to approach God because of our sin or unbelief; but when we realize He has invited us, "Come," then we approach God in faith, expectancy, and assurance. We know He will give to us the things we ask. Lord, I come because You invite me to come. I come in weakness, doubt, and hesitancy; but I come. I come slowly and hesitantly, but I come. I come full of sin asking forgiveness, but I come. I come because You invite me to come. Amen.

Every Word Is Imperative

¹⁸Lord, John warned everyone who reads this book not to add anything to it, or God will add to their punishment. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 19And if any take away from the things in this book, God will take away their part in the Book of Life and in the holy city. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰Jesus who repeated the warnings said, "Surely I come quickly!" John agreed with Jesus and said, "Amen! Even so, come, Lord Jesus." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ²¹Then John gave the benediction, "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen!" {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

God said, "There shall no man see Me, and live" (Exod. 33:20), yet in heaven we shall see God's face, the most wonderful thing in heaven that we will see. Today we can't see God for He is invisible and does not have a body, yet in our prayer we can enter God's presence to make intercession to Him because we come through the blood of Christ which makes a way for us (Heb. 4:16). Amen.

PRINCIPLES OF PRAYER

1 - Abandonment-Prayer (Pss. 42:9)

When we feel abandoned by God, we need to be sure we are looking for Him in the right places. Or maybe the reason we haven't heard from God is because we block Him out with our chatter. God may "forsake" us so that we will examine our motives to see if we are praying for the right reasons. Perhaps the truth is that God hasn't abandoned us, but we have forsaken Him. Our feelings of abandonment might also stem from wrong ideas about God. Therefore, when we feel abandoned, we usually search for God more intently or sincerely. Rather than blaming God for not being there, why not exercise faith and ask Him to speak when we don't know what we want God to do for us? Yield the outcome (and ourselves) to Him. "Your will be done" (Matt. 6:10). Abandonment sometimes leads to the death of our pleasure, our comfort, our ambitions, or even our immediate happiness. But God doesn't leave us in a state of turmoil when we abandon ourselves to His will. When we relinquish the desires of our heart and submit to God's will, we crucify our self-will to Christ and allow Him to transform our lives. "I will say to God my Rock, Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?" (Psalm 42:9). (See Affliction-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

2 - Abba-Prayer (Rom. 8:15)

The name "Abba" is a Hebrew term of our modern "Daddy" or "Papa." The name "Abba" is an intimate designation we give to God to reflect our close relationship to Him. Our heavenly Father is both powerful and transcendent, but He is also intimate and close by. Human fathers are supposed to relate to us as the heavenly Father, but many times they may not. When we approach our Abba, it's our heart speaking to His heart (Pss. 103:13; Isa. 66:13; Hos. 11:1-4; Mark 14:36; Luke 11:2; Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:6). (See Fellowship-Praying, Intimacy-Prayer).

3 - Abiding in Scripture-Prayer (John 15:7)

Jesus promised, "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you" (John 15:7). But that doesn't mean we can get anything or everything. We must meet the conditions, "Abide in Me, and My [Jesus] words abide in you" (John 15:7). We abide by (1) knowing the Scripture so we will ask only for God's will; and (2) by living God's Word that qualifies us for answers (John 14:20, 15:1-8; 1 John 3:22, 24). (See Prayer, Scripture-Prayer, Word-Praying).

4 - Absurd-Praying (1 Cor. 15:19)

Those who claim there is no resurrection are ridiculous, that is, they are inconsistent with reason or common sense. If one accepts the claims of the Bible with its supporting supernatural claims, then it is only foolish to reject the fact that Jesus rose from the dead. So those who pray to the Father through Jesus must acknowledge the resurrection of Christ. They must faith-base their entire relationship with God on the resurrection (Pss. 16:10; John 5:28-29, 11:25; Acts 4:2; 1 Cor. 15:19, 43, 44; Phil. 3:21; 1 Thess. 4:13-18). (See Hypocritical-Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Unpardonable-Sin Prayer).

5 - Accusation-Prayer Protection (Rev. 12:10)

Satan constantly accuses us to the heavenly Father, so we must pray constantly for spiritual protection and victory over evil forces. We must rely on the intercession of Jesus our High Priest, and the prayers of the Holy Spirit (Job 1:9, 2:5; Zech. 3:1-2; Luke 22:31-32; Rom. 8:26; Titus 2:8; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 4:4; Rev. 12:10). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, see various Victory prayers).

6 - Advocate-Intercession (1 John 2:1)

Our Advocate is Jesus. As our lawyer He represents us before God the Father—Judge. Jesus prays for our forgiveness based on His blood that paid our penalty. He, the Sinless One, was substituted for us, the sinners (Rom. 8:31; 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 7:24-25, 9:4; 1 John 2:1). (See Intercessor's-Prayer, Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Jesus' Name-Praying).

7 - Affliction-Prayer (Pss. 102:2)

Seek God's forgiveness and acceptance when we are hurt, alienated, or suffering. This is a prayer to have our fellowship with God restored (Gen. 16:11, 29:32; Exod. 3:7, 4:31; 1 Sam. 1:11; 2 Sam. 16:12; Neh. 1:3; Job 30:16; Pss. 22:24, 102:2; 2 Cor. 2:4, 4:17; Phil. 4:14; 1 Thess. 1:6). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Persecution-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer).

8 - Aged-Prayer (Pss. 90:10)

For those aged persons who enter a time of physical, mental, and spiritual weakness, we pray that God will keep them true to His standards and that God will protect them spiritually with the strength of Christ (Phil. 1:21) to remain faithful in all things (Noah: Gen. 9:20-29; Solomon: 1 Kings 11:1-4; David: Pss. 51:3-13). (See Family-Heritage Prayer).

9 - Agree-Bless Prayer (Matt. 18:19)

When the blessor and recipient of a blessing agree in prayer for a blessing, they ask in faith (See Matt. 18:19). (See Agreement-Prayer).

10 - Agreement-Prayer (Matt. 18:19)

Jesus made an incredible promise to answer us if we agree with another in prayer. We agree that God can and will answer any prayer. We agree in faith. We agree on the urgency of the request. We agree to be completely honest with each other and agree to confess all sin (2 Chron. 28:12; Jer. 32:39; John 17:11-21; Acts 1:14, 2:1-4, 4:32, 5:12; Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 1:10). (See Consensus-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying, Oneness-Prayer).

11- Alert-Prayer (1 Peter 1:13)

This is our ready attitude to pray at any time and in any circumstance for any request. We should be ready to pray instantly because (1) we are commanded; (2) Christ indwells in us and He is with us at all times; (3) God is always available to answer; and (4) we should acquire an attitude of instant obedience (Acts 17:11, 21:18; Rom. 1:15; 2 Tim. 4:6; Titus 3:1; 1 Peter 1:13; Rev. 3:2). (See Continual-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

12 - All Kinds of Faith-Praying (Rom. 1:17)

(1) We believe Christ died for our sins so we ask for forgiveness by faith; (2) We accept the fundamentals of faith and learn them; (3) We are declared righteous before God because of our faith; (4) Because Christ lives in us, we yield to His strength and live by His faith (Gal. 2:20); (5) We live according to biblical standards by faith; and (6) We discover our spiritual gift of faith and use it to live and serve God (Hab. 2:4; Rom. 1:17, 3:21; Gal. 3:11; Phil. 3:9; Heb. 10:38, 11:6-7). (See Faith-Based Praying, Faith-Prayer, Faith-Validated Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Possibility-Prayer).

$13-All\text{-}Time\ Praying\ (Heb.\ 7:26)$

We can pray to God the Father at any time, knowing that Jesus is alive and receives our requests as He stands at the right hand of the Father and presents our petitions to Him (Job 19:25; John 14:19; Rom. 6:9; 2 Cor. 13:4; Gal. 2:20; Col. 3:3; Heb. 7:26). (See Continual-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

14 - Angel-Appreciation Prayer (Heb. 2:7)

We should have a thankful attitude for all that angels do for us and for God's kingdom (Pss. 34:7; Matt. 13:41-42; Luke 16:22; Heb. 1:14, 2:7, 13:2). (See Alert-Prayer, Angel-Like Closeness to God, Continual-Prayer, Persistent-Praying, Prevailing-Prayer).

$15 - Angel-Like\ Closeness\ to\ God\ (Heb.\ 9:5)$

The pure gold seraphim on the mercy seat of the Sacred Chest remind us that we can be close to the presence of God. The angels were close to God because the presence of the Lord came to sit on the mercy seat in the Shekinah Glory cloud. The angels were (1) pure gold which stands for holiness; (2) sculpted or beaten, which suggests they were God's masterpiece; (3) they had outstretched wings, symbolic of worship; and (4) they looked down to the mercy seat, the place where blood was applied to forgive sins (Exod. 25:17-22; Rom. 3:25; Heb. 9:5;1 John 2:2, 4:10). (See Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Mercy-Seat Praying).

16 - Anointed-Praying (Zech. 12:10)

The term "anointed" describes someone who is endued with spiritual power for preaching, teaching, singing, etc. It suggests the Holy Spirit is speaking through an "anointed person" to needy persons. Anointed Praying is when the Holy Spirit speaks through the prayers of the intercessor (Zech. 12:10; Rom. 8:15, 26-27; 1 Cor. 14:15; Gal. 4:6; Eph. 6:18). (See Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Spirit-Helped Prayer, Spirit-Insight Prayer).

17 - Anointed-Truth Praying (1 John 2:27)

We request the Holy Spirit to take away our spiritual blindness (2 Cor. 4:3-4) so we can understand spiritual truth. Because the Holy Spirit is our spiritual teacher, we must yield to His control of our lives, and ask Him to guide us in the study of the Word of God (Isa. 61:1; Luke 4:18; John 7:37-39, 14:26, 16:13; 1 Peter 2:23; 1 John 2:27). (See Blind-Prayer, Insight-Prayer).

18 - Anticipating His Return (Rev. 16:17)

We are commanded to watch for the coming of Jesus Christ, so we pray, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus" (Rev. 22:20); (Pss. 130:6; Hab. 2:1; Matt. 24:42, 25:13; 1 Thess. 5:6; Rev. 3:3, 16:17). (See Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, Watchful-Prayer).

$19 - Anticipating-Problem\ Prayer\ (1\ Thess.\ 3:4)$

Because we can anticipate problems or dangers before they happen, we should pray about them to keep safe. Sometimes God solves a problem before it gets to us. At other times we end up in difficulty, and then we must ask God to help us solve the problem and/or ask for grace to live for Him in the midst of the problem. If we recognize God is the Lord of the storms, He will be our Lord in the storms of life (Acts 20:24). (See Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

20 - Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer (Gen. 49:28)

An anticipatory prayer is when you pray for someone based on the potential you see in them (Mark 11:22-24; Luke 6:38; John 15:11). (See Agree-Bless Prayer, Bible-Bless Prayer, and various Bless prayers).

$21 - Approach \ Worshipfully (Heb.\ 12:22)$

Your worship will be transformed when you realize you come to worship with angels and all the saints throughout time, and that you are coming in heaven's throne room where

God will judge all people, and that the focus of your worship is Jesus (Pss. 2:6, 48:2; Isa. 12:6, 28:16; Joel 2:32; Rom. 11:26; Phil. 2:8-11; Heb. 12:22; Rev. 5:11-14). (See Worship-Jesus Prayer, Worship-Ministry Prayer, Worship-Prayer).

22 - Appropriate-Blessing Prayer (Gen. 39:5)

This is when the recipient of a blessing both receives and acts on the blessing given to him. (See Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, and various Bless prayers).

23 - Asking-Prayer (Matt. 7:7)

God loves to give things to His children. Therefore we ask of Him because asking reveals our confidence in His ability to do what we ask for. However, we must ask according to His will. Asking puts us in partnership with God in the great task of serving Him. Asking enriches our fellowship with Him. Asking deepens our dependence on Him because it is natural to want to be independent. (Matt. 7:7, 8; John 14:13, 14; 15:7, 16; 16:24). (See All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Believing-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Praying).

24 - Assurance-Prayer (Heb. 11:6; James 1:6)

Assurance Praying means coming to God knowing that He exists, that He will hear, that your requests are within the will of God, that you have met the conditions for getting prayers answered, and that you will get the request for which you are praying (Pss. 35:13; Matt. 7:7-9; Mark 11:23-25; John 14:13-14, 15:7, 15; 1 Tim. 2:8; Heb. 11:6; 1 John 5:14-15). (See Confident-Praying, Faith-Eyes Praying, Faith-Prayer, Surety-Praying).

25 - Atheist-Prayer (Pss. 14:1-2)

When a person rejects God and His truth, there is no other place for him to turn but to his evil nature. He may "pray" to himself that there is "no God." When we talk to an atheist, we should communicate to him that there is objective truth about God, and that there is a standard by which we all must live and all will be judged (1 Sam. 25:25; Pss. 14:1-2, 73:3; Prov. 1:7, 22; Luke 12:20; Rom. 1:28; Eph. 2:2). (See Absurd-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Unpardonable Sin-Prayer, Unsaved-Prayer).

26 - Atmospheric-Worship (Gen. 32:24-30)

Jesus told us, "The Father is seeking worship" (John 4:23, ELT). So when we worship the Father with all our heart, He comes to receive our worship. It's then we can experience His presence near us. It's like feeling moisture before it rains. When we feel God's presence, we then turn to Him in worship (Gen. 3:8, 15:1, 17:1, 18:1; Exod. 3:1-14; Job 38:1; Isa. 6:1 ff.; Ez. 1:3 ff.). (See Crown-Casting Worship, Praise-Worship, Worship-Prayer).

27 - Authority-Prayer (Rev. 11:6)

We recognize we have no authority and can accomplish nothing in ourselves; but when we meet God's conditions for prayer, we can ask God for the things we need done. Then we can pray with God's authority (Mark 11:28; Luke 9:1; 1 Cor. 15:24). (See Jesus' Name-Prayer, Intercessor's-Prayer).

28 - Avoid-Persecution Prayer (Acts 25:11)

Christians will suffer persecution (1 Peter 4:12), but they shouldn't suffer needlessly. There are times to flee and times to speak boldly. We should pray for guidance concerning those times (Matt. 10:16-42; John 15:18-25; Acts 25:11; James 1:2-12; 1 Peter 4:12-19). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, Help-Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer).

29 - Backslider's-Denied Answers (2 Peter 2:20)

This is a picture of the saved believer who once knew doctrinal truth, but returned to embrace sin like a hog returning to the mire. Peter says these people had "the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ," but are "defeated" (2 Peter 2:20). Their prayers for anything but repentance and restoration are denied before they call on God (Isa. 6:9, 10; Hosea 2:23; Acts 28:25-29; Heb. 12:17; 2 Peter 2:20). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer).

30 - Baptized-Praying (Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12)

This relates not to water baptism, but to our spiritual baptism in Christ. Because we were baptized positionally into His death and resurrection, we have the spiritual benefits of both His death and resurrection. Now we stand perfect before the Father, so our prayers are accepted by the Father because they come through the Son. These prayers accomplish much more because they have the authority and/or power of Jesus' death and resurrection (Rom. 6:4-5; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 2:20, 4:5; Col. 2:10-12; 1 Peter 3:21). (See Intercessor's-Prayer, Jesus-Agreement-Prayer).

31 - Barriers to Prayer (Isa. 59:1, 2)

Instead of answering our prayers God sometimes allows an obstacle to attempt to dissuade us from praying, or to stop us from praying. (See Hindrances to Prayer, Blocked-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

32 - Basic-Praying (Heb. 6:1)

The essence of Christianity is relationship with God; therefore prayer is talking to God based on a relationship with Him. It is basic communication with Him (Prov. 4:18; John 1:1; 1 Cor. 13:10; Eph. 4:12; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 6:1; James 1:4). (See All Kinds of Faith-Prayer, Believing-Prayer, Definition of Prayer).

33 - Beautiful-Prayer (Rev. 21:19)

God makes our prayers beautiful when we offer them according to biblical criteria for effective intercession. While our prayers may be weak, finite, and limited, when God receives them, our prayers become beautiful because everything God touches becomes beautiful (1 Sam. 16:12; Pss. 29:2, 149:4; Eccl. 3:11; Isa. 4:2, 52:1, 60:13; Rev. 21:19). (See Believing-Prayer, Faith-Praying, Trusting-Prayer).

34 - Believing-Prayer (Mark 11:24)

Sometimes God gives us faith or belief as we pray so that we know we will receive the request we seek. Believing-Prayer usually comes to those who (1) are yielded to do God's will; (2) have yielded the request they seek to God; (3) are praying according to Scripture; and (4) have met the conditions of prayer (Matt. 7:7, 18:19, 21:22; Luke 11:9, 18:1, 8; John 15:7, 16:23; James 5:18; 1 John 5:14, 15). (See Faith-Based Prayer, Faith-Praying, Faith-Validity Prayer, Possibility-Praying, Trusting-Prayer).

35 - Benediction-Bless Prayer (Lev. 6:23-26)

This prayer is invoking God's blessing on a church audience as it leaves a service so that God's special presence goes with each person (see Num. 6:24-26; 2 Cor. 13:14). (See Mizpah-Benediction Prayer).

36 - Better-Jesus Praise (Heb. 1:4, 8:6)

We exalt Jesus because He is so much better than all the means God used to bring salvation in the Old Testament. (Key word of Hebrews is better.) We praise the Father for sending Jesus, the final and ultimately (better) word on salvation (Heb. 1:4, 7:24-26, 8:6, 9:23, 10:34, 12:24). (See Jesus-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Prayer, Jesus Worship-Prayer).

$37 - Better-Prayer \, (Heb. \, 8:6)$

Our intercession will be better when we pray to God the Father through the excellency of Jesus our Intercessor. Because we stand perfect in Christ, our intercession is accepted (Gal. 3:19-20; Heb. 7:22-26, 8:6; 2 Peter 1:4).

$38 - Bible-Application\ Prayer\ (Heb.\ 4:12)$

This is a request that God will use the Bible to convict our unsaved family members and friends of their sin. It's a prayer that the Scriptures would open unspiritual eyes to understand the gospel so that they could see Jesus (Pss. 119:130; Isa. 55:11; Jer. 23:29; John 6:51; Rom. 1:16; 2 Cor. 10:4; Heb. 4:12; James 1:18; 1 Peter 1:23). (See Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, Bible-Prayer).

39 - Bible-Bless Prayer (Num. 6:23-26)

This is a prayer when the blessor speaks the Word of God in blessing over the recipient (see 2 Cor. 13:14; Rev. 1:3). (See various Bless prayers).

40 - Bible-Comforting Prayer (1 Thess. 4:18)

Comfort comes when we base our feelings on Scripture and not on circumstances. The more we know the Bible and God's plan for our life, the better control we'll have over our feelings and mood swings, and the more effective our prayers will be (Isa. 40:1-2; Luke 21:28; 1 Thess. 5:13, 18; Heb. 12:12). (See Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, Bible-Prayer, Word-Prayer).

41 - Bible-Prayer (John 15:7)

When you quote the Bible as you are praying, your requests are biblical. You may claim what the Bible promises, or quote the prayers of someone in Scripture, or you may quote a Bible command to pray. We pray the words of Scriptures knowing God will hear and honor His Word. "If... My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you" (John 15:7). (See Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, Scripture-Prayer, Word-Praying Prayer).

42 - Blessing a Person-Prayer (Num. 6:24-26)

When you ask God for His blessings on a person then God adds value to the life of that person. (See various Bless prayers).

43 - Blessing Children-Prayer (Lam. 2:19)

When we ask God to bless a child, God can add value to his life. "Lift your hands toward Him for the life of your young children" (Lam. 2:19). (See various Bless prayers).

$44 - Blessing \, Expectation - Prayer \, (Rom. \, 2{:}4)$

Be careful to pray a blessing that can flow out of the person's life or potential (see Gen. 49:28; Mal. 3:10; Rom. 2:4). (See Anticipatory-Prayer, Trusting-Prayer and various Bless prayers).

45 - Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer (Eph. 6:10-18)

These words can be prayed by an intercessor interceding to God against spiritual oppression (from satan or demons), and for blessings on the recipient (see Gen. 14:19-20; Exod. 17:11-12). (See various Bless and Victory prayers).

46 - Blessing the Lord-Worship (Pss. 103:1)

How can we add value to God? The answer is very simple: We can't. We can't do anything to make God more valuable than what He is. However, when we "bless the Lord" we give God something that He cannot give Himself. When we bless the Lord, we are adding His value to our lives as we recognize the greatness and goodness of God. We do this in worship. When we bless the Lord, we move out of ourselves to get closer to God than ever before. We become less absorbed with ourselves and more absorbed with God. When we bless God, we become more valuable to Him, hence we expand the work of God in the world (Pss. 103:1, 104:1, 146:1; Isa. 6:3; Luke 1:46-47; Rev. 4:8). (See Crown-Casting Worship, Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, True-Worshipers-Prayer, Worship-Prayer).

47 - Blessing-Prayer (Gen. 49:28)

We add spiritual value to another person when we pray/bless God into their lives and we ask God to add value to their lives (spiritually, financially, emotionally, or good relationships, etc.). A blessing makes the life of the other more enjoyable, useful, and profitable (Gen. 39:2, 21; Prov. 8:21; 2 Cor. 1:3-5). (See various Bless prayers).

48 - Blinded-Prayer (James 4:2-3)

We sometimes ask for the wrong thing in prayer because we love the wrong things in life. We must be yielded to God, then ask God to change our hearts so He can give us the requests He wants us to have (Gen. 29:11, 30; Luke 15:12). (See Blocked-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

49 - Blind-Obedience Prayer (Pss. 42:9)

Sometimes we don't feel as if God is hearing us. "Why do You hide Your face from me?" (Pss. 88:14). Perhaps God is testing us to see if we will obey Him. "Why have You forgotten me?" (Pss. 42:9). When we can't see what God is doing, the problem is with us, not God. The greatest expression of love to God in your life is blind obedience. Sometimes God wants to see us demonstrate blind obedience to Him when we don't feel His presence (Job 30:26; Pss. 13:1, 22:1-2; Isa. 40:27, 49:15). (See Abandonment-Prayer, Believing-Prayer, Faith-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer).

50 - Blind-Prayer (John 11:22)

This is when you pray for an answer, and you don't know what you want, or what it is you seek, but you know God can do something. You know He will answer but you don't know how. "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes" (Mark 9:23; John 11:22; Heb. 11:17-19). (See Believing-Prayer, Blind Obedient-Prayer, Faith-Praying).

51 - Blocked-Prayer (1 Peter 3:7)

Our prayers are blocked because of sin, and it has many results in our spiritual life (Job 42:8; Pss. 66:13; Isa. 59:1, 2; Matt. 5:23, 24; Mark 11:22-27; Eph. 4:20, 6:18; James 4:2, 3; 1 Peter 3:7). (See Hindrances to Prayer, Perverted-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer).

52 - Boldness Request in Prayer (2 Tim. 1:8)

Sometimes we let people intimidate us, or sometimes we just don't take an opportunity to speak for Christ. Therefore, we ask God to give us boldness to speak for Him (Isa. 51:7; Mark 8:38; Luke 9:26; Acts 5:41; Rom. 1:16; Eph. 3:13; 1 Peter 4:4). (See Continual-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

53 - Bondage-Breaking Prayer (Rom. 7:20)

Those who don't yield their lives to Jesus Christ are controlled by their old life or old nature. Whether they live an outward moral life or whether they suffer bondage to sin, they are controlled by their "self-life" or the lust of the flesh, the lust of their eyes, or the pride of life. The secret of victory is surrendering to Jesus Christ and the power He makes available to do His will; and to live above sin (Luke 4:18, 9:23; John 8:34-36; Rom. 7:20; 2 Cor. 2:14; Phil. 1:21, 4:13). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer, Victorious Results in Prayer, Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, see various Victory prayers).

54 - Brinkmanship-Praying (Pss. 91:3-10)

There may come a time when God's man or God's work is almost overwhelmed and defeated. We pray to God in a time of crisis because there is no other solution or deliverance but from God Himself. An illustration of Brinkmanship-Praying is when Esther said, "Fast for me...so I will go to the king...and if I perish, I perish!" (Est. 4:16). Like Esther, we must not blink in the face of danger, nor back away from a fight when the reputation of God is at stake. (See Death-Facing Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer).

55 - Brokenness-Prayer (Joel 2:12)

When we are convicted of our sin and we express a broken spirit, tears represent disappointment or anguish. Some weep because of sin. "Turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning" (Joel 2:12). (Gen. 43:30; 2 Sam. 12:21; Pss. 126:6; Eccl. 3:4; Jer. 9:1; Lam. 1:16; John 11:31, 35; Rom. 12:15; James 4:9). (See Affliction-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

56 - Burden-Prayer (Rom. 10:1)

In response to a burden that God gives, we intercede for our lost relatives and friends. A burden is a prayer obligation that may represent a family obligation, a relationship obligation, or a supernatural obligation given by God (Exod. 32:10; 1 Sam. 12:23, 15:11, 35; 16:1; Jer. 17:16; 1 Cor. 9:20-22). (See Evangelistic-Praying, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

57 - Calamity-Praying (Hos. 5:15)

God uses natural disasters, human problems, and other types of catastrophes to turn people's attention and prayers toward Him. Remember, "all things work together for good to those who love God" (Rom. 8:28); therefore we should pray to see God's larger plan developing in our lives when calamity strikes (Gen. 42:1-5; Jer. 8:14; Hos. 5:15). (See Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

58 - Call-Prayer (Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15)

This involves two actions. First, we must be listening for the call of God on our life; and second, we must be willing to do or be what God calls us to do. Many don't hear God's call because their spiritual ears are blocked with sin. Others have heard God's call in the past, but didn't follow it, so God hasn't called them again. If God calls we must answer, "Here am I! Send me" (Isa. 6:8) (Gen. 12:1 ff.; Exod. 3:1-10; Jonah 1:1-9; Luke 3:2; Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2, 9; 1 Thess. 5:24; Heb. 5:4). (See Worker's-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

59 - Care-Casting Prayer (1 Peter 5:7)

This is giving to God the concern of all our problems. God may want to solve the problem through us by giving us wisdom and telling us what to do. If we have yielded, consequences are left up to Him (1 Sam. 1:10; Isa. 30:6; Pss. 27:13, 14; 37:5, 55:22; Matt. 6:25-34; Phil 4:6; Heb. 13:5,6; 1 Peter 5:7). (See Commitment-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, Trusting-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

60 - Character of God-Prayer (1 Thess. 5:24)

Our prayers are to be based on God's nature and character (Mal. 3:6), not on our persistence, faith, or any other internal motive. You are asking God to answer because it is His nature to do what you ask (Gen. 18:23; 1 Thess. 5:24). (See God-Glorification Worship, God-Pleasing Prayer, Jesus First-Prayer).

61 - Child-Like-Praying (1 John 3:1)

We can approach God in a humble attitude because He is our Father, and we are His children (Jer. 3:19; Hosea 1:10; John 1:12; Rom. 8:14-17; 2 Cor. 6:18; Gal. 3:26-29, 4:5-61; 1 John 3:1). (See Basic-Praying, Definition of Prayer, Trusting-Prayer).

62 - Children of Promise-Prayer (Gal. 3:28)

Believers claim the promises made by the Father because they are the children of the Father, and they can claim the promises that are applicable to them (Acts 3:25; Rom. 4:13, 9:8-9; Gal. 3:29, 4:28). (See Blessing Children-Prayer, Family-Heritage Prayer, Father-Cry Prayer).

63 - Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer (Heb. 11:25)

We should make our decisions in prayer based on God's values and plans for our lives. By faith we must see God's core values and pray according to what He wants to do (Job 36:21; Dan. 1:8; Matt. 4:18-20; Mark 2:14; Acts 9:6; Heb. 11:25). (See Commitment-Prayer, Vow-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

64 - Christ's Indwelling-Prayer (Eph. 3:17)

As we realize that Christ indwells us, we can pray that His strength will empower us to overcome temptation and live for Him (John 14:23, 17:21; 2 Cor. 4:10-11, 13:3-5; Gal. 2:20; Phil. 1:21, 4:13; 1 Thess. 5:10; Rev. 3:20). (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, and various Jesus prayers).

65 - Christ Formed in Us-Prayer (Gal. 4:19)

This is a continual prayer that Christ will take more control of our lives and that His presence will shine through us to the world (Rom. 8:29, 13:14; Gal. 4:19; Eph. 4:24; Phil. 2:5; Col. 1:27, 3:10). (See Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Crucifixion-Prayer, Transformation-Prayer).

66 - Church Leadership-Prayer (1 Thess. 5:12-14)

We should intercede for our church leaders so that they may lead our local church effectively and so that we may grow in Christ and do more in Christian service (1 Thess. 5:12-14; 1 Tim. 5:17; Heb. 13:7, 17; 1 Peter 5:1-5). (See Model Church-Prayer, Pastor-Prayer).

67 - Church-Boss Rejection Prayer (3 John 9)

Instead of supporting and praying for a "church boss" who runs the church for his egotistical purposes, we must reject a leader who will not follow Jesus, the Shepherd of the Church (Matt. 20:20, 23:4, 8; Phil. 2:3-5; 1 Tim 6:3, 4; 1 Peter 5:4; 3 John 9). (See Church Leadership-Prayer, Pastor-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

68 - Church-Multiplication Prayer (Acts 19:10)

Both Christians and churches should follow the "reproducing" principle found in Genesis 1:12. The life in a seed produces a plant with seeds that will continue the reproduction cycle. A church with the life-transforming message should produce another church, just like the original seed (Gen. 1:12, 8:22, 12:2-3, 22:18; Pss. 126:6; Matt. 13:8, 28:19-20; Acts 19:10; 2 Tim. 2:2). (See Dream Motivated-Prayer, Evangelistic-Praying, Soul-Winner's Prayer, Vision-Praying).

69 - Church-Praying (Matt. 16:18)

Jesus announced, "I will build My church," suggesting five strengths: (a) He was the church planter and building; (b) it would be planted in the future, that is, after His death; (c) the word "build" was continual, meaning He is building His church today; (d) the word "My" means the "church" belongs to Jesus, not the pastor, board, or congregation; and (e) the word church is ecclesia which means to gather out, so Christ will be continually gathering His people out of the world (Acts 2:47, 8:1; Eph. 3:10, 5:25-28; Col. 1:18; 1 Tim. 3:5; Rev. 2:1 ff.). (See Dream Motivated-Prayer, Evangelistic-Praying, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

70 - Circumstantial-Prayer (Rom. 8:28)

When we pray, we ask God to work through circumstances to give us the answers we desire. "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God" (Rom 8:28) (Gen. 50:20; Deut. 8:2-16; Pss. 46:1-2; Zech. 13:9; 2 Cor. 4:15-18; Phil. 1:19). (Guidance-Prayer, Will of God-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

71 - Clean-Conscience Prayer (Heb. 10:22)

We come to God with a clean conscience (we never have a perfect life free from sin) because we have confessed our sin, and we are seeking to live by God's standards. When we know there is nothing between God and us, we can pray with honesty and sincerity. "Now we know that God does not hear sinners" (John 9:31). We come to God because of what Christ has done for us in His death, burial, and resurrection. We can have a clear conscience when we have claimed all the forgiveness Christ has provided for us (Acts 24:16; 1 Tim. 1:5, 19; Heb. 10:22; 1 Peter 3:12, 16). (See Blocked-Prayer, Confessing-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer).

72 - Come to Jesus-Prayer (Rev. 22:17)

Our intercession for unsaved people to come to salvation is based on God's invitation for all to come to salvation. Jesus died for all (John 1:29); and He invited people to "Come to Me" (Matt. 11:28). The Holy Spirit and Jesus gave these words of invitation: "Come! And let him who hears say, Come! And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17). (See Evangelistic-Prayer, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

73 - Comfortable Place to Pray (John 18:2)

A comfortable place to pray is where (1) prayer comes easy; (2) our memory motivates us to prayer; (3) it has present meaning; and (4) it is a place that guarantees future success because we successfully prayed there in the past (Gen. 2:15-3:23; 1 Kings 15:13; Luke 21:37 ff.). (See Geographical-Prayer, Geographical-Renewed Prayer).

74 - Coming-Kingdom Prayer (Pss. 67; Matt. 6:9)

When we pray, "Your kingdom come," there is a semi-conclusion attached to this request that directs its answer. We pray, "Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven" (Matt. 6:10). There are two ways God answers this request. First, we are seeking the future coming millennial kingdom of 1,000 years on earth. Second, we are asking for God's kingdom to rule on earth this day, as His kingdom is presently ruling in heaven (Isa. 2:4; Dan. 2:44; Matt. 4:17; Rev. 20:4). (See Anticipating His Return, Government Leaders-Intercession).

75 - Commitment-Prayer (Pss. 37:5)

In the prayer of commitment you surrender to God the things about which you are praying. The act of commitment is an issue of simple trust. Until you commit the answer to God, you may never see how deep its hooks have on your life. Everything in prayer comes down to simple faith, so we dedicate ourselves unreservedly to the answers for which we are praying (Pss. 22:8, 55:22; Matt. 6:25; Luke 12:22-30; Phil. 4:6-7; James 4:13-15; 1 Peter 5:7). (See Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Trusting-Prayer, Vow-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

76 - Common-Sense Praying (Gen. 24:12-14)

We need to ask God to use our human initiative, skills, and hard work to help bring about the answer we seek from Him. This is not asking for a miracle or some other supernatural display from heaven (like angels) to do the work God has given to us. We ask God to bless and use us as we do the normal (common sense) things of life in communicating the gospel to lost people (Gen. 24:27; Neh. 1:11; Pss. 37:5; Prov. 3:5-6, 4:11, 18; 8:20; Rom. 8:28). (See Problem-Solving Prayer).

77 - Communion-Prayer (Phil. 3:8-10)

Prayer is basically a relationship with God, so in communion prayer we spend time fellowshiping with God. During this time we are seeking to experience God, meditating on God, or bowing before Him in speechless adoration. (See Fellowship-Praying, Intimacy-Prayer, Meditation-Prayer, Oneness-Prayer).

78 - Compliment-Blessing Prayer (Luke 6:31)

When you give a person a compliment and pray for him, God may use you to bless the recipient with stronger self-esteem (see Luke 6:31; 2 Cor. 1:3-5). (See various Bless prayers).

79 - Conditional-Prayer Promise (2 Chron. 7:14)

God does not answer when we quote in prayer a promise, if we don't meet the conditions of that promise. Usually we get frustrated when we unsuccessfully quote a prayer promise and God doesn't answer. As a result, we question God's promise, or we question God's ability to answer. Usually the problem lies in our interpretation of these seemingly unconditional promises of the Bible. What may seem to be an unconditioned prayer promise in one verse may actually have some other conditions in other places in the Bible. Usually our motives behind our requests are suspect; we're not being sincere with God and are not asking in faith. God doesn't answer because He knows our heart. Sincerity alone is not enough; our prayers must also be tempered by biblical truth (Pss. 66:18, 81:8; Matt. 7:7-11; Mark 9:23; Luke 9:23; John 13:17, 14:13-14, 15:7). (See Conditional-Praying, Fleece-Praying).

80 - Conditional-Praying (Matt. 8:2)

Many times we pray conditionally because we are human; that is, (a) we don't know everything in Scripture that tells us how to pray and what to pray; (b) we are limited in our understanding; (c) we don't live perfect lives; and (d) we don't fully understand the perfect will of God in all things. (See Conditional-Prayer Promise, Fleece-Praying, Yielding-Prayer).

81 - Confession-Prayer (1 John 1:9)

We pray to acknowledge our sin(s) by (1) confessing them; (2) repenting of them; and (3) asking God to forgive us. Then we must determine to live above those temptations (2 Chron. 6:37-38, 7:14; Pss. 32:5, 51:2 ff.; Prov. 28:13; Dan. 9:4; Titus 2:14). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Propitiation-Intercession Prayer, Restorative-Prayer).

82 - Confident-Praying (1 John 5:13)

We can pray with great confidence because of biblical proofs that assure us that we are God's children. Because of confidence we can pray with greater faith and get answers to our prayers (Rom. 8:14-17; 2 Cor. 5:1; Gal. 4:6; 2 Peter 1:10-11; 1 John 5:13). (See Faith-Based Praying, Faith-Eyes Praying).

83 - Confident-Praying in God's Presence (Heb. 13:5)

We can approach God confidently, knowing He will not leave us nor forsake us. We can pray confidently because of His presence with us (Gen. 28:15; Deut. 31:6, 8; Josh. 1:5; Pss. 37:25; Isa. 41:10, 17; Matt. 28:20; Heb. 13:5). (See Assurance-Praying, Confident-Praying, Faith-Based Praying).

84 - Confronting-Evil Prayer (Eph. 6:10 ff.)

This is almost spiritual warfare prayer because we are building a wall of protection against overwhelming temptations and trials that come from demons and satan himself. We are not just requesting God to do something positive for us, we are confronting evil that would hinder our prayers and destroy our walk with God (Josh. 1:6-9; 1 Chron. 28:10-20; Pss. 138:3; Isa. 40:28-31; Hag. 2:4; Zech. 8:9-13; Eph. 1:19, 3:16, 6:10; 1 Cor. 16:13; Phil. 4:13; 2 Tim. 2:1 ff.; 1 Peter 5:10). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Warfare-Protection Prayer).

85 - Consensus-Prayer (Acts 15:18)

How do we pray about things or issues that are disagreeable among the brethren? The early church was divided on the matter of whether circumcision should be required for salvation. (1) They examined Scripture; (2) they listened to the opinion of those they trusted; (3) they examined the experiences of what God was doing; and (4) they trusted God in areas they didn't understand. "Known to God from eternity are all His works" (Acts 15:18) (Gen. 21:22-34). (See Agree-Prayer, Agreement-Prayer).

86 - Contentment-Prayer (Phil. 1:20)

We should ask God to give us an attitude of calm tranquility. However, contentment is a by-product of Christ controlling our life and attitudes. When you pray for contentment, go deeper. Yield your life and decisions to Christ and let Him control every part of your life. Learn to say with Paul, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21). To have contentment, you must have Christ (Phil. 4:11, 13; 1 Tim 6:6; Heb. 13:5). (See Peaceful Living-Prayer, and various Jesus prayers).

87 - Continual-Prayer (1 Thess. 3:10)

The Greek words "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17) do not mean "without stopping"; rather they mean "intermittently." We are to pray intermittently according to our needs, as a baby cries according to its needs. Automatic windshield wipers turn on automatically to clear the windshield at a pace equal to the amount of rain. In the same way we are to pray intermittently according to the amount of problems we face. "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess. 5:16-18). (See Alert-Prayer, All-Time Prayer, Asking-Prayer, Continue in Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

88 - Continue in Prayer (Luke 11:8-10)

Some of our prayers are answered immediately because of our faith or boldness. Other times we remain in God's presence to "continue in prayer." However, we don't change God's mind with the amount of time we pray as though we are "begging" or trying to "twist God's arm." Before our prayers can change things, our prayers must change us. We are conformed into God's image as we continue in prayer. (See Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer, Wait-Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

89 - Convergence-Faith Praying (1 Cor. 13:2)

Convergence is described by two interstate highways meeting in an interchange so that traffic from different directions converges together. Convergence Faith happens when our faith converges with our spiritual gift and calling from God. Not everyone can exercise faith to get results in teaching if that person doesn't have the spiritual gift of teaching. Or to put it in the positive, the one with the spiritual gift of teaching can have greater faith and be more effective in relationship to teaching. In my lifetime, I've seen Jerry Falwell exercise faith to build over 100 buildings on Liberty University's campus. I've seen Billy Graham, the evangelist, exercise faith to see millions accept Christ in his crusades. I've seen Yonggi Cho, Korean church planter and pastor, exercise faith to build the largest local church in church history. Therefore, each person will be most effective in praying when his/her requests are directed in accord with their spiritual gift and calling by God (Matt. 17:20, 21:21; Mark 11:22-24; Luke 17:5-6; 1 Cor. 12:9). (See Faith-Based Praying, Faith-Eyes Praying, Faith-Praying, Faith-Validated Prayer).

90 - Correcting Others-Prayer (Titus 1:13)

This is a prayer we use when solving a problem. We should pray for the one we are correcting, and for our attitude, for the problem to be solved, and for God to be glorified (Prov. 27:5; 2 Cor. 13:10; 1 Tim. 5:20; Titus 1:13, 2:15). (See Correction-Response Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

91 - Correction-Response Prayer (Heb. 10:9, 10)

This should be our response when God punishes us because of our sin. We never like correction, but it's good for us because God wants to make us to be holy like Him (Exod. 20:12; Deut. 21:18; Prov. 15:10, 19:18, 30:17; Eph. 6:1, 4; Heb. 10:9-10, 12:5-11). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

92 - Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer (Pss. 55:22)

When God makes a covenant with His people, we must accept our responsibility to fulfill our part of the covenant (if it is a conditional covenant). (See Commitment-Prayer, Vow-Prayer).

93 - Creation-Inspired Worship (Pss. 19:1, 2)

We worship God for the wonderful universe He created, and for the evidences of His sustaining power in His universe. We are careful not to worship the creation, but God, the Creator who is vastly superior to His creation. We worship God for His power, wisdom, and artistic beauty that created the universe. Since the creation extends far beyond our comprehension, so our worship of God the Creator must go far beyond our human limitation (Deut. 32:4; 1 Chron. 16:28-29; Job. 36:3; Pss. 19:1-2, 29:1-2, 68:34, 96:7-8; Rev. 4:11). (See Creation-Inspired Worship, Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer).

94 - Crown of Righteousness-Prayer (2 Tim. 4:8)

If we receive the crown of righteousness when we arrive in heaven, we should be grateful. We should cast our crown at the feet of Christ. This crown is called the martyr's crown because it's given to those who sacrifice their lives in death for Christ (1 Cor. 9:25; 2 Tim. 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Peter 5:4; Rev. 2:10, 3:11). (See Crown-Casting Worship).

95 - Crown-Casting Worship (Rev. 4:10)

We do not deserve any reward (that is, crowns). It is the indwelling Christ who motivates us to service, and who empowers our service. We stand before God in the righteousness of Christ, so we give all praise back to Him by casting our crowns at His feet. This is our response to any recognition or reward given to us by God (2 Chron. 7:3; Pss. 95:6, 115:1; Matt. 4:9-10; 1 Cor. 15:10-11; Rev. 4:10). (See Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Redemptive-Worship, Worship-Prayer, Worship-Roar Prayer, Worthy-Worship Prayer).

96 - Crucifixion-Prayer (Gal. 2:20)

When Paul states that he has been "crucified with Christ" (Gal. 2:20), he was not initiating the crucifixion but receiving it. The Prayer of Crucifixion is more about yielding ourselves to God, than it is aggressively trying to eliminate sin in our life. When we pray the Prayer of Crucifixion, we take up all that the cross symbolizes—humiliation, degradation, death—and identify with the pain and trials of Christ. We "lose" our lives by giving up our earthly desires in order to pursue what Jesus wants for us. We become completely yielded, completely abandoned, and completely transparent before God. It means completely surrendering ourselves to God and allowing Jesus to act within us—by allowing Christ to "live out" His role in our lives. We die to our self-desires and find a greater spiritual energy in Christ. We die to our self-ambition and find a greater reason to live for Christ. But more likely, the Prayer of Crucifixion will occur in smaller ways as we daily and intentionally give up our life bit by bit to God. "But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world" (Gal. 6:14). (Luke 9:23, 27; Rom. 6:4-6; Gal. 2:19, 20, 5:24, 6:14; Eph. 3:16; Col. 1:28, 2:11-14). (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, Transforming-Prayer and various Victory prayers).

97 - Daily-Prayer (Acts 2:42)

The early church prayed daily and probably in many different ways, that is, in private, in groups, with family members, and in church. We should follow the Lord's exhortation that "men ought always to pray" (Luke 18:1). (1 Sam. 12:23; Isa. 55:1; Matt. 6:9, 7:7, 14:23; Acts 2:42, 10:9, 16:25; Col. 1:3; 1 Thess. 5:17; 1 Tim. 2:1). (See All-Time Prayer, Continue in Prayer, First Prayer Each Day, Intermittent-Prayer, Lord's-Prayer, Morning-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer).

98 - Daniel Fast and Prayer (Dan. 1:8)

The "Daniel fast" is for health and healing. "Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank" (Dan. 1:8). Therefore, Daniel requested, "Let them give us pulse [vegetables] to eat, and water to drink" (Dan. 1:12). At the end of the days, King Nebuchadnezzar examined and found, "None like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah" (Dan. 1:19). A Daniel fast is a partial fast for health and healing. We commit ourselves to God's healing/health and will fast and pray for it (Exod. 15:26, 23:25; 2 Kings 20:5; Job 5:18; Pss. 41:3, 4; 103:3; Jer. 8:22, 33:6; James 5:15). (See Healing-Prayer).

99 - Death-Facing-Prayer (Pss. 88:3)

There will be times when we face death. Remember however, God's servant is invincible until God is finished with him on this earth. Therefore we should pray for deliverance when facing death, all the while remembering it may be God's time to bring us home (Pss. 22:11, 14, 21; 23:4, 88:3; Acts 26:31; 2 Cor. 1:9, 10; Phil. 1:20). (See Death-Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Dying-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer).

100 - Death-Prayer (Rev. 9:6)

Some people are in such pain that they pray to die. The picture in Revelation 9 is of God's wrath poured out in punishment, but those who pray to die will not escape death. On the other hand, some are in such physical pain that they ask God to take them home (2 Sam. 1:9; Job 3:20, 22; 7:15-16; Jonah 4:8-9; Luke 23:30; Rev. 6:16, 9:6, 13-21). (See Death-Facing Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Dying-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer).

101 - Deceitful-Heart Prayer (James 4:3)

Sometimes we sincerely ask God for something in prayer, not realizing we are motivated by our deceitful hearts. James calls this, "You ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures" (Jer. 17:9; James 4:2, 3). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Guilt-Motivation Praying, Old-Nature Praying).

102 - Dedication of Money-Prayer (Acts 2:44-45)

We should commit all our wealth and belongings to God and then ask Him to use our money for His glory (Luke 9:23; Acts 2:44-45, 4:34-35, 5:1-6; 1 Tim. 6:6-12). (See Money-Prayer).

103 - Dedication-Prayer (Mark 10:16)

This is asking God for His natural and supernatural prosperity or His success on a venture, or a project, or an event, or program (Josh. 1:7-9, 21:43-45; Pss. 37:4; Mark 10:16). (See Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Servanthood-Prayer, Worker's-Prayer).

104 - Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer (Pss. 109:31)

This is a prayer for help by those who can't protect themselves. God has promised to help those who cry to Him in their hour of need (Pss. 91:2-12, 109:31). (See Abandonment Prayer, Affliction-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

105 - Defensive-Warfare Prayer (1 John 4:4)

We can pray defensively against evil that is attacking us. Or we can ask God to put a "hedge" around us to defend us against the attacks of satan. "He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world" (Job 1:10; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 John 4:4). (See Affliction-Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer, Warfare-Prayer, Warfare-Protection Prayer).

106 - Definition of Prayer (Heb. 11:6)

Prayer is communication with God; it is a relationship between you and your God. (See All-Kinds of Prayer, Basic-Praying, Believing Prayer, Definition of Prayer).

107 - Delayed Answer-Prayer (Isa. 30:18)

Sometimes God waits for a period of time before answering our requests. "Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be gracious to you" (Isa. 30:18). "Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; wait, I say, on the LORD!" (Pss. 27:14). (See Directional Answer-Prayer, Reluctant Answers to Prayer, Wait-Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

108 - Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer (Pss. 94:23)

Physical consequences come when a law is broken. So evil people will be judged according to their sin. God delays spiritual judgment until the end of the world. That way, all sins will be faced, as well as all the consequences of all sin. (If a man commits rape or adultery and a child is born who becomes a vile sinner—or produces several more generations of sinners—that original sin, plus its consequences, must be judged by God.) However, Christ died to take away all sin of His children. But God delays judgment to give unsaved people opportunity to repent and be converted (Pss. 7:16, 55:23, 64:8, 94:13, 23; Prov. 2:22, 5:22; 1 John 1:7-10). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, Reluctant Answers to Prayer, Wait-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

109 - Deliverance-Prayer (Pss. 34:6)

Sometimes we need to ask God to give us victory over sin or unwanted practices in our life. "This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles" (Pss. 34:6). (See Triumphant-Prayer, Victorious Results in Prayer, Victory Over Temptation Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

110 - Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer (Pss. 18:6)

There are many kinds of deliverance: spiritual, emotional, social, financial, and physical. There are many degrees of deliverance: from habits, from addictions, from unknown dangers, from bad influences, or wrong friends, etc. There are many ways God delivers: by Scripture, by counsel, by sermons, by reading material, by prayers of others, by meditation, and by our own intercession. We should be thankful, no matter how we are delivered (Pss. 18:6, 106:47, 148:14; Rom. 8:37; 1 Cor. 15:57; 2 Cor. 2:14, 8:16, 9:15; Eph. 5:20; 1 Thess. 3:9). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Victory-Prayer, Vindication-Praise Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

111 - Desert-Praying (Mark 1:12)

Sometimes we seek "desert experiences" to get away from the clamor of the world so we can experience God's presence and closeness. Other times our "desert experience" is dry, lonely, and threatening. These "desert experiences" are like times when we are tempted by the world, the flesh, and the devil. God will help us in these experiences (Exod. 3:1; 1 Kings 19:4; Pss. 28:4, 106:14; Isa. 35:5-6, 43:19-20; Mark 6:31). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Persecution-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

112 - Desperate-Prayer (Matt. 14:30)

Sometimes we encounter situations in which the threat is so immediate and overwhelming that all we can do is cry out to God in desperation. When Peter was sinking under the waves in a storm, he cried, "Lord, save me!" (Matt. 14:30). We pray desperately when we face danger or an emergency. "This poor man cried out, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles" (Pss. 13:2-3, 34:6). (See Calamity-Praying, Emergency-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

113 - Devil Worship-Prayer (Rev. 13:4)

Satan is a counterfeit god who sets himself up as deity and wants to be worshiped (Matt. 4:9). During the Tribulation he will influence people to worship the antichrist (Dan. 11:36-37; 1 Cor. 10:20; 2 Cor. 4:4; 2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:4). (See Devil-Defensive Prayer, False-Prayer).

114 - Devil-Defensive Prayer (1 Peter 5:8)

In this prayer we ask for protection against satan, or we ask for wisdom to thwart his attacks, or for strength to protect ourselves in battle. This is asking for a "hedge" of protection when we are not aware of sin's attacks, or when we are unaware of the devil's activities (Job 1:10; Luke 4:3 ff.; Eph. 4:27; James 4:7; 1 Peter 5:8). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Devil-Defensive Prayer, False-Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer, Victorious-Results in Prayer).

115 - Difference-Making Prayer (Jude 22)

This is a prayer that God will protect our friends from heresy and evil so that they may grow in Christ and serve God wholeheartedly. When we pray effectively, we show compassion on them (1 Cor. 4:14-16; Gal. 4:19; 1 Tim. 1:2; Titus 1:4; Jude 22). (See Disentanglement-Prayer, Intercessor's-Prayer, Intercessory-Prayer for Jews).

116 - Difficulties-Prayer (Pss. 40:2)

This is a prayer to pray in times of trouble, problems, or discouragement. When we get into difficulties (not necessarily sin), God wants us to call on Him for deliverance from them (Job 5:7, 14:1; Pss. 40:2, 107:6, 138:7). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, Protection-Prayer).

117 - Diligent-Person's Prayer (Prov. 4:23)

Diligence is an attitude of both the righteous and wise man. Those who think right—the wise—will eventually do right. A diligent man will give attention to his business and will not squander his life. He is steady, dependable, and brings energy to the things he does. As a result of being diligent, he will become prosperous. This person can acquire the good attitude of diligence from good role models, and/or by constantly doing the right things that give good results. "Do you see a man who excels in his work? He will stand before kings" (Prov. 22:29). Ultimately the diligent person rises to the top and may be given a leadership role in his place of work. "The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy man will be put to forced labor" (Prov. 12:24). (Prov. 4:23, 10:4, 12:27, 13:4, 22:29, 27:23). (See All Kinds of Prayer, Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Servanthood-Prayer, Worker's-Prayer).

118 - Directional Answer-Prayer (1 Kings 17:9)

God answers our request by directing us what to do. God does not always give us answers, nor does He always do something for us; but He may show us what to do. "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you" (1 Kings 17:9). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Wait-Prayer, Wait-ing Anxiously in Prayer).

119 - Disciple Fast and Prayer (Matt. 17:21)

The Disciple Fast and Prayer is "to loose the bands of wickedness" (Isa. 58:6). It can free us and others from sin. Jesus cast out a demon from a boy whom the disciples had failed to help. Jesus told them, "However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting" (Matt. 17:21). The implication is that Jesus' disciples could have performed this exorcism had they been willing to undergo the discipline of fasting. (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Sin-Stomping Prayer, Supernatural-Praying, and various Victory prayers).

120 - Disciplined-Prayer (Luke 11:1)

When we ask God to help us do the right thing in the right way, we become disciplined in prayer. We pray for God to help us establish a habitual pattern of positive actions. (See Race-Preparation Prayer, Self-Control Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

121 - Disentanglement-Prayer (2 Peter 2:20)

This is intercession for those who are entangled in false teaching, and is a prayer to keep us from being so entangled (Num. 24:20; Judges 4-7; Matt. 12:43-45; Luke 11:24-26; Heb. 6:4 ff., 10:26, 27; 2 Peter 2:20). (See Difference-Making Prayer, Doctrinal-Prayer, Establishing Doctrine by Prayer).

122 - Distraction to Prayer (Exod. 17:11)

Spiritual warfare often begins as an internal distraction while we are praying. When we feel a distraction, or an evil temptation, we should claim the supernatural power of Christ as we wrestle against the problem. Spiritual warfare demands we focus all our mental energy on what we are praying. We can ask God to help us. We can read Scripture out loud. We can pray out loud. We can write out our prayers. Since life is a journey, we will be continually in warfare prayer, and will never quit struggling against distractions until we are in heaven. "And so it was, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed" (Exod. 17:11). (See Affliction-Prayer, Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Disciplined-Prayer, Victorious Results in Prayer).

123 - Diversionary-Answer to Prayer (Mark 10:38)

Sometimes God answers our prayer differently from the thing for which we ask. God points us away from the request for which we pray and gives us a diversionary answer. Sometimes it is true, "You do not know what you ask" (Mark 10:38). (See Directional Answer-Prayer, Delayed Answer-Prayer, Wait-Prayer, Waiting-Anxiously in Prayer).

124 - Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer (Gen. 32:30)

Whether or not our request is valid, or whether God will answer us, God sometimes reveals Himself to the one praying. Sometimes this is called the "atmospheric presence" of God; others call it the "manifest presence" of God because He manifests Himself to His children. This is when we feel His presence with us. As an illustration, sometimes we feel rain, even when it is not raining. "For I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved" (Gen. 32:30). (See Atmospheric-Worship, God-Pleasing Prayer, Presence of God Prayer).

125 - Divine-Purity Praying (2 Peter 1:3)

This is asking for a supernatural ability to live a godly life. God's power is not available to fulfill our dreams of riches, luxury, or other selfish endeavors, God's power is for godliness (Pss. 12:1; 2 Tim. 3:12; Titus 2:12; Heb. 12:28; 2 Peter 1:3). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Confession-Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer).

126 - Doctrinal-Prayer (1 Tim. 3:15-16)

Ask God to help you believe and understand the essential doctrines of Christianity and to keep you from drifting from the fundamentals of the faith (Matt. 16:18, 19; Acts 14:15; 2 Cor. 3:6; Gal. 2:9; 1 Thess. 1:4; 1 Tim. 3:15-16; Heb. 3:12). (See Difference-Making Prayer, Disentanglement-Prayer, Faith-Praying, Spiritual-Stability Praying).

127 - Doubting-Prayer (Gen. 22:7)

Doubting the nature or ability of God is a sin against His character. However, there is a natural human doubt that comes from circumstances, such as Isaac who asked, "Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" (Gen. 22:7). At that moment God provided Himself—Jehovah-Jireh—a ram caught in the thicket for a sacrifice. (See Confident-Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, Faith-Praying, Victory Over Doubt Prayer).

128 - Dream-Motivated Prayer (Hab. 2:2-4)

A dream may be (1) our recessive memory while we sleep; or (2) a supernatural message God gives usually through sleep; or (3) a special task or project one wants to do for God and the kingdom, as in the word vision. Dream-Motivated Prayer deals with point 3, that is, praying for a dream or vision that God has put in your heart. This involves yielding to carry out the dream/vision, asking God to help you accomplish the dream/vision, and preparing yourself spiritually to do what God has told you to do (Gen. 37:5, 9; 1 Sam. 3:1; Prov. 29:18; Hab. 2:1-4; Matt. 9:36 ff.; Rom. 10:13 ff.). (See Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying, Vision-Praying).

129 - Dream-Rejection Prayer (Gen. 37:5, 9)

Some experience rejection or hatred because of the dream/vision they have of serving God. Yet, we must be true to the task God has given us, even when the world hates us. We must pray for strength to carry out our dream/vision even in face of animosity (Gen. 37:5, 37:9; Pss. 38:19, 69:4; John 15:18-19; 1 John 2:11, 3:10-11). (See Dream-Motivated Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering Prayer).

130 - Dying-Prayer (Acts 7:59)

Each believer must travel through "the valley of the shadow of death" to reach heaven. Stephen gave us an example of one who commended himself to God in prayer as he took that journey (Pss. 16:10, 23:4; Luke 16:22; Acts 7:59; 2 Cor. 5:8; Heb. 12:1-2; Rev. 7:9 ff., 14:13). (See Death-Facing Prayer, Death-Prayer).

131 - Effective-Prayer (Phil. 4:6-7)

When we meet the conditions of prayer, we get the answers we seek. (See Basic-Praying, Believing-Prayer, Conditional-Praying, Conditional-Prayer Promises, Trusting-Prayer).

132 - Elijah Fast and Prayer (1 King 19:4-16)

The Elijah fast is a spiritual discipline that helps break negative mental and emotional habits that control our lives. Praying while following the Elijah fast will build self-discipline so that the person can control his or her life. During the Elijah fast, the power of God should control the whole person, spirit, soul, and body (see 1 Thess. 5:23). "So he (Elijah) arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Horeb, the mountain of God" (1 Kings 19:8). (See Abandonment-Prayer, Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer).

$133 - Emergency-Prayer (Pss.\,91:3-4)$

Sometimes we call on God in an emergency or when we are in desperate trouble (Deut. 22:4; 2 Chron. 14:11, 20:4; Pss. 3:6, 20:2, 27:9, 33:20, 119:173, 121:1-2; Isa. 50:7; Acts 16:9; Heb. 4:16, 13:6). (See Desperate-Prayer, Death-Facing Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer).

134 - Employment-Prayer (Col. 3:17, 23)

We can ask God to use our secular job or employment (1) to take care of our financial needs; (2) to enable us to do a good job; and (3) to benefit those for whom we work. This is praying for strength and discipline, which is opposite of a lazy attitude. This also involves a prayer for God to be glorified in our employment (2 Thess. 3:11-12; 1 Tim. 5:13; 1 Peter 4:15). (See Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Worker's-Prayer).

135 - End-Times Prayer (Rev. 22:20)

This prayer recognizes that God has a grand plan for mankind that includes His people the Jews, the return of the Messiah, judgment of unsaved mankind, and the abode of the wicked in hell and the abode of God's people in heaven. This prayer also recognizes God's personal plan for each of His children as they prepare for Christ's return (Gen. 49:1; Deut. 4:30, 31:29; Dan. 2:28-29, 10:14; Acts 2:17; 1 Tim. 4:1-2; 2 Tim. 3:1). (See Anticipating His Return, Coming-Kingdom Prayer, End-Times Understanding-Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer).

136 - End-Times Understanding Prayer (Rev. 17:9)

This is a prayer to understand the events that surround the end times and a commitment to study diligently and completely the verses that explain the end times (Deut. 12:4, 8, 10; Hosea 14:9; Matt. 13:11, 24:15; 2 Tim. 2:15; Rev. 17:9). (See Anticipating His Return, Coming Kingdom-Prayer, End-Times Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer).

137 - Endurance-Prayer (2 Thess. 3:5)

As we pray for the "the patience of Christ" (2 Thess. 3:5) for ourselves and others, we are asking for endurance to continue in prayer until an answer comes from God (2 Thess. 3:5; 1 Peter 4:1). (See All-Time Praying, Continuing in Prayer, Discipline-Prayer, Self-Control Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

138 - Endure-Hardship Prayer (2 Tim. 2:3)

We can pray this prayer when we face suffering and difficulties (1 Cor. 13:7; 2 Cor. 1:6; 2 Tim. 2:3, 4:5; Heb. 6:19, 20; 10:32, 11:27, 12:1-3; James 1:12). (See Abandon-ment-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

$139 - Enemy-Strategy \, Praying \, (John \, 8:44)$

The arguments between Jesus and the Jews were really battles between the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. Jesus knew the religious Jews were agents of satan, and He knew their strategy to defeat Him. Therefore we must study Scriptures to understand satan's strategy against us, then follow God's principles to live godly and serve God successfully (Gen. 3:15; Exod. 17:9-13; Isa. 14:12-15; Matt. 4:1 ff., 12:24; Luke 10:18; John 13:2; 1 Peter 5:2; Rev. 2:10). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Warfare-Strategy Prayer).

140 – Ephesians' Church-Prayer (Rev. 2:4-6)

We should intercede for lukewarm Christians so they will remember the love they had for Christ when first saved and then pray for their repentance and their commitment to return to their first love (Matt. 24:12-13; Phil. 1:9, 3:13-16; 1 Thess. 4:9-10; 2 Thess. 1:3; Heb. 6:4-10; James 2:2-5; Rev. 2:4-6). (See Love-Abounding Prayer, Love-Growing Prayer, Love-Praying).

141 - Escape-Prayer (Rev. 6:16-17)

This is the cry of unsaved people during the Tribulation to be relieved of torture for their sins. The wrath of the Tribulation is aimed at the unsaved and the physical world, while believers will be with Jesus in heaven. This is not a prayer for them, and this is not a prayer by God's people. This is a prayer by the unsaved left on earth after the rapture. (Pss. 76:7, 130:3-4; Isa. 13:6; Jer. 30:7; Joel 2:31; Zeph. 1:14; 2 Thess. 2:3 ff.; Rev. 6:16-17). (See Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

142 - Escaping-Danger Prayer (Acts 12:5)

There are many options when Christians face danger: (1) they can be killed, as was James (Acts 12:1); (2) they can be punished, as were Paul and Silas (Acts 16:23); or (3) they can be supernaturally delivered (Acts 5:19, 12:7). Since only God controls the moment of our death, we should (1) commit our safety to God; (2) yield ourselves to God's will; and (3) be faithful till death (Pss. 91:1-13; Luke 9:23; John 15:18-25; Acts 9:15-16, 12:5; Phil. 1:29; James 1:3, 12; 1 Peter 4:12-19). (See Deliverance-Prayer and various Victory prayers).

143 - Establishing Doctrine by Prayer (Titus 1:5)

When facing false doctrine, we must pray for leaders to be firm, for correction for those who hold false doctrine, for teaching of correct doctrine, and that salvation will be correctly understood (Acts 14:23, 15:36; 2 Tim. 2:2; Titus 1:5). (See Doctrinal-Prayer, Disentanglement-Prayer, Spiritual-Stability Prayer).

144 - Esther Fast and Prayer (Est. 4:16)

The Esther fast and prayer is a spiritual discipline for protection from the evil one. When the Jews faced a holocaust, Esther said, "Fast for me...My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king...[and] that she found favor in his sight" (Est. 4:16; 5:2). We believe God loves us and can protect us, and that only God controls the day of our death. We enlist His protection in spiritual warfare against all opposing forces or the evil one who would attack and harm us (see 1 Peter 5:8). "Is this not the fast that I have chosen... The glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard" (Isa. 58:6, 8). (See Death-Facing Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, Warfare-Protection Prayer).

145 - Evangelistic-Praying (Acts 4:31)

When you show someone the plan of salvation, then you pray that the unsaved person will come to salvation (see Luke 6:28; Acts 4:20). (See Redemption-Prayer, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

146 - Everyman's-Prayer (Acts 16:13)

People from all religions pray, but that does not mean God listens or answers them. They pray because (1) there is a vacuum in their heart that needs God; (2) they face dangers or circumstances that are too big to handle by themselves; (3) it is natural for the human to pray to his Creator; (4) they pray out of fear; and (5) they face the termination of their life and death, and they want some type of continuation after death. Almost every atheist who denies God will pray when circumstances are threatening and they can do nothing to help themselves (Gen. 4:1-13, 20:17; 1 Kings 18:26; John 14:6; Acts 4:12, 16:13; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Tim. 2:5). (See All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Hypocritical-Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

147 - Exalt-Jesus Prayer (Phil. 2:11, 12)

Because the Father has raised Jesus from the dead and exalted Him above all principalities and power, we should exalt Jesus in our prayers and actions. We must magnify Jesus now daily in prayer because we will do it in eternity when we join every redeemed human and the angels in exalting Him (Phil. 2:11, 12). (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Worship Prayer, Worship-Jesus Prayer).

148 - Expedient-Prayer (Est. 4:16)

An expedient-prayer is when we ask God to do something about a crisis that we've caused. When we pray to do the right thing, even though we don't feel like praying; we must do the expedient thing and pray. (See Problem-Solving Prayer and various Victory prayers).

149 - Ezra's Prayer and Fast for Guidance (Ezra 8:23)

The Ezra fast is a spiritual discipline that accompanies prayer when we ask God to solve a problem that faces us. After the 70 years of Babylonian captivity were over, Ezra attempted to lead a group of priests back to the Promised Land with expensive treasures to rebuild the temple. Ezra was afraid of being attacked and robbed on his way back home, "So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He answered our prayer" (Ezra 8:23). "The silver and the gold and the articles were weighed in the house of our God…with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time" (8:33, 34). (See Guidance-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

150 - Face-Down Worship Prayer (Rev. 11:16)

In complete surrender of our outer and inner person we worship God as we fall on our faces before Him. Worship is giving God the worth-ship that is due to Him (Exod. 3:6; 1 Kings 19:13, Job 42:5-6; Rev. 4:4, 10; 5:8, 14; 7:11, 11:16, 19:4). (See Crown-Casting Prayer, Posture in Prayer, Worship-Praise, Worship-Prayer).

151 - Faith-Based Praying (Gal. 3:10)

Faith-based praying is coming to the Father because our faith makes us His family members. We don't come based on our keeping the law, because we can never perfectly keep the law; but "the just shall live by faith" (Gal. 3:11). We live and pray by faith (Gal. 3:11; Hab. 2:4; Rom. 1:17; Heb. 10:38). (See Believing-Prayer, Convergence Faith-Praying, Faith-Praying).

152 - Faith-Blessing Prayer (Heb. 11:6)

This is trusting God to give blessings to someone for whom you pray. We experience the inner confidence of knowing God will answer (see Matt. 17:20; Heb. 11:6, 20). (See Faith-Praying and various Blessing prayers).

153 - Faith-Eyes Praying (Matt. 21:21)

Because of God's love and power, He allows us to see through a tiny crack of reality, so that we see with God's eyes. Life is more than money, position, and getting ahead. Faith-eyes see God transforming us, helping us, supporting us, and using us. Faith-eyes see in the mirror where we are "transformed into the same image from glory to glory" (2 Cor. 3:18), and faith-eyes see us in heaven casting our crowns at His feet in ultimate worship (Rom. 8:28, 29; 12:2, 13:14; Gal. 6:15; Eph. 4:22; Col. 3:10; 2 Peter 1:5-9). (See Faith-Based Prayer, Faith-Blessing Prayer, Faith-Praying).

154 - Faithfulness-Praying (1 Thess. 5:24)

We remain effective when we continue in prayer because the Lord works in us to motivate us to pray or continue praying. Jesus, our High Priest (Heb. 7:24-25), presents our prayers to the Father, and the Holy Spirit, our Intercessor (Rom. 8:26, 27) prays through us and presents our petitions to the Father for us (Zech. 12:10; Rom. 8:26, 27; 1 Cor. 14:15; Eph. 6:18; 1 Thess. 5:24; Heb. 7:24, 25; Jude 20). (See Alert-Prayer, All-Time Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

155 - Faithful-Request Prayer (Heb. 3:2)

This is a prayer to be faithful to God in spite of our old nature that pulls us away from God and outward temptations to make us stumble. We should be faithful because of biblical examples and because of God's call to us (1 Thess. 3:24), and the indwelling strength of Christ. Therefore we ask God to help us remain faithful (Matt. 25:21; John 15:10, 17:4; 1 Cor. 4:2; 1 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 3:2). (All Types of Faith Prayer, Faith-Praying, Persistent Prayer).

156 - Faith-Praying (Heb. 11:6)

Faith-Praying is interceding with the assurance that we will receive the things for which we ask. Faith Praying is intercession based on God Himself, causing us to believe we will receive our request because we meet the requirements mentioned in the Bible. Often this confidence emerges as a result of faith. "But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him" (Heb. 11:6; James 5:17). (See Faith-Based Praying, Faith-Validated Prayer, Possibility-Praying).

157 - Faith-Relationship Praying (Gal. 3:7)

We can come boldly to the Father because of our new family relationship with Him through Jesus Christ. Just as we were saved by faith, now we pray by faith knowing He will hear and answer us (Rom. 8:14-17; Gal. 3:7; Eph. 3:6; Titus 3:7; Heb. 1:14, 6:17; James 2:5; 1 Peter 1:4). (See Assurance-Praying, Confident-Prayer, Faith-Praying, Surety-Praying).

158 - Faith-Validated Prayer (James 2:18)

We can ask God to open up doors of service and use us as we serve Him, because the quality of our service validates the quality of our faith. As we actively serve God, we pray for God to make our faith grow stronger (Matt. 7:17-20; Rom. 8:1; 2 Cor. 5:17; Eph. 2:8-10; Titus 2:7; James 2:18). (See Continuing Prayer, Confident-Praying, Faith-Praying, Persistent-Praying, Surety-Praying).

159 - False-Prayer (Matt. 7:21-23)

This is not a reference to born-again believers who have their prayers blocked for various reasons. False prayers are offered by nonbelievers who may be a member of a cult or a non-Christian religion. The Father will receive all who come through Christ (John 6:37) and reject those who reject Christ (1 Kings 18; John 6:37, 14:4; Acts 4:12). (See Everyman's-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Pretend-Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Unsaved-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

160 - Family-Heritage Prayer (Matt. 1:1-17)

We are the product of our parents, receiving from them their strengths and weaknesses, their assets and liabilities. We have several choices: (1) fight their influence; (2) learn and be like them (for evil or good); (3) reject their limitations and problems; (4) determine to do better; or (5) stand on their shoulders and reach much higher (Gen. 4:1-5, 12:2-3, 25:19-23; Exod. 2:1-3; Pss. 127:1-5; Phil. 3:4-6; 2 Tim. 1:5, 3:14-15). (See Aged-Prayer, Blessing Children-Prayer, Children of Promise-Prayer, Father's Cry-Prayer, Spouse-Inspired Prayer).

161 - Fasting-Prayer (Matt. 6:16-19)

Fasting alone will not get answers from God. We must fast and pray. Jesus said, "This kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting" (Matt. 17:21). There is more than one way to fast: (1) normal fast of water or juice but no solid foods; (2) the Absolute fast, no liquids or food; (3) the partial or Daniel fast, usually vegetables only; and (4) the supernatural fast, no water or food for 40 days, for example Moses (Exod. 34:28). However if a person doesn't drink for 7 days, they will normally die. If you think you're being led to do this fast, "Test the spirits" (1 John 4:1); you're probably wrong (Lev. 16:29; Isa. 58:6-8; Joel 2:12-14; Matt. 17:21; Acts 13:2, 3). (See Esther Fast and Prayer, Daniel Fast and Prayer, Disciple Fast and Prayer, Elijah Fast and Prayer, Ezra Fast and Prayer, John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer, Saint Paul Fast and Prayer, Samuel Fast and Prayer, Widow Fast and Prayer; also see the book Fasting for Spiritual Breakthrough, by Elmer Towns (Ventura, CA: Regal Books, 1996).

162 - Father-Cry Prayer (Gal. 4:5)

This is an expression of a new child of God when made a member of God's family. Now His children can call Him Father and he can intercede as a child to a loving Father. Because God is their Father, believers are entitled to all the blessings of being His child (Gal. 4:5, 3:26; John 1:12; Rom. 3:23, 8:14-17, 9:4; Eph. 1:5). (See Fellowship with God Praying, Intimacy-Prayer).

163 - Fear of God-Praying (Heb. 5:7)

We know God is all-powerful to accomplish His will and that He will judge those who rebel or sin against Him. Therefore we pray with fear, "Your will be done in our lives," knowing God will hear and accomplish that prayer (Prov. 3:5-6; Matt. 26:39, 42; John 12:27-28; Heb. 5:7). (See Desperate Praying, Fear Praying, Frightful Praying, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

164 - Fear-Motivated Prayer (Pss. 56:3)

We can ask for God's protection and for His presence to be with us when we are scared or fearful. (See Fear of God-Praying, Fear-Praying, Frightful-Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

165 - Fear-Praying (Rev. 14:7)

We come to God because of our negative feelings of (1) fear, because God could condemn us to hell; (2) reverential fear, because God is our King and the Ruler of all things; and

(3) awe, because we are overwhelmed by the greatness of His creative power and universe (Gen. 22:12; Pss. 36:1, 89:7; Eccl. 12:13-14; Rev. 14:7). (See Anxious Praying, Desperate Praying, Fear Praying, Frightful Praying).

166 - Fellowship-Praying (1 John 1:3)

This is talking with God as you walk in the light (1 John 1:7) and fellowshiping with God because all your sins are forgiven (1 John 1:8-10). This is the highest form of relationship prayer (Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 1:9; Eph. 3:9; Phil. 1:5, 3:10; 1 John 1:3, 6-7). (See Communion Prayer, Intimacy-Prayer, Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Oneness Prayer).

167 - Filling of the Spirit-Prayer (Eph. 5:18)

When we yield everything to God and ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit, He comes into our lives and controls our lives. The more we yield to the Holy Spirit, the more He controls. The filling of the Spirit is not getting more of God, but allowing God to get more of us (Eph. 5:18). (See Holy Spirit Praying, Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Spiritual-Strength Prayer).

168 - First Prayer Each Day (Luke 11:1-2)

Years ago I began praying the Lord's Prayer when I first awakened and before I got out of bed. That's because the Lord's Prayer contains in seed truths all we need to pray. So I pray this prayer first thing every day. "Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray...'" (Luke 11:1). So He said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven...'" (Luke 11:1-2). (See Daily-Prayer, Lord's-Prayer, Morning Prayer).

169 - Fleece-Prayer (Judg. 6:36-40)

Fleece-Prayer is putting conditions on our requests to God so that He answers by telling us what to do or where to go, e.g., "Lord, if You give me a car, I'll know You want me to go...." The servant of Abraham put a condition on finding the right girl for Isaac to marry (Gen. 24:12-14). Gideon prayed for a fleece of wool to be wet with dew overnight, and the floor dry. God answered. The next night Gideon prayed the opposite and God answered (Judg. 6:36-40). However today, many say a Christian should not use a symbolic fleece when praying because (1) we should find God's will in Scripture, not in circumstances; (2) using a fleece is going by sight, not faith (2 Cor. 5:7); and (3) many Christians say a fleece is like good luck or bad luck. A Christian should make a decision based on the Bible, not circumstances. (See Circumstantial Prayer, Conditional-Prayer Promise, Problem-Solving Prayer, Will of God-Prayer).

170 - Food-Provision Praise (Pss. 65:9-11)

God has created us with bodies that need food/fuel for energy to grow and work. Without the provision of sun, rain, and soil, our bodies wouldn't grow. So we must thank God for His provision of food for our health and strength. We must praise God for His plan for our physical life on earth (Gen. 1, 2:9; Pss. 65:9-11, 136:25; Prov. 6:8; Matt. 6:11; 1 Tim. 6:8). (See Meal Thanksgiving, Blessing-Prayer, Provision of Food Praise, Strength and Nourishment-Prayer).

171 - Fool-Defensive Prayer (Prov. 1:7)

The person called a fool is a cross between two types of contemporary people. First, the fool is dumb, which is like a person that is ignorant and does not know what to do, or how to do things, or why things are done right. Most dumb people can learn and become smart, but a fool probably won't learn. Second, the fool is selfish, wanting attention and physical comfort. He is selfish to the point of being obnoxious, but he is not willing to take the proper steps to properly get what he desperately wants in life. He is blind to his selfish addiction, and what keeps him from his life's goal. A fool may be a good person whom everyone likes, when in actuality people only tolerate him, or use him. They are fools because they fool themselves. We should pray to keep from being a fool, or being harmed by fools (Prov. 1:7, 10:14, 18; 12:16, 23; 13:19, 14:1, 8; 15:1-2, 17:16, 20:3, 26:4). (See Worker's-Prayer).

172 - Forgetting the Past-Prayer (Phil. 3:10-14)

In this prayer we ask God to erase from our memory any negative or sinful thought that would harm our present walk with Christ, not looking at any past accomplishments or successes as a substitute for our present walk with Christ. (See Elijah Fast and Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer, Future-Blessing Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

173 - Forgiveness-Prayer (2 Cor. 2:10)

Forgiveness is the foundation of Christianity. We should forgive others because Christ has forgiven us. If not, we can fall into a "root" of bitterness (Heb. 12:15) that ruins our character. We must not get revenge (e.g., "an eye for an eye") but forgive them, even as Christ forgave those who crucified Him. Otherwise, we destroy our own character with a spirit of revenge or we harbor a grudge. We don't forgive them for their sake, we do it for our sake (Matt. 6:15, 18:21-22; Mark 11:25; Rom. 12:8, 17-21; 2 Cor. 2:7-10; Col. 3:13). (See Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Propitiation-Intercession Prayer).

174 - Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer (Luke 11:4)

When we forgive our offender for his offence, it means God transforms our heart. We no longer harbor vengeance, retaliation, or bitterness. Obviously this doesn't relate to our salvation because "the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). But the basic rule of Christian growth is: give to get. We must scatter to gain, and we must die to live. So we must forgive to gain intimacy with God as a forgiven one. When we forgive, we no longer hide hatred in our heart, so we can now know God and draw near to Him (Gen. 50:17; Exod. 10:17; Josh 24:19; 1 Sam. 25:28; 2 Chron. 6:21; Matt. 6:12; Mark 11:25-26; 2 Cor. 2:10). (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Crucifixion-Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer, Transformation-Prayer).

175 - Forsaken-Prayer (Pss. 42:9)

When we've sinned or gotten out of the will of God, we feel forsaken or separated from God. God doesn't forsake us, He forsakes our sin and turns His back on our iniquities. The Prayer of the Forsaken includes repentance, confessing sin, asking for forgiveness and earnestly seeking God. We search for God in prayer when we think He is not hearing our petitions. (See Abandonment Prayer, Affliction-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer).

176 - Frailty-Confession Prayer (Pss. 90:12)

This is a prayer that recognizes that our life is tenuous and there is a delicate balance between living and dying (Deut. 32:29; Pss. 39:4; Eccl. 9:10; Eph. 5:16, 17). (See Honest-Prayer, True-Heart Praying).

177 - Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer (John 10:10)

Jesus has permitted us to enter salvation's door to have life more abundantly, but it doesn't come automatically. First, we must yield ourselves to God in prayer. Second, freedom comes from Christ as we learn about Him in Scripture (John 8:32). Third, we must be filled with the Holy Spirit (John 7:37-38) (Pss. 16:11, 23:6, 30:5, 126:5, 6; Isa. 12:3; John 15:11; 1 Peter 4:13). (See various Victory prayers).

178 - Frightful-Prayer (Mark 14:36)

If Jesus prayed to His heavenly Father when facing danger, why should we do otherwise? We must go to the Lord when we are scared. He can heal, protect, guide, and save us. He can give us safety and provision and He can make us laugh (Gen. 17:17). "As a father pities bis children, so the LORD pities those who fear Him" (Pss. 103:13). (Num. 11:12; Deut. 8:5; Pss. 103:13; Prov. 3:12; Isa. 63:15, 16; Matt. 6:9; Heb. 12:5, 11). (See Abandonment Prayer, Affliction-Prayer, Fear Praying, Forsaken-Prayer).

179 - Fruitful-Prayer (Matt. 13:8)

Jesus told the parable of the sower who planted seed on good soil that produced fruit. When we pray to be fruitful, notice the following conditions: (1) it takes human effort of planting; (2) we must work smart in the right place with the right tools; (3) we must use the right seeds; (4) we must have the right motivation; and (5) we must be filled with the Holy Spirit (Luke 8:15; John 15:8; Rom. 7:18; Gal. 5:22-23; Phil. 1:11). (See Fruit-Producing Prayer, Reward-Prayer).

180 - Fruit-Producing Prayer (Gal. 5:22-23)

This is asking God to produce more Christian character in our lives, and more fruit in our Christian service (Phil. 1:11). (See Fruitful-Prayer, Reward-Prayer, Supernatural-Results Prayer).

181 - Future-Blessing Prayer (Heb. 11:21)

Just as Jacob blessed his children, knowing God could use them after he died, so we must by faith bless our children, trusting God to give His blessings after we are gone (Gen. 48:5, 22; 47:31, 50:24-25; Josh. 24:32; Heb. 11:21). (See Blessing a Person Prayer, Blessing Prayer, Delayed Answer-Prayer, Family-Heritage Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return).

182 - Geographical-Praying (Matt. 6:6)

There are some places where we seem to pray best, perhaps because we are in the habit of going there, or we are comfortable there, or it is the most convenient for our schedule. Perhaps the greatest reason is because we've met God at this place, or is where we've received great answers to prayer in the past. Jesus describes going to a "prayer closet" or "inner room" (modern translation). This place is usually private, quiet, and where we'll not be distracted (Pss. 87:1-3; Matt. 6:6; Luke 22:39). (See Comfortable Place to Pray, Geographical-Renewal Praying, Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Prayer-Journey Prayer, Prayer-Walking).

183 - Geographical-Renewal Praying (Pss. 121:1, 2)

Some locations have been imprinted on our hearts because of the spiritual lessons we experienced there. These may be places where we were (1) saved; (2) called to ministry; (3) got engaged; or (4) made a significant decision for Christ (Pss. 2:6, 68:15, 16; 78:68, 87:1; Jer. 3:23). (See Comfortable Place to Pray, Geographical-Praying, Prayer-Journey, Prayer-Walking).

184 - Gifts with Prayer (2 Cor. 9:7)

An unexpected gift makes the receiver happy and binds together the giver and receiver. Thus we pray for those receiving our gifts to look favorably on us. When giving presents, we should ask God to teach us how to bless people and be kind to them. (See various Blessing prayers).

185 - Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer (Rom. 12:1)

Recognizing that God has given us everything, we give ourselves back to Him. And with that dedication, we give the ownership of everything we have to God, realizing He allows us to use what belongings we have for His glory. (See Burden-Prayer, Commitment-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

186 - Goal-Striving Prayer (Phil. 3:10-14)

As we attempt to live daily for Jesus Christ, we should strive daily to know Him better, and to fulfill His plan in our life in a more perfect way (Phil. 3:10-14). (See Fruitful-Prayer, Race-Preparation Prayer, Running Reward-Prayer, Running a Good Race Prayer).

187 - God's Prosperity-Prayer (Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23)

God's prosperity on us follows our commitment to do right, and to seek His presence with us. Then God will prosper the task we do and the people for whom we work (Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23; Pss. 1:3, 47:7, 11; 91:15; Rom. 8:31). (See Fruit-Producing Prayer, Fruitful-Prayer, Reward-Prayer).

188 - God-Glorifying Prayer (Pss. 96:8)

When we give glory to God, we do not make Him greater, or more powerful, or more glorious. God cannot change; so when we glorify God, we make Him greater in our perception. Perhaps this is what Paul meant when he explained, "But we all...are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory" (2 Cor. 3:18). And if we truly recognize God, we give Him the control of our life. That is what God wants and He is glorified in our sacrifice (Exod. 34:5, 9; Pss. 96:8, 108:3, 5; 111:9, 148:13-14; Rev. 15:4). (See various Worship prayers, also see various Praise prayers).

189 - God-Haters' Prayer (Pss. 2:2, 3)

The unsaved refuse to live for God and obey Him. They express their refusal in many negative ways, and ultimately will not believe in God nor follow His ways. They want to control their own lives for their own purposes (Pss. 2:2, 3; Matt. 2:16; Luke 13:31; Acts 12:1). (See Atheist-Prayer, Everyman's-Prayer, False-Prayer, Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, Unsaved-Prayer).

190 - God-Hunger Prayer (Matt. 5:6)

When we have spiritual hunger, we don't have to pray in a fancy way; all we have to do is call out for God to fill us when we are empty. Therefore having a genuine hunger for God is the beginning of prayer. Our genuine desire to know God is an actual prayer, and our words begin to fulfill our hunger for God. Genuine prayer is God-Hunger Prayer (Pss. 107:5, 9; 146:7; Prov. 6:30; Isa. 58:7; Luke 1:53; Phil. 4:12). (See Hunger-Prayer, Intimacy-Prayer, Searching for God in Prayer, Thirsty Prayer, Well-Digging Prayer,).

191 - God-Pleasing Prayer (Heb. 11:5)

We should attempt to please God in all we think, say, and do. The desire of our heart should be to obey God, and do the things that satisfy Him or delight Him (Rom. 8:8; 1 Cor. 1:27; 1 Thess. 2:4; Heb. 11:5, 13:16; 1 John 3:22). (See Jesus First-Prayer, God-Glo-rifying Prayer and various Worship prayers).

192 - God-Recognition Prayer (Eph. 3:20-21)

In praising God we recognize Him as the source of all honor and power. Our praise doesn't add to God's honor and power, for in His omnipotence God has all honor and power. But our praise makes us more Christ-like (Rom. 16:25, 27; Eph. 3:21; Phil. 4:20; 1 Tim. 6:16; Jude 25; Rev. 1:6, 4:11, 7:12). (See Jesus-First Prayer, God-Glorifying Prayer and see various Worship prayers).

193 - Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer (Pss. 92:15)

The servants of God should proclaim in prayer that He is good (in nature) and that He is good to His people (in actions) (Exod. 34:6-7; Deut. 30:5; Pss. 92:15; Mark 10:18). (See Blessing the Lord in Worship, God-Glorifying Prayer, and various Worship prayers).

194 - Good-Things Praying (Heb. 13:21)

This prayer means getting our hearts ready to receive the good things God promises. But this prayer also asks for good things, and then thanks God for them when they come (2 Cor. 9:8; Eph. 2:10; Phil. 1:11; 2 Thess. 2:17; 1 Tim. 5:10; Heb. 13:21; James 1:17). (See All Kinds of Faith Praying, Asking-Prayer, Believing-Prayer, Natural-Bless Prayer).

195 - Good-Works Praying (John 6:28, 29)

Good-Works Praying is asking God to help us be effective in Christian service. It is asking God to accomplish "good works" through us because we cannot do good works in ourselves to please God (Gen. 15:7; John 3:36; Rom. 3:28, 10:9, 10, 17; Heb. 11:6; James 2:17, 20; 1 John 3:23). (See Basic-Praying, Effective-Prayer, Faithful-Request Prayer, Natural-Bless Prayer).

196 - Government Leaders-Intercession (1 Tim. 2:1 ff.)

We should pray for our government leaders so we can lead a peaceful life, enjoy freedom to worship and share our faith with the unsaved (Pss. 20:1, 72:1; Rom. 13:1; 1 Peter 2:13; 1 Tim. 2:1, 2). (See Peaceful-Living Prayer).

197 - Gratitude for Martyred Saints-Prayer (Rev. 14:13)

Martyrs are those who faithfully follow the Lord right up to their death. Then they rest from their labor, and the influence of their lives continues (Matt. 25:21; 1 Cor. 15:58; 1 Thess. 4:16-18; 2 Thess. 1:6-7; Heb. 12:1; Rev. 14:13). (See Death-Facing Prayer Thanksgiving-Prayer).

198 - Gratitude-Prayer (Phil. 4:6)

Praying "with thanksgiving" means showing appreciation for the positive contribution to our lives by family, friends, and business associates. Also, it is offering praise to God for all the positive things He has done for us. (See Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, and various Thanksgiving and Praise prayers).

199 - Great Commission-Prayer (Luke 24:49)

In this prayer we ask God to use missionaries and evangelistic methods to help win people in all nations to Christ through the preaching of the gospel. We must pray, targeting un-reached tribes worldwide, so that the gospel can be carried to the ends of the earth. (See Evangelistic-Praying, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

200 - Greater-Prayer (2 Cor. 9:6)

Great prayers lead to great dreams or vision for what God can do, and great prayers lead to greater faith and trust in God to accomplish greater results. If we pray with great faith, we will probably make greater plans, recruit a greater work force to serve God, and make a greater investment of our time, talent, and treasures for God's glory (Pss. 126:5-6; Prov. 11:24, 22:9; Eccl. 11:1, 6; Isa. 55:1; Luke 6:36-38; Gal. 6:7-9; Heb. 6:10). (See Asking-Prayer, Dream-Motivated Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying, Triumphant-Prayer, Unlimited Prayer in Christ).

201 - Greater-Works Prayer (John 14:12)

Winning souls to Christ is a much greater work than the physical miracles Jesus did for people. Prayer can help us do these greater works by (1) praying for a burden to be a soul winner; (2) praying for specific people to get saved; and (3) praying for the filling of the Holy Spirit to be used by God (Prov. 11:30; Dan. 12:3; Matt. 28:19; John 4:7; Acts 8:30). (See Asking-Prayer, Fruitful-Prayer, Greater-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying, Triumphant-Prayer).

202 - Grief Prayer (Eph. 4:30)

We should rid ourselves of sin and evil thoughts so we don't grieve the Holy Spirit who wants us to live holy lives (Gen. 6:6; 1 Chron. 4:10; Eph. 4:30). (See Confronting Evil Praying, Deliverance-Prayer, Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Holy-Protection Prayer, Holy-Spirit Prayer, Self-Denying Prayer, Separation Prayer, Sin-Stopping Prayer).

203 - Growth in Christ-Prayer (Col. 2:8)

We grow in Christ when we vow to live as commanded in Scripture, and we ask God to give us power to do it. (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Growth Prayer).

204 - Growth-Prayer (Eph. 4:12-16)

This prayer is asking God to help us grow in character and spiritual abilities so we can serve Him acceptably (Prov. 11:30; Eph. 4:12-16; 1 Tim. 3:1; Titus 3:8). (See Discipline-Prayer, Growth in Christ-Prayer, Spiritual Growth-Prayer).

205 - Guard Your Heart-Prayer (Phil. 4:6-7)

We should ask God (1) to help guard our hearts from losing the peace of God that is promised to us as believers; and (2) to keep us from sin. (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, Protection-Prayer, Spiritual Protection Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer).

206 - Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer (2 Tim. 1:14)

We must use all our strength and wisdom to (1) defeat those who attack God's Word; (2) pray that God can use us to defend the truth; and (3) remove all barriers that hold back the influence of God's Word (2 Tim. 1:14, 3:14; Phil. 1:27; 1 Thess. 5:21; Titus 1:9; Heb. 3:6; Jude 3; Rev. 2:25, 3:3, 11). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Spiritual Protection-Prayer).

207 - Guidance-Prayer (Rom. 12: 1, 2)

Most believers who pray for guidance, ask God to do something miraculous. But as we pray for guidance, we should apply these principles God has given us to find His guidance in our life for normal decisions: (1) follow the general principles found in Scripture (we don't need to pray whether we should refrain from the negatives found in the Ten Commands, or do the positive commands found in the New Testament); (2) find guidance by talking with Christian counselors (Prov. 11:14); (3) apply the spiritual gifts God has given us to find His purpose for our life; (4) yield to God to find His will; (5) prayer may guide us into His will; (6) apply common sense, for God seldom goes against common sense; (7) find God's guidance by properly interpreting circumstances. Beyond all these principles, God may guide you by "internal leading" (Rom. 8:14). (See Dedication-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, Spirit-Helped Prayer, Will of God Prayer).

208 - Guilt-Motivation Prayer (Col. 3:12-13)

God has forgiven all sin of His children by the blood of Jesus Christ (1 John 1:7), but many Christians still feel guilty over their sins. They continually confess their sins (1 John 1:9), they constantly seek to be cleansed from sin and to be restored to fellowship with God. However, they must not be controlled by the guilt of their sins, they must walk as "forgiven sinners" (Gen. 50:15-17; Matt. 6:12, 14-15; 18:35; Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:12-13). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Deceitful-Heart Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, and various Victory prayers).

209 - Guilty-Blocking Prayer (1 John 3:21)

Sometimes we let our experiential guilt block our confidence to pray. So we must remember that we stand perfect before God in justification, and that our non-experiential legal guilt has been abolished by Jesus Christ. Then we can plead the blood of Christ and pray confidently (Job 22:26; Pss. 7:3-4, 101:2; 1 Cor. 4:4; 2 Cor. 1:12; 1 Tim. 2:8; Heb. 4:16; 10:22; 1 John 3:21). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Transformation-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

210 - Habit-Prayer (Acts 3:1)

The word "habit" comes from the same type of clothes worn by a Roman Catholic nun each day. Therefore a habit is something done automatically, without thought or choice. A good habit means we automatically pray in a certain way, at a certain time on a regular basis. Because prayer is good, some prayer habits are good when they cause us to do what is right. But a prayer habit can be bad when we do it with no thought, no emotions, and no meaning (1 Kings 18:26; Dan. 6:10; Matt. 6:7; Acts 3:1; James 4:3). (See Burden-Prayer, Definition of Prayer, First Prayer Each Day).

211 - Hallelujah-Praise Prayer (Rev. 19:1)

This is the response of our hearts when we begin worshiping God. This is a way of calling others to join with us in our joy of giving worship, thanksgiving, praise, and honor to God (Pss. 106:1, 111:1, 115:18, 146:1, 148:1, 149:1, 150:1; Rev. 19:1, 3). (See various Worship and Praise prayers).

212 - Happiness Inspired by Prayer (Matt. 5:3-8)

Happiness or fun by the world's standard is an elusive dream that is seldom realized. But true happiness is the fruit of biblical character and is found on the road to duty. Traditionally Matthew 5:3-13 is called "The Beatitudes," that is, the blessings a person receives who is totally dedicated to God. Many translate the word "blessed" as "happy," that is, "Happy are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth" (Matt. 5:5). (Gen. 1:22, 12:2, 3; 49:28;

Num. 6:23-27; Pss. 1:1-3, 32:2, 103:1; Matt. 14:14; Mark 10:16; Acts 20:35). (See Happy Prayer, Rejoicing in Prayer and various Bless prayers).

213 - Happy-Prayer (John 20:20)

We are emotional beings, so we should show the total range of our emotions to God when we pray, that is, from laughter to tears. If we don't show the depth of our emotions, then we're not honest in prayer. Let's not be so "outwardly religious" that we can't be ourselves when talking to God (Gen. 17:17; Pss. 126:2; Isa. 25:8, 9; Matt. 28:8; Luke 24:41; John 20:20; 1 John 1:3). (See Happiness-Inspired Prayer, Rejoicing in Prayer, Weeping Prayer).

214 - Healing-Prayer (James 5:15)

God has many different ways to heal us of our sicknesses. Sometimes God heals directly by His power because of prayer. Other times He heals through the use of medicine, surgery, exercise, drugs, or other forms of therapy. We can pray for God to heal directly or for God to use these means for healing. However, not everyone we pray for will be healed. Sometimes God has other purposes for sickness, but in all things we should glorify God. Healing begins when we meet the following conditions: (1) call for church elders to pray; (2) anoint with oil; (3) confess sins to get right with God; and (4) exercise believing faith (Matt. 17:20-21; Mark 11:22-26; 1 Cor. 12:28-30; James 5:15; 1 John 5:14-18). (See Asking-Prayer, The Daniel Fast, Sick Person's Prayer, Supernatural-Prayer).

215 - Heaven's-Prayer (1 Thess. 4:13, 14)

Because God will not forget any of His children in the rapture, we should thank God for all those who will go to be with Christ (John 11:24-25; 1 Cor. 15:12-19, 29; 1 Thess. 4:13, 14; Heb. 10:24-25). (See various Thanksgiving and Praise prayers).

216 - Heavy-Prayer (Matt. 11:28:30)

A heavy load is a word that stands for the various heavy trials, strains, or problems of life. A heavy load can be social, emotional, financial, spiritual, or physical. What is physically "heavy" to an older person may be considered "light" to a 20-year-old youth. In reverse, the young may be overwhelmed with a problem, but it is not heavy to the old because they have learned with experience to handle that problem. Jesus is saying that no matter what our heavy burden is, He will help us through it. (See Burden-Prayer, Help-Prayer, Protection-Prayer).

217 - Hedge-Protection Prayer (Job 1:10)

When we face temptations and trials, we should pray for God's protective "hedge" to keep us from falling into sin or physical danger. God answers our request for protection by putting a "hedge" around us to protect us. "Have You not made a hedge around him?" (Job

1:10). "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven" (Job 1:10, 3:22; Matt. 18:10, that is, guardian angel; 1 Cor. 10:13; Eph. 6:11, 12; Heb. 12:1, 2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:6, 7; 1 John 4:4). (See Deliverance Prayer, Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Protection Prayer, Triumphant Prayer and various Victory prayers).

218 - Help the Oppressed by Prayer (Pss. 10:8-9)

The servants of God will see evil in the world, and will pray against it. They will see the needy oppressed, and they will help them and pray for them. Those without compassion for the oppressed don't share the heart of God (Exod. 3:9; Lev. 25:14; Pss. 10:8-9, 17:9; Prov. 22:22). (See Evangelistic-Praying, Others-Prayer, Servanthood-Praying, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

219 - Help-Prayer (Pss. 108:12, 13)

When we face big or little problems, we can pray, and God will help us because (1) He has instructed us to call on Him; (2) He has a history of helping His people; (3) His nature of constant love and mercy shows He wants to help; and (4) He has designed a world in which He helps His people (Pss. 10:14, 12:1, 54:4, 108:12-13; Heb. 4:16, 13:6). (See Burden-Prayer, Heavy-Prayer).

220 - Heresy-Condemning Prayer (2 Peter 2:6)

This is a prayer for God to remove spiritual blindness and cause us to see true doctrine through the eyes of the Holy Spirit. This is also a prayer to keep us from false teaching (Deut. 13:1-3; Col. 2:8, 18; 2 Thess. 2:2, 3, 12; 1 Tim. 4:1-3; 2 Tim. 3:1-9; Titus 1:11; 2 Peter 2:6; 1 John 2:18; Jude 18; Rev. 2:9). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Disentanglement-Prayer).

221 - Hidden Answers-Prayer (Rom. 11:33-36)

God is El Olam, the Everlasting God. Olam means secret or hidden, so God who knows all things keeps some things hidden from us for our good. Olam also means the unknown mystery of successive ages, that is, God is everlasting. Some answers are hidden from us and our prayers (Gen. 21:33; 2 Kings 4:27; Pss. 10:1, 90:2; Matt. 13:11; Eph. 1:9-11; 3:2-6). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Insight Prayer, Wait-Prayer).

222 - Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer).

223 - Holiness-Prayer (1 Peter 1:16)

Since holiness is commanded of all believers, we should pray: (1) for a desire to be separate from sin; (2) for wisdom to recognize and separate ourselves from sin; (3) for strength to overcome temptation and sin; and (4) for our life to be well pleasing to God (Lev. 11:44; Matt.

5:20; 1 Peter 1:16). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Crucifixion-Prayer, Self-Denying-Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer, Purity-Praying, Separation-Prayer).

224 - Holy Spirit-Praying (Jude 20)

When we are filled with the Holy Spirit to pray effectively, we enter the Holy Spirit as He enters us, then we present our requests to the Father. When we yield to the Holy Spirit in prayer, we pray with more confidence, more joy, and more assurance. When we pray in the Spirit, we pour out our feelings to God through the words that the Holy Spirit gives us. When we pray in the Spirit, our minds don't drift into fuzzy ideas or become cluttered with a moist fog so that we can't think straight. When the Holy Spirit fills us, He will use the Scriptures we already know to give us more insight into the mind of God. When we pray in the Spirit, our human spirit and the divine Holy Spirit work together as one. Praying in the Spirit means having a relationship with God by remembering that the Holy Spirit dwells within us when we completely yield ourselves to God. "But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit" (Jude 1:20) (Zech. 4:6, 12:10; John 7:37-39; Rom. 8:14-16, 26-27; 1 Cor. 14:15; Gal. 4:6; Eph. 6:18; 1 Thess. 4:8; Jude 20). (See Filling of the Spirit Prayer, Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Spiritual Strength Prayer).

225 - Honest-Prayer (Pss. 17:4-5)

Honest praying is coming to God sincerely and without anything hidden from Him. It doesn't mean we are sinless, but we can be blameless before God. We can pray honestly from an honest heart (Pss. 17:4-5; Acts 6:3; Rom. 12:17, 13:13; 2 Cor. 8:21; Phil. 4:8; 1 Thess. 4:12; Heb. 13:18; 1 Peter 2:12). (See Frailty-Confession Praying, Integrity-Praying, True Heart Praying).

226 - Hope-Inspired Prayer (Titus 1:2)

Hope is one of the motivating forces for all we are and do. Hope motivates us to daily gratitude and service. Hope takes away discouragement and defeat. Hope is our basis for daily victory and the basis for looking beyond the grave to life with Christ after death (John 5:39; Rom. 5:2-4; Col. 1:27; 1 Thess. 5:8; Titus 1:2, 2:13, 3:7; 1 Peter 1:3, 4; Jude 21). (See Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Confident-Praying, Wait-Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

227 - Hope-Rejoicing Prayer (Heb. 6:19)

Hope gives us assurance that we will go to heaven when we die. Why? Because God cannot lie (6:18) and He promised us eternal life. Also, we have Christ living in our hearts, and since Christ is already in heaven, He guarantees that we will be there with Him when we die (Eph. 4:4; Phil. 1:20; Col. 1:23, 27; 1 Thess. 1:3; Heb. 6:19, 12:1-2). (See Assurance-Prayer, Confident-Praying, Rejoicing for Others-Prayer).

228 - Humility-Prayer (James 4:10)

The ego dies hard because it wants attention. The self also avoids crucifixion because it wants to be in first place. But God's way up is to go down. God's way to win is to surrender. God's way of humility is to go to the end of the line, that is, Jesus first, others second, self last. When we yield ourselves and our selfish ambitions to God, then we can say with Paul, "Not I, but Christ" (Gal. 2:20). We then ask God to reveal the hidden selfish desires in our prayers. The prayer to be humble is by crucifying self, and letting Christ sit on the throne of our heart to direct us in all we do (Pss. 35:13; Prov. 15:33; Matt. 11:11; Luke 14:11, 18:14; Eph. 4:1-3; Phil. 2:3; James 4:10; 1 Peter 5:6). (See Christ-Indwelling Prayer, Self-Denying Prayer, Self-Discipline-Prayer).

229 - Hunger-Prayer (Pss. 34:8)

As we pray, we should eagerly seek to enjoy God's presence, feeding on the things of God. "Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good" (Pss. 34:8). (See God-Hunger Prayer, Thirst-Prayer, Searching for God Prayer, Well-Digging Prayer, Yearning-Prayer).

230 - Hymn-Prayer (Col. 3:16)

We can use the words of a song or hymn to express our prayer to God, or to actually sing our prayer to God. The Psalms are our example because Israel literally sang the psalms to God (Col. 3:16). (See Singing Prayer and various Thanksgiving and Worship prayers).

231 - Hypocritical-Prayer (Matt. 6:5)

Hypocrite is from the Latin hypocrisis, which was used to describe a person who gave a false appearance. When we pray for selfish things to make ourselves happy, or in order to glamorize ourselves, we engage in hypocritical prayer. The problem is self! We are motivated by our pride or self-satisfaction. In hypocritical prayer we want people to think that we are spiritual. We "ask amiss" (James 4:2, 3). We tend to hide our pride behind a cloak of religiosity and seek the wrong reward for praying. Jesus did not say that praying in public is wrong (Matt. 6:5). He was saying that praying to be seen by the public is wrong. (See Everyman's-Prayer, False-Prayer, Pretend-Prayer and various "No" Answer to Prayer prayers).

232 - Identificational Repentance-Prayer (Neh. 1:6)

This deals with the un-repented transgressions of others in the past. We identify with a past sin of other people and repent of that sin, and ask God to hold back the punishment that it deserves. It is not praying for the forgiveness of a past sin only; it is asking God to take away the consequences of that sin. Identificational Repentance is motivated by the consequences of sin by others that influence our lives. We champion the rights of those who have been sinned against and ask for the spiritual release of the innocent. "I (Nehemiah) pray before You now...and confess the sins of the children of Israel that we have sinned against You. Both my fathers and I have sinned" (Neh. 1:6, ELT). (See Gen. 18:23-33; Exod. 32:30-33, 17; Neh. 1:6; Dan. 9:3-19). (See Abandonment-Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Others-Prayer, Redemption-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer).

233 - Impartial-Prayer (Gen. 25:22-34)

Impartial-praying means praying that you love all people equally, with partiality to none, but it also includes praying that you deal equally with everyone. (See All-Time Prayer, Others-Prayer, Outreach Prayer).

234 - Impatient-Judgmental Prayer (Rev. 6:10)

This is the request of Christian martyrs to judge those violent people who took their lives. It is a prayer made during the Tribulation (Gen. 4:10; Pss. 9:12, 13:1, 35:17, 74:9-10; 94:3-4; Dan. 8:13, 12:6). (See Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer).

235 - Imprecatory-Prayers (Pss. 109:8 ff.)

David and other Old Testament leaders asked God to punish evil men with the punishment they gave to the godly. This is a prayer for God to do to sinners what He has promised as the wages of sin. This is not a mean-spirited prayer of God's people for revenge; it is a prayer based on God's promise to judge sin (Pss. 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 17, 21, 44, 52, 54, 55, 58, 69, 74, 75, 79, 83, 109, 110, 129, 140). (See Judgmental-Prayer, Justice-Prayer).

236 - Inadequate Words-Prayer (1 Cor. 13:12)

Our words seem so adequate to us, because "we know in part" (1 Cor. 13:9), and we "spoke as a child" (1 Cor. 13:11). When we look at spiritual truth, "we see in a mirror, dimly" (1 Cor. 13:12) but it will be different when we pass through death into God's presence: "Then that which is in part will be done away" (1 Cor. 13:10). Our words of prayer are weak because our understanding is limited. Our prayers may seem like they represent grunts and broken sentences, but a God of mercy and love knows the desires of our heart when we don't even know how to use limited words (Exod. 33:11; Job 11:7, 8; Pss. 40:5; Matt. 5:8; Rom. 11:34; 2 Cor. 3:18 ff.; Eph. 3:8, 18-19; 1 Peter 1:10-12). (See Burden-Prayer, Definition of Prayer, Written-Prayer).

237 - Inadequate-Prayer (James 5:17-18)

Sometimes praying one time may not be enough to get an answer from God. It may be that we do not have enough faith to get an answer, so we need to pray repeatedly to build our faith to get an answer from God. "Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit" (James 5:17, 18). (See Unanswered-Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Unbiblical-Prayer, and various Faith prayers).

238 - Inappropriate Motives-Prayer (James 4:2-3)

Sometimes our requests may be right in context, but our motives are wrong. God in His sovereignty can overlook our wrongly motivated prayers to give us what He wants (Gen. 30:15, 22; James 4:2-3). (See Bible-Prayer, Growth-Prayer, Spiritual-Growth Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer).

239 - Indwelling-Strength Prayer (Eph. 3:16-17)

As we recognize Christ who dwells within us, He allows His strength and abilities to flow through us into our life so it can overcome trials and temptation. We yield to Christ to receive His strength in Christian service (Rom. 6:4-6; Gal. 2:20, 5:24, 6:14; Eph. 3:16; Col. 2:11-14). (See Christ-Indwelling Prayer, Growth-Prayer, Inner-Strength Prayer, Spiritual Discipline-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

240 - Injustice-Prayer (Isa. 1:17)

Our primary weapon against mass injustice in the world is prayer. Our prayers can purposefully intercede against evil, change the course of this world, and right the wrongs therein. When we truly believe that prayer makes a difference and we pray against the injustices of the world, we become the voice of the voiceless and the power of the powerless as we connect with the God of heaven as we intercede for those who need help. We do not pray against the evil people, but focus our prayers against the evil that causes the injustices in our world. (See Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Justice-Prayer, Others-Prayer).

241 - Inner-Assurance Praying (1 John 5:10)

Assurance we have from God comes from the fact that we are His children because we invited Jesus Christ into our hearts for salvation. This assurance is reinforced by Scripture (Pss. 25:14; Prov. 3:32; Rom. 8:14-17; Gal. 4:6; Col. 3:3; 1 John 5:10; Rev. 3:10). (See Assurance-Prayer, Confident-Praying, and various Faith prayers).

242 - Inner-Desires Prayer (Eph. 4:22 ff.)

We must be careful when we don't know what to do. We must not listen to our sinful nature because the sinful nature wants to do evil, which is the opposite of what the Holy Spirit wants (James 4:2-3). The Spirit gives us holy desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires (Gal. 5:17). These two forces are constantly fighting each other.

We must be grounded in Scripture because there we find the will of God for our lives. (See Hunger-Prayer, Thirst Prayer, Searching-Prayer, Yearning-Prayer).

243 - Inner-Strength Request Prayer (2 Tim. 2:1)

Prayer to be strong against our internal weaknesses and against external trials, temptations, and attacks on my faith (1 Cor. 16:13; 2 Cor. 12:9-10; Eph. 6:10; Phil. 4:13; 2 Tim. 2:1; James 1:6; 2 Peter 3:18). (See Self-Discipline-Prayer, Sin-Stopping Prayer, Spiritual-Growth Prayer, Spiritual-Growth Prayer).

244 - Insight-Prayer (2 Cor. 4:3-4)

When we ask God to remove our spiritual blindness (2 Cor. 4:3, 4) and teach us truth from His Word, He answers, giving us insight we haven't had in the past (Pss. 119:105). (See Blind-Prayer, Spiritual-Insight Prayer).

245 - Insincere-Prayer (Matt. 12:38-39)

When a person's heart has rejected God for any reason, then that person is guilty of hypocritical prayers, or deceitful prayers. Their motives are not pure, so God may not answer their prayers (Matt. 13:38-43; Mark 8:32; John 8:44; Acts 13:10; 1 John 3:8, 10, 12). (See Deceitful-Heart Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, Pretend-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

246 - Integrity-Praying (Pss. 101:2)

When we realize God knows the intent of our heart and everything we do, we will be careful to live an honest life. When we realize God exposes lies and untruths, and He judges dishonesty, we will quickly conform our lips and life to truth. (See Honesty-Praying, Surety-Praying, Yielding-Prayer).

$247 - Intention-Praying (Rom.\,15:24,25)$

This is asking God to guide our intentions to their completion, while at the same time realizing some of our human intentions never materialize. When that happens, we must yield ourselves to God and accept the conditions where we find ourselves (Prov. 19:21; Acts 18:21; Rom. 1:10, 15:24; 1 Cor. 4:19, 16:7; Heb. 6:3). (See Blind Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

248 - Intercessor's-Prayer (Rom. 8:34)

Our prayer of intercession is based on Christ's intercession for us. We intercede successfully because in death Jesus took our sins to God for forgiveness and cleansing. Now we come to Jesus who is at the right hand of the Father and makes our prayers through Him. We have no access to the Father except through Jesus, the Intercessor (Job 9:33; Rom.

8:34; 1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 7:24-26, 9:15, 12:24; 1 John 2:1). (See Advocate-Intercession, and various Jesus prayers).

249 - Intercessory Prayer for Jews (Rom. 10:1)

This is praying for the salvation of individual Jews, and for the political and spiritual salvation of the nation of Israel. Paul expressed this prayer, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved" (Rom. 10:1). This prayer also includes "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem" (Pss. 122:6). Those who pray this prayer are encouraged by the promise, "so all Israel will be saved" (Rom. 11:26). (See All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Mountain-Moving-Prayer, Possibility-Praying).

250 - Intercessory Prayer for Nations (Matt. 28:19)

We must ask God to send missionaries and/or revival to the various nations of the world so that the gospel is preached, churches are planted, and multitudes are won to Christ. Technically the word "nation" is *ethn*ē which represents the various ethnic groups of people in the world. (See Evangelistic-Praying, Great Commission-Prayer, Soul-Winner's Prayer).

251 - Interchange with God (Gen. 18:23-33)

This is when you and God talk back and forth about a request. This may involve your realization that satan is fighting against you, and your flesh is weak. You are talking to God about an issue as was illustrated by God and Abraham's interchange (Gen. 18:23-33). (See Communion-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying, Intimacy-Prayer).

252 - Intermittent-Prayer (1 Thess. 5:17)

Praying unceasingly (1 Thess. 5:17) means we pray always (Luke 18:1), pray constantly (Rom. 12:12), pray at all times (Eph. 6:18), continue steadfast in prayer (Col. 4:2), and in everything by prayer (Phil. 4:6). This is praying with the intensity that matches an immediate need, or praying when a need arises. This means (1) unceasingly; (2) continually; (3) giving quick breaths of prayer; or (4) practicing the presence of God (Gen. 32:9 ff.; Job 27:6; Pss. 55:16-17, 65:2, 102:17; Jer. 29:12; Matt. 26:40, 41; Luke 18:1, 21:36; Rom. 12:12; Eph. 6:18; Col. 4:2; 1 Thess. 5:12; 1 Peter 4:7). (See All-Time Prayer, Continual Prayer, Continual Prayer, Persistent Praying, Prevailing-Prayer).

253 - Interventional-Prayer (Matt. 17:20)

This verse refers to times when we want God to remove a serious barrier to His work or provide a miraculous supply of resources (Matt. 21:21; Mark 11:22-24). (See Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Prayer, Supernatural Results-Prayer).

254 - Intimacy-Prayer (Luke 11:2)

Praying means enjoying intimate fellowship with God. Jesus instituted a childlike intimacy with God when He taught us to call God "Our Father." Prayer is like a little child talking to his or her father. When we are in an intimate relationship with the Father, we can simply pray with our feelings. This is more a matter of being in God's presence than it is about striving for answers to our intercession. When children obey their parents' wishes, they value their relationship with Him. Intimacy with God is based on obedience and faith: "He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him" (Heb. 11:6). (See Communion-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying, Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Silent Prayer).

255 - Introspective-Prayer (Pss. 139:23-24)

Instead of reaching upward to God, some turn inward. They complain, gripe, or mostly blame themselves. As a result, they end up feeling even more hopeless, discouraged, and depressed than before. Introspective prayer is usually rooted in fear, doubts, or alienation from God. Sometimes a knowable sin blocks our relationship with God. Sometimes it's not a sin but a wrong decision and we are suffering its consequences. Sometimes it's because we have become inattentive to God. We can gain self-knowledge through introspection that becomes the foundation for our spiritual journey. However, if introspective prayer is the only way we pray most of the time, we'll soon end up in trouble. The prayer of introspection should bring us to the place of cleansing and restored fellowship with God. Forgiveness gives us a new beginning and allows us to start over again. (See Abandon-ment-Prayer, Forsaken-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer, Suffering-Prayer).

256 - Jesus First-Prayer (Phil. 1:21)

When we put Jesus first in our lives and yield all to Him in prayer, He reinforces our commitment with His "special" blessing. Our blessing may be intimacy with Him (Gen. 26:24, 25; Matt. 6:33; Luke 9:23; Gal. 2:20; Phil. 1:21). (See various Jesus prayers).

257 - Jesus' Example-Prayer (John 17:1)

Because Jesus constantly prayed to the Father, we should give ourselves to prayer and intercession to follow His example. (See various Jesus prayers).

258 - Jesus' Name-Praying (John 14:13)

We are told to pray in Jesus' name (John 14:13), but His name is more than a magical mantra to open heaven's door. To pray in Jesus' name is to approach the Father (1) in the perfection of Jesus; (2) because we are cleansed by the blood of Jesus; (3) because Jesus is our High Priest who intercedes for us; and (4) because the Father accepts us as He accepted Jesus (Matt. 1:23, 16:16; John 6:37, 8:12, 10:9, 10; 11:25, 14:6, 15:1; Phil. 2:10, 11; Rev. 19:13, 16). (See All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Asking Prayer, Believing-Prayer, Intercessor's-Prayer).

259 - Jesus' Response-Prayer (Rev. 1:10)

In the first chapter of Revelation we see the greatness of Jesus in His many names, titles, metaphors, and descriptions. We can do no less than John when the almighty nature of Jesus is revealed to us—we must bow at His feet and worship Him (Dan. 8:18, 10:8-9; Matt. 17:2-6; John 13:23, 21:20; Rev. 1:10). (See Jesus-Worship, Worship-Praise, Worship-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

260 - Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer (Heb. 2:9-10, 18)

Jesus suffered the punishment of sin so that we will not suffer in hell for eternity. We should respond in gratitude to God for His plan to save all those who believe in Jesus (Luke 22:15; Acts 3:18, 26:23; Heb. 2:9-10, 18). (See Crucifixion-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

261 - Jesus'-Example Prayer (1 Peter 2:21)

We should apply to our life the principle of living by the motto, What Would Jesus Do, especially when we face difficulties or situations where we don't know what to do. Jesus is our example and we can pray to live the way Jesus lived (John 13:15; 1 Cor. 11:1; Eph. 5:2; Phil. 2:5; 1 Peter 2:21; 1 John 2:5, 3:16; Rev. 12:11). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Spiritual-Victory Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

262 - Jesus Agreement-Prayer (Heb. 7:24-25)

We can agree with Jesus for a prayer request, knowing that He is interceding for us in heaven. We thus become a partner with Jesus in His intercessory ministry in heaven. We tell Jesus of our need, and He presents our needs to the Father and He also becomes mighty in deliverance! Because of Jesus' humanity, He understands our needs and prays with us (See Heb. 7:24, 25). (See Intercessor's Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

$263\operatorname{-Jesus-Prayer}\left(Luke\ 18{:}13\right)$

The Jesus-Prayer probably had its origin when Jesus commended the tax collector's prayer, "O God, have mercy on me, I am a sinner." It has been prayed extensively in the Eastern Orthodox church since the sixth century. It is, "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me" (Pss. 25:7, 41:4, 51:1-5; Jer. 31:18-19; Dan. 9:5-19; 2 Cor. 7:11; Heb. 4:16; 1 Tim. 1:15). (See Forgiveness-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

264 - Jesus-Worship Prayer (Heb. 1:6)

This prayer exalts Jesus because He is the sovereign Son of God, and because of all He has done for my salvation. We join the angels in worshiping the Lord (Pss. 2:7-12, 110:1-4; Matt. 2:11, 8:2, 14:33, 15:25, 18:26, 28:9, 17; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1:6). (See Worship-Jesus Prayer, Worship-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

265 - John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer (Isa. 58:8)

This fast is a spiritual discipline when we pray and fast to expand and increase the effectiveness of our testimony for Jesus Christ. This is a fast when "your righteousness shall go before you" (Isa. 58:8). We should be free of alcohol, cigarettes, drugs, and any influence that destroys our testimony because we want Christ to be magnified in our body (see Phil. 1:20, 21). We should be sexually pure for our life partner, because we want our body to be the temple of the Holy Spirit (see 1 Cor. 6:19). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Testimony-Prayer).

266 - Joy-Prayer (Acts 13:52)

As we pray, we can be filled with spiritual happiness (Acts 13:5). (See Happiness-Inspired Prayer, Happy Prayer).

267 - Judgment Prayer (Rev. 17:5)

The Bible teaches that Jesus will ultimately destroy antichrist's kingdom when he tries to rule the world in the Tribulation. Therefore, we can pray confidently knowing Jesus will ultimately destroy antichrist and rule the world (Gen. 11:1-9; 2 Chron. 36:10-21; 2 Thess. 2:7; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; Rev. 14:8, 17:5, 18:2-10). (See Warfare-Protection Prayer and various Victory prayers).

268 - Judgmental - Praying (Acts 5:4,9)

This is praying for God to judge those who hinder the work of God, or those whose sin harms His work. There are only a few illustrations of judgmental praying by an individual in Scripture against an enemy. However, there are a few more cases where God initiates judgment against those who harm His work. But in most cases there is not an accompanying judgmental prayer. Most prayers against an enemy of God are prayers to bless him and the command to do good to them (Luke 6:27-38). Be careful when you pray judgment on an enemy that you are not reacting to your irritation or negative feelings (1 Kings 22:24 ff.; Lam. 3:30; Matt. 5:39; Luke 6:27-38; Acts 5:4, 9; 1 Peter 4:12-19). (See Imprecatory-Prayers, Justice-Prayer).

269 - Justice-Prayer (Pss. 7:17)

This prayer asks God to judge our enemies because they intentionally do evil and they know it. It is a prayer against evil (Gen. 18:25; Pss. 7:17, 24:15, 140:12-13; Eccl. 3:17; Isa. 2:4; John 5:30; Rom. 2:16; Rev. 19:11). (See Imprecatory-Prayers, Judgmental-Prayer).

270 - Justification-Based Prayer (Rom. 8:28-31)

We are perfect in Christ Jesus and have been given His righteousness when we were justified by faith. Therefore we can pray with confidence and bold faith because nothing stands between the Father and us (Job 9:2, 25:4; Acts 13:38-39; Rom. 3:27, 4:2; Gal. 2:16, 3:6; Phil. 3:9). (See Child-Like Praying, Confident-Praying, Trusting-Prayer).

271 - Knowing Christ-Prayer (Phil. 3:10)

The passion of Paul's prayer was to know Christ more intimately, "That I may know Him" (Phil. 3:10). We too should pray to know Him more intimately (Phil. 1:21, 3:8, 10; 4:13). (See Christ-Indwelling Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

272 - Knowing-God Prayer (2 Peter 1:3)

We should desire to know God more intimately so that we may become more God-like in our daily life and reflect Him to those around us. Knowing God begins with a one-time event of our conversion, and becomes a life-time process of becoming godly. Therefore we should pray continually to know God more intimately (Pss. 9:10; Jer. 31:34; Matt. 11:27; John 17:3; 2 Cor. 4:6; Gal. 4:9; Eph. 1:17; Phil. 3:10; 2 Peter 2:20; 1 John 5:20). (See Christ-Indwelling Prayer, Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Indwelling-Strength Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

273 - Large-Praying (Acts 4:23-31)

When the church faces a larger request than ever before, they must enlarge the focus and purpose of their praying. They must recognize the greatness of God and His ability to do large things for them (Pss. 147; Isa. 51:12-13; Acts 4:23-31, 14:15-17, 17:24-31). (See Interventional Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying).

274 - Last-Days Prayer (2 Tim. 3:1)

This is a special prayer to keep us pure from sin and doctrinal compromise in the last days. It is a prayer for wisdom, boldness, and protection when we can't protect ourselves (Dan. 7:8, 20-25; 8:11-14, 11:36, 12:1, 7; 2 Thess. 2:3, 12; 1 Tim. 4:1-3; 2 Tim. 3:1; Rev. 8:1 ff.). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance Prayer, Disentanglement-Prayer, Doctrinal-Prayer, Protection Prayer, Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer).

275 - Laziness-Corrective Prayer (Prov. 13:4)

A lazy person will do or say anything to get out of work. Laziness is not a case of being tired, or physically unable; the lazy person usually lacks ambition, has no focus in life, nor does he have the self-discipline necessary to meet the challenges of the day. Why is laziness rejected? It's not just because they live off others; the lazy person usually harms everyone around him. That's because a lazy person refuses to help himself or his neighbor (Matt. 19:19). God has commanded that all men work to provide for their family, others, and themselves (Prov. 24:33-34) (Prov. 10:26, 13:4, 25; 15:19, 16:26, 24:30-34, 26:13, 28:15). (See Discipline Prayer, Servanthood-Prayer, Worker's-Prayer).

276 - Leave the Cemetery-Prayer (Gen. 23:1-2)

We can't spend the rest of our life at a cemetery mourning for a dead loved one. Life goes on, as must we. We must leave the cemetery and go face the life God has for us. (See Discipline Prayer, Mourning the Dead-Prayer).

277 - Legalistic-Warning Prayer (Phil. 3:1-3)

Because we can never become righteous by keeping the law, we should realize Christ has sanctified us; for we will only become righteous when we have the righteousness of Jesus Christ (Phil. 3:1-3). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Justification-Based Prayer).

278 - Life's Plan-Prayer (Rom. 12:1)

We receive strength when we know God's plan for our life and we commit ourselves to doing God's personal will for our lives. We pray for a full life of usefulness each year until we die. Then we pray that our children may live up to or beyond our achievements after we've gone (Gen. 25:1-11, 28:12-15; Rom. 12:1). (See Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Life-Defining Prayer).

279 - Life-Defining Prayer (Rom. 12:1,2)

We find our life's purpose when we submit to God's perfect will for our life and pray for its fulfillment. First, we submit to God's plan, and second, we pray to know it more perfectly. Third, we ask for strength to do it, and fourth we commit our self to learning and growing so we can do God's perfect will. Finally, we pray for strength, faith, and ability to do God's perfect will in our life (Rom. 12:1, 2). (See Life's Plan Blessing, Yielding-Prayer).

280 - Life-Derailing Prayer (James 4:17)

We derail our life when we ask God for something that would divert us from doing His perfect will for our life. We don't have to sin deeply to derail our life, nor do we have to rebel against God's will. To do the lesser when the greater is possible constitutes the greatest tragedy in life. We derail our life by doing something "good" that is not the center of God's will for our life. (See Crucifixion Prayer, Repentance-Prayer, Sin-Stopping Intercession, Sin-Realization Prayer).

281 - Life-Receiving Prayer (John 10:10)

Jesus promised, "I have come that they may have life" (John 10:10). There are two kinds of life, that is, bios, physical life, and zoë, spiritual life (John 3:1-7). All must die and if we do not have the spiritual life of God, we will experience the second death, thanatos, which is separation from God, and punishment forever in the lake of fire. We receive eternal life when we receive Christ, for Christ is life (John 14:6; Rev. 20:10-15) (Pss. 1:1-3, 16:11; John 1:12, 3:16-18, 10:10, 14:20; Rom. 8:21, 22; Col. 3:3; 1 John 5:11-13). (See Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Christ-Indwelling Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

282 - Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer (2 Cor. 4:3-4)

The unsaved are blinded by their sin and satan so they can't understand the spiritual nature of God's Word or God's plan of salvation. Just as God must do a miracle for a physically blind man to see, so God must do a miracle for a spiritually blind person to understand the spiritual world. As we pray for unsaved people to be saved, we must also pray for them to see their sin and the Savior (1 Kings 22:22; Isa. 6:10; John 8:12, 12:40; 1 Cor. 3:14; 2 Cor. 3:11-18, 4:3-4; Eph. 1:18, 3:17-19). (See Correcting Others-Prayer, Problem-Solving Prayer).

283 - Light-Praying (1 John 1:7)

We must pray to walk as Jesus would have us live. When we walk in the light, we don't stumble, stray, backslide, or stop walking. We follow Jesus who is the Light (John 8:12). (Gen. 1:3; Exod. 13:21, 35:14; Pss. 4:6, 27:1, 119:105, 130; Isa. 45:7; John 1:4, 3:19-20, 8:12, 12:35; Acts 26:13; Eph. 5:8; 1 Thess. 5:5; 1 John 1:7). (See Insight-Prayer, Light Request, Spiritual-Insight Prayer).

284 - Limitation-Praying (Jude 3)

We must apply all the knowledge and principles of prayer that are written in Scripture. God hasn't said all there is to say about prayer, but He has written in Scripture all we need to know for salvation and sanctification. The limitation of prayer is not with God or His Word, but with us and our application of Scripture to our intercession (Acts 20:27; 1 Cor. 15:1-5; 2 Tim. 3:15-16; 2 Peter 1:20-21; Jude 3). (See Delayed-Answer to Prayer, Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Unknown-Answer to Prayer).

285 - Listening to Jesus-Prayer (Heb. 1:2)

When we read the Scriptures to learn about Jesus, we must also listen to what He says to us. Just as Jesus' disciples listened and learned from the physical Jesus as they followed Him on earth, so we carefully listen and search the Scriptures to know Jesus better and then do what He would have us do (Matt. 3:17, 26:63; John 3:16, 15:15; Rom. 1:4; Heb. 1:2, 2:3, 5:8, 7:3). (See Silent-Prayer, Silent-Worship Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

286 - Listen-Prayer (Matt. 18:19)

In our praying we can hear and identify with the verbal request of another person and agree with him or her for that answer (Matt. 18:19). (See Listening to Jesus, Meditation-Prayer, Silent-Prayer).

287 - Looking-Back Prayer (Luke 9:62)

We reject God's perfect will for our life by "looking back" at the old things or places that are contrary to God's will. We look back because we want to go back. But usually we look back because our desires are still back there out of God's will. (See Repentance-Prayer, Restoration-Prayer, Sin-Realization Prayer).

288 - Lord's-Prayer (Matt. 6:9-13)

This model prayer was given to us by Jesus in Matthew 6:9-13 and Luke 11:2-4. There are seven petitions in the Lord's Prayer (see Praying the Lord's Prayer by Elmer Towns [Ventura, CA: Regal Books, 1997]). When we pray the Lord's Prayer, we don't leave anything out—we pray everything we need to say to God. It's the most complete and comprehensive petition prayer that was ever given to us. Just as all the oak tree is in an acorn, so all of Christianity—what you need to know and what you need to ask—is in the Lord's Prayer. (See Daily-Prayer, First Prayer Each Day, Morning-Prayer).

289 - Lordship Salvation-Prayer (Acts 9:6)

There are two views of conversion. First, some teach "easy believism" which means calling on Jesus to save because Jesus simply said, "Come" (Matt. 11:28-30). Others say a person must do more than just come to have his sins forgiven; he must make Jesus the Lord of his life (Matt. 6:33, 7:21-23; Luke 9:27; John 3:1-8; Acts 4:12, 9:6, 16:31; Rom. 10:9-10). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Repentance-Prayer, Sin-Realization Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

290 - Loud-Rejoicing Prayer (Pss. 100:1)

We should express our emotions to God vehemently and loudly, so that our outward sound expresses our inward feelings. It is praying with a shout, yell, cheer, or roar so that our inward rejoicing equals our inward praise to God (Josh. 6:5; 1 Sam. 4:5; Ezra 3:11; Pss. 5:11, 35:27, 47:1, 5; 65:13, 100:1). (See Singing Prayer, Worship-Roar Prayer).

291 - Love One Another-Prayer (1 John 4:11)

Asking God to teach us to love Him and others because He first loved us by sending Jesus to die for us. Because God is love and He indwells us, we must pray to manifest His love through us to others (John 13:34, 15:12-13; 2 Cor. 8:8-9; Eph. 4:31-32, 5:1-2; Col. 3:13; 1 John 4:11). (Love-Abounding Prayer, Love-Growing Prayer, Others-Prayer).

292 - Love-Abounding Prayer (Phil. 1:9)

This is asking God to grow our love for someone specifically, or for others in general so that our love flows out in words and deeds (Phil. 1:9). (See Love-Growing Prayer, Love One Another-Prayer, Others-Prayer).

293 - Love-Expression Prayer (John 21:15)

Because God has first loved us, and expressed His love to us, we can have confidence in our approach to Him that He will hear our prayer. Just as we say to someone, "I love you," when they show their deep feelings for us, so we must say the same to Jesus. Didn't Jesus ask Peter, "Do you love Me more than these?" (John 21:15) So we must reaffirm our love to Jesus before we ask for answers to prayer (Pss. 89:2; Lam. 3:22, 23; Matt. 10:35-40; John 8:40, 14:15, 15:4-14; 2 Cor. 5:14; Eph. 6:24; 1 Peter 1:8; 1 John 4:19, 5:1). (See Love-Abounding Prayer, Love One Another-Prayer).

294 - Love-Growing Prayer (Phil. 1:9)

We recognize God is the source of all love, so when we ask for our love to grow, we are asking for God's influence to grow in our hearts and in our relationship to others (Rom. 13:8; Gal. 5:6; 1 Thess. 3:12; 2 Peter 1:7; 1 John 3:11, 4:7, 17). (See Love-Abounding Prayer, Love-Expression Prayer).

295 - Love-Praying (Matt. 22:37-38)

Love is an attribute of God, that is, "God is love" (1 John 4:8). We see love in the act of giving, that is, giving ourselves for a friend (John 15:13), for sinners (Rom. 5:5-8), and, of course, Christ gave Himself for sin (John 10:11; Rom. 5:5-8; Eph. 5:2, 25; 1 John 3:16, 4:7-11). (See Love-Abounding Prayer, Love One Another-Prayer).

296 - Loving-People Prayer (James 2:8)

We should pray that God will increase our love for others. Then we can pray for any barrier or wrong attitude in our hearts that keeps us from loving others. We can ask God to give us a supernatural love for people—to love them as He loves them—and that fulfills our obligation to love others (Deut. 6:4-6; Matt. 22:37-40; John 13:34-35; Rom. 12:9-10; Gal. 5:6; Eph. 4:3, 5:2; Phil. 2:1; 2 Thess. 1:3; Heb. 13:1; 1 John 2:9-10, 3:10; 2 John 5, 6). (See Love-Abounding Prayer, Love-Expression Prayer, Others-Prayer).

297 - Man in the Glory-Prayer (Heb. 7:24)

Jesus is our Intercessor who presents our prayers to the Father. Our prayers are presented perfectly because Jesus is the "man in the glory." Jesus identified with us physically, and He knows our limitations (John 12:24; Rom. 6:9; Heb. 7:24-26; Rev. 1:18). (See Intercessor's-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Praying).

298 - Many Ways to Pray (Heb. 2:1-4)

There are many ways to pray, as evidenced by this appendix of practical Principles of Prayer. The book, How to Pray, by Elmer Towns (Ventura, CA: Regal Books, 2006), describes over 50 ways to pray (Exod. 15:11; Pss. 16:1, 69:17, 118:25, 119:5, 133; Lam. 5:21; Hab. 3:2; Luke 18:13, 23:24; 1 Tim. 2:1). (See All Kinds of Faith-Prayer).

299 - Marriage-Harmony Prayer (1 Peter 3:8)

One of the foundations for God answering the prayers of husbands and wives is for them to dwell together in harmony. "Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife...that your prayers may not be hindered" (1 Peter 3:7). (See Family-Heritage Prayer, Spouse-Inspired Prayer).

300 - Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer (John 6:11)

When we give thanks before meals we recognize God the Creator has given us the food we enjoy that sustains our life and has given us that strength through our food to serve Him (1 Sam. 9:13; Matt. 14:19; Acts 27:35; Rom. 14:6; 1 Cor. 10:30-31; Col. 3:17; 1 Tim. 4:3). (See Food-Provision Praise, Provision of Food Praise).

301 - Medical Answer-Prayer (James 5:15)

In a physical sickness God heals by the use of means (medicine, surgery, therapy, etc.) including prayer (James 5:13-16). (See Daniel Fast, Healing Prayer, Sick-Person's Prayer).

302 - Meditation-Prayer (Josh. 1:9)

To meditate means to focus your thinking, to reflect on, or ponder over, to plan or project in the mind. As we meditate on God, we grow stronger and are motivated to act on what we've been thinking and praying. Christian meditation is the ability to hear God speaking to us and understanding what He is saying; that leads to obedient action. Perhaps a better definition of meditation prayer is "thinking God's thoughts with Him." This is thinking about God in His presence. It is thinking about the greatness of God and breaking into worship as we contemplate God's power and mercy. In Meditation Prayer we don't usually ask for things. However, we might ask for wisdom and understanding to learn more about God so we might worship Him better. (See Fellowship Prayer, Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Listening-Prayer, Silent-Prayer, Silent-Worship Prayer).

303 - Memory-Praying (Pss. 77:11)

Memory-Praying is asking God to help you remember good things in the past so that we can serve Him more effectively in the present and future. We ask God to remind us of our failures and sins so we can repent and change our lives for a better future (Pss. 25:6-7, 42:4, 63:6, 77:11, 105:5, 106:4; Hab. 3:2). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Repentance-Prayer).

304 - Mercy-Prayer (Pss. 6:2)

This is a cry for mercy when we are in desperate straits and we want forgiveness and deliverance. This is a prayer for mercy when we know we've sinned or done wrong. This prayer is based on God's mercy (Exod. 34:7; Deut. 5:10; Ezra 3:11; Neh. 1:5; Pss. 4:1, 6:2, 21:7; Isa. 45:10; Titus 3:5). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer).

305 - Mercy-Appreciation Prayer (Hab. 3:2)

Thanksgiving is a general prayer offered in appreciation to God for the many things He gives us that are necessary or beneficial to our life. However, when we thank God for His mercies, we remember that God could punish us for our sins, or He could withhold good from us because of our selfishness or laziness. But in mercy God forgives our sins, and in mercy He uses us, and in mercy He protects us and gives us things we don't deserve; then we offer a prayer of Mercy-Appreciation. (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Memory-Praying).

306 - Mercy-Seat Praying (Heb. 9:5)

The mercy seat was the lid on a box called the Sacred Chest. God didn't sit on a golden throne, but upon the lid of a box where blood was applied for forgiveness of sin. God likes to be where blood is applied to forgive sin. When we come to God through the blood of Christ, we get our prayers answered (Lev. 16:14, 17:11; Rom. 3:25; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14; Heb. 9:5; 1 Peter 1:2; 1 John 1:7; Rev. 1:6, 5:9, 7:14). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer).

307 - Minutia-Prayer (Phil. 4:6)

We must pray for little things as well as big problems in life. Every big problem is made up of an inestimable number of smaller problems, so we pray about little things to help solve big problems, before they become big. (See Continual-Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer).

308 - Mizpah Benediction-Prayer (Gen. 31:49)

This is a positive agreement between believers to pray for one another after they separate, asking God to "watch over" the other one. (See Gen. 31:49). (See Benediction-Bless Prayer).

309 - Model-Church Prayer (Acts 11:26)

We should all pray that our own local church would become a model church like the Antioch church. The Antioch church was successful because (1) it was an evangelistic church (Acts 11:19); (2) it preached the Word (11:19); (3) it focused on Jesus (11:20); (4) it was committed to Christ (11:23); (5) it was a growing church (11:24); (6) it was a teaching church (11:25); (7) it was a giving church (11:28); (8) it was a sacrificing church (13:2); (9) it was a missionary-sending church (13:3); and (10) it was a multiracial church (11:20, 13:1). But most of all the Antioch church was a spiritual church that "prayed" (13:3), "fasted" (13:2-3), and worshiped, that is, "ministered to the Lord" (13:2). (Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 2:1-4, 42-47; 11:26). (See Organized-Corporate Prayer and various Church prayers).

310 - Money-Prayer (Acts 2:44)

While most people pray for more money for their Christian project or themselves, the Money-Prayer forces us to look at our money and belongings from God's perspective. Money or belongings should not possess us. We must yield them to God and ask Him to give us wisdom to use our money for His purposes and glory (Deut. 15:7; Pss. 112:9; Prov. 11:24, 25; Luke 6:35; Acts 2:44, 45; 4:34-37; Rom. 12:8, 13; 1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 8:1, 2, 9, 12; Phil. 4:12, 19; 1 Tim. 6:6-18; Heb. 13:16). (See Dedication of Money Prayer, Provision of Food-Praise).

311 - Morning-Prayer (John 21:4)

Often the darkness of nighttime will take away our joy. But morning offers new hope and new opportunities to serve God. Sunrise suggests a new chance at life. So we should begin every new morning with a prayer to God. We should expect to meet Christ every morning (Job 38:7; Pss. 130:6; Isa. 27:12; Lam. 3:23; Mark 16:12; Luke 1:78, 24:15; John 20:14). (See Daily-Prayer, First Prayer Each Day, Lord's-Prayer, New-Day Praise).

312 - Mountain-Moving Prayer (Mark 11:23, 24)

We can use our faith supernaturally to move God's work forward, when we pray to remove barriers, opposition or inertia. "For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them" (Mark 11:23, 24). (See Interventional-Praying, Supernatural Praying, Unlimited Prayer in Christ).

313 - Mourning the Dead-Prayer (Gen. 23:1-3)

There is a proper time to mourn when a special person dies, but we must get up as did Abraham (Gen. 23:1-3), leave the cemetery symbolically, and go on with the life God has for us. There is "a time to weep...a time to laugh" (Eccl. 3:4). (See Discipline-Prayer, Leave the Cemetery-Prayer).

314 - Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer (Acts 18:24-26)

Paul taught by example and principle that we are to pour our lives into another believer, who in turn would do the same thing to the third and fourth generations. We should be producing disciples who are reproducers. Our students should pour their lives into four generations of believers. When they reproduce themselves in a fourth generation the cycle is verifiable, that is, it will continue (Matt. 28:19-20; Acts 18:24-26; Rom. 16:26; 2 Tim. 2:2). (See Disciple Fast and Prayer, Evangelistic-Prayer, Growth-Prayer, Growth in Christ-Prayer, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

315 - Mystery of Prayer (1 Cor. 13:12)

We pray with many different emotions and expectations. Only God fully understands the mystery of our relationship with Him. "For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known" (1 Cor. 13:12). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Limitation-Prayer, Unknown-Answer to Prayer).

316 - Name of Jesus-Prayer (John 14:13)

Using Jesus' name in prayer is not a magical key to unlocking heaven's door. When we pray in Jesus' name, we reveal our relationship with Jesus Christ. Praying in Jesus' name not only identifies us with Jesus' death on the cross, but it also identifies us with the new life of His resurrection. Also when we pray in Jesus' name, we go to the Father through Jesus' intercession for us. That way we can get as close to God the Father as Jesus can. Also we can pray in Jesus' name because of our friendship factor with Christ; He calls us friends (John 15:14). Finally, we get answers because Jesus indwells us (Gal. 2:20). (See Asking-Prayer, Intercessor's-Prayer and the various Jesus prayers).

317 - Natural-Bless Prayer (Matt. 5:45)

You can add value to the normal life of a recipient, without necessarily appealing for supernatural intervention (see Gen. 39:5; Job 1:10; Matt. 5:45). (See various Bless prayers).

318 - New Birth Praise-Prayer (Titus 3:5)

We praise God for our new birth by the work of the Holy Spirit. Salvation is a door with two sides. One side is our works, repentance, seeking God, and calling out His name. The other side is God's work that begins with regeneration. God gives us a new nature with new desires. We must show thanks to God for the gift of the new birth and praise Him for the work of the Holy Spirit in our hearts (Ezek. 36:26-27; Jer. 3:5; 1 Cor. 6:11; Eph. 5:26; 1 Peter 3:2; Titus 3:5). (See Praise of Forgiveness, Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Thanks-giving for Redemption-Prayer, Transforming-Prayer).

319 - New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer (2 Thess. 1:3)

We can give praise to God for our being used by Him to win someone to Christ and giving thanks for those saved through our ministry (Rom. 1:8; 2 Thess. 1:3, 2:13). (See Evangelistic-Praying, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

320 - New Covenant-Praying (Heb. 8:8)

Under the New Covenant we come directly to God without going through a Levitical priest as in the Old Testament. Now we come to God based on a personal and intimate relationship with the Father. We come because we know God inwardly and spiritually, not as Old Testament saints who went to God through the tabernacle/temple (Ezek. 36:26-27; 2 Cor. 3:6-18; Heb. 8:8; 1 John 1:7). (See Torn-Veil Prayer).

321 - New Testament Prayer Possibilities (John 16:24)

When Jesus used the phrase "Until now you have asked nothing in My name" (John 16:24), He meant that Old Testament prayers did not come through Jesus. But in the New Testament the believer is now a spiritual child of his heavenly Father, so prayer is personal and guaranteed when made through Jesus. He told His disciples, "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you" (Matt. 7:7, 21:22; John 15:7, 15; Eph. 2:18, 3:14, 20; Heb. 4:14, 16; 7:24-26, 10:19, 20; 1 John 2:1, 5:14-16). (See Asking-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Praying, Name of Jesus-Praying, New Covenant-Praying, Torn-Veil Praying).

322 - New-Day Praise (Pss. 98:1)

We should have a new song to sing to God every day. While we are grateful for yesterday and the things we learned yesterday, today is a better day to praise God. Also, we look forward to tomorrow and what God will do for us then. Today is the greatest day of our lives because we can praise Him and serve Him now (Pss. 18:18, 35:28, 98:1; Heb. 3:7, 13; James 4:13). (See Daily-Prayer, First Prayer Each Day, Morning-Prayer).

323 - "No" Answers to Prayer (Isa. 59:1, 2)

(See Blocked-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, Unanswered-Prayer, Unbiblical-Prayer). Not all prayers will be answered "yes"; sometimes God says "no" for various reasons (see the following "No" Answers to Prayer).

"No...for right now"

Sometimes God tells us to wait for an answer, and we don't ever get an assurance that God will answer in the future. So we must continue living and serving God by faith, not knowing if the answer will ever come.

"No...I can't undo history"

We can't undo the past by divine intervention. God won't make an unfortunate marriage never to have happened, or a baby never to be born. We must learn to accept history and the circumstances of life that have happened to us in the past. But we can change the future.

"No, I have a better plan for your life"

Sometimes we pray too small or too low, when God wants to give us something better. Elijah was so discouraged he prayed to die, "LORD, take my life" (1 Kings 19:4). But God had a better plan, "How about going to heaven with a 'chariot of fire'?" (See 2 Kings 2:11).

"No, I've got a better idea"

Sometimes we tell God how to answer our prayers, but God tells us "No" because He will answer another way.

"No, that would hurt others" (James 4:3)

Sometimes we ask selfishly and if God answered, it would hurt someone else. An answer may hurt another financially, physically, or socially.

"No, that's not the way I do it"

Sometimes we not only pray for God's intervention, but we also tell Him how to answer, or when to answer, or where to answer. But God's ways are not our ways (Isa. 55:8).

"No, that's presumptuous"

Sometimes we ask God to do the impossible, or the improbable. We ask God to work in ways He doesn't work. Can we ask God to bless acts of stealing, lying, adultery, or murder? Have we asked God to bless our greed, or violent temper?

"No, you are basing your prayer on a lie"

Sometimes we know better than to ask God to do certain things that are against His nature. We cannot ask God to do something when we know better in our hearts that it's wrong.

"No, you are breaking the rules" (Pss. 66:18)

Sometimes we have sin in our lives, and we ask God to bless the sinful actions we do, or to bless us in spite of our sin.

"No, you can't base your prayers on that Bible promise"

Sometimes we quote a Bible promise out of context, or we apply a verse to the wrong circumstances. Can we pray to defy gravity because Peter walked on water? We must know the differences between a description of a situation in Scripture that is not meant for us, and a prescription in Scripture that applies to us.

324 - Non-Answer to Prayer (Pss. 18:41)

Sometimes God doesn't respond to our prayers in any way. It's when God doesn't say "yes," or "no," or "wait"; He just doesn't say anything. (See Blocked-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, Unanswered-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

325 - Non-Anxiety Prayer (Phil. 4:6,7)

We should not be anxious over things in our life, but we should bring all our worries, problems and concerns—everything—to God in prayer (Phil. 4:6-7). (See Peaceful Living-Prayer, Waiting in Prayer).

326 - Non-Violence Prayer (Luke 6:28)

The Lord has told us to "bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you" (Luke 6:28). When an enemy makes our faith an issue, we should pray for our enemies. There are times we should defend ourselves as did David (1 Sam. 17:26-46). Jesus taught there are times we should retreat (Matt. 10:23), as did Isaac (Gen. 26:17-25). (See Enemy-Strategy Praying, Evangelistic-Prayer, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

327 - Obedient-Prayer (Col. 2:6)

Christ said often, "Follow Me," so obedience is walking behind Him with our eyes on Jesus. It is a disciplined life, a victorious life, a serving life, filled with courage and love. We must obey God to get the thing for which we ask. It is also our reaction to the work of God in our heart that gives us a new desire to please and serve Him. Our obedience and self-discipline did not initiate with us, but with God who works in us to will and do (Deut. 5:32; Josh. 1:7; Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 11:2; Gal. 6:9, 10; Phil. 1:11, 2:13; Col. 1:10; 1 Tim. 5:10; 2 Tim. 2:21; Titus 3:1; Heb. 13:21; 1 Peter 2:10; 1 John 2:3, 4; Rev. 22:14). (See Discipline-Prayer, Race-Preparation Prayer, Self-Control Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

328 - Obligation-Prayer (1 Tim. 2:1 ff.)

We pray because we are expected to pray. We pray because we are people of prayer. Also, prayer is our first response to a crisis, problem, or situation. We pray because God works in us before God works through us. We pray to bring God into a problem, and through prayer we ask God to do something to solve the crisis. (See Problem-Solving Prayer, Protection-Prayer).

329 - Obstinate-Prayer (2 Cor. 11:4)

Expression of our determination to stand for the truth of the gospel as found in the Bible and to stand against heresy that denies the fundamentals of the faith. When we don't face heresy, we need the inward tenacity to stand for God. We need strength in the Prayer of Obstinacy (Gal. 2:11; 2 Cor. 5:16, 11:4, 21-28; Jude 3). (See Disentanglement-Prayer, Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, Heresy-Condemning Prayer).

330 - Offense of the Cross-Prayer (Gal. 5:11)

We must accept the insults and hatred of the world toward the cross, because the world thinks the message of the cross is foolish. God says it is the power of God to salvation (1 Cor. 1:18). We should pray that the message of the cross will be influential through our testimony (1 Cor. 1:18, 23; Gal. 5:11; 1 Peter 2:8-9). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Persecution-Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer).

331 - Old Nature-Praying (Eph. 4:22, 23)

Because we have an old nature, we must constantly surrender any inclination to obey the old nature, and constantly allow the new nature to control our lives (Eph. 4:22-23). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Deceitful-Heart Prayer).

332 - One-Hour Prayer (Mark 14:37)

We are told to "pray and not lose heart" (Luke 18:1), and to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17). But the only length suggested for prayer is "one hour," so it seems all believers ought to pray that long—at least once in their life (Pss. 1:2, 5:3, 42:8, 55:17, 88:1; Jer. 12:5; Matt. 7:7). (See All-Time Praying, Continual-Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer).

333 - Oneness-Prayer (Phil. 2:2)

This is when we join together with others or with just one other person to pray in the oneness of spirit. (Also see Communion-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying and various Agree prayers).

$334 - Opposition-Intercession \, (1\,Thess.\, 2:18)$

When we face opposition in our personal life or in our ministry, we must intercede to God (1) for victory; (2) for strength to endure opposition; (3) for God's will relating to opposition; (4) for the spread of the gospel in the face of opposition (Pss. 106:47, 148:14; Rom. 8:37; 1 Cor. 15:57). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Persecution-Prayer and various Victory prayers).

335 - Optional Answer-Prayer (Mark 10:38)

Sometimes when we pray for an answer to a problem God gives us more than one choice as an answer to our problem. (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer).

336 - Organized-Corporate Prayer (Luke 19:46)

The place where believers gather (church building) should (1) be a location for prayer; (2) where they agree together (Matt. 18:19); (3) where they renounce selfish desires (Acts 4:31, 32); (4) where they continue in prayer; (5) where they organize themselves for prayer; and (6) where they experience God's presence (Isa. 56:7; Mal. 1:11; Matt. 21:13; Mark 11:17; John 4:21-23; 1 Tim. 2:1-5). (See Agreement-Prayer, Model Church-Prayer).

337 - Others-Prayer (Jude 22)

We are exhorted by Jude to attempt to win some other people to salvation, "And on some have compassion, making a distinction" (Jude 22). We begin by interceding for their salvation. When the general and founder of the Salvation Army was too old physically to attend the group's annual convention, he sent them a telegram with one word, "Others." That was the attitude that made the Salvation Army influential worldwide (Matt. 5:43 ff., 22:39; Luke 10:29 ff.). (See Evangelistic-Prayer, Love One Another-Prayer, Soul Winner's-Prayer, Redemption-Prayer).

338 - Outreach-Prayer (Acts 4:29-31)

We should pray for the salvation of an unsaved person, asking God for his conversion. This also includes praying for evangelistic outreach programs to the unsaved/unchurched, whether through the church, media, foreign missions, etc. (See Evangelistic-Prayer, Great Commission-Prayer, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

339 - Overcoming-God's Inertia Prayer (Exod. 32:30-32)

Can prayer override God's omnipotent and omniscient plan for the world and those He loves? Since God is almighty and has a predetermined plan for the universe, how can the prayers of finite people override the plans of the Almighty superintendent of the universe? The only thing that could change God is God, but God cannot change. If God cannot be changed, then why pray? Because God is omnipotent and omniscient, He is smart enough to think up a comprehensive plan for the world to allow humans to exercise their freedom (to pray) and yet be subject to God's control in the final analysis. (See Interventional-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Prayer, and various Faith and Victory prayers).

340 - Overcoming-Prayer (1 John 4:4)

We can overcome the world as we claim the power and victory of Jesus Christ who indwells us to enable us to overcome our problems, trials, and temptations. All believers must remember, "He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4). (John 10:28-30, 17:23; Rom. 8:10; 1 Cor. 6:13; 2 Cor. 6:16; Eph. 3:7; 1 John 4:4). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Interventional-Prayer, Supernatural-Prayer and various Victory prayers).

341 - Pain-Praying (Pss. 38:6, 20, 21)

God's people suffer pain for many reasons: (1) because they rebel against God and sin; (2) because of dumb decisions; (3) because of mistakes and failures; (4) because of germs, disease, or infection; (5) because of an accident; (6) because a person intentionally hurts us; (7) because of misunderstandings; (8) because of satan; (9) because of the consequences of evil to which we've given ourselves; and (10) because God allows circumstances to bring pain into our lives to bring us back to Him (Job 6:4; Pss. 6:1, 38:6, 20-21; 88:7, 15-16; Jer. 10:24, 30:11; Heb. 3:2, 12:5, 11). (See Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer, Unknown Danger-Prayer).

342 - Partial Answer-Prayer (Exod. 33:2-3)

Sometimes God answers our requests only partially and does not give us all the things we request. (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Divisionary Answer-Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, Unknown Answer to Prayer).

343 - Partner-Prayer (Acts 3:1)

There are many illustrations of people praying together in Scriptures, for example, Peter and John (Acts 3:1), Paul and Silas (Acts 16:25), etc. Jesus promised prayers would be answered when two agree (Matt. 18:19). Recent prayer partners are Dwight L. Moody and R. A. Torrey, Billy Graham and J. Edwin Orr, Brother Worley and Jerry Falwell (Exod. 17:8-13; Est. 4:16; Eccl. 4:9-12; Matt. 18:19). (See Two-Prayer, Support-Prayer).

344 - Pastor-Prayer (2 Cor. 1:11)

We have an obligation to intercede for our church pastor's life and ministry. Since everything rises and falls on leadership, our spiritual level as well as that of our church depends on the spiritual ministry of our pastor as he ministers to us as well as to others (1 Sam. 7:8; Rom. 15:30: 2 Cor. 1:11; Eph. 6:18, 20; Phil. 1:19; Col. 4:3; 2 Thess. 3:1, 3; 1 Tim. 2:2; Philem. 1:22; James 5:16). (See Church Leadership-Prayer).

345 - Patience-Prayer (James 5:7-8)

We must ask God to make us more patient and then trust Him to develop His plan in our life. The command to be patient should be accompanied by our prayer to make it happen in our life (Luke 8:15; Rom. 15:4; 2 Cor. 6:4-5; Gal. 5:5, 6:9; Heb. 12:1-2; James 5:7-8). (See Humility-Prayer, Non-Anxiety Prayer, Peaceful Living-Prayer, Wait-Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

346 - Patient-Teaching Prayer (2 Tim. 4:2)

Requests for God to work in hearts of listeners when the Word is taught. Like seeds that don't give fruit immediately, we need patient-faith to continue our teaching ministry when we don't immediately see results (Matt. 13:30; 1 Cor. 4:5; 2 Tim. 4:2, 14-15). (See Others-Prayer, Patience Needed Prayer).

347 - Peaceful-Living Prayer (Heb. 12:14)

We should be thankful for peace with God and then pray for His peace to flood our souls. We should pray to live peacefully with the people we deal with daily, and pray for peace in our country and the world (Pss. 29:11; Isa. 32:17, 48:22, 55:12; John 14:27, 16:33, 20:19; Rom. 1:7; Eph. 2:14, 17; Phil. 4:7; Heb. 12:14). (See Great Commission-Prayer, Government Leaders-Intercession, Non-Anxiety Prayer, Waiting in Prayer).

348 - Perception-Expectation Prayer (1 Sam. 14:8)

Life is made up of perceptions that lead to expectations, and these two forces influence our faith when we pray. Saul expected to fail and did nothing (1 Sam. 14:2). His son, Jonathan, had bold faith and perceived he could defeat the enemy, so he went into battle expecting to defeat the enemy, so he won. We should pray to perceive correctly the culture in which we live, and pray to expect God's blessing in the things we do. (See Asking-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Prayer and various Faith prayers).

349 - Persecution-Prayer (2 Tim. 3:12)

This is a request for God to prepare us for a time of difficulty and persecution that is more serious than we presently have. Then we pray that God will keep us strong and true when persecution comes. We should pray (1) for our persecution; (2) for our testimony; (3) for grace to endure; and (4) for God to use our suffering for His glory (Pss. 37:12; Matt. 5:10; Luke 14:26-27, 22:15, 24:24; John 15:18-25; Acts 3:12, 14:22; 2 Tim. 3:11-12; 1 Peter 2:20-22, 3:14, 4:12-18; Rev. 1:9, 7:14). (See Affliction-Prayer, Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

350 - Persistent-Prayer (Matt. 7:7-8)

Jesus told us to "ask" (Matt. 7:7), because persistence is a reflection of our continued relationship with God. Technically, we can never break our relationship with God, just as earthly children will always be the children of their earthly parents who gave them birth. But we can break our fellowship with our heavenly Father by disobedience, inattention, or focusing our life away from Him. But if we continue in prayer, we continue in fellowship with the Father. This is a reflection of what Jesus said, "If you abide in Me...you will ask what you desire" (John 15:7). (See Asking-Prayer, Continued-Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Praying, Prevailing-Prayer).

351 - Personal-Request Prayer (Rom. 15:36)

When we ask for others to pray for our personal needs or requests, we should pray for them in return (Matt. 18:19). There is power when we pray for others and with others (Matt. 18:19; Acts 1:14, 2:1-2, 4:24, 12:5; Rom. 15:30; Eph. 6:18; Phil. 1:19; Col. 4:3; 1 Thess. 5:17, 25; Heb. 13:18-19). (See Agreement-Prayer, Consensus-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying, Oneness-Prayer, Two-Prayer, Support-Prayer).

352 - Perverted-Prayer (2 Cor. 6:17-18)

Our prayers are perverted when we wrongly base our prayers on error, wrong information, or a lie. We cannot expect God to answer perverted prayers. We will not get an answer when we pray for the opposite of God's written will. Eve used perverted logic when she tried to defend herself from satan by saying, "God has said, 'You shall not... touch it'" (Gen. 3:3). God had only said, "You shall not...eat it," Eve added her opinion about touching the tree (Matt. 4:1-11; Rom. 1:24; 2 Cor. 6:17; Col. 32:21). (See Blocked-Prayer, False-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Pretend-Prayer).

353 - Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer (1 Cor. 15:46)

This deals with priority of attention. The physical has priority in life because the spiritual needs a physical home in which to express prayer, godliness, faith, and spiritual walk with God. However, the spiritual is not first. Therefore, we should give attention to our physical needs, and to work to provide for our physical needs (Gen. 36:31; 1 Chron. 1:43; 1 Cor. 15:46). (See Jesus First-Prayer).

354 - Pleasant-Smelling Prayer (Rev. 8:4)

Incense offered in the tabernacle or temple was symbolic of prayers that went up to God and were pleasing to Him. This focuses on pleasing God with our prayers, rather than focusing on the things we do or say in prayer (Exod. 30:1; Pss. 141:2; Luke 1:10; Rom. 13:14; Gal. 6:8; Heb. 4:15-16; James 3:18; Rev. 8:4). (See various Worship prayers).

355 - Pleasing God-Prayer (1 John 3:22)

We should put prayer before other activities in our life, so that we actually give up something that is necessary or desirable so that God has first place in our lives. God is pleased when we sacrifice to Him. When we live according to God's commands, and exercise diligent faith when we pray, we please Him (Matt. 7:24-25; John 8:29, 15:10; 1 Thess. 4:1; 2 Tim. 4:2; Heb. 11:6; 1 John 3:22). (See Pleasant-Smelling-Prayer, and various Worship and Praise prayers).

356 - Possibility-Praying (Mark 9:23)

Many want to claim this promise, "All things are possible for the person who believes." However, note the limitations of faith or belief. It's not how long you pray, how sincerely you pray, or how many times you pray. Belief or faith is a relationship to Jesus Christ. We must be in close relationship to Christ and then we must realize that Jesus gives us answers. God is the Giver, we are only the receiver (Gen. 18:14; Num. 11:23; Deut. 7:21; 1 Sam. 14:6; 2 Kings 7:1; Jer. 32:17; Zech. 8:6; Luke 1:37; Eph. 3:20; Phil. 4:13). (See Asking-Prayer, Interventional-Prayer, and various Faith prayers).

357 - Posture in Prayer (2 Sam. 7:18)

God does not hear our prayers because we are kneeling, folding our hands, or looking toward heaven. God hears our prayers because of the sincerity of our heart. However, our outward posture should reflect our inner response to God. God is more interested in the posture of our heart than He is in the posture of our body. Therefore, no single prayer posture is the "correct" one. We can sit, stand, kneel, or prostrate ourselves bowing with our face to the ground, or fold our hands. "Then King David went in and sat before the LORD" (2 Sam. 7:18). (See Face-Down Worship, and various Worship prayers).

358 - Powerful-Ministry Prayer (Acts 2:4)

This is what the believer seeks when preparing to serve the Lord. Power comes when believers (1) spend extended time in prayer; (2) pray together; (3) yield to the leading of the Spirit; and (4) are filled with the Holy Spirit (Luke 1:53; John 7:37-39, 14:16-18; Acts 2:4; Rom. 15:13; Eph. 5:18). (See Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Holy Spirit-Praying, Spiritual Strength-Prayer).

359 - Power-Praying (Rom. 1:16)

When we pray to receive salvation, it's more than believing the content of the gospel. It's receiving Jesus Christ, the Son of God into our life. He is alive and becomes the power that transforms our life (Rom. 1:16, 6:5-6; 1 Cor. 1:18, 24; 2:4, 15:1-3; Gal. 1:7-9; 1 Tim. 1:11). (See Holy Spirit-Praying, Spiritual Strength-Prayer, Transforming-Prayer).

360 - Power-Seeking Prayer (Matt 9:8)

We all want power of something, e.g., power of position, power of knowledge, power of money, etc. But God gives us power, "who had given such power to men" (Matt. 9:8), so much so that, "they were all amazed" (Mark 1:27). But this is not a spiritual gift of power, or healing, or miracles. No, that would limit power to only a few. Cannot all heal through prayer (see James 5:15), or do mighty works (John 14:12)? But power comes from the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8), and not from ourselves. To get this power, we must enter the closet of prayer to seek to know God, to acquire the fruit of the Spirit, to understand spiritual things, and then we have power with God. That power is available to all, but few acquire it (Matt. 12:23, 15:31; Mark 2:12, 7:37; Luke 5:26, 7:16; John 14:12; Acts 1:8, 2:41). (See Power-Praying, Spirit-Helped Prayer, Spiritual Strength-Prayer).

361 - Praise for Forgiveness (Pss. 103:3)

Praise is the response of a grateful people because God has forgiven their sins and has given them an abundance of life (Exod. 32:32; 1 Kings 8:30 ff.; 2 Chron. 6:21 ff.; Pss. 25:18, 86:5, 103:3; Matt. 6:12; Mark 2:7, 11:25-26; 1 John 1:9). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Thanksgiving for Redemption).

362 - Praise for God's Care (Eph. 3:20-21)

We should praise God for all He is, and all He has done for us, and even for all that we don't know (Eph. 3:20-21). (See Face-Down Worship, and various Worship prayers).

363 - Praise for God's Provision (Pss. 23:1)

God supplies our needs directly and through secondary means. We must praise God for giving us strength to work for food, and opportunities to work for finances that provide for our needs. God places us in situations where we may be full or empty, but through it all God provides for us (Gen. 48:15; Pss. 23:1, 37:3, 103:4, 5; Matt. 6:25-34; 1 Tim. 6:6-10; James 1:17). (See various Worship and Praise prayers).

364 - Praise for God's Sovereignty (Gen. 45:5)

Recognizing all that God does for us and thanking Him with exaltation and worship. We must thank God for both the good and bad days that bring us to the present time (Gen. 45:5, 7; Rom. 8:28). (See various Worship and Praise prayers).

365 - Praise-Sacrifice to God (Heb. 13:15)

We should worship God, offering Him praise, worship, and exaltation. Just as the Old Testament believers brought an animal sacrifice to worship God, today we offer worship to God by yielding our bodies as a sacrifice to do His will in all things (Pss. 50:14, 69:30-31, 107:21-22, 118:19, 136:1; Rom. 12:1-2; Eph. 5:19-20; Col. 3:16; Heb. 13:15; Rev. 4:8, 5:9). (See Face-Down Worship, and various Worship and Praise prayers).

366 - Praise-Worship of God (Gal. 1:5)

We should worship God with praises for all He has done in and through us. When we praise God (1) we obey His command, (2) we expand our work for God, (3) we influence other Christians, and (4) we begin to "crucify" the desires of pride and ego that would destroy our walk with God (Pss. 41:13; Matt. 6:13; Rom. 11:36, 16:27; Eph. 1:12; Phil. 4:20; 1 Tim. 1:17; 2 Tim. 4:18; Rev. 4:9-11). (See Face-Down Worship, and various Worship and Praise prayers).

367 - Praise-Worthy Prayer (Luke 10:21)

Praise comes from an old word for prize or price. When we praise God, we give Him the prize or price for who He is, or what He has done. Praise is favorable judgment, commendation, glorification, approval, thanksgiving, or worship (Pss. 9:1, 30:12, 40:3, 106:1; Rom. 1:8; Eph. 5:20; Rev. 5:11-12). (See Face-Down Worship, and various Worship and Praise prayers).

368 - Prayer-Excursion Prayer (Pss. 137:1-4)

When one person or a group of people journey to a certain geographical location (usually a distance from their home), they can pray for a specific need at that location. (See Geographical-Prayer, Prayer-Journey Prayer, Prayer-Walking).

369 - Prayer-Journey Prayer (Pss. 126:5-6)

When people walk from one destination to another, they can pray for the specific needs of those along their routes. (See Geographical-Prayer, Prayer-Walking, Prayer-Excursion Prayer).

370 - Prayer-List Prayer (1 Tim. 2:1 ff.)

Using a list of requests to guide our praying helps discipline our times of prayer so that nothing is left out and everything is included in our intercession. (See Disciplined-Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

371 - Prayers Received by Christ (Heb. 7:8)

We will pray more effectively when we realize the prayers we offer on earth are received by Christ in heaven. He takes them and presents them to the Father (Heb. 7:8, 9:25). (See Intercessor's-Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

372 - Prayer-Walking (Gen. 13:17)

This is when individuals or groups of people come together to walk around a place or people and to pray for a specific need at that location, that is, "praying on site with insight" (see Joshua 1:2-5). (See Geographical-Praying, Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Prayer-Journey Prayer).

373 - Praying about Prayer (Matt. 6:5-13)

Because prayer is absolutely vital to our spiritual life, we must pray because: (1) it deepens our relationship with God; (2) it gives us inner peace and victory over negative emotions; (3) it protects us from evil; (4) it gets answers; (5) it gives insight into Scripture; and (6) it helps us influence others positively (Jer. 33:3; Matt. 7:7-8; Mark 11:22-24; John 14:13-14, 15:7, 15; James 4:2-4). (See Asking-Prayer, Believing-Prayer, Definition of Prayer, Trusting-Prayer).

374 - Praying Against the Lies of Your Enemy (Pss. 31:18)

We have difficulty dealing with those who lie about us, and we have to deal with the results in people who believe the "liars." We must (1) pray for strength to deal with the situation; (2) pray for a truthful way to handle the situation; (3) pray for the salvation of the "liars;" and (4) pray God's grace on them (Luke 6:27-31) so God can deal with them (Rom. 12:17-21). (See also Pss. 12:3, 31:18, 59:12, 63:11, 140:9-11; Isa. 54:17; John 8:44, 14:6). (See Affliction-Prayer, Persecution-Prayer and various Truth prayers).

375 - Pre-Answer to Prayer (Isa. 65:24)

Sometimes God works out circumstances before we pray, and then He can also answer after we pray. "Before they call, I will answer" (Isa. 65:24). (See Waiting in Prayer, Waiting Anxiously in Prayer).

$376 \operatorname{-Pregnancy-Prayer}\left(Gen.\,25{:}22\right)$

We should pray for our children before conception, and then ask God for healthy children and that they will come to know the Lord in salvation and grow in their faith (Gen. 25:22). (See Asking-Prayer, Blessing Children-Prayer, Supernatural-Praying).

377 - Presence of God-Prayer (Pss. 16:11)

We enjoy the presence of God because it strengthens us, heals us, and equips us to go back into an evil world. Sometimes God's presence comes automatically when we pray, at other times we must ask for His presence. There are times when His presence becomes more real to us than other times and we seem to pray more effectively. We find peace and joy in God's presence (Pss. 16:11, 27:5, 36:8, 37:4-5, 84:10; Acts 7:56; Gal. 2:20; Phil. 1:21, 3:10-14). (See Atmospheric-Worship, God-Pleasing Prayer and various Worship prayers).

378 - Pretend-Prayer (Matt. 6:5)

A man went into the street to pray "that they may be seen of men" (Matt. 6:5). "Two men went up into the temple to pray...." (Luke 18:10). The first did not pray correctly, he only pretended he was communicating with God because he said, "God, I thank You that I am not like other men" (Luke 18:11). True prayer is communication with God; pretend prayer is impressing those who heard us pray, or deceiving ourselves into thinking we are praying, when we're not (Isa. 1:15; Matt. 6:5, 21:28-32; 1 Cor. 11:5; 1 John 5:16). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Questionable-Praying, Wrong Motives in Prayer).

379 - Prevailing-Prayer (Jer. 12:1)

God wants us to prevail in prayer. Many times our flesh is weak and we need to stay focused on the things for which we are praying. There are times when God will test our sincerity, or our determination by challenging us, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Matt. 7:7). (See Continued-Prayer, Intermittent-Prayer, Persistent-Prayer).

380 - Priority-Faith Praying (Matt. 6:33)

We all have priorities, that is, what we do first when we arise in the morning, and what we do first at our job. Don't be surprised that God has priorities of things He wants done. We are more likely to get our prayers answered when our prayers match God's priorities. We should recognize the following priorities when we organize our time of prayer: (1) worship of God; (2) dedication of ourselves to holiness; (3) salvation of the lost; (4) the growth and health of believers; and (5) the growth and health of our local church. While this list is not complete, perhaps it reminds us that prayers for church buildings, or a salary increase, or other physical things are not as important as spiritual things (Prov. 3:9; Matt. 6:33; John 6:27 ff.; Acts 20:20). (See Desperate-Prayer, Urgent-Prayer).

381 - Priority-Praying (Acts 6:4)

Waiting tables in humanitarian projects is always good, but investing our time in prayer and Scripture is much more imperative. All work for God is good but prayer is imperative. We must (1) put prayer at the top of our priority; (2) pray about our work for God before we attempt to work for God; and (3) commit our time and energy to the priority of prayer (Exod. 17:4-13; Deut. 4:29; 2 Chron. 15:15; Pss. 34:4; Matt. 7:7; Acts 6:4; Col. 3:1). (See First Prayer Each Day, Jesus First-Prayer, Morning-Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

382 - Problem-Solving Prayer (Acts 27:33)

Believers should pray about all the problems they face in their lives. Sometimes God answers supernaturally; other times God wants us to use our common sense to solve the dilemmas we face. There are five steps to problem solving. First, define the problem clearly so we know what is the dilemma. As we pray about a problem, it usually becomes clear what we must do, or in prayer God directs us to a solution. Second, gather as much data about the problem as possible. Third, arrive at a possible solution to our problem. Sometimes this is one among many solutions. Ask God to give wisdom to follow the best solution. Fourth, apply the solution; then test it to see if it's the answer. Again, we should pray over the solution after we've tried to solve it. Fifth, learn principles on how to solve that problem, and similar ones in the future (Exod. 15:25, 17:4; Num. 11:11, 14:10, 16:19; 1 Sam. 30:6; Pss. 50:15, 91:15, 99:6; Jer. 15:1). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, and the various Victory prayers).

383 - Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer (Gal. 3:14)

This is requesting and receiving all the benefits promised to us by the Holy Spirit: (1) eternal life; (2) indwelling; (3) illuminating; (4) guidance; (5) sealing; (6) earnest of future blessings; and (7) His intercession for us (Joel 2:28; Zech. 12:4, 6; Luke 11:13; John 7:39; Acts 1:4-5, 2:1-4; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 12:13; 2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13-14; 1 Peter 1:22). (See Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Holy Spirit-Praying, Spirit-Helped Prayer).

384 - Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying (Rom. 12:3-8)

This is asking God to reveal to us our specific abilities, how to use them, when to use them, and where they will be effective. It's also praying for God to use our giftedness for His service and glory (Matt. 25:14, 15; Rom. 12:6, 8; 15:25; 1 Cor. 4:7, 12:4, 11; Eph. 4:11; 2 Tim. 1:6; 1 Peter 4:10). (See Spirit-Helped Prayer, Spiritual-Gift Praying and various Spiritual prayers).

$385 - Propitiation \, Intercession - Prayer \, (1 \, John \, 2:2)$

This is the prayer of Jesus to cleanse us from all sins, because His blood is sufficient to forgive the whole world; yet, His blood is efficient for those who repent and believe (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25-26; 2 Cor. 5:18; 1 Peter 1:18-20, 3:18; 1 John 2:2). (See Forgiveness Prayer, Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer).

386 - Prosper Bless-Prayer (Deut. 28:1-4)

This is when the blessor speaks or prays God's promise of physical and material blessing into the recipient's life (see Gen. 28:3; Deut. 28:1-4). (See various Blessing prayers).

387 - Protection-Prayer (Isa. 43:2, 3)

This is when you pray for God Himself to become a hedge around the recipient's life to protect him or her from the evil one. We should pray for God's protection, and yield ourselves to Him. But we should not tell God how to protect us. (1) God protects by guardian angels (Matt. 18:10; Heb. 12:2); (2) by sovereign acts; (3) by arranging circumstances; (4) by divine intervention; (5) by timing; and (6) by means we don't know about. However, God allowed Stephen (Acts 7:60) and James (Acts 12:1) to be martyred while He delivered Paul after stoning (Acts 14:20) (Gen. 12:3; Job 1:10; Pss. 84:11, 128:5-6; Rom. 12:20; Heb. 13:6). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer).

388 - Provision of Food Praise (Pss. 65:9-11)

God has created us with bodies that need food and fuel for energy to grow and work. Without the provision of sun, rain, and soil, our food wouldn't grow. So we must thank God for His provision of food for our health and strength. We must praise God for His plan for our physical life on earth (Gen. 1, 2:9; Pss. 65:9-11, 136:25; Prov. 6:8; Matt. 6:11; 1 Tim. 6:18, 19). (See Food-Provision Praise, Meal-Thanksgiving or Blessing Prayer, Strength and Nourishment Prayer).

389 - Purity-Praying (2 Peter 3:1)

Because our old nature constantly pulls us away from God, we must constantly pray and strive to be pure from sin. We must fill our minds with Scripture and the purity of Jesus Christ. Purity praying is repenting of evil thoughts and asking God to fill our minds with His purity (Dan. 12:10; Gal. 5:17-21; Eph. 5:3-5; Titus 2:14; James 4:8; 1 Peter 1:22; 2 Peter 3:1; 1 John 3:3). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Crucifixion-Prayer, Holiness-Prayer, Separation-Prayer).

390 - Questionable-Praying (Acts 1:24)

It is commendable that the early church prayed about the first decision it faced, that is, who should take Judas' place. Whether their decision was right or wrong is not the issue. It was their passion for prayer and their example of prayer that speaks to us. Many feel they should have waited for Paul, an apostle born out of due season (1 Cor. 15:8). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Wrong Motives in Prayer).

391 - Race-Preparation Prayer (Heb. 12:1)

The Christian life is a race; it is both a dash and a marathon. We must get rid of sin that hinders us, and discipline ourselves to run without baggage that would slow us down. We must remember others who have run well and look constantly to Jesus who is our goal and prize (Luke 9:26; 1 Cor. 9:24, 27; Gal. 5:7; Phil. 2:16, 3:10-14; Heb. 12:1). (See Disciplined-Prayer, Goal-Striving Prayer, Running a Good Race-Prayer).

392 - Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer (Pss. 97:5)

One of the many reasons we must worship God is His power in creating the universe, sustaining the universe, and His power to judge in the last days (Pss. 30:4, 60:6, 97:5; Hab. 1:12-13; Heb. 12:10). (See Creation-Inspired Worship).

393 - Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer (Gen. 16:13)

God is with us all the time, but often we do not realize it. However, when we need deliverance from our problems, temptations and trials, we must recognize God's presence in our prayers and ask Him to help us (Pss. 91:3-11, 139:7-13). (See Atmospheric-Worship, God's Presence Blessing, God-Recognition Prayer, Presence of God-Prayer).

394 - Redemption-Worship (Rev. 5:12)

Believers will worship God in heaven because of their redemption. Just as we now worship Christ for our redemption, so we will worship Him in heaven for redemption (John 3:35-36, 17:2; 2 Cor. 8:9; Phil. 2:9-11; 1 Tim. 1:17; Rev. 5:12). (See Crown-Casting Worship, and various Worship and Praise prayers).

395 - Redemptive Prayer for the Lost (Rom. 10:1)

We pay the price in redemptive intercession so that lost people are saved. In redemptive praying we identify ourselves with the ones for whom we are praying. It is physically draining and emotionally exhausting because the sin of those for whom we pray may break our hearts. (See Evangelistic-Prayer, Soul Winner's-Prayer, Unsaved-Prayer).

396 - Rejoicing for Others-Prayer (Phil. 1:4)

This is pouring out to God your happiness for the spiritual growth of other people so that we rejoice with them in their victories and spiritual growth (Phil. 3:17-18, 4:1). (See Loving-People Prayer, Others-Prayer).

397 - Rejoicing in Prayer (Pss. 5:11)

The emotional expression of joy and happiness to God because of what He has done for us in the past and for what He will do at the triumphant return of Jesus to earth (Deut. 32:43; 1 Sam. 2:1; Pss. 5:11, 9:14, 48:11, 63:7, 98:4; Prov. 29:2; Isa. 66:10, 14; Zech. 9:9; John 16:22; Phil. 1:18, 2:17, 3:1, 4:4; 1 Thess. 5:16; 1 Peter 1:8; Rev. 19:7). (See Anticipating His Return, Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, Watchful-Prayer).

398 - Reluctant Answers to Prayer (Gen. 6:6)

There are times when God doesn't immediately answer when we pray. Yet God may reluctantly or hesitantly answer our prayer. Because of Israel's sin, God told Moses, "I will not go up in your midst...for you are a stiff-necked people" (Exod. 33:3). But Moses kept praying, "If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here" (Exod. 33:15). Then God acquiesced to Moses' request, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest" (Exod. 33:14). When the Bible says, "the LORD was sorry" (Gen. 6:6), it does not mean that God changes His mind, "For I am the LORD, I do not change" (Mal. 3:6). This means His nature cannot change. But when people change, God acts differently toward them. A person may be blessed by God for obedience, but when the person sins, God must act differently to respond to their sin. (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, Overcoming God's Inertia-Prayer).

399 - Repentance-Prayer (Matt. 3:2, 8)

Repentance means to turn around. Repentance-Prayer realizes we have broken God's commands and we are sorry for what we have done. We confess our sin and ask to be restored to God's fellowship (1 John 1:9). Then we ask God to cleanse us and in repentance promise not to return to that sin (Pss. 66:18; John 9:31). True repentance is reflected in: (1) acknowledgment of personal responsibility for sin (Pss. 31:4); (2) godly sorrow (2 Cor. 7:9); (3) forsaking sin (Isa. 55:7); (4) asking God for forgiveness; and (5) bearing fruit that reflects repentance (Matt. 3:8, ELT) (Pss. 51:4-6; Isa. 1:18, 55:7; Ezra 8:31; Acts 2:38; 1 John 1:8-10). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Restorative Prayer, Sin-Realization Prayer, Sin-Stopping Prayer).

400 - Reserved-Prayer (John 11:33)

This is coming to God with a reserved attitude because we are not sure what we should ask. "But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You" (John 11:22). (See Trusting-Prayer, and various Wait prayers).

401 - Resistance-Prayer (John 9:31)

This comes from a resistant heart where we want to do our own will, and not the will of God. Sometimes resistance prayer tries to substitute something in place of God's perfect will for our life. Sometimes resistance prayer just hinders God's will and gives every excuse possible why we shouldn't do God's perfect will. (See Blocked-Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, Yielding to God in Prayer and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

402 - Responsibility-Praying (Pss. 5:7)

When God calls, we must answer in prayer with responsiveness and readiness. God knows our name and He can meet our need. We are close enough to God to recognize His voice, and to respond positively to Him. (See Continue in Prayer, Intermittent Prayer, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer).

403 - Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer (Gal. 6:1)

This is a request by a spiritual believer for a backslidden sinner to be convicted of his or her sin, then to turn back to God. This prayer also requests wisdom, ability, and humility to deal with them (Rom. 14:1, 15:1; Gal. 6:1; Heb. 12:13; James 5:19). (See Love One Another-Prayer, Others-Prayer, Restorative-Prayer).

404 - Restorative-Prayer (Isa. 55:7)

After we've sinned, we don't feel like praying, and we probably are not spiritually able to pray. But we have an obligation to return to God. We must use Restorative-Prayer because it's the right thing to do. First, we must deal with our sin (see Confession-Prayer) (1 John 1:9); second, we must repent (Matt. 3:8). (See Forgiveness-Prayer, Propitiation-Intercession Prayer, Repentance Prayer).

405 - Resurrection-Inspired Praying (1 Cor. 15:50)

The resurrection of Christ is the foundation for all praying, because: (1) we pray through Christ our advocate who intercedes for us at the right hand of the Father; (2) we are motivated to pray because of the indwelling Christ; and (3) we have a new relationship with the Father because we are made alive in Christ (Pss. 16:10; John 5:28-29, 11:25; 1 Cor. 15:50; Eph. 2:5-7; Col. 1:28; Heb. 7:24-25). (See Intercessor's-Prayer, Man in the Glory-Prayer).

406 - Reverent Praying (Pss. 111:10)

We must give total reverence and awe to God because there is none greater than He. He is all powerful (omnipotent), equally present in all places at all times (omnipresent), and all knowing of everything past, present, future, and all things potential that didn't happen (omniscient). (See Face-Down Worship and various Worship and Praise prayers).

407 - Revival of Our Nation-Prayer (2 Chron. 7:14)

We must pray against injustices in the world, asking God for spiritual revival by convicting society of its sin. Then we should pray for human leaders to call people back to God and/or stand against a particular sin of injustice. We pray for a public recognition of the nation's sin and a public repentance. We are praying for God to hold back the tide of iniquity that is destroying civilization. (See Government Leaders-Intercession, Great Commission-Prayer, Revival Prayer).

408 - Revival-Prayer (Pss. 85:6)

Revival happens when God pours His presence on His people. When a person faints, he must be revived. When God re-enters our life we get spiritual insight, renewed passion for prayer, vigor for Christian service, and there is a result called atmospheric revival, that is, we can experience God's presence, just as one feels moisture when it is not raining, but it is about to rain. Revival is not normative for daily living; it is therapeutic to restore us to the Spirit-filled life. Revival involves confession and repentance of sin, seeking God's forgiveness and cleansing and restoration of fellowship with Him (Pss. 84:6, 138:7; Isaiah 57:15; Joel 2:28; Acts 2:17; Heb. 3:2). (See Government Leaders-Intercession, Great Commission-Prayer, Revival of Our Nation-Prayer).

409 - Reward-Prayer (1 Cor. 3:14)

We receive compensation for our prayers or any other type of gratuity for the work we do for God. We pray for God to work through us, and when He does, we may or may not be given compensation. However, our greatest rewards and the spiritual benefits we get from serving God are joy, peace, fruit, and the confidence we get from being used by Him. Besides that, we also know God will reward us in heaven (2 Chron. 31:20; Matt. 25:21; Luke 16:10; 1 Cor. 3:12-15, 4:5; 2 Cor. 5:9; 1 Tim. 5:21). (See Fruit-Producing Prayer, Fruitful-Prayer).

410 - Righteous-People Prayer (1 Peter 3:12)

We can claim the promise that "the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers" (1 Peter 3:12). The description "righteous" means: (1) they are declared righteous in justification, so they are God's children; and (2) they do the right things in their life (Pss. 11:4, 65:2; John 9:31; James 5:16). (See Justification-Based Prayer, Propitiation-Intercession Prayer).

411 - Running a Good Race-Prayer (Gal. 5:7)

This is asking God for strength and determination to finish the race we face in life (Gal. 5:7; 1 Cor. 9:24-27; Phil. 3:14; 1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:8; Rev. 2:10). (See Goal-Striving Prayer, Race-Preparation Prayer).

412 - Sacrificial-Prayer (Heb. 13:15)

This is offering to God a sacrifice—not animals—but the sacrifice of praise to God with our liPss. When we speak to God, giving Him first place with our lips, we offer a "God pleasing prayer." (See Commitment-Prayer, Giving Ourselves to God-Prayer, God-Glorifying Prayer, God-Pleasing Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

413 - Safe-Keeping Prayer (Pss. 4:8)

We can have confidence God will keep us safe until we have done the task God called us to do. The servants of God are invincible until the task is finished. Therefore call on God for protection because no one knows the hour when God will call us home (Deut. 12:10, 33:27; Pss. 4:8, 54:4, 91:1, 141:9; Eccl. 9:12; Isa. 43:1; Matt. 10:31; Luke 2:10). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Spiritual-Protective Prayer).

414 - Saint Paul Fast and Prayer (Isa. 58:8)

This is a spiritual discipline when we fast and pray for wisdom in decision-making. In fasting, we gain a clearer perspective and insight as we make crucial decisions. In prayer, we delight ourselves in the Lord so that our desire becomes what He wants in this decision (see Pss. 37:4). We must seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness in our life so we can follow His principles in analyzing and making a decision (see Matt. 6:33). We must seek the Lord for the best decision to remain in the center of His will (see Rom. 12:1, 2). (See Insight-Prayer, Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Wisdom-Directed Prayer).

415 - Salvation-Appreciation Prayer (Rev. 7:10)

This is the grateful response of every believer to God because He has saved them (Pss. 3:8, 37:39, 68:19-20, 115:1; Isa. 43:11; Jonah 2:9; Zech. 9:9; Luke 3:6; John 4:22; Eph. 2:8-9). (See New Birth Praise-Prayer, Praise for Forgiveness, and Thanksgiving for Redemption).

416 - Salvation-Prayer (Luke 18:13)

This is a prayer to receive Jesus Christ for personal salvation (see Mark 10:14-16; Luke 6:28). Admit you have sinned (Rom. 3:23) and believe that Jesus Christ died for you (John 1:12), confess that Jesus Christ is Lord of your life (Rom. 10:9) and pray: Dear Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner. I believe that You died for my sins and arose from the grave. Come into my heart and save me. I receive You as my personal Savior. Amen. (See New Birth Praise-Prayer, Praise for Forgiveness, Thanksgiving for Redemption).

417 - Samuel Fast and Prayer (1 Sam. 7:6)

Fasting is a spiritual discipline in which we pray for revival and soul winning so that unbelievers get saved, and that God's people enslaved by sin might be delivered. Samuel "gathered (Israel) together at Mizpah, drew water, and poured it out before the LORD. And they fasted that day, and said there, 'We have sinned against the LORD' (1 Sam. 7:6). The prayer of revival is, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land" (2 Chron. 7:14). (See Evangelistic-Praying, Soul Winner's Prayer, Repentance Prayer, Revival Prayer).

418 - Sanctification-Prayer (1 Thess. 4:3, 7)

This is a prayer of asking God to make us holy and keep us from sin. It is a prayer for self-discipline to keep separate from sin (Matt. 15:19; Acts 15:20, 29; 1 Cor. 3:16, 5:11; 2 Cor. 6:14-17; Gal. 5:9; Eph. 5:3, 5; Col. 3:5; 1 Peter 1:16). (See Clean-Conscience Praying, Holiness-Prayer, Purity-Praying, Sanctification-Praying).

419 - Sanctified-Praying (Heb. 10:14)

The word "sanctify" means "to separate" and has a threefold application: (1) thanking God for the new position in Christ we received in past sanctification when we accepted Christ as Savior; (2) asking God to continue working in our lives in present sanctification to keep us from the power of sin; (3) thanking God for future sanctification when we will be separated from the presence of sin (Acts 20:32, 26:13; Rom. 15:16; 1 Cor. 1:2; Eph. 5:26; Heb. 10:14, 2:11; Jude 1). (See Holiness-Prayer, Purity-Praying, Sanctification-Prayer, Separation-Prayer).

420 - Sanctuary-Prayer (Rev. 21:22)

God was present in the Old Testament in the tabernacle/temple. A sanctuary is a place where God dwells. Now all believers are indwelt by Christ, so that makes their bodies His sanctuary. Therefore, when we pray from our hearts, we are praying from our sanctuary (1 Kings 8:10-11, 27; Isa. 66:1; John 1:14, 4:23; Col. 1:27, 2:9, 3:1-3; Rev. 21:22). (See Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Christ Formed in Us-Prayer, Torn-Veil Prayer and various Jesus prayers).

421 - Sarcastic-Worship (John 19:2-3)

Throughout Christian history there have been public "Christian" acts of worship by people who don't know Christ. Whether it's public prayer or some other "Christian" recognition, it doesn't bring honor to Christ, any more than did the crown of thorns on the head of Christ. "Why would the world take something so special like the crown we give to Christ, and mock it?" (Pss. 22:6; Isa. 53:3; Matt. 27:27-31; Mark 15:17-20; Luke 23:11). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Pretend-Prayer).

422 - Satanic-Prayer (Rev. 13:13)

In the future tribulation, satan's representative (the antichrist) will copy the work of God and bring fire from heaven in the sight of people, just as the Holy Spirit did on the day of Pentecost (Joel 2:28-32; Acts 2:1-4; Rev. 13:13). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Sarcastic-Worship).

423 - Say-It-Faith Prayer (Mark 11:23)

When the intercessors have confident faith in God that their prayers are both heard and will be answered, they can (1) announce the prayer goal publicly; (2) ask specifically for the request; and (3) know that with confidence they will receive their request because they pray in faith. Some illustrations of Say-It-Faith are: Hannah praying for a son (1 Sam. 1:7-19); Elijah praying for rain (1 Kings 18:42); Elisha praying for his servant to see angels surrounding them (2 Kings 6:16-17) (Matt. 21:21; Rom. 4:18 ff.; Heb. 11:6, 17; James 5:17, 18; 1 John 5:14-15). (See Asking-Prayer, Interventional-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Prayer, and various Faith prayers).

424 - Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer (Prov. 21:24)

Because the scoffer thinks he is always right, he can't see right principles nor live by them. He constantly tears down anything that disagrees with his orientation to life; he is not a positive builder in life. He doesn't build up himself, he doesn't build up his family, nor does he build up his friends. The scoffer who thinks he knows it all actually can't listen to those who want to help him, nor will he listen to Christian leaders who try to correct him or give him God's principles by which he should live. "Scoffers set a city aflame, but wise men turn away wrath" (Prov. 29:8). The scoffer is headed toward punishment or destruction. "Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall" (Prov. 16:18). One of the problems with pride is that it creates a false security in the scoffer when in fact they suffer the consequences of their own ignorance. The scoffer has no confidence in God's ability to guide him by right principles. Self-will and rebellion go hand in hand. "A haughty look, a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked are sin" (Prov. 21:4). We must ask God to protect us from scoffers and pray that the critical nature of a scoffer does not influence us (Prov. 14:6, 15:12, 19:25, 29; 21:24, 22:10, 24:9). (See Accusation-Prayer, Affliction-Prayer, Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer).

425 - Scripture-Prayer (Col. 4:16)

In our prayers it is helpful to voice the words of Scripture. Our words are probably closer to the heart of God when we use Scripture in our prayers, than when we use our own words, thoughts, and requests. (See Bible-Prayer, Word-Praying).

426 - Searching for God in Prayer (Heb. 11:6)

We should search diligently to know God more intimately and have His presence manifested in our lives. The key to getting our prayers answered is searching by faith and finding God (Pss. 105:4, 106:21; Isa. 55:6; Jer. 29:13; John 3:18-19, 4:23; Heb. 11:6). (See God-Hunger Prayer, Hunger-Prayer, Thirsty-Prayer).

427 - Self-Control Prayer (2 Tim. 4:5)

Prayer includes asking God to help us control ourselves so that we can live according to the standards of the Word of God. Jesus wants us to be disciplined. That's why He invited men to be His disciples (Luke 9:1, 23-26; Rom. 8:13; Col. 3:5; 2 Tim. 4:5). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Discipline-Prayer, Race-Preparation Prayer).

428 - Self-Denying Prayer (Mark 8:34)

The world teaches self-fulfillment, and self-actualization, and even self-pity. The fanatic goes to the opposite extreme, self-denial, self-groveling, self-hatred, or self-destruction. The true Christian doesn't become absorbed with self, either to praise it or to destroy it. Even Jesus said we must "love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:39). In this place Jesus didn't mean making self our chief love. No! We are to have a strong self-perception, not a weak self. We are to have a healthy self, not a sick self or a neurotic self. But the secret of the Christian life is to yield our self to God. When Jesus said, "deny himself" (Mark 8:34) or "say no to himself," He was telling us to give ourselves unreservedly to God. "No longer I...but Christ" (Gal. 2:20) (Matt. 10:38-39, 16:22-25; John 12:25-26; Rom. 8:13; Gal. 5:25, 6:14; Col. 3:5; 1 Tim. 1:15; 2 Tim. 3:2). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Disciplined-Prayer, Self-Control Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

429 - Self-Discipline Prayer (Titus 2:5, 6, 12)

We should ask God to give us self-control so that we might serve Him more effectively and so that He might be glorified through us. Since inward control is the beginning of outward discipline, we must pray for God's help in the discipline process (Job 36:10; Matt. 10:24, 25; Luke 9:23, 14:26; Titus 2:5, 6, 12). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Disciplined-Prayer, Race-Preparation Prayer).

430 - Separation-Prayer (2 Cor. 6:17)

A Christian should live in the world, and probably work among unsaved people with their ungodly lifestyle, but Christians shouldn't live by the world's sinful standards. There's a twofold concern: first, to influence the unsaved with righteousness so they can be won to Christ; second, to keep ourselves pure so sinners don't contaminate us with evil. We are "in the world, but not of the world" (John 17:15-16) (Num. 16:21, 26, 45; Ezra 6:21, 10:11; Prov. 9:6; Isa. 52:11; Acts 2:40; 2 Cor. 6:14-18). (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Crucifixion-Prayer, Holiness-Prayer, Purity-Praying, Self-Denying Prayer).

431 - Servanthood-Prayer (Mark 9:35)

If we want power with God, we must serve our fellow traveler on this earth. Servanthood flows out of our intimacy with the Father. We must inwardly submit to God, knowing the pride and sinfulness of our human heart. If we are clean and humble, are we ready to serve? Servanthood is a gift we receive from God, and we give it to others. Jesus is the servant who ministers in us first, and then through us to others (Matt. 20:26; Mark 9:35, 10:43-45; 2 Cor. 8:9; Phil. 2:5-8; Heb. 5:8, 9, 12:2). (See Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Service-Prayer, Worker's-Prayer).

432 - Service-Prayer (Heb. 5:4)

God's call involves: (1) a burden to serve Him (I must); (2) a desire to serve Him (I want); and (3) fruit in past service (Mark 1:20, 3:23, 6:7, 8:1, 9:35; John 15:16; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 5:4). (See Servanthood-Prayer, Worker's-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

433 - Sexual-Defense Praying (Prov. 7:18)

The New Testament suggests there are three things that tempt a person to sin, "For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world" (1 John 2:16). So, a whorish woman uses all three to tempt a man. First, she knows a man wants to satisfy his physical sexual appetite, so she offers him sex. Second, a whorish woman uses the lust of the eyes to tempt a man, so she casts her beauty and flashing eyes as a lure to tempt a man into a sexual tryst. Third, a whorish woman appeals to the pride of life, a man's ego, enticing a man by flattering him to be "Number One." A man's ego is independently rebellious to any control, so the trollop tempts him to stray from the path of God (Prov. 2:16, 17), come to her bed (Prov. 7:16), and to enjoy the experience of "prohibitive dreams" (Prov. 7:18). But what the man doesn't know is that when he thinks he is "Number One," the whorish woman has really won, and he is in her bondage. (See Clean-Conscience Prayer, Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Purity-Prayer, Separation-Prayer).

434 - Sibling-Intercession Prayer (Gen. 27:11)

We should pray for God's will to be accomplished spiritually and physically in the lives of our physical brother(s) and sister(s). This means yielding them to God in prayer and asking God to bless them. (See Blessing Children-Prayer, Family Heritage-Prayer).

435 - Sick Person's-Prayer (Pss. 41:3, 4)

This is a prayer for good health and healing. We can ask God to take away the cause of our sickness and give us healing and make us well (Exod. 15:26; Pss. 6:2, 41:3-4; Mal. 4:2; Matt. 4:23, 10:1; Mark 3:15; Heb. 12:13; James 5:15). (See Asking-Prayer, Daniel's Fast and Prayer, Healing-Prayer).

436 - Silent-Prayer (Pss. 39:1-3)

The power of silence comes not from the absence of words but from the presence of God in our lives. Silent or "wordless" praying is a learned art and a skilled discipline. But silence is difficult because often it may seem as if nothing is happening. When we come silently to God, He shines the light of His presence into our souls and we realize that we can't offer any excuses for our failures or rationalize away any of our sin. Silence forces us to see our sins more clearly. Silence helps us change our actions and correct our bad decisions. (See Fellowship-Praying, Silent-Worship Prayer, Solitude and Prayer).

437 - Silent-Worship Prayer (Rev. 8:1)

Sometimes we wait in the presence of God, quietly and still. Some may think nothing is happening when nothing is said between two people, but even in silence, communication can take place. We learn from God in silence, and He receives communication from us (Pss. 35:22, 83:1; Eccl. 3:7; Isa. 41:1; Hab. 2:20; Rev. 8:1). (See Intimacy-Prayer, Silent-Prayer, Written-Prayer).

438 - Sin Unto Death-Prayer (1 John 5:16)

This is an intercession we are prohibited from praying. "If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death" (1 John 5:16). A sin unto death is a premature physical death of a sinning brother who has crossed God's line of mercy. We should not pray for him (Num. 15:30-31; 1 Sam. 2:25; Matt. 12:31-32; 1 Cor. 10:27-30; 2 Tim. 4:14; Heb. 6:4-6, 10:26-31; 2 Peter 2:20-22; 1 John 5:16). (See Hypocritical-Prayer, Pretend-Prayer, Unbelief-Prayer, Unpardonable-Prayer).

439 - Singing-Prayer (Pss. 95:2)

We should voice our worship and request in music to God. This expresses the love of our hearts because music expresses our deep feelings. Most of the book of Psalms was sung by God's people in the Old Testament; therefore prayers were divinely given to be sung. I spend more time praying on Sunday morning than any other day of the week. It's then I open my hymnal and sing my prayers to God. They are easy to find; the hymns that end in "Amen" are usually prayers (Pss. 7:7, 33:3, 40:3, 96:1; Isa. 5:1, 42:10, 12:5; Zeph. 3:17; 1 Cor. 14:15; Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16; Rev. 14:3, 15:1). (See Hymn-Prayer, Worship-Roar Prayer).

440 - Sin-Realization Prayer (Eph. 4:22)

We must come to realize that we have a sin nature, and there is a constant threat of temptation to sin. Because sin can permeate every part of our life, we must do all we can to counter the influence of sin while we pray for God's forgiveness of our sin. Then we must pray for God's power to counteract sin's great influence in our life. (See Deceitful-Heart Prayer, Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, Repentance Prayer).

441 - Sin-Stopping Intercession (1 John 5:16)

Sometimes we need to intercede for a sinning Christian so he may be convicted of his sin, see the error of his way, and repent to serve God with a life that is victorious over sin (Gen. 18:23-33, 19:27-29, 20:7, 17; Exod. 32:10-14, 31-32; Num. 12:13; Job 42:7-9; Pss. 106:23; Ezek. 22:30; James 5:15-16; 1 John 5:16). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Life-Derailing Prayer, Repentance-Prayer).

442 - Sober-Praying Prayer (Prov. 23:31)

We should commit ourselves to abstain from drinking alcohol and we should pray to keep that commitment. What does the book of Proverbs mean when it describes the drunk? Is this someone who takes a social drink, or is it someone who gets dead drunk, or is it an alcoholic, that is, someone addictive to alcohol? There are three stages of drunkenness: first, having the facilities impaired by alcohol; second, the habitual excessive use of alcohol; and third, acute or chronic drunkenness, that is, being addicted. Since the Christian should have self-discipline, the drunk is never described as a spiritual person because a drunk is controlled by the bottle. Also the drunk is not a wise person for the wise person thinks rightly, and the drunk does not think rightly. Finally, the drunk cannot be righteous, because the righteous person lives by biblical principles, and the drunk does not. Rather, the drunk lives to please the flesh (Gen. 9:21; Prov. 5:11, 20:1, 23:29-35; Isa. 5:11; Amos 6:6; Eph. 5:18). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Disciplined-Prayer, Self-Control Prayer, Self-Discipline Prayer).

443 - Solitude and Prayer (Luke 5:16)

Jesus often sought solitude to gain strength by fellowshiping with His heavenly Father. It's good to block out the sounds of this earth so we can hear God's voice speaking to us. Solitude is a discipline to develop, but it's more than just being quiet. When we control our outward voice, we must also control our inward thoughts so that we focus on God Himself. "Be still to know Your God" (Pss. 46:10, ELT). We seek a closer intimacy with God in solitude and stillness. It involves meditation on Scripture, prayer, and worshiping God (Exod. 15:11; Pss. 83:18, 100:3; Prov. 25:11; Eccl. 3:7, 5:2; Hab. 2:20; Zech. 2:13; Matt. 4:11, 14:23, 17:1-9, 26:36-46; Mark 6:31; Luke 5:16; Phil 3:10 ff.; 1 John 2:3, 5). (See Silent-Prayer, Silent-Worship Prayer).

444 - Soul Winner's-Prayer (Prov. 11:30)

The King James Bible says, "He who wins souls is wise" (Prov. 11:30), which points us to one-on-one evangelism in the New Testament, e.g., Jesus and Nicodemus (John 3:1-8), Jesus and the woman at the well (John 4:7-30), and Philip and the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:26-40). The soul winner should (1) pray for opportunities to present the gospel; (2) pray for the correct approach and words to say; (3) pray for conviction in the heart of the lost person; and (4) pray for a successful response by the lost person (Mark 1:16 ff., 2:14; Luke 5:1 ff.; John 1:43, 12:26). (See Evangelistic-Praying, Great Commission Prayer, New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying).

445 - Speaking a Blessing-Prayer (Num. 6:27)

This refers to a blessor saying out loud the blessing over a recipient, knowing by faith that God will do what is said. (See various Faith, Blessing and Bless prayers).

446 - Spirit-Helped Prayer (Rom. 8:26-27)

Sometimes we need the enablement of the Holy Spirit to help us pray. We may be weak, doubtful, or impatient. The Holy Spirit will help us if we ask. He can keep us in focus, or bring to mind our prayer request, or motivate us when we want to give up. Also the Holy Spirit can take our wrongly phrased prayers and present them properly to God. (See Anointed-Praying, Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Holy Spirit-Praying, Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Spirit-Insight Prayer).

447 - Spiritual-Blessing Prayer (Eph. 1:3)

Our blessing can lead us to praise God (see Eph. 1:3). (See Spiritual Strength-Prayer and various Bless prayers).

448 - Spiritual-Gift Praying (1 Peter 4:10)

This is asking God to help you discover and develop your spiritual gift, and then praying for God to use your spiritual gift in the life of others, specifically that they may develop spiritual gifts in their own unique way. It's also praying for God to use our giftedness for His service and glory (Matt. 25:14, 15; Rom. 1:11, 12:6, 8; 15:25; 1 Cor. 4:7, 7:7, 12:1 ff., 12:4, 11; 13:2; Eph. 4:11; 2 Tim 1:6; 1 Peter 4:10). (See Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Spirit-Helped Prayer).

449 - Spiritual-Growth Prayer (2 Peter 3:18)

We should ask God to cause us to grow spiritually as we apply the principles and discipline of spiritual growth (Pss. 1:1-3; Jer. 15:16; Mal. 4:2; Mark 4:27; Eph. 4:15; Col. 2:8-9; 1 Tim. 4:6; 2 Tim. 3:14-17; 1 Peter 2:2; 2 Peter 3:18). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Disciplined-Prayer and various Spiritual prayers).

450 - Spiritual-Insight Prayer (Pss. 119:18)

Because we are spiritually blinded from sin (2 Cor. 4:3, 4), we must ask God to remove our blindness, and cause us to see spiritual things and/or truth (John 16:13). This doesn't mean God gives us knowledge we don't have; He only illuminates the truth we know or study. We must study, dig, memorize, and meditate to learn more about God from His Word (2 Tim. 2:15). (Josh. 1:8; Pss. 119:11, 18; 2 Thess. 2:11; John 12:39-40, 14:26, 16:13). (See Blind-Prayer, and various Spiritual prayers).

451 - Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer (Prov. 1:2, 3)

We can ask God to help us learn (memorize, acquire, or return) facts and information that would make us spiritually wise. The book of Proverbs teaches us to give ourselves to acquiring facts or information that we may be wise (which is the proper application of facts) (Pss. 119:88, 100; Prov. 1:5, 9:9, 12:1; 1 Cor. 10:15). (See Insight-Prayer, Spiritual-Insight Prayer, and various Spiritual prayers).

452 - Spiritual-Protective Prayer (Pss. 23:1)

God protects those who obey Him and follow His leading. The secret is relationship with God and "prayer is relationship" (Pss. 23:1, 79:13; Isa. 40:11; Jer. 23:3-4; Micah 5:2-4; John 10:11, 14, 27-28; Heb. 13:20; 1 Peter 2:25). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Unknown-Danger Prayer).

453 - Spiritual-Stability Prayer (Eph. 5:6)

Asking God to establish us and other believers in sound doctrine, so we will not be spiritually shaken or emotionally upset by false teaching (Matt. 24:6; John 14:1, 27; Acts 20:28 ff.; Eph. 5:6; 2 Thess. 2:2). (See Disentanglement-Prayer, Doctrinal-Prayer, Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, and various Spiritual prayers).

454 - Spiritual-Strength Prayer (Rom. 1:16)

Is asking God to give us strength so we will be able to do the right thing in life. When we know what is the right thing to do, we can ask God to give us strength to do it (Pss. 110:2, 5; Rom. 1:16; 2 Cor. 4:17; Eph. 1:18, 19; 2:10, 3:7, 20; Phil. 4:14). (See Strength and Nourishment-Prayer and various Spiritual prayers).

455 - Spiritual-Truth Prayer (Titus 2:1)

This is a request for help in the process of teaching the Bible that will make people spiritually healthy. It is also a prayer for God to use the content of Scripture in the lives of others (1 Tim. 1:10; 2 Tim 1:7, 13; Titus 2:1, 8). (See Spiritual-Insight Prayer, and various Spiritual prayers).

456 - Spiritual-Understanding Prayer (Eph. 3:18)

(See Blind-Prayer, Insight-Prayer, Spiritual-Insight Prayer)

457 - Spiritual-Victory Prayer (2 Cor. 2:14)

This is a request to overcome sin in our life and asking God to give us power for a triumphant life for God (Pss. 106:47; Rom. 8:37; 1 Cor. 15:57; Phil. 4:13; Col. 3:15, 16). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Transforming-Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

458 - Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer (Col. 1:9)

This is asking God to help us use the knowledge we have so we will become wise in all we do. (See Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Spiritual-Truth Prayer).

459 - Spouse-Inspired Prayer (1 Pet. 3:9)

Sometimes our spouse understands God's plan better than we do, and we should join them in prayer. It's not a matter of who is right or wrong; doing God's plan is always right. (See Family-Heritage Prayer).

460 - Stability-Prayer (Eph. 4:13, 14)

This is asking God to keep us close to Christ and to the truth of Scripture so we will not be swayed nor pulled away from Christ by any temptations, false doctrine, or sin (Eph. 4:13-14). (See Spiritual Victory-Prayer, Strength and Nourishment Prayer).

461 - Stir Up Your Spiritual Gift-Prayer (2 Tim. 1:6)

We must stir up our spiritual gift for Christian service because every fire tends to burn itself out if not refueled continually. We stir up our spiritual gifts with Scripture and prayer (1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 1:6; 2 Peter 1:4-8; Jude 5). (See Promise of Spiritual Giftedness-Praying, Spiritual-Gift Praying).

462 - Storm-Prayer (Acts 27:25)

Storms will come into the life of every believer, and they will come from a variety of sources: financial, physical, business, family, and spiritual attacks from the enemy. We must learn to pray: (1) in preparation before storms come; (2) what to do in storms; (3) how to testify in storms and after them; and (4) for strength to get through storms (Deut. 8:5; Job 5:7, 14:1, 23:10; Pss. 94:12, 119, 143; Prov. 3:11-12; Isa. 41:10; Matt. 24:9; Acts 27:25; Rom. 5:3-4; 2 Cor. 4:17; James 1:12). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Desert-Praying, Difficulties-Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Purifying-Prayer, Unknown-Danger Prayer).

463 - Strength-Prayer (Gen. 17:1)

This is asking the Almighty to nourish us with Himself, because God's name Almighty means strength and nourishment (Gen. 17:1, 35:11, 49:25; Num. 24:4; Job 11:7; 2 Cor. 6:18; Rev. 1:8). (See Food-Provision Praise, Provision of Food-Prayer, Table-Blessing Prayer).

464 - Striving-Prayer (Rom. 15:30)

This is interceding with all our energy, usually because it's an extremely important request, or it's a life-or-death issue. This is praying with a burden or laboring in prayer. In Mountain-Moving Prayer we strive in prayer, but we know we get the request we seek. However, when we are not sure of the answer, we strive in prayer (Luke 13:24; Rom. 1:10, 15:30; 1 Thess. 3:10; 2 Tim. 2:5). (See Interventional-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer, Reluctant Answer to Prayer).

465 - Suffering-Prayer (1 Peter 4:12, 13)

We should pray when we suffer persecution or pain for the cause of Christ. We should pray (1) about our persecution; (2) for our testimony; (3) for grace to endure; and (4) for God to use our suffering for His glory (Luke 22:15, 24:24; Acts 3:12; Rom. 8:17; Phil. 1:29; 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 11:25; 1 Peter 2:20, 3:14, 4:12, 13). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Pain-Praying, Protection-Prayer, Unknown-Danger Prayer).

466 - Supernatural-Praying (Acts 15:18)

Abraham believed in miracles, he believed God could bring dead people back to life (e.g., Isaac, Gen. 22) and God "calls those things which do not exist as though they did" (Rom. 4:17). We cannot do miracles, but God can; He can do anything He wants to do. Before you call for miracles outside of yourself, be sure God does a miracle in your life by transforming your inner person (Gen. 18:14; Luke 1:37; Acts 15:18; Rom. 4:17; Heb. 11:6). (See Healing-Prayer, Interventional-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer and various Faith prayers).

467 - Supernatural-Results Prayer (Acts 14:19-20)

Sometimes God delivers us by a miracle, such as raising Paul from the dead. At times others have been martyred (Acts 12:1). Some have had to suffer for long periods before delivery, or they are never delivered. Some die under persecution. D. L. Moody said, "The man of God is invincible, until God is finished with him." Don't be too quick to ask for a miraculous healing; God may have other purposes for your suffering. Don't hesitate to ask for a miracle because of your doubt; God may plan to use your "prayer of faith" for deliverance. But if you ask for a miracle for the wrong reason, or the request is against Scripture, "test the spirits" (1 John 4:1). It may not be of God (2 Kings 6:13-17; Pss. 37:1-5, 91:1-13; Jer. 32:27, 33:3; John 14:12; Phil. 4:13). (See Healing-Prayer, Interventional-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying).

468 - Support-Prayer (Matt. 18:19)

Sometimes when you want an answer for which you pray but you lack sufficient faith, you can agree with your prayer partner because of his or her strong faith and thus you may get the answer you seek (See Two-Prayer).

469 - Surety-Praying (2 Peter 1:10)

Give attention to our Christian responsibilities so we can be sure of our salvation. We search our lives for doubts when we are not sure of salvation (or we doubt our salvation), and then pray to make sure we meet the qualification of salvation (Matt. 7:24, 25; Luke 6:44-45; Rom. 3:28; 2 Peter 1:10; 1 John 3:19; Rev. 22:14). (See Confident-Praying, Honest-Prayer, Integrity-Praying Yielding-Prayer).

$470 - Surprise-Response \, Prayer \, (Rev. \, 1:10)$

Sometimes God surprises us in prayer. He does something we don't expect. When that happens, some respond in silent gratitude, others shout happily, still others cry out in fear. We should fall at Jesus' feet and worship Him (Gen. 17:17, 18:12-14, 28:12-22; Exod. 3:1 ff., 34:5-8; Judges 6:11-23; 1 Sam. 3:1-11; Isa. 6:1-13; Jer. 1:4-10; Mark 1:16-20, 2:13-14; Acts 9:1-19; Rev. 1:10). (See Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Worship-Prayer and various Thanksgiving prayers).

471 - Surveillance-Prayer (Pss. 59:1-3)

We don't know when unsaved people watch us, nor do we know whether God is working in their hearts to bring them to salvation, or the evil one is motivating them to destroy us. We should pray for protection, for wisdom to do the right thing, for protection from the enemy, and for God to thwart their evil intents. (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Unknown-Danger Prayer).

472 - Table-Blessing Prayer (Mark 6:41)

This is thanking God for the food at mealtime and asking Him to use the food to prosper the physical body. (See Provision of Food-Prayer, Strength and Nourishment-Prayer).

473 - Tarrying-Prayer (Luke 24:49)

God will usually answer when we wait in His presence for our answer. "Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the LORD!" (Pss. 27:14). "I wait for You" (Pss. 25:21). The disciples were told by Jesus, "Tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:49). (See Continued-Praying, Persistent-Prayer, Prevailing-Prayer, Waiting in Prayer).

474 - Tears in Prayer (Luke 6:21)

Many in Scripture cried tears when praying: David (Pss. 6:6), Jeremiah (Jer. 9:1), Paul (Acts 20:19), Mary (Luke 7:36 ff.) and Jesus (Heb. 5:7). See Luke 6:21 for reasons for tears (Job 16:20; Pss. 42:3, 56:8; Isa. 16:9; Matt 5:4; Acts 20:31; 2 Cor. 2:4, 7:7 ff.). (See Abandonment-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer, Weeping-Prayer).

475 - Temporary Answer to Prayer (Deut. 33:25)

Sometimes God doesn't permanently answer our request, but sends a short-term solution. God doesn't promise unlimited solutions to all our problems. But God does promise to help us each day in our problems. "As your days, so shall your strength be" (Deut. 33:25) (Exod. 16:16, 35; Matt. 6:11; John 6:31; 1 Tim. 6:8). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Directional Answer-Prayer, "No" Answer to Prayer).

476 - Temptation-Victory Prayer (Luke 22:40)

Some great Bible heroes gave in to temptation, e.g., Noah got drunk, Abraham lied, Moses was egotistical, David committed adultery, Elijah got despondent, and Peter denied the Lord. The believer is expected to overcome temptation (1 Cor. 10:13) and is to pray to be victorious over temptation (Pss. 124:7; Jer. 29:11; Luke 16:26; John 10:28; 1 Cor. 10:13; 2 Cor. 1:10; James 5:11; 1 Peter 1:5; 2 Peter 2:9). (See various Victory prayers).

477 - Test the Spirits-Prayer (1 John 4:1)

We are exhorted to "test the spirits" when we are tempted to do something contrary to Scripture. This could be satan tempting us to do something that is wrong. Also, we should "test our own spirit" for sometimes our thinking may be wrong. This is a prayer against the false teaching that Jesus Christ didn't come in the flesh. It's also a prayer that false teachers will be exposed and rejected (Deut. 13:1-3; 1 Kings 18:19-21; Isa. 56:10-11; Matt. 7:14-15; Rom. 16:17; 2 Peter 2:1; 1 John 2:18-22; 2 John 7). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Insight-Prayer, Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Warfare-Praying).

478 - Testimony-Prayer (Acts 22:3)

When Paul couldn't preach, he shared his testimony of how God saved him. Thus, Paul's life became a sermon. In the same way, our life should be a sermon, and we should tell others what God has done for us. A testimony includes (1) what we were before salvation; (2) what happened at our salvation experience; and (3) what difference Christ makes to us now. We should pray for opportunities to share our testimony and for God to use our testimony in the lives of others (2 Kings 5:1-4; Prov. 11:30; Dan. 12:3; Matt. 28:19-20; John 4:7; Acts 8:30, 22:3; 2 Tim. 2:2). (See Evangelism Prayer, John the Baptizer Fast, Soul Winner's-Prayer).

479 - Testing Response of Prayer (James 1:12)

God allows tests in our life to determine our love and obedience to Him. He also uses tests to make us repent and change our ways. Thus tests help peel away bad attitudes, habits, and sins. In the final analysis, tests should teach us something about God, ourselves, and how to live (Gen. 44:1-4; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:7). (See Pain-Praying, Suffering-Prayer).

480 - Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer (2 Cor. 2:14)

This is being grateful for deliverance from past sins and depraved living. (See Deliverance-Prayer, Overcoming-Prayer).

481 - Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer (Pss. 106:1)

Our human response to God's love for us should be thanksgiving. In love He punishes us to correct us and bring us back to Himself. God's constant love is seen in His continual work in our lives to transform us into the image of His Son, Jesus Christ (Pss. 103:17, 106:1, 119:68; Matt. 19:17; Rom. 5:20-21). (See Gratitude-Prayer, Praise-Prayer, Praise-Worship and various Thanksgiving prayers).

$482 - Thanksgiving \ for \ God's \ Past \ Work \ in \ Our \ Lives-Prayer \ (Pss. \ 105:1)$

We should express gratitude for God's past work in our lives when He guided us, forgave us, used us, and protected us (1 Chron. 16:7 ff., 29:3; Job 5:2 ff.; Pss. 91:1-12, 105:1; Isa. 12:5-6, 42:10-12). (See Gratitude-Prayer, and various Thanksgiving and Praise prayers).

483 - Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer (Pss. 107:2)

We should give outer expression with our mouths for the inward salvation we've experienced. The fact God has redeemed us from sin should motivate us to tell everyone about what God has done for us (Pss. 31:5, 107:2, 119:46; Jer. 15:16; Matt. 10:18; Acts 4:13-14; 1 Peter 3:15). (See various Thanksgiving and Praise prayers).

484 - Thanksgiving-Prayer (Eph. 1:16)

This is giving God a great crescendo of thanks and praise for everything He has done for others and for us. Just as we should grow in every area of our Christian lives, so we should grow in our giving of thanks to God (1 Thess. 1:3-4, 3:9; 2 Thess. 1:3, 2:13). (See various Thanksgiving prayers).

485 - Thirst-Praying (Rev. 22:17)

This is recognizing our unquenchable spiritual need that can be filled by only God Himself. We come to God and His Word for the supply of life-giving spiritual water, and for enjoyable fellowship with Him (Pss. 42:1, 2; Matt. 5:5; John 4:13-15, 7:37; 1 Peter 2:2; Rev. 7:16). (See Hunger-Prayer, Well-Digging Prayer).

486 - Today's Response in Prayer (Heb. 3:7)

We must pray to serve God effectively today because we cannot serve Him in the past or future. We can only obey God now (Pss. 95:7; Isa. 55:6; 2 Cor. 6:1-2; Heb. 3:7; James 4:13-15). (See Daily-Prayer, First Prayer Each Day, Morning-Prayer).

487 - Tongue-Discipline Prayer (James 3:8)

God has designed prayer to change our hearts so we can properly serve and glorify Him. But our tongue often gets in the way and hurts the things we would do for God. But the tongue is only an instrument of the heart, so we must pray for a transformed heart to have a disciplined tongue and disciplined body. Because God will punish all lies, we must discipline ourselves to tell the truth (Pss. 10:3, 12:3-4, 17:10, 64:3, 73:8-9; Prov. 12:18, 15:1, 2; 16:27, 26:20-28; Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:11; James 3:8; 1 Peter 3:10; 2 Peter 2:18). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Old-Nature Praying, Transformation-Prayer).

488 - Torn-Veil Prayer (Mark 15:38)

The "torn-veil" is God's invitation to approach Him in prayer. The "torn veil" in the temple when Christ died is a "symbolic message" that we now have immediate access to God (Eph. 2:18; Heb. 4:16). We can act on Jesus' invitation, "Come to Me" (Matt. 11:28) and pray at any time or in any situation (Exod. 26:31-34, 40:21; Lev. 16:2; Matt. 27:51; Heb. 4:14-16, 6:19, 9:12, 10:12; Rev. 22:17). (See Intercessor's-Prayer, Jesus' Name-Prayer, New Covenant-Praying, and various Worship prayers).

$489-Transfer-Faith\ Praying\ (1\ Sam.\ 7:8)$

This is transferring the faith of the leader to the followers, and sometimes vice versa (1 Sam. 14:7), when both agree together to express faith. Apparently, Jonathan's faith influenced his armor-bearer so they together won a great victory over a large number of enemies, "Do all that is in your heart. Go then; here I am with you, according to your heart" (1 Sam. 14:7) (Amos 3:3; Matt. 18:19; Acts 2:1-4, 5:41-42). (See Agreement-Prayer, Consensus-Prayer, Fellowship-Praying, Oneness-Prayer).

490 - Transformation-Prayer (Rom. 8:29)

Fundamentally, the purpose of prayer—regardless of the various forms it takes—is for us to establish and maintain a relationship with God. When we establish a daily prayer time and seek to enter into a relationship with the Lord, we will be changed. Often, people aren't transformed through prayer because they make prayer something other than a relationship with God. When we experience the presence of God in our life, we will change for we cannot come face to face with God without being transformed in some way. If we don't allow prayer to change us, we become severely limited in what our future prayers can accomplish. Prayer must change us before it can change our circumstances. As we come into the presence of God, we must first submit to Him and all He wants us to do. Then treat prayer as a personal discipline that will transform us into dedicated disciples of Jesus Christ. Next we need to allow the love of God to flow into our lives to transform us and then share that love with those around us. Prayer focuses on God, which draws us toward God's transformational presence. "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose...to be transformed to the image of His Son" (Rom. 8:28-29, ELT). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Fruitful-Praying, Supernatural-Praying, Triumphant-Praying).

491 - Trial-Prayer (1 Peter 1:7)

We should pray when we suffer trials, knowing we are being purified of sin and character flaws. Trials make us more like Jesus Christ (Job 23:12; Pss. 66:10, 12; Prov. 17:3; Isa. 43:10; Mal. 3:3; James 1:3; 1 Peter 1:7; Rev. 2:10). (See Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer, Spiritual-Protective Prayer).

$492 - Trinity-Response\ Prayer\ (Matt.\ 3:16-17)$

We believe in one God in three eternal persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They are equal in nature but separate in person. The Father sent Jesus into the world (John 3:16), and the Father and Son sent the Holy Spirit (John 15:26) (Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14). (See Crown-Casting Worship, Face-Down Worship, Praise-Worthy Prayer, Worthy-Worship).

493 - Triumphant-Praying (2 Cor. 2:14)

We should rejoice in God for His greatness and power and for the victories He has accomplished in our lives. A triumphant prayer recognizes God's perfect plan in our lives and submits to His will. (See Fruitful-Praying and various Victory prayers).

494 - Trouble-Praying (2 Cor. 1:4)

Trouble is a by-product of life. "Yet man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward" (Job 5:7). How we deal with our troubles determines the quality of our life and the production of our hands. So we should (1) be prepared for trouble; (2) be tough so problems won't overwhelm us; (3) learn from each problem so we won't face it again; (4) have a strategy to handle all future problems; and (5) be willing to help others in their trouble (Gen. 3:17-19; Pss. 90:8-9; Eccl. 1:8, 2:22, 5:15-17; John 15:18; Heb. 12:3-12; 1 Peter 4:12-19). (See Pain-Praying, Protection-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer, Testing Response of Prayer).

495 - True-Heart Praying (Heb. 10:22)

We are exhorted to "draw near with a true heart" (Heb. 10:22). We come sincerely to the Father with a heart endeavor to know Him intimately. We come in full assurance that God exists, and that He will answer when we diligently seek Him. And we are to come to God with a pure conscience that is cleansed from guilt. (Pss. 73:28; Isa. 29:13; Jer. 30:21; Heb. 10:22; James 4:8). (See Confession-Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer, Honest-Praying, Intimacy-Prayer).

496 - True-Worshipers Prayer (Pss. 15:1)

Believers should live a God-conscious life so that when they enter the presence of God, their words match their actions (Pss. 1:1-4, 15:1, 24:3-5, 27:4, 84:4,10; 90:1-2, 91:1; Heb. 10:25). (See Face-Down Worship, Praise Worship-of God, Praise-Worthy Prayer).

497 - Trusting-Prayer (Rom. 11:33)

The human mind can never understand all that is revealed by God about Himself, and there is much about God we will never know or understand. Yet we worship God by faith, which means we trust Him for all He is, and we surrender our minds to worship His greatness (Pss. 107:8; Prov. 25:3; Rom. 11:33; Eph. 1:7, 3:18-21; Col. 1:27; Rev. 19:1-7). (See Believing-Prayer, Faith-Praying, Faith-Based Praying, Possibility-Praying, and various Worship prayers).

498 - Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer (2 John 1)

We should pray for a biblical balance between truth and love, so that we are grounded equally in both truth and love (John 8:32; Gal. 2:5, 14; 3:1; Col. 1:5; 2 Thess. 2:13; 1 Tim. 2:4; 1 John 2:21). (See Love-Expressing Prayer, Truth-Praying).

499 - Truth-Living Prayer (3 John 4)

An intercessor must know truth and then ask for strength and wisdom to live the truth. Since truth is what is consistent with and corresponds to the laws of the universe, we should pray to live a consistent life that reflects the laws of God (Hosea 14:9; Mal. 2:6; Gal. 2:14; Eph. 5:2; 1 John 1:6, 7, 2:6; 3 John 4). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Truth-Praying).

500 - Truth-Praying (John 18:32)

We cannot pray a lie in God's presence, for God is light, and no darkness can remain in His presence. In God's presence we cannot think a lie, believe a lie, nor speak a lie. Pilate stood before Jesus and asked, "What is truth?" not realizing he was standing before absolute truth. Then Pilate spoke the truth, "I find no fault in Him" (John 18:38-40). That's a truthful statement because there is no sin in Jesus. He is the perfect God-man (Matt. 27:18-21; Mark 15:11; Luke 23:4-16; 1 Peter 1:19, 2:22-23). (See True-Worshiping Prayer, Truth-Living Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

501 - Two-Prayer (Matt. 18:19)

God answers when two people agree and pray together for the request they both want from God. "Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven" (Matt. 18:19). (See Support-Prayer, Transfer-Faith Praying, Two-Pray Praying).

502 - Two-Way Worship Prayer (John 4:23)

As we give worship to God, we enjoy His presence. Jesus said, "The Father is seeking such to worship Him" (John 4:23), which means He comes with His presence when we worship Him. Therefore, worship is a two-way relationship (Pss. 100, 103:1, 104:1, 107:1; John 4:23; 1 Tim. 1:17). (See Face-Down Worship, Worship-Prayer, and various Worship prayers).

503- Unanswered-Prayer (James 4:3)

Unanswered prayer usually distresses us and many times it weakens our faith. That's because we view prayer from our perspective and not from God's point of view. When our prayers are not answered, we should ask ourselves, "Lord, what are You teaching me?" Maybe we have to go back to the beginning of prayer to learn the nature and purpose of prayer. God answers our prayers in three ways: yes, no, wait, and sometimes He says, "You've got to be kidding!" Sometimes we ask for things that would go against the very nature of God if He were to answer those requests. Nor can we ask God to go against the laws of nature. The same is true of prayers that contradict the nature of time. God doesn't undo history. On other occasions, God may not answer our requests because He wants us to do something about the issue. Sometimes God doesn't answer our prayers because we ask for things that are contrary to His plans. Some prayers are not answered because they fall within the "mystery of God," that is, God's unknown purpose (Rom. 11:33-36) (Job 27:8-9, 35:12; Pss. 18:41, 66:18; Isa. 1:15; Jer. 11:11; Micah 3:4; Zech. 7:13; 1 John 3:22). (See Deliverance-Prayer, Unbiblical-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

504 - Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer (Heb. 3:12)

We must recognize that we have an old nature that pulls us away from God and causes us to doubt. Therefore, we ask God to keep our hearts strong in faith, and we must be faithful to study the Scriptures, and to continually attend worship services, and to be faithful in serving Him (Matt 13:58, 17:20; Mark 9:24; Rom. 4:20; 1 Tim. 1:13; Heb. 3:12, 4:11). (See Temptation-Victory Prayer, Unpardonable Sin Unto Death-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

505 - Unbiblical-Prayer (James 4:3)

Sometimes we approach God with the wrong spirit or ask for selfish things, or we approach God with a sinful desire. God doesn't answer prayers that are contrary to His will, or that violate the laws of nature. We must pray for (1) our spiritually blinded eyes to be opened to see things as they are; (2) for our selfish spirit to be crucified with Christ; and (3) for wisdom to pray with the proper motivation (Job 27:8-10; Prov. 1:28; Isa. 1:15-16, 59:1-2; Matt. 20:22; Luke 15:12, 16:1 ff.; James 4:3). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Unanswered-Prayer, and various "No" Answers to Prayer prayers).

506 - Unknown-Answer to Prayer (Mark 9:24)

Sometimes we don't know if God has answered our prayer, or the extent of God's answers. And other times we may never know how God answered our prayer until we get to heaven. (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Diversionary Answer to Prayer).

507 - Unknown-Danger Prayer (Gen. 15:1)

This is when we ask God to protect us when we can't protect ourselves, and we don't know we are in danger. We ask God to protect us physically, spiritually, financially, socially, and reputation-wise. This is a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the ways He protects His people from dangers they know and don't know. God removed Adam and Eve from the garden to protect them from further complications in their relationship with Him. (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Triumphant-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

508 - Unlimited-Prayer (Phil. 4:13)

Because our strength is in Jesus Christ, we can pray for anything Christ can do. Since prayer is a relationship with God, we can do all things through prayer that Christ can do (Phil. 4:13). (See Interventional-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Supernatural-Praying).

509 - Unpardonable-Sin Prayer (Matt. 12:30-32)

What sin is so great that God would not pardon it? There are several views: (1) to attribute the miracles of Christ to satan, and this could be done only when Christ lived on earth; (2) to curse the Holy Spirit; (3) to continually sin so that one's heart becomes so hardened that he couldn't be saved; (4) to commit suicide because the person couldn't repent and ask forgiveness; (5) to die without receiving Christ which means the person rejected (blasphemed) every endeavor of the Holy Spirit to bring them to salvation (Isa. 1:18; Mark 3:29; John 8:44; 1 Cor. 11:29-30; Heb. 6:4, 10:26-29; 1 John 1:9, 5:17-18). (See Doubting God's Ability-Prayer, Sin Unto Death-Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer).

510 - Unsaved-Prayer (Acts 10:2)

God does not honor the prayers of unsaved people, nor does He hear the prayers of people in world religions that reject Jesus. Yet when any person outside Christ honestly seeks God and prays, God will hear them and save them when they pray in Jesus' name (Pss. 66:18; Isa. 59:1-2; Matt. 7:21-23; John 8:32, 10:9, 14:6; Acts 4:12, 10:2). (See Atheist-Prayer, False-Prayer, God Haters'-Prayer).

511 - Urgent-Prayer (Luke 11:1-11)

Sometimes we need an answer right away, or we feel an urgent need to pray and so we pray with a sense of urgency. (See Death-Facing Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Desperate-Prayer, Emergency-Prayer, Priority-Faith Prayer).

512 - Useful-Vessel Prayer (2 Tim. 2:20-21)

Christians are likened to all kinds of vessels, made from different materials, designed for different jobs. We should pray to be a clean vessel so we can be used of God, that is, "cleanses himself" (Acts 9:15; Rom. 9:21; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 2 Tim. 2:20-21; 1 Peter 2:5). (See Blocked-Prayer, Clean-Conscience Prayer, Hindrances to Prayer, Purity-Prayer, Yielding-Prayer).

513 - Victorious-Results in Prayer (James 1:12)

Our faith will be tested in many ways, and when we are victorious, we can pray with more authority and confidence. We will probably get more answers to our prayers after we are victorious, than before (Job 5:7, 13:15, 14:1; Pss. 94:12; Prov. 3:11-12; Heb. 12:5; James 1:12). (See Confident-Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Overcoming-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

514 - Victory Over Doubt-Prayer (Mark 11:23)

The cycle of doubt and despondency may be broken in a person's life by intercessory prayer. In a tangible answer to prayer, God may use things, events, testimony, or other things to break doubt or dependency (Gen. 45:26-28; Pss. 85:6; Hosea 6:2). (See Doubting God's Ability Prayer, Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

515 - Victory Over Temptation-Prayer (Heb. 2:18)

A prayer to be victorious over temptation with Jesus' help (Matt. 6:13; Luke 4:13, 22:40; 1 Cor. 10:13; Heb. 2:18; James 1:12). (See Temptation-Victory Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

516 - Victory over Trials-Prayer (James 1:12)

Knowing our faith will be tried or tested in many ways, we can pray for victory with authority and confidence. We will probably get more answers to our prayers after we are victorious over the test, than before. Remember, temptations come from satanic evil that wants to destroy us; but tests and trials come from God to strengthen us and validate our faith (Job 5:7, 13:15, 14:1; Pss. 94:12; Prov. 3:11-12; Heb. 12:5; James 1:12). (See Pain-Praying, Protection-Prayer, Unknown Danger-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

517 - Victory-Prayer (2 Cor. 2:14)

We can claim God's triumph over any internal or external conflicts in our life. (See Trium-phant-Prayer and various Victory prayers).

$518 - Vindication-Praise\ Prayer\ (Pss.\ 20:7)$

We should praise God when He has vindicated us because we have done right, or He has given us victory in any area of our life (Pss. 34:22, 125:1, 146:5; Jer. 17:7-8; 2 Cor. 2:14; James 5:10-11). (See Fruit-Producing Prayer, Reward-Prayer, and various Victory prayers).

519 - Vision-Motivated Prayer (Prov. 29:18)

God can give us a vision of how we can serve Him, where we can serve Him, and sometimes God gives what He wants us to accomplish. We must ask God to help us accomplish the impossible in serving Him. We must surrender our life to accomplish the vision God has given us (Gen. 29:18; Prov. 29:18; Hab. 2:1-4). (See Dream-Motivated Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Vision-Praying and various Faith prayers).

520 - Vision-Praying (Josh. 14:12)

Caleb trusted God to help him victoriously conquer the mountain that was his life-long vision. "It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall be able to drive them out"

(Josh. 14:12). It's one thing to have a dream/vision, but that is only the beginning. It's another step forward when you pray and work for your dream/vision. To capture your dream/vision involves God and man working together. By faith you have to work hard and work smart. And as you pray for your dream/vision, you have to know how God works to make your dream a possibility. (See Dream-Motivated Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Possibility-Praying, and various Faith prayers).

521 - Vow-Prayer (Rev. 10:6)

A vow is a solemn promise made to God in prayer. Usually this involves what the intercessor will do in specific service, behavior, or repentance to get an answer to prayer. Those who vow to God must keep their promise. Vowing in prayer does not mean bargaining with God, the Prayer Vow is only for those who want to go deeper into the presence of God and completely commit themselves to doing God's will. Actually, the Prayer Vow deals with our ability to choose. Not only must we choose God, we must also choose to do what God reveals. We should also be cautious before rushing into making vows in prayer. Making vows is permitted by God, but we need to be extremely cautious that we don't make unwise vows. Just as every disobedience weakens our will, every obedience strengthens our resolve. A reasonable place to begin might be to make a vow to be consistent in our daily quiet time with God. "But I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay what I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD" (Jonah 2:9) (Gen. 28:20-22; Judg. 11:30-31, 39; 1 Sam. 1:11; Pss. 132:2-5; Prov. 20:25; Acts 18:18; Rev. 10:6). (See Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Commitment-Prayer).

522 - Vow-Violation Prayer (Pss. 65:1)

This prayer deals with a violated vow or incomplete obedience concerning anything we promise to do for God. When we complete a fast and finish its time vow, we break our vow and eat. When we don't complete our vow-fast, or eat something contrary to our vow, it's called violating our vow-fast. We ask God's forgiveness for disobedience and God's help to completely obey anything we promised in the future. What should we do if we have made a vow and then fall? Get up and start again (Gen. 31:3, 9-13; Judg. 11:30; 1 Sam. 1:11; Pss. 65:1, 76:11; Eccl. 5:4; Jonah 2:9). (See Commitment Prayer, Forgiveness-Prayer, Repentance-Prayer, Sin-Stopping Prayer, Sin-Realization Prayer).

523 - Waiting Anxiously in Prayer (Pss. 42:6)

When we don't know what to do, or what to think, it's then we must trust what we know about God. We know He is there when we can't feel Him. We know He loves us when we don't experience it. We know He will do good because He said so. Trust is our solid rock assurance that what the Bible promises is true. So we must trust through our deep anxiety, knowing God's "deep" mystery is so much greater than our present "deep" anxiety (1 Sam.

30:6; Pss. 35:14, 43:5, 55:4, 5; 61:2, 142:2, 3; 143:3, 4; Mark 14:33, 34). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Reserved-Prayer, Wait-Prayer).

524 - Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer (1 Thess. 1:10)

This is our constant prayer in light of His any-moment return. Because He promised to return for us, we should live each moment to be pleasing to Him when He appears. We must ask God to make us patient for His coming when dealing with opportunities to serve Him. Also it's a prayer to help us properly anticipate His return, and in our renewed anticipation, to deal appropriately with sin and trials on earth (John 14:1-3; Rom. 8:24; Gal. 5:5; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 1:10; 2 Thess. 3:5; 2 Tim. 4:8; Titus 2:13; 2 Peter 3:12-14). (See Anticipating His Return, Waiting in Prayer, Watchful-Prayer).

525 - Waiting in Prayer (Acts 1:14)

When the disciples asked Jesus when He would return, He answered, "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons" (Acts 1:7), but to "tarry in the city of Jerusalem" (Luke 24:49). So "these all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication" (Acts 1:14). There are several ways to interpret this command to "tarry": (1) the Pentecostal urge to "tarry" in prayer at a church altar—or anywhere—until one receives what the disciples got on Pentecost, that is, the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the gift of speaking in tongues; (2) the dispensationalist view is that we will not know when Christ will return, but the emphasis is on "wait" and "look" for the second coming of Jesus, and to pray for His power in this age; and (3) the view that dedicated Christians will search for Jesus in prayer to know Him more intimately (Job 11:7; John 5:39; Acts 1:14, 12:5; Rom. 8:27; 1 Cor. 2:11). (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Reluctant Answer to Prayer, Wait-Prayer).

526 - Wait-Prayer (Pss. 27:14)

When we are praying to God we must realize that the timing may be wrong for an immediate answer. So we wait for His answer in His time. (See Delayed Answer-Prayer, Non-Anxiety Prayer, Peaceful-Living Prayer, Reluctant Answers to Prayer).

527 - Walk in the Spirit-Prayer (Gal. 5:16, 25)

To please God we seek help from the Holy Spirit to help us walk daily and live above the temptations of sin (Rom. 13:13; Gal. 5:16; 2 Cor. 5:7; Eph. 2:10, 5:1-2; Phil. 3:16; Col. 1:10, 2:6-7; 1 Thess. 2:12; 1 John 1:7). (See Crucifixion-Prayer, Filling of the Spirit Prayer, Holy Spirit-Prayer, Spiritual Strength-Prayer).

528 - Warfare-Protection Prayer (Rev. 12:7)

Believers recognize that we face continued opposition from satan, demons, and evil forces. This is not a "once-for-all" battle, but a constant prayer for protection from satan and for continued victory over His constant attacks against us (Matt. 16:18; Rom. 8:38; Eph. 6:12; Col. 2:15; 1 John 4:4; Rev. 12:7). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance-Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection-Prayer).

529 - Watchful-Prayer (1 Peter 4:7)

We should be ready at all times to meet the Lord because we don't know when He is coming. Only as we are "clear minded and self-controlled" can we pray effectively (Matt. 24:42, 25:13, 26:38; Rom. 12:12; Col. 4:2; 2 Tim. 4:5; 1 Peter 4:7; Rev. 16:15). (See Anticipating His Return, Waiting for Christ's Return, Waiting in Prayer).

530 - Weeping-Prayer (Acts 20:31)

Tears demonstrate our sincerity and genuine response to God. When God sees our tears, He recognizes our honest response before Him and will more likely answer our prayers. Perhaps we don't weep more often because: (1) our heart has become hardened by sin; (2) we've forgotten the reality of Jesus' presence in our life; (3) we have unconfessed sin in our life; (4) we've stopped studying the Scriptures; or (5) we are preoccupied with other concerns. Perhaps when we realize we've lost the presence of Jesus, as did Mary, then we too would weep (John 20:15) (Gen. 43:30; Num. 8:9; 1 Sam. 1:8; Pss. 126:5, 126:6; Eccl. 3:4; Ezek. 10:1; Luke 7:38, 22:62; John 11:35; Acts 20:31). (See Abandonment-Prayer, Suffering-Prayer, Tears in Prayer).

531 - Well-Digging Prayer (Pss. 84:6)

This is asking God to help you dig a well to find spiritual water to refresh your empty souls when we are thirsty to know God (Pss. 23:5, 34:8, 66:12, 84:6-7; Isa. 55:1-3; John 4:14, 6:35, 7:37-39; Rev. 22:17). (See Fellowship with Jesus-Prayer, Intimacy-Prayer, Searching for God in Prayer, Thirst-Praying).

532 - Widow's Fast and Prayer (Isa. 58:7)

The Widow's fast is "to share your bread with the hungry" and to care for the poor (Isa. 58:7), which means meeting the humanitarian needs of others. God sent the hungry prophet Elijah to a poor, starving widow—ironically, so the widow could provide food for Elijah. Just as Elijah's presence resulted in food for the widow of Zarephath, so presenting ourselves before God in prayer and fasting can be the motivation to provide for the humanitarian needs of others. (See Fasting-Prayer, Mountain-Moving Prayer, Others-Prayer).

533 - Will of God-Prayer (Eph. 5:17)

Because God has a plan for our life, we should pray earnestly to find His plan or will, and then ask for strength and wisdom to do it (Rom. 12:1; Eph. 5:17). (See Guidance-Prayer, Yielding to God Prayer).

534 - Wisdom-Directed Prayer (James 3:8)

Asking God to make us faithful and effective with the knowledge and wisdom we know (Prov. 1:5, 8:33, 9:12, 13:20; Dan. 2:21; Matt. 7:24; 1 Cor. 6:5; Gal. 6:4). (See Insight-Prayer, Knowing-God Prayer, Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Will of God-Prayer).

535 - Word-Praying (John 1:1, 14)

Jesus is the eternal Word of God (1) who communicates the majesty of God to us; (2) who brings us the message of salvation; (3) who shows all the attributes and nature of the Father. Worship is our only response to this revelation of Him (John 1:1-3, 14, 18; Col. 1:13-20; 1 John 1:1; Rev. 1:4-18). (See Bible-Praying, Scripture-Praying).

536 - Worker's-Prayer (2 Tim. 2:15)

This is a request to do our best in all tasks we do, and in whatever circumstances we find ourselves. It is a request for success in work, but also a prayer for God to be glorified in our work (Mark 14:6; John 17:4; Acts 13:2; 1 Cor. 3:13-15, 15:58, 16:10; Gal. 6:4; Col. 1:10; 2 Thess. 3:10-12; 2 Tim. 2:15; Titus 3:1; Heb. 13:21). (See Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Servanthood-Prayer, Service-Prayer).

537 - World-Rejecting Prayer (1 John 2:15)

We must recognize that we have an old nature that tempts us to the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes (things), and sinful pride. In prayer we must reject the world, the flesh, and the devil, and then choose to follow Jesus. This is a prayer to keep ourselves pure from the domination of lust (Josh. 7:21; Pss. 73:6, 78:18, 30; Prov. 6:25; Matt. 4:8, 5:28; Rom. 13:14; James 3:16; 1 John 2:15). (See Clean-Conscience Praying, Holiness-Prayer, Purity-Praying, Sin-Stopping Prayer, Yielding to God Prayer).

538 - Worship-Jesus Prayer (Rev. 1:6)

The total response of the heart to Jesus when His goodness and greatness are revealed to us. Because Jesus has all power, authority, and glory, we must respond by worshiping Him with all that's within us (Pss. 72:18-19; Dan. 4:34; Phil. 2:11; 1 Tim. 6:16; Heb. 13:21; 1 Peter 4:11, 5:11; 2 Peter 3:18; Jude 25; Rev. 1:6). (See various Praise and Jesus prayers).

539 - Worship-Ministry Prayer (Heb. 13:15)

We should minister to God with our worship by praise, music, service to others, and direct worship of God. We worship by giving God our time, talents, and service (Gen. 24:26; Exod. 12:27; 2 Sam. 12:20; Job. 1:20; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 5:14). (See Casting-Crowns Worship, Face-Down Worship, Worship-Prayer).

540 - Worshiping God in the Backyard (Pss. 134)

When David brought the Sacred Chest to Jerusalem, he put it on Mt. Zion (Pss. 134:3). The ark was not in the tabernacle which was at Gibeon, miles from Jerusalem. The ark was placed in Zion which is connected to David's palace (that is, in David's backyard; see 1 Chron. 16:37-18:5). Zion was the place of worship (Pss. 134). The tabernacle at Gibeon was the place to sacrifice for sins. The New Testament calls this the tabernacle of David (see Acts 15:16), meaning we don't have to worship in a place (the temple or tabernacle) but that we can worship anyplace, as David did in his backyard. We learn worship from Pss. 134 (Pss. 100, 134, 145-150; John 4:24; Heb. 13). (See various Worship prayers).

541 - Worship-Prayer (John 4:23)

The one thing God won't legitimately do is worship Himself. He has created all things to reflect His glory and we must reflect His glory in our worship of Him. Worship is giving the worthship to God for who He is and what He has done. We come to God to exalt and magnify God and bow in His presence to worship Him. We must worship God in "spirit," which means our spirit is completely focused on God. Also we come in "truth," which means we come according to the principles of prayer taught in the Word of God. (See Crown-Casting Worship, Face-Down Worship, Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, True-Worshipers Prayer).

542 - Worship-Roar Prayer (Rev. 19:6)

The spontaneous and unrestrained shout of praise, adoration, and worship to God. Since Christ must be magnified in all parts of our being, at times we can't control ourselves, so we shout our worship to God that sounds like the roar of thunder or a mighty waterfall (Ezek. 1:24, 43:2; Job 40:9; Pss. 29:3, 77:18, 100:1; Rev. 19:6). (See Crown-Casting Worship, Face-Down Worship, Loud-Rejoicing, Singing-Prayer, and various Worship prayers).

$543 - Worthy-Praying (Rev.\,4:11)$

When we realize that the only One worthy of our worship and adoration is God, we come to God to worship Him. Then we ask God to make us worthy of coming into His presence to offer our petitions to Him. Technically, nothing we do makes us worthy (John 14:23; Gal. 2:20; Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:27; 2 Thess. 1:11). (See Worship Ministry-Prayer, and various Worship prayers).

544 - Worthy-Worship Prayer (Rev. 5:9)

The title deed of heaven and earth could not be opened until Jesus the Lamb of God was slain to break satan's power, both over individuals and the earth. As a result, those in heaven cried, "Worthy" in worship to Jesus Christ. Now we worship God for His plan of the ages, and we worship God for His power that redeems all things, both believers and the universe (Gen. 3:17-19; Isa. 11:1-11; Ezek. 37:11-14; Rom. 8:18-25; Rev. 5:5, 22:1). (See Crown-Casting Worship, Face-Down Worship, Worship-Praise, Worship-Prayer).

545 - Wrestling-Prayer (Eph. 6:10-12)

Wrestling may involve a struggle with an old nature or it may involve wrestling with evil, demons, or satan himself. Wresting Prayer may involve constant petition, or "wordless" fervent intercession in God's presence when both God and we know what must be done. It involves persistence and a will to not give up until the answer comes (Dan. 10:1-14; 1 Cor. 9:25-27; 2 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 12:1-4). (See Defensive-Warfare Prayer, Deliverance Prayer, Hedge-Protection Prayer, Protection Prayer, Sin-Realization Prayer, Warfare Protection Prayer).

546 - Written-Prayer (1 Chron. 4:10)

Just as poets can capture their feelings and experiences in words, so written prayers can capture the deepest yearnings of our hearts. However, we should not rule out our spontaneity or conversation in prayer. Writing our prayers breaks us of meaningless repetitious prayers, and helps us become more focused on the actual substance of our requests. However, there are a few implied weaknesses when we begin reducing our heart's passion into words. Sometimes we read them without understanding the meaning behind the words. Every day we have new needs, no written prayer will be relevant to tomorrow's needs. Also, writing out our prayers can also cause us to focus on grammar and syntax instead of expressing the deep needs of our heart. (See First Prayer Each Day, Jesus' Prayer, Lord's-Prayer, Silent-Prayer).

$547 - Wrong\ Motives\ in\ Prayer\ (James\ 4:3)$

There are prayers we shouldn't ask God knowing the motives of our heart and wrong prayers are usually selfish. "You ask and do not receive because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures" (James 4:3). (See False-Prayer, Hypocritical-Prayer, Pretend-Praying, Questionable-Praying).

548 - Yearning-Prayer (Pss. 63:1)

The greatest yearning of a person is for God. The problem is many are hungry and thirsty but don't know what will satisfy them. Yearning for God involves: (1) searching for God in the Word and prayers; (2) emptying our hearts of the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life; (3) showing intimate fellowship with Christ; and (4) resting in His presence (Pss. 27:4, 8; 42:1, 2; 63:1; Isa. 55:1-3; Matt. 11:28-30; John 4:14, 8:12, 15:1-7). (See Hunger-Prayer, Thirst-Praying, Well-Digging Prayer).

549 - Yielding-Prayer (Luke 22:42)

Sometimes we must give up what we seek in prayer because what we want may not be in God's plan for our life. We must trust the wisdom of God and ask Him for His grace to live whatever results He sends. We must pray "not My will, but Yours, be done" (Luke 22:42). When we recognize God has a plan for our life, we must yield to God to accomplish that plan (Gen. 37, 50:20; Pss. 48:1-2; Jer. 24:5, 7; Rom. 8:28; 2 Cor. 4:15-17, 5:1; Phil. 1:19-21; James 1:3-4; 1 Peter 1:7-8). (See Commitment-Prayer, Guidance-Prayer, Service-Prayer, Will of God-Prayer).